WHEREAS, as attested by Stephenie Kjontvedt in the Kjontvedt Certificate of Service [Docket No. 157], between January 10, 2024 and January 16, 2024, the Solicitation Agent transmitted the Solicitation Order (excluding exhibits) via electronic mail and first class mail to Holders of Class 4 First Lien Claims; and via electronic mail and next business day service to the Nominees of Class 5 Second Lien Notes Claims, together with sufficient quantities and instructions to serve the beneficial owners of the Class 5 Claims; and to the Depository Trust Company (via legalandtaxnotices@dtcc.com), each as further described in the Kjontvedt Certificate of Service.

WHEREAS, as attested by Hugo Suarez in the Certificate of Service [Docket No. 168] (the "Suarez Certificate of Service"), on January 11, 2024, the Solicitation Agent transmitted (as further described in the Suarez Certificate of Service) the Non-Voting Notice and Opt-Out Form to those parties that the Debtors believe may be Holders of Claims in Classes 1, 2, 3, 6, and 7.

WHEREAS, on January 16, 2024, the Debtors published the Combined Notice in USA Today, as attested to in the Verification of Publication filed with this Court on January 17, 2024 [Docket No. 149] (the "Verification of Publication").

WHEREAS, on February 5, 2024, the Debtors filed their Notice of Filing of Plan Supplement for the Joint Prepackaged Plan of Reorganization for Audacy, Inc. and its Affiliate Debtors under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, together with certain Plan Supplement Documents [Docket No. 216].

WHEREAS, on February 16, 2024, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Memorandum of Law in Support of (I) Approval of the Disclosure Statement and (II) Confirmation of the Joint Prepackaged Plan of Reorganization for Audacy, Inc. and Its Affiliate Debtors Under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 273] (the "Confirmation Brief").

WHEREAS, a hearing to consider the Debtors' compliance with the Bankruptcy Code's disclosure requirements and confirmation of the Plan was held before this Court on February 20, 2024 (the "Combined Hearing").

NOW, THEREFORE, based upon this Court's review of the Disclosure Statement, Plan, the Plan Supplement, the briefs, affidavits and declarations submitted in support of confirmation of the Plan, including, without limitation, (i) the Confirmation Brief, (ii) the Declaration of Heath C. Gray (FTI Consulting, Inc.) in Support of Confirmation of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Plan [Docket No. 272] (the "Gray Confirmation Declaration"), and (iii) the Declaration of William Evarts (PJT Partners, Inc.) in Support of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Plan [Docket No. 271] (the "Evarts Confirmation Declaration" and together with the Gray Confirmation Declaration, the "Confirmation Declarations"), and upon all of the evidence proffered or adduced at, and arguments of counsel made at the Combined Hearing, and upon the entire record of these Chapter 11 Cases, and after due deliberation thereon, THIS COURT HEREBY FINDS AND CONCLUDES THAT:

I. Findings of Fact; Conclusions of Law

A. The findings and conclusions set forth herein and in the record of the Combined Hearing constitute this Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable herein by Bankruptcy Rules 7052 and 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

II. Jurisdiction; Venue; Core Proceeding

B. This Court has jurisdiction over the Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to section 1334 of title 28 of the United States Code. Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to sections 1408 and 1409 of title 28 of the United States Code. Final approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan are core proceedings pursuant to section 157(b)(2) of title 28 of the United States Code. This Court has jurisdiction to enter a final order determining that the Disclosure Statement and the Plan comply with all of the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and should be approved and confirmed, respectively.

III. Eligibility for Relief; Proper Plan Proponents

C. The Debtors were and are eligible for relief under section 109 of the Bankruptcy Code and the Debtors were and are proper plan proponents under section 1121(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

IV. Commencement and Joint Administration of the Chapter 11 Cases

D. On the Petition Date, each of the above-captioned Debtors commenced a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. By prior order of this Court, the Chapter 11 Cases have been consolidated for procedural purposes only and are being jointly administered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015 [Docket No. 45]. Since the Petition Date, the Debtors have operated their businesses and managed their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No official statutory committee, trustee or examiner has been appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases.

V. Judicial Notice

E. This Court takes judicial notice of the docket of the Chapter 11 Cases maintained by the clerk of this Court, including, without limitation, all pleadings and other documents filed and orders entered thereon. This Court also takes judicial notice of all hearing transcripts, evidence proffered or adduced and all arguments made at the hearings held before this Court during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases.

VI. Burden of Proof

F. The Debtors, as proponents of the Plan, have met their burden of proving the applicable elements of sections 1129(a) and 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code by a preponderance of the evidence, which is the applicable evidentiary standard for confirmation of the Plan.

VII. Transmittal and Mailing of Materials; Notice

G. As evidenced by the Kjontvedt Certificate of Service and the Suarez Certificate of Service, due, timely, adequate and sufficient notice of the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, the Combined Hearing, the opportunity to opt out of the Third Party Release, and other dates and deadlines described in the Solicitation Order, together with all deadlines for voting to accept or reject the Plan as well as objecting to the Disclosure Statement and the Plan, has been given in substantial compliance with this Court's orders, all applicable Bankruptcy Rules, and all other applicable rules, laws, and regulations, and no other or further notice is or shall be required. All parties in interest had the opportunity to appear and be heard at the Combined Hearing, and no other or further notice is required.

H. The Debtors published the Combined Notice in USA Today, in substantial compliance with the Solicitation Order and Bankruptcy Rule 2002(l), as evidenced by the Verification of Publication [Docket No. 149].

VIII. Solicitation

I. Votes for acceptance and rejection of the Plan were solicited in good faith and in compliance with sections 1125 and 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 3017 and 3018, all other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and all other applicable rules, laws, and regulations. Specifically, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Combined Notice, the Ballots and other materials constituting the solicitation materials approved by this Court in the Solicitation Order, were transmitted to and served on all Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes, and the solicitation materials (not including Ballots) were also provided to the key parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases, in compliance with section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and the Solicitation Order. The Combined Notice and the Non-Voting Notice and Opt-Out Form were provided to non-Affiliate Holders or potential Holders of Claims and Equity Interests in Non-

Voting Classes. Such transmittal and service were adequate and sufficient, and no other or further notice is or shall be required. All procedures used to distribute the solicitation materials and other notices and documents described in the Solicitation Order were fair and conducted in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and all other applicable rules, laws, and regulations. The period during which the Debtors solicited acceptances to the Plan was a reasonable and adequate period of time and the manner of such solicitation was an appropriate process for creditors to have made an informed decision to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

J. Each of the Debtors, the Exculpated Parties, and the Released Parties, and each of their respective Related Parties, have acted fairly, in "good faith" within the meaning of section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and in a manner consistent with the Disclosure Statement and in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and all other applicable rules, laws, and regulations in connection with all of their respective activities relating to support and consummation of the Plan, including the negotiation, execution, delivery, and performance of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the solicitation and tabulation of votes on the Plan, the participation in the offer, issuance, sale or purchase of any security offered or sold under the Plan, and the activities described in section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, as applicable, and are entitled to the protections afforded by section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

K. Each of the Debtors, the Exculpated Parties, and the Released Parties, and each of their respective Related Parties, have acted in good faith and in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including section 1125(g), with regard to the offering, issuance, and distribution of recoveries under the Plan and therefore are not, and on account of such distributions will not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or distributions made pursuant to the Plan, so long as such distributions are made consistent with and pursuant to the Plan.

L. The solicitation of votes on the Plan complied with the Solicitation Procedures (as defined in the Solicitation Motion), was appropriate and satisfactory based upon the circumstances of the Chapter 11 Cases, and was in compliance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Solicitation Order, and applicable non-bankruptcy law. To the extent that the Debtors' prepetition solicitation was deemed to constitute an offer of new securities, such solicitation is exempt from, among other things, the registration requirements of section 5 of the Securities Act and any other applicable law requiring registration prior to the offering, issuance, distribution, or sale of securities to the maximum extent permitted by law, in accordance with, and pursuant to section 4(a)(2), Regulation D and/or Regulation S of the Securities Act, as applicable to any recipient deemed an offeree. Specifically, section 4(a)(2) and Regulation D of the Securities Act create an exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act for transactions not involving a "public offering," and Regulation S creates an exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act for offerings deemed to be executed outside of the United States. 15 U.S.C. § 77d(a)(2); 17 C.F.R. § 230.501 et seq.; 17 C.F.R. § 230.901 et seq. The Debtors have complied with the requirements of section 4(a)(2), Regulation D and Regulation S of the Securities Act (as applicable), in order to address the scenario where the prepetition solicitation of acceptances would be deemed a private placement of securities. The prepetition solicitation was made only to those Holders of Class 4 First Lien Claims and Class 5 Second Lien Notes Claims who certified that they were (i) located inside the United States and were (a) "qualified institutional buyers" (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, 15 U.S.C. §§ 77a-77aa (as amended, the "Securities Act")) or (b) an "accredited investor" (as defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D of the Securities Act) or (ii) located outside the United States and were persons other than "U.S. persons" (as defined in Rule 902 under the Securities Act).

IX. Adequacy of Disclosure Statement

M. The Disclosure Statement (i) contains sufficient information of a kind necessary to satisfy the disclosure requirements of all applicable non-bankruptcy rules, laws, and regulations, including the Securities Act, and (ii) contains "adequate information" (as such term is defined in section 1125(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and used in section 1126(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code) with respect to the Debtors, the Plan, and the transactions contemplated therein, and (iii) is hereby approved on a final basis in all respects.

X. Vote Certification

N. Before the Combined Hearing, the Debtors filed the Kjontvedt Declaration, attesting to the results of the tabulation of all Ballots received by the Solicitation Agent from Holders of Class 4 First Lien Claims and Holders of Class 5 Second Lien Notes Claims. All procedures used to tabulate the Ballots were fair and conducted in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Solicitation Order, and all other applicable rules, laws and regulations.

O. As evidenced by the Kjontvedt Declaration, Class 4 First Lien Claims voted unanimously to accept the Plan.

P. As evidenced by the Kjontvedt Declaration, Class 5 Second Lien Notes Claims voted unanimously to accept the Plan.

XI. Bankruptcy Rule 3016

Q. The Plan is dated and identifies the Entities submitting it, thereby satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 3016(a). The filing of the Disclosure Statement with the clerk of this Court satisfied Bankruptcy Rule 3016(b). The injunction, release, and exculpation provisions in the Plan and Disclosure Statement describe, in bold font and with specific and conspicuous language, all acts to be enjoined and identify the Entities that will be subject to the injunction, thereby satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 3016(c).

XII. Adequate Assurance

R. The Debtors have cured, or provided adequate assurance that the Reorganized Debtors will cure, defaults (if any) under or relating to each of the contracts and leases that are being assumed by the Debtors pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors also have provided adequate assurance of the Reorganized Debtors' future performance under such contracts and leases.

XIII. Valuation

S. The Debtors' Valuation Analysis included as Exhibit F to the Disclosure Statement and the estimated enterprise value, as described therein, is reasonable, proposed in good faith, and supported by the Confirmation Declarations and the evidence presented at or prior to the Combined Hearing. All parties in interest have been given the opportunity to challenge the Valuation Analysis. The Valuation Analysis (i) is reasonable, persuasive, and credible as of the date such analysis was prepared, presented, or proffered, and (ii) uses reasonable and appropriate methodologies and assumptions.

XIV. Section 1129(a)(1)—Compliance of the Plan with Applicable Provisions of the Bankruptcy Code

(i) Section 1122 and 1123(a)(1)—Proper Classification.

T. The classification of Claims and Equity Interests under the Plan is proper under the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to sections 1122(a) and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, Article III of the Plan provides for the separate classification of Claims and Equity Interests into ten Classes, based on differences in the legal nature or priority of such Claims and Equity Interests (other than Administrative Claims, Postpetition Securitization Program Claims, DIP Claims, Priority Tax Claims, and statutory fees, which are addressed in Article II of the Plan and which have not been classified in accordance with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code). Valid business, factual and legal reasons exist for the separate classification of the various Classes of Claims and Equity Interests created under the Plan, the classifications were not done for any improper purpose, and the creation of such Classes does not unfairly discriminate between or among Holders of Claims or Equity Interests. As required by section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, each Class of Claims and Equity Interests contains only Claims or Equity Interests that are substantially similar to the other Claims or Equity Interests within that Class.

(ii) Section 1123(a)—Compliance.

U. In accordance with section 1123(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, this Court finds and concludes that the Plan: (a) designates Classes of Claims and Equity Interests, other than Claims of a kind specified in sections 507(a)(2) and 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code; (b) specifies Classes of Claims and Equity Interests that are not Impaired under the Plan; (c) specifies the treatment of Classes of Claims and Equity Interests that are Impaired under the Plan; (d) provides the same treatment for each Claim or Equity Interest of a particular Class, unless the Holder of a particular Claim or Equity Interest agrees to less favorable treatment of their respective Claim or Equity Interest; (e) provides for adequate means for the Plan's implementation; (f) prohibits the issuance of non-voting securities to the extent required under section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (g) contains only provisions that are consistent with the interests of Holders of Claims and Equity Interests and with public policy with respect to the manner of selection of any officer or director of the Reorganized Debtors on and after the Effective Date. Therefore, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(iii) Section 1123(b)—Discretionary Contents of the Plan.

V. The Plan contains various provisions that may be construed as discretionary but are not required for confirmation under the Bankruptcy Code. As set forth below, such discretionary provisions comply with section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and are not inconsistent in any way with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. As a result thereof, the requirements of section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied.

(A) Section 1123(b)(1)-(2)—Claims and Equity Interests; Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

W. Pursuant to sections 1123(b)(1) and 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, respectively, Article III of the Plan impairs or leaves unimpaired, as the case may be, each Class of Claims and Equity Interests, and Article VI of the Plan provides for the assumption or rejection of the Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases of the Debtors not previously assumed or rejected pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and appropriate authorizing orders of this Court.

(B) Section 1123(b)(3)—Release, Exculpation, Third-Party Release, Injunction and Preservation of Claims Provisions

X. Releases by the Debtors. The release of Claims and Causes of Action by the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and each of their Related Parties, and their Estates described in Article X.B.1 of the Plan (the "Debtor Release") is a necessary and important aspect of the Plan. The Debtor Release is based on sound business judgment, is in the best interests of the Debtors, the Estates, and all holders of Claims and Equity Interests, is fair, equitable, and reasonable, and is acceptable pursuant to the standards that courts in this district generally apply. Each Released Party played an integral role in the Chapter 11 Cases and made substantial concessions that underpin the consensual resolution reached in these Chapter 11 Cases and embodied in the Plan that will allow the Debtors to expeditiously exit bankruptcy and continue their operations, and/or may be unwilling to support the Plan without the Debtor Release. Additionally, the Plan, including the Debtor Release, was vigorously negotiated by sophisticated entities that were represented by able counsel and financial advisors.

Y. Exculpation. The Exculpation described in Article X.E of the Plan is appropriate under applicable law because it is part of a Plan, has been proposed in good faith, was vital to the Plan formulation process and is appropriately limited in scope. The Exculpation, including its carve-out for fraud, gross negligence, willful misconduct or criminal conduct, is consistent with established practice in this jurisdiction.

Z. Releases by Holders of Claims and Equity Interests. The release of Claims and Causes of Action by Holders of Claims and Equity Interests described in Article X.B.2 of the Plan, including the release of non-Debtors (the "Third Party Release"), is an important aspect of the Plan. The Third Party Release is designed to provide finality for the Released Parties with respect to such parties' respective obligations under the Plan. The Ballots and the Non-Voting Notice and Opt-Out Form were served by the Solicitation Agent on behalf of the Debtors as described in the Kjontvedt Certificate of Service and the Suarez Certificate of Service. The Ballots and the Non-Voting Notice and Opt-Out Form clearly direct Holders of Claims or Equity Interests to Article X of the Plan for further information about the Third Party Release and how to opt-out of the voluntary Third Party Release. Thus, Holders of Claims or Equity Interests were given due and adequate notice that they would be consenting to the Third Party Release by choosing not to opt out of the Third Party Release, as applicable. The Third Party Release is appropriate, important to the success of the Plan and consistent with established practice in this jurisdiction and others. The provisions of the Plan, including the Third Party Release, were vigorously negotiated prepetition, and the Debtors' key stakeholders are unwilling to support the Plan without the Third Party Release.

AA. Further, the Third Party Release was provided in exchange for significant consideration. First, the Ad Hoc First Lien Group and Ad Hoc Second Lien Group engaged with the Debtors in good faith, and spent significant time and effort negotiating the terms of the Restructuring Support Agreement and the Plan. Members of the Ad Hoc First Lien Group agreed to enter into the DIP Credit Agreement with the Debtors and Exit Term Loan Facility with the Reorganized Debtors, both of which they were not obligated to do, and which are critical to the Debtors' successful reorganization. The Ad Hoc First Lien Group and Ad Hoc Second Lien Group further agreed to equitize the majority of their pre-petition claims in order to facilitate the Debtors' emergence from chapter 11 and provide a framework for a consensual reorganization. Moreover, certain members of the Ad Hoc First Lien Group agreed to backstop the DIP Facility and the Exit Term Loan Facility, in each case, on the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement and the Exit Term Loan Credit Agreement. And the Ad Hoc First Lien Group and Ad Hoc Second Lien Group both consented to the Debtors' use of cash collateral and agreed to a Plan structure that avoids litigation that would have been extremely costly and disruptive to the Debtors' Estates. With respect to Holders of Claims or Equity Interests that elected not to opt out of the Third Party Release, such parties agreed to the release of any and all of their claims against the Released Parties. Finally, the Debtors' directors and officers, and their employees more broadly, spent countless hours on double-duty during this process, driving the Debtors' smooth transition into chapter 11 and imminent emergence after a successful balance sheet restructuring. In short, the contributions, concessions, and efforts by the Released Parties in formulating the Plan and putting the Debtors on a path for success fully support approving the Third Party Release.

BB. Injunction. The injunction provision set forth in Article X.F of the Plan is necessary to preserve and enforce the release, exculpation and discharge provisions set forth in Article X of the Plan and is narrowly tailored to achieve that purpose.

CC. Each of the release, exculpation, discharge and injunction provisions set forth in the Plan: (a) is within the jurisdiction of this Court under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1334(a), 1334(b), and 1334(d); (b) is an essential means of implementing the Plan pursuant to section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code; (c) is an integral element of the transactions incorporated into the Plan; (d) confers material benefits on, and is in the best interests of, the Debtors, their Estates and the Holders of Claims and Equity Interests; (e) is important to the overall objectives of the Plan to finally resolve all Claims among or against the parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases with respect to the Debtors; and (f) is consistent with sections 105, 1123, 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. The record of the Combined Hearing and the Chapter 11 Cases is sufficient to support the release, exculpation, third-party release, discharge and injunction provisions contained in Article X of the Plan.

DD. Preservation and Reservation of Causes of Action. Article V.Q of the Plan appropriately provides for the preservation by the Debtors of the Causes of Action in accordance with section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. The provisions regarding Causes of Action in the Plan are appropriate and are in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates and Holders of Claims and Equity Interests.

XV. Section 1129(a)(2)—Compliance of the Debtors and Others with the Applicable Provisions of the Bankruptcy Code

EE.The Debtors, as proponents of the Plan, have complied with all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules, including sections 1123, 1125, and 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 3017, 3018 and 3019. As a result thereof, the requirements of section 1129(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied.

(i) Section 1129(a)(3)—Proposal of Plan in Good Faith.

FF. The Debtors have proposed the Plan in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law. In determining that the Plan has been proposed in good faith, this Court has examined the totality of the circumstances surrounding the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan itself and the process leading to its formulation. The good faith of each of the entities who negotiated the Plan is evident from the facts and records of the Chapter 11 Cases and the record of the Combined Hearing and other proceedings held in the Chapter 11 Cases. The Plan is the product of arm's-length negotiations among the Debtors, the Ad Hoc First Lien Group, and the Ad Hoc Second Lien Group and their respective professionals. The Plan itself, and the process leading to its formulation, provide independent evidence of the good faith of the entities who negotiated the Plan, serve the public interest and assure fair treatment of Holders of Claims and Equity Interests. The Debtors, the Ad Hoc First Lien Group, and the Ad Hoc Second Lien Group negotiated the terms and provisions of the Plan with the legitimate and honest purposes of maximizing the value of the Debtors' estates for the benefit of all stakeholders and of emerging from bankruptcy with a capital structure that will permit the Debtors to satisfy their obligations. Consistent with the overriding purpose of chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Chapter 11 Cases were filed, and the Plan was proposed, with the legitimate purpose of allowing the Debtors to reorganize and emerge from bankruptcy with a capital structure that will allow them to satisfy their obligations while maintaining sufficient liquidity and capital resources.

GG. Based on the record before this Court in the Chapter 11 Cases: (a) the Debtors; (b) the Consenting First Lien Lenders; (c) the Consenting Second Lien Noteholders; (d) the First Lien Agent; (e) the Second Lien Indenture Trustee; (f) the DIP Agent; (g) the DIP Lenders; (h) the DIP Backstop Parties; (i) the Exit Backstop Parties; (j) the Securitization Program Parties; (k) the Distribution Agents (l) the Solicitation Agent; and (m) all of the foregoing Entities' Related Parties, as of or after the Petition Date have acted in good faith and will continue to act in good faith if they proceed to: (i) consummate the Plan and the agreements, including without limitation the agreements contained in the Plan Supplement (as may be amended or modified in accordance with the Plan and this Confirmation Order), settlements, transactions and transfers contemplated thereby; and (ii) take the actions approved, authorized and directed by this Confirmation Order.

(ii) Section 1129(a)(4)—Bankruptcy Court Approval of Certain Payments as Reasonable.

HH. The procedures set forth in the Plan for this Court's review and ultimate determination of the fees and expenses to be paid by the Debtors in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, or in connection with the Plan and incident to the Chapter 11 Cases, satisfy the objectives of, and are in compliance with, section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code. As a result thereof, the requirements of section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied.

(iii) Section 1129(a)(5)—Disclosure of Identity of Proposed Management, Compensation of Insiders and Consistency of Management Proposals with the Interests of Creditors and Public Policy.

II. Pursuant to section 1129(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors have disclosed in advance of the Combined Hearing the process by which individuals who will serve on the New Board will be chosen. On the Effective Date, the New Board shall consist of seven (7) members as determined in accordance with the Restructuring Support Agreement. The Debtors' existing officers will remain as officers until the Effective Date and as contemplated by the Restructuring Support Agreement. No directors of the Reorganized Debtors shall have been affiliated with the Debtors prior to the Confirmation Date other than David Field, whose appointment was disclosed in the Restructuring Support Agreement. These appointments are consistent with public policy and the interests of creditors and future equity holders. After the Confirmation Date and before the Effective Date, the Debtors' current directors, including its current independent directors and corresponding independent governance committee, will continue to serve on the Debtors' board of directors. Accordingly, the Debtors have sufficiently satisfied the requirements of section 1129(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(iv) Section 1129(a)(6)—No Rate Changes.

JJ. In accordance with section 1129(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code, this Court finds and concludes that the Plan does not provide for any rate changes over which a governmental regulatory commission has jurisdiction. Therefore, section 1129(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code is not applicable.

(v) Section 1129(a)(7)—Best Interests of Holders of Claims and Equity Interests.

KK. The Liquidation Analysis included as Exhibit D to the Disclosure Statement and the other evidence related thereto that was proffered or adduced at or prior to the Combined Hearing: (a) are reasonable, persuasive and credible; (b) utilize reasonable and appropriate methodologies and assumptions; (c) have not been controverted by other evidence; and (d) establish that, with respect to each Impaired Class, each Holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest in such Class has voted to accept the Plan or will receive under the Plan on account of such Claim or Equity Interest property of a value, as of the Effective Date, that is not less than the amount such Holder would receive if the Debtors were liquidated on the Effective Date under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(vi) Section 1129(a)(8)—Conclusive Presumption of Acceptance by Unimpaired Classes; Acceptance of the Plan by Each Voting Class.

LL. Classes 1, 2, 3 and 6 are composed of Unimpaired Claims and are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan under section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.

MM. Classes 4 and 5 are composed of Impaired Claims that have voted to accept the Plan.

NN. Classes 7, 8, 9 and 10 are Classes of Impaired Claims and Equity Interests that are deemed to reject the Plan (together, and to the extent Impaired under the Plan, the "Deemed Rejecting Classes"). However, the Holders of Claims and Equity Interests in Class 8 – Intercompany Claims and Class 9 – Intercompany Interests are Affiliates of the Debtors; and, as described further below, the Debtors can confirm the Plan over the deemed rejection of Class 7 510(b) Claims and Class 10 Existing Parent Equity Interests.

(vii) Section 1129(a)(9)—Treatment of Claims Entitled to Priority Pursuant to Section 507(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

OO. Allowed Administrative Claims, Allowed Postpetition Securitization Program Claims, Allowed DIP Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, and statutory fees are Unimpaired under Article II of the Plan. As a result thereof, the requirements of section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to such Claims have been satisfied.

(viii) Section 1129(a)(10)—Acceptance by at Least One Impaired Class.

PP. As set forth in the Kjontvedt Declaration, Classes 4 and 5 have voted to accept the Plan. As such, at least one Class of Claims that is Impaired under the Plan has accepted the Plan, determined without including any acceptance of the Plan by any insider. As a result thereof, the requirements of section 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied.

(ix) Section 1129(a)(11)—Feasibility of the Plan.

QQ. The evidence proffered or adduced at, or prior to, the Combined Hearing in connection with the feasibility of the Plan, including the Financial Projections included as Exhibit E to the Disclosure Statement, (i) is reasonable, persuasive and credible, (ii) establishes that the Plan is feasible and that there is a reasonable prospect of the Reorganized Debtors being able to meet their financial obligations under the Plan and in the ordinary course of business, and that Confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by liquidation or the need for further financial reorganization of the Reorganized Debtors or any successor to the Reorganized Debtors under the Plan; and (iii) establishes that the Reorganized Debtors will have sufficient funds available to meet their obligations under the Plan. As a result thereof, the requirements of section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied.

(x) Section 1129(a)(12)—Payment of Bankruptcy Fees.

RR. The Plan provides that all fees due and payable pursuant to section 1930 of chapter 123 of the Judicial Code prior to the Effective Date shall be paid by the Debtors. On and after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall pay any and all such fees when due and payable. As a result thereof, the requirements of section 1129(a)(12) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied.

(xi) Section 1129(a)(13)—Retiree Benefits.

SS. Section 1129(a)(13) of the Bankruptcy Code requires a plan to provide for retiree benefits at levels established pursuant to section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan does not propose to modify any retiree benefits and Article VI.F provides that the Specified Employee Plans shall be assumed. As a result, section 1114's requirement that the Debtors "shall timely pay and shall not modify any retiree benefits" is satisfied and, therefore, section 1129(a)(13) of the Bankruptcy Code is satisfied.

(xii) Sections 1129(a)(14), (15), and (16)—
Domestic Support Obligations; Unsecured Claims Against Individual Debtors; Transfers by Nonprofit Organizations.

TT. None of the Debtors have domestic support obligations, are individuals or are nonprofit organizations. Therefore, sections 1129(a)(14), (15), and (16) of the Bankruptcy Code do not apply to the Chapter 11 Cases.

(iv) Section 1129(b)—No Unfair Discrimination; Fair and Equitable.

UU. The Plan has been accepted by the Voting Classes; however, it is deemed to be rejected by the Deemed Rejecting Classes.

VV. Pursuant to section 1129(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan may be confirmed despite the fact that the Deemed Rejecting Classes have not accepted the Plan because the Plan meets the "cramdown" requirements for confirmation under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Other than the requirement in section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to Deemed Rejecting Classes, all of the requirements of section 1129(a) of the Bankruptcy Code have been met. The Plan does not discriminate unfairly and is fair and equitable with respect to the Deemed Rejecting Classes. No Class of Claims or Equity Interests junior to the Deemed Rejecting Classes will receive or retain any property on account of their Claims or Equity Interests, and no Class of Claims or Equity Interests senior to the Deemed Rejecting Classes is receiving more than full payment on account of the Claims and Equity Interests in such Class. The Plan therefore is fair and equitable, does not discriminate unfairly with respect to any of these Classes, and complies with section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(xiii) Section 1129(c)—Only One Plan.

WW. Other than the Plan (including any previous versions thereof), which Plan constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan for each of the Debtors, no other plan has been filed in the Chapter 11 Cases. As a result thereof, the requirements of section 1129(c) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied.

(xiv) Section 1129(d)—Principal Purpose of the Plan Is Not Avoidance of Taxes.

XX. No governmental unit has requested that this Court refuse to confirm the Plan on the grounds that the principal purpose of the Plan is the avoidance of taxes or the avoidance of the application of section 5 of the Securities Act. As evidenced by its terms, the principal purpose of the Plan is not such avoidance. As a result thereof, the requirements of section 1129(d) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied.

(xv) Section 1129(e)—Not a Small Business Case.

YY. None of the Chapter 11 Cases are small business cases, as that term is defined in the Bankruptcy Code, and accordingly, section 1129(e) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable in the Chapter 11 Cases.

XVI. Satisfaction of Confirmation Requirements

ZZ. Based upon the foregoing and all other pleadings and evidence proffered or adduced at or prior to the Combined Hearing, the Plan satisfies the requirements for confirmation set forth in section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code.

XVII. Disclosure: Agreements and Other Documents

AAA. The Debtors have disclosed all material facts regarding: (a) the Restructuring Documents, (b) the adoption of the New Governance Documents, or similar constituent documents; (c) the process for selection of directors and officers for the Reorganized Debtors; (d) Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Documents; (e) the Exit Securitization Program Documents; (f) the Warrants Agreements; (g) the Plan Supplement Documents (including but not limited to the Equity Allocation Mechanism); (h) the distributions to be made in accordance with the Plan; (i) the terms, issuance, and distribution of the Plan Securities, which are duly authorized, and validly issued; (j) the adoption, execution and implementation of the other matters provided for under the Plan involving corporate action to be taken by or required of the Reorganized Debtors; and (k) the adoption, execution and delivery of all contracts, leases, instruments, releases, indentures and other agreements related to any of the foregoing.

XVIII. Transfers by the Debtors; Vesting of Assets

BBB. All transfers of property of the Debtors, including, but not limited to, the issuance and distribution of the Plan Securities, shall be free and clear of all Liens, charges, Claims, encumbrances and other interests of creditors, except as expressly provided in the Plan. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, or in any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document entered into or delivered in connection with the Plan, pursuant to sections 1141(b) and (c) of the Bankruptcy Code, all property in each Estate, all Causes of Action (except those released by the Debtors pursuant to the Plan or otherwise) and any property acquired by any of the Debtors pursuant to the Plan (other than Claims or Causes of Action subject to the Debtor Release, the Professional Fee Escrow Account and any rejected Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases) shall vest in each respective Reorganized Debtor, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges or interests of creditors, other encumbrances, subject to the Restructuring Transactions and Liens that survive the occurrence of the Effective Date as described in Article III of the Plan. Such vesting does not constitute a voidable transfer under the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law. Each distribution and issuance of Plan Securities under the Plan shall be governed by the terms and conditions of the instruments evidencing or relating to such distribution or issuance, which terms and conditions shall bind each Entity receiving such distribution or issuance.

XIX. Implementation

CCC. All documents and agreements necessary to implement the Plan, including those contained in the Plan Supplement, have been negotiated in good faith, at arm's-length, and are in the best interests of the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors and shall, upon completion of documentation and execution, be valid, binding and enforceable documents and agreements not in conflict with any federal or state law.

XX. Approval of the Exit Term Loan Credit Documents

DDD. The Exit Term Loan Facility is an essential element of the Plan, necessary for confirmation and consummation of the Plan, and critical to the overall success and feasibility of the Plan. Entry into and consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Exit Term Loan Credit Documents are in the best interests of the Debtors, the Debtors' Estates and Holders of Claims and Equity Interests and are approved in all respects. The Debtors have exercised reasonable business judgment in determining to enter into the Exit Term Loan Credit Documents and have provided sufficient and adequate notice of the Exit Term Loan Credit Documents. The Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, are authorized, without any further notice to or action, order or approval of this Court, to execute and deliver all agreements, documents, instruments and certificates relating thereto and to perform their obligations thereunder, including, without limitation, obligations relating to the payment or reimbursement of any fees, expenses, losses, damages, or indemnities. The terms and conditions of the Exit Term Loan Credit Documents have been negotiated in good faith, at arm's-length, are fair and reasonable and are approved. The Exit Term Loan Credit Documents shall, upon execution, be valid, binding and enforceable and shall not be in conflict with any federal or state law. Entry of this Confirmation Order constitutes approval of the Exit Term Loan Facility and all related documentation in accordance with the terms of the Plan and applicable Plan Supplement Documents.

EEE. Further, each of the Backstop Fee and the Commitment Fee (each as defined in the Exit Term Loan Credit Agreement) constitutes an actual and necessary cost and expense to preserve the Debtors' estates and is reasonable and warranted on the terms set forth in the Plan and Plan Supplement Documents in light of, among other things, (i) the significant benefit to the Debtors' estates of having committed exit financing on the Confirmation Date to facilitate the Debtors' ability to pursue a cost-efficient pre-packaged Plan that funds Allowed General Unsecured Claims in full and maximizes the value of the estates, (ii) the substantial time, effort, and costs incurred by the Exit Backstop Parties in negotiating and documenting the Restructuring Support Agreement and the Plan, and (iii) the substantial benefit provided to the Debtors' estates by ensuring the funding of the Debtors' exit from bankruptcy and the Reorganized Debtors' post-Effective Date operations. Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the provision of the First-Out Exit Term Loans, the terms and conditions of the Backstop Fee and Commitment Fee are satisfied and earned as of the entry of this Confirmation Order. The amount of the Backstop Fee and the Commitment Fee are bargained-for and integral parts of the Restructuring Transactions contemplated under the Plan.

XXI. Approval of the Exit Securitization Program Documents

FFF. The Exit Securitization Program is an essential element of the Plan, necessary for confirmation and consummation of the Plan, and critical to the overall success and feasibility of the Plan. Entry into and consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Exit Securitization Program Documents are in the best interests of the Debtors, the Debtors' Estates and Holders of Claims and Equity Interests and are approved in all respects. The Debtors have exercised reasonable business judgment in determining to enter into the Exit Securitization Program Documents and have provided sufficient and adequate notice of the Exit Securitization Program Documents. The Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, are authorized, without any further notice to or action, order or approval of this Court, to execute and deliver all agreements, documents, instruments and certificates relating thereto and to perform their obligations thereunder, including, without limitation, obligations relating to the payment or reimbursement of any fees, expenses, losses, damages, or indemnities. The terms and conditions of the Exit Securitization Program Documents have been negotiated in good faith, at arm's-length, are fair and reasonable and are approved. The Exit Securitization Program Documents shall, upon execution, be valid, binding and enforceable and shall not be in conflict with any federal or state law.

XXII. Approval of the Warrants Agreements

GGG. The New Second Lien Warrants and Special Warrants are essential elements of the Plan, necessary for confirmation and consummation of the Plan, critical to the overall success and feasibility of the Plan, and, with respect to the Special Warrants, compliance with applicable law. Entry into the Special Warrants Agreement and the New Second Lien Warrants Agreement are in the best interests of the Debtors, the Debtors' Estates and Holders of Claims and Equity Interests and are approved in all respects. The Debtors have exercised reasonable business judgment in determining to enter into the Warrants Agreements and have provided sufficient and adequate notice of the Warrants Agreements. The Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, are authorized, without any further notice to or action, order or approval of this Court, to execute and deliver all agreements, documents, instruments and certificates relating thereto and to perform their obligations thereunder. The terms and conditions of the Warrants Agreements have been negotiated in good faith, at arm's-length, are fair and reasonable and are approved. The Warrants Agreements shall, upon the Effective Date, be valid, binding and enforceable and do not conflict with any federal or state law.

XXIII. Plan Supplement

HHH. The filing and notice of the Plan Supplement (including any amendments, modifications or supplements thereto) were proper and in accordance with the Plan, the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, all other applicable laws, rules, and regulations, and no other or further notice is or shall be required. All documents included in the Plan Supplement are integral to, part of, and incorporated by reference into the Plan. Subject to the terms of the Plan and the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Debtors are authorized to alter, amend, update, modify, or supplement the Plan Supplement before the Effective Date and the Plan Supplement Documents as filed as of the Effective Date shall be expressly incorporated into the Plan and this Confirmation Order as binding on the Reorganized Debtors and all applicable parties in interest. All parties were provided due, adequate, and sufficient notice of the Plan Supplement, and the filing of any further supplements thereto will provide due, adequate, and sufficient notice thereof.

XXIV. Modifications to the Plan

III. To the extent this Confirmation Order contains modifications to the Plan, such modifications were made to address technical or clarifying changes, objections and informal comments received from various parties in interest. All modifications to the Plan that have been made are consistent with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. The disclosure of any Plan modifications prior to or on the record at the Combined Hearing constitutes due and sufficient notice of any and all Plan modifications. The Plan as modified shall constitute the Plan submitted for confirmation.

