Jill Biden Becomes a Style Icon: Move Over, Michelle Obama! - The Daily Beast

She may not have Obama's star wattage, but Dr. Jill Biden has become a style sensation. Isabel Wilkinson on how the second lady dresses "sexy," the economics of "The Biden Bump," and how Jill borrows her family's clothes.

When Dr. Jill Biden appeared on Larry King Live alongside her husband, Vice President Joe Biden, in November, she discussed education, the economy, and the military. But before the cameras started rolling, Biden's aides were busy helping the second lady select a dress that would be best for the appearance. They held up multiple options under the light in the studio, until Biden eventually ruled that a blue Diane von Furstenberg dress with a silk sash and capped sleeves would do the trick. She had worn the dress multiple times on the campaign trail—but it was no problem to recycle a dress for Larry King.

A 59-year-old schoolteacher and grandmother, Dr. Jill Biden is an unlikely style icon. While Michelle Obama's every outfit is scrutinized by the media and emulated by shoppers, Biden has developed a quiet following of women who feel she is an exemplar of everyday American style. When she appeared alongside Obama at a rally for Barbara Boxer in October, commenters on the Mrs. O blog, which chronicles the first lady's style, went wild for the second lady. "Jill Biden is the winner here!" one wrote. "Dr. Biden is ROCKIN'!!!" said another.

Since entering the White House, Biden has defined herself as a working mother who juggles her teaching job in Alexandria with appearances alongside her husband. She has championed causes such as Delaware Boots on the Ground, which supports military families, and Biden Breast Health Initiative, which educates girls about the importance of early detection of breast cancer. Fittingly, Biden wears functional clothes that allow her to transition from the classroom to the White House.

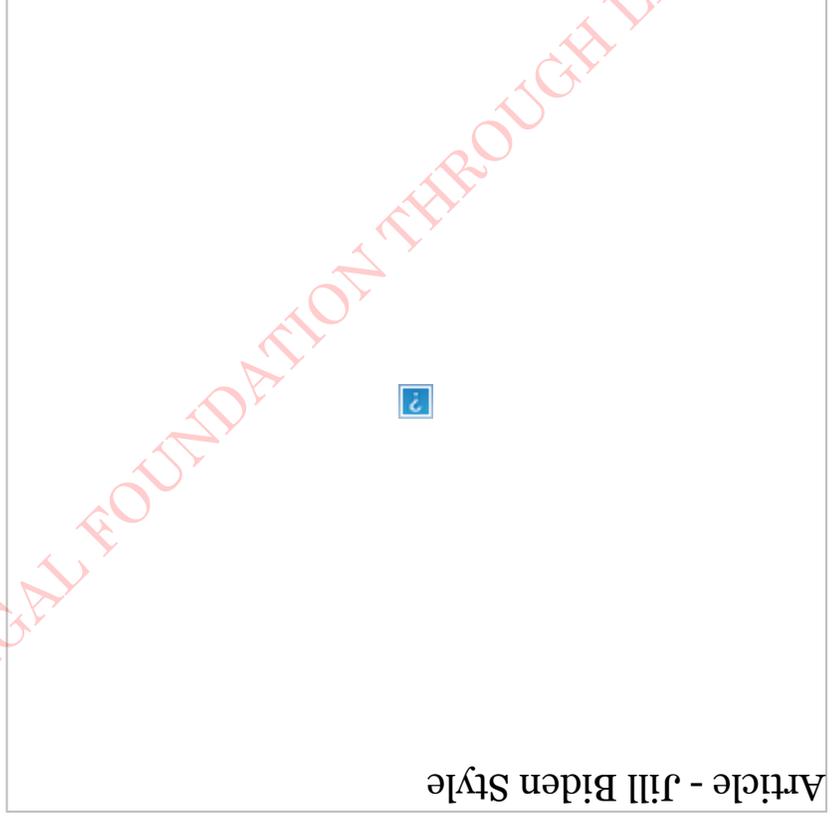

"Jill Biden has a very classic American sportswear look that a lot of women can relate to," says Mary Tomer, who runs the Mrs. O blog. Biden sticks to classics such as a tailored men's shirt or a simple shift dress while, as Tomer puts it, "Michelle Obama is always experimenting with different looks." And while Obama often wears a carefully curated mix of designer pieces and cheap items—everything from John Galliano to Talbots—Dr. Biden seems to wear inexpensive clothes because they work for her, rather than to prove a point.

Biden caught America's eye quite literally in 2009, when she wore a bright-red strapless dress designed by Reem Acra to the Inaugural Ball. As the designer told The Daily Beast, Biden's appearance in her dress was "the best thing I've done in my career." As she glided around the stage, one thing was immediately clear: The second lady wasn't afraid of the spotlight. And since then, she's stunned in a series of bright dresses that have attracted attention, such as a purple beaded gown, also by Acra, which she wore to meet the archbishop of Constantinople New Rome last year. "She cares about the people around her," the designer says. "And how she dresses is all about the people around her, too. When she's wearing purple, it's about the pope."

Gallery: Jill Biden's Style

Article - Jill Biden Style

But there's another thing about Dr. Biden: She's hot. She's a grandmother with a size 2 frame who often wears sample sizes from the designers who fit her for clothes. As such, she looks downright sexy—which has caused some to raise an eyebrow. "Jill Biden: Too Sexy for Her Boots?" one headline asked last year. While Mrs. Obama frequently wears kitten heels and a full skirt, Dr. Biden isn't afraid of sky-high stilettos. "She does have sex appeal, but she's always professional, and dresses in a way that she's taken seriously," says Milly designer Michelle Smith. Laura Dunn, who blogs about Biden at Political Style, says that while Biden's style is occasionally revealing, "I have never thought that any of Dr. Biden's outfits have been inappropriate."

Michelle Obama's fashion has been valued as a \$2.7 billion industry. But when Biden wears a dress, there's less evidence of an economic bump for the designer. On Inauguration Day in 2009, she chose a gray tweed dress by Milly. The company reissued the dress, calling it the Dr. Biden, and it became a bestseller. But according to Milly's designer Michelle Smith, there wasn't evidence of a "Dr. Biden bump" in sales. "It's hard to determine that without asking the customer, 'Did you see this dress on Dr. Biden before you purchased it?'" she says. "It's a little bit intangible, but I think it definitely helped." The lack of a Dr. Biden bump is due, in part, to the fact that she makes fewer public appearances than the first lady. But it is also likely because she wears fewer statement pieces. Compared to the first lady, it's much less obvious who Dr. Biden is wearing, rather than what: functional American clothes.

