Katie,

Thank you for sending this over. We will make sure to show the boss. In the meantime, can you please track down Thelma's full name and also Sheryl and Geoff's contact information. Did Thelma have any other children? The VP may want to write a note or call so we are just getting prepared LIM GARDON for those questions.

Thanks again!

Hunter.

I hope you are off to a great start for 2015. Let's get together soon.

- Sheryl and I have spent the last several weeks taking care of my mother in law who turned 92 last week. Long life and a great woman. She was the secretary to 7 consecutive secretaries of defense beginning with Melvin Laird. She passed away last night after a fight with an infection. She won all the highest honors of defense department civilian employees. She introduced me over the years to many of the highest decorated generals and admirals ever to serve our country. All were great people. Included were Colin Powell etc etc
- She loved your Dad and was one of his biggest fans. His character and family focus always made her proud of him. He last spoke to her when we were all at his house for Beau's fundraiser. He called her from my phone. Every once in a while your Dad would leave her a message. She loved it. In his great style the message would say. " Hi Thelma this is Joe Biden, you know, the Vice President, remember me?" Of course she did and bragged about him often.
- Anyway, I am not sure how to let your Dad know but pass along the news when you get a C GH H H H TH GAMPION minute. Memorial service will be at Fort Meyer in Arlington sometime next month.

Hope to see you soon Geoff

Vice President Joe Biden 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Vice President,

On behalf of the Truman National Security Project and the Center for National Policy. I am writing to invite you to be a featured speaker at our annual conference, to be held at the Washington Marriott at Metro Center in Washington, D.C. on Friday, June 26, 2015.

Some of our past notable speakers include former Secretary of State Madeline Albright, General Stanley McChrystal, former Secretary of Homeland Security Janet Napolitano, Senator Tim Kaine, and Secretary of the Navy Ray Mabus.

Our annual conference brings together post-9/11 veterans, frontline civilians, policy experts, and political professionals who share a common vision of our role in the world. Hailing from 16 chapters across the nation, these men and women believe in a smart, strong, and principled foreign policy that sees the United States leading a growing community of nations towards shared security and prosperity. This year, we are excited to bring them together to not only articulate our answers to the challenges and opportunities of our day, but to strategize how to present those positions to the American public and government.

We would be humbled to hear you speak to one of our conference's major themes, Strategic Leaders for a Changing World. Our community rejects current extremes in foreign policy discourse—shortsighted neoconservatism and apathetic isolationism—and looks to your guidance as a leader in expanding that debate to include a wider range of options.

I can be reached at mbreen@trumancnp.org or 202-216-9723 x2325, and I am happy to speak with you or your staff to provide further information regarding our organization, our membership, and our work. We would be honored by your GHI LIMICAMON presence, and I sincerely appreciate your consideration of our request.

Sincerely,

Michael Breen Executive Director

Hunter.

I hope you are off to a great start for 2015. Let's get together soon.

Sheryl and I have spent the last several weeks taking care of my mother in law who turned 92 last week. Long life and a great woman. She was the secretary to 7 consecutive secretaries of defense beginning with Melvin Laird. She passed away last night after a fight with an infection. She won all the highest honors of defense department civilian employees. She introduced me over the years to many of the highest decorated generals and admirals ever to serve our country. All were great people. Included were Colin Powell etc etc

She loved your Dad and was one of his biggest fans. His character and family focus always made her proud of him. He last spoke to her when we were all at his house for Beau's fundraiser. He called her from my phone. Every once in a while your Dad would leave her a message. She loved it. In his great style the message would say, " Hi Thelma this is Joe Biden, you know, the Vice President, remember me?" Of course she did and bragged about him often

Anyway, I am not sure how to let your Dad know but pass along the news when you get a minute. Memorial service will be at Fort Meyer in Arlington sometime next month.

Hope to see you soon Geoff

Hunter,

My team and I are scheduled for a call with you next week at 2pm. In the meantime, I am hoping you can assist us in delivering the attached letter inviting the Vice President to speak at our annual conference in June. If you have any questions, I would be happy to discuss this request in greater detail next week. Please see the information below and CANDON the attached letter for more details.

Best.

Mike

Dear Hunter,

Please see the attached for an official letter of invitation.

We would be honored if Vice President Biden would address our audience of over 500 post-9/11 veterans, frontline civilians, national security and foreign policy experts, and political professionals from across the country on the topic of the importance of Strategic Leaders in a Changing World, one of the major themes of this year's event.

