The Vice President
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

November 30, 2012

Dear Mr. Vice President:

In my position as Senior Fellow of the UCLA Burkle Center for International Relations, Burkle Center Director Kal Raustiala and I would like to invite you to deliver the annual Bernard Brodie Distinguished Lecture on the Conditions of Peace to an audience of the UCLA community of students, faculty, staff, and alumni.

The annual Bernard Brodie Distinguished Lecture was established in 1980 to celebrate the memory of eminent scholar Bernard Brodie. Over the years, the Brodie Lecture Series has featured many well-known dignitaries, including former President Jimmy Carter, former U.S. Secretary of State Warren Christopher, General Carl Vuono (Ret.), former National Security Advisor Brent Scowcroft, and former Secretaries of Defense Robert McNamara, William Perry, and William Cohen, as well as economist and Nobel Prize Laureate Thomas Schelling. Our two most recent Distinguished Brodie Lecturers were Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Admiral Mike Mullen in 2010 and Senator George Mitchell in Conversation with NPR's Renee Montagne in 2011.

As you may know, UCLA is one of the preeminent universities in the nation. The Burkle Center for International Relations, established in 1979, is a West Coast leader in the interdisciplinary study of global affairs. It fosters cutting-edge research, hosts world leaders and renowned scholars, and encourages faculty and students to explore and shape debate by promoting discussion of international relations, foreign policy and complex global issues. The Burkle Center website, www.international.ucla.edu/burkle, provides additional information about the Center and its activities.

We hope that your schedule will permit you to accept our invitation. While we would prefer the fall quarter, we would be honored to welcome you at any time during the 2012-13 academic year. The year begins on September 22, 2012 and ends on June 8, 2013. The Burkle Center will of course cover reasonable travel expenses to Los Angeles and accommodations while here.

If your schedule permits, Mr. Ron Burkle would be pleased to host a private dinner in your honor at his private estate, Green Acres, following your speech.

The Vice President
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

November 30, 2012

Dear Mr. Vice President:

In my position as Senior Fellow of the UCLA Burkle Center for International Relations, Burkle Center Director Kal Raustiala and I would like to invite you to deliver the annual Bernard Brodie Distinguished Lecture on the Conditions of Peace to an audience of the UCLA community of students, faculty, staff, and alumni.

The annual Bernard Brodie Distinguished Lecture was established in 1980 to celebrate the memory of eminent scholar Bernard Brodie. Over the years, the Brodie Lecture Series has featured many well-known dignitaries, including former President Jimmy Carter, former U.S. Secretary of State Warren Christopher, General Carl Vuono (Ret.), former National Security Advisor Brent Scowcroft, and former Secretaries of Defense Robert McNamara, William Perry, and William Cohen, as well as economist and Nobel Prize Laureate Thomas Schelling. Our two most recent Distinguished Brodie Lecturers were Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Admiral Mike Mullen in 2010 and Senator George Mitchell in Conversation with NPR's Renee Montagne in 2011.

As you may know, UCLA is one of the preeminent universities in the nation. The Burkle Center for International Relations, established in 1979, is a West Coast leader in the interdisciplinary study of global affairs. It fosters cutting-edge research, hosts world leaders and renowned scholars, and encourages faculty and students to explore and shape debate by promoting discussion of international relations, foreign policy and complex global issues. The Burkle Center website, www.international.ucla.edu/burkle, provides additional information about the Center and its activities.

We hope that your schedule will permit you to accept our invitation. While we would prefer the fall quarter, we would be honored to welcome you at any time during the 2012-13 academic year. The year begins on September 22, 2012 and ends on June 8, 2013. The Burkle Center will of course cover reasonable travel expenses to Los Angeles and accommodations while here.

If your schedule permits, Mr. Ron Burkle would be pleased to host a private dinner in your honor at his private estate, Green Acres, following your speech.

CDR Zimmerman,
Supposedly the White House press operation has received inquiries regarding my status. I, for now, asked them to have no comment and to refer any questions to the Navy. What is the best contact for the WH to refer reporters to?