For one thing, Jill often borrows clothes from the many other Biden women. (The boots she wore with the Milly dress on Inauguration Day, for example, belonged to her daughter-in-law, Hallie.) But Biden's appeal is also due to her job at the Northern Virginia Community College, where she teaches three English classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The other days of the week, she's busy in her office, and shuttling around D.C. for official events. Her staff knows to keep Tuesdays and Thursdays completely clear, but there are odd days when official business coincides with her day job, and she's left to manage both. Such was the case at the annual Teachers of the Year event last year, when teachers from around the country came to D.C. to meet with the vice president and second lady. The event was scheduled on a Tuesday evening, which forced Dr. Biden to pull off a superwoman move: She ran into the bathroom in the English department on campus, changed in a stall, and emerged in a suit, ready for the big event.

And just as she did on the set of Larry King Live, Biden clearly plays a major hand in selecting her own clothes. Though designers send her look books and images from their collections, Biden steers clear of the celebrity-dressing circus that has defined a large corner of the fashion industry and, as one source close to her says, is still anonymous enough on the street to hit the mall before big events. "They're a hardworking, all-American couple," Tomer says of the Bidens. "And that's projected in Jill Biden's wardrobe." Alongside Mrs. Obama, with whom she has become close since they assumed their roles, Biden's fashion sends a message that she can do it all—without spending hoards of money. "I think it's an inspiration to see Jill Biden, who has accomplished so much, clearly taking care of herself—and on top of it has a great sense of style,” says Tomer. “These women are total packages, and their fashion is just the icing on top.”

Your tour has been scheduled for:

Sunday, September 26 at 5:50pm for 5 guests

Please remember: Photos are ONLY allowed in the Press Briefing Room or when outside. Please notify your guests of this policy before the tour.

You are now required to submit WAVES requests for your guests. If you do not submit WAVES requests at least 24 hours in advance, there is a possibility that your guests will not be allowed into the White House complex. Please arrive promptly and bring no more guests than listed above. Attached you will find a West Wing tour route map. The West Wing Tour Guide can be located online at: <http://www.eop.gov/tours/forms/West-Wing-Tour-Guide.pdf>. Additional information on West Wing Tours and other White House tours can be found at <http://www.eop.gov/tours>.

The Office of Management and Administration reserves the right to cancel tours at any time, up to and including the day and time of the tour. Tours will not be conducted if the President is in the Oval Office. Due to time constraints, canceled tours will not be rescheduled.

Please remember that you are responsible for your guests at all times. We encourage you to share the West Wing Tour Guidelines with your guests prior to their arrival.

Enjoy your tour.

West Wing Tour Guidelines:

- Guests should be advised to wear clothing appropriate for the nature of the West Wing – business or business casual. Badge holders are responsible for ensuring that all of their guests, including children, are dressed appropriately. Jeans and shorts are not allowed.
- Please conduct your tour at the time specified in your confirmation email and refrain from arriving early or late. Always follow the designated tour route.
- Tours must exit the White House complex by 10 pm nightly.
- Badge holders must sign-in at the USSS desk located in the WW basement entrance before conducting a tour regardless of badge color or office location.
- No food or beverages.
- There are stairs on this tour. If you have a guest that will require the use of a wheelchair, please let White House Tours know by responding to this email prior to the day of the tour.
- Please be mindful of other tours and move your group along in a timely manner.
- Staff cannot bring tours to East Wing, EEOB or other areas not located on the tour.
- Tours should enter the Brady Press Briefing Room from the driveway entrance, not through the Lower Press Office door.
- Stay within the roped areas of the Brady Press Briefing Room.
- Photos may be taken in the Brady Press Briefing Room.
- Do not stand at the podium, which will be roped off during tours. Because of the glass backdrop and panels and sensitive electronic equipment installed during the renovation, photos may only be taken while standing in front of or next to the podium/stage.
- Please be considerate of any members of the Press Corps who may be in the area working.

- Once the tour is completed, staff must promptly escort guest to the gate to depart the WH grounds via the Southwest Gate.

Now is the Time to Upgrade Missouri Railroads Regenerating the Transportation Network will Generate New Jobs

By R. Hunter Biden, former Vice-Chairman of Amtrak Board of Directors

In the late 19th and early 20th centuries, railroad pioneers like Louis Houck and Arthur Stilwell laid out tracks that galvanized Missouri.

Today, Missouri is helping to lay the groundwork for high-speed rail, which promises to be the greatest advancement in our nation's transportation network since we built our interstate highways. Like the interstate, high-speed rail will boost our mobility and productivity.

Missouri is one of nine states working to create the Midwest Regional Rail System. This initiative, in development for 14 years, calls for a 3,000-mile regional network emanating from a hub in Chicago. Trains would operate at speeds of up to 110 mph to connect towns and cities along key 100- to 500-mile corridors – such as between Kansas City and St. Louis - using existing rail rights of way.

The economic benefits this system could provide were outlined in a 2006 study led by Transportation Economics & Management Systems Inc., a Maryland-based consultant. The Midwest Regional Rail System would create about 5,600 new jobs in Missouri over 10 years. Missouri urban household income is expected to increase by $109 million, and greater development potential is projected to raise Missouri property values by $480 million.

This vision could soon get on track to becoming a reality.

Last year the Obama administration designated the passenger rail route between Kansas City and St. Louis as part of a potential high-speed rail corridor that would include Chicago, Milwaukee, the Twin Cities, Detroit, Toledo, Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville.

As I write this, the Federal Railroad Administration is about to announce its first grants for our nation's Intercity Passenger Rail Program. The grants, to be awarded in multiple rounds, ultimately will total $8 billion.

Missouri's grant application asks for $201.3 million to fund 11 rail projects, including $56.6 million worth of track and signal upgrades between Lee's Summit and Pleasant Hill. The upgrades would enable Amtrak trains to increase their speed from 79 mph to 90 mph through this growing corridor.

The high-speed rail grant submitted by Wisconsin, one of Missouri's partners in the Midwest Regional Rail System, includes a request for $50 million to purchase two new sets of locomotives and passenger equipment for the Kansas City-to-St. Louis route.

The improved infrastructure and equipment would make it much more convenient for business people and tourists to travel between the state's two largest metropolitan areas. This augmented mobility would benefit not only Missouri residents, but visitors from around the country and the globe, and would boost Missouri's stature as a tourist and business destination.

Some may argue that this is too much to strive for amid the tough economic times roiling our nation. But we need a grand vision and a strategy to grow our economy again, and high-speed rail is a key link in that strategy.

Recall how our interstate highways turbocharged America's economic engine. That engine now is in need of a major overhaul. And after decades of relatively modest investment in passenger rail, Missouri and the United States suffer from a shortfall of expertise and manufacturing in this crucial arena.

What we need is the rail equivalent of our interstate highway network. Ultimately we need a multi-year national strategy for high-speed intercity passenger rail with a dedicated source of funding.