Some of our past notable Conference speakers include former Secretary of State Madeline Albright, former Secretary of Defense Leon Panetta, General Stanley McChrystal, former Secretary of Homeland Security Janet Napolitano, and Secretary of the Navy Ray Mabus.

I am available anytime at this email or at (603) 828-9550 to provide additional information to the Office of the Vice President. Additionally, I am copying Leigh O'Neill, Policy Director, on this message as well. Leigh would be happy to coordinate with the OVP Scheduling team, if you would like to make that connection.

Thank you in advance for your attention to this request. We would be honored to feature Vice President Biden at our 2015 Conference and appreciate your consideration.

Hunter,

My team and I are scheduled for a call with you next week at 2pm. In the meantime, I am hoping you can assist us in delivering the attached letter inviting the Vice President to speak at our annual conference in June. If you have any questions, I would be happy to discuss this request in greater detail next week. Please see the information below and the attached letter for more details. KDANTON II

Best.

Mike

Dear Hunter,

I am writing on behalf of the Truman National Security Project & Center for National Policy to invite Vice President Biden to be a featured speaker at our annual conference in Washington, D.C. on Friday, June 26, 2015.

Please see the attached for an official letter of invitation.

We would be honored if Vice President Biden would address our audience of over 500 post-9/11 veterans, frontline civilians, national security and foreign policy experts, and political professionals from across the country on the topic of the importance of Strategic Leaders in a Changing World, one of the major themes of this year's event.

Some of our past notable Conference speakers include former Secretary of State Madeline Albright, former Secretary of Defense Leon Panetta, General Stanley McChrystal, former Secretary of Homeland Security Janet Napolitano, and Secretary of the Navy Ray Mabus.

I am available anytime at this email or at (603) 828-9550 to provide additional information to the Office of the Vice President. Additionally, I am copying Leigh O'Neill, Policy Director, on this message as well. Leigh would be happy to coordinate with the OVP Scheduling team, if you would like to make that connection.

Thank you in advance for your attention to this request. We would be honored to feature Vice President Biden at our 2015 Conference and appreciate your consideration.

Sincerely,

Mike

Dear Mr. Vice President,

On behalf of the Truman National Security Project and the Center for National Policy, I am writing to invite you to be a featured speaker at our annual conference, to be held at the Washington Marriott at Metro Center in Washington, D.C. on Friday, June 26, 2015.

Some of our past notable speakers include former Secretary of State Madeline Albright, General Stanley McChrystal, former Secretary of Homeland Security Janet Napolitano, Senator Tim Kaine, and Secretary of the Navy Ray Mabus.

Our annual conference brings together post-9/11 veterans, frontline civilians, policy experts, and political professionals who share a common vision of our role in the world. Hailing from 16 chapters across the nation, these men and women believe in a smart, strong, and principled foreign policy that sees the United States leading a growing community of nations towards shared security and prosperity. This year, we are excited to bring them together to not only articulate our answers to the challenges and opportunities of our day, but to strategize how to present those positions to the American public and government.

We would be humbled to hear you speak to one of our conference's major themes, Strategic Leaders for a Changing World. Our community rejects current extremes in foreign policy discourse—shortsighted neoconservatism and apathetic isolationism—and looks to your guidance as a leader in expanding that debate to include a wider range of options.

I can be reached at mbreen@trumancnp.org or 202-216-9723 x2325, and I am happy to speak with you or your staff to provide further information regarding our organization, our membership, and our work. We would be honored by your GHI LIMICAMON presence, and I sincerely appreciate your consideration of our request.

Sincerely,

Michael Breen Executive Director

Hunter.

I hope you are off to a great start for 2015. Let's get together soon.

- Sheryl and I have spent the last several weeks taking care of my mother in law who turned 92 last week. Long life and a great woman. She was the secretary to 7 consecutive secretaries of defense beginning with Melvin Laird. She passed away last night after a fight with an infection. She won all the highest honors of defense department civilian employees. She introduced me over the years to many of the highest decorated generals and admirals ever to serve our country. All were great people. Included were Colin Powell etc etc
- She loved your Dad and was one of his biggest fans. His character and family focus always made her proud of him. He last spoke to her when we were all at his house for Beau's fundraiser. He called her from my phone. Every once in a while your Dad would leave her a message. She loved it. In his great style the message would say. " Hi Thelma this is Joe Biden, you know, the Vice President, remember me?" Of course she did and bragged about him often.
- Anyway, I am not sure how to let your Dad know but pass along the news when you get a nex OCALL HAR AROA minute. Memorial service will be at Fort Meyer in Arlington sometime next month.