XXV. Implementation of Other Necessary Documents and Agreements

JJJ. All other documents and agreements necessary to implement the Plan, including, without limitation, those contained in the Plan Supplement, are in the best interests of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors and Holders of Claims and Equity Interests and have been negotiated in good faith and at arm's-length. The Debtors have exercised reasonable business judgment in determining to enter into all such documents and agreements and have provided sufficient and adequate notice of such documents and agreements. The terms and conditions of such documents and agreements are fair and reasonable and are approved. The Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, are authorized, without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of this Court, to execute and deliver all such agreements, documents, instruments and certificates relating thereto and perform their obligations thereunder.

XXVI. Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

KKK. The Debtors have exercised reasonable business judgment in determining whether to assume or reject each of their Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases as set forth in Article VI of the Plan, the Plan Supplement, this Confirmation Order or otherwise. Each assumption or rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease in accordance with Article VI of the Plan, the Plan Supplement, this Confirmation Order or otherwise shall be legal, valid, and binding upon the applicable Debtor and all non-Debtor counterparties to such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, all to the same extent as if such assumption or rejection had been authorized and effectuated pursuant to a separate order of this Court that was entered pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code prior to Confirmation.

XXVII. The Reorganized Debtors Will Not Be Insolvent or Left with Unreasonably Small Capital

LLL. As of the occurrence of the Effective Date and after taking into account the transactions contemplated by the Plan: (a) the present fair value of the property of the Reorganized Debtors and the cash flow generated by such assets will be not less than the amount that will be required to pay the probable liabilities on the Reorganized Debtors' then-existing debts as they become absolute and matured; and (b) the Reorganized Debtors' capital will not be unreasonably small in relation to their business or any contemplated or undertaken transaction.

XXVIII. Disclosure of Facts

MMM. The Debtors have disclosed all material facts regarding the Plan, and the adoption, execution, and implementation of the other matters provided for under the Plan involving corporate action to be taken by or required of the Debtors.

XXIX. Likelihood of Satisfaction of Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date

NNN. Each of the conditions precedent to the Effective Date, as set forth in Article IX.A of the Plan, has been or is reasonably likely to be satisfied or waived in accordance with Article IX.B of the Plan.

ORDER

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. Confirmation. The Plan and Plan Supplement (as such may be amended by this Confirmation Order or in accordance with the Plan, and which amendments are hereby incorporated into and constitute a part of the Plan) and each of the provisions thereof, as may be modified by this Confirmation Order, are confirmed in each and every respect pursuant to section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. This Confirmation Order approves the Plan Supplement, including the documents contained therein as may be amended through and including the Effective Date. The documents contained in the Plan Supplement, and any amendments, modifications and supplements thereto, and all documents and agreements related thereto (including all exhibits and attachments thereto), and the execution, delivery and performance thereof by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, are hereby authorized and approved upon entry of this Confirmation Order. Without any further notice to or action, order or approval of this Court, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors and their successors are authorized and empowered to make all modifications to all documents included as part of the Plan Supplement that are consistent with and subject to the Plan. As set forth in the Plan, once finalized and executed, the documents comprising the Plan Supplement and all other documents contemplated by the Plan (whether to occur before, on, or after the Effective Date) shall constitute legal, valid, binding and authorized rights and obligations of the respective parties thereto, enforceable in accordance with their terms and, to the extent applicable, shall create, as of the Effective Date, all Liens and other security interests purported to be created thereby.

2. Disclosure Statement Approved. The Disclosure Statement (i) contains adequate information of a kind generally consistent with the disclosure requirements of all applicable non-bankruptcy law, including the Securities Act, (ii) contains "adequate information" (as such term is defined in section 1125(a)(1) and used in section 1126(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code) with respect to the Debtors, the Plan, and the transactions contemplated therein, and (iii) is approved in all respects on a final basis.

3. Objections. Based upon the record of the Combined Hearing and the Chapter 11 Cases, any objections to entry of this Confirmation Order and final approval of the Disclosure Statement, whether formal or informal, that have not been consensually resolved or withdrawn are overruled on the merits pursuant to this Confirmation Order.

4. Compromise of Controversies. For the reasons stated herein, the Plan constitutes a good faith, arm's-length compromise and settlement of all Claims and Equity Interests and or controversies relating to the rights that a holder of a Claim or Equity Interest, or any assignees thereof, may have with respect to any Allowed Claim or Allowed Equity Interest or any distribution to be made or obligation to be incurred pursuant to the Plan, and the entry of this Confirmation Order constitutes approval of all such compromises and settlements.

5. Binding Effect; Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 62(a). Immediately upon the entry of this Confirmation Order: (a) this Confirmation Order and the provisions of the Plan, including the Plan Supplement, shall be binding upon (i) the Debtors, (ii) the Reorganized Debtors, (iii) all Holders of Claims against and Equity Interests in the Debtors, whether or not Impaired under the Plan and whether or not, if Impaired, such Holders accepted the Plan, (iv) each Person acquiring property under the Plan, (v) any other party-in-interest, (vi) any Person making an appearance in these Chapter 11 Cases, and (vii) each of the foregoing's respective heirs, successors, assigns, trustees, executors, administrators, affiliates, officers, directors, agents, representatives, attorneys, beneficiaries, or guardians; and (b) the Debtors are authorized to consummate the Plan immediately upon entry of this Confirmation Order in accordance with the terms of the Plan.

6. Appointment of Board of Directors of Reorganized Debtors. Upon the Effective Date, the New Board shall take office and replace the then-existing boards of directors or similar governing body of Reorganized Parent. All members of such existing board shall cease to hold office or have any authority on and after the Effective Date to the extent not expressly included in the roster of the New Board.

7. Effectuating Documents; Further Transactions. On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors and the officers and members of the New Board are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan, the corporate actions and transactions contemplated under the Plan, and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Reorganized Debtors, without the need for any approvals, authorizations or consents except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan, the Restructuring Support Agreement, or the New Governance Documents.

8. DIP Election Mechanism. The DIP-to-Exit Election Form attached as Exhibit 1-A to the Debtors' Emergency Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Establishing Procedures for Compliance With FCC Media and Foreign Ownership Requirements and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 27-1] (the "FCC Procedures Order"), and the DIP-to-Exit Election procedures established therein (the "DIP Election Mechanism") are essential components of the Debtors' Plan, are fair and reasonable, and comply with the Bankruptcy Code. This Confirmation Order constitutes final approval of the DIP-to-Exit Election Form and the DIP Election Mechanism.

9. Entry of this Confirmation Order also constitutes final approval of the DIP-to-Exit Equity Distribution to be distributed to Electing DIP Lenders. The distribution on the Effective Date of the DIP-to-Exit Equity Distribution is fair and reasonable, complies with the Bankruptcy Code, and is an essential component of the Debtors' Plan. The DIP-to-Exit Equity Distribution constitutes an actual and necessary cost and expense to preserve the Debtors' estates and is reasonable and warranted on the terms set forth in the Plan in light of, among other things, (i) the necessity to induce lenders to provide funding to the Debtors on a post-Effective Date basis; (ii) the significant benefit provided to the Debtors' estates by the committed financing to fund the Debtors' proposed chapter 11 plan after the Effective Date and (iii) the substantial benefit provided to the Debtors' estates by the Electing DIP Lenders who are agreeing to equitize their secured DIP Claims to facilitate the Debtors' exit from bankruptcy and convert those DIP Claims into Exit Term Loans to help fund the Reorganized Debtors' post-Effective Date operations. As of the date of entry of this Confirmation Order, the terms and conditions of the DIP-to-Exit Equity Distribution have been fully satisfied by the Electing DIP Lenders, the DIP-to-Exit Equity Distributions have been fully earned, and the amount of the DIP-to-Exit Equity Distribution is a bargained for and integral part of the Restructuring Transactions contemplated under the Plan.

10. Equity Allocation Mechanism. The Equity Allocation Mechanism contained in the Plan Supplement (as the same may be amended or modified in accordance with the Plan) is an essential component of the Debtors' Plan, is fair and reasonable, and complies with the Bankruptcy Code. Entry of this Confirmation Order constitutes approval of the Equity Allocation Mechanism.

11. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. The findings of fact and the conclusions of law stated in this Confirmation Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to the proceeding by Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent any finding of fact shall be determined to be a conclusion of law, it shall be so deemed, and to the extent any conclusion of law shall be determined to be a finding of fact, it shall be so deemed.

12. Incorporation by Reference. The terms of the Plan, the Plan Supplement and the exhibits and schedules thereto are incorporated by reference into, and are an integral part of, this Confirmation Order. The terms of the Plan, the documents contained in the Plan Supplement, all exhibits thereto, and all other relevant and necessary documents, shall be effective and binding as of the Effective Date.

13. Plan Classifications Controlling. The classification of Claims and Equity Interests for purposes of distributions made under the Plan shall be governed solely by the terms of the Plan. The classifications set forth on the Ballots tendered to or returned by the creditors in connection with voting on the Plan (a) were set forth on the Ballots solely for purposes of voting to accept or reject the Plan, (b) do not necessarily represent, and in no event shall be deemed to modify or otherwise affect, the actual classification of such Claims under the Plan for distribution purposes and (c) shall not be binding on the Debtors.

14. Cancellation of Securities and Agreements. On the Effective Date, except as otherwise specifically provided for in the Plan or this Confirmation Order: all notes, stock, instruments, certificates, credit agreements and other agreements and documents evidencing or relating to the First Lien Claims, the Second Lien Notes Claims, any Impaired Claim and/or the Existing Parent Equity Interests, shall be canceled and the obligations of (i) the Debtors thereunder or in any way related thereto shall be fully released, terminated, extinguished and discharged, in each case without further notice to or order of this Court, act or action under applicable law, regulation, order, or rule or any requirement of further action, vote or other approval or authorization by any Person or Entity, and (ii) the Second Lien Indenture Trustee shall be discharged and its duties deemed satisfied except (to the extent applicable) with respect to such Second Lien Indenture Trustee serving as the Distribution Agent with respect to the applicable Second Lien Notes Claims; provided that the First Lien Credit Documents and the Second Lien Notes Documents shall continue in effect for the limited purpose of allowing Holders of Claims thereunder to receive, and allowing and preserving the rights of the First Lien Agent, and the Second Lien Indenture Trustee or other applicable Distribution Agent thereunder to make (or cause to be made), distributions under the Plan. Except to the extent otherwise provided in the Plan and the Restructuring Documents, upon completion of all such distributions, the First Lien Credit Documents and the Second Lien Notes Documents and any and all notes, securities and instruments issued in connection therewith shall terminate completely without further notice or action and be deemed surrendered. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this paragraph shall apply to or affect or impair the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Documents or the Exit Securitization Program Documents, which shall be in full force and effect as of and after the Effective Date. Notwithstanding Confirmation or the occurrence of the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided herein or in the Plan, only such provisions that, by their express terms, survive the termination or the satisfaction and discharge of the First Lien Credit Documents and the Second Lien Notes Documents, as applicable, shall survive the occurrence of the Effective Date, including the rights of the First Lien Agent and the Second Lien Indenture Trustee to assert, pursue and be paid with respect to any charging liens, expense reimbursement, indemnification, and similar amounts.

15. Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Documents. Entry of this Confirmation Order constitutes approval of the First-Out Exit Term Loans and the Second-Out Exit Term Loans (including the transactions contemplated thereby, and all actions to be taken, undertakings to be made, and obligations to be incurred and fees paid by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors in connection therewith). Specifically, entry of this Confirmation Order constitutes approval of the Backstop Fee and the Commitment Fee (each as defined in the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Agreement) payable to the Exit Backstop Parties in Cash on the Effective Date. On the Effective Date, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall be authorized to execute and deliver, and to consummate the transactions contemplated by, the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Documents and without further notice to or order of this Court, act or action under applicable law, regulation, order, or rule or the vote, consent, authorization or approval of any Person or Entity (other than as expressly required by the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Documents). In addition to the Backstop Fee and the Commitment Fee that are approved upon entry of this Confirmation Order, on the Effective Date, the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Documents shall constitute legal, valid, binding and authorized indebtedness and obligations of the Reorganized Debtors, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms and such indebtedness and obligations shall not be, and shall not be deemed to be, enjoined or subject to discharge, impairment, release or avoidance under the Plan, this Confirmation Order or on account of the Confirmation or Consummation of the Plan.

16. On the Effective Date, all of the Liens and security interests to be granted in accordance the Exit Term Loan Credit Documents: (a) shall be deemed to be granted; (b) shall be legal, binding, and enforceable Liens on, and security interests in, the collateral granted thereunder in accordance with the terms of the Exit Term Loan Credit Documents; (c) shall be deemed automatically perfected on the Effective Date (without any further action being required by the parties to the Exit Term Loan Credit Documents, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, or the applicable lenders or agents) having the priority set forth in the Exit Term Loan Credit Documents and subject only to such Liens and security interests as may be permitted under the Exit Term Loan Credit Documents and the Exit Securitization Program Documents; and (d) shall not be subject to avoidance, recharacterization, or subordination (including equitable subordination) for any purposes whatsoever and shall not constitute preferential transfers, fraudulent conveyances, or other voidable transfers under the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable non-bankruptcy law. The Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and the agents and lenders under the Exit Term Loan Documents, are authorized to make all filings and recordings and to obtain all governmental approvals and consents necessary to establish and perfect such Liens and security interests under the provisions of applicable state, provincial, federal or other law (whether domestic or foreign) that would be applicable in the absence of the Plan and the Confirmation Order (it being understood that, in respect of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, perfection shall occur automatically on the Effective Date by virtue of the entry of the Confirmation Order, and any such filings, recordings, approvals, and consents shall not be required with respect to the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors) and will thereafter cooperate to make all other filings and recordings that otherwise would be necessary under applicable law to give notice of such Liens and security interests to third parties.

17. On and as of the Effective Date, all Electing DIP Lenders and Holders of Allowed First Lien Claims shall be deemed to be parties to, and bound by, the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Agreement, without the need for execution thereof by any such Electing DIP Lender or Holder of an Allowed First Lien Claim.

18. Each Electing DIP Lender and First Lien Lender is deemed to have instructed and directed the Distribution Agent and the Exit Term Loan Facility Agent (as applicable), to (a) act as Distribution Agent to the extent required by the Plan, (b) execute and deliver the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Documents (each to the extent it is a party thereto), as well as to execute, deliver, file, record and issue any notes, documents (including UCC financing statements), or agreements in connection therewith, to which the Exit Term Loan Facility Agent is a party and to promptly consummate the transactions contemplated thereby, and (c) take any other actions required or contemplated to be taken by the Exit Term Loan Facility Agent and/or the Distribution Agent (as applicable) under the Plan or any of the Restructuring Documents to which it is a party (whether to occur before, on, or after the Effective Date). The Distribution Agent and the Exit Term Loan Facility Agent (as applicable) shall make distributions of the Exit Term Loan Facility in accordance with the Plan and this Confirmation Order.

19. Exit Securitization Program Documents. On the Effective Date, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall be authorized to execute and deliver, and to consummate the transactions contemplated by, the Exit Securitization Program Documents and without further notice to or order of this Court, act or action under applicable law, regulation, order, or rule or the vote, consent, authorization or approval of any Person or Entity (other than as expressly required by the Exit Securitization Program Documents). On the Effective Date, the Exit Securitization Program Documents shall constitute legal, valid, binding and authorized indebtedness and obligations of the applicable Reorganized Debtors party thereto, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms and such obligations shall not be, and shall not be deemed to be, enjoined or subject to discharge, impairment, release or avoidance under the Plan, the Confirmation Order or on account of the Confirmation or Consummation of the Plan. Upon execution of the Exit Securitization Program Documents, all Liens and security interests granted by the Reorganized Debtors pursuant to, or in connection with, the Exit Securitization Program shall be valid, binding, perfected, enforceable Liens and security interests in the property subject to a security interest granted by the applicable Reorganized Debtors pursuant to the Exit Securitization Program, with the priorities established in respect thereof under applicable non-bankruptcy law.

20. Issuance and Distribution of Plan Securities. On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, are authorized to and shall provide or issue the Plan Securities (including the issuance of New Common Stock upon exercise of the Special Warrants and/or New Second Lien Warrants and Class A New Common Stock upon conversion of Class B New Common Stock) and any and all other notes, stock, instruments, certificates, and other documents or agreements required to be distributed, issued, executed or delivered pursuant to or in connection with the Plan, in each case without further notice to or order of this Court, act or action under applicable law, regulation, order, or rule or the vote, consent, authorization or approval of any Entity. The Plan Securities shall be issued and distributed pursuant to the Plan free and clear of all Liens, Claims and other Interests. Any person's acceptance of the Plan Securities shall be deemed to constitute its agreement to be bound by the New Governance Documents, including but not limited to any shareholder agreement, limited liability company agreement or warrant agreement as the same may be amended from time to time in accordance with their terms. The New Governance Documents shall be binding on all Entities receiving, and all Holders of, the Plan Securities (and their respective successors and assigns), whether such Plan Securities are received or to be received on or after the Effective Date and regardless of whether such Entity executes or delivers a signature page to any shareholder's agreement, limited liability company agreement, warrant agreement or similar agreement constituting a New Governance Document.

21. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the New Governance Documents or required by applicable law, Reorganized Parent shall not be obligated to list the Plan Securities on any national securities exchange or to register the Plan Securities under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act. The Debtors (with the consent of the Required Consenting Lenders) and Reorganized Debtors intend to take such reasonable actions in connection with the allocation of the New Common Stock or other Plan Securities to ensure that none of the Reorganized Debtors will be subject to any Reporting Obligations, and holders of Allowed DIP Claims, Allowed First Lien Claims and Allowed Second Lien Notes Claims shall use good faith efforts to cooperate with the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, in such actions.

22. Vesting of Assets in the Reorganized Debtors Free and Clear of Liens and Claims. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan, this Confirmation Order, or any Restructuring Document, pursuant to sections 1123(a)(5), 1123(b)(3), 1141(b) and (c) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, on and after the Effective Date, all property and assets of the Estates of the Debtors, all claims, rights, and Litigation Claims of the Debtors, and any other assets or property acquired by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors during the Chapter 11 Cases or under or in connection with the Plan (other than Claims or Causes of Action subject to the Debtor Release, the Professional Fee Escrow Account and any rejected Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases), shall vest in the Reorganized Debtors free and clear of all Claims, Liens, charges, and other encumbrances, subject to the Restructuring Transactions and Liens that survive the occurrence of the Effective Date as described in Article III of the Plan.

23. Preservation and Reservation of Causes of Action. In accordance with section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and except where such Causes of Action have been expressly released (including, for the avoidance of doubt, pursuant to the Debtor Release provided in Article X.B and the Exculpation contained in Article X.E of the Plan), the Reorganized Debtors shall retain and may enforce all rights to commence and pursue, as appropriate, any and all Causes of Action, whether arising before or after the Petition Date, including, without limitation, any actions specifically identified in the Plan Supplement or the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action, and the Reorganized Debtors' rights to commence, prosecute or settle such Causes of Action shall be preserved notwithstanding the occurrence of the Effective Date. The Reorganized Debtors, as the successors-in-interest to the Debtors and the Estates, may, and shall have the exclusive right to, enforce, sue on, settle, compromise, transfer or assign (or decline to do any of the foregoing) any or all of such Causes of Action without notice to or approval from this Court.

24. No Entity (other than the Consenting Lenders, the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, the DIP Backstop Parties, the Exit Backstop Parties, the Securitization Program Parties, the First Lien Agent, and the Second Lien Indenture Trustee) may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement (including the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action), or the Disclosure Statement to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action of the Debtors against it. Except as otherwise set forth herein, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors expressly reserve all rights to prosecute any and all Causes of Action against any Entity.

25. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors do not reserve any Causes of Action or Litigation Claims that have been expressly released (including, for the avoidance of doubt, Claims against the Consenting Lenders, the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, the DIP Backstop Parties, the Exit Backstop Parties, the Securitization Program Parties, the First Lien Agent, and the Second Lien Indenture Trustee, and Claims otherwise released pursuant to the Debtor Release provided in Article X.B and the Exculpation contained in Article X.E of the Plan).

26. Automatic Stay. Unless otherwise provided in the Plan, all injunctions or stays provided for in the Chapter 11 Cases under sections 105 and 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, and in existence on the Confirmation Date, shall remain in full force and effect until the Effective Date, and at that time shall be dissolved and of no further force or effect, subject to the injunction set forth in Article X of the Plan and/or sections 524 and 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code. Upon the Effective Date, the injunction provided in Article X of the Plan shall apply. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph, nothing herein shall bar the filing of financing documents (including Uniform Commercial Code financing statements, security agreements, leases, mortgages, trust agreements and bills of sale) or the taking of such other actions as are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the transactions specifically contemplated by the Plan or by this Confirmation Order prior to the Effective Date.

27. Assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases. On the Effective Date, all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases of the Debtors will be assumed by the Debtors in accordance with, and subject to, the provisions and requirements of sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, except for those Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases that, in each case: (i) have been assumed or rejected by the Debtors by prior order of this Court; (ii) are the subject of a motion to reject filed by the Debtors pending on the Effective Date; (iii) are identified as rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases by the Debtors on the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to be Filed in the Plan Supplement, which may be amended by the Debtors up to and through the Effective Date to add or remove Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases by filing with this Court a subsequent Plan Supplement and serving it on the affected non-Debtor contract parties; or (iv) are rejected or terminated pursuant to the terms of the Plan.

28. For the avoidance of doubt, that certain Services Agreement, dated as of January 1, 2019, by and among The Nielsen Company (US), LLC and Audacy Operations, Inc. and certain of its affiliates, as amended on December 31, 2021, and further amended on November 21, 2022, and further amended on November 30, 2023 (in addition to all other amendments entered into in writing prior to the Confirmation Date) (collectively, the "Nielsen Contracts") are assumed pursuant to this Confirmation Order effective as of the Confirmation Date. The Debtors have complied with all obligations thereunder, and there are no defaults or cure costs associated with assumption of the Nielsen Contracts. The Debtors are authorized to perform all obligations under the Nielsen Contracts as of the Confirmation Date without further order of this Court.

29. For the avoidance of doubt, that certain Amended and Restated Radio Broadcast Rights Agreement, dated as of December 22, 2023, by and between Sterling Mets, L.P. and Debtor Audacy New York (the "Mets Agreement") is assumed pursuant to this Confirmation Order effective as of the Confirmation Date. The Debtors have complied with all obligations thereunder, and there are no defaults or cure costs (other than the fees to be paid as provided in this paragraph) associated with assumption of the Mets Agreement. The Debtors are authorized to perform all obligations under the Mets Agreement as of the Confirmation Date without further order of this Court. The Debtors are authorized and directed to pay the reasonable and documented attorneys' fees of Wilkie Farr & Gallagher LLP in connection with the Mets Agreement up to, but not exceeding, $20,000 without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of this Court, with such payment made on the later of (i) the Effective Date or (ii) within five business days of the Debtors' receipt of an invoice.

30. Without amending or altering any prior order of this Court approving the assumption or rejection of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, this Confirmation Order shall constitute an order of this Court approving such assumptions and the rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases set forth in the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code as of the Effective Date. The inclusion or exclusion of a contract or lease on any schedule or exhibit shall not constitute an admission by any Debtor that such contract or lease is an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or that any Debtor has any liability thereunder.

31. Change of Control. To the extent any provision in any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease assumed or assumed and assigned (as applicable) pursuant to the Plan or any prior order of this Court (including, without limitation, any "change of control" provision) prohibits, restricts or conditions, or purports to prohibit, restrict or condition, or is modified, breached or terminated, or deemed modified, breached or terminated by, (a) the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases or the insolvency or financial condition of any Debtor at any time before the closing of its respective Chapter 11 Case, (b) any Debtor's or any Reorganized Debtor's assumption or assumption and assignment (as applicable) of such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or (c) the Confirmation or Consummation of the Plan, then such provision shall be deemed modified such that the transactions contemplated by the Plan shall not entitle the non-debtor party thereto to modify or terminate such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or to exercise any other default-related rights or remedies with respect thereto, and any required consent under any such contract or lease shall be deemed satisfied by the Confirmation of the Plan. Each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease assumed and/or assigned pursuant to the Plan shall revest in and be fully enforceable by the applicable Reorganized Debtor or the applicable assignee in accordance with its terms and conditions, except as modified by the provisions of the Plan, any order of this Court approving its assumption and/or assignment, or applicable law.

32. Claims on Account of the Rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases. All proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or this Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with this Court within twenty-one (21) days after service of an order of this Court (including this Confirmation Order) approving such rejection. Any Claim arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that becomes an Allowed Claim is classified and shall be treated as a Class 6 General Unsecured Claim. Any Person or Entity that is required to File a proof of Claim arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or an Unexpired Lease that fails to timely do so shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from asserting such Claim, and such Claim shall not be enforceable, against the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors or the Estates, and the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors and their Estates and their respective assets and property shall be forever discharged from any and all indebtedness and liability with respect to such Claim unless otherwise ordered by this Court or as otherwise provided herein. All such Claims shall, as of the Effective Date, be subject to the permanent injunction set forth in Article X.F of the Plan.

33. Assumption of the Indemnification Obligations, D&O Liability Insurance Policies and Fiduciary Liability Insurance Policies. On the Effective Date, all Indemnification Provisions shall be deemed and treated as Executory Contracts that are and shall be assumed by the Debtors

(and assigned to the applicable Reorganized Debtors, if necessary) pursuant to section 365(a) and section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code as to which no proof of Claim, request for administrative expense, or Cure Claim need be Filed, and all Claims arising from the Indemnification Provisions shall survive the Effective Date and be Unimpaired. Unless previously effectuated by separate order entered by this Court, entry of this Confirmation Order shall constitute this Court's approval of the Debtors' assumption of each of the Indemnification Provisions. Confirmation and Consummation of the Plan shall not impair or otherwise modify any available defenses of the Reorganized Debtors or other applicable parties under the Indemnification Provisions. For the avoidance of doubt, the Indemnification Provisions shall continue to apply with respect to actions, or failures to act, that occurred on or prior to the Effective Date, subject to the terms and conditions of the Indemnification Provisions.

34. On the Effective Date, each D&O Liability Insurance Policy shall be deemed and treated as an Executory Contract that is and will be assumed by the Debtors (and assigned to the applicable Reorganized Debtors, if necessary) pursuant to section 365(a) and section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code as to which no proof of Claim, request for administrative expense, or Cure Claim need be Filed, and all Claims arising from the D&O Liability Insurance Policies will survive the Effective Date and be Unimpaired. Unless previously effectuated by separate order entered by this Court, entry of this Confirmation Order shall constitute this Court's approval of the Debtors' assumption of each of the D&O Liability Insurance Policies. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Reorganized Debtors shall maintain and continue in full force and effect the D&O Liability Insurance Policies for the benefit of the insured Persons for the full term of such policies, and all insured Persons, including without limitation, any members, managers, directors, and officers of the Reorganized Debtors who served in such capacity at any time prior to the Effective Date or any other individuals covered by such D&O Liability Insurance Policies, shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policies for the full term of such policies regardless of whether such insured Persons remain in such positions after the Effective Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, after assumption of the D&O Liability Insurance Policies, nothing in the Plan or this Confirmation Order alters the terms and conditions of the D&O Liability Insurance Policies. Confirmation and Consummation of the Plan shall not impair or otherwise modify any available defenses of the Reorganized Debtors under the D&O Liability Insurance Policies. For the avoidance of doubt, the D&O Liability Insurance Policies shall continue to apply with respect to actions, or failures to act, that occurred on or prior to the Effective Date, subject to the terms and conditions of the D&O Liability Insurance Policies. The Debtors are further authorized to take such actions, and to execute and deliver such documents, as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to implement, maintain, cause the binding of, satisfy any terms or conditions of, or otherwise secure for the insureds the benefits of the D&O Tail, without further notice to or order of this Court or approval or consent of any Person or Entity.

35. Postpetition Contracts. Contracts and leases entered into after the Petition Date by any Debtor, including, without limitation, any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease assumed by a Debtor pursuant to the Plan, are binding and may be performed by the applicable Debtor or Reorganized Debtor in the ordinary course of business without further approval of this Court. Such contracts and leases (including any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease assumed pursuant to the Plan) shall survive and remain unaffected by entry of this Confirmation Order or the occurrence of the Effective Date.

36. Existing Leases, Lease Amendments, Entry into New Leases, and Other Real Estate Related Agreements. Without any further notice to or action, order or approval of this Court, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors and their successors are authorized and empowered to (a) amend their existing leases, licenses, and use agreements of any kind (including joint or shared use agreements, equipment use agreements, easements, right of way agreements, co-ownership agreements, and partnership agreements related solely to real property and personal property usage) (collectively, "Lease & Use Agreements"), (b) exercise any options under existing Lease & Use Agreements, (c) terminate existing Lease & Use Agreements, (d) enter into new Lease & Use Agreements, and (e) enter into settlement or decommissioning agreements in connection with the termination of any Lease & Use Agreements (which may include the sale or transfer of any personal property located at a leased location by any of the Debtors to a third party so long as the value of such personal property in each instance totals less than $50,000), each as necessary in the ordinary course of business. Any such Lease & Use Agreements are binding and may be performed by the applicable Debtor or Reorganized Debtor in the ordinary course of business without further approval of this Court.

37. Professional Compensation. All final requests for Professional Fee Claims shall be Filed no later than forty-five (45) days after the Effective Date. After notice in accordance with the procedures established by the Bankruptcy Code and prior Court orders, the Allowed amounts of such Professional Fee Claims shall be determined by this Court. Objections to any Professional Fee Claim must be Filed and served on the Reorganized Debtors and the requesting party by no later than twenty-one (21) days after the Filing of the applicable final request for payment of the Professional Fee Claim.

38. No later than the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall establish and fund the Professional Fee Escrow Account with Cash equal to the Professional Fee Reserve Amount. The Professional Fee Escrow Account shall be maintained by the Reorganized Debtors, in trust solely for the benefit of the Professionals. The Reorganized Debtors shall not commingle any funds contained in the Professional Fee Escrow Account. No Liens, claims, or interests shall encumber the Professional Fee Escrow Account or Cash held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account in any way. Such funds shall not be considered property of the Estates, the Debtors, or the Reorganized Debtors. The amount of Professional Fee Claims owing to the Professionals shall be paid in full in Cash to such Professionals by the Reorganized Debtors from the Professional Fee Escrow Account within five (5) Business Days after such Professional Fee Claims are Allowed by a Final Order; provided that the Debtors' and the Reorganized Debtors' obligations to pay Allowed Professional Fee Claims shall not be limited or deemed limited to funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account. When all such Professional Fee Claims have been resolved (either because they are Allowed Professional Fee Claims that have been paid or because they have been disallowed, expunged, or withdrawn), any remaining amount in the Professional Fee Escrow Account shall promptly be paid to the Reorganized Debtors without any further action or order of this Court and distributed as set forth herein. To the extent that funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account are insufficient to satisfy the Allowed amount of Professional Fee Claims owing to the Professionals, the Reorganized Debtors shall pay such amounts within ten (10) Business Days after entry of the order approving such Professional Fee Claims.

39. To receive payment for unbilled fees and expenses incurred through the Confirmation Date, the Professionals shall estimate their accrued and unpaid Professional Fee Claims from the Petition Date through and as of the Effective Date and shall deliver such estimate to the Debtors, Gibson Dunn, and Akin, within five (5) days of the Effective Date. If a Professional does not provide such estimate, the Reorganized Debtors shall estimate the accrued and unpaid fees and expenses of such Professional in consultation with the Ad Hoc Groups Advisors; provided that such estimate shall not be considered an admission or limitation with respect to the fees and expenses of such Professional. The total amount so estimated as of the Effective Date shall comprise the Professional Fee Reserve Amount; provided that the Reorganized Debtors shall use Cash on hand to increase the amount of the Professional Fee Escrow Account to the extent fee applications are Filed after the Effective Date in excess of the amount held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account based on such estimates.

40. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, from and after the Confirmation Date, each Reorganized Debtor shall in the ordinary course of business pay (subject to the receipt of an invoice) in Cash the reasonable and documented legal, professional, or other fees and expenses incurred by such Debtor or Reorganized Debtor (as applicable) after the Confirmation Date without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of this Court. Upon the Confirmation Date, any requirement that Professionals comply with sections 327 through 331 and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code in seeking retention or compensation for services rendered after such date shall terminate, and each Reorganized Debtor may employ and pay any Professional in the ordinary course of business without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of this Court.

41. Restructuring Expenses. The Restructuring Expenses incurred, or estimated to be incurred, up to and including the Effective Date shall be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date (to the extent not previously paid during the course of the Chapter 11 Cases) in accordance with, and subject to, the terms set forth in the Plan and in the Restructuring Support Agreement, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Second Lien Notes Documents and/or DIP Orders, as applicable, without any requirement to File a fee application with this Court or for this Court's review or approval. On or before the date that is five (5) days prior to the Effective Date, invoices for all Restructuring Expenses incurred or estimated to be incurred prior to and as of the Effective Date shall be submitted to the Debtors and paid by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, in accordance with, and subject to, the terms set forth in the Plan and in the Restructuring Support Agreement, the First Lien Credit Documents, the Second Lien Notes Documents and/or DIP Orders, as applicable. In addition, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors (as applicable) shall continue to pay, when due and payable in the ordinary course, the Restructuring Expenses related to the Plan and implementation, Consummation, and defense of the Restructuring Transactions, whether incurred before, on, or after the Effective Date, in accordance with any applicable engagement letter, the Restructuring Support Agreement, the DIP Orders, the First Lien Credit Documents and/or the Second Lien Notes Documents, as applicable.

42. Ordinary Course Professionals. On and after the Confirmation Date, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, are authorized to pay any accrued amounts owed to ordinary course professionals that are not Professionals retained pursuant to an order of this Court or for which compensation and reimbursement has been Allowed by this Court pursuant to section 503(b)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code. On and after the Confirmation Date, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, are authorized to retain and make payments to ordinary course professionals in the ordinary course of business without further Court approval.

43. Settlement Agreements and Payments. As of the Confirmation Date, and in accordance with the consent rights contained in the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Debtors are authorized, with the consent of the Required Consenting Lenders for any settlement that requires payment by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, of an amount exceeding $100,000 in Cash, to enter into settlement agreements with respect to Claims or Causes of Action asserted by or against the Debtors or their Estates, and all such settlement agreements are hereby approved to the extent they are consistent with the Plan, the DIP Orders, and the consent rights contained in the Restructuring Support Agreement. The Debtors are authorized, as of the Confirmation Date, to pay any amounts due and owing under such settlement agreements without further notice to or order of this Court.

44. De Minimis Real Estate Sale Procedures. As of the Confirmation Date, the Debtors (upon the Debtors' compliance with any consent rights contained in the Restructuring Support Agreement or the DIP Orders) may use, sell, or transfer any real properties owned by any of the Debtors that are not essential to the Debtors' business (the "Non-Core Real Properties") on the best terms available under the following procedures (the "De Minimis Real Estate Sale Procedures"):

(a) With regard to uses, sales, or transfers of the Non-Core Real Properties in any individual transaction or series of related transactions to a single buyer or group of related buyers with a total transaction value, as calculated within the Debtors' reasonable discretion, of less than or equal to $5 million:

(i) the Debtors, subject to the respective consent rights of the Required Consenting First Lien Lenders and the Required Consenting Second Lien Noteholders set forth in Section 2 of the Restructuring Support Agreement, are authorized to consummate a sale transaction in the period between Confirmation Date and the Effective Date without further order of this Court and subject only to the noticing procedures set forth herein, if the Debtors determine in the reasonable exercise of their business judgment that such transaction is in the best interest of the Estates;

(ii) the Debtors shall, at least seven (7) calendar days' prior to closing such sale or effectuating such transaction, give written notice (email being sufficient) of such transaction (the "Transaction Notice") to (a) the United States Trustee; (b) counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group; (c) counsel to the Ad Hoc Second Lien Group; (d) counsel to the DIP Agent; (e) counsel to the First Lien Agent; (f) any known affected creditor(s), including counsel to any creditor asserting a Lien on the relevant Non-Core Real Property; and (g) those parties requesting notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (collectively, the "Transaction Notice Parties");

(iii) each Transaction Notice shall: (a) identify the Non-Core Real Property being used, sold, or transferred; (b) identify the purchaser of the Non-Core Real Property; (c) identify the holders known to the Debtors as holding Liens on the Non-Core Real Property, if any; (d) include the purchase price; (e) include the proposed closing date; (f) include the material economic terms and conditions of the sale or transfer; (g) include any commission, fees, or other customary expenses to be paid in connection with such transaction; and (h) provide instructions consistent with the terms described below regarding the procedures to assert objections to the proposed sale;

(iv) if the terms of a proposed sale or transfer are materially amended (in the reasonable judgment of the Debtors) after transmittal of the Transaction Notice, the Debtors will send (email being sufficient) a revised Transaction Notice (the "Amended Transaction Notice") to the Transaction Notice Parties, after which the Transaction Notice Parties shall have an additional three (3) calendar days to object to such sale or transfer prior to closing such sale or effectuating such transaction;

(v) each of the Transaction Notice Parties shall have the right to object to any proposed sale or transfer of the Non-Core Real Properties by notifying the Debtors and their counsel in writing (email being sufficient) of such objection within three (3) business days after receiving such notice, without the need to file a formal objection with this Court, and, if after good faith negotiations, the Debtors and any objecting Transaction Notice Party are unable to resolve such objection consensually, the Debtors shall file, within three (3) business days after receiving notice that the objection will not be resolved, a formal motion and the matter shall be resolved by this Court prior to the closing of the sale at a hearing to be scheduled as soon as reasonably practicable and in accordance with this Court's calendar; provided that the terms of any resolution reached between the Debtors and any objecting Transaction Notice Party shall be provided to the other Transaction Notice Parties as soon as reasonably practicable following such resolution;

(vi) if no written objections are transmitted in accordance with the procedures outlined above within the greater of (a) seven (7) calendar days of service of such Transaction Notice or (b) three (3) calendar days of service of an Amended Transaction Notice, as applicable (the "Transaction Notice Period"), the Debtors are authorized to consummate such transaction immediately; and

(vii) if a written objection, whether formal or informal, is received from a Transaction Notice Party within the Transaction Notice Period, then the relevant Non-Core Real Property shall only be sold or transferred upon the consensual resolution of the objection or further order of this Court after notice and a hearing.