Like the railroading pioneers of the 1800s and the interstate highway pioneers of the 1950s, let's roll up our sleeves and forge ahead to an exciting new chapter in our transportation history.

BIOGRAPHY

EDUARDO J. MARTÍ, PH.D.

On July 1, 2010, the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York appointed Eduardo J. Marti as the first Vice Chancellor for Community Colleges. An experienced educator who has led several community colleges with distinction for more than 25 years, Dr. Martí came to CUNY in 2000 as President of Queensborough Community College. Prior to that, he served for six years as President of Corning Community College of the State University of New York (SUNY), and for eight years, as President of SUNY's Tompkins Cortland Community College. Dr. Martí also served as Executive Dean of Tunxis Community College (Campus CEO, CAO) and Acting President of Middlesex Community College, both located in Connecticut.

An advocate for community college education, high standards and traditional values of education, Dr. Martí serves on the Board of Trustees of Teachers College at Columbia University, as well as the Community College Research Center Advisory Board of Teachers College at Columbia University. Additionally, he serves on the Board for the Hispanic Educational Telecommunications System (HETS), the Board of Governors of the Council for Aid to Education, and The College Board's Commission on Community Colleges. Having previously served on the Board of the American Association of Community Colleges (AACC), he was elected once again in March 2009. His terms on the Boards of Excelsior College and The California Community College Collaborative at the University of California, Riverside (C4) have recently expired. He has served as past President of the Association of Presidents of Public Community Colleges of the State of New York, a member of the ACE Commission on International Education, on the Board of the Cornell Institute for Community College Development, Chair of the Small and Rural Commission of the American Association of Community Colleges, member of the Executive Committee of the American Association of Community College President's Academy, member of the Commission on Secondary Education of the Middle States Association.

In November, 2006, Dr. Marti had the distinction of being asked by the transition team for New York Governor-elect Elliot Spitzer to serve on an Education Policy Advisory Committee. In May 2007, he was appointed by Governor Spitzer to the New York State Commission on Higher Education. In that capacity, he chaired the Workforce & Economic Development Committee of the Commission.

Active too, within each community of which he was part, Dr. Martí has held positions as President of the United Way of Tompkins County, member of the Private Industry Council of Steuben, Schuyler and Chemung Counties, and honorary member of the Ithaca and Corning Rotary Clubs. He is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Queens Chamber of Commerce and past member of the Board of Directors of the Queens Symphony Orchestra. Dr. Martí serves on the Board of the Queensborough Community College Fund, Inc., QCC's primary fundraising organization that opens the Bayside campus to the community by sponsoring numerous educational and cultural events and programs.

Three times a graduate of New York University, Dr. Martí holds the Bachelor of Arts, Master of Science, and Ph.D. degrees in biology from the institution. He is the recipient of the Founders Day Award from New York University and was chosen as the recipient of the New York University Alumni Association's Distinguished Alumnus Award in November 2007. In October 2008, the New York Post honored Dr. Marti with their Liberty Medal Award as a champion of human rights. He was previously named to the Honor Roll of the Phi Theta Kappa, the international honor society for two-year colleges.

As the recipient of a Fulbright-Hays Seminars Abroad award, he spent June 2004 traveling in China with leaders of minority serving institutions.

LACCD is over 200,000 students at 9 different colleges. Almost 95% of our students are minority students. All of our schools are designated Hispanic Serving Institutions and 2 are designated as Predominately Black Institutions.

Dr. Daniel LaVista became Chancellor of the Los Angeles Community College District on August 1, 2010.

Dr. LaVista, 66, was selected in April by the LACCD Board of Trustees to lead the nation's largest community college district.

Dr. LaVista previously served as Executive Director of the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia from August, 2004, until June, 2010. In that position, he provided day-to-day management of an agency that coordinated efforts among the 23 community colleges of the Virginia Community College System, along with the state's 16 public and two- and four-year colleges and universities, as well as private and out-of-state institutions.

Among his other responsibilities, Dr. LaVista chaired regular meetings of the presidents of Virginia's higher education institutions, and directed system-wide strategic planning and policy development. He also provided reports and recommendations about education policy issues to Virginia's Governor and General Assembly.

Before taking the Virginia position, Dr. LaVista had been the Executive Director of the Illinois Board of Higher Education. He also was president of two Illinois community colleges, McHenry County College and the College of Lake County, and was Chancellor for the Community Colleges of Baltimore County in Maryland.

Dr. LaVista, a native of upstate New York, earned a bachelor's degree from Siena College in New York. He went on to receive a master's degree from the University of Dayton and a Ph.D. in Speech and Dramatic Art from Syracuse University. He also earned a certificate for participation in Harvard University's Institute for Educational Management.

Dr. LaVista and his wife, Rosemary, have two grown children

♦ The Onion ♦ Strikes Comic Gold With Biden Spoofs

By ♦ JEREMY W. PETERS

Vice President ♦ Joseph R. Biden Jr. ♦ has never smashed a Whac-A-Mole game in a drunken fit. He has never invoked Freedom of Information laws ♦ to find out a female federal employee ♦s work schedule. And to the best of anyone ♦s knowledge, he has never ♦ washed his car in the White House driveway.

But to readers of ♦ The Onion, the satirical newspaper and Web site, the vice president has done all of those things, plus ♦ bounce a check for $39.50 to a liquor store ♦ and ♦ star in advertisements for Hennessy cognac ♦ that emphasize his international playboy swagger.

Political satire typically seizes on a public official ♦s foibles or flaws and exaggerates them ♦ ♦ Gerald R. Ford ♦s clumsiness, ♦ Bill Clinton ♦s fast-food cravings, ♦ George W. Bush ♦s malapropisms, for example. Turning the craft on its head, writers at The Onion have created a caricature of the vice president that is entirely incongruous with his public image. Of all Mr. Biden ♦s imperfections, being a womanizer and a drunk are not on the list. In fact, he does not drink and has been, by all accounts, a devoted husband and family man for more than 30 years.

The Onion ♦s portrayals of Mr. Biden began as traditional vice president jokes (♦ Biden Pardons Single Yam in Vice-Presidential Thanksgiving Ritual ♦) but writers there had an epiphany last year when they discovered that tweaking their caricature of the vice president into someone virtually unrecognizable from his public persona ♦ ♦ Biden To Cool His Heels in Mexico For a While, ♦ read one headline ♦ was comic gold.

The result has been endless fodder for Biden jokes ♦ too many, in fact, for The Onion to publish. So at a time when no major news media outlet has a reporter dedicated solely to covering the vice president, writers at The Onion are generating so many story ideas about Mr. Biden that editors have to turn them down.