Hope to see you soon Geoff

Colin and Jeff,

Attached is the guest list for the Kuwait-America Gala, social dinner that the VP may be attending tomorrow. Doesn't seem like anything is needed from us. But I am flagging for awareness. I'll update if and when I hear anything else.

Hi Hunter,

Attached is a picture that my neighbor's daughter sent me. I had been prospecting Endurance International (neighbor Ron is the COO) and when receiving my contact change, they looked up Rosemont and were very excited to get confirmation from me after asking that, yes, VP Joe Biden is your father.

FOIA-6

Julia is 26 yrs old and works for Google in SF on a 1 year contract and she had skipped field hockey practice at her college to meet your dad (she is in the middle and a huge fan). Would it be NE HROUGHH HAMANA possible for me to get an autograph for her? Much appreciated. I hope all is well and that your travel schedule has subsided since we last spoke this summer.

Hunter,

I hope you are off to a great start for 2015. Let's get together soon.

- Sheryl and I have spent the last several weeks taking care of my mother in law who turned 92 last week. Long life and a great woman. She was the secretary to 7 consecutive secretaries of defense beginning with Melvin Laird. She passed away last night after a fight with an infection. She won all the highest honors of defense department civilian employees. She introduced me over the years to many of the highest decorated generals and admirals ever to serve our country. All were great people. Included were Colin Powell etc etc
- She loved your Dad and was one of his biggest fans. His character and family focus always made her proud of him. He last spoke to her when we were all at his house for Beau's fundraiser. He called her from my phone. Every once in a while your Dad would leave her a message. She loved it. In his great style the message would say. " Hi Thelma this is Joe Biden, you know, the Vice President, remember me?" Of course she did and bragged about him often.
- Anyway, I am not sure how to let your Dad know but pass along the news when you get a minute. Memorial service will be at Fort Meyer in Arlington sometime next month.

Hope to see you soon Geoff

Dear Mr. Vice President,

On behalf of the Truman National Security Project and the Center for National Policy. I am writing to invite you to be a featured speaker at our annual conference, to be held at the Washington Marriott at Metro Center in Washington, D.C. on Friday, June 26, 2015.

Some of our past notable speakers include former Secretary of State Madeline Albright, General Stanley McChrystal, former Secretary of Homeland Security Janet Napolitano, Senator Tim Kaine, and Secretary of the Navy Ray Mabus.

Our annual conference brings together post-9/11 veterans, frontline civilians, policy experts, and political professionals who share a common vision of our role in the world. Hailing from 16 chapters across the nation, these men and women believe in a smart, strong, and principled foreign policy that sees the United States leading a growing community of nations towards shared security and prosperity. This year, we are excited to bring them together to not only articulate our answers to the challenges and opportunities of our day, but to strategize how to present those positions to the American public and government.

We would be humbled to hear you speak to one of our conference's major themes, Strategic Leaders for a Changing World. Our community rejects current extremes in foreign policy discourse—shortsighted neoconservatism and apathetic isolationism—and looks to your guidance as a leader in expanding that debate to include a wider range of options.

I can be reached at mbreen@trumancnp.org or 202-216-9723 x2325, and I am happy to speak with you or your staff to provide further information regarding our organization, our membership, and our work. We would be honored by your GHI LIMICAMON presence, and I sincerely appreciate your consideration of our request.

Sincerely,

Michael Breen Executive Director

I guess the next step would be to get the security information and try to identify by the names on the list. Also- do they have any flexibility on the dates? That may help.

Thanks

Hi there - I don't know if the Washington Workshop guy is busy or may feel I am stepping on his toes by trying to speak with him about this tour, but he is not responding to email or voicemail. Do you think we should just ask for the security info again and resubmit? They are on the wait list for April 21st - if you think we have time I can keep trying to reach out to the Wash ngton Workshop guy. I am happy to do whatever. Thanks. - Katie

Ok - that gives me something to go on. I will see if we can locate their application - if not we may need the security list to resubmit. I will let you know if that becomes necessary. Please stay tuned.

Katie,

Thanks very much for looking into this for us. I spoke with the Principal, Donovan Gartletts (cc'd here), and he said they submitted a security checklist and application through Washington Workshops for Notre Dame Catholic. He does not have a copy of the application. If you need the security checklist. Donovan can forward that to you. Their contact at Washington Workshops is Tom Crossan (tom@workshops.org). Please let me know if this information is adequate enough. Thanks Again, John

Hi there. I am Hunter Biden's assistant. While Hunter is on travel, he asked that I try to help move things along for a tour for your son Emmett's class. How will we identify this group among the other schools? Would you by chance have access to what they submitted in case we need to re-submit their tour? Also feel free to connect me with someone else if this information isn't available to you.