(b) With regard to the uses, sales, or transfers of Non-Core Real Properties in any individual transaction or series of related transactions to a single buyer or group of related buyers with a total transaction value, as calculated within the Debtors' reasonable discretion, of greater than $5 million and less than or equal to $10 million:

(i) the Debtors, subject to the respective consent rights of the Required Consenting First Lien Lenders and the Required Consenting Second Lien Noteholders set forth in Section 2 of the Restructuring Support Agreement, are authorized to consummate such transactions if the Debtors determine in the reasonable exercise of their business judgment that such transactions are in the best interest of the estates, without further order of this Court, subject to the procedures set forth herein;

(ii) the Debtors shall, at least ten (10) calendar days' prior to closing such sale or effectuating such transaction, file a notice with this Court and give written notice (email being sufficient) of such transaction substantially in the form of the Transaction Notice to the Transaction Notice Parties;

(iii) each Transaction Notice shall: (a) identify the Non-Core Real Property being used, sold, or transferred; (b) identify the Debtor that directly owns the Non-Core Real Property; (c) identify the purchaser of the Non-Core Real Property; (d) identify the holders known to the Debtors as holding Liens on the Non-Core Real Property, if any; (e) include the purchase price and the material economic terms and conditions of the sale, or transfer; (f) include a copy of the sale or transfer agreement evidencing the sale of the Non-Core Real Property; (g) include any commission, fees, or other customary expenses to be paid in connection with such transaction; and (h) provide instructions consistent with the terms described herein regarding the procedures to assert objections to the proposed sale; the notice to be filed with the Court shall contain the same categories of information required to be contained in the Transaction Notice other than items (f) and (g);

(iv) if the terms of a proposed sale or transfer are materially amended (in the reasonable judgment of the Debtors), the Debtors will file an Amended Transaction Notice and will serve the Transaction Notice Parties with the Amended Transaction Notice, after which any party in interest shall have an additional three (3) calendar days to object to such sale or transfer prior to the Debtors closing such sale or effectuating such transaction;

(v) if no written objections are filed and served on the Debtors with a copy to their counsel (email being sufficient) by any party in interest within the Transaction Notice Period, the Debtors are authorized to consummate such transaction immediately; and

(vi) if a written objection, whether formal or informal, is received from a Transaction Notice Party or party in interest within the Transaction Notice

Period that cannot be resolved, the transaction can be consummated only upon withdrawal of such written objection, whether formal or informal, or further order of this Court.

(c) The Debtors will provide a written report to this Court and the Transaction Notice Parties, beginning with the month ending March 31, 2024 concerning any De Minimis Sale Transaction consummated during the preceding calendar month, including the names of the purchasing or selling parties, as applicable, and the types and amounts of the transactions.

(d) Good faith purchasers of assets pursuant to these De Minimis Real Estate Sale Procedures shall be entitled to the protections of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(e) Pursuant to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, all sales and transfers of Non-Core Real Properties pursuant to these De Minimis Real Estate Sale Procedures shall be free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, and interests, if any, with any and all such valid and perfected liens, claims, encumbrances, and interests to either (a) be satisfied from the proceeds of the sale or (b) attach to proceeds of the sales with the same validity, priority, force, and effect such liens, claims, encumbrances, and interests had on the property immediately prior to the sale or transfer, subject to the rights, claims, defenses, and obligations, if any, of the Debtors and all interested parties with respect to any such asserted liens, claims, encumbrances, and interests. For the avoidance of doubt, the absence of a timely objection to the sale of the Non-Core Real Property in accordance with the De Minimis Real Estate Sale Procedures shall constitute "consent" to such sale within the meaning of section 363(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(f) For the avoidance of doubt, after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors may use, sell, or transfer any Non-Core Real Property without further order of, notice to, or supervision by this Court.

(g) For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall abrogate the requirements of the DIP Orders with respect to the proceeds from the sale of any Non-Core Real Property. Nothing in this paragraph shall impact or diminish the "free and clear" nature of any sale consummated pursuant to these "De Minimis Real Estate Sale Procedures" provided that the Required DIP Lenders have received advance notice of such sale and have consented to its terms.

45. Management Incentive Plan. Within 120 days following the Effective Date, the New Board shall adopt a management incentive plan that provides for the issuance of the MIP Equity to employees and directors of the Reorganized Debtors. Ten percent (10%) of the fully diluted New Common Stock issued and outstanding on the Effective Date (inclusive of the shares that may be issued in connection with the exercise of the Special Warrants, but excluding shares that may be issued in connection with the exercise of the New Second Lien Warrants) shall be reserved for issuance under the Management Incentive Plan. The amount of New Common Stock to be allocated and awarded under the Management Incentive Plan, the form of the MIP Equity (i.e., stock options, restricted stock, appreciation rights, other equity-based awards, etc.), the participants in the Management Incentive Plan, the allocations of the MIP Equity to such participants (including the amount of allocations and the timing of the grant of the MIP Equity, except as provided herein), and the terms and conditions of the MIP Equity (including vesting, exercise prices, base values, hurdles, forfeiture, repurchase rights and transferability) shall be determined by the New Board in its sole discretion.

46. Employment Plans, Deferred Compensation Payments. The Specified Employee Plans shall be deemed to be and treated as Executory Contracts under the Plan and on the Effective Date, in accordance with the Restructuring Support Agreement, shall be assumed by the Debtors (and assigned to the Reorganized Debtors, if necessary) pursuant to section 365(a) and section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to which no proof of Claim, request for administrative expense, or Cure Claim need be Filed; provided that severance payments to any "insider" (as defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) of the Debtors terminated during the Chapter 11 Cases shall be subject to sections 503(c)(2) and 502(b)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent each section is applicable; provided, further, that notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, all employee equity incentive plans of the Debtors in effect prior to the Effective Date shall be canceled on the Effective Date. After the Effective Date, the New Board shall, in its discretion, implement employee incentive or bonus plans as and when it deems appropriate in accordance with the terms of any applicable New Governance Document; provided that the Management Incentive Plan shall be implemented pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the Plan, including Article V.I of the Plan. Within 120 days of the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall negotiate and enter into amendments solely to supplement the Specified Employment Agreements with respect to equity grants under the Management Incentive Plan. Unless previously effectuated by separate order entered by this Court, entry of this Confirmation Order shall constitute this Court's approval of the Debtors' assumption of each of the Specified Employee Plans. Confirmation and Consummation of the Plan shall not impair or otherwise modify any available defenses of the Reorganized Debtors under the Specified Employee Plans.

47. On and after the Confirmation Date, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, are authorized to make payments pursuant to terms of the Deferred Compensation Plans, including any unpaid amounts due on or prior to the Confirmation Date.

48. Plan Distributions. Except as otherwise provided in the "Treatment" sections in Article III of the Plan, initial distributions to be made on account of Claims that are Allowed Claims as of the Effective Date shall be made on the Effective Date or as soon thereafter as is practicable. Any payment or distribution required to be made under the Plan on a day other than a Business Day shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day. Distributions on account of Disputed Claims that first become Allowed Claims after the Effective Date shall be made pursuant to Article VIII of the Plan.

49. Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, the applicable Distribution Agent(s) may make distributions of Plan Securities (otherwise permitted under the Plan to be made to an Electing DIP Lender, Holder of Allowed First Lien Claims, or Holder of Allowed Second Lien Claims) to the designated affiliate(s) of the applicable Electing DIP Lenders, Holders of Allowed First Lien Claims and Holders of Allowed Second Lien Claims to the extent that such designation: (i) complies with all applicable non-bankruptcy laws (including Communications Laws) and, in the reasonable judgment of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, would not cause any violations thereof or require that the Debtors amend any applications previously submitted to the Federal Communications Commission prior to the Effective Date; (ii) is communicated to the applicable Distribution Agent(s) prior to the Effective Date (including in accordance with the FCC Procedures Order); and (iii) can be reasonably accommodated by the applicable Distribution Agent(s) (including without unreasonably delaying the occurrence of the Effective Date).

50. Setoffs. Except as otherwise expressly provided for herein or in the Plan, each Reorganized Debtor, pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code (including section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code), applicable non-bankruptcy law, or as may be agreed to by the Holder of a Claim, may set off against any Allowed Claim (other than an Allowed Claim held by a Consenting Lender, a DIP Lender, or a Securitization Program Party) and the distributions to be made pursuant to the Plan on account of such Allowed Claim (before any distribution is made on account of such Allowed Claim), any claims, rights, and Causes of Action of any nature that such Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, may hold against the Holder of such Allowed Claim, to the extent such Claims, rights, or Causes of Action against such Holder have not been otherwise compromised or settled on or prior to the Effective Date (whether pursuant to the Plan or otherwise); provided that neither the failure to effect such a setoff nor the allowance of any Claim pursuant to the Plan shall constitute a waiver or release by such Reorganized Debtor of any such Claims, rights, and Causes of Action that such Reorganized Debtor may possess against such Holder. In no event shall any Holder of a Claim be entitled to set off any such Claim against any Claim, right, or Cause of Action of the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor (as applicable), unless such Holder has Filed a motion with this Court requesting the authority to perform such setoff on or before the Effective Date, and notwithstanding any indication in any proof of Claim or otherwise that such Holder asserts, has, or intends to preserve any right of setoff pursuant to section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise.

51. Operation as of the Effective Date. On and after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors may (a) operate their respective businesses, (b) use, acquire, and dispose of their respective property and (c) compromise or settle any Claims, in each case without notice to, supervision of or approval by this Court and free and clear of any restrictions of the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules, including for the avoidance of doubt any restrictions on the use, acquisition, sale, lease, or disposal of property under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than restrictions expressly imposed by the Plan or this Confirmation Order.

52. Discharge of Debtors. To the fullest extent provided under section 1141(d)(1)(A) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, except as otherwise expressly provided by the Plan (including, without limitation, Articles V.D and V.E of the Plan) or this Confirmation Order, effective as of the Effective Date, all consideration distributed under the Plan shall be in exchange for, and in complete satisfaction, settlement, discharge, and release of, all Claims, Equity Interests and Causes of Action of any kind or nature whatsoever against the Debtors or any of their respective assets or properties, including any interest accrued on such Claims or Equity Interests from and after the Petition Date, and regardless of whether any property shall have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of such Claims, Equity Interests or Causes of Action.

53. Except as otherwise expressly provided by the Plan (including, without limitation, Articles V.D and V.E of the Plan) or this Confirmation Order, upon the Effective Date, the Debtors and their Estates shall be deemed discharged and released under and to the fullest extent provided under sections 524 and 1141(d)(1)(A) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code from any and all Claims of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, but not limited to, demands and liabilities that arose before Confirmation, and all debts of the kind specified in sections 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code. Such discharge shall void any judgment obtained against the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors at any time, to the extent that such judgment relates to a discharged Claim.

54. Except as otherwise expressly provided by the Plan (including, without limitation, Articles V.D and V.E of the Plan) or this Confirmation Order, upon the Effective Date: (a) the rights afforded in the Plan and the treatment of all Claims and Equity Interests shall be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, settlement, discharge, and release of all Claims and Equity Interests of any nature whatsoever, including any interest accrued on such Claims from and after the Petition Date, against the Debtors or any of their respective assets, property, or Estates; (b) all Claims and Equity Interests shall be satisfied, discharged, and released in full, and each Debtor's liability with respect thereto shall be extinguished completely without further notice or action; and (c) all Entities shall be precluded from asserting against the Debtors, the Estates, the Reorganized Debtors, each of their respective successors and assigns, and each of their respective assets and properties, any such Claims or Equity Interests, whether based upon any documents, instruments or any act or omission, transaction, or other activity of any kind or nature that occurred prior to the Effective Date or otherwise.

55. Payment of Statutory Fees and Compliance with Reporting Requirements. All fees due and payable pursuant to section 1930 of chapter 123 of the Judicial Code prior to the Effective Date shall be paid by the Debtors. On and after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall pay any and all such fees when due and payable, and shall File with this Court quarterly reports in a form reasonably acceptable to the United States Trustee. Each Debtor shall remain obligated to pay quarterly fees to the United States Trustee until the earliest of that particular Debtor's case being closed, dismissed, or converted to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

56. Releases by the Debtors. Pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, the Debtor Release set forth in Article X.B.1 in the Plan is approved and authorized.[4]

57. Third-Party Releases. Pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Third Party Release set forth in Article X.B.2 of the Plan is approved, authorized and shall be effective as of the Effective Date without further notice to or order of this Court, act or action under applicable law, regulation, order, or rule or the vote, consent, authorization or approval of any Person and this Confirmation Order hereby permanently enjoins the commencement or prosecution by any Person or Entity, whether directly, derivatively or otherwise, of any Claims, obligations, suits, judgments, damages, demands, debts, rights, Causes of Action, or liabilities released pursuant to the Third Party Release set forth in the Plan. The releases set forth in Article X.B.2 were made for substantial consideration.

58. Exculpation. The exculpations set forth in Article X.E of the Plan are hereby approved and authorized; provided that such exculpations shall apply to each Exculpated Party solely in its capacity as a fiduciary of the Debtors or the Debtors' estates.

59. Injunction. As contemplated in Article X.F of the Plan, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, from and after the Effective Date,

[4] For purposes of the releases approved in paragraphs 56 and 57 of this Confirmation Order, the term "Related Parties" solely with respect to references to the Related Parties of the Second Lien Indenture Trustee shall mean its respective predecessors, successors and assigns, and its current and former directors, managers, officers, equity holders (regardless of whether such interests are held directly or indirectly), employees, agents, trustees, advisory or subcommittee board members, financial advisors, representatives, attorneys, and other professionals, in each case acting in such capacity, and any Person or Entity claiming by or through any of them, including such Related Party's respective heirs, executors, estates, servants, and nominees.

all Persons and Entities are, to the fullest extent provided under section 524 and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, permanently enjoined from (a) commencing or continuing, in any manner or in any place, any suit, action or other proceeding; (b) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering in any manner any judgment, award, decree, or order; (c) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any lien or encumbrance of any kind; (d) asserting a setoff or right of subrogation or recoupment of any kind; or (e) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind, in each case on account of or with respect to any Claim, demand, liability, obligation, debt, right, Cause of Action, Equity Interest, or remedy released or to be Released, exculpated or to be exculpated, settled or to be settled or discharged or to be discharged pursuant to the Plan or this Confirmation Order against any Person or Entity so released, discharged, or exculpated (or the property or estate of any Person or Entity so released, discharged, or exculpated). All injunctions or stays provided for in the Chapter 11 Cases under section 105 or section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, and in existence at the time of Confirmation, shall remain in full force and effect until the Effective Date.

60. No Person or Entity may commence or pursue a Claim or Cause of Action of any kind against the debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Exculpated Parties, or the Released Parties that relates to or is reasonably likely to relate to any act or omission in connection with, relating to, or arising out of a claim or cause of action related to the Chapter 11 Cases prior to the Effective Date, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, or filing of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or any transaction related to the restructuring, any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into before or during the Chapter 11 Cases in connection with the Restructuring Transactions, any preference, fraudulent transfer, or other avoidance claim arising pursuant to chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance of securities pursuant to the Plan, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date related or relating to any of the foregoing, without regard to whether such Person or Entity is a Releasing Party, without this Court (a) first determining, after notice and a hearing, that such claim or cause of action represents a colorable claim of any kind and (b) specifically authorizing such Person or Entity to bring such Claim or Cause of Action against any such Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, Exculpated Party, or Released Party. This Court will have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to adjudicate the underlying colorable Claim or Causes of Action. At the hearing for this Court to determine whether such Claim or Cause of Action represents a colorable claim of any kind, this Court may, or shall if any Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, or other party in interest requests by motion (oral motion being sufficient), direct that such Person or Entity seeking to commence or pursue such Claim or Cause of Action file a proposed complaint with this Court embodying such Claim or Cause of Action, such complaint satisfying the applicable Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including, but not limited to, rule 8 and rule 9 (as applicable), which this Court shall assess before making a determination.

61. Exemption from Securities Laws. The offering, issuance, and distribution of Plan Securities (including the issuance of New Common Stock upon exercise of the Special Warrants or the New Second Lien Warrants and Class A New Common Stock upon conversion of Class B New Common Stock) with respect to the First Lien Claims Equity Distribution and the Second Lien Notes Claims Equity Distribution shall be exempt from, among other things, the registration requirements of section 5 of the Securities Act and any other applicable law requiring registration before the offering, issuance, distribution or sale of securities pursuant to section 1145(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

62. The Plan Securities (including the issuance of New Common Stock upon exercise of the Special Warrants and Class A New Common Stock upon conversion of Class B New Common Stock) issued with respect to the DIP-to-Exit Equity Distribution will be issued in reliance upon the exemption from registration under the Securities Act set forth in section 4(a)(2), Regulation D and/or Regulation S.

63. The Plan Securities with respect to the First Lien Claims Equity Distribution and Second Lien Notes Claims Equity Distribution issued and distributed pursuant to section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code shall be freely transferable by the recipients thereof, subject to (a) any limitations that may be applicable to any Person receiving such securities that is an "affiliate" of Reorganized Parent as determined in accordance with applicable U.S. securities law and regulations or is otherwise an "underwriter" as defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; (b) any transfer restrictions of such securities and instruments in the New Governance Documents; and (c) the receipt of applicable regulatory approvals, including any applicable required FCC approval.

64. The Plan Securities issued pursuant to Section 4(a)(2), Regulation D and/or Regulation S will be "restricted securities" subject to resale restrictions and may be resold, exchanged, assigned or otherwise transferred only pursuant to registration (or an applicable exemption from such registration requirements) under the Securities Act and other applicable law. Such securities will also be subject to any transfer restrictions in the New Governance Documents and the receipt of applicable regulatory approvals, including any applicable required FCC approval.

65. Stock Transfer Agent. Should the Reorganized Debtors elect, on or after the Effective Date, to reflect all or any portion of the ownership of Plan Securities through the facilities of DTC (and any stock transfer agent), the Reorganized Debtors shall not be required to provide any further evidence to DTC (or any stock transfer agent) other than the Plan or Confirmation Order with respect to the treatment of such applicable portion of the Plan Securities, and such Plan or Confirmation Order shall be deemed to be legal and binding obligations of the Reorganized Debtors in all respects. DTC (and any stock transfer agent) shall be required to accept and conclusively rely upon the Plan and Confirmation Order in lieu of a legal opinion regarding whether the Plan Securities are exempt from registration and/or eligible for DTC book-entry delivery, settlement, and depository services. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, neither DTC nor any stock transfer agent may require a legal opinion regarding the validity of any transaction contemplated by the Plan, including, for the avoidance of doubt, whether the Plan Securities (including the New Common Stock, Special Warrants, New Second Lien Warrants, and New Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Special Warrants and/or New Second Lien Warrants) are exempt from registration and/or eligible for DTC book-entry delivery, settlement, and depository services.

66. Special Warrants. Each Person or Entity that receives Special Warrants pursuant to the Plan shall automatically be deemed to be a party to the Special Warrants Agreement, in accordance with its terms. Subject to, and upon the occurrence of, the Effective Date, and without further notice to any party, or further order or other approval of this Court, or further act or action under applicable law, regulation, order, or rule, or the vote, consent, authorization, or approval of any Person, the Special Warrants Agreement is approved and shall be valid and binding on the Reorganized Debtors and all holders of Special Warrants issued pursuant to the Plan.

67. New Second Lien Warrants Agreement. Each Person or Entity that receives New Second Lien Warrants pursuant to the Plan shall automatically be deemed to be a party to the New Second Lien Warrants Agreement, in accordance with its terms. Subject to, and upon the occurrence of, the Effective Date, and without further notice to any party, or further order or other approval of this Court, or further act or action under applicable law, regulation, order, or rule, or the vote, consent, authorization, or approval of any Person, the New Second Lien Warrants Agreement is approved and shall be valid and binding on the Reorganized Debtors and all holders of New Second Lien Warrants issued pursuant to the Plan.

68. Restructuring Transaction Steps Memorandum. The Restructuring Transactions shall occur pursuant to, and in the manner and order specified by, the Restructuring Transaction Steps Memorandum contained in the Plan Supplement, which may be amended or modified prior to the Effective Date. In order to implement the Restructuring Transactions, the Debtors are authorized to take the steps described in the Restructuring Transaction Steps Memorandum.

69. Exemption from Taxation. To the fullest extent permitted by section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers (whether from a Debtor to a Reorganized Debtor or to any other Person) of property under the Plan (including the Restructuring Transactions) or pursuant to: (i) the issuance, distribution, transfer, or exchange of any debt, equity security, or other interest in the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors; (ii) the creation, modification, consolidation, termination, refinancing, and/or recording of any mortgage, deed of trust, or other security interest, or the securing of additional indebtedness by such or other means; (iii) the making, assignment, or recording of any lease or sublease; (iv) the grant of collateral as security for any or all of the Exit Term Loan Facility or Exit Securitization Program; or (v) the making, delivery, or recording of any deed or other instrument of transfer under, in furtherance of, or in connection with, the Plan, including any deeds, bills of sale, assignments, or other instrument of transfer executed in connection with any transaction arising out of, contemplated by, or in any way related to the Plan (including the Restructuring Transactions and any sales pursuant to the De Minimis Real Estate Sale Procedures), shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, mortgage tax, real estate transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, Uniform Commercial Code filing or recording fee, regulatory filing or recording fee, sales or use tax, or other similar tax or governmental assessment. All appropriate state or local governmental officials, agents, or filing or recording officers (or any other Person with authority over any of the foregoing), wherever located and by whomever appointed, shall comply with the requirements of section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment, and shall accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment.

70. Continued Corporate Existence. Subject to the Restructuring Transactions permitted by Article V.A of the Plan, after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall continue to exist as separate legal Entities in accordance with the applicable law in the respective jurisdiction in which they are incorporated or formed and pursuant to their respective certificates or articles of incorporation and by-laws, or other applicable organizational documents, in effect immediately prior to the Effective Date, except to the extent such certificates or articles of incorporation and by-laws, or other applicable organizational documents, are amended, restated, cancelled, or otherwise modified by the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or otherwise, and to the extent any such document is amended, such document is deemed amended pursuant to the Plan and requires no further action or approval (other than any requisite filings required under applicable state or federal law). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Claims against a particular Debtor or Reorganized Debtor shall remain the obligations solely of such respective Debtor or Reorganized Debtor and shall not become obligations of any other Debtor or Reorganized Debtor solely by virtue of the Plan or the Chapter 11 Cases. The Reorganized Debtors shall be authorized to dissolve the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors in accordance with applicable law or otherwise, in each case as contemplated by the Restructuring Transaction Steps Memorandum, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any conversion of any of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors pursuant to applicable law, and to the extent any such Entity is dissolved, such Entity shall be deemed dissolved pursuant to the Plan and shall require no further action or approval (other than any requisite filings required under applicable state or federal law).

71. Effectiveness of All Actions. Except as otherwise set forth in the Plan, all actions authorized to be taken pursuant to the Plan or this Confirmation Order shall be effective on, prior to or after the Effective Date pursuant to this Confirmation Order, without further application to, or order of this Court, or further action by the respective officers, directors, members or stockholders of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors and with the effect that such actions had been taken by unanimous action of such officers, directors, members or stockholders. Additionally, prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors may take all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate transactions that are intended to be implemented prior to the Effective Date.

72. Authorization to Consummate. The Debtors are authorized to consummate the Plan at any time after the entry of this Confirmation Order subject to satisfaction or waiver (by the required parties) of the conditions precedent to Consummation set forth in Article IX of the Plan.

73. Approval of Consents and Authorization To Take Acts Necessary To Implement Plan. Pursuant to section 1142(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, section 303 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, and any comparable provision of the business corporation laws of any other state, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors and the officers and members of the boards of directors, boards of managers or similar governing bodies thereof, are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file or record such contracts, securities, instruments, releases and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, whether or not such action is specifically contemplated by the Plan or this Confirmation Order (whether to occur before, on, or after the Effective Date), without the need for any approvals, authorizations or consents except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan or the New Governance Documents, and the obligations thereunder shall constitute legal, valid, binding and authorized obligations of each of the respective parties thereto, enforceable in accordance with their terms.

74. No further approval by this Court shall be required for any action, transaction, or agreement that the management of the Debtors determines is necessary or appropriate to implement and effectuate or consummate the Plan, whether or not such action, transaction, or agreement is specifically contemplated in the Plan or this Confirmation Order (whether to occur before, on, or after the Effective Date). This Confirmation Order shall further constitute all approvals, consents, and directions required for the Reorganized Debtors to act consistent with the Plan and the laws, rules, and regulations of all states and any other governmental authority with respect to the implementation or consummation of the Plan and any documents, instruments, or agreements, and any other acts and transactions referred to in or contemplated by the Plan (whether to occur before, on, or after the Effective Date).

75. Unless specifically directed by this Confirmation Order or the Plan, no further action of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors shall be necessary to perform any act to comply with, implement, and effectuate the Plan. The approvals and authorizations specifically set forth in this Confirmation Order are nonexclusive and are not intended to limit the authority of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors to take any and all actions necessary or appropriate to implement, effectuate, and consummate any and all documents or transactions contemplated by the Plan or this Confirmation Order (whether to occur before, on, or after the Effective Date), including authorizing the issuance of all consideration to be issued under the Plan, and authorizing entry into all agreements necessary to effectuate the Plan.

76. Applicable Non-Bankruptcy Law. The provisions of this Confirmation Order, the Plan, the Restructuring Documents, Plan Supplement Documents, and all related documents, and any amendments or modifications thereto, shall apply and be enforceable notwithstanding any otherwise applicable non-bankruptcy law, rule, or regulation of any state, federal, or other governmental authority.

77. Confirmation Order Supersedes. It is hereby ordered that this Confirmation Order shall supersede any Court orders issued prior to the Confirmation Date to the extent of any inconsistency with this Confirmation Order.

78. Notice of Entry of Confirmation Order. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(f)(7), 2002(k) and 3020(c), the Reorganized Debtors shall promptly after entry of this Confirmation Order file notice of entry of this Confirmation Order in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the "Notice of Confirmation"), and shall cause the Notice of Confirmation to be served on the parties on whom the Combined Notice was served within ten (10) Business Days after the date of entry of this Confirmation Order or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. Such notice is adequate under the particular circumstances and no other or further notice is necessary. The form of Notice of Confirmation substantially in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A is approved.

79. Notice of Effective Date. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(f)(7), 2002(k) and 3020(c), the Reorganized Debtors shall promptly after the occurrence of the Effective Date file notice of the Effective Date in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit B (the "Notice of Effective Date"), and shall cause the Notice of Effective Date to be served on the parties on whom the Combined Notice was served within ten (10) Business Days after the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. Such notice is adequate under the particular circumstances and no other or further notice is necessary. The form of Notice of Effective Date substantially in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit B is approved.

80. Substantial Consummation. On the Effective Date, the Plan shall be deemed to be substantially consummated under sections 1101(2) and 1127(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

81. Failure To Consummate Plan. The Plan shall not become effective unless and until the conditions set forth in Article IX.A of the Plan have been satisfied or waived pursuant to Article IX.B of the Plan. If the Debtors revoke or withdraw the Plan, or if the Effective Date does not occur, with respect to one or more of the Debtors, then with respect to such applicable Debtor or Debtors: (i) the Plan will be null and void in all respects; (ii) any settlement or compromise embodied in the Plan, assumption or rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases effectuated by the Plan, and any document or agreement executed pursuant to the Plan will be null and void in all respects; and (iii) nothing contained in the Plan shall (a) constitute a waiver or release of any Claims, Equity Interests, or Causes of Action by any Entity, (b) prejudice in any manner the rights of any Debtor or any other Entity, or (c) constitute an admission, acknowledgement, offer, or undertaking of any sort by any Debtor or any other Entity.

82. Modification of Plan. Without need for further order or authorization of this Court, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, subject to the consents required by the Plan and the Restructuring Support Agreement (including the exhibits thereto), are authorized and empowered to make any and all modifications to any and all documents included as part of the Plan Supplement, and any other documents that are necessary to effectuate the Plan. The Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may, amend or modify the Plan in accordance with section 1127(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or to remedy any defect or omission or reconcile any inconsistency in the Plan in such manner as may be necessary to carry out the purpose and intent of the Plan. A Holder of a Claim that has accepted the Plan shall be deemed to have accepted the Plan, as altered, amended or modified, if the proposed alteration, amendment or modification does not materially and adversely change the treatment of the Claim of such Holder.

83. DIP Orders. For the avoidance of doubt, from entry of the Confirmation Order through the Effective Date, the Debtors shall continue to comply with all reporting, information, and budget obligations as set forth in the DIP Orders and in accordance with the terms of the DIP Orders.

84. References to Plan Provisions. The failure to include or reference any particular provision of the Plan or Plan Supplement in this Confirmation Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provision, it being the intent of this Court that the Plan be confirmed in its entirety and such provisions shall have the same binding effect, enforceability, and legality as every other provision of the Plan. Each term and provision of the Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted by this Court, is valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms.

85. Broward County, Florida Tax Liens. Notwithstanding any other language in this Confirmation Order, any valid, perfected, non-avoidable, and enforceable statutory pre-petition or post-petition tax lien held by Broward County, Florida shall be retained and remain unaltered in accordance with applicable non-bankruptcy law.

86. SAG-AFTRA Collective Bargaining Agreements. Notwithstanding anything otherwise contained herein or in the Plan, the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall assume the collective bargaining agreements ("CBAs") with the Screen Actors Guild-American Federation of Television and Radio Artists ("SAG-AFTRA") and its affiliated local unions that constitute Executory Contracts pursuant to sections 365(a) and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. The cure amounts, if any, related to the assumption of the CBAs shall be satisfied by payment by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, in the ordinary course, of all obligations arising under the CBAs, including but not limited to grievances, grievance and other settlements, arbitration awards, and contributions to the SAG-AFTRA Health Plan and the AFTRA Retirement Fund, in each case to the extent such obligations are due, owing, valid and payable in accordance with the terms of the CBAs; provided however, that that all of the Debtors' and the Reorganized Debtors' rights, remedies, defenses, privileges, claims, and counterclaims with respect to the CBAs and the claims or obligations that may arise thereunder, are expressly preserved. As a result, no proof of Claim, request for administrative expense, or Cure Claim need be Filed with respect to such cure amounts, if any.

87. Compliance with FCC Rules, Regulations, and Orders. No provision in the Plan or this Confirmation Order relieves the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors from any obligation to comply with the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules, regulations and orders promulgated under such statutes by the FCC. No transfer of any FCC license or authorization held by the Debtors or transfer of control of an FCC licensee controlled by the Debtors shall take place prior to the issuance of FCC regulatory approval for such transfer pursuant to applicable FCC regulations. The FCC's rights and powers to take any action pursuant to its regulatory authority including, but not limited to, imposing any regulatory conditions on any of the above described transfers, are fully preserved, and nothing herein shall proscribe or constrain the FCC's exercise of such power or authority.

88. SoundExchange Inc. Audit Rights. Notwithstanding anything in the Plan or this Confirmation Order to the contrary, the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors shall pay all amounts due and owing SoundExchange Inc. ("SoundExchange") in the ordinary course of business and pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §§ 380.2 and 380.10. Nothing in the Plan or this Confirmation Order shall affect, modify, diminish, enhance, release or impair the auditing payments and distribution rights, defenses, and obligations of SoundExchange, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors or any third party as set forth in 74 Fed. Reg. 9293, 9301 (Mar. 3, 2009), 37 C.F.R. §§ 380.6 and 380.15 (2015), 37 C.F.R § 380.6 (2017), and 37 C.F.R. § 380.6 (2022), as applicable, with respect to audits relating to the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors (the "Audit Claims") for the period beginning on or after January 1, 2015 (the "Audit Years") and the Audit Claims against the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors for audits of the Audit Years shall not be discharged, impaired, released or affected in any way by the release, injunction or discharge provisions set forth in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, and all such Audit Claims are expressly preserved.

89. Texas Taxing Authorities. The Texas Taxing Authorities[5] assert that they are Holders of Claims for ad valorem taxes for tax year 2024 (the "Texas Taxing Authority Claims"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Confirmation Order or the Plan, the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors shall pay the Texas Taxing Authority Claims in the ordinary course of business on the later of (a) prior to the date the Texas Taxing Authority Claims become due pursuant to the Texas Tax Code (subject to any applicable extensions, grace periods, or similar rights under the Texas Tax Code) and (b) the Effective Date (or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter). To the extent the Texas Tax Code provides for interest and/or penalties with respect to any portion of the Texas Tax Authority Claims, nothing in the Plan or this Confirmation Order prevents the inclusion of such interest and/or penalties in the Texas Taxing Authority Claims, and the Debtors' and Reorganized Debtors' defenses and rights to object to such Claims or to the inclusion of such interest or penalties in such Claims on any grounds are fully reserved and preserved. The Texas Taxing Authorities shall retain the liens (if any) that secure any Allowed Texas Taxing Authority Claims, in their pre-petition priority (to the extent the Texas Taxing Authorities' liens are valid, senior, perfected, binding, enforceable and non-avoidable), until the taxes due under this Confirmation Order are fully paid. The claims and liens of the Texas Taxing Authorities shall remain subject to any objections any party would otherwise be entitled to raise as to the priority, validity, extent, or amount of such claims and liens. Debtors sell, convey, or transfer any property which is the collateral of the Texas Taxing Authorities, the Reorganized Debtors shall remit such sales proceeds first to the Texas Taxing Authorities to be applied to the Texas Taxing Authorities' tax debt incident to any such property sold, conveyed or transferred and such proceeds shall be disbursed by the closing agent at the time of closing prior to any disbursement of the sale proceeds to any other person or entity. The Texas Taxing Authorities' lien priority shall not be primed or subordinated by any Exit Financing approved by the Court in conjunction with the Confirmation of this Plan or otherwise to the extent the Texas Taxing Authorities' liens arose in the ordinary course of business pursuant to applicable nonbankruptcy law, are valid, senior, properly-perfected, binding, enforceable and non-avoidable and are granted priority over a prior perfected security interest or lien under applicable non-bankruptcy law, and all parties' rights to challenge or dispute the foregoing are preserved. The Texas Taxing Authorities may amend their claims after the Effective Date to reflect the certified tax amounts for tax year 2024 without having to receive prior authorization to do so. The Debtors' and Reorganized Debtors' rights and defenses, if any, under Texas state law and the Bankruptcy Code with respect to this provision of the Confirmation Order, including their right to dispute or object to the Texas Tax Authorities Claims and liens, are fully preserved.

90. No Cure Claims or Objections. Parties to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases assumed by the Debtors pursuant to the Plan shall not be required to File a proof of Claim or objection in order to assert or preserve any Cure Claim. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, all Cure Claims shall be Unimpaired by the Plan and this Confirmation Order and all Cure Claims outstanding as of the Effective Date shall remain continuing obligations of the Reorganized Debtors following the Effective Date.

91. Leasehold Interests. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, the Liens granted in connection with the Exit Term Loan Facility shall not encumber (a) leasehold interests of non-residential real property that prohibit or restrict the granting of such Liens in the applicable Unexpired Lease or any storage agreement related to such an Unexpired Lease except as permitted pursuant to applicable non-bankruptcy law (but shall include the proceeds of the sale or disposition of such Unexpired Leases) and (b) any security deposits, letters of credit, and/or proceeds of any letter of credit (in possession of the landlord) or the Debtors' or the Reorganized Debtors', as applicable, interests, if any, in prepaid rent, unless Liens on such security deposits, letters of credit, proceeds of any letter of credit, and/or prepaid rent are expressly permitted pursuant to the underlying lease documents; provided that the Liens granted in connection with the Exit Term Loan Facility shall extend to any interests of the Debtors, if any, in such security deposits, letters of credit, proceeds of a letter of credit, and/or prepaid rent upon reversion thereof to the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, if applicable, if at all. Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the rights of the Secured Parties (as defined in the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Agreement) under any of the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Documents to use or occupy any premises subject to a lease of nonresidential real property shall be limited to (i) any such rights agreed to in writing by the applicable landlord, (ii) any rights of the Secured Parties that are valid and enforceable under applicable non-bankruptcy law, if any, or (iii) further order of any court with applicable jurisdiction following notice and a hearing appropriate under the circumstances.