♦We have a backlog of Biden jokes, ♦ said Will Tracy, The Onion ♦s associate editor. One idea Mr. Tracy said he had to nix: a spread by the vice president in Playgirl inspired by ♦Burt Reynolds, whose nude pose for Cosmopolitan in 1972 on a bearskin rug became an emblem of 1970s hedonism.

♦We decided it was almost too big time for him, ♦ Mr. Tracy said. ♦We like it better when Joe Biden is doing very small-time stuff, like getting kicked out of Dave & Buster ♦s, not appearing on the cover of a major national magazine. ♦

The articles perform extremely well on The Onion ♦s Web site. Since the story ♦Shirtless Biden Washes Trans Am in White House Driveway ♦ went online last spring, it has generated over half a million page views. The video ♦Biden Criticized for Appearing in Hennessy Ads ♦ has been viewed 450,000 times since it appeared in January. For a site that receives 7.5 million unique visitors each month, those are considerable numbers.

The Onion ♦s ♦reports ♦ on the vice president generally portray him in one of two molds: Boozy and brash, or slick and over-sexed. There was a report describing ♦how he flouted a ban from all Dave & Buster ♦s restaurants nationwide. ♦After he was barred from the Tempe, Ariz., location in 2007, the former senator would reportedly do burnouts in the parking lot with his Trans Am while waiting to pick up a waitress employed there at the time, a woman identified only as ♦Candi, ♦♦♦ it said.

He has also been known to Dumpster dive. One article blamed him for bringing a ♦bedbug ♦infestation to the White House ♦after hauling in an old, discarded recliner from the curb.

Then there is the womanizer who cockily refers to himself in the third person, seduces ladies named Lexus, and stars in a $28 million Hennessy advertising campaign (♦Sensual, Powerful, Biden, ♦ the tagline goes).

The randomness of it is precisely the point, writers said.

♦People kept trying to peg him as a buffoon, ♦ said Carol Kolb, head writer for The Onion News Network, the comedy newspaper ♦s online video producer. ♦We just abandoned that and put him in silly uniforms and had him opening a crab shack. ♦

This kind of humor does pose a risk for the comedians writing it, because it could easily fall flat with readers who are accustomed to more traditional forms of satire. Even some of the boldest comedy writers said they would be wary of trying it with their audiences.

◆The risk of it sometimes for us is that to know, to appreciate what◆s funny about doing that with Biden, you have to know that it◆s completely wrong and arbitrary,◆ said Jim Downey, a writer for◆◆Saturday Night Live◆◆who has written many of the show◆s political sketches. ◆People in the audience, even if they have no idea who Biden is, they might say, ◆Oh, I did not know that he was a bit of a dirty dog.◆ So it throws things off.◆

But The Onion has doubled down on its caricatures, even hiring a body double to pose in pictures so editors can Photoshop in Mr. Biden◆s head to create images of him, for example, washing his Trans Am ◆ in cutoff jeans and no shirt ◆ on the South Lawn of the White House. The caption: ◆Vice President Biden ditched a day of presiding over the Senate to ◆give the twin cannons some sun.◆◆◆

According to Onion writers, Mr. Biden is good humored about the parodies. They said they received word from one of the vice president◆s associates saying that Mr. Biden thought the articles were a riot. ◆We got an e-mail saying: ◆Keep it up. He really likes it,◆◆◆ Mr. Tracy said. ◆Apparently he◆s a fan.◆

But Mr. Biden◆s office said it was not aware of anyone on the vice president◆s staff who might have contacted The Onion to pass along his approval. A spokesman for Mr. Biden, Jay Carney, said the vice president was unavailable to be interviewed about his portrayal in The Onion.

◆Let me get this straight: You want to interview the vice president about stories about him in The Onion?◆ Mr. Carney asked, sounding at once amused and dumbfounded by the request. ◆Well, I◆ll give you credit for trying.◆

Mr. Tracy said he and other Onion writers found something very malleable about the vice president◆s everyman persona. ◆You could see him in a different context if he wasn◆t famous, if you just moved him in a little different direction.◆

Ms. Kolb chimed in, ◆He could be living in a houseboat.◆

◆That◆s actually a good idea,◆ Mr. Tracy added.

And another idea for a new Biden parody was born.

All,

Everyone is finally getting back from Vancouver/Paralympics and we are finally getting all of our documentation in order. I am still working on final totals, but I should have them shortly. According to Dennis' e-mail, it looks like I will be sending the following invoices:

Biden Family:

- * Ski Jumping:
 - USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- * Women's Hockey:
 - USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- * Pairs Figure Skating:
 - USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)

State Protocol:

- VAAP 1
- Opening Ceremonies:
USOC bought 4 tickets for athletes (State Dept Protocol will pay)

State Dept. Presidential Travel Services:

- * VAAP 2
- * Ski Jumping:
 - USOC bought 1 ticket for VP Staffer (State Dept Presidential Travel Services will pay)
- * Women's Hockey:
 - USOC bought 1 ticket for VP Staffer (State Dept Presidential Travel Services will pay)

Please correct me if I have anything wrong above. I will need a name and address for each of the three groups so I can properly put together the invoices. I will come back with the totals once they are finalized on our end. Let me know if you have any questions and thanks for your patience.

Best,

Desiree

Hi Everyone,

All the ticketing information below is correct, thanks Dennis!

VAAP 1 was secured for Valerie Jarrett's package- we were told without it, she could not go anywhere independently. This was a concern from her detail. Due to her status as an official delegate, Dennis is that something protocol would pay for?

VAAP 2 was for VPOTUS Advance staff in Whistler, to move between venues when the schedule got blown up. Tom, since this was necessary to support the VP's moves up there, is that something PTS would cover?

- USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- State Dept Protocol secured tickets via other channel for delegation/athletes

I don't know about the 2 VAAPS – Jessica, can you confirm?

Desiree, please send me an invoice for all tickets that State Dept Protocol is responsible for. State Dept Presidential Travel Services invoice should go to Tom Parrillo. Jessica will know about Biden Family.

Thanks!!
Dennis

Tom,

Thanks for getting back to me. I have copied Jessica and Dennis here too. I thought it would be helpful to loop them in on this discussion.

I have tried to get a run down of the tickets we purchased internally. There is a lot of flux within the USOC right now as they are breaking down USA House and moving back to Colorado Springs. So, I thought I would reach out to you all to see what you know you have paid for already. I believe Dennis paid for some tickets for figure skating, right?

Perhaps the best way to approach this it to get a list running and fill in the gaps. Once we are agreed on everything, we will send an invoice. Let me start a list:

- * Opening Ceremonies – 8 tickets? VANOC provided I believe, USOC may have paid.
- * Ski Jumping – 9 tickets? USOC purchased.
- * Alpine Downhill – tickets returned because of rescheduling of event. USOC managed.
- * Women's Hockey – 9 tickets? USOC purchased?