Thank you.

Best. Katie.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: Jeff Zients

OBRAINE

SUBJECT: Daily Economic Briefing

THIN THE ALL NOT MANY AND ALL Enclosed is the daily updated economic information from CEA and Treasury.

COUNCIL OF ECONOMIC ADVISERS DAILY ECONOMIC BRIEFING December 11, 2014

MANUFACTURING AND TRADE INVENTORIES

BRA

- The book value of non-automotive manufacturing and trade inventories rose $56 billion at an annual rate in October, according to data released today by the Census Bureau. The October figure was held down by a price-related decline in petroleum inventories held by refiners and wholesalers ($23 billion, or -3.1 percent). This decline in book-value petroleum inventories was more than accounted for by an 8.5 percent decline in refiners' acquisition costs. Excluding motor vehicles and petroleum, the October pace of book-value stockbuilding ($78 billion) exceeded the pace of the second and third quarters of the year. Revised inventory data for the third quarter can be expected to boost reported real GDP growth by 0.1 percentage point at an annual rate. With one month of available data for the fourth quarter, a small positive contribution from inventory investment to GDP growth appears likely.
 - The inventory-to-sales ratio for the manufacturing and trade sector as a whole was steady at a 1.3 month's supply for the third straight month in October, within the range observed in recent years (see chart). Although real inventory stocks have increased substantially, the increase appears to have been in line with sales.

U.S. IMPORT AND EXPORT PRICES

• U.S. import and export prices fell 1.5 percent and 1.0 percent, respectively, in November, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Import prices have fallen for five consecutive months and this November were 2.3 percent lower than they were in November 2013. The November decline in import prices was the largest monthly decline seen since 2012. Export prices were 1.9 percent lower than they were in November 2013, and have fallen in every month since August.

The decline in import prices was driven by the largest monthly decline in fuel prices since 2012. Fuel prices decreased by 6.7 percent in November, primarily due to a 6.9 percent decline in petroleum prices and a 4.6 percent decline in natural gas prices.

BRA

- The price index for nonfuel imports also decreased by 0.2 percent in November. Lower prices for nonfuel industrial supplies and materials fell by 0.9 percent, driven by a 2.1 percent decline in the price of unfinished metals, mostly gold and other precious metals. Prices for foods, feeds, and beverages, and each of the major finished goods categories also contributed due to drops in prices of fish and shellfish, coffee, consumer goods and automotive vehicles, and capital goods.
- By locality of origin, lower fuel prices were largely responsible for the decline in overall import 0 price indexes for Canada, the European Union, and Mexico. Price indexes for imports from China were unchanged in November, and edged down only slightly for Japan (0.1 percent).

Import, Export, and Consumer Price Inflation

- Lower prices for nonagricultural exports more than offset the rise in agricultural export prices. 0 After falling 10 percent over the last five months, prices for agricultural exports increased by 0.5 percent in November. The increase is attributed to higher prices for soybeans, corn, and wheat. The price index for nonagricultural exports, by contrast, decreased 1.2 percent in November, primarily due to a 3.2 percent decrease in the price of nonagricultural industrial supplies and materials, and a 0.3 percent decline in the price of consumer goods.
- In November, import air passenger fares rose 1.0 percent, while export air passenger fares fell 4.9 0 percent, led by changes in European fares. Meanwhile, import air freight prices declined 0.5 percent and export air freight prices decreased 0.3 percent.

Household net worth – the difference between the value of a household's assets and debts – fell by $140 billion (0.2 percent) in the third quarter of 2014, to $81.3 trillion, according to the Federal Reserve Board's Financial Accounts of the United States. This slight decrease in household net worth owes mostly to an uptick in total liabilities. Since its trough in 2009:Q1, household net worth has risen by $26.4 trillion.

- The value of assets held by households and nonprofit institutions fell by $20 billion (less than 0.1 percent) in the third quarter. The decline in the value of corporate equities and mutual funds owned by households was offset by an increase in the value of real estate holdings, deposits, and noncorporate business equity.
- Household and nonprofit liabilities increased by $121 billion (0.9 percent). This rise was led by growth in consumer credit, with mortgage debt contributing as well.
- Average real net worth per household is now just shy of full recovery, at less than 0.3 percent below its pre-recession peak. The data included in the Financial Accounts reflect aggregate household net worth and thus do not reflect the disparities across households.
- Net new lending by U.S.-chartered depository institutions (including commercial banks and savings institutions, but excluding credit unions) and the U.S. branches of foreign banks increased at an annual rate of $533 billion in the third quarter of 2014. Although below the increase seen in the second quarter, the rate of net new lending remains strongly positive (see chart below).