92. Setoff and Recoupment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing in the Plan or this Confirmation Order shall modify the rights, if any, of any counterparty to an assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to assert any right of setoff or recoupment that such party may have under applicable law, including, but not limited to, the (i) ability, if any, of such parties to setoff or recoup a security deposit held pursuant to the terms of their Unexpired Lease(s) with the Debtors, or any successors to the Debtors, (ii) assertion of rights of setoff or recoupment, if any, in connection with Claims reconciliation, or (iii) assertion of setoff or recoupment as a defense, if any, to any Claim or Cause of Action by the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, or any successors of the Debtors. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, nothing in the Plan or this Confirmation Order shall modify, impair, or amend any counterparty to an assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease's rights to draw on any letter of credit and/or hold, retain, apply, setoff, or recoup any letter of credit proceeds held by such counterparty at any time in accordance with the terms of the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease and applicable law.

93. Lease Obligations. Notwithstanding anything in the Plan or this Confirmation Order to the contrary, upon assumption of an Unexpired Lease or any related storage agreement, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall be obligated to pay or perform, unless waived or otherwise modified by any amendment to such Unexpired Lease or related storage agreement mutually agreed to by the applicable landlord and Debtor(s), any and all obligations arising under such Unexpired Lease or related storage agreement, including, but not limited to, any accrued, but unbilled and not yet due to be paid or performed, obligations as of the Effective Date, including, but not limited to, to the extent required under such Unexpired Lease, common area maintenance charges, taxes, year-end adjustments, indemnity obligations, and repair and maintenance obligations, under the Unexpired Lease, when such obligations become due in the ordinary course.

94. Debtors' Bank Accounts. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Final Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Continue to (A) Operate Their Cash Management System, (B) Use Existing Checks and Business Forms, and (C) Honor Intercompany Arrangements, and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 194] (the "Final Cash Management Order"), to the extent any of the bank accounts held by a Debtor are not in compliance with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors shall have until August 19, 2024, without prejudice to seeking an additional extension, to come into compliance with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that such time period may be extended by agreement of the Debtors and the United States Trustee without further order or approval of this Court; provided, further, that nothing in this Confirmation Order or the Final Cash Management Order shall prevent the Debtors or the United States Trustee from seeking further relief from this Court to the extent that an agreement cannot be reached.

95. Waiver of Filings. Any requirement under section 521 of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rule 1007 obligating the Debtors to file any list, schedule, or statement with this Court or the United States Trustee (except for quarterly reports or any other post-confirmation reporting obligation to the United States Trustee) is hereby waived.

96. Waiver of Section 341 Meeting. Any requirement under section 341(e) for the United States Trustee to convene a meeting of creditors or equity holders is waived as of the Confirmation Date.

97. Further Assurances. From and after entry of the Confirmation Order, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall, from time to time, prepare, execute and deliver any agreements or documents and take any other actions as may be necessary or advisable to effectuate the provisions and intent of the Plan or this Confirmation Order.

98. Conflicts Between Confirmation Order and Plan. The provisions of the Plan and of this Confirmation Order shall be construed in a manner consistent with each other so as to effect the purposes of each; provided, however, that if there is determined to be any inconsistency between any Plan provision and any provision of this Confirmation Order that cannot be so reconciled, then, solely to the extent of such inconsistency, the provisions of this Confirmation Order shall govern and any such provision of this Confirmation Order shall be deemed a modification of the Plan and shall control and take precedence.

99. Nonseverability of Plan Provisions Upon Confirmation. Each provision of the Plan is: (a) valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms; (b) integral to the Plan and may not be deleted or modified except as provided for in the Plan or this Confirmation Order; and (c) nonseverable and mutually dependent. The provisions of this Confirmation Order and the provisions of the Plan are hereby deemed mutually nonseverable and mutually dependent.

100. Final Order. This Confirmation Order is a final order and the period in which an appeal must be filed shall commence upon the entry hereof. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 7062 or 3020(e), this Confirmation Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon its entry.

101. Integration of Plan and Confirmation Order Provisions. The provisions of the Plan and this Confirmation Order, including the findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth herein, are integrated with each other and are nonseverable and mutually dependent.

102. Effectiveness of Order. This Confirmation Order is and shall be deemed to be a separate order with respect to each Debtor for all purposes.

103. Retention of Jurisdiction. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, and notwithstanding the entry of this Confirmation Order and the occurrence of the Effective Date, on and after the Effective Date, this Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction over the Chapter 11 Cases and all Entities with respect to all matters arising out of or related to the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors and the Plan as legally permissible, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 1142 of the Bankruptcy Code.

104. Reversal. If any or all of the provisions of this Confirmation Order are hereafter reversed, modified or vacated by subsequent order of this Court or any other court, such reversal, modification or vacatur shall not affect the validity of the acts or obligations incurred or undertaken under or in connection with the Plan prior to the Debtors' receipt of written notice of any such order. Notwithstanding any such reversal, modification or vacatur of this Confirmation Order, any such act or obligation incurred or undertaken pursuant to, and in reliance on, this Confirmation Order prior to the effective date of such reversal, modification or vacatur shall be governed in all respects by the provisions of this Confirmation Order and the Plan and any amendments or modifications thereto.

ARTICLE III

TERMS AND EXERCISE OF SPECIAL WARRANTS

Section 3.1. Exercise Price. Each Special Warrant shall entitle each Holder, subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the right to purchase from the Reorganized Parent one share of Class A New Common Stock or Class B New Common Stock (subject to adjustment from time to time as provided in Article IV hereof), at the price of $0.0001 per share (the "Exercise Price").

Section 3.2. Exercise. Subject to Section 3.3 hereof, the Reorganized Parent shall issue Class A New Common Stock upon exercise of Special Warrants by a Holder; provided, that (i) the Reorganized Parent shall issue Class B New Common Stock if the exercising Holder has made a Class B Election on its Exercise Form; (ii) the Reorganized Parent may issue Class B New Common Stock in lieu of Class A New Common Stock to the extent necessary to comply with Section 3.3 hereof; (iii) the number of Special Warrants permitted to be exercised for Class A New Common Stock or Class B New Common Stock additionally may be limited, as applicable, to the extent necessary to comply with Section 3.3 hereof; and (iv) if the exercising Holder has made a Class A New Common Stock Non-Attribution Election on its Exercise Form, the Reorganized Parent shall issue no more than 4.99 percent (or if the Reorganized Parent determines that the exercising Holder qualifies for an exception to the FCC's rules allowing such Holder to own, directly or indirectly, 5.00 percent or more, but less than 20.00 percent, of the Class A New Common Stock without being deemed to hold an "attributable" interest in the Reorganized Parent, no more than 19.99 percent or such other maximum amount that would be consistent with the Communications Laws) of the then-outstanding Class A New Common Stock to an exercising Holder, with any remaining distribution in the form of Class B New Common Stock up to such amount which is in compliance with Section 3.3 hereof and the exercising Holder shall retain its remaining Special Warrants (if any). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, it shall be a condition to the exercise of any Special Warrant that the Holder of such Special Warrant shall execute a joinder to the New Shareholders' Agreement (or, in the case where such Holder does not execute such joinder, shall be deemed to have become a party to the New Shareholders' Agreement, irrespective of whether such Holder physically executes the New Shareholders' Agreement or a joinder thereto).

Section 3.3. Method of Exercise.

(a) In connection with the exercise of any Special Warrant, a Holder shall (i) surrender such Special Warrant (or portion thereof) to the Reorganized Parent corresponding to the number of Special Warrant Shares being exercised, (ii) pay to the Reorganized Parent the aggregate Exercise Price for the number of Special Warrant Shares being exercised, at the option of such Holder, in United States dollars by wire transfer to an account specified in writing by the Reorganized Parent to such Holder, in immediately available funds in an amount equal to the aggregate Exercise Price for such Special Warrant Shares as specified in the Exercise Form and (iii) comply with Section 6.4.

(b) Upon exercise of any Special Warrants, Reorganized Parent shall, as promptly as practicable (and in any event within five (5) Business Days), calculate and transmit to the Holder in a written notice the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable in connection with any exercise made pursuant to Article IV).

(c) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Holder of any Special Warrants wishing to exercise, in whole or in part, such Holder's right to purchase the Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of such Special Warrants shall properly complete and duly execute the exercise form for the election to exercise such Special Warrants (an "Exercise Form") substantially in the form of Exhibit A.

(d) Any exercise of Special Warrants pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be irrevocable as of the date of delivery of the Exercise Form and shall constitute a binding agreement between the Holder and the Reorganized Parent, enforceable in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(e) The Reorganized Parent reserves the right to reject any Exercise Form that it reasonably determines is not in proper form or for which any corresponding agreement by the Reorganized Parent to exchange would, in the reasonable opinion of the Reorganized Parent, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, be unlawful. Any such determination by the Reorganized Parent shall be final and binding on the Holder of the Special Warrants, absent manifest error; provided that the Reorganized Parent shall provide a Holder with the reasonable opportunity to correct any defects in its Exercise Form (without prejudicing such Holder's ability to deliver subsequent Exercise Forms). The Reorganized Parent further reserves the right to request such information (including, without limitation, information with respect to citizenship, other ownership interests and Affiliates) as the Reorganized Parent may reasonably deem appropriate, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, to determine whether the exercise of the Special Warrants would (i) be unlawful, (ii) subject the Reorganized Parent to any limitation under the Communications Laws that would not apply to the Reorganized Parent but for such exchange, or (iii) limit or impair any business activities of the Reorganized Parent under the Communications Laws, which information shall be furnished promptly by any Holder from whom such information is requested as a condition to such Holder's exercise of Special Warrants. Moreover, the Reorganized Parent reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to any particular exercise of Special Warrants or any defects in the Exercise Form(s) with regard to any particular exercise of Special Warrants. The Reorganized Parent shall provide prompt written notice to the Holder of any such rejection or waiver and in any event within five (5) Business Days of any such determination.

(f) Without limiting the foregoing and notwithstanding any provisions contained herein to the contrary, (i) no Holder shall be entitled to exercise any Special Warrant until all Regulatory Approvals required to be made to or obtained from any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over the Reorganized Parent or its Subsidiaries have been made or obtained, and in the event that all required Regulatory Approvals are not received, the Holder shall continue to hold its Special Warrants; and (ii) the Reorganized Parent may (x) prior to the FCC's grant of a declaratory ruling approving aggregate foreign ownership of the Reorganized Parent in excess of 25%, prohibit the exercise of Special Warrants which may, in the Reorganized Parent's reasonable determination, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, cause more than 22.5% of the Reorganized Parent's outstanding equity interests or the equity of any Subsidiary of the Reorganized Parent to be, directly or indirectly, owned or voted by or for the account of non-

U.S. persons as determined pursuant to the Communications Laws, or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, non-U.S. persons, , (y) require Specific Approval prior to any exercise of a Special Warrant by a Non-U.S. Person (or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, Non-U.S. Persons) to the extent necessary under the Communications Laws or the terms of any declaratory ruling obtained by Reorganized Parent or (z) prohibit the exercise of any Special Warrants if such exercise would, in the Reorganized Parent's reasonable determination, result in a violation of applicable laws or regulations.

(g) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, it shall be a condition to the exercise of any Special Warrant that upon receipt of Special Warrant Shares upon exercise, the Holder shall be deemed to have become a party to the New Shareholders' Agreement (if not already a party thereto), irrespective of whether such Holder physically executes the New Shareholders' Agreement.

(h) As soon as reasonably practicable upon receipt of all necessary Regulatory Approvals, including grant by the FCC of the petition for declaratory ruling approving aggregate foreign ownership of the Reorganized Parent in excess of 25% and receipt of the FCC's Specific Approval of any Holder requiring such approval, the Reorganized Parent shall issue a notice ("Exchange Notice") specifying a deadline for Holders to return an Election Form, which deadline shall be 10 Business Days after the date of the Exchange Notice. and provided that (i) a Holder has complied with the requirements of Sections 3.3(a) and 3.3(d), and (ii) the Reorganized Parent has reasonably determined that (x) such Holder's exercise of its Special Warrants does not violate any of the Communications Laws or the Securities Act or any decision, rule, regulation, policy, order or declaratory ruling issued by the FCC or the SEC, as applicable and (y) all conditions imposed by the FCC or any other Governmental Authority have been satisfied, such Holder's Special Warrants shall be automatically deemed exercised for either Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock (or both) pursuant to the election made by such Holder on its Exercise Form. Special Warrants held by a Holder that does not timely deliver an Exercise Form may, in the Company's reasonable discretion, be deemed exercised for only Class B Common Stock.

(i) If any full or partial exercise of Special Warrants is permitted for any Holder, each other Holder will be given the same opportunity to exercise its Special Warrants pro rata (subject to the same conditions), to the extent consistent with the Communications Laws or any order or ruling issued by the FCC or any other Governmental Authority. If any conditions to exercise of Special Warrants are modified or waived for any Holder, each other Holder will be offered the benefits of such modification or waiver (subject to the same conditions), to the extent consistent with the Communications Laws or any order or ruling issued by the FCC or any other Governmental Authority.

Section 3.4. Issuance of Common Stock.

(a) Following the valid exercise of any Special Warrants, the Reorganized Parent shall, subject to Section 3.7, promptly at its expense, and in no event later than five (5) Business Days after the Exercise Date, cause to be issued as directed by the Holder of such Special Warrants the total number of whole Special Warrant Shares for which such Special Warrants are being exercised (as the same may have been adjusted pursuant to Article IV) in such denominations as are requested by the Holder and registered as directed by the Holder.

(b) The Special Warrant Shares shall be deemed to have been issued at the time at which all of the conditions to such exercise set forth in Section 3.3 have been fulfilled (the "Exercise Date"), and the Holder, or, subject to Section 3.4(a), such other person to whom the Holder shall direct the issuance thereof, shall be deemed for all purposes to have become the holder of such Special Warrant Shares at such time.

Section 3.5. Reservation of Shares.

(a) The Reorganized Parent shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock solely for the purpose of issuance upon the exercise of the Special Warrants, a number of shares of Class A New Common Stock and Class B New Common Stock equal to the aggregate Special Warrant Shares issuable upon the exercise of all outstanding Special Warrants. The Reorganized Parent shall take all such actions as may be necessary to assure that all such shares of Common Stock may be so issued without violating the Governing Documents, any agreements to which the Reorganized Parent is a party on the date hereof or on the date of such issuance, any requirements of any national securities exchange upon which shares of Common Stock, or any other securities of the Reorganized Parent, may be listed or any applicable Laws. The Reorganized Parent shall not take any action which would cause the number of authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock to be less than the number of such shares required to be reserved hereunder for issuance upon exercise of the Special Warrants.

(b) The Reorganized Parent covenants that it will take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate in order that all Special Warrant Shares issued upon exercise of the Special Warrants will, upon issuance in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, be validly issued, fully paid and non- assessable, and free from any and all (i) security interests created by or imposed upon the Reorganized Parent and (ii) taxes, liens and charges with respect to the issuance thereof. If at any time the number and kind of authorized but unissued shares of the Reorganized Parent's capital stock shall not be sufficient to permit exercise in full of the Special Warrants, the Reorganized Parent will as promptly as practicable take such corporate action as may, in the opinion of its counsel, be reasonably necessary (including seeking stockholder approval, if required) to increase its authorized but unissued shares to such number of shares as shall be sufficient for such purposes.

Section 3.6. Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Reorganized Parent shall not be required to issue any fraction of a Special Warrant Share in connection with the exercise of any Special Warrants. In any case where the Holder of Special Warrants would, except for the provisions of this Section 3.6, be entitled under the terms thereof to receive a fraction of a share upon the exercise of such Special Warrants, the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise thereof will be rounded (i) up to the next higher whole share of Common Stock if the fraction is equal to or greater than 1/2 and (ii) down to the next lower whole share of Common Stock if the fraction is less than 1/2; provided that the number of whole Special Warrant Shares which shall be issuable upon the contemporaneous exercise of any Special Warrants by any Holder shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate number of Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of all such Special Warrants.

Section 3.7. Close of Books; Par Value.

(a) The Reorganized Parent shall not close its books against the transfer of any Special Warrants or any Special Warrant Shares in any manner which interferes with the timely exercise of such Special Warrants.

(b) Without limiting Section 3.5,

(i) the Reorganized Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to, from time to time, take all such action as may be necessary to assure that the par value per share of the unissued shares of Common Stock acquirable upon exercise of the Special Warrants is at all times equal to or less than the Exercise Price then in effect; and

(ii) the Reorganized Parent will not increase the stated or par value per share, if any, of the Common Stock above the Exercise Price per share in effect immediately prior to such increase in stated or par value.

Section 3.8. Payment of Taxes. In connection with the exercise of any Special Warrants, the Reorganized Parent shall pay any and all taxes (other than income or similar taxes) that may be payable in respect of the issue or delivery of Special Warrant Shares (including certificates therefor). The Reorganized Parent shall not be required, however, to pay any tax or other charge imposed by a Governmental Authority in respect of any transfer involved in the Reorganized Parent's issuance and delivery of any Special Warrant Shares (including certificates therefor) (or any payment of cash or other property in lieu of such shares) to any recipient other than the Holder of the Special Warrants being exercised, and in case of any such tax or other charge for which the Reorganized Parent would otherwise be liable, the Reorganized Parent shall not be required to issue or deliver any such Special Warrant Shares (or cash or other property in lieu of such Special Warrant Shares) until (i) such tax or charge has been paid or an amount sufficient for the payment thereof has been delivered to the Reorganized Parent or (ii) it has been established to the Reorganized Parent's reasonable satisfaction that any such tax or other charge that is or may become due has been paid.

Section 3.9. Redemption Event. If either (i) the Reorganized Parent proposes to redeem all or any portion of the outstanding Common Stock or (ii) the Reorganized Parent otherwise purchases or makes any offer to purchase all or any portion of the outstanding Common Stock (in each case, excluding repurchases and redemptions from any officer or employee of the Reorganized Parent or its Subsidiaries pursuant to an equity incentive plan of the Reorganized Parent approved by the Board of Directors), then the Reorganized Parent shall provide proportional consideration for or a proportional redemption of Special Warrants held by the Holders, as applicable, on the same terms as and at a price equal to the price paid to holders of Common Stock for their shares of Common Stock in connection with the Redemption Event, as if the Special Warrants had been exercised for shares of Common Stock immediately prior to such redemption or purchase.

Section 3.10. Withholding. Subject to Section 3.8, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Special Warrant to the contrary, the Reorganized Parent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold (or cause to be deducted and withheld) from any amounts or property payable or deliverable to any Person pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement or the Special Warrant such amounts as are required to be deducted or withheld under applicable law (and the Reorganized Parent shall be entitled to withhold, for the avoidance of doubt, from any amounts or property that are payable or deliverable to such Person pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement or the Special Warrant that are subsequent to the payment or delivery or other circumstance that gave rise to the requirement to deduct or withhold under applicable law); provided that, the Reorganized Parent shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to notify such Person of such withholding obligation prior to the date on which such deduction and withholding is required to be made and the parties shall take commercially reasonable steps to reduce or eliminate any such withholding. Any amounts that are so withheld by the Reorganized Parent shall be paid to the appropriate Governmental Authority and shall be treated as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such withholding was made.

ARTICLE IV

ADJUSTMENT OF NUMBER OF SPECIAL WARRANT SHARES; OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

Section 4.1. Subdivision or Combination of Common Stock. In the event the Reorganized Parent, at any time or from time to time after the date hereof while any Special Warrant remains outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, increases or decreases by combination (by reverse stock split or reclassification) or subdivision (by any stock split or reclassification) of the Common Stock (other than a stock split effected by means of a stock dividend or stock distribution to which Section 4.2 applies), then and in each such event the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable on exercise of the Special Warrants shall be increased or decreased by multiplying such number of Special Warrant Shares immediately prior to such adjustment by a fraction (i) the numerator of which shall be the Total Shares outstanding immediately following such adjustment and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the Total Shares immediately prior to such adjustment.

Section 4.2. Dividends Payable in Shares of Common Stock. In the event the Reorganized Parent shall, at any time or from time to time after the date hereof while any Special Warrant remains outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, issue shares of Common Stock by means of a dividend payable in shares of Common Stock, then and in each such event the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable on exercise of the Special Warrants shall be increased by multiplying such number of Special Warrant Shares immediately prior to such adjustment by a fraction (i) the numerator of which shall be the Total Shares outstanding immediately following such adjustment and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the Total Shares immediately prior to such adjustment.

Section 4.3. Other Distributions. In the event the Reorganized Parent shall, at any time or from time to time after the date hereof while any Special Warrant remains outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, declare one or more dividends or distributions on the Common Stock payable in cash or any securities (other than shares of Common Stock) or property, with the record date or dates therefor occurring prior to the Exercise Date of the particular Special Warrants, then upon exercise of such Special Warrants, the Reorganized Parent shall pay or issue to the Holder, or, subject to Section 3.4(a), such other Person as the Holder directs, in addition to the issuance to, or at the direction of, the Holder of the Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of the Special Warrants, an amount in cash or such securities or such other property equal to (i) the amount of all dividends or distributions of cash, securities (other than shares of Common Stock) or other property theretofore paid or payable, or issued or issuable, on one share of Common Stock, in each case from the date hereof, multiplied by (ii) the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of such Special Warrants; provided that if a dividend or distribution has been declared but not yet paid or issued, the Reorganized Parent may defer payment or issuance of the dividend or distribution to the Holder, or, subject to Section 3.4(a), such other person to whom the Holder shall direct the issuance thereof, until such time as the dividend or distribution is paid or issued to the holders of the Common Stock generally.

Section 4.4. Organic Change. In the event the Reorganized Parent shall, at any time or from time to time after the date hereof while the Special Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, consummate an Organic Change, each Holder shall be entitled, following consummation of the Organic Change, upon exercise of the Special Warrants to receive the kind and amount of cash, securities or other property that it would have been entitled to receive had such Special Warrants been exercised immediately prior to the consummation of the Organic Change. The Reorganized Parent shall not effect, or enter into an agreement to effect, an Organic Change unless, prior to the consummation of such Organic Change, the surviving Person (if a Person other than the Reorganized Parent) resulting from the Organic Change, shall assume, by written instrument substantially similar in form and substance to this Agreement in all material respects, the obligations under this Agreement, including the obligation to deliver to the Holder such cash, stock, securities or other assets or property which, in accordance with this Section 4.4, the Holder shall be entitled to receive upon exchange or exercise of the Special Warrant. The provisions of this Section 4.4 shall similarly apply to successive Organic Changes.

Section 4.5. Notice of Adjustments. Whenever the number and/or kind of Special Warrant Shares is adjusted as herein provided, the Reorganized Parent shall (i) prepare, or cause to be prepared, a written statement setting forth the adjusted number and/or kind and amount of shares of Common Stock or cash, securities (other than shares of Common Stock) issuable or payable upon the exercise of the Special Warrants after such adjustment, the facts requiring such adjustment and the computation by which adjustment was made, and (ii) give written notice to the Holders, in the manner provided in Section 7.2 below, of the record date or the effective date of the event. Failure to give such notice, or any defect therein, shall not affect the legality or validity of such event.

Section 4.6. Deferral or Exclusion of Certain Adjustments.

(a) No adjustment to the number of Special Warrant Shares shall be required hereunder unless such adjustment together with other adjustments carried forward as provided below, would result in an increase or decrease of at least 0.1% of the applicable Exercise Price or the number of Special Warrant Shares; provided that any adjustments which by reason of this Section 4.6 are not required to be made shall be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment. All calculations under this Section 4.6 shall be made the nearest one one-thousandth (1/1,000) of a share, as the case may be.

(b) In the event that the par value of the shares of Common Stock shall be reduced below the par value on the date hereof, then, without action by the Reorganized Parent or otherwise the Exercise Price shall be automatically reduced to the par value of the shares of the Common Stock as so reduced; provided that for so long as any Special Warrant remains outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, the Reorganized Parent shall not increase the par value of the shares of Common Stock or reduce the par value of the shares of Common Stock to zero.

ARTICLE V

TRANSFER AND EXCHANGE OF SPECIAL WARRANTS

Section 5.1. Registration of Transfers and Exchanges. When Special Warrants are presented to the Reorganized Parent with a written request (i) to register the Transfer of such Special Warrants or (ii) to exchange such Special Warrants for an equal number of Special Warrants of other authorized denominations, the Reorganized Parent shall register the Transfer or make the exchange, as requested if its customary requirements for such transactions are met; provided that (A) the Reorganized Parent shall have received (x) a written instruction of Transfer in form reasonably satisfactory to the Reorganized Parent, duly executed by the Holder thereof or by its attorney, duly authorized in writing along with evidence of authority that may be required by the Reorganized Parent, and (y) if a Person other than the Reorganized Parent is serving as registrar or transfer agent for the Special Warrants, a written order of the Reorganized Parent signed by an officer of the Reorganized Parent authorizing such exchange and (B) if reasonably requested by the Reorganized Parent, the Reorganized Parent shall have received a written opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to the Reorganized Parent that such Transfer is in compliance with the Securities Act or state securities laws and the Communications Laws.

Section 5.2. Procedures for Exchanges and Transfers. Subject to the other sections of this Article V, the Reorganized Parent shall, upon receipt of all information required to be delivered hereunder, from time to time register the Transfer or exchange of any outstanding Special Warrants in the Special Warrant Register, upon delivery by the Holder thereof, at the Reorganized Parent's office designated for such purpose, of a form of assignment (an "Assignment Form") substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, properly completed and duly executed by the Holder thereof or by the duly appointed legal representative thereof or by a duly authorized attorney.

Section 5.3. Restrictions on Exchanges and Transfers.

(a) No Special Warrants shall be sold, exchanged or otherwise Transferred (A) in violation of (i) the Securities Act or state securities Laws, (ii) the Communications Laws or and (iii) the Governing Documents and (B) unless the transferee delivers to the Reorganized Parent a properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable. If any Holder purports to Transfer Special Warrants to any Person in a transaction that would violate the provisions of this Section 5.3, such Transfer shall be void ab initio and of no effect.

(b) The Reorganized Parent reserves the right, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, to reject any and all Assignment Forms that it reasonably determines are not in proper form or for which any corresponding agreement by the Reorganized Parent to Transfer or exchange would, in the reasonable opinion of the Reorganized Parent, be unlawful. Any such determination by the Reorganized Parent shall be final and binding on the Holder of the Special Warrants, absent manifest error provided that the Reorganized Parent shall provide a Holder with the reasonable opportunity to correct any defects in its Assignment Forms (without prejudicing such Holder's ability to deliver subsequent Assignment Forms). The Reorganized Parent further reserves the right to request such information (including, without limitation, information with respect to citizenship, other ownership interests and Affiliates) as the Reorganized Parent may reasonably deem appropriate, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, to determine whether the Transfer or exchange of the Special Warrants would (i) during the pendency of a petition for declaratory ruling, (x) require the Reorganized Parent to obtain Specific Approval of the proposed transferee prior to the exercise of the Special Warrants subject to such Transfer or exchange, or (y) otherwise require an amendment of a petition for declaratory ruling or any other application for Regulatory Approval, (ii) be unlawful, (iii) subject the Reorganized Parent to any limitation under the Communications Laws that would not apply to the Reorganized Parent but for the exercise of the Special Warrants subject to such Transfer or exchange by the proposed transferee, or (iv) limit or impair any business activities of the Reorganized Parent under the Communications Laws, which shall be furnished promptly by any Holder from whom such information is requested as a condition to such Holder's Transfer or exchange of Special Warrants. Moreover, the Reorganized Parent reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to any particular Transfer or exchange of Special Warrants or any defects in the Assignment Form(s) with regard to any particular Transfer or exchange of Special Warrants. The Reorganized Parent shall provide prompt written notice to the Holder of any such rejection or waiver.

(c) Without limiting the foregoing and notwithstanding any provisions contained herein to the contrary, the Reorganized Parent may prohibit the Transfer or exchange of Special Warrants if the exercise of Special Warrants subject to such Transfer or exchange by the proposed transferee would, in the Reorganized Parent's reasonable determination, (i) during the pendency of a petition for declaratory ruling, (x) require the Reorganized Parent to obtain Specific Approval of the proposed transferee prior to exercise of the Special Warrants subject to such Transfer or exchange, or (y) otherwise require an amendment of a petition for declaratory ruling or any other application for Regulatory Approval, in either case that would, in the reasonable determination of the Reorganized Parent, result in a delay in obtaining the FCC's issuance of the Regulatory Approval or (ii) result in a violation of applicable laws or regulations.

Section 5.4. Obligations with Respect to Transfers and Exchanges of Special Warrants. All Special Warrants issued upon any registration of Transfer or exchange of Special Warrants shall be the valid obligations of the Reorganized Parent, entitled to the same benefits under this Agreement as the Special Warrants surrendered upon such registration of Transfer or exchange.

Section 5.5. Fractional Special Warrants. The Reorganized Parent shall not effect any registration of Transfer or exchange which will result in the issuance of a fraction of a Special Warrant.

Section 5.6. New Shareholders' Agreement Transfer Restrictions. Anything to the contrary in this Agreement notwithstanding, no Holder shall be permitted to Transfer a Special Warrant, directly or indirectly, to any Person if such Transfer would be prohibited by the New Shareholders' Agreement with respect to the Special Warrant Shares corresponding to such Special Warrants. For the purposes of this Section 5.6 an indirect transfer shall include the Transfer, directly or indirectly, of a controlling interest of any person of whom the Holder of a Special Warrant is a Subsidiary with the primary purpose of effecting of the Transfer of the ownership of the Special Warrant. All Holders shall comply with transfer restrictions in the New Shareholders' Agreement as though they were a party thereto and such transfer restrictions are incorporated by reference herein.

Section 5.7. Joinder to New Shareholders' Agreement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, it shall be a condition to the Transfer of any Special Warrant that the transferee of such Special Warrant (i) shall comply with Section 5.6 and (ii) to the extent such transferee exercises any Special Warrant, shall execute a joinder to the New Shareholders' Agreement (or, in the case where such transferee does not execute such joinder, shall be deemed to have become a party to the New Shareholders' Agreement, irrespective of whether such transferee physically executes the New Shareholders' Agreement or a joinder thereto).

ARTICLE VI

OTHER PROVISIONS RELATING TO RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF SPECIAL WARRANTS

Section 6.1. No Rights or Liability as Stockholder. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as conferring upon any Holder or its transferees (in its capacity as a Holder), prior to exercise of the Special Warrants, the right to vote or to receive any cash dividends, stock dividends, cash distributions, stock distributions, or allotments of rights or other distributions paid, allotted, or distributed or distributable to the holders of Common Stock, or to consent or to receive notice as a stockholder in respect of any meeting of stockholders for the election of directors of the Reorganized Parent or of any other matter, or any rights whatsoever as stockholders of the Reorganized Parent. The vote or consent of each Holder (in its capacity as such) shall not be permitted with respect to any action or proceeding of the Reorganized Parent. No Holder (in its capacity as such) shall have any right not expressly conferred hereunder, under the New Shareholders' Agreement or under or by applicable Law with respect to the Special Warrants held by such Holder. No mere enumeration in any document of the rights or privileges of any Holder shall give rise to any liability of such Holder for the Exercise Price hereunder or as a stockholder of the Reorganized Parent, whether such liability is asserted by the Reorganized Parent or by creditors of the Reorganized Parent. Holders of Special Warrant Shares issued upon exercise of the Special Warrants shall have the same voting and other rights as other holders of Common Stock in the Reorganized Parent.

Section 6.2. Notice to Holders. The Reorganized Parent shall give notice to Holders and the Ad Hoc Groups Advisors, as provided in Section 7.2, if at any time prior to the exercise in full of the Special Warrants, any of the following events shall occur:

(a) an Organic Change;

(b) a dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Reorganized Parent; or

(c) the occurrence of any other event that would result in an adjustment to number and/or kind and amount of shares of Common Stock, cash or securities issuable or payable upon the exercise of the Special Warrants under Article IV.

Such giving of notice shall be initiated at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the date of such Organic Change, dissolution, liquidation or winding up or any other event that would result in the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of the Special Warrants under Article IV or Exercise Price to change (or, if earlier, any record date therefor). Any such notice shall specify any applicable record date or the date of closing the transfer books or proposed effective date. Failure to provide such notice shall not affect the validity of any action taken except to the extent a Holder is materially prejudiced by such failure. For the avoidance of doubt, no such notice (or the failure to provide it to the Holders) shall supersede or limit any adjustment called for by Article IV by reason of any event as to which notice is required by this Section 6.2.

Section 6.3. Cancellation of Special Warrants. If the Reorganized Parent shall purchase or otherwise acquire Special Warrants, such Special Warrants shall be cancelled and retired by appropriate notation on the Special Warrant Register.

Section 6.4. Tax Forms. Each Holder of a Special Warrant shall deliver to the Reorganized Parent a properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable.

(b) The Reorganized Parent may from time to time supplement or amend, or waive any provision, this Agreement or the Special Warrants, as follows:

(i) without the approval of the Holders, but with at least 5 business days' advance written notice to the Ad Hoc Groups Advisors, in order to cure any ambiguity, manifest error or other mistake in this Agreement or the Special Warrants, or to correct or supplement any provision contained herein or in the Special Warrants that may be defective or inconsistent with any other provision herein, in the New Governance Documents or in the Special Warrants, or to make any other provisions in regard to matters or questions arising hereunder that the Reorganized Parent may deem necessary or desirable and that shall not adversely affect, alter or change the interests of the Holders in any respect, or

(ii) with prior Majority Holders Consent and at least 5 business days' advance written notice to the Ad Hoc Groups Advisors; provided, however, Supermajority Holders Consent shall be required for any amendment that (A) reduces the term of the Special Warrants (or otherwise modifies any provisions pursuant to which the Special Warrants may be terminated or cancelled); (B) increases the Exercise Price and/or decreases the number of Special Warrant Shares (or, as applicable, the amount of such other securities and/or assets) deliverable upon exercise of the Special Warrants, other than such increases and/or decreases that are made pursuant to Article IV; or (C) modifies, in a manner adverse to the Holders generally, the anti-dilution provisions set forth in Article IV.

(c) Any amendment, modification or waiver effected pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of this Section 7.7 shall be binding upon the Holders and upon the Reorganized Parent. In the event of any amendment, modification or waiver, the Reorganized Parent shall give prompt written notice thereof to all Holders.

Section 7.8. No Inconsistent Agreements; No Impairment. The Reorganized Parent shall not, on or after the date hereof, enter into any agreement with respect to its securities which conflicts, directly or indirectly, with the rights granted to the Holders in this Agreement. The Reorganized Parent represents and warrants to the Holders that the rights granted hereunder do not in any way conflict with the rights granted to holders of the Reorganized Parent's securities under any other agreements. The Reorganized Parent shall not, by amendment of its certificate of incorporation or through any reorganization, transfer of assets, consolidation, merger, dissolution, issue or sale of securities or any other voluntary action, avoid or seek to avoid the observance or performance of any of the terms to be observed or performed hereunder by the Reorganized Parent, but will at all times in good faith assist in the carrying out of all the provisions of the Special Warrants and in the taking of all such action as may be necessary in order to preserve the exercise rights of the Holders against impairment.

In connection with any such action or proceeding in any such court, each party hereto hereby waives personal service of any summons, complaint or other process and hereby agrees that service thereof may be made in accordance with the procedures for giving notice set forth in Section 7.2 hereof. Each party hereto hereby waives any objection to jurisdiction or venue in any such court in any such action or proceeding and agrees not to assert any defense based on forum non conveniens or lack of jurisdiction or venue in any such court in any such action or proceeding.

Section 7.11. Termination. This Agreement will terminate on the date of the earlier to occur of all Special Warrants have been exercised with respect to all Special Warrant Shares subject thereto. The provisions of this Article VII shall survive such termination.

Section 7.12. WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, SUIT, COUNTERCLAIM OR OTHER PROCEEDING (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF, CONNECTED WITH OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

Section 7.13. Remedies. The Reorganized Parent hereby agrees that, in the event that the Reorganized Parent violates any provisions of this Agreement or the Special Warrants (including the obligation to deliver shares of Common Stock upon the exercise thereof), the remedies at law available to the Holder of such Special Warrant may be inadequate. In such event, the Holder of such Special Warrants, shall have the right, in addition to all other rights and remedies it may have, to specific performance and/or injunctive or other equitable relief to enforce the provisions of this Agreement and the Special Warrants.

Section 7.15. Confidentiality. The Reorganized Parent agrees that the Special Warrant Register and personal, non-public warrantholder information, which are exchanged or received pursuant to the negotiation or carrying out of this Agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, Annex I), shall be held by the Reorganized Parent in confidence and shall not be voluntarily disclosed to any other person, except as may be required by Law.

Section 7.16. FCC Matters.

(a) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, each Holder acknowledges that the Reorganized Parent and certain of its Subsidiaries are each under an ongoing obligation to comply with the Communications Laws, including FCC rules limiting foreign ownership, and that any provision hereof that conflicts or is found by the FCC to conflict with the Communications Laws shall be unenforceable. Each Holder further agrees to provide the Reorganized Parent all information reasonably required in order to complete and prosecute any FCC application or petition for declaratory ruling that may be required under the Communications Laws, to respond to any inquiries from the FCC or other Governmental Authorities, or to enable the Reorganized Parent to ensure that it complies with the Communications Laws. Each Holder agrees that the Reorganized Parent may disclose to the FCC or other Governmental Authorities the identity of and further ownership information, as required by the FCC or other Governmental Authorities or, to the extent not so required, as the Reorganized Parent's independent outside regulatory counsel reasonably deems advisable, about any Person who would hold any interest in the Reorganized Parent of 5% or more of the Reorganized Parent's voting or equity interests calculated pursuant to the Communications Laws (in each case based on all interests then outstanding or as calculated on a fully diluted basis).