- * Pairs Figure Skating - ? (I need to go back to my records)
- * 2 VAAPS

I think that is it.

Best,

Desiree

Hi Desiree,

My apologies for not getting back to you sooner. I don't know what tickets have been paid for at this point, but I'm happy to work on finding that information out. Please let me know what I can do to help, and thank you again for all of your help.

Ms. Filippone,

Thank you for our phone conversation; I greatly appreciate your help in this matter. Per your request, I am e-mailing you the information that I need. My office will be paying for the tickets for the Vice President, Dr. Biden, and one staffer at each of the events that they attend. I understand that the third ticket is very much up in the air in many cases, and that the ticketing situation may change in the coming days. However, in order to be able to request the funding to pay for the tickets, I need a cost estimate by this evening. If possible, could you send me the known and projected cost data on the following:

- a. The tickets for the Vice President and Dr. Biden to the various events they will be attending.
- b. The ticket for a staffer to the same events.

I realize that the second figure for the staffer ticket will be an estimate at this point, but a ballpark figure will be helpful. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me via this e-mail or on my cell phone at 202-230-7435.

Best,

Tom

BIOGRAPHY

EDUARDO J. MARTÍ, PH.D.

On July 1, 2010, the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York appointed Eduardo J. Marti as the first Vice Chancellor for Community Colleges. An experienced educator who has led several community colleges with distinction for more than 25 years, Dr. Martí came to CUNY in 2000 as President of Queensborough Community College. Prior to that, he served for six years as President of Corning Community College of the State University of New York (SUNY), and for eight years, as President of SUNY's Tompkins Cortland Community College. Dr. Martí also served as Executive Dean of Tunxis Community College (Campus CEO, CAO) and Acting President of Middlesex Community College, both located in Connecticut.

An advocate for community college education, high standards and traditional values of education, Dr. Martí serves on the Board of Trustees of Teachers College at Columbia University, as well as the Community College Research Center Advisory Board of Teachers College at Columbia University. Additionally, he serves on the Board for the Hispanic Educational Telecommunications System (HETS), the Board of Governors of the Council for Aid to Education, and The College Board's Commission on Community Colleges. Having previously served on the Board of the American Association of Community Colleges (AACC), he was elected once again in March 2009. His terms on the Boards of Excelsior College and The California Community College Collaborative at the University of California, Riverside (C4) have recently expired. He has served as past President of the Association of Presidents of Public Community Colleges of the State of New York, a member of the ACE Commission on International Education, on the Board of the Cornell Institute for Community College Development, Chair of the Small and Rural Commission of the American Association of Community Colleges, member of the Executive Committee of the American Association of Community College President's Academy, member of the Commission on Secondary Education of the Middle States Association.

In November, 2006, Dr. Marti had the distinction of being asked by the transition team for New York Governor-elect Elliot Spitzer to serve on an Education Policy Advisory Committee. In May 2007, he was appointed by Governor Spitzer to the New York State Commission on Higher Education. In that capacity, he chaired the Workforce & Economic Development Committee of the Commission.

Active too, within each community of which he was part, Dr. Martí has held positions as President of the United Way of Tompkins County, member of the Private Industry Council of Steuben, Schuyler and Chemung Counties, and honorary member of the Ithaca and Corning Rotary Clubs. He is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Queens Chamber of Commerce and past member of the Board of Directors of the Queens Symphony Orchestra. Dr. Martí serves on the Board of the Queensborough Community College Fund, Inc., QCC's primary fundraising organization that opens the Bayside campus to the community by sponsoring numerous educational and cultural events and programs.

Three times a graduate of New York University, Dr. Martí holds the Bachelor of Arts, Master of Science, and Ph.D. degrees in biology from the institution. He is the recipient of the Founders Day Award from New York University and was chosen as the recipient of the New York University Alumni Association's Distinguished Alumnus Award in November 2007. In October 2008, the New York Post honored Dr. Marti with their Liberty Medal Award as a champion of human rights. He was previously named to the Honor Roll of the Phi Theta Kappa, the international honor society for two-year colleges.

As the recipient of a Fulbright-Hays Seminars Abroad award, he spent June 2004 traveling in China with leaders of minority serving institutions.

LACCD is over 200,000 students at 9 different colleges. Almost 95% of our students are minority students. All of our schools are designated Hispanic Serving Institutions and 2 are designated as Predominately Black Institutions.

Dr. Daniel LaVista became Chancellor of the Los Angeles Community College District on August 1, 2010.

Dr. LaVista, 66, was selected in April by the LACCD Board of Trustees to lead the nation's largest community college district.

Dr. LaVista previously served as Executive Director of the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia from August, 2004, until June, 2010. In that position, he provided day-to-day management of an agency that coordinated efforts among the 23 community colleges of the Virginia Community College System, along with the state's 16 public and two- and four-year colleges and universities, as well as private and out-of-state institutions.

Among his other responsibilities, Dr. LaVista chaired regular meetings of the presidents of Virginia's higher education institutions, and directed system-wide strategic planning and policy development. He also provided reports and recommendations about education policy issues to Virginia's Governor and General Assembly.

Before taking the Virginia position, Dr. LaVista had been the Executive Director of the Illinois Board of Higher Education. He also was president of two Illinois community colleges, McHenry County College and the College of Lake County, and was Chancellor for the Community Colleges of Baltimore County in Maryland.

Dr. LaVista, a native of upstate New York, earned a bachelor's degree from Siena College in New York. He went on to receive a master's degree from the University of Dayton and a Ph.D. in Speech and Dramatic Art from Syracuse University. He also earned a certificate for participation in Harvard University's Institute for Educational Management.

Dr. LaVista and his wife, Rosemary, have two grown children

All,

Everyone is finally getting back from Vancouver/Paralympics and we are finally getting all of our documentation in order. I am still working on final totals, but I should have them shortly. According to Dennis' e-mail, it looks like I will be sending the following invoices:

Biden Family:

- * Ski Jumping:
 - USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- * Women's Hockey:
 - USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)

- * Pairs Figure Skating:
- USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)

State Protocol:

- VAAP 1
- Opening Ceremonies:
USOC bought 4 tickets for athletes (State Dept Protocol will pay)

State Dept. Presidential Travel Services:

- * VAAP 2
- * Ski Jumping:
- USOC bought 1 ticket for VP Staffer (State Dept Presidential Travel Services will pay)
- * Women's Hockey:
- USOC bought 1 ticket for VP Staffer (State Dept Presidential Travel Services will pay)

Please correct me if I have anything wrong above. I will need a name and address for each of the three groups so I can properly put together the invoices. I will come back with the totals once they are finalized on our end. Let me know if you have any questions and thanks for your patience.