U.S. defined benefit pension plans are underfunded by a total of $3.2 trillion, with a funding . shortfall of 28.1 percent. The present value of defined benefit pension entitlements amounted to $11.4 trillion, while the value of assets currently held by defined benefit pension funds was only $8.2 trillion. Note that the magnitude of the shortfall is sensitive to assumptions regarding the rate used to discount future pension obligations.

- Global equity markets were mostly higher today after U.S. retail sales surprised to the upside and lower-than-expected take-up of the European Central Bank's (ECB) second Targeted Long-Term Refinancing Operation (TLTRO) heightened investor expectations for the ECB to broaden asset purchases next month (more below). The S&P 500 rose 0.5%, the Euro Stoxx rose 0.3%, and the Nikkei declined 0.9%. Ten-year Treasury yields were unchanged at 2.17%, and the dollar was 0.6% stronger against a basket of major currencies.
- European equities rose and the euro depreciated after demand for the ECB's second TLTRO disbursement this morning was slightly less than the €150 billion analysts had expected, with banks demanding only €130 billion. Recall that the TLTRO provides long-term loans at low interest rates from the ECB to euro area banks in hopes of stimulating lending to small and medium sized enterprises. Investors now expect the ECB to announce an expansion of its asset purchase program to possibly include sovereign and corporate bond purchases at its meeting in late January in order to help the ECB expand its balance sheet back to levels reached in early 2012.
- Russian equities fell 2.1% and the ruble depreciated 1.6% against the dollar despite the Central Bank of Russia's (CBR) decision to raise its benchmark interest rate by 100 basis points to 10.5%. The central bank also emphasized that its commitment to limiting inflationary pressures was the main driver behind today's rate hike. The central bank now expects inflation to reach "around 10%" by the end of the year, and for Russian GDP to expand by only 0.6% in 2014. The CBR believes that the ruble is currently 10-20% weaker than its fundamental value, and that speculators have contributed to almost half of this devaluation. Data released this morning also showed that Russia's reserves fell by $4.3 billion last week, the largest weekly decline since early November.

U.S.: U.S. equities rallied after the release of stronger-than-expected retail sales data for November and despite an increase in continuing jobless claims. Retail sales rose 0.7% month-over-month in November, significantly outpacing the 0.3% growth in October and beating analyst expectations for a reading of 0.4%. This notable gain led some investors to speculate that lower oil prices have increased U.S. consumer confidence. Separately, although weekly initial jobless claims data fell in line with expectations, declining to 294,000, continuing claims unexpectedly rose by 142,000 last week.

Japan: Japanese equities declined and the yen weakened against the dollar after the disappointing release of Japanese machinery orders data and amid the decline of a widely followed index of service sector activity. Japanese machine orders declined 6.4% year-over-year in October, well below September's 2.9% gain, and underperforming expectations for only a 1.7% contraction. The tertiary industry index, which measures service sector activity, fell 1.2 percentage points in October to a reading of -0.2%, pointing to a weaker growth outlook for the fourth quarter.

China: Although Chinese equities declined overnight, market participants noted a press report indicating that the People's Bank of China (PBoC) is currently injecting additional liquidity into the Chinese economy. The article indicated that the PBoC's $65 billion liquidity injection is aimed at encouraging bank lending in order to stimulate economic growth. Nevertheless, market participants continue to expect Chinese economic growth to decelerate over the next two years from 7.4% in 2014 to 7.0% and 6.7% in 2015 and 2016, respectively. Also, media reports cited Chinese currency intervention to bolster the renminbi in recent trading as more investors bet on upcoming depreciation.

Hunt,

FOIA-6

Hope this isn't an inconvenience to ask about getting the 8th grade class in for a tour of The White House. There will be 18 kids and 5 adults arriving on the 17th of April and staying through the 23rd. They are currently on a waiting list for April 21st for a White House tour. I appreciate anything you can do to help out Emmett's class. FYI...John Roberts went to Notre Dame grammar school and they'll have the chance to meet him. Should be a great time for the kids.

Talk to you soon, Thanks,

John B. Allen