(b) Each Holder acknowledges that (i) the FCC may require the Reorganized Parent to treat unexercised Special Warrants as equity for purposes of the Communications Laws, and (ii) in order to hold any interest in the Reorganized Parent of 5% or more of the Reorganized Parent's voting or equity interests, Persons organized as limited partnerships or limited liability companies may be required to "insulate" any partnership or membership interest held in such Person by a Non-U.S. Person, (iii) a Person may not be permitted to hold an interest in the Reorganized Parent of 5% or more of the Reorganized Parent's voting or equity interests if any Non-U.S. Person, directly or indirectly, through any contract, arrangement, understanding, relationship or otherwise, has or shares the power to vote, or to direct the voting of, the voting or equity interests held by such Person, unless the FCC has granted Specific Approval for such Person, and (iv) a Non-U.S. Person (including a group of Holders with interests subject to aggregation under the Communications Laws) may not be allowed to acquire more than 5% of the Reorganized Parent's voting or equity interests (as determined under the FCC rules) unless the FCC has granted Specific Approval for such Non-U.S. Person; provided, however, that such Person may be permitted to own up to 10 percent of the equity and/or voting interests of the Reorganized Parent if such holding would be consistent with the provisions of the FCC's foreign ownership rules, including the exemption from the specific approval requirements set forth in Section 1.5001(i)(3) of the FCC's rules (and Reorganized Parent shall, at the request of such Person, enter into a shareholders' agreement, or similar voting agreement, that prohibits the holder from becoming actively involved in the management or operation of Reorganized Parent and that limits the Person's voting and consent rights, if any, to the minority shareholder protections listed in such rules).

Section 3.3. Method of Exercise.

(a) In connection with the exercise of any Special Warrant, a Holder shall (i) surrender such Special Warrant (or portion thereof) to the Reorganized Parent corresponding to the number of Special Warrant Shares being exercised, (ii) pay to the Reorganized Parent the aggregate Exercise Price for the number of Special Warrant Shares being exercised, at the option of such Holder, in United States dollars by wire transfer to an account specified in writing by the Reorganized Parent to such Holder, in immediately available funds in an amount equal to the aggregate Exercise Price for such Special Warrant Shares as specified in the Exercise Form and (iii) comply with ~~Section 6.4~~Section 6.4.

(e) The Reorganized Parent reserves the right to reject any Exercise Form that it reasonably determines is not in proper form or for which any corresponding agreement by the Reorganized Parent to exchange would, in the reasonable opinion of the Reorganized Parent, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, be unlawful. Any such determination by the Reorganized Parent shall be final and binding on the Holder of the Special Warrants, absent manifest error; provided that the Reorganized Parent shall provide a Holder with the reasonable opportunity to correct any defects in its Exercise Form (without prejudicing such Holder's ability to deliver subsequent Exercise Forms). but for such exchange, or (iii) limit or impair any business activities of the Reorganized Parent under the Communications Laws, which information shall be furnished promptly by any Holder from whom such information is requested as a condition to such Holder's exercise of Special Warrants. (g) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, it shall be a condition to the exercise of any Special Warrant that upon receipt of Special Warrant Shares upon exercise, the Holder shall be deemed to have become a party to the New Shareholders' Agreement (if not already a party thereto), irrespective of whether such Holder physically executes the New Shareholders' Agreement.

[2] ~~Note to Draft: Subject to ongoing review and discussion.~~

(h) ~~[~~As soon as reasonably practicable upon~~][Upon]~~ receipt of all necessary Regulatory Approvals, including grant by the FCC of the ~~Petition for Declaratory Ruling~~petition for declaratory ruling approving aggregate foreign ownership of the Reorganized Parent in excess of 25% and receipt of the FCC's Specific Approval of any Holder requiring such approval, ~~[~~the Reorganized Parent shall issue a notice ("Exchange Notice") specifying a deadline for Holders to return an Election Form, which deadline shall be ~~[~~10~~]~~ Business Days after the date of the Exchange Notice.~~]~~ and provided that (i) a Holder has complied with the requirements of Sections ~~3.3(a)~~3.3(a) and ~~3.3(d)~~3.3(d), and (ii) the Reorganized Parent has reasonably determined that (x) such Holder's exercise of its Special Warrants does not violate any of the Communications Laws or the Securities Act or any decision, rule, regulation, policy, order or declaratory ruling issued by the FCC or the SEC, as applicable and (y) all conditions imposed by the FCC or any other Governmental Authority have been satisfied, such Holder's Special Warrants shall be automatically deemed exercised for either Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock (or both) pursuant to the election made by such Holder on its Exercise Form. ~~[~~Special Warrants held by a Holder that does not timely deliver an Exercise Form ~~shall be automatically~~may, in the Company's reasonable discretion, be deemed exercised for only Class B Common Stock.~~]~~

(i) If any full or partial exercise of Special Warrants is permitted for any Holder, each other Holder will be given the same opportunity to exercise its Special Warrants pro rata (subject to the same conditions), to the extent consistent with the Communications Laws or any order or ruling issued by the FCC or any other Governmental Authority. If any conditions to exercise of Special Warrants are modified or waived for any Holder, each other Holder will be offered the benefits of such modification or waiver (subject to the same conditions), to the extent consistent with the Communications Laws or any order or ruling issued by the FCC or any other Governmental Authority.

Section 3.4. Issuance of Common Stock.

(a) Following the valid exercise of any Special Warrants, the Reorganized Parent shall, subject to ~~Section 3.7~~Section 3.7, promptly at its expense, and in no event later than five (5) Business Days after the Exercise Date, cause to be issued as directed by the Holder of such Special Warrants the total number of whole Special Warrant Shares for which such Special Warrants are being exercised (as the same may have been adjusted pursuant to Article IV) in such denominations as are requested by the Holder and registered as directed by the Holder.

(b) The Special Warrant Shares shall be deemed to have been issued at the time at which all of the conditions to such exercise set forth in ~~Section 3.3~~Section 3.3 have been fulfilled (the "Exercise Date"), and the Holder, or, subject to ~~Section 3.4(a)~~Section 3.4(a), such other person to whom the Holder shall direct the issuance thereof, shall be deemed for all purposes to have become the holder of such Special Warrant Shares at such time.

Section 3.5. Reservation of Shares.

(a) The Reorganized Parent shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock solely for the purpose of issuance upon the exercise of the Special Warrants, a number of shares of Class A New Common Stock and Class B New Common Stock equal to the aggregate Special Warrant Shares issuable upon the exercise of all outstanding Special Warrants. The Reorganized Parent shall take all such actions as may be necessary to assure that all such shares of Common Stock may be so issued without violating the Governing Documents, any agreements to which the Reorganized Parent is a party on the date hereof or on the date of such issuance, any requirements of any national securities exchange upon which shares of Common Stock, or any other securities of the Reorganized Parent, may be listed or any applicable Laws. The Reorganized Parent shall not take any action which would cause the number of authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock to be less than the number of such shares required to be reserved hereunder for issuance upon exercise of the Special Warrants.

(b) The Reorganized Parent covenants that it will take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate in order that all Special Warrant Shares issued upon exercise of the Special Warrants will, upon issuance in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, be validly issued, fully paid and non- assessable, and free from any and all (i) security interests created by or imposed upon the Reorganized Parent and (ii) taxes, liens and charges with respect to the issuance thereof. If at any time the number and kind of authorized but unissued shares of the Reorganized Parent's capital stock shall not be sufficient to permit exercise in full of the Special Warrants, the Reorganized Parent will as promptly as practicable take such corporate action as may, in the opinion of its counsel, be reasonably necessary (including seeking stockholder approval, if required) to increase its authorized but unissued shares to such number of shares as shall be sufficient for such purposes.

Section 3.6. Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Reorganized Parent shall not be required to issue any fraction of a Special Warrant Share in connection with the exercise of any Special Warrants. In any case where the Holder of Special Warrants would, except for the provisions of this ~~Section 3.6~~Section 3.6, be entitled under the terms thereof to receive a fraction of a share upon the exercise of such Special Warrants, the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise thereof will be rounded (i) up to the next higher whole share of Common Stock if the fraction is equal to or greater than 1/2 and (ii) down to the next lower whole share of Common Stock if the fraction is less than 1/2; provided that the number of whole Special Warrant Shares which shall be issuable upon the contemporaneous exercise of any Special Warrants by any Holder shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate number of Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of all such Special Warrants.

Section 3.7. Close of Books; Par Value.

(a) The Reorganized Parent shall not close its books against the transfer of any Special Warrants or any Special Warrant Shares in any manner which interferes with the timely exercise of such Special Warrants.

(b) Without limiting ~~Section 3.5~~Section 3.5,

(i) the Reorganized Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to, from time to time, take all such action as may be necessary to assure that the par value per share of the unissued shares of Common Stock acquirable upon exercise of the Special Warrants is at all times equal to or less than the Exercise Price then in effect; and

(ii) the Reorganized Parent will not increase the stated or par value per share, if any, of the Common Stock above the Exercise Price per share in effect immediately prior to such increase in stated or par value.

Section 3.8. Payment of Taxes. In connection with the exercise of any Special Warrants, the Reorganized Parent shall pay any and all taxes (other than income ~~[~~or similar~~]~~ taxes) that may be payable in respect of the issue or delivery of Special Warrant Shares (including certificates therefor). The Reorganized Parent shall not be required, however, to pay any tax or other charge imposed by a Governmental Authority in respect of any transfer involved in the Reorganized Parent's issuance and delivery of any Special Warrant Shares (including certificates therefor) (or any payment of cash or other property in lieu of such shares) to any recipient other than the Holder of the Special Warrants being exercised, and in case of any such tax or other charge for which the Reorganized Parent would otherwise be liable, the Reorganized Parent shall not be required to issue or deliver any such Special Warrant Shares (or cash or other property in lieu of such Special Warrant Shares) until (i) such tax or charge has been paid or an amount sufficient for the payment thereof has been delivered to the Reorganized Parent or (ii) it has been established to the Reorganized Parent's reasonable satisfaction that any such tax or other charge that is or may become due has been paid.

Section 3.9. Redemption Event. If either (i) the Reorganized Parent proposes to redeem all or any portion of the outstanding Common Stock or (ii) the Reorganized Parent otherwise purchases or makes any offer to purchase all or any portion of the outstanding Common Stock (in each case, excluding repurchases and redemptions from any officer or employee of the Reorganized Parent or its Subsidiaries pursuant to an equity incentive plan of the Reorganized Parent approved by the Board of Directors), then the Reorganized Parent shall provide proportional consideration for or a proportional redemption of Special Warrants held by the Holders, as applicable, on the same terms as and at a price equal to the price paid to holders of Common Stock for their shares of Common Stock in connection with the Redemption Event, as if the Special Warrants had been exercised for shares of Common Stock immediately prior to such redemption or purchase.

Section 3.10. Withholding. Subject to ~~[Section 3.8~~Section 3.8, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Special Warrant to the contrary, the Reorganized Parent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold (or cause to be deducted and withheld) from any amounts or property payable or deliverable to any Person pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement or the Special Warrant such amounts as are required to be deducted or withheld under applicable law ~~with respect [to the Special Warrant~~ (and the Reorganized Parent shall be entitled to withhold, for the avoidance of doubt, from any amounts or property that are payable or deliverable ~~with respect to~~to such Person pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement or the Special Warrant that are subsequent to the~~]~~ payment or delivery ~~[~~or other circumstance that gave rise to the requirement to deduct or withhold under applicable law);~~]~~ provided that, the Reorganized Parent shall ~~[~~use its commercially reasonable efforts to~~]~~ notify such Person of such withholding obligation prior to the date on which such deduction and withholding ~~will~~is required to be made and the parties shall take commercially reasonable steps to reduce or eliminate any such withholding. Any amounts that are so withheld by the Reorganized Parent shall be paid to the appropriate Governmental Authority ~~[~~and shall be treated as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such withholding was made~~]~~.

ADJUSTMENT OF NUMBER OF SPECIAL WARRANT SHARES; OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

Section 4.1. Subdivision or Combination of Common Stock. In the event the Reorganized Parent, at any time or from time to time after the date hereof while any Special Warrant remains outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, increases or decreases by combination (by reverse stock split or reclassification) or subdivision (by any stock split or reclassification) of the Common Stock (other than a stock split effected by means of a stock dividend or stock distribution to which ~~Section 4.2~~Section 4.2 applies), then and in each such event the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable on exercise of the Special Warrants shall be increased or decreased by multiplying such number of Special Warrant Shares immediately prior to such adjustment by a fraction (i) the numerator of which shall be the Total Shares outstanding immediately following such adjustment and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the Total Shares immediately prior to such adjustment.

Section 4.2. Dividends Payable in Shares of Common Stock. In the event the Reorganized Parent shall, at any time or from time to time after the date hereof while any Special Warrant remains outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, issue shares of Common Stock by means of a dividend payable in shares of Common Stock, then and in each such event the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable on exercise of the Special Warrants shall be increased by multiplying such number of Special Warrant Shares immediately prior to such adjustment by a fraction (i) the numerator of which shall be the Total Shares outstanding immediately following such adjustment and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the Total Shares immediately prior to such adjustment.

Section 4.3. Other Distributions. In the event the Reorganized Parent shall, at any time or from time to time after the date hereof while any Special Warrant remains outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, declare one or more dividends or distributions on the Common Stock payable in cash or any securities (other than shares of Common Stock) or property, with the record date or dates therefor occurring prior to the Exercise Date of the particular Special Warrants, then upon exercise of such Special Warrants, the Reorganized Parent shall pay or issue to the Holder, or, subject to ~~Section 3.4(a)~~Section 3.4(a), such other Person as the Holder directs, in addition to the issuance to, or at the direction of, the Holder of the Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of the Special Warrants, an amount in cash or such securities or such other property equal to (i) the amount of all dividends or distributions of cash, securities (other than shares of Common Stock) or other property theretofore paid or payable, or issued or issuable, on one share of Common Stock, in each case from the date hereof, multiplied by (ii) the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of such Special Warrants; provided that if a dividend or distribution has been declared but not yet paid or issued, the Reorganized Parent may defer payment or issuance of the dividend or distribution to the Holder, or, subject to ~~Section 3.4(a)~~Section 3.4(a), such other person to whom the Holder shall direct the issuance thereof, until such time as the dividend or distribution is paid or issued to the holders of the Common Stock generally.

Section 4.4. Organic Change. In the event the Reorganized Parent shall, at any time or from time to time after the date hereof while the Special Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, consummate an Organic Change, each Holder shall be entitled, following consummation of the Organic Change, upon exercise of the Special Warrants to receive the kind and amount of cash, securities or other property that it would have been entitled to receive had such Special Warrants been exercised immediately prior to the consummation of the Organic Change. The Reorganized Parent shall not effect, or enter into an agreement to effect, an Organic Change unless, prior to the consummation of such Organic Change, the surviving Person (if a Person other than the Reorganized Parent) resulting from the Organic Change, shall assume, by written instrument substantially similar in form and substance to this Agreement in all material respects, the obligations under this Agreement, including the obligation to deliver to the Holder such cash, stock, securities or other assets or property which, in accordance with this ~~Section 4.4~~Section 4.4, the Holder shall be entitled to receive upon exchange or exercise of the Special Warrant. The provisions of this ~~Section 4.4~~Section 4.4 shall similarly apply to successive Organic Changes.

Section 4.5. Notice of Adjustments. Whenever the number and/or kind of Special Warrant Shares is adjusted as herein provided, the Reorganized Parent shall (i) prepare, or cause to be prepared, a written statement setting forth the adjusted number and/or kind and amount of shares of Common Stock or cash, securities (other than shares of Common Stock) issuable or payable upon the exercise of the Special Warrants after such adjustment, the facts requiring such adjustment and the computation by which adjustment was made, and (ii) give written notice to the Holders, in the manner provided in ~~Section 7.2~~Section 7.2 below, of the record date or the effective date of the event. Failure to give such notice, or any defect therein, shall not affect the legality or validity of such event.

Section 4.6. Deferral or Exclusion of Certain Adjustments.

(a) No adjustment to the number of Special Warrant Shares shall be required hereunder unless such adjustment together with other adjustments carried forward as provided below, would result in an increase or decrease of at least 0.1% of the applicable Exercise Price or the number of Special Warrant Shares; provided that any adjustments which by reason of this ~~Section 4.6~~Section 4.6 are not required to be made shall be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment. All calculations under this ~~Section 4.6~~Section 4.6 shall be made the nearest one one-thousandth (1/1,000) of a share, as the case may be.

(b) In the event that the par value of the shares of Common Stock shall be reduced below the par value on the date hereof, then, without action by the Reorganized Parent or otherwise the Exercise Price shall be automatically reduced to the par value of the shares of the Common Stock as so reduced; provided that for so long as any Special Warrant remains outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, the Reorganized Parent shall not increase the par value of the shares of Common Stock or reduce the par value of the shares of Common Stock to zero.

TRANSFER AND EXCHANGE OF SPECIAL WARRANTS

Section 5.1. Registration of Transfers and Exchanges. When Special Warrants are presented to the Reorganized Parent with a written request (i) to register the Transfer of such Special Warrants or (ii) to exchange such Special Warrants for an equal number of Special Warrants of other authorized denominations, the Reorganized Parent shall register the Transfer or make the exchange, as requested if its customary requirements for such transactions are met; provided that (A) the Reorganized Parent shall have received (x) a written instruction of Transfer in form reasonably satisfactory to the Reorganized Parent, duly executed by the Holder thereof or by its attorney, duly authorized in writing along with evidence of authority that may be required by the Reorganized Parent, and (y) if a Person other than the Reorganized Parent is serving as registrar or transfer agent for the Special Warrants, a written order of the Reorganized Parent signed by an officer of the Reorganized Parent authorizing such exchange and (B) if reasonably requested by the Reorganized Parent, the Reorganized Parent shall have received a written opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to the Reorganized Parent that such Transfer is in compliance with the Securities Act or state securities laws and the Communications Laws.

Section 5.2. Procedures for Exchanges and Transfers. Subject to the other sections of this Article V, the Reorganized Parent shall, upon receipt of all information required to be delivered hereunder, from time to time register the Transfer or exchange of any outstanding Special Warrants in the Special Warrant Register, upon delivery by the Holder thereof, at the Reorganized Parent's office designated for such purpose, of a form of assignment (an "Assignment Form") substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, properly completed and duly executed by the Holder thereof or by the duly appointed legal representative thereof or by a duly authorized attorney.

Section 5.3. Restrictions on Exchanges and Transfers.

(a) No Special Warrants shall be sold, exchanged or otherwise Transferred (A) in violation of (i) the Securities Act or state securities Laws, (ii) the Communications Laws or and (iii) the Governing Documents and (B) unless the transferee delivers to the Reorganized Parent a properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable. If any Holder purports to Transfer Special Warrants to any Person in a transaction that would violate the provisions of this ~~Section 5.3~~Section 5.3, such Transfer shall be void ab initio and of no effect.

(b) The Reorganized Parent reserves the right, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, to reject any and all Assignment Forms that it reasonably determines are not in proper form or for which any corresponding agreement by the Reorganized Parent to Transfer or exchange would, in the reasonable opinion of the Reorganized Parent, be unlawful. Any such determination by the Reorganized Parent shall be final and binding on the Holder of the Special Warrants, absent manifest error provided that the Reorganized Parent shall provide a Holder with the reasonable opportunity to correct any defects in its Assignment Forms (without prejudicing such Holder's ability to deliver subsequent Assignment Forms). The Reorganized Parent further reserves the right to request such information (including, without limitation, information with respect to citizenship, other ownership interests and Affiliates) as the Reorganized Parent may reasonably deem appropriate, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, to determine whether the Transfer or exchange of the Special Warrants would (i) during the pendency of a petition for declaratory ruling, (x) require the Reorganized Parent to obtain Specific Approval of the proposed transferee prior to the exercise of the Special Warrants subject to such Transfer or exchange, or (y) otherwise require an amendment of a petition for declaratory ruling or any other application for Regulatory Approval, (ii) be unlawful, (~~ii~~iii) subject the Reorganized Parent to any limitation under the Communications Laws that would not apply to the Reorganized Parent but for ~~such~~the exercise of the Special Warrants subject to such Transfer or exchange by the proposed transferee, or (~~iii~~iv) limit or impair any business activities of the Reorganized Parent under the Communications Laws, which shall be furnished promptly by any Holder from whom such information is requested as a condition to such Holder's Transfer or exchange of Special Warrants. Moreover, the Reorganized Parent reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to any particular Transfer or exchange of Special Warrants or any defects in the Assignment Form(s) with regard to any particular Transfer or exchange of Special Warrants. The Reorganized Parent shall provide prompt written notice to the Holder of any such rejection or waiver.

(c) Without limiting the foregoing and notwithstanding any provisions contained herein to the contrary,~~[(i) no Holder shall be entitled to Transfer or exchange any Special Warrant until all Regulatory Approvals required to be made to or obtained from any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over the Reorganized Parent or its Subsidiaries have been made or obtained, and in the event that all required Regulatory Approvals are not received, the Holder shall continue to hold its Special Warrants; and (ii)]~~ the Reorganized Parent may ~~[(x)]~~ prohibit the Transfer or exchange of~~[~~ Special Warrants ~~which may, in the Reorganized Parent's reasonable determination, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, cause more than 22.5% of the Reorganized Parent's outstanding equity interests or the equity of any Subsidiary of the Reorganized Parent to be directly or indirectly owned or voted by or for the account of non-U.S. persons as determined pursuant to the Communications Laws, or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, non-U.S. persons, if such ownership or vote by non-U.S. persons (or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, non-U.S. persons) at the level of 22.5% or more would cause the Reorganized Parent or any of its Subsidiaries to be in violation of the Communications Laws, (y) require Specific Approval prior to the Transfer or exchange of a Special Warrant to a Non-U.S. Person (or to any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, Non-U.S. Persons) or (z) prohibit the Transfer of any] Special Warrants if such Transfer~~if the exercise of Special Warrants subject to such Transfer or exchange by the proposed transferee would, in the Reorganized Parent's reasonable determination, (i) ~~result in a violation of applicable laws or regulations, (ii) [subject the Reorganized Parent to any limitation under the Communications Laws that would not apply to the Reorganized Parent but for such exchange, (iii) limit or impair any business activities of the Reorganized Parent under the Communications Laws, (iv) involve~~

~~circumstances that the Board of Directors determines could require the registration or qualification of any class of Common Stock or require the Reorganized Parent to file reports pursuant to any applicable federal or state securities laws or (v) subject the Reorganized Parent to regulation under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Investment Advisors Act of 1940, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or other applicable law or regulation, each as amended.]~~during the pendency of a petition for declaratory ruling, (x) require the Reorganized Parent to obtain Specific Approval of the proposed transferee prior to exercise of the Special Warrants subject to such Transfer or exchange, or (y) otherwise require an amendment of a petition for declaratory ruling or any other application for Regulatory Approval, in either case that would, in the reasonable determination of the Reorganized Parent, result in a delay in obtaining the FCC's issuance of the Regulatory Approval or (ii) result in a violation of applicable laws or regulations.

Section 5.4. Obligations with Respect to Transfers and Exchanges of Special Warrants. All Special Warrants issued upon any registration of Transfer or exchange of Special Warrants shall be the valid obligations of the Reorganized Parent, entitled to the same benefits under this Agreement as the Special Warrants surrendered upon such registration of Transfer or exchange.

Section 5.5. Fractional Special Warrants. The Reorganized Parent shall not effect any registration of Transfer or exchange which will result in the issuance of a fraction of a Special Warrant.

Section 5.6. New Shareholders' Agreement Transfer Restrictions. Anything to the contrary in this Agreement notwithstanding, no Holder shall be permitted to Transfer a Special Warrant, directly or indirectly, to any Person if such Transfer would be prohibited by the New Shareholders' Agreement with respect to the Special Warrant Shares corresponding to such Special Warrants. For the purposes of this ~~Section 5.6~~Section 5.6 an indirect transfer shall include the Transfer, directly or indirectly, of a controlling interest of any person of whom the Holder of a Special Warrant is a Subsidiary with the primary purpose of effecting of the Transfer of the ownership of the Special Warrant. All Holders shall comply with transfer restrictions in the New Shareholders' Agreement as though they were a party thereto and such transfer restrictions are incorporated by reference herein.

Section 5.7. Joinder to New Shareholders' Agreement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, it shall be a condition to the Transfer of any Special Warrant that the transferee of such Special Warrant (i) shall comply with ~~Section 5.6~~Section 5.6 and (ii) to the extent such transferee exercises any Special Warrant, shall execute a joinder to the New Shareholders' Agreement (or, in the case where such transferee does not execute such joinder, shall be deemed to have become a party to the New Shareholders' Agreement, irrespective of whether such transferee physically executes the New Shareholders' Agreement or a joinder thereto).[3]

ARTICLE VI

OTHER PROVISIONS RELATING TO RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF SPECIAL WARRANTS

Section 6.1. No Rights or Liability as Stockholder. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as conferring upon any Holder or its transferees (in its capacity as a Holder), prior to exercise of the Special Warrants, the right to vote or to receive any cash dividends, stock dividends, cash distributions, stock distributions, or allotments of rights or other distributions paid, allotted, or distributed or distributable to the holders of Common Stock, or to consent or to receive notice as a stockholder in respect of any meeting of stockholders for the election of directors of the Reorganized Parent or of any other matter, or any rights whatsoever as stockholders of the Reorganized Parent. The vote or consent of each Holder (in its capacity as such) shall not be permitted with respect to any action or proceeding of the Reorganized Parent. No Holder (in its capacity as such) shall have any right not expressly conferred hereunder, under the New Shareholders' Agreement or under or by applicable Law with respect to the Special Warrants held by such Holder. No mere enumeration in any document of the rights or privileges of any Holder shall give rise to any liability of such Holder for the Exercise Price hereunder or as a stockholder of the Reorganized Parent, whether such liability is asserted by the Reorganized Parent or by creditors of the Reorganized Parent. Holders of Special Warrant Shares issued upon exercise of the Special Warrants shall have the same voting and other rights as other holders of Common Stock in the Reorganized Parent.

Section 6.2. Notice to Holders. The Reorganized Parent shall give notice to Holders and the Ad Hoc Groups Advisors, as provided in ~~Section 7.2~~Section 7.2, if at any time prior to the exercise in full of the Special Warrants, any of the following events shall occur:

(a) an Organic Change;

(b) a dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Reorganized Parent; or

(c) the occurrence of any other event that would result in an adjustment to number and/or kind and amount of shares of Common Stock, cash or securities issuable or payable upon the exercise of the Special Warrants under Article IV.

Such giving of notice shall be initiated at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the date of such Organic Change, dissolution, liquidation or winding up or any other event that would result in the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of the Special Warrants under Article IV or Exercise Price to change (or, if earlier, any record date therefor). Any such notice shall specify any applicable record date or the date of closing the transfer books or proposed effective date. Failure to provide such notice shall not affect the validity of any action taken except to the extent a Holder is materially prejudiced by such failure. For the avoidance of doubt, no such notice (or the failure to provide it to the Holders) shall supersede or limit any adjustment called for by Article IV by reason of any event as to which notice is required by this ~~Section 6.2~~Section 6.2.

Section 6.3. Cancellation of Special Warrants. If the Reorganized Parent shall purchase or otherwise acquire Special Warrants, such Special Warrants shall be cancelled and retired by appropriate notation on the Special Warrant Register.

~~(a) No Registration. The Holder understands that the Common Stock has not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act by reason of a specific exemption from the registration provisions of the Securities Act, the availability of which depends upon, among other things, the bona fide nature of the investment intent and the accuracy of the Holder's representations as expressed herein or otherwise made pursuant hereto.~~

~~(b) Investment Intent. The Holder is acquiring the Common Stock for investment for its own account, not as a nominee or agent, and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any distribution thereof. The Holder has no present intention of selling, granting any participation in, or otherwise distributing the Common Stock, nor does it have any contract, undertaking, agreement or arrangement for the same.~~

~~(c) Investment Experience. The Holder has substantial experience in evaluating and investing in private placement transactions of securities in companies similar to the Reorganized Parent, and has such knowledge and experience in financial or business matters so that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in the Reorganized Parent and protecting its own interests.~~

~~(d) Speculative Nature of Investment. The Holder understands and acknowledges that its investment in the Reorganized Parent is highly speculative and involves substantial risks. The Holder can bear the economic risk of its investment and is able, without impairing its financial condition, to hold the Common Stock for an indefinite period of time and to suffer a complete loss of its investment.~~

~~(e) Residency. The residency of the Holder (or, in the case of a partnership or corporation, such entity's principal place of business) has been correctly provided to the Reorganized Parent to the extent requested by the Reorganized Parent.~~

~~(f) Restrictions on Resales. The Holder acknowledges that the Common Stock must be held indefinitely unless subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from such registration is available.~~

~~(g) No Public Market. The Holder understands and acknowledges that no public market now exists for any of the securities issued by the Reorganized Parent and~~

~~that the Reorganized Parent has made no assurances that a public market will ever exist for the Reorganized Parent's securities.~~

~~(h) Brokers and Finders. The Holder has not engaged any brokers, finders or agents in connection with the Common Stock, and the Reorganized Parent has not incurred nor will incur, directly or indirectly, as a result of any action taken by the Holder, any liability for brokerage or finders' fees or agents' commissions or any similar charges in connection with the Common Stock.~~

~~(i) Legal Counsel. The Holder has had the opportunity to review this Special Warrant Agreement, the exhibits and schedules attached hereto and the transactions contemplated by this Special Warrant Agreement with its own legal counsel. Except as expressly set forth in this Special Warrant Agreement, the Holder is not relying on any statements or representations of the Reorganized Parent or its agents for legal advice with respect to this investment or the transactions contemplated by this Special Warrant Agreement.~~

~~(j) Tax Advisors. The Holder has reviewed with its own tax advisors the U.S. federal, state and local and non-U.S. tax consequences of this investment and the transactions contemplated by this Special Warrant Agreement. With respect to such matters, the Holder relies solely on any such advisors and not on any statements or representations of the Reorganized Parent or any of its agents, written or oral.~~

~~(k) No "Bad Actor" Disqualification. Neither (i) the Holder, (ii) to its knowledge, any of its directors, executive officers, other officers that may serve as a director or officer of any company in which it invests, general partners or managing members, nor (iii) to its knowledge, any beneficial owner of any of the Reorganized Parent's voting equity securities (in accordance with Rule 506(d) of the Securities Act) held by the Holder is subject to any of the "bad actor" disqualifications described in Rule 506(d)(1)(i) through (viii) under the Securities Act, except as set forth in Rule 506(d)(2)(ii) or (iii) or (d)(3) under the Securities Act and disclosed, reasonably in advance of the acceptance of this Special Warrant Agreement, in writing in reasonable detail to the Reorganized Parent.]~~

2. Warrant Certificates.

2.1 Original Issuance of Warrants.

(a) On the Original Issue Date and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Warrant Agent shall issue and register the Warrants in the names of the respective Holders thereof in book-entry positions on the books of the Warrant Agent, in such denominations and otherwise in accordance with the instructions delivered to the Warrant Agent by the Company. The Warrants so issued and registered shall be reflected on statements issued by the Warrant Agent to the Holders.

(b) Except as set forth in Section 3.2(d), Section 6 and Section 8, the Warrant Certificates issued and registered by the Warrant Agent on the Original Issue Date shall be the only Warrant Certificates issued or outstanding under this Agreement.

(c) Each Warrant Certificate shall evidence the number of Warrants specified therein, and each Warrant evidenced thereby shall represent the right, subject to the provisions contained herein and therein, to purchase one share of Common Stock, subject to adjustment as provided in Section 5.

2.2 Form of Warrant Certificates.

The Warrant Certificates evidencing the Warrants (a) shall be in registered form only and substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit A hereto, (b) shall be dated the date on which countersigned by the Warrant Agent, (c) shall have such insertions as are appropriate or required or permitted by this Agreement and (d) may have such letters, numbers or other marks of identification and such legends and endorsements typed, stamped, printed, lithographed or engraved thereon as the directors or officers of the Company executing the same may approve (execution thereof to be conclusive evidence of such approval) and as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, or as may be required to comply with any law or with any rule or regulation pursuant thereto or with any rule or regulation of any securities exchange on which the Warrants may be listed, in each case, as reasonably determined by an Appropriate Officer.

2.3 Execution and Delivery of Warrant Certificates.

(a) Warrant Certificates evidencing the Warrants which may be countersigned and delivered under this Agreement are limited to Warrant Certificates evidencing [●] Warrants except for Warrant Certificates countersigned and delivered upon registration of transfer of, or in exchange for, or in lieu of, one or more previously countersigned Warrant Certificates pursuant to Section 3.2(d), Section 6 and Section 8.

(b) The Warrant Agent is hereby authorized to countersign and deliver Warrant Certificates as required by Section 2.1, Section 3.2(d), Section 6 or Section 8.

(c) The Warrant Certificates shall be executed in the corporate name and on behalf of the Company by the Chairman (or any Co-Chairman) of the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or any one of the Vice Presidents or officers of the Company and attested to by the Secretary or one of the Assistant Secretaries of the Company, either manually, by electronic signature or by facsimile signature printed thereon. The Warrant Certificates shall be manually countersigned by the Warrant Agent and shall not be valid for any purpose unless so countersigned. In case any officer of the Company whose signature shall have been placed upon any of the Warrant Certificates shall cease to be such officer of the Company before countersignature by the Warrant Agent and issue and delivery thereof, such Warrant Certificates may, nevertheless, be countersigned by the Warrant Agent and issued and delivered with the same force and effect as though such person had not ceased to be such officer of the Company, and any Warrant Certificate may be signed on behalf of the Company by such person as, at the actual date of the execution of such Warrant Certificate, shall be a proper officer of the Company, although at the date of the execution of this Agreement any such person was not such officer.

3. Exercise and Expiration of Warrants.

3.1 Right to Acquire Common Stock Upon Exercise. Each Warrant Certificate shall, when countersigned by the Warrant Agent, entitle the Holder thereof, subject to the provisions thereof and of this Agreement, to acquire from the Company, for each Warrant evidenced thereby, one share of Common Stock at the Exercise Price, subject to adjustment as provided in this Agreement; provided, however, that if such Warrant Certificate is issued by electronic or book entry registration on the books of the Warrant Agent only and not represented by physical certificates, (a) the Holder's rights shall not be subject to such countersignature by the Warrant Agent and (b) the Holder shall be deemed to hold and have received the Definitive Warrant Certificate for all purposes under this Agreement as a result of the Warrant Agent's registration of such Holder's applicable Warrants in the Holder's name on the books of the Warrant Agent (including the Warrant Register). The Exercise Price, and the number of shares of Common Stock obtainable upon exercise of each Warrant, shall be adjusted from time to time as required by Section 5.1.

3.2 Exercise and Expiration of Warrants.

(a) Exercise of Warrants. Subject to and upon compliance with the terms and conditions set forth herein, a Holder of a Warrant Certificate may exercise all or any whole number of the Warrants evidenced thereby, on any Business Day from and after the Original Issue Date until the Expiration Time, for the shares of Common Stock obtainable thereunder.

(b) Expiration of Warrants. The Warrants, to the extent not exercised prior thereto, shall automatically expire, terminate and become void as of the Expiration Time. No further action of any Person (including by, or on behalf of, any Holder, the Company, or the Warrant Agent) shall be required to effectuate the expiration of Warrants pursuant to this Section 3.2(b).

(c) Method of Exercise. In order for a Holder to exercise all or any of the Warrants represented by a Warrant Certificate, the Holder thereof must (i) provide written notice to the Company and the Warrant Agent in accordance with the notice information set forth in Section 11, (ii) at the Corporate Agency Office, (x) deliver to the Warrant Agent an exercise form for the election to exercise such Warrants, substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit B hereto (an "Exercise Form"), setting forth the number of Warrants being exercised and, if applicable, whether Cashless Exercise is being elected with respect thereto, and otherwise properly completed and duly executed by the Holder thereof, and (y) surrender to the Warrant Agent the Definitive Warrant Certificate evidencing such Warrants; (iii) pay to the Warrant Agent an amount equal to (x) all taxes required to be paid by the Holder, if any, pursuant to Section 3.4 prior to, or concurrently with, exercise of such Warrants and (y) except in the case of a Cashless Exercise, the aggregate of the Exercise Price in respect of each share of Common Stock into which such Warrants are exercisable, in case of (x) and (y), by cashier's check payable to the order of the Warrant Agent, or by wire transfer in immediately available funds to such account of the Warrant Agent at such banking institution as the Warrant Agent shall have designated from time to time for such purpose in accordance with Section 11.1(b) and (iv) comply with Section 3.8 and Section 9.4.