Best,

Hi Everyone,

All the ticketing information below is correct, thanks Dennis!

VAAP 1 was secured for Valerie Jarrett's package- we were told without it, she could not go anywhere independently. This was a concern from her detail. Due to her status as an official delegate, Dennis is that something protocol would pay for?

VAAP 2 was for VPOTUS Advance staff in Whistler, to move between venues when the schedule got blown up. Tom, since this was necessary to support the VP's moves up there, is that something PTS would cover?

Hi everyone,

Doesn't this all seem like ages to go?? Here's what I know about the tickets:

Opening Ceremonies:

- VANOC gave us 4 comp tickets for VP, Dr Biden, Jarrett, and Jacobson
- USOC bought 4 tickets for athletes (State Dept Protocol will pay)
- No tickets for Biden family

Ski Jumping:

- USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- USOC bought 1 ticket for VP Staffer (State Dept Presidential Travel Services will pay)
- No tickets purchased for delegation/athletes

Alpine Downhill:

- All tickets (8 for Biden Family and 1 for VP staffer) returned

Women's Hockey:

- USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- USOC bought 1 ticket for VP Staffer (State Dept Presidential Travel Services will pay)
- No tickets purchased for delegation/athletes

Pairs Figure Skating:

- USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- State Dept Protocol secured tickets via other channel for delegation/athletes

I don't know about the 2 VAAPS – Jessica, can you confirm?

Desiree, please send me an invoice for all tickets that State Dept Protocol is responsible for. State Dept Presidential Travel Services invoice should go to Tom Parrillo. Jessica will know about Biden Family.

Thanks!!

Tom,

Thanks for getting back to me. I have copied Jessica and Dennis here too. I thought it would be helpful to loop them in on this discussion.

I have tried to get a run down of the tickets we purchased internally. There is a lot of flux within the USOC right now as they are breaking down USA House and moving back to Colorado Springs. So, I thought I would reach out to you all to see what you know you have paid for already. I believe Dennis paid for some tickets for figure skating, right?

Perhaps the best way to approach this it to get a list running and fill in the gaps. Once we are agreed on everything, we will send an invoice. Let me start a list:

- * Opening Ceremonies – 8 tickets? VANOC provided I believe, USOC may have paid.
- * Ski Jumping – 9 tickets? USOC purchased.
- * Alpine Downhill – tickets returned because of rescheduling of event. USOC managed.
- * Women's Hockey – 9 tickets? USOC purchased?
- * Pairs Figure Skating - ? (I need to go back to my records)
- * 2 VAAPS

I think that is it.

Ms. Filippone,

Thank you for our phone conversation; I greatly appreciate your help in this matter. Per your request, I am e-mailing you the information that I need. My office will be paying for the tickets for the Vice President, Dr. Biden, and one staffer at each of the events that they attend. I understand that the third ticket is very much up in the air in many cases, and that the ticketing situation may change in the coming days. However, in order to be able to request the funding to pay for the tickets, I need a cost estimate by this evening. If possible, could you send me the known and projected cost data on the following:

- a. The tickets for the Vice President and Dr. Biden to the various events they will be attending.
- b. The ticket for a staffer to the same events.

I realize that the second figure for the staffer ticket will be an estimate at this point, but a ballpark figure will be helpful. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me via this e-mail or on my cell phone at 202-230-7435.

Subject: Invoices: Ticket Costs for Vice President's Delegation

All,

Everyone is finally getting back from Vancouver/Paralympics and we are finally getting all of our documentation in order. I am still working on final totals, but I should have them shortly. According to Dennis' e-mail, it looks like I will be sending the following invoices:

Biden Family:

- * Ski Jumping:
 - USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- * Women's Hockey:
 - USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- * Pairs Figure Skating:
 - USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)

State Protocol:

- VAAP 1
- Opening Ceremonies:
 - USOC bought 4 tickets for athletes (State Dept Protocol will pay)

State Dept. Presidential Travel Services:

- * VAAP 2
- * Ski Jumping:
 - USOC bought 1 ticket for VP Staffer (State Dept Presidential Travel Services will pay)
- * Women's Hockey:
 - USOC bought 1 ticket for VP Staffer (State Dept Presidential Travel Services will pay)

Please correct me if I have anything wrong above. I will need a name and address for each of the three groups so I can properly put together the invoices. I will come back with the totals once they are finalized on our end. Let me know if you have any questions and thanks for your patience.

Best,

Hi Everyone,

All the ticketing information below is correct, thanks Dennis!

VAAP 1 was secured for Valerie Jarrett's package- we were told without it, she could not go anywhere independently. This was a concern from her detail. Due to her status as an official delegate, Dennis is that something protocol would pay for?

VAAP 2 was for VPOTUS Advance staff in Whistler, to move between venues when the schedule got blown up. Tom, since this was necessary to support the VP's moves up there, is that something PTS would cover?

Hi everyone,

Doesn't this all seem like ages to go?? Here's what I know about the tickets:

Opening Ceremonies:

- VANOC gave us 4 comp tickets for VP, Dr Biden, Jarrett, and Jacobson
- USOC bought 4 tickets for athletes (State Dept Protocol will pay)
- No tickets for Biden family

Ski Jumping:

- USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- USOC bought 1 ticket for VP Staffer (State Dept Presidential Travel Services will pay)
- No tickets purchased for delegation/athletes

Alpine Downhill:

- All tickets (8 for Biden Family and 1 for VP staffer) returned

Women's Hockey:

- USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- USOC bought 1 ticket for VP Staffer (State Dept Presidential Travel Services will pay)
- No tickets purchased for delegation/athletes

Pairs Figure Skating:

- USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- State Dept Protocol secured tickets via other channel for delegation/athletes

I don't know about the 2 VAAPS – Jessica, can you confirm?

Desiree, please send me an invoice for all tickets that State Dept Protocol is responsible for. State Dept Presidential Travel Services invoice should go to Tom Parrillo. Jessica will know about Biden Family.

Thanks!!
Dennis

Tom,

Thanks for getting back to me. I have copied Jessica and Dennis here too. I thought it would be helpful to loop them in on this discussion.

I have tried to get a run down of the tickets we purchased internally. There is a lot of flux within the USOC right now as they are breaking down USA House and moving back to Colorado Springs. So, I thought I would reach out to you all to see what you know you have paid for already. I believe Dennis paid for some tickets for figure skating, right?

Perhaps the best way to approach this is to get a list running and fill in the gaps. Once we are agreed on everything, we will send an invoice. Let me start a list:

- * Opening Ceremonies – 8 tickets? VANOC provided I believe, USOC may have paid.
- * Ski Jumping – 9 tickets? USOC purchased.
- * Alpine Downhill – tickets returned because of rescheduling of event. USOC managed.
- * Women's Hockey – 9 tickets? USOC purchased?
- * Pairs Figure Skating - ? (I need to go back to my records)
- * 2 VAAPS

I think that is it.

