Dear Michael Ding:

This letter is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated August 9, 2022 for access to Biden Vice Presidential records pertaining to Vice President Biden's records regarding official travel and White House visits by Hunter Biden and James Biden. Your request was received by the Archival Operations Division on August 9, 2022. FOIA requests for Biden Vice Presidential records are processed and reviewed for access under provisions of the 1978 Presidential Records Act, as amended (PRA) (44 U.S.C. §§ 2201-2209), which incorporates the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552) in substantial part.

We have completed processing 1 Biden Vice Presidential email message related to this request. Of this total, 1 email message in part has been exempted from release in compliance with the restrictions of the PRA and applicable FOIA exemptions, which specify what material may be released to the public. All necessary steps were taken to segregate and release non-exempt information. The 1 email message in part restricted from access is listed along with the exemption categories below. Some email messages may be restricted under more than one category.

P6/(b)(6) -1 email message

A list of the PRA restrictions and FOIA exemptions, as well as a copy of the finding aid that describes the processed material are attached.

The 1 email message in part is available. The released records are available for download at <https://www.archives.gov/research/vice-presidential-records/biden-records>. Click on "Download Zip File" for 2022-0120-F, your FOIA case number, which will take you to a new page with links to the finding aids and records for all released segments of your request. You can then click on the zip files under "Download Zip file" for 2022-0120-F [2].

If you are unsatisfied with this response, you have the right to file an administrative appeal of the withholding decisions under the exemption categories listed at 44 U.S.C. § 2204(a). The appeal must be submitted in writing to the Director, Archival Operations Division, National Archives and Records Administration, 700 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Room G-7, Washington, DC 20408-0001. You should also include a copy of your original request and our denial. Both your appeal letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "PRA/FOIA Appeal." To be considered timely, your appeal must be postmarked or electronically submitted within 90 calendar days from the date of this letter

If you need any further assistance, please contact our staff at 202-357-5200 or presidential.materials@nara.gov. Your FOIA case number is 2022-0120-F. Please have this number accessible for reference during any future contact concerning this case.

You may also contact United States Department of Justice Attorney Jacob S. Siler, jacob.s.siler@usdoj.gov with any questions about this interim response.

Sincerely,

Scope and Content

The materials in this series are selective, not necessarily all-inclusive, body of records responsive to the topic of FOIA case 2022-0120-F. The researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for records for Biden Vice Presidential records concerning White House visits and official travel with his son Hunter Biden and brother James (Jim) Biden and narrowed their request to specific terms.

This email is an official invitation dated March 25, 2013 from Kellen Suber of the Office Vice President to members of the Biden family to attend a Delaware National Monument Celebration taking place on March 26, 2013 in New Castle, Delaware, including Jim Biden and Hunter Biden.

System of Arrangement

Records responsive to this FOIA request were found in the Biden Vice Presidential Electronic Records collection which includes email messages and electronic files. These records are maintained in the Executive Office of the President instance of the Electronic Records Archive (EOP ERA) which contains electronic records created or received by the administration of President Barack Obama. These electronic records are born-digital files and are primarily .eml, .pdf, .wpd, and .doc files.