(d) Partial Exercise. If fewer than all the Warrants represented by a Warrant Certificate are exercised, such Definitive Warrant Certificate shall be surrendered and a new Definitive Warrant Certificate of the same tenor and for the number of Warrants which were not exercised shall be executed by the Company in accordance with Section 2.3(c). The Warrant Agent shall countersign the new Definitive Warrant Certificate, registered in such name or names, subject to the provisions of Section 8 regarding registration of transfer and payment of governmental charges in respect thereof, as may be directed in writing by the Holder, and shall deliver the new Definitive Warrant Certificate to the Person or Persons in whose name such new Definitive Warrant Certificate is so registered. The Company, whenever required by the Warrant Agent, will supply the Warrant Agent with Definitive Warrant Certificates duly executed on behalf of the Company for such purpose.

(e) Issuance of Common Stock. Upon due exercise of Warrants evidenced by any Warrant Certificate in conformity with the foregoing provisions of Section 3.2(c), the Warrant Agent shall, when the actions specified in Section 3.2(c)(i) have been effected, any payment specified in Section 3.2(c)(ii) is received and the provisions of Section 3.8 have been complied with, deliver to the Company the Exercise Form received pursuant to Section 3.2(c)(i), deliver or deposit all funds received as instructed in writing by the Company and advise the Company by telephone at the end of such day of the amount of funds so deposited to its account. The Company shall thereupon, as promptly as practicable, and in any event within five (5) Business Days after the Exercise Date referred to below, (i) determine the number of shares of Common Stock issuable pursuant to exercise of such Warrants pursuant to Section 3.6 or if Cashless Exercise applies, Section 3.7 and (ii) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Recipient (as defined below) the shares of Common Stock in book-entry form in accordance with Section 3.2(f) in an amount equal to the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise (based upon the aggregate number of Warrants so exercised), as so determined, together with an amount in cash in lieu of any fractional share of Common Stock(s), if the Company so elects pursuant to Section 5.2. The shares of Common Stock in book-entry form so delivered shall be, to the extent possible, in such denomination or denominations as such Holder shall request in the applicable Exercise Form and shall be registered or otherwise placed in the name of, and delivered to, the Holder or, subject to Section 3.4 and Section 3.7, such other Person as shall be designated in writing by the Holder in such Exercise Form (the Holder or such other Person being referred to herein as the "Recipient"). As a condition to the issuance of shares of Common Stock pursuant to this Section 3.2(e), the Recipient shall: (A) execute a joinder to the Shareholders' Agreement, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and (B) provide to the Company or its registered office provider such documentation and other evidence as is reasonably required by the Company or its registered office to carry out and to be satisfied that they have complied with all necessary "know your customer" or similar requirements under all applicable laws and regulations.

(f) Time of Exercise. Each exercise of a Warrant shall be deemed to have been effected immediately prior to the close of business on the day on which each of the requirements for exercise of such Warrant specified in Section 3.2(c) and Section 3.8 has been duly satisfied (the "Exercise Date"). At such time, subject to Section 5.1(d)(iv) and the Recipient complying with its obligations pursuant to Section 3.2(e), the Company shall procure the entry into the Company's register of stockholders of the name of the Recipient as holder of the shares of Common Stock on the Exercise Date, and shall provide to the Recipient an extract of the register so updated as soon as practicable thereafter, in book-entry form for the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise as provided in Section 3.2(e) shall be deemed to have been issued and, for all purposes of this Agreement, the Recipient shall, as between such Person and the Company, be deemed to be and entitled to all rights of the holder of record of such shares of Common Stock.

(g) The Warrant Agent shall:

(i) examine all Exercise Forms and all other documents delivered to it by or on behalf of the Holders as contemplated hereunder to ascertain whether or not, on their face, such Exercise Forms and any such other documents have been executed and completed in accordance with their terms and the terms hereof;

(ii) where an Exercise Form or other document appears on its face to have been improperly completed or executed or some other irregularity in connection with the exercise of the Warrants exists, inform the appropriate parties (including the Person submitting such instrument) of the need for fulfillment of all requirements, specifying those requirements which appear to be unfulfilled;

(iii) inform the Company of, cooperate with, and reasonably assist such Person and the Company in, resolving any discrepancies between Exercise Forms received and delivery of Warrants to the Warrant Agent's account;

(iv) advise the Company promptly after receipt of an Exercise Form of (x) the receipt of such Exercise Form and the number of Warrants exercised in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, (y) the instructions with respect to delivery of the shares of Common Stock deliverable upon such exercise and (z) such other information as the Company shall reasonably require.

(h) All questions as to the validity, form and sufficiency (including time of receipt) of an Exercise Form will be determined by the Company in its reasonable discretion in accordance with the provisions set forth herein. The Company reserves the right to reject any and all Exercise Forms not in proper form or for which any corresponding agreement by the Company to exchange would be unlawful; provided that the Company shall provide the Holder with the reasonable opportunity to correct any defects in the Exercise Forms. Moreover, without limiting the rights and immunities of the Warrant Agent, the Company reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to the exercise of Warrants or defects in Exercise Forms with regard to any particular exercise of Warrants. If the Company believes there is any irregularity in the exercise of the Warrants, then the Company shall (or shall cause the Warrant Agent to) promptly give notice to the Holder of the Warrants that submitted the applicable Exercise Form of such irregularities and an opportunity to cure the same, provided that the Warrant Agent shall not incur any liability for the failure to give such notice. The Warrant Agent shall incur no liability for or in respect of any determination, action or omission by the Company in accordance with this Section 3.2(h).

3.3 Application of Funds upon Exercise of Warrants. Any funds delivered to the Warrant Agent upon exercise of any Warrant(s) shall be held by the Warrant Agent in trust for the Company. The Warrant Agent shall promptly deliver and pay to or upon the written order of the Company all funds received by it upon the exercise of any Warrants by bank wire transfer to an account designated by the Company or as the Warrant Agent otherwise may be directed in writing by the Company.

3.4 Payment of Taxes. The Company shall pay any and all taxes (other than income or similar taxes) that may be payable in respect of the issue or delivery of shares of Common Stock on exercise of Warrants pursuant hereto. The Company shall not be required, however, to pay any tax or other charge imposed in respect of any transfer involved in the issue and delivery of shares of Common Stock in book-entry form for shares of Common Stock or payment of cash or other property to any Recipient other than the Holder of the Warrant Certificate evidencing the exercised Warrant, and in case of such transfer or payment, the Warrant Agent and the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any shares of Common Stock in book-entry form or any certificate or pay any cash until (a) such tax or charge has been paid or an amount sufficient for the payment thereof has been delivered to the Warrant Agent or the Company or (b) it has been established to the Company's satisfaction that any such tax or other charge that is or may become due has been paid.

3.5 Cancellation of Warrant Certificates. Any Definitive Warrant Certificate surrendered for exercise shall, if surrendered to the Company, be delivered to the Warrant Agent. All Warrant Certificates surrendered or delivered to or received by the Warrant Agent for cancellation pursuant to this Section 3.5 shall be promptly cancelled by the Warrant Agent and shall not be reissued by the Company. The Warrant Agent shall destroy any such cancelled Warrant Certificates and deliver its certificate of destruction to the Company, unless the Company shall otherwise direct.

3.6 Common Stock Issuable. The number of shares of Common Stock "obtainable upon exercise" or "issuable upon exercise" of Warrants at any time shall be the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Warrants are then exercisable. The number of shares of Common Stock "into which each Warrant is exercisable" shall be one share of Common Stock, subject to adjustment as provided in Section 5.1.

3.7 Cashless Exercise. Notwithstanding any provisions herein to the contrary, if, on the Exercise Date of a Cashless Exercise, the Cashless Exercise Current Market Price of one share of Common Stock is greater than the applicable Exercise Price on the Exercise Date, then, in lieu of paying to the Company the applicable Exercise Price by wire transfer in immediately available funds, the Holder may elect to receive shares of Common Stock equal to the value (as determined below) of the Warrants or any portion thereof being exercised (such portion, the "Cashless Exercise Warrants" with respect to such date) by (i) in the case of Warrants evidenced by a Global Warrant Certificate, providing notice to the Warrant Agent pursuant to the Applicable Procedures and the Exercise From; or (ii) in the case of Warrants evidenced by a Definitive Warrant Certificate, providing notice pursuant to the Exercise Form, in the case of (i) or (ii), that the Holder desires to effect a "cashless exercise" (a "Cashless Exercise") with respect to the Cashless Exercise Warrants, in which event the Company shall issue to the Holder a number of shares of Common Stock with respect to Cashless Exercise Warrants computed using the following formula (it being understood that any portion of the Warrants being exercised on such date that are not Cashless Exercise Warrants will not be affected by this calculation):

$$X = (Y\ (A\text{-}B)) \div A$$

Where X = the number of shares of Common Stock to be issued to the Holder in respect of the Cashless Exercise Warrants

Y = the number of shares of Common Stock purchasable under the Cashless Exercise Warrants being exercised by the Holder (on the Exercise Date)

A = the applicable Cashless Exercise Current Market Price of one share of Common Stock (on the Exercise Date)

B = the applicable Exercise Price (as adjusted through and including the Exercise Date).

3.8 Regulatory Approvals.

(a) The Company reserves the right to reject any and all Exercise Forms that it reasonably determines in good faith are not in proper form or for which any corresponding agreement by the Company to exchange would, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, be unlawful. Any such determination by the Company shall be final and binding on the Holder of the Warrants, absent manifest error; provided that the Company shall provide a Holder with the reasonable opportunity to correct any defects in its Exercise Forms (without prejudicing such Holder's ability to deliver subsequent Exercise Forms). The Company further reserves the right to request such information (including, without limitation, information with respect to citizenship, other ownership interests and Affiliates) as the Company (A) may deem appropriate, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, to determine whether the exercise of the Warrants would (i) be unlawful, (ii) subject the Company to any limitation under the Communications Laws that would not apply to the Company but for such exchange, or (iii) limit or impair any business activities of the Company under the Communications Laws, and/or (B) may be reasonably required in order to complete and prosecute any FCC application or petition for declaratory ruling necessary to obtain any Regulatory Approvals, or to respond to any inquiries from the FCC or other Governmental Authorities, which shall be furnished promptly by any Holder from whom such information is requested as a condition to such Holder's exercise of Warrants. Each Holder agrees that the Company may disclose to the FCC or other Governmental Authorities the identity of and further ownership information about any Person, as required by the FCC or other Governmental Authorities or, to the extent not so required, as the Company's independent outside legal counsel reasonably deems advisable, about any Person who would hold any interest in the Company of 5% or more of the Company's voting or equity interests in the Company calculated pursuant to the Communications Laws upon the exercise of Warrants. Moreover, the Company reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to any particular exercise of Warrants or any defects in the Exercise Form(s) with regard to any particular exercise of Warrants. The Company shall provide prompt written notice to the Holder of any such rejection or waiver.

(b) Without limiting the foregoing and notwithstanding any provisions contained herein to the contrary, (i) no Holder shall be entitled to exercise any Warrant until all Regulatory Approvals required to be made to or obtained from any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over the Company or its Subsidiaries have been made or obtained, and in the event that all required Regulatory Approvals are not received, the Holder shall continue to hold its Warrants; and (ii) the Company may (x) prior to the FCC's grant of a declaratory ruling approving aggregate foreign ownership of the Company in excess of 25%, prohibit the exercise of Warrants which may, in the Company's determination, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, cause 22.5% or more of the Company's outstanding equity interests or the equity of any Subsidiary of the Company to be directly or indirectly owned or voted by or for the account of non-U.S. persons as determined pursuant to the Communications Laws, or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, Non-U.S. Persons, (y) require Specific Approval prior to any exercise of a Warrant by a non-U.S. person (or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, non-U.S. persons) to the extent necessary under the Communications Laws or the terms of any declaratory ruling obtained by the Company or (z) prohibit the exercise of any Warrants if such exercise would, in the Company's reasonable determination (A) result in a violation of applicable laws or regulations or [(B) involve circumstances that the Board of Directors determines could require the registration or qualification of any class of Common Stock or require the Company to file reports pursuant to any applicable federal or state securities laws.]

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, it shall be a condition to the exercise of any Warrant that upon receipt of Common Stock upon exercise, the Holder shall, if not already a party to the Shareholders' Agreement, execute a joinder thereto (or, in the case where such Holder does not execute such joinder, be deemed to have become a party to the Shareholders' Agreement, irrespective of whether such Holder physically executes the Shareholders' Agreement or a joinder thereto).

(d) Upon receipt of all necessary Regulatory Approvals, if any, in respect of the exercise of any Warrant, and provided that (i) a Holder has complied with the requirements of Sections 3.2(a) and 3.2(c), (ii) the Company has determined that (x) the Holder's exercise of its Warrants does not violate any of the Communications Laws or the Securities Act or any decision, rule, regulation, policy, order or declaratory ruling issued by the FCC or the SEC, as applicable and (y) all conditions imposed by the FCC or any other Governmental Authority in any Regulatory Approval have been satisfied, such Holder's Warrants shall be automatically deemed exercised.

3.9 Withholding. Subject to Section 3.4, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Warrant to the contrary, the Company shall be entitled to deduct and withhold (or cause to be deducted and withheld) from any amounts or property payable or deliverable to any Person pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement or the Warrant such amounts as are required to be deducted or withheld under applicable law (and the Company shall be entitled to withhold, for the avoidance of doubt, from any amounts or property that are payable or deliverable to such Person pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement or the Warrant, that are subsequent to the payment or delivery or other circumstance that gave rise to the requirement to deduct or withhold under applicable law); provided that, the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to notify such Person of such withholding obligation prior to the date on which such deduction and withholding is required to be made and the parties shall take commercially reasonable steps to reduce or eliminate any such withholding. Any amounts that are so withheld by the Company shall be paid to the appropriate Governmental Authority and shall be treated as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such withholding was made.

4. Dissolution, Liquidation or Winding Up.

Unless Section 5.1(f) applies, if, on or prior to the Expiration Time, the Company (or any other Person controlling the Company) shall propose a voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up (collectively, a "Winding Up"; provided that a Winding Up shall not be effected pursuant to a Transaction) of the affairs of the Company, the Company shall give written notice thereof to the Warrant Agent and all Holders in the manner provided in Section 11.2 prior to the date on which such transaction is expected to become effective or, if earlier, the record date for such transaction. Such notice shall also specify the date as of which the holders of record of the shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to exchange their shares for securities, money or other property deliverable upon such dissolution, liquidation or winding up, as the case may be, on which date each Holder of Warrant Certificates shall receive the securities, money or other property which such Holder would have been entitled to receive had such Holder been the holder of record of the shares of Common Stock into which the Warrants were exercisable immediately prior to such dissolution, liquidation or winding up (net of the then applicable Exercise Price) and the rights to exercise the Warrants shall terminate.

Unless Section 5.1(f) applies, in case of any Winding Up of the Company, the Company shall deposit with the Warrant Agent any funds or other property which the Holders are entitled to receive pursuant to the above paragraph, together with a Company Order as to the distribution thereof. After receipt of such deposit from the Company and after receipt of surrendered Warrant Certificates evidencing Warrants, the Warrant Agent shall make payment in appropriate amount to such Person or Persons as it may be directed in writing by the Holder surrendering such Warrant Certificate. The Warrant Agent shall not be required to pay interest on any money deposited pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4 except such as it shall agree with the Company to pay thereon. Any moneys, securities or other property which at any time shall be deposited by the Company or on its behalf with the Warrant Agent pursuant to this Section 4 shall be, and are hereby, assigned, transferred and set over to the Warrant Agent in trust for the purpose for which such moneys, securities or other property shall have been deposited; provided that moneys, securities or other property need not be segregated from other funds, securities or other property held by the Warrant Agent except to the extent required by law.

5. Adjustments.

5.1 Adjustments. In order to prevent dilution of the rights granted under the Warrants and to grant the Holders certain additional rights, the Exercise Price shall be subject to adjustment from time to time only as specifically provided in this Section 5.1 and the number of shares of Common Stock obtainable upon exercise of Warrants shall be subject to adjustment from time to time only as specifically provided in this Section 5.1, in each case, without duplication.

(a) Subdivisions and Combinations. In the event the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, effect a subdivision (by any equity security split, subdivision or otherwise) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock into a greater number of shares of Common Stock (other than (x) a subdivision upon a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) applies or (y) an equity security split effected by means of a stock or equity security dividend or distribution to which Section 5.1(b) applies), then and in each such event the Exercise Price in effect at the opening of business on the day after the date upon which such subdivision becomes effective shall be proportionately decreased by multiplying such Exercise Price by a fraction (i) the numerator of which shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such subdivision and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the sum of (A) the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such subdivision plus (B) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable as a result of such subdivision. Conversely, if the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, effect a combination (by any reverse equity security split, combination or otherwise) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock into a smaller number of shares of Common Stock (other than a combination upon a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) applies), then and in each such event the Exercise Price in effect at the opening of business on the day after the date upon which such combination becomes effective shall be proportionately increased by multiplying such Exercise Price by a fraction (i) the numerator of which shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such combination and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the sum of (A) the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such combination minus (B) the number of shares of Common Stock reduced as a result of such combination. Any adjustment under this Section 5.1(a) shall become effective immediately after the opening of business on the day after the date upon which the subdivision or combination becomes effective.

(b) Common Stock Dividends. In the event the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired, in whole or in part, pay, make or issue to the holders of its Common Stock, or shall fix a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock to receive, a dividend or distribution payable in, or otherwise pay, make or issue, or fix a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock to receive, a dividend or other distribution on any class of its equity securities payable in, Common Stock (other than a dividend or distribution upon a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) applies), then and in each such event the Exercise Price in effect at the opening of business on the day after the date for the determination of the holders of Common Stock entitled to receive such dividend or distribution shall be decreased by multiplying such Exercise Price by a fraction (not to be greater than 1):

(i) the numerator of which shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding at the close of business on such date for determination; and

(ii) the denominator of which shall be the sum of (A) the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding at the close of business on such date for determination plus (B) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable in payment of such dividend or distribution.

Any adjustment under this Section 5.1(b) shall, subject to Section 5.1(d)(iv), become effective immediately after the opening of business on the day after the date for the determination of the holders of Common Stock entitled to receive such dividend or distribution.

(c) Reclassifications. In the event that the Company reclassifies the Common Stock (other than any such reclassification in connection with a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) applies) into Common Stock and any other equity interests of the Company:

(i) then and in each such event, the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to the close of business on the effective date of such reclassification shall be decreased by multiplying such Exercise Price by a fraction (not to be greater than 1): (x) the numerator of which shall be the Fair Market Value per share of Common Stock on such date for determination minus the Fair Market Value (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors, whose determination shall be evidenced by a resolution of the Board of Directors filed with the Warrant Agent) of the portion applicable to one share of Common Stock of such other equity interests of the Company into which Common Stock are so reclassified and (y) the denominator of which shall be Fair Market Value per share of Common Stock;

(ii) if the outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be changed into a larger or smaller number of shares of Common Stock as a part of such reclassification, such change shall be deemed a subdivision or combination, as the case may be, of the outstanding shares of Common Stock for the purposes and within the meaning of Section 5.1(a) (and the effective date of such reclassification shall be deemed to be "the date upon which such subdivision becomes effective" or "the date upon which such combination becomes effective," as applicable, for the purposes and within the meaning of Section 5.1(a)); and

(iii) any dividend or distribution of equity interests made or paid on Common Stock shall not be deemed a reclassification within the meaning of this Section 5.1(c).

(d) Other Provisions Applicable to Adjustments. The following provisions shall be applicable to the making of adjustments to the Exercise Price and the number of shares of Common Stock into which each Warrant is exercisable under Section 5.1:

(i) Common Stock Held by the Company. The dividend or distribution of any issued shares of Common Stock owned or held by or for the account of the Company shall be deemed a dividend or distribution of Common Stock for purposes of Section 5.1(b). The Company shall not make or issue any dividend or distribution on Common Stock held in the treasury of the Company. For the purposes of Section 5.1(b), the number of shares of Common Stock at any time outstanding shall not include Common Stock held in the treasury of the Company.

(ii) When Adjustments Are to be Made. The adjustments required by Section 5.1(a), Section 5.1(b), Section 5.1(c) and Section 5.1(g) shall be made whenever and as often as any specified event requiring an adjustment shall occur, except that no adjustment of the Exercise Price that would otherwise be required shall be made unless and until such adjustment either by itself or with other adjustments not previously made increases or decreases the Exercise Price immediately prior to the making of such adjustment by at least 1%. Any adjustment representing a change of less than such minimum amount (except as aforesaid) shall be carried forward and made as soon as such adjustment, together with other adjustments required by Section 5.1(a), Section 5.1(b), Section 5.1(c) and Section 5.1(g) and not previously made, would result in such minimum adjustment.

(iii) Fractional Interests. In computing adjustments under this Section 5.1, fractional interests in Common Stock shall be taken into account to the nearest one-thousandth of a share of Common Stock.

(iv) Deferral of Issuance Upon Exercise. In any case in which Section 5.1(b) or Section 5.1(g) shall require that a decrease in the Exercise Price be made effective prior to the occurrence of a specified event and any Warrant is exercised after the time at which the adjustment became effective but prior to the occurrence of such specified event and, in connection therewith, Section 5.1(e) shall require a corresponding increase in the number of shares of Common Stock into which each Warrant is exercisable, the Company may elect to defer (but not in any event later than the Expiration Time or the closing date of the applicable Third Party Sale Transaction) until the occurrence of such specified event (A) the issuance to the Holder of the Warrant Certificate evidencing such Warrant (or other Person entitled thereto) of, and the registration of such Holder (or other Person) as the record holder of, the shares of Common Stock over and above the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise on the basis of the number of shares of Common Stock obtainable upon exercise of such Warrant immediately prior to such adjustment and to require payment in respect of such number of shares of Common Stock the issuance of which is not deferred on the basis of the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such adjustment and (B) the corresponding reduction in the Exercise Price; provided, however, that the Company shall deliver to such Holder or other person a due bill or other appropriate instrument that evidences the right of such Holder or other Person to receive, and to become the record holder of, such additional shares of Common Stock, upon the occurrence of such specified event requiring such adjustment (without payment of any additional Exercise Price in respect of such additional shares of Common Stock) and, if the shares of Common Stock are then traded on a national securities exchange or other market, meets any applicable requirements of the principal national securities exchange or other market on which the shares of Common Stock are then traded.

(e) Adjustment to Common Stock Obtainable Upon Exercise. Whenever the Exercise Price is adjusted as provided in this Section 5.1 (other than as an adjustment required pursuant to Section 5.1(g)), the number of shares of Common Stock into which a Warrant is exercisable shall simultaneously be adjusted by multiplying such number of shares of Common Stock into which a Warrant is exercisable immediately prior to such adjustment by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the Exercise Price immediately prior to such adjustment, and the denominator of which shall be the Exercise Price immediately thereafter.

(f) Changes in Common Stock. In case at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, the Company (including any Successor Company) shall be a party to or shall otherwise engage in any transaction or series of related transactions constituting: (1) a consolidation of the Company with, a sale of all of the equity (including a tender or exchange offer) of the Company to, a merger of the Company into, a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its

Subsidiaries (taken as a whole) to, any other Person, or any similar transaction, in each case, in which the previously outstanding shares of Common Stock shall receive or be entitled to receive (either directly or upon subsequent liquidation or winding up), cancelled, reclassified or converted or changed into or exchanged for securities or other property (including cash) or any combination of the foregoing (a "Non-Surviving Transaction"), or (2) any merger of another Person into the Company in which the previously outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be cancelled, reclassified or converted or changed into or exchanged for securities of the Company or other property (including cash) or any combination of the foregoing (a "Surviving Transaction" and any Non-Surviving Transaction or Surviving Transaction being herein called a "Transaction"); then:

(i) [if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Cash Only Transaction and such Sale Cash Only Transaction is consummated on or prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Cash Only Transaction, (A) any Warrants not exercised prior to the closing of such Sale Cash Only Transaction shall automatically expire, terminate and become void without any payment or consideration other than as contemplated by the following clause (B) and (B) to the extent the Black-Scholes Value of one Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Cash Only Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Holder of each Warrant Certificate evidencing any unexercised Warrants, cash in an amount, for each Warrant so evidenced, equal to the greater of (x) such Black-Scholes Value and (y) the consideration to be received by such Holder if such Warrant were exercised for Common Stock;][8]

(ii) if such Transaction is a Non-Sale Transaction:

(A) as a condition to the consummation of such Transaction, the Company shall (or, in the case of any Non-Surviving Transaction, the Company shall cause such other Person to) execute and deliver to the Warrant Agent a written instrument providing that any Warrant that remains outstanding in whole or in part, upon the exercise thereof at any time on or after the consummation of such Transaction, shall be exercisable (on such terms and subject to such conditions as shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the provisions set forth in this Agreement) into, in lieu of the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise prior to such consummation, only the securities or other property ("Substituted Property") that would have been receivable upon such Transaction by a Qualifying Electing Person holding the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Warrant was exercisable immediately prior to such Transaction and for an aggregate Exercise Price for such Warrant equal to the product of (I) the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Warrant was exercisable immediately prior to such Transaction and (II) the Exercise Price per share of Common Stock immediately prior to such Transaction;

(B) except as otherwise specified in Section 5.1(f)(ii)(A), the rights and obligations of the Company (or, in the event of a Non-Surviving Transaction, such other Person) and the Holders in respect of Substituted Property shall be substantially unchanged to be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the rights and obligations of the Company and Holders in respect of shares of Common Stock hereunder as set forth in Section 3.1 hereof; and

(C) such written instrument under clause (ii)(A) above shall provide for adjustments which, for events subsequent to the effective date of such written instrument, shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided for in this Section 5; and the provisions of this Section 5.1(f) shall similarly apply to successive Transactions that are not Third Party Sale Transactions;

(iii) [if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Securities Only Transaction and such Sale Securities Only Transaction is consummated on or prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Securities Only Transaction, (A) any Warrants not exercised prior to the closing of such Sale Securities Only Transaction shall automatically expire, terminate and become void without any payment or consideration other than as contemplated by the following clause (B) and (B) if the Black-Scholes Value of one Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Securities Only Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Holder of each Warrant Certificate evidencing any unexercised Warrants, an amount of the Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities for each Warrant so evidenced having a Fair Market Value equal to the greater of: (x) such Black-Scholes Value and (if such Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities consist of securities of more than one type) in such proportion among the securities so delivered as to be the same as the pro rata kind and amount per share of Common Stock (determined on the basis of all outstanding shares of Common Stock held by all Qualifying Persons) and (y) value of the consideration to be received by such Holder if such Warrant were exercised for Common Stock and (if such Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities consist of securities of more than one type) in such proportion among the securities so delivered as to be the same as the pro rata kind and amount per share of Common Stock (determined on the basis of all outstanding shares of Common Stock held by all Qualifying Persons); or][9]

(iv) [if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Cash and Securities Transaction and such Sale Cash Only Transaction is consummated on or prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction, (A) any Warrants not exercised prior to the closing of such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction shall automatically expire, terminate and become void

without any payment or consideration other than as contemplated by the following clause (B) and (B) if the Black-Scholes Value of each Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Cash and Securities Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Holder of each Warrant Certificate evidencing any unexercised Warrants, an amount of Sale Cash and Securities Transaction Consideration for each Warrant so evidenced having a Fair Market Value equal to the greater of: (x) such Black-Scholes Value and (if such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction Consideration consists of consideration of more than one type) in such proportion among the cash, securities and other property so delivered as to be the same as the pro rata kind and amount per share of Common Stock (determined on the basis of all outstanding shares of Common Stock held by all Qualifying Persons) actually received in such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction by all Qualifying Persons and (y) value of the consideration to be received by such Holder if such Warrant were exercised for Common Stock and (if such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction Consideration consists of consideration of more than one type) in such proportion among the cash, securities and other property so delivered as to be the same as the pro rata kind and amount per share of Common Stock (determined on the basis of all outstanding shares of Common Stock held by all Qualifying Persons) actually received in such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction by all Qualifying Persons.][10]

[For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in no event shall a Holder be entitled to any Fair Market Value, or any delivery of any cash, securities or other property in respect thereof, on account of the Warrants (using the Black-Scholes Value or otherwise) in any Non-Sale Transaction (other than the kind and amount of Substituted Property specified in Section 5.1(f)(ii)(A)).][11]

(g) Upon a Transaction. In the event of a Transaction [after the Black-Scholes Expiration Date][12] that constitutes a Sale Cash Only Transaction, each Warrant shall be deemed to be exercised immediately prior to the consummation of such Sale Cash Only Transaction and the Holder thereof shall receive solely the cash consideration to which such Holder would have been entitled as a result of such Sale Cash Only Transaction, less the Exercise Price, as though the Warrant had been exercised immediately prior thereto. Upon a Sales Securities Only Transaction or a Sale Cash and Securities Transaction, each Warrant will be assumed by the party surviving such Sales Securities Only Transaction or Sale Cash and Securities Transaction and shall continue to be exercisable subject to the terms set forth herein for the kind and amount of shares of stock or other securities or assets of the Company or of the successor Person resulting from such Sales Securities Only Transaction or Sale Cash and Securities Transaction to which such Holder would have been entitled as a result of such Sales Securities Only Transaction or Sale Cash and Securities Transaction had the Warrant been exercised in full immediately prior thereto and acquired the applicable number of shares of Common Stock then issuable pursuant to such Holder's Warrants as a result of such exercise (without taking into account any limitations or restrictions on the exercisability of the Warrants), and, in such case, appropriate adjustment (in form and substance satisfactory to the Holder) shall be made with respect to the Holder's rights to insure that the provisions of this Section 5.1(g) shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as possible, to the Warrants in relation to any shares of stock, securities or assets thereafter acquirable upon exercise of the Warrants. The Company shall not effect any such Transaction unless, prior to the consummation thereof, the successor Person (if other than the Company) resulting from such Transaction, shall assume, by written instrument substantially similar in form and substance to this Agreement and satisfactory to the Holder, the obligation to deliver to the Holder such shares of stock, securities or assets which, in accordance with the foregoing provisions, such Holder shall be entitled to receive upon exercise of its Warrants. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 5.1(g) shall be subject in all respects to compliance with the Communications Laws.

(h) Cash Dividends. In the event the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, pay, or fix a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock to receive, any dividend of cash to holders of its Common Stock (other than any dividend or distribution upon a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) or Section 5.1(g) or applies) (a "Cash Dividend"), then and in each such event, the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to the close of business on the date for the determination of the holders of Common Stock entitled to receive such dividend or distribution shall be decreased (to an amount not less than zero) by an amount equal to the amount of the cash so distributed to one share of Common Stock. Any adjustment under this Section 5.1(g) shall, subject to Section 5.1(d)(iv), become effective immediately prior to the opening of business on the day after the date for the determination of the holders of Common Stock entitled to receive such Cash Dividend.

(i) Optional Tax Adjustment. The Company may at its option, at any time during the term of the Warrants, increase the number of shares of Common Stock into which each Warrant is exercisable, or decrease the Exercise Price, in addition to those changes required by Section 5.1(a), Section 5.1(b), Section 5.1(c) or Section 5.1(g) as deemed advisable by the Board of Directors, in order that any event treated for income tax purposes as a dividend of equity securities or equity security rights shall not be taxable to the recipients.

(h) Warrants Deemed Exercisable. For purposes solely of this Section 5, the number of shares of Common Stock which the holder of any Warrant would have been entitled to receive had such Warrant been exercised in full at any time or into which any Warrant was exercisable at any time shall be determined assuming such Warrant was exercisable in full at such time.

(j) Notice of Adjustment. Upon the occurrence of each adjustment of the Exercise Price or the number of shares of Common Stock into which a Warrant is exercisable pursuant to this Section 5.1, the Company at its expense shall promptly:

(i) compute such adjustment in accordance with the terms hereof;

(ii) after such adjustment becomes effective, deliver to all Holders, in accordance with Section 11.1(b) and Section 11.2, a notice setting forth such adjustment in reasonable detail and showing in reasonable detail the facts upon which such adjustment (including the kind and amount of securities, cash or other property for which the Warrants shall be exercisable and the Exercise Price) is based; and

(iii) deliver to the Warrant Agent a certificate of the Treasurer or other officer of the Company having equivalent responsibilities setting forth the Exercise Price and the number of shares of Common Stock into which each Warrant is exercisable after such adjustment and setting forth a brief statement of the facts requiring such adjustment and the computation by which such adjustment was made (including a description of the basis on which the Fair Market Value of any evidences of indebtedness, shares of equity securities, securities, cash or other assets or consideration used in the computation was determined). As provided in Section 10.1, the Warrant Agent shall be entitled to rely on such certificate and shall be under no duty or responsibility with respect to any such certificate, except to exhibit the same from time to time to any Holder desiring an inspection thereof during reasonable business hours.

(k) Statement on Warrant Certificates. Irrespective of any adjustment in the Exercise Price or amount or kind of equity securities into which the Warrants are exercisable, Warrant Certificates theretofore or thereafter issued may continue to express the same Exercise Price initially applicable or amount or kind of equity securities initially issuable upon exercise of the Warrants evidenced thereby pursuant to this Agreement.

5.2 Fractional Interest. The Company shall not be required upon the exercise of any Warrant to issue any fractional shares of Common Stock, but may, in lieu of issuing any fractional shares of Common Stock make an adjustment therefore in cash on the basis of the Fair Market Value per share of Common Stock on the date of such exercise. If Warrant Certificates evidencing more than one Warrant shall be presented for exercise at the same time by the same Holder, the number of full shares of Common Stock which shall be issuable upon such exercise thereof shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate number of Warrants so to be exercised. The Holders, by their acceptance of the Warrant Certificates, expressly waive their right to receive any fraction of a share of Common Stock or a stock certificate representing a fraction of a share of Common Stock.

5.3 No Other Adjustments. In each case, except in accordance with Section 5.1, the applicable Exercise Price and the number of shares of Common Stock obtainable upon exercise of any Warrant will not be adjusted for (x) any dividend or distribution made or paid on the shares of Common Stock or any other equity securities, (y) any purchase (including by tender or exchange offer) of any shares of Common Stock or (z) the issuance of shares of Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for shares of Common Stock or carrying the right to purchase any of the foregoing, including:

(i) upon the issuance of any other securities by the Company on or after the Original Issue Date, whether or not contemplated by the Plan, or upon the issuance of shares of Common Stock upon the exercise of any such securities;

(ii) upon the issuance of any shares of Common Stock or other securities or any payments pursuant to the Management Incentive Plan (as defined in the Plan) or any other equity incentive plan of the Company;

(iii) upon the issuance of any shares of Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of the Warrants; or

(iv) upon the issuance of any shares of Common Stock or other securities of the Company in connection with a business acquisition transaction.

6. Loss or Mutilation.

If (a) any mutilated Warrant Certificate is surrendered to the Warrant Agent or (b) both (i) there shall be delivered to the Company and the Warrant Agent (A) a claim by a Holder as to the destruction, loss or wrongful taking of any Warrant Certificate of such Holder and a request thereby for a new replacement Warrant Certificate, and (B) such indemnity bond as may be required by them to save each of them and any agent of either of them harmless and (ii) such other reasonable requirements as may be imposed by the Company and the Warrant Agent as permitted by Section 8-405 of the Uniform Commercial Code have been satisfied, then, in the absence of notice to the Company or the Warrant Agent that such Warrant Certificate has been acquired by a "protected purchaser" within the meaning of Section 8-405 of the Uniform Commercial Code, the Company shall execute and upon its written request the Warrant Agent shall countersign and deliver to the registered Holder of the lost, wrongfully taken, destroyed or mutilated Warrant Certificate, in exchange therefore or in lieu thereof, a new Warrant Certificate of the same tenor and for a like aggregate number of Warrants. At the written request of such registered Holder, the new Warrant Certificate so issued shall be retained by the Warrant Agent as having been surrendered for exercise, in lieu of delivery thereof to such Holder, and shall be deemed for purposes of Section 3.2 to have been surrendered for exercise on the date the conditions specified in clauses (a) or (b) of the preceding sentence were first satisfied.

Upon the issuance of any new Warrant Certificate under this Section 6, the Company may require the payment of any tax or other governmental charge that is imposed in relation thereto and any other reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses (including the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of the Warrant Agent and of counsel to the Company) in connection therewith.

Every new Warrant Certificate executed and delivered pursuant to this Section 6 in lieu of any lost, wrongfully taken or destroyed Warrant Certificate shall constitute an additional contractual obligation of the Company, whether or not the allegedly lost, wrongfully taken or destroyed Warrant Certificate shall be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be entitled to the benefits of this Agreement equally and proportionately with any and all other Warrant Certificates duly executed and delivered hereunder.

The provisions of this Section 6 are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights or remedies with respect to the replacement of mutilated, lost, wrongfully taken, or destroyed Warrant Certificates.

7. Reservation and Authorization of Common Stock.

The Company covenants that, for the duration of the Exercise Period, the Company will at all times reserve and keep available, from its authorized and unissued shares of Common Stock solely for issuance and delivery upon the exercise of the Warrants and free of preemptive rights, such number of shares of Common Stock and other securities, cash or property as from time to time shall be issuable upon the exercise in full of all outstanding Warrants for cash. The Company further covenants that it shall, from time to time, take all steps necessary to increase the authorized number of its shares of Common Stock if at any time the authorized number of shares of Common Stock remaining unissued would otherwise be insufficient to allow delivery of all the shares of Common Stock then deliverable upon the exercise in full of all outstanding Warrants. The Company covenants that it will take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate in order that all shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrants will, upon issuance, be duly and validly issued, and will be free of restrictions on transfer and will be free from all taxes, liens and charges in respect of the issue thereof (other than income or similar taxes or taxes in respect of any transfer occurring contemporaneously or otherwise specified herein or in connection with a Cashless Exercise). The Company shall take all such actions as may be necessary to ensure that all such shares of Common Stock may be so issued without violation of any applicable law or governmental regulation. The Company covenants that the stock certificates, if any, issued to evidence any shares of Common Stock issued upon exercise of Warrants will comply with the Delaware General Corporation Act (as amended) and any other applicable law.