Best,

Desiree

Ms. Filippone,

Thank you for our phone conversation; I greatly appreciate your help in this matter. Per your request, I am e-mailing you the information that I need. My office will be paying for the tickets for the Vice President, Dr. Biden, and one staffer at each of the events that they attend. I understand that the third ticket is very much up in the air in many cases, and that the ticketing situation may change in the coming days. However, in order to be able to request the funding to pay for the tickets, I need a cost estimate by this evening. If possible, could you send me the known and projected cost data on the following:

- a. The tickets for the Vice President and Dr. Biden to the various events they will be attending.
- b. The ticket for a staffer to the same events.

I realize that the second figure for the staffer ticket will be an estimate at this point, but a ballpark figure will be helpful. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me via this e-mail or on my cell phone at 202-230-7435.

Now is the Time to Upgrade Missouri Railroads Regenerating the Transportation Network will Generate New Jobs

By R. Hunter Biden, former Vice-Chairman of Amtrak Board of Directors

In the late 19th and early 20th centuries, railroad pioneers like Louis Houck and Arthur Stilwell laid out tracks that galvanized Missouri.

Today, Missouri is helping to lay the groundwork for high-speed rail, which promises to be the greatest advancement in our nation's transportation network since we built our interstate highways. Like the interstate, high-speed rail will boost our mobility and productivity.

Missouri is one of nine states working to create the Midwest Regional Rail System. This initiative, in development for 14 years, calls for a 3,000-mile regional network emanating from a hub in Chicago. Trains would operate at speeds of up to 110 mph to connect towns and cities along key 100- to 500-mile corridors – such as between Kansas City and St. Louis - using existing rail rights of way.

The economic benefits this system could provide were outlined in a 2006 study led by Transportation Economics & Management Systems Inc., a Maryland-based consultant. The Midwest Regional Rail System would create about 5,600 new jobs in Missouri over 10 years. Missouri urban household income is expected to increase by $109 million, and greater development potential is projected to raise Missouri property values by $480 million.

This vision could soon get on track to becoming a reality.

Last year the Obama administration designated the passenger rail route between Kansas City and St. Louis as part of a potential high-speed rail corridor that would include Chicago, Milwaukee, the Twin Cities, Detroit, Toledo, Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville.

As I write this, the Federal Railroad Administration is about to announce its first grants for our nation's Intercity Passenger Rail Program. The grants, to be awarded in multiple rounds, ultimately will total $8 billion.

Missouri's grant application asks for $201.3 million to fund 11 rail projects, including $56.6 million worth of track and signal upgrades between Lee's Summit and Pleasant Hill. The upgrades would enable Amtrak trains to increase their speed from 79 mph to 90 mph through this growing corridor.

The high-speed rail grant submitted by Wisconsin, one of Missouri's partners in the Midwest Regional Rail System, includes a request for $50 million to purchase two new sets of locomotives and passenger equipment for the Kansas City-to-St. Louis route.

The improved infrastructure and equipment would make it much more convenient for business people and tourists to travel between the state's two largest metropolitan areas. This augmented mobility would benefit not only Missouri residents, but visitors from around the country and the globe, and would boost Missouri's stature as a tourist and business destination.

Some may argue that this is too much to strive for amid the tough economic times roiling our nation. But we need a grand vision and a strategy to grow our economy again, and high-speed rail is a key link in that strategy.

Recall how our interstate highways turbocharged America's economic engine. That engine now is in need of a major overhaul. And after decades of relatively modest investment in passenger rail, Missouri and the United States suffer from a shortfall of expertise and manufacturing in this crucial arena.

What we need is the rail equivalent of our interstate highway network. Ultimately we need a multi-year national strategy for high-speed intercity passenger rail with a dedicated source of funding.

Like the railroading pioneers of the 1800s and the interstate highway pioneers of the 1950s, let's roll up our sleeves and forge ahead to an exciting new chapter in our transportation history.

Everyone is finally getting back from Vancouver/Paralympics and we are finally getting all of our documentation in order. I am still working on final totals, but I should have them shortly. According to Dennis' e-mail, it looks like I will be sending the following invoices:

Biden Family:

- * Ski Jumping:
 - USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- * Women's Hockey:
 - USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- * Pairs Figure Skating:
 - USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)

State Protocol:

- VAAP 1
- Opening Ceremonies:
USOC bought 4 tickets for athletes (State Dept Protocol will pay)

State Dept. Presidential Travel Services:

- * VAAP 2
- * Ski Jumping:
 - USOC bought 1 ticket for VP Staffer (State Dept Presidential Travel Services will pay)
- * Women's Hockey:
 - USOC bought 1 ticket for VP Staffer (State Dept Presidential Travel Services will pay)

Please correct me if I have anything wrong above. I will need a name and address for each of the three groups so I can properly put together the invoices. I will come back with the totals once they are finalized on our end. Let me know if you have any questions and thanks for your patience.

Best,

Desiree

Hi Everyone,

All the ticketing information below is correct, thanks Dennis!

VAAP 1 was secured for Valerie Jarrett's package- we were told without it, she could not go anywhere independently. This was a concern from her detail. Due to her status as an official delegate, Dennis is that something protocol would pay for?

VAAP 2 was for VPOTUS Advance staff in Whistler, to move between venues when the schedule got blown up. Tom, since this was necessary to support the VP's moves up there, is that something PTS would cover?

Hi everyone,

Doesn't this all seem like ages to go?? Here's what I know about the tickets:

Opening Ceremonies:

- VANOC gave us 4 comp tickets for VP, Dr Biden, Jarrett, and Jacobson
- USOC bought 4 tickets for athletes (State Dept Protocol will pay)
- No tickets for Biden family

Ski Jumping:

- USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- USOC bought 1 ticket for VP Staffer (State Dept Presidential Travel Services will pay)
- No tickets purchased for delegation/athletes

Alpine Downhill:

- All tickets (8 for Biden Family and 1 for VP staffer) returned

Women's Hockey:

- USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- USOC bought 1 ticket for VP Staffer (State Dept Presidential Travel Services will pay)
- No tickets purchased for delegation/athletes

Pairs Figure Skating:

- USOC bought 8 tickets for Biden Family (Biden Family will pay)
- State Dept Protocol secured tickets via other channel for delegation/athletes

I don't know about the 2 VAAPS – Jessica, can you confirm?

Desiree, please send me an invoice for all tickets that State Dept Protocol is responsible for. State Dept Presidential Travel Services invoice should go to Tom Parrillo. Jessica will know about Biden Family.

