Dear Tyler Sanderson:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated February 21, 2023, received in our office on February 21, 2023.

You asked for copies of records of communications referring to "discrimination", "discriminatory", "race", "racial", "ethnicity", "color", "BIPOC", "Asian", "Indigenous", "Black", "Brown", or "White" on the one hand; and "audit", "enforcement", "NRP", "RAAS", "algorithmic", "selection", "sampling", or "strata" on the other, from Jan. 1, 2021 to present to or from the following:

- Charles P. Rettig, IRS Commissioner
- Douglas O'Donnell, Acting IRS Commissioner
- Heather Maloy, Acting Chief of Staff
- All political appointees assigned to the IRS
- All employees and contractors at or equivalent to grade GS-14 and above assigned to IRS's Research and Applied Analytics and Statistics (RAAS) organization

We sent you a letter on November 17, 2023, requesting additional time to obtain and review the records requested in your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request.

I need additional time to review the requested documents. I expect to provide a final response to your request by May24, 2024. You don't need to reply to this letter if you agree to this extension. Please consider contacting me to arrange an alternative time frame for processing the request or limiting the scope of your FOIA request, which may reduce the time in processing your request.

Pursuant to 26 CFR § 601.702, there is no right to an administrative appeal for failure to meet the statutory 20 business-day timeframe for response.

However, you do have the right to file suit for a judicial review. You can file suit at any time. File your suit in the U.S. District Court:

- Where you reside or have your principal place of business,
- Where the records are located, or
- In the District of Columbia

Rule 4(i)(1)(C), of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, requires you to send the IRS a copy of the summons and complaint as well as to the Attorney General and the United States Attorney for the district in which the action is brought. You must send the IRS copies, by registered or certified mail, to:

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Attention: CC: PA: Br 6/7 1111 Constitution Avenue, NW Washington, D.C. 20224

I apologize for any inconvenience this delay may cause.

If you have questions regarding the processing of your FOIA request, please contact the caseworker assigned to your case at the phone number listed at the top of this letter.

If you are not able to resolve any concerns you may have regarding our response with the caseworker, you have the right to seek dispute resolution services by contacting our FOIA Public Liaisons at 312-292-3297. The FOIA Public Liaison is responsible for assisting in reducing delays, increasing transparency, and assisting in the resolution of disputes with respect to the FOIA.

There is no provision for the FOIA Public Liaison to address non-FOIA concerns such as return filing and other tax-related matters or personnel matters. If you need assistance with tax-related issues, you may call the IRS at 800-829-1040.

You also have the right to contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS). The Office of Government Information Services, the Federal FOIA Ombudsman's office, offers mediation services to help resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and federal agencies. The contact information for OGIS is:

Office of Government Information Services National Archives and Records Administration 8601 Adelphi Road--OGIS College Park, MD 20740-6001 202-741-5770 877-684-6448 ogis@nara.gov ogis.archives.gov