The Company hereby authorizes and directs its current and future transfer agents for the shares of Common Stock at all times to reserve stock certificates for such number of shares of Common Stock, to the extent as, and if, required. The Warrant Agent is hereby authorized to requisition from time to time from any such transfer agents stock certificates required to honor outstanding Warrants upon exercise thereof in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the Company hereby authorizes and directs such transfer agents to comply with all such requests of the Warrant Agent. The Company will supply such transfer agents with duly executed stock certificates for such purposes, to the extent as, and if, required.

8. Warrant Transfer and Exchange.

8.1 Warrant Transfer Books.

(a) The Warrant Agent will maintain an office (the "Corporate Agency Office") in the United States of America, where Warrant Certificates may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange and where Warrant Certificates may be surrendered for exercise of Warrants evidenced thereby, which office is _____, on the Original Issue Date. The Warrant Agent will give prompt written notice to all Holders of Warrant Certificates of any change in the location of such office.

(b) The Warrant Certificates evidencing the Warrants shall be issued in registered form only. The Company shall cause to be kept at the office of the Warrant Agent designated for such purpose a warrant register (the "Warrant Register") in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as the Warrant Agent may prescribe and such regulations as may be prescribed by law, the Company shall provide for the registration of Warrant Certificates and of transfers or exchanges of Warrant Certificates as herein provided.

(c) Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Warrant Certificate at the Corporate Agency Office, the Company shall execute, and the Warrant Agent shall countersign and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Warrant Certificates evidencing a like aggregate number of Warrants.

(d) At the option of the Holder, Warrant Certificates may be exchanged at the office of the Warrant Agent upon payment of the charges hereinafter provided for other Warrant Certificates evidencing a like aggregate number of Warrants. Whenever any Warrant Certificates are so surrendered for exchange, the Company shall execute, and the Warrant Agent shall countersign and deliver, the Warrant Certificates of the same tenor and evidencing the same number of Warrants as evidenced by the Warrant Certificates surrendered by the Holder making the exchange. Every Warrant Certificate surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Company or the Warrant Agent) be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Company and the Warrant Agent, duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

8.2 Restrictions on Exchanges and Transfers.

(a) No Warrants or Common Stock shall be sold, exchanged or otherwise Transferred (A) in violation of (i) the Securities Act or state securities Laws, (ii) the Communication Laws, or (iii) the Company's certificate of incorporation or other governing documents and (B) unless the transferee delivers to the Warrant Agent a properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable. If any Holder purports to Transfer Warrants to any Person in a transaction that would violate the provisions of this Section 8.2, such Transfer shall be void ab initio and of no effect.

(b) The Company reserves the right to reject any and all Assignment Forms that it reasonably determines are not in proper form or for which any corresponding agreement by the Company to Transfer or exchange would, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, be unlawful. Any such determination by the Company shall be final and binding on the Holder of the Warrants, absent manifest error provided that the Company shall provide a Holder with the reasonable opportunity to correct any defects in its Assignment Forms (without prejudicing such Holder's ability to deliver subsequent Assignment Forms). The Company further reserves the right to request such information (including, without limitation, information with respect to citizenship, other ownership interests and Affiliates) as the Company may deem appropriate, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, to determine whether the Transfer or exchange of the Warrants would (i) be unlawful, (ii) subject the Company to any limitation under the Communications Laws that would not apply to the Company but for such exchange, (iii) limit or impair any business activities of the Company under the Communications Laws, which shall be furnished promptly by any Holder from whom such information is requested as a condition to such Holder's Transfer or exchange of Warrants, or [(iv) involve circumstances that the Board of Directors determines could require the registration or qualification of any class of equity securities of the Company or require the Company to file reports pursuant to any applicable federal or state securities laws including but not limited to the Company having, in the aggregate, either (A) 1,900 or more holders of record (as such concept is understood for purposes of Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act) or (B) in the aggregate, more than 450 holders of record (as such concept is understood for purposes of Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act) who do not satisfy the definition of an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501(a) under Regulation D of the Securities Act (determined, in each case, in Company's reasonable discretion).]

(c) Moreover, the Company reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to any particular Transfer or exchange of Warrants or any defects in the Assignment

Form(s) with regard to any particular Transfer or exchange of Warrants. The Company shall provide prompt written notice to the Holder of any such rejection or waiver.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, it shall be a condition to the Transfer of any Warrant that the transferee of such Warrant (i) shall comply with Section 8.2(a) and (ii) to the extent such transferee exercises any Warrant, shall execute a joinder to the Shareholders' Agreement (or, in the case where such transferee does not execute such joinder, shall be deemed to have become a party to the Shareholders' Agreement, irrespective of whether such transferee physically executes the Shareholders' Agreement or a joinder thereto).

8.3 Miscellaneous Procedures for Transfer or Exchanges of Warrants.

(a) All Warrant Certificates issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates shall be the valid obligations of the Company, evidencing the same obligations, and entitled to the same benefits under this Agreement, as the Warrant Certificates surrendered for such registration of transfer or exchange.

(b) No service fee shall be charged to the transferor or transferee for any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates; provided, however, that the Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any stamp, registration or other similar transfer tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates.

(c) The Warrant Agent shall, upon request of the Company from time to time, deliver to the Company such reports of registered ownership of the Warrants and such records of transactions with respect to the Warrants and the shares of Common Stock as the Company may request. The Warrant Agent shall also make available to the Company for inspection by the Company's agents or employees, from time to time as the Company may request, such original books of accounts and records maintained by the Warrant Agent in connection with the issuance and exercise of Warrants hereunder, such inspections to occur at the Corporate Agency Office during normal business hours.

(d) The Warrant Agent shall keep copies of this Agreement and any notices given to Holders hereunder available for inspection by the Holders during normal business hours at the Corporate Agency Office. The Company shall supply the Warrant Agent from time to time with such numbers of copies of this Agreement as the Warrant Agent may request.

9. Warrant Holders.

9.1 No Voting or Dividend Rights.

(a) No Holder of a Warrant Certificate evidencing any Warrant shall have or exercise any rights, solely by reason of the ownership or possession of a Warrant or the Warrant Certificate representing the same or otherwise by virtue hereof, as a holder of Common Stock of the Company, including the right to vote, to receive dividends and other distributions as a holder of Common Stock or to receive notice of, or attend, meetings or any other proceedings of the holders of Common Stock.

(b) The consent of any Holder of a Warrant Certificate, solely by reason of the ownership or possession of a Warrant or the Warrant Certificate representing the same or otherwise by virtue hereof, shall not be required with respect to any action or proceeding of the Company, including with respect to any Third Party Sale Transaction.

(c) Except as provided in Section 4, no Holder of a Warrant Certificate, solely by reason of the ownership or possession of a Warrant or the Warrant Certificate representing the same or otherwise by virtue hereof, shall have any right to receive any cash dividends, equity security dividends, allotments or rights or other distributions paid, allotted or distributed or distributable to the holders of Common Stock prior to, or for which the relevant record date preceded, the date of the exercise of such Warrant.

(d) No Holder of a Warrant Certificate shall have any right not expressly conferred hereunder or under, or by applicable law with respect to, the Warrant Certificate held by such Holder.

9.2 Rights of Action. All rights of action against the Company in respect of this Agreement, except rights of action vested in the Warrant Agent, are vested in the Holders of the Warrant Certificates, and any Holder of any Warrant Certificate, without the consent of the Warrant Agent or the Holder of any other Warrant Certificate, may, in such Holder's own behalf and for such Holder's own benefit, enforce and may institute and maintain any suit, action or proceeding against the Company suitable to enforce, or otherwise in respect of, such Holder's right to exercise such Holder's Warrants in the manner provided in this Agreement.

9.3 Treatment of Holders of Warrant Certificates. Every Holder, by virtue of accepting a Warrant Certificate, consents and agrees with the Company, with the Warrant Agent and with every subsequent holder of such Warrant Certificate that, prior to due presentment of such Warrant Certificate for registration of transfer, the Company and the Warrant Agent may treat the Person in whose name the Warrant Certificate is registered as the owner thereof for all purposes and as the Person entitled to exercise the rights granted under the Warrants, and neither the Company, the Warrant Agent nor any agent thereof shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

9.4 Tax Forms. Each Holder of a Warrant Certificate shall deliver to the Warrant Agent a properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable.

10. Concerning the Warrant Agent.

10.1 Nature of Duties and Responsibilities Assumed. The Company hereby appoints the Warrant Agent to act as agent of the Company as set forth in this Agreement. The Warrant Agent hereby accepts the appointment as agent of the Company and agrees to perform that agency upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and in the Warrant Certificates or as the Company and the Warrant Agent may hereafter agree, by all of which the Company and the Holders of Warrant Certificates, by their acceptance thereof, shall be bound; provided, however, that the terms and conditions contained in the Warrant Certificates are subject to and governed by this Agreement or any other terms and conditions hereafter agreed to by the Company and the Warrant Agent.

The Warrant Agent shall not, by countersigning Warrant Certificates or by any other act hereunder, be deemed to make any representations as to validity or authorization of (i) the Warrants or the Warrant Certificates (except as to its countersignature thereon), (ii) any securities or other property delivered upon exercise of any Warrant, (iii) the accuracy of the computation of the number or kind or amount of equity securities or other securities or other property deliverable upon exercise of any Warrant or (iv) the correctness of any of the representations of the Company made in such certificates that the Warrant Agent receives. The Warrant Agent shall not at any time have any duty to calculate or determine whether any facts exist that may require any adjustments pursuant to Section 5 hereof with respect to the kind and amount of Common Stock or other securities or any property issuable to Holders upon the exercise of Warrants required from time to time. The Warrant Agent shall have no duty or responsibility to determine the accuracy or correctness of such calculation or with respect to the methods employed in making the same. The Warrant Agent shall not be accountable with respect to the validity or value (or the kind or amount) of any Common Stock or of any securities or property which may at any time be issued or delivered upon the exercise of any Warrant or upon any adjustment pursuant to Section 5 hereof, and it makes no representation with respect thereto. The Warrant Agent shall not be responsible for any failure of the Company to make any cash payment or to issue, transfer or deliver any Common Stock or stock or other securities or property upon the surrender of any Warrant Certificate for the purpose of exercise or upon any adjustment pursuant to Section 5 hereof or to comply with any of the covenants of the Company contained in Section 5 hereof.

The Warrant Agent shall not (i) be liable for any recital or statement of fact contained herein or in the Warrant Certificates or for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith on the belief that any Warrant Certificate or any other documents or any signatures are genuine or properly authorized, (ii) be responsible for any failure on the part of the Company to comply with any of its covenants and obligations contained in this Agreement or in the Warrant Certificates or (iii) be liable for any act or omission in connection with this Agreement except for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct (which gross negligence or willful misconduct must be determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction).

The Warrant Agent is hereby authorized to accept and protected in accepting instructions with respect to the performance of its duties hereunder by Company Order and to apply to any such officer named in such Company Order for instructions (which instructions will be promptly given in writing when requested), and the Warrant Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or suffered to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the instructions in any Company Order.

The Warrant Agent may execute and exercise any of the rights and powers hereby vested in it or perform any duty hereunder either itself or by or through its attorneys, agents or employees; provided, however, that reasonable care has been exercised in the selection and in the continued employment of any such attorney, agent or employee. The Warrant Agent shall not be under any obligation or duty to institute, appear in or defend any action, suit or legal proceeding in respect hereof, unless first indemnified to its satisfaction, but this provision shall not affect the power of the Warrant Agent to take such action as the Warrant Agent may consider proper, whether with or without such indemnity. The Warrant Agent shall promptly notify the Company in writing of any claim made or action, suit or proceeding instituted against it arising out of or in connection with this Agreement.

The Company shall perform, execute, acknowledge and deliver or cause to be performed, executed, acknowledged and delivered all such further acts, instruments and assurances as may reasonably be required by the Warrant Agent in order to enable it to carry out or perform its duties under this Agreement.

The Warrant Agent shall act solely as agent of the Company hereunder and does not assume any obligation or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the Holders or any beneficial owners of Warrants. The Warrant Agent shall not be liable except for the failure to perform such duties as are specifically set forth herein or specifically set forth in the Warrant Certificates, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Agreement against the Warrant Agent whose duties and obligations shall be determined solely by the express provisions hereof or the express provisions of the Warrant Certificates.

10.2 Right to Consult Counsel. The Warrant Agent may at any time consult with legal counsel satisfactory to it (who may be legal counsel for the Company), and the Warrant Agent shall incur no liability or responsibility to the Company or to any Holder for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith in accordance with the opinion or advice of such counsel.

10.3 Compensation, Reimbursement and Indemnification. The Company agrees to pay the Warrant Agent from time to time compensation for all fees and expenses relating to its services hereunder as the Company and the Warrant Agent may agree from time to time and to reimburse the Warrant Agent for reasonable expenses and disbursements, including reasonable counsel fees incurred in connection with the execution and administration of this Agreement. The Company further agrees to indemnify the Warrant Agent for and hold it harmless against any losses, liabilities or reasonable expenses arising out of or in connection with the acceptance and administration of this Agreement, including the reasonable costs, legal fees and expenses of investigating or defending any claim of such liability, except that the Company shall have no liability hereunder to the extent that any such loss, liability or expense results from the Warrant Agent's own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct (which gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct must be determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction).

10.4 Warrant Agent May Hold Company Securities. The Warrant Agent, any Countersigning Agent and any stockholder, equity holder, director, officer or employee of the Warrant Agent or any Countersigning Agent may buy, sell or deal in any of the warrants or other securities of the Company or its Affiliates, become pecuniarily interested in transactions in which the Company or its Affiliates may be interested, contract with or lend money to the Company or its Affiliates or otherwise act as fully and freely as though it were not the Warrant Agent or the Countersigning Agent, respectively, under this Agreement. Nothing herein shall preclude the Warrant Agent or any Countersigning Agent from acting in any other capacity for the Company or for any other legal entity.

10.5 Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) The Warrant Agent may resign its duties and be discharged from all further duties and liability hereunder (except liability arising as a result of the Warrant Agent's own gross negligence or willful misconduct) after giving 30 days' prior written notice to the Company. The Company may remove the Warrant Agent upon 30 days' written notice, and the Warrant Agent shall thereupon in like manner be discharged from all further duties and liabilities hereunder, except as aforesaid. The Warrant Agent shall, at the expense of the Company, cause notice to be given in accordance with Section 11.1(b) to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate of said notice of resignation or notice of removal, as the case may be. Upon such resignation or removal, the Company shall appoint in writing a new Warrant Agent. If the Company shall fail to make such appointment within a period of 30 calendar days after it has been notified in writing of such resignation by the resigning Warrant Agent or after such removal, then the Holder of any Warrant Certificate may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a new Warrant Agent. Any new Warrant Agent, whether appointed by the Company or by such a court, shall be an entity doing business under the laws of the United States or any state thereof in good standing, authorized under such laws to act as Warrant Agent, and having a combined capital and surplus of not less than $25,000,000. The combined capital and surplus of any such new Warrant Agent shall be deemed to be the combined capital and surplus as set forth in the most recent annual report of its condition published by such Warrant Agent prior to its appointment; provided, however, that such reports are published at least annually pursuant to law or to the requirements of a federal or state supervising or examining authority. After acceptance in writing of such appointment by the new Warrant Agent, it shall be vested with the same powers, rights, duties and responsibilities as if it had been originally named herein as the Warrant Agent, without any further assurance, conveyance, act or deed; but if for any reason it shall be reasonably necessary or expedient to execute and deliver any further assurance, conveyance, act or deed, the same shall be done at the reasonable expense of the Company and shall be legally and validly executed and delivered by the resigning or removed Warrant Agent. Not later than the effective date of any such appointment, the Company shall file notice thereof with the resigning or removed Warrant Agent. Failure to give any notice provided for in this Section 10.5(a), however, or any defect therein, shall not affect the legality or validity of the resignation of the Warrant Agent or the appointment of a new Warrant Agent as the case may be.

(b) Any entity into which the Warrant Agent or any new Warrant Agent may be merged, or any entity resulting from any consolidation to which the Warrant Agent or any new Warrant Agent shall be a party, shall be a successor Warrant Agent under this Agreement without any further act; provided, however, that such entity would be eligible for appointment as successor to the Warrant Agent under the provisions of Section 10.5(a). Any such successor Warrant Agent shall promptly cause notice of its succession as Warrant Agent to be given in accordance with Section 11.1(b) to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate at such Holder's last address as shown on the Warrant Register.

10.6 Appointment of Countersigning Agent.

(a) The Warrant Agent may appoint a Countersigning Agent or Agents which shall be authorized to act on behalf of the Warrant Agent to countersign Warrant Certificates issued upon original issue and upon exchange, registration of transfer or pursuant to Section 6, and Warrant Certificates so countersigned shall be entitled to the benefits of this Agreement equally and proportionately with any and all other Warrant Certificates duly executed and delivered hereunder. Wherever reference is made in this Agreement to the countersignature and delivery of Warrant Certificates by the Warrant Agent or to Warrant Certificates countersigned by the Warrant Agent, such reference shall be deemed to include countersignature and delivery on behalf of the Warrant Agent by a Countersigning Agent and Warrant Certificates countersigned by a Countersigning Agent. Each Countersigning Agent shall be acceptable to the Company and shall at the time of appointment be an entity doing business under the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof in good standing, authorized under such laws to act as Countersigning Agent, and having a combined capital and surplus of not less than $25,000,000. The combined capital and surplus of any such new Countersigning Agent shall be deemed to be the combined capital and surplus as set forth in the most recent annual report of its condition published by such Countersigning Agent prior to its appointment; provided, however, that such reports are published at least annually pursuant to law or to the requirements of a federal or state supervising or examining authority.

(b) Any entity into which a Countersigning Agent may be merged or any entity resulting from any consolidation to which such Countersigning Agent shall be a party, shall be a successor Countersigning Agent without any further act; provided, however, that such entity would be eligible for appointment as a new Countersigning Agent under the provisions of Section 10.6(a), without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of the Warrant Agent or the Countersigning Agent. Any such successor Countersigning Agent shall promptly cause notice of its succession as Countersigning Agent to be given in accordance with Section 11.1(b) to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate at such Holder's last address as shown on the Warrant Register.

(c) A Countersigning Agent may resign at any time by giving 30 days' prior written notice thereof to the Warrant Agent and to the Company. The Warrant Agent may at any time terminate the agency of a Countersigning Agent by giving 30 days' prior written notice thereof to such Countersigning Agent and to the Company.

(d) The Warrant Agent agrees to pay to each Countersigning Agent from time to time reasonable compensation for its services under this Section 10.6 and the Warrant Agent shall be entitled to be reimbursed for such payments, subject to the provisions of Section 10.3.

(e) Any Countersigning Agent shall have the same rights and immunities as those of the Warrant Agent set forth in Section 10.1.

11. Notices.

11.1 Notices Generally.

(a) Any request, notice, direction, authorization, consent, waiver, demand or other communication permitted or authorized by this Agreement to be made upon, given or furnished to or filed with the Company or the Warrant Agent by the other party hereto or by any Holder shall be sufficient for every purpose hereunder if in writing (including electronic mail or other form of electronic communication) and emailed or delivered by hand (including by courier service) as follows:

if to the Company, to:

_____

_____

_____

if to the Warrant Agent, to:

_____
_____

or, in either case, such other address as shall have been set forth in a notice delivered in accordance with this Section 11.1(a).

All such communications shall, when so delivered by electronic mail or delivered by hand, be effective when electronically mailed with confirmation of receipt or received by the addressee, respectively.

(b) Where this Agreement provides for notice to Holders of any event, such notice shall be sufficiently given (unless otherwise herein expressly provided) if in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, to each Holder affected by such event, at the address of such Holder as it appears in the Warrant Register, not later than the latest date, and not earlier than the earliest date, prescribed for the giving of such notice. In any case where notice to Holders is given by mail, neither the failure to mail such notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Holder shall affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Holders. Where this Agreement provides for notice in any manner, such notice may be waived in writing by the Person entitled to receive such notice, either before or after the event, and such waiver shall be the equivalent of such notice.

In case by reason of the suspension of regular mail service or by reason of any other cause it shall be impracticable to give such notice by mail, then such notification as shall be made by a method approved by the Warrant Agent as one which would be most reliable under the circumstances for successfully delivering the notice to the addressees shall constitute a sufficient notification for every purpose hereunder.

11.2 Required Notices to Holders. In the event the Company shall:

(a) take any action that would result in an adjustment to the Exercise Price and/or the number of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of a Warrant pursuant to Section 5.1;

(b) consummate any Winding Up;

(c) consummate any Transaction; or

(d) set a record date for determining the holders of Common Stock entitled to participate in any dividend or distribution (each of (a), (b), (c) or (d), an "Action");

then, the Company shall cause to be delivered to the Warrant Agent and shall give to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate, in accordance with Section 11.1(b) hereof, a written notice of such Action, including, (x) in the case of an Action pursuant to Section 11.2(a), the information required under Section 5.1(j)(ii), and (y) in the case of an Action pursuant to Section 11.2(c), the material terms and conditions of such Third Party Sale Transaction and the date on which such Third Party Sale Transaction is expected to become effective. Such notice shall (i) be given promptly after the effective date of such Action and (ii) in the case of an Action pursuant to Section 11.2(c), be given at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the closing of the relevant Third Party Sale Transaction; or (iii) in the case of any Action covered by clause (d) above, be given by the date that is nine (9) calendar days prior to such record date.

If at any time the Company shall cancel any of the Actions for which notice has been given under this Section 11.2 prior to the consummation thereof, the Company shall give each Holder prompt notice of such cancellation in accordance with Section 11.1(b).

[The Company shall cause any notice covered by clause (c) above of any Action constituting a Third Party Sale Transaction in which all or any portion of the Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities or Sale Cash and Securities Transaction Consideration comprises non-cash property (other than securities listed or admitted for trading on any U.S. national securities exchange) to set forth the Fair Market Values of such non-cash property.][13]

In addition, in the event the Company enters into any definitive agreement with respect to any Transaction, the Company shall promptly cause to be delivered to the Warrant Agent and shall promptly give to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate, in accordance with Section 11.1(b), a notice of the entering into such definitive agreement.

12. Inspection.

The Warrant Agent shall cause a copy of this Agreement to be available at all reasonable times at the office of the Warrant Agent for inspection by any Holder of any Warrant Certificate. The Warrant Agent may require any such Holder to submit its Warrant Certificate for inspection by the Warrant Agent.

13. Amendments.

(a) Subject to Section 13(c), this Agreement may be amended, modified, waived or supplemented by the Company and the Warrant Agent with the consent of the Required Warrant Holders; provided, however, that any amendment, modification, waiver, or supplement to this Agreement which has a material, disproportionate, and adverse effect on any Holder of a Warrant Certificate (as compared to other Holders and without giving effect to such Holder's specific tax or economic position or any other matters personal to such holder) shall also require the approval of such Holder in order to be effective and enforceable against such Holder.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, subject to Section 13(c), the Company and the Warrant Agent may, without the consent or concurrence of the Holders of the Warrant Certificates, by supplemental agreement or otherwise, amend, modify, waive, or supplement this Agreement for the purpose of making any changes or corrections in this Agreement that (i) are required to cure any ambiguity or to correct or supplement any defective or inconsistent provision or clerical omission or mistake or manifest error herein contained or (ii) add to the covenants and agreements of the Company in this Agreement further covenants and agreements of the Company thereafter to be observed, or surrender any rights or powers reserved to or conferred upon the Company in this Agreement; provided, however, that any amendment, modification, waiver, or supplement to this Agreement which has a material, disproportionate, and adverse effect on any Holder of a Warrant Certificate (as compared to other Holders and without giving effect to such Holder's specific tax or economic position or any other matters personal to such holder) shall also require the approval of such Holder in order to be effective and enforceable against such Holder.

(c) The consent of each Holder of any Warrant Certificate evidencing any Warrants affected thereby shall be required for any supplement or amendment to this Agreement or the Warrants that would: (i) increase the Exercise Price or decrease the number of Common Stock receivable upon exercise of Warrants, in each case other than as provided in Section 5.1; (ii) change the Expiration Time to an earlier date or time; (iii) modify the provisions contained in Section 5.1, Section 5.3 or Section 11.2 (including the definitions used in and material to such Sections) in a manner adverse to the Holders of Warrant Certificates generally with respect to their Warrants; (iv) amend or modify this Section 13 or Section 14 in a manner adverse to the Holders of the Warrant Certificates; or (v) modify the definition of "Required Warrant Holders".

(d) The Warrant Agent shall join with the Company in the execution and delivery of any such amendment unless such amendment affects the Warrant Agent's own rights, duties or immunities hereunder, in which case the Warrant Agent may, but shall not be required to, join in such execution and delivery; provided, however, that as a condition precedent to the Warrant Agent's execution of any amendment to this Agreement, the Company shall deliver to the Warrant Agent a certificate from an Appropriate Officer that states that the proposed amendment is in compliance with the terms of this Section 13. Upon execution and delivery of any amendment pursuant to this Section 13, such amendment shall be considered a part of this Agreement for all purposes and every Holder of a Warrant Certificate theretofore or thereafter countersigned and delivered hereunder shall be bound thereby.

(e) Promptly after the execution by the Company and the Warrant Agent of any such amendment, the Company shall give notice to the Holders of Warrant Certificates, setting forth in general terms the substance of such amendment, in accordance with the provisions of Section 11.1(b). Any failure of the Company to mail such notice or any defect therein, shall not, however, in any way impair or affect the validity of any such amendment.

14. Waivers.

The Company may take any action herein prohibited, or omit to perform any act herein required to be performed by it, only if the Company has obtained the written consent of the Required Warrant Holders as required pursuant to Section 13 and, if Section 13(c) applies, the consent of the Holders of any Warrant Certificates evidencing any Warrants affected thereby.

15. Successor to Company.

So long as Warrants remain outstanding, the Company will not enter into any Non-Surviving Transaction that constitutes a Non-Sale Transaction in which Warrants would be outstanding after consummation unless the acquirer (a "Successor Company") shall expressly assume by a supplemental agreement, executed and delivered to the Warrant Agent, in form reasonably satisfactory to the Warrant Agent, the due and punctual performance of every covenant of this Agreement on the part of the Company to be performed and observed and shall have provided for exercise rights in accordance with Section 5.1(f). Upon the consummation of such Non-Sale Transaction, the Successor Company shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Company under this Agreement with the same effect as if such Successor Company had been named as the Company herein.

16. Headings.

The section headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and will not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

17. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original, but all of which together constitute one and the same instrument. A signature to this Agreement transmitted electronically shall have the same authority, effect and enforceability as an original signature.

18. Severability.

The provisions of this Agreement will be deemed severable and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision hereof will not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions hereof; provided, however, that if any provision of this Agreement, as applied to any party or to any circumstance, is adjudged by a court or governmental body not to be enforceable in accordance with its terms, the parties agree that the court or governmental body making such determination will have the power to modify the provision in a manner consistent with its objectives such that it is enforceable, and/or to delete specific words or phrases, and in its reduced form, such provision will then be enforceable and will be enforced.

19. No Redemption.

The Warrants shall not be subject to redemption by the Company or any other Person; provided, however, that (i) the Warrants may be acquired by means other than a redemption, whether by tender offer, open market purchases, negotiated transactions or otherwise, in accordance with applicable securities laws, so long as such acquisition does not otherwise violate the terms of this Agreement and (ii) the Warrants are subject to termination upon a Third Party Sale Transaction as specified in Section 5.1(f).

20. Persons Benefiting.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company, the Warrant Agent and the Holders from time to time. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any person other than the Company, the Warrant Agent and the Holders any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement or any part hereof, and all covenants, conditions, stipulations, promises and agreements contained in this Agreement shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the parties hereto and of the Holders; provided, however, that the Non-Recourse Parties are express third-party beneficiaries of Section 24. Each Holder, by acceptance of a Warrant Certificate, agrees to all of the terms and provisions of this Agreement applicable thereto.

21. Applicable Law; Venue.

THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ANY CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICT OF LAW RULES OR PROVISIONS (WHETHER OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OR ANY OTHER JURISDICTION) TO THE EXTENT SUCH RULES OR PROVISIONS WOULD CAUSE THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANY JURISDICTION OTHER THAN THE STATE OF NEW YORK. EACH OF THE PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT CONSENTS AND AGREES THAT ANY ACTION TO ENFORCE THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY DISPUTE, WHETHER SUCH DISPUTE ARISES IN LAW OR EQUITY, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE BROUGHT EXCLUSIVELY IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK OR ANY NEW YORK STATE COURT SITTING IN NEW YORK CITY. THE PARTIES HERETO CONSENT AND AGREE TO SUBMIT TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF SUCH COURTS. EACH OF THE PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT WAIVES AND AGREES NOT TO ASSERT IN ANY SUCH DISPUTE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY CLAIM THAT (I) SUCH PARTY AND SUCH PARTY'S PROPERTY IS IMMUNE FROM ANY LEGAL PROCESS ISSUED BY SUCH COURTS OR (II) ANY LITIGATION OR OTHER PROCEEDING COMMENCED IN SUCH COURTS IS BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM. THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE THAT MAILING OF PROCESS OR OTHER PAPERS IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING TO AN ADDRESS PROVIDED IN WRITING BY THE RECIPIENT OF SUCH MAILING, OR IN SUCH OTHER MANNER AS MAY BE PERMITTED BY LAW, SHALL BE VALID AND SUFFICIENT SERVICE THEREOF AND HEREBY WAIVE ANY OBJECTIONS TO SERVICE IN THE MANNER HEREIN PROVIDED.

22. Waiver of Jury Trial.

EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT ANY DISPUTE THAT MAY ARISE OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE SUCH PARTY HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO JURY TRIAL OF ANY DISPUTE BASED UPON OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER AGREEMENTS RELATING HERETO OR ANY DEALINGS AMONG THEM RELATING TO THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. THE SCOPE OF THIS WAIVER IS INTENDED TO ENCOMPASS ANY AND ALL ACTIONS, SUITS AND PROCEEDINGS THAT RELATE TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY, INCLUDING CONTRACT CLAIMS, TORT CLAIMS, BREACH OF DUTY CLAIMS, AND ALL OTHER COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY CLAIMS. EACH PARTY REPRESENTS THAT (I) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT IN THE EVENT OF ANY ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (II) SUCH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND WITH THE ADVICE OF COUNSEL HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (III) SUCH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (IV) SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND REPRESENTATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.4.

23. Entire Agreement.

This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement of the parties hereto as to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all previous agreements among all or some of the parties hereto with respect thereto, whether written, oral or otherwise.

24. Confidentiality.

Except for required disclosures to any regulatory authority or self-regulatory authority with authority to regulate or oversee any aspect of the business of a Holder or its Affiliates, including bank and securities examiners or any other governmental body (provided, disclosures to such regulatory authority or self-regulatory authority shall be made with instructions to maintain confidentiality of the Confidential Information (as defined below)) or as and to the extent as may be required by applicable law, without the prior written consent of the Company, each Holder shall not make, and shall direct its officers, directors, managers, agents, employees and other representatives not to make, directly or indirectly, any public comment, statement, or communication with respect to, or otherwise disclose or permit the disclosure of Confidential Information or any of the terms, conditions, or other aspects of this Agreement; provided, however, that each Holder and each of its respective equity owners may disclose Confidential Information (i) to its and their respective attorneys, accountants, consultants, and other advisors or professionals to the extent necessary to obtain their services in connection with monitoring its investment in the Company and who are subject to confidentiality obligations to such Holder at least as protective as the terms set forth in this Section 23, provided, such Holder shall be responsible for any breach of such confidentiality provisions by any attorneys, accountants, consultants, or other advisors or professionals of such Holder or such Holder's equity owners or Affiliates that actually receive Confidential Information; (ii) to the extent required under any agreement between such Holder or its respective equity owners and the respective investors, limited partners or other similar Persons of such Holder and its respective equity owners, as applicable, who are subject to obligations of confidentiality and in confidential materials delivered to prospective investors, limited partners or other similar Persons of such Holder and its respective equity owners, as applicable, who are subject to obligations of confidentiality; provided, however, that such Holder will use commercially reasonable best efforts to, and shall direct its respective equity owners, to, enforce their respective rights in connection with a known breach of such confidentiality obligations by any Person receiving Confidential Information pursuant to this clause (ii), and (iii) to a bona fide potential purchaser of Common Stock or Warrants held by such Holder if such bona fide potential purchaser executes a confidentiality agreement with such Holder containing terms at least as protective as the terms set forth in this Section 23 and which, among other things, provides for third-party beneficiary rights in favor of the Company to enforce the terms thereof. Each Holder shall use, and shall direct its officers, directors, managers, agents, employees and other representatives to whom Confidential Information is disclosed to use, the Confidential Information only in connection with its investment in the Common Stock of the Company and not for any other purpose (including to disadvantage the Company, any equity holder, or any other Holder). As used herein, "Confidential Information" means all information, knowledge, systems or data relating to the business, operations, finances, policies, strategies, intentions or inventions of the Company and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates (including any of the terms of this Agreement) from whatever source obtained, except for any such information, knowledge, systems or data which at the time of disclosure was (x) in the public domain or otherwise in the possession of the disclosing Person unless such information, knowledge, systems or data was placed into the public domain or became known to such disclosing Person in violation of any non-disclosure obligation, including this Section 23, (y) becomes available to the disclosing Person from a third party on a non-confidential basis, provided that such third party is not known by the disclosing Person to have a contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality with respect thereto, or (z) developed by or on behalf of the disclosing Person without use of or reference to the Confidential Information or breach of this Section 23.

The Warrant Agent and the Company agree that the Warrant Register and the number of Warrants held by each Holder (but not the aggregate number of Warrants outstanding) shall constitute "Confidential Information" and shall not be disclosed by the Warrant Agent or the Company except in compliance with this Section 23, which shall apply to the Warrant Agent and the Company mutatis mutandis with respect to such information.

Each Holder, the Warrant Agent and the Company agree that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Section 23, and that in addition to all other remedies, the non-breaching party shall be entitled to seek injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy for any such breach. Each Holder, the Warrant Agent and the Company agree not to oppose the granting of such relief and agrees to waive any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with such remedy.

If any Holder is required by applicable law to disclose any Confidential Information (other than to a regulatory or self-regulatory authority), it must, to the extent practicable and permitted by applicable law, first provide notice reasonably in advance to the Company with respect to the content of the proposed disclosure, the reasons that such disclosure is required by law and the time and place that the disclosure will be made. Such Holder shall cooperate, at the Company's sole cost and expense, with the Company to obtain confidentiality agreements or arrangements with respect to any legally mandated disclosure and in any event shall disclose only such information as is required by applicable law when required to do so.

25. Non-Recourse.

Notwithstanding anything express or implied in this Agreement, each Holder and the Warrant Agent covenants, agrees and acknowledges that no recourse under this Agreement or any documents or instruments delivered in connection with this Agreement shall be had against any of the former, current or future direct or indirect equityholders, unitholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, Affiliates, members, financing sources, managers, general or limited partners or assignees, in each case, of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (collectively, but not including the Company itself or any of its subsidiaries, the "Non-Recourse Parties"), whether by the enforcement of any assessment or by any legal or equitable proceeding, or by virtue of any applicable law, it being expressly agreed and acknowledged that no personal liability whatsoever shall attach to, be imposed on or otherwise be incurred by any of the Non-Recourse Parties, as such, for any obligation or liability of the Company under this Agreement or any documents or instruments delivered in connection herewith for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or liabilities or their creation; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 24 shall relieve or otherwise limit the liability of the Company for any breach or violation of its obligations under this Agreement or such agreements, documents or instruments.

26. Waiver of Certain Damages.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, each of the Company, each Holder and the Warrant Agent agrees not to assert, and hereby waives, any claim against any other party, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any Warrant or any of the transactions contemplated hereby.

27. Interpretation.

Unless otherwise indicated to the contrary herein by the context or use thereof: (i) the words, "herein," "hereto," "hereof" and words of similar import refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular Section or paragraph hereof; (ii) the word "including" means "including, but not limited to"; (iii) masculine gender shall also include the feminine and neutral genders, and vice versa; and (iv) words importing the singular shall also include the plural, and vice versa. Unless the context of this Agreement otherwise requires, references to statutes shall include all regulations promulgated thereunder and references to statutes or regulations shall be construed as including all statutory and regulatory provisions consolidating, amending or replacing the statute or regulation. All references to currency, monetary values, "$" and dollars set forth herein shall mean United States dollars (USD) and all payments hereunder shall be made in United States dollars. All accounting terms used herein and not expressly defined herein shall have the meaning given to them under GAAP. Except when used together with the word "either" or otherwise for the purpose of identifying mutually exclusive alternatives, the term "or" has the inclusive meaning represented by the phrase "and/or". The words "will" and "will not" are expressions of command and not merely expressions of future intent or expectation. When used in this Agreement, the word "either" shall be deemed to mean "one or the other", not "both". References herein to a party are references to the parties to this Agreement, except to the extent expressly provided otherwise.