Thanks!!
Dennis

Tom,

Thanks for getting back to me. I have copied Jessica and Dennis here too. I thought it would be helpful to loop them in on this discussion.

I have tried to get a run down of the tickets we purchased internally. There is a lot of flux within the USOC right now as they are breaking down USA House and moving back to Colorado Springs. So, I thought I would reach out to you all to see what you know you have paid for already. I believe Dennis paid for some tickets for figure skating, right?

Perhaps the best way to approach this it to get a list running and fill in the gaps. Once we are agreed on everything, we will send an invoice. Let me start a list:

- * Opening Ceremonies – 8 tickets? VANOC provided I believe, USOC may have paid.
- * Ski Jumping – 9 tickets? USOC purchased.
- * Alpine Downhill – tickets returned because of rescheduling of event. USOC managed.

- * Women's Hockey – 9 tickets? USOC purchased?
- * Pairs Figure Skating - ? (I need to go back to my records)
- * 2 VAAPS

I think that is it.

Best,

Desiree

Hi Desiree,

My apologies for not getting back to you sooner. I don't know what tickets have been paid for at this point, but I'm happy to work on finding that information out. Please let me know what I can do to help, and thank you again for all of your help.

Best,

Tom

Tom,

I am just trying to run down what has been paid for with the opening ceremonies delegation. DO you know what tickets were paid for already by the USG?

Ms. Filippone,

Thank you for our phone conversation; I greatly appreciate your help in this matter. Per your request, I am e-mailing you the information that I need. My office will be paying for the tickets for the Vice President, Dr. Biden, and one staffer at each of the events that they attend. I understand that the third ticket is very much up in the air in many cases, and that the ticketing situation may change in the coming days. However, in order to be able to request the funding to pay for the tickets, I need a cost estimate by this evening. If possible, could you send me the known and projected cost data on the following:

- a. The tickets for the Vice President and Dr. Biden to the various events they will be attending.
- b. The ticket for a staffer to the same events.

I realize that the second figure for the staffer ticket will be an estimate at this point, but a ballpark figure will be helpful. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me via this e-mail or on my cell phone at 202-230-7435.

Best,

Tom

BIOGRAPHY

EDUARDO J. MARTÍ, PH.D.

On July 1, 2010, the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York appointed Eduardo J. Marti as the first Vice Chancellor for Community Colleges. An experienced educator who has led several community colleges with distinction for more than 25 years, Dr. Martí came to CUNY in 2000 as President of Queensborough Community College. Prior to that, he served for six years as President of Corning Community College of the State University of New York (SUNY), and for eight years, as President of SUNY's Tompkins Cortland Community College. Dr. Martí also served as Executive Dean of Tunxis Community College (Campus CEO, CAO) and Acting President of Middlesex Community College, both located in Connecticut.

An advocate for community college education, high standards and traditional values of education, Dr. Martí serves on the Board of Trustees of Teachers College at Columbia University, as well as the Community College Research Center Advisory Board of Teachers College at Columbia University. Additionally, he serves on the Board for the Hispanic Educational Telecommunications System (HETS), the Board of Governors of the Council for Aid to Education, and The College Board's Commission on Community Colleges. Having previously served on the Board of the American Association of Community Colleges (AACC), he was elected once again in March 2009. His terms on the Boards of Excelsior College and The California Community College Collaborative at the University of California, Riverside (C4) have recently expired. He has served as past President of the Association of Presidents of Public Community Colleges of the State of New York, a member of the ACE Commission on International Education, on the Board of the Cornell Institute for Community College Development, Chair of the Small and Rural Commission of the American Association of Community Colleges, member of the Executive Committee of the American Association of Community College President's Academy, member of the Commission on Secondary Education of the Middle States Association.

In November, 2006, Dr. Marti had the distinction of being asked by the transition team for New York Governor-elect Elliot Spitzer to serve on an Education Policy Advisory Committee. In May 2007, he was appointed by Governor Spitzer to the New York State Commission on Higher Education. In that capacity, he chaired the Workforce & Economic Development Committee of the Commission.

Active too, within each community of which he was part, Dr. Martí has held positions as President of the United Way of Tompkins County, member of the Private Industry Council of Steuben, Schuyler and Chemung Counties, and honorary member of the Ithaca and Corning Rotary Clubs. He is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Queens Chamber of Commerce and past member of the Board of Directors of the Queens Symphony Orchestra. Dr. Martí serves on the Board of the Queensborough Community College Fund, Inc., QCC's primary fundraising organization that opens the Bayside campus to the community by sponsoring numerous educational and cultural events and programs.

Three times a graduate of New York University, Dr. Martí holds the Bachelor of Arts, Master of Science, and Ph.D. degrees in biology from the institution. He is the recipient of the Founders Day Award from New York University and was chosen as the recipient of the New York University Alumni Association's Distinguished Alumnus Award in November 2007. In October 2008, the New York Post honored Dr. Marti with their Liberty Medal Award as a champion of human rights. He was previously named to the Honor Roll of the Phi Theta Kappa, the international honor society for two-year colleges.

As the recipient of a Fulbright-Hays Seminars Abroad award, he spent June 2004 traveling in China with leaders of minority serving institutions.

LACCD is over 200,000 students at 9 different colleges. Almost 95% of our students are minority students. All of our schools are designated Hispanic Serving Institutions and 2 are designated as Predominately Black Institutions.

Dr. Daniel LaVista became Chancellor of the Los Angeles Community College District on August 1, 2010.

Dr. LaVista, 66, was selected in April by the LACCD Board of Trustees to lead the nation's largest community college district.

Dr. LaVista previously served as Executive Director of the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia from August, 2004, until June, 2010. In that position, he provided day-to-day management of an agency that coordinated efforts among the 23 community colleges of the Virginia Community College System, along with the state's 16 public and two- and four-year colleges and universities, as well as private and out-of-state institutions.

Among his other responsibilities, Dr. LaVista chaired regular meetings of the presidents of Virginia's higher education institutions, and directed system-wide strategic planning and policy development. He also provided reports and recommendations about education policy issues to Virginia's Governor and General Assembly.

Before taking the Virginia position, Dr. LaVista had been the Executive Director of the Illinois Board of Higher Education. He also was president of two Illinois community colleges, McHenry County College and the College of Lake County, and was Chancellor for the Community Colleges of Baltimore County in Maryland.

Dr. LaVista, a native of upstate New York, earned a bachelor's degree from Siena College in New York. He went on to receive a master's degree from the University of Dayton and a Ph.D. in Speech and Dramatic Art from Syracuse University. He also earned a certificate for participation in Harvard University's Institute for Educational Management.

Dr. LaVista and his wife, Rosemary, have two grown children