The Warrants evidenced hereby are one of a duly authorized issue of Warrants of the Company designated as its Warrants to purchase shares of Common Stock ("Warrants"), limited in aggregate number to [●] Warrants issued under and in accordance with the Warrant Agreement, to which the Warrant Agreement and all amendments thereto reference is hereby made for a statement of the respective rights, limitations of rights, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Warrant Agent, the Holders of Warrant Certificates and the owners of the Warrants evidenced thereby and of the terms upon which the Warrant Certificates are, and are to be, countersigned and delivered. A copy of the Warrant Agreement shall be available at all reasonable times at the Corporate Agency Office for inspection by the Holder hereof.

The Warrant Agreement provides that, in addition to certain adjustments to the number of shares of Common Stock into which a Warrant is exercisable and the Exercise Price required to be made in certain circumstances, (x) in the case of any Transaction that is a Non-Sale Transaction, the Company shall (or, in the case of any such Transaction that is a Non-Surviving Transaction, the Company shall cause the other Person involved in such Transaction to) execute and deliver to the Warrant Agent a written instrument providing that (i) the Warrants evidenced hereby, if then outstanding, will be exercisable thereafter, during the period the Warrants evidenced hereby shall be exercisable as specified herein, only into the Substituted Property that would have been receivable upon such Transaction by a Qualifying Person holding the number of shares of Common Stock that would have been issued upon exercise of such Warrant if such Warrant had been exercised in full immediately prior to such Transaction (upon certain assumptions specified in the Warrant Agreement) and (ii) the rights and obligations of the Company (or, in the case of any such Transaction that is a Non-Surviving Transaction, the other Person involved in such Transaction) and the holders in respect of Substituted Property shall be substantially unchanged to be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the rights and obligations of the Company and Holders in respect of shares of Common Stock, and (y) in the case of any Third Party Sale Transaction, the Warrants will expire at the effective time of consummation thereof and, if the specified "Black-Scholes Value" is greater than zero, the Company will make certain specified payments of cash or other consideration all as more fully specified in the Warrant Agreement.

Except as provided in the Warrant Agreement, all outstanding Warrants shall expire, terminate and become void, and all rights of the Holders of Warrant Certificates evidencing such Warrants shall automatically terminate and cease to exist, as of the Expiration Time. The "Expiration Time" shall mean the earlier to occur of (x) 5:00 p.m. New York time on [●] (the seventh anniversary of the Original Issue Date) or, if not a Business Day, then 5:00 p.m. New York time on the next Business Day thereafter; (y) the date and time of consummation of any Third Party Sale Transaction; and (z) the date and time of effectiveness of a Winding Up.

In the event of the exercise of less than all of the Warrants evidenced hereby, a new Warrant Certificate of the same tenor and for the number of Warrants which are not exercised shall be issued by the Company in the name or upon the written order of the Holder of this Warrant Certificate upon the cancellation hereof.

The Warrant Certificates are issuable only in registered form in denominations of whole numbers of Warrants. Upon surrender at the office of the Warrant Agent and payment of the charges specified herein and in the Warrant Agreement, this Warrant Certificate may be exchanged for Warrant Certificates in other authorized denominations or the transfer hereof may be registered in whole or in part in authorized denominations to one or more designated transferees; provided, however, that such other Warrant Certificates issued upon exchange or registration of transfer shall evidence the same aggregate number of Warrants as this Warrant Certificate. The Company shall cause to be kept at the office of the Warrant Agent the Warrant Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as the Warrant Agent may prescribe and such regulations as may be prescribed by law, the Company shall provide for the registration of Warrant Certificates and of transfers or exchanges of Warrant Certificates. No service charge shall be made for any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates; provided, however, that the Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates.

Prior to due presentment of this Warrant Certificate for registration of transfer, the Company, the Warrant Agent and any agent of the Company or the Warrant Agent may treat the Person in whose name this Warrant Certificate is registered as the owner hereof for all purposes, and neither the Company, the Warrant Agent nor any such agent shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

The Warrant Agreement permits, with certain exceptions as therein provided, the amendment thereof and the modification of the rights and obligations of the Company and the rights of the Holders of Warrant Certificates under the Warrant Agreement at any time by the Company and the Warrant Agent with the consent of the Required Warrant Holders.

Until the exercise of any Warrant, subject to the provisions of the Warrant Agreement and except as may be specifically provided for in the Warrant Agreement, (i) no Holder of a Warrant Certificate evidencing any Warrant shall have or exercise any rights by virtue hereof as a holder of shares of Common Stock of the Company, including the right to vote, to receive dividends and other distributions or to receive notice of, or attend meetings of, holders of shares of Common Stock or other equity securities of the Company or any other proceedings of the Company; (ii) the consent of any such Holder shall not be required with respect to any action or proceeding of the Company; (iii) except as provided with respect to a Winding Up of the Company, no such Holder, by reason of the ownership or possession of a Warrant or the Warrant Certificate representing the same, shall have any right to receive any cash dividends, stock or other equity securities dividends, allotments or rights or other distributions (except as specifically provided in the Warrant Agreement), paid, allotted or distributed or distributable to the holders of shares of Common Stock or other equity securities of the Company prior to or for which the relevant record date preceded the date of the exercise of such Warrant; and (iv) no such Holder shall have any right not expressly conferred by the Warrant or Warrant Certificate held by such Holder.

This Warrant Certificate, each Warrant evidenced thereby and the Warrant Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to any choice of law or conflict of law rules or provisions (whether of the State of New York or any other jurisdiction) to the extent such rules or provisions would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of New York. Any action to enforce the this Warrant Certificate, each Warrant evidenced thereby and the Warrant Agreement or any dispute, whether such dispute arises in law or equity, arising out of or relating to this Warrant Certificate, each Warrant evidenced thereby and the Warrant Agreement shall be brought exclusively in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York or any New York State Court sitting in New York City.

The Warrant Agreement provides that each Holder or transferee of any Holder shall provide the Warrant Agent with properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable.

All terms used in this Warrant Certificate which are defined in the Warrant Agreement shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Warrant Agreement. In the event of any conflict between this Warrant Certificate and the Warrant Agreement, the Warrant Agreement shall control.

2. Warrant Certificates.

2.1 Original Issuance of Warrants.

(a) On the Original Issue Date and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Warrant Agent shall issue and register the Warrants in the names of the respective Holders thereof in book-entry positions on the books of the Warrant Agent, in such denominations and otherwise in accordance with the instructions delivered to the Warrant Agent by the Company. The Warrants so issued and registered shall be reflected on statements issued by the Warrant Agent to the Holders.

(b) Except as set forth in Section 3.2(d), Section 6 and Section 8, the Warrant Certificates issued and registered by the Warrant Agent on the Original Issue Date shall be the only Warrant Certificates issued or outstanding under this Agreement.

(c) Each Warrant Certificate shall evidence the number of Warrants specified therein, and each Warrant evidenced thereby shall represent the right, subject to the provisions contained herein and therein, to purchase one share of Common Stock, subject to adjustment as provided in Section 5.

2.2 Form of Warrant Certificates.

The Warrant Certificates evidencing the Warrants (a) shall be in registered form only and substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit A hereto, (b) shall be dated the date on which countersigned by the Warrant Agent, (c) shall have such insertions as are appropriate or required or permitted by this Agreement and (d) may have such letters, numbers or other marks of identification and such legends and endorsements typed, stamped, printed, lithographed or engraved thereon as the directors or officers of the Company executing the same may approve (execution thereof to be conclusive evidence of such approval) and as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, or as may be required to comply with any law or with any rule or regulation pursuant thereto or with any rule or regulation of any securities exchange on which the Warrants may be listed, in each case, as reasonably determined by an Appropriate Officer.

2.3 Execution and Delivery of Warrant Certificates.

(a) Warrant Certificates evidencing the Warrants which may be countersigned and delivered under this Agreement are limited to Warrant Certificates evidencing [●] Warrants except for Warrant Certificates countersigned and delivered upon registration of transfer of, or in exchange for, or in lieu of, one or more previously countersigned Warrant Certificates pursuant to Section 3.2(d), Section 6 and Section 8.

The Warrant Certificates shall be manually countersigned by the Warrant Agent and shall not be valid for any purpose unless so countersigned. In case any officer of the Company whose signature shall have been placed upon any of the Warrant Certificates shall cease to be such officer of the Company before countersignature by the Warrant Agent and issue and delivery thereof, such Warrant Certificates may, nevertheless, be countersigned by the Warrant Agent and issued and delivered with the same force and effect as though such person had not ceased to be such officer of the Company, and any Warrant Certificate may be signed on behalf of the Company by such person as, at the actual date of the execution of such Warrant Certificate, shall be a proper officer of the Company, although at the date of the execution of this Agreement any such person was not such officer.

3. Exercise and Expiration of Warrants.

3.1 Right to Acquire Common Stock Upon Exercise. Each Warrant Certificate shall, when countersigned by the Warrant Agent, entitle the Holder thereof, subject to the provisions thereof and of this Agreement, to acquire from the Company, for each Warrant evidenced thereby, one share of Common Stock at the Exercise Price, subject to adjustment as provided in this Agreement; provided, however, that if such Warrant Certificate is issued by electronic or book entry registration on the books of the Warrant Agent only and not represented by physical certificates, (a) the Holder's rights shall not be subject to such countersignature by the Warrant Agent and (b) the Holder shall be deemed to hold and have received the Definitive Warrant Certificate for all purposes under this Agreement as a result of the Warrant Agent's registration of such Holder's applicable Warrants in the Holder's name on the books of the Warrant Agent (including the Warrant Register). The Exercise Price, and the number of shares of Common Stock obtainable upon exercise of each Warrant, shall be adjusted from time to time as required by Section 5.1.

3.2 Exercise and Expiration of Warrants.

(a) Exercise of Warrants. Subject to and upon compliance with the terms and conditions set forth herein, a Holder of a Warrant Certificate may exercise all or any whole number of the Warrants evidenced thereby, on any Business Day from and after the Original Issue Date until the Expiration Time, for the shares of Common Stock obtainable thereunder.

(b) Expiration of Warrants. The Warrants, to the extent not exercised prior thereto, shall automatically expire, terminate and become void as of the Expiration Time. No further action of any Person (including by, or on behalf of, any Holder, the Company, or the Warrant Agent) shall be required to effectuate the expiration of Warrants pursuant to this Section 3.2(b).

(c) Method of Exercise. In order for a Holder to exercise all or any of the Warrants represented by a Warrant Certificate, the Holder thereof must (i) provide written notice to the Company and the Warrant Agent in accordance with the notice information set forth in Section 11, (ii) at the Corporate Agency Office, (x) deliver to the Warrant Agent an exercise form for the election to exercise such Warrants, substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit B hereto (an "Exercise Form"), setting forth the number of Warrants being exercised and, if applicable, whether Cashless Exercise is being elected with respect thereto, and otherwise properly completed and duly executed by the Holder thereof, and (y) surrender to the Warrant Agent the Definitive Warrant Certificate evidencing such Warrants; (iii) pay to the Warrant Agent an amount equal to (x) all taxes required to be paid by the Holder, if any, pursuant to Section 3.4 prior to, or concurrently with, exercise of such Warrants and (y) except in the case of a Cashless Exercise, the aggregate of the Exercise Price in respect of each share of Common Stock into which such Warrants are exercisable, in case of (x) and (y), by cashier's check payable to the order of the Warrant Agent, or by wire transfer in immediately available funds to such account of the Warrant Agent at such banking institution as the Warrant Agent shall have designated from time to time for such purpose in accordance with Section 11.1(b) and (iv) comply with Section 3.8 and Section 9.4.

(d) Partial Exercise. If fewer than all the Warrants represented by a Warrant Certificate are exercised, such Definitive Warrant Certificate shall be surrendered and a new Definitive Warrant Certificate of the same tenor and for the number of Warrants which were not exercised shall be executed by the Company in accordance with Section 2.3(c). The Warrant Agent shall countersign the new Definitive Warrant Certificate, registered in such name or names, subject to the provisions of Section 8 regarding registration of transfer and payment of governmental charges in respect thereof, as may be directed in writing by the Holder, and shall deliver the new Definitive Warrant Certificate to the Person or Persons in whose name such new Definitive Warrant Certificate is so registered. The Company, whenever required by the Warrant Agent, will supply the Warrant Agent with Definitive Warrant Certificates duly executed on behalf of the Company for such purpose.

(e) Issuance of Common Stock. Upon due exercise of Warrants evidenced by any Warrant Certificate in conformity with the foregoing provisions of Section 3.2(c), the Warrant Agent shall, when the actions specified in Section 3.2(c)(i) have been effected, any payment specified in Section 3.2(c)(ii) is received and the provisions of Section 3.8 have been complied with, deliver to the Company the Exercise Form received pursuant to Section 3.2(c)(i), deliver or deposit all funds received as instructed in writing by the Company and advise the Company by telephone at the end of such day of the amount of funds so deposited to its account. The Company shall thereupon, as promptly as practicable, and in any event within five (5) Business Days after the Exercise Date referred to below, (i) determine the number of shares of Common Stock issuable pursuant to exercise of such Warrants pursuant to Section 3.6 or if Cashless Exercise applies, Section 3.7 and (ii) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Recipient (as defined below) the shares of Common Stock in book-entry form in accordance with Section 3.2(f) in an amount equal to the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise (based upon the aggregate number of Warrants so exercised), as so determined, together with an amount in cash in lieu of any fractional share of Common Stock(s), if the Company so elects pursuant to Section 5.2. The shares of Common Stock in book-entry form so delivered shall be, to the extent possible, in such denomination or denominations as such Holder shall request in the applicable Exercise Form and shall be registered or otherwise placed in the name of, and delivered to, the Holder or, subject to Section 3.4 and Section 3.7, such other Person as shall be designated in writing by the Holder in such Exercise Form (the Holder or such other Person being referred to herein as the "Recipient"). As a condition to the issuance of shares of Common Stock pursuant to this Section 3.2(e), the Recipient shall: (A) execute a joinder to the Shareholders' Agreement, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and (B) provide to the Company or its registered office provider such documentation and other evidence as is reasonably required by the Company or its registered office to carry out and to be satisfied that they have complied with all necessary "know your customer" or similar requirements under all applicable laws and regulations.

(f) Time of Exercise. Each exercise of a Warrant shall be deemed to have been effected immediately prior to the close of business on the day on which each of the requirements for exercise of such Warrant specified in Section 3.2(c) and Section 3.8 has been duly satisfied (the "Exercise Date"). At such time, subject to Section 5.1(d)(iv) and the Recipient complying with its obligations pursuant to Section 3.2(e), the Company shall procure the entry into the Company's register of stockholders of the name of the Recipient as holder of the shares of Common Stock on the Exercise Date, and shall provide to the Recipient an extract of the register so updated as soon as practicable thereafter, in book-entry form for the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise as provided in Section 3.2(e) shall be deemed to have been issued and, for all purposes of this Agreement, the Recipient shall, as between such Person and the Company, be deemed to be and entitled to all rights of the holder of record of such shares of Common Stock.

(g) The Warrant Agent shall:

(i) examine all Exercise Forms and all other documents delivered to it by or on behalf of the Holders as contemplated hereunder to ascertain whether or not, on their face, such Exercise Forms and any such other documents have been executed and completed in accordance with their terms and the terms hereof;

(ii) where an Exercise Form or other document appears on its face to have been improperly completed or executed or some other irregularity in connection with the exercise of the Warrants exists, inform the appropriate parties (including the Person submitting such instrument) of the need for fulfillment of all requirements, specifying those requirements which appear to be unfulfilled;

(iii) inform the Company of, cooperate with, and reasonably assist such Person and the Company in, resolving any discrepancies between Exercise Forms received and delivery of Warrants to the Warrant Agent's account;

(iv) advise the Company promptly after receipt of an Exercise Form of (x) the receipt of such Exercise Form and the number of Warrants exercised in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, (y) the instructions with respect to delivery of the shares of Common Stock deliverable upon such exercise and (z) such other information as the Company shall reasonably require.

(h) All questions as to the validity, form and sufficiency (including time of receipt) of an Exercise Form will be determined by the Company in its reasonable discretion in accordance with the provisions set forth herein. The Company reserves the right to reject any and all Exercise Forms not in proper form or for which any corresponding agreement by the Company to exchange would be unlawful~~[~~; provided that the Company shall provide the Holder with the reasonable opportunity to correct any defects in the Exercise Forms.~~]~~ Moreover, without limiting the rights and immunities of the Warrant Agent, the Company reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to the exercise of Warrants or defects in Exercise Forms with regard to any particular exercise of Warrants. If the Company believes there is any irregularity in the exercise of the Warrants, then the Company shall (or shall cause the Warrant Agent to) promptly give notice to the Holder of the Warrants that submitted the applicable Exercise Form of such irregularities and an opportunity to cure the same~~[~~, provided that ~~neither the Company nor~~ the Warrant Agent shall not incur any liability for the failure to give such notice.~~]~~ The Warrant Agent shall incur no liability for or in respect of any determination, action or omission by the Company in accordance with this Section 3.2(h).

3.3 Application of Funds upon Exercise of Warrants. Any funds delivered to the Warrant Agent upon exercise of any Warrant(s) shall be held by the Warrant Agent in trust for the Company. The Warrant Agent shall promptly deliver and pay to or upon the written order of the Company all funds received by it upon the exercise of any Warrants by bank wire transfer to an account designated by the Company or as the Warrant Agent otherwise may be directed in writing by the Company.

3.4 Payment of Taxes. The Company shall pay any and all taxes (other than income or similar taxes) that may be payable in respect of the issue or delivery of shares of Common Stock on exercise of Warrants pursuant hereto. The Company shall not be required, however, to pay any tax or other charge imposed in respect of any transfer involved in the issue and delivery of shares of Common Stock in book-entry form for shares of Common Stock or payment of cash or other property to any Recipient other than the Holder of the Warrant Certificate evidencing the exercised Warrant, and in case of such transfer or payment, the Warrant Agent and the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any shares of Common Stock in book-entry form or any certificate or pay any cash until (a) such tax or charge has been paid or an amount sufficient for the payment thereof has been delivered to the Warrant Agent or the Company or (b) it has been established to the Company's satisfaction that any such tax or other charge that is or may become due has been paid.

3.5 Cancellation of Warrant Certificates. Any Definitive Warrant Certificate surrendered for exercise shall, if surrendered to the Company, be delivered to the Warrant Agent. All Warrant Certificates surrendered or delivered to or received by the Warrant Agent for cancellation pursuant to this Section 3.5 shall be promptly cancelled by the Warrant Agent and shall not be reissued by the Company. The Warrant Agent shall destroy any such cancelled Warrant Certificates and deliver its certificate of destruction to the Company, unless the Company shall otherwise direct.

3.6 Common Stock Issuable. The number of shares of Common Stock "obtainable upon exercise" or "issuable upon exercise" of Warrants at any time shall be the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Warrants are then exercisable. The number of shares of Common Stock "into which each Warrant is exercisable" shall be one share of Common Stock, subject to adjustment as provided in Section 5.1.

3.7 Cashless Exercise. Notwithstanding any provisions herein to the contrary, if, on the Exercise Date of a Cashless Exercise, the Cashless Exercise Current Market Price of one share of Common Stock is greater than the applicable Exercise Price on the Exercise Date, then, in lieu of paying to the Company the applicable Exercise Price by wire transfer in immediately available funds, the Holder may elect to receive shares of Common Stock equal to the value (as determined below) of the Warrants or any portion thereof being exercised (such portion, the "Cashless Exercise Warrants" with respect to such date) by (i) in the case of Warrants evidenced by a Global Warrant Certificate, providing notice to the Warrant Agent pursuant to the Applicable Procedures and the Exercise From; or (ii) in the case of Warrants evidenced by a Definitive Warrant Certificate, providing notice pursuant to the Exercise Form, in the case of (i) or (ii), that the Holder desires to effect a "cashless exercise" (a "Cashless Exercise") with respect to the Cashless Exercise Warrants, in which event the Company shall issue to the Holder a number of shares of Common Stock with respect to Cashless Exercise Warrants computed using the following formula (it being understood that any portion of the Warrants being exercised on such date that are not Cashless Exercise Warrants will not be affected by this calculation):

$$X = (Y\ (A\text{-}B)) \div A$$

Where X = the number of shares of Common Stock to be issued to the Holder in respect of the Cashless Exercise Warrants

Y = the number of shares of Common Stock purchasable under the Cashless Exercise Warrants being exercised by the Holder (on the Exercise Date)

A = the applicable Cashless Exercise Current Market Price of one share of Common Stock (on the Exercise Date)

B = the applicable Exercise Price (as adjusted through and including the Exercise Date).

3.8 Regulatory Approvals.

(a) The Company reserves the right to reject any and all Exercise Forms that it reasonably determines in good faith are not in proper form or for which any corresponding agreement by the Company to exchange would, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, be unlawful. Any such determination by the Company shall be final and binding on the Holder of the Warrants, absent manifest error; provided that the Company shall provide a Holder with the reasonable opportunity to correct any defects in its Exercise Forms (without prejudicing such Holder's ability to deliver subsequent Exercise Forms). The Company further reserves the right to request such information (including, without limitation, information with respect to citizenship, other ownership interests and Affiliates) as the Company (A) may deem appropriate, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, to determine whether the exercise of the Warrants would (i) be unlawful, (ii) subject the Company to any limitation under the Communications Laws that would not apply to the Company but for such exchange, or (iii) limit or impair any business activities of the Company under the Communications Laws, and/or (B) may be reasonably required in order to complete and prosecute any FCC application or petition for declaratory ruling necessary to obtain any Regulatory Approvals, or to respond to any inquiries from the FCC or other Governmental Authorities, which shall be furnished promptly by any Holder from whom such information is requested as a condition to such Holder's exercise of Warrants. Each Holder agrees that the Company may disclose to the FCC or other Governmental Authorities the identity of and further ownership information about any Person, as required by the FCC or other Governmental Authorities or, to the extent not so required, as the Company's independent outside legal counsel reasonably deems advisable, about any Person who would hold any interest in the Company of 5% or more of the Company's voting or equity interests in the Company calculated pursuant to the Communications Laws upon the exercise of Warrants. Moreover, the Company reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to any particular exercise of Warrants or any defects in the Exercise Form(s) with regard to any particular exercise of Warrants. The Company shall provide prompt written notice to the Holder of any such rejection or waiver.

(b) Without limiting the foregoing and notwithstanding any provisions contained herein to the contrary, (i) no Holder shall be entitled to exercise any Warrant until all Regulatory Approvals required to be made to or obtained from any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over the Company or its Subsidiaries have been made or obtained, and in the event that all required Regulatory Approvals are not received, the Holder shall continue to hold its Warrants; and (ii) the Company may (x) prior to the FCC's grant of a declaratory ruling approving aggregate foreign ownership of the Company in excess of 25%, prohibit the exercise of Warrants which may, in the Company's determination, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, cause 22.5% or more of the Company's outstanding equity interests or the equity of any Subsidiary of the Company to be directly or indirectly owned or voted by or for the account of non-U.S. persons as determined pursuant to the Communications Laws, or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, Non- UNon-U.S. Persons, if such ownership or vote by non-U.S. persons (or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, non-U.S. persons)[at the level of more than 22.5%] would cause the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to be in violation of the Communications Laws, (y) require Specific Approval prior to any exercise of a Warrant by a non-U.S. person (or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, non-U.S. persons) to the extent necessary under the Communications Laws or the terms of any declaratory ruling obtained by the Company or (z) prohibit the exercise of any Warrants if such exercise would, in the Company's reasonable determination [(A)] result in a violation of applicable laws or regulations or [, (B) involve circumstances that the Board of Directors determines could require the registration or qualification of any class of Common Stock or require the Company to file reports pursuant to any applicable federal or state securities laws or (C) subject the Company to regulation under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Investment Advisors Act of 1940, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or other applicable law or regulation, each as amended.]

if not already a party to the Shareholders' Agreement, execute a joinder thereto (or, in the case where such Holder does not execute such joinder, be deemed to have become a party to the Shareholders' Agreement, irrespective of whether such Holder physically executes the Shareholders' Agreement or a joinder thereto).~~[12]~~

(d) Upon receipt of all necessary Regulatory Approvals, if any, in respect of the exercise of any Warrant, and provided that (i) a Holder has complied with the requirements of Sections 3.2(a) and 3.2(c), (ii) the Company has determined that (x) the Holder's exercise of its Warrants does not violate any of the Communications Laws or the Securities Act or any decision, rule, regulation, policy, order or declaratory ruling issued by the FCC or the SEC, as applicable and (y) all conditions imposed by the FCC or any other Governmental Authority in any Regulatory Approval have been satisfied, such Holder's Warrants shall be automatically deemed exercised.

3.9 Withholding. Subject to Section 3.4, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Warrant to the contrary, the Company shall be entitled to deduct and withhold (or cause to be deducted and withheld) from any amounts or property payable or deliverable to any Person pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement or the Warrant such amounts as are required to be deducted or withheld under applicable law ~~with respect to t[he Warrant~~ (and the Company shall be entitled to withhold, for the avoidance of doubt, from any amounts or property that are payable or deliverable ~~with respect to~~to such Person pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement or the Warrant, that are subsequent to the~~]~~ payment or delivery ~~[~~or other circumstance that gave rise to the requirement to deduct or withhold under applicable law);~~]~~ provided that, the Company shall ~~[~~use its commercially reasonable efforts to~~]~~ notify such Person of such withholding obligation prior to the date on which such deduction and withholding ~~will~~is required to be made and the parties shall take commercially reasonable steps to reduce or eliminate any such withholding. Any amounts that are so withheld by the Company shall be paid to the appropriate Governmental Authority ~~[~~and shall be treated as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such withholding was made.~~]~~

4. Dissolution, Liquidation or Winding Up.

Unless Section 5.1(f) applies, if, on or prior to the Expiration Time, the Company (or any other Person controlling the Company) shall propose a voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up (collectively, a "Winding Up"; provided that a Winding Up shall not be effected pursuant to a Transaction) of the affairs of the Company, the Company shall give written notice thereof to the Warrant Agent and all Holders in the manner provided in Section 11.2 prior to the date on which such transaction is expected to become effective or, if earlier, the record date for such transaction. Such notice shall also specify the date as of which the holders of record of the shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to exchange their shares for securities, money or other property deliverable upon such dissolution, liquidation or winding up, as the case may be, on which date each Holder of Warrant Certificates shall receive the securities, money or other property which such Holder would have been entitled to receive had such Holder been the holder of record of the shares of Common Stock into which the Warrants were exercisable immediately prior to such dissolution, liquidation or winding up (net of the then applicable Exercise Price) and the rights to exercise the Warrants shall terminate.

Unless Section 5.1(f) applies, in case of any Winding Up of the Company, the Company shall deposit with the Warrant Agent any funds or other property which the Holders are entitled to receive pursuant to the above paragraph, together with a Company Order as to the distribution thereof. After receipt of such deposit from the Company and after receipt of surrendered Warrant Certificates evidencing Warrants, the Warrant Agent shall make payment in appropriate amount to such Person or Persons as it may be directed in writing by the Holder surrendering such Warrant Certificate. The Warrant Agent shall not be required to pay interest on any money deposited pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4 except such as it shall agree with the Company to pay thereon. Any moneys, securities or other property which at any time shall be deposited by the Company or on its behalf with the Warrant Agent pursuant to this Section 4 shall be, and are hereby, assigned, transferred and set over to the Warrant Agent in trust for the purpose for which such moneys, securities or other property shall have been deposited; provided that moneys, securities or other property need not be segregated from other funds, securities or other property held by the Warrant Agent except to the extent required by law.

5. Adjustments.

5.1 Adjustments. In order to prevent dilution of the rights granted under the Warrants and to grant the Holders certain additional rights, the Exercise Price shall be subject to adjustment from time to time only as specifically provided in this Section 5.1 and the number of shares of Common Stock obtainable upon exercise of Warrants shall be subject to adjustment from time to time only as specifically provided in this Section 5.1, in each case, without duplication.

(a) Subdivisions and Combinations. In the event the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, effect a subdivision (by any equity security split, subdivision or otherwise) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock into a greater number of shares of Common Stock (other than (x) a subdivision upon a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) applies or (y) an equity security split effected by means of a stock or equity security dividend or distribution to which Section 5.1(b) applies), then and in each such event the Exercise Price in effect at the opening of business on the day after the date upon which such subdivision becomes effective shall be proportionately decreased by multiplying such Exercise Price by a fraction (i) the numerator of which shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such subdivision and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the sum of (A) the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such subdivision plus (B) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable as a result of such subdivision. Conversely, if the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, effect a combination (by any reverse equity security split, combination or otherwise) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock into a smaller number of shares of Common Stock (other than a combination upon a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) applies), then and in each such event the Exercise Price in effect at the opening of business on the day after the date upon which such combination becomes effective shall be proportionately increased by multiplying such Exercise Price by a fraction (i) the numerator of which shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such combination and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the sum of (A) the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such combination minus (B) the number of shares of Common Stock reduced as a result of such combination. Any adjustment under this Section 5.1(a) shall become effective immediately after the opening of business on the day after the date upon which the subdivision or combination becomes effective.

(b) Common Stock Dividends. In the event the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired, in whole or in part, pay, make or issue to the holders of its Common Stock, or shall fix a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock to receive, a dividend or distribution payable in, or otherwise pay, make or issue, or fix a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock to receive, a dividend or other distribution on any class of its equity securities payable in, Common Stock (other than a dividend or distribution upon a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) applies), then and in each such event the Exercise Price in effect at the opening of business on the day after the date for the determination of the holders of Common Stock entitled to receive such dividend or distribution shall be decreased by multiplying such Exercise Price by a fraction (not to be greater than 1):

(i) the numerator of which shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding at the close of business on such date for determination; and

(ii) the denominator of which shall be the sum of (A) the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding at the close of business on such date for determination plus (B) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable in payment of such dividend or distribution.

Any adjustment under this Section 5.1(b) shall, subject to Section 5.1(d)(iv), become effective immediately after the opening of business on the day after the date for the determination of the holders of Common Stock entitled to receive such dividend or distribution.

(c) Reclassifications. In the event that the Company reclassifies the Common Stock (other than any such reclassification in connection with a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) applies) into Common Stock and any other equity interests of the Company:

(i) then and in each such event, the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to the close of business on the effective date of such reclassification shall be decreased by multiplying such Exercise Price by a fraction (not to be greater than 1): (x) the numerator of which shall be the Fair Market Value per share of Common Stock on such date for determination minus the Fair Market Value (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors, whose determination shall be evidenced by a resolution of the Board of Directors filed with the Warrant Agent) of the portion applicable to one share of Common Stock of such other equity interests of the Company into which Common Stock are so reclassified and (y) the denominator of which shall be Fair Market Value per share of Common Stock;

(ii) if the outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be changed into a larger or smaller number of shares of Common Stock as a part of such reclassification, such change shall be deemed a subdivision or combination, as the case may be, of the outstanding shares of Common Stock for the purposes and within the meaning of Section 5.1(a) (and the effective date of such reclassification shall be deemed to be "the date upon which such subdivision becomes effective" or "the date upon which such combination becomes effective," as applicable, for the purposes and within the meaning of Section 5.1(a)); and

(iii) any dividend or distribution of equity interests made or paid on Common Stock shall not be deemed a reclassification within the meaning of this Section 5.1(c).

(d) Other Provisions Applicable to Adjustments. The following provisions shall be applicable to the making of adjustments to the Exercise Price and the number of shares of Common Stock into which each Warrant is exercisable under Section 5.1:

(i) Common Stock Held by the Company. The dividend or distribution of any issued shares of Common Stock owned or held by or for the account of the Company shall be deemed a dividend or distribution of Common Stock for purposes of Section 5.1(b). The Company shall not make or issue any dividend or distribution on Common Stock held in the treasury of the Company. For the purposes of Section 5.1(b), the number of shares of Common Stock at any time outstanding shall not include Common Stock held in the treasury of the Company.

(ii) When Adjustments Are to be Made. The adjustments required by Section 5.1(a), Section 5.1(b), Section 5.1(c) and Section 5.1(g) shall be made whenever and as often as any specified event requiring an adjustment shall occur, except that no adjustment of the Exercise Price that would otherwise be required shall be made unless and until such adjustment either by itself or with other adjustments not previously made increases or decreases the Exercise Price immediately prior to the making of such adjustment by at least 1%. Any adjustment representing a change of less than such minimum amount (except as aforesaid) shall be carried forward and made as soon as such adjustment, together with other adjustments required by Section 5.1(a), Section 5.1(b), Section 5.1(c) and Section 5.1(g) and not previously made, would result in such minimum adjustment.

(iii) Fractional Interests. In computing adjustments under this Section 5.1, fractional interests in Common Stock shall be taken into account to the nearest one-thousandth of a share of Common Stock.

(iv) Deferral of Issuance Upon Exercise. In any case in which Section 5.1(b) or Section 5.1(g) shall require that a decrease in the Exercise Price be made effective prior to the occurrence of a specified event and any Warrant is exercised after the time at which the adjustment became effective but prior to the occurrence of such specified event and, in connection therewith, Section 5.1(e) shall require a corresponding increase in the number of shares of Common Stock into which each Warrant is exercisable, the Company may elect to defer (but not in any event later than the Expiration Time or the closing date of the applicable Third Party Sale Transaction) until the occurrence of such specified event (A) the issuance to the Holder of the Warrant Certificate evidencing such Warrant (or other Person entitled thereto) of, and the registration of such Holder (or other Person) as the record holder of, the shares of Common Stock over and above the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise on the basis of the number of shares of Common Stock obtainable upon exercise of such Warrant immediately prior to such adjustment and to require payment in respect of such number of shares of Common Stock the issuance of which is not deferred on the basis of the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such adjustment and (B) the corresponding reduction in the Exercise Price; provided, however, that the Company shall deliver to such Holder or other person a due bill or other appropriate instrument that evidences the right of such Holder or other Person to receive, and to become the record holder of, such additional shares of Common Stock, upon the occurrence of such specified event requiring such adjustment (without payment of any additional Exercise Price in respect of such additional shares of Common Stock) and, if the shares of Common Stock are then traded on a national securities exchange or other market, meets any applicable requirements of the principal national securities exchange or other market on which the shares of Common Stock are then traded.

(e) Adjustment to Common Stock Obtainable Upon Exercise. Whenever the Exercise Price is adjusted as provided in this Section 5.1 (other than as an adjustment required pursuant to Section 5.1(g)), the number of shares of Common Stock into which a Warrant is exercisable shall simultaneously be adjusted by multiplying such number of shares of Common Stock into which a Warrant is exercisable immediately prior to such adjustment by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the Exercise Price immediately prior to such adjustment, and the denominator of which shall be the Exercise Price immediately thereafter.

(f) ~~I~~Changes in Common Stock. In case at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, the Company (including any Successor Company) shall be a party to or shall otherwise engage in any transaction or series of related transactions constituting: (1) a consolidation of the Company with, a sale of all of the equity (including a tender or exchange offer) of the Company to, a merger of the Company into, a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries (taken as a whole) to, any other Person, or any similar transaction, in each case, in which the previously outstanding shares of Common Stock shall receive or be entitled to receive (either directly or upon subsequent liquidation or winding up), cancelled, reclassified or converted or changed into or exchanged for securities or other property (including cash) or any combination of the foregoing (a "Non-Surviving Transaction"), or (2) any merger of another Person into the Company in which the previously outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be cancelled, reclassified or converted or changed into or exchanged for securities of the Company or other property (including cash) or any combination of the foregoing (a "Surviving Transaction" and any Non-Surviving Transaction or Surviving Transaction being herein called a "Transaction"); then:

(i) [if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Cash Only Transaction and such Sale Cash Only Transaction is consummated on or prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Cash Only Transaction, (A) any Warrants not exercised prior to the closing of such Sale Cash Only Transaction shall automatically expire, terminate and become void without any payment or consideration other than as contemplated by the following clause (B) and (B) to the extent the Black-Scholes Value of one Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Cash Only Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Holder of each Warrant Certificate evidencing any unexercised Warrants, cash in an amount, for each Warrant so evidenced, equal to the greater of (x) such Black-Scholes Value and (y) the consideration to be received by such Holder if such Warrant were exercised for Common Stock;][8]

(ii) if such Transaction is a ~~[Redomestication Transaction or a]~~Non-Sale Transaction:

(A) as a condition to the consummation of such Transaction, the Company shall (or, in the case of any Non-Surviving Transaction, the Company shall cause such other Person to) execute and deliver to the Warrant Agent a written instrument providing that any Warrant that remains outstanding in whole or in part, upon the exercise thereof at any time on or after the consummation of such Transaction, shall be exercisable (on such terms and subject to such conditions as shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the provisions set forth in this Agreement) into, in lieu of the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise prior to such consummation, only the securities or other property ("Substituted Property") that would have been receivable upon such Transaction by a Qualifying Electing Person holding the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Warrant was exercisable immediately prior to such Transaction and for an aggregate Exercise Price for such Warrant equal to the product of (I) the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Warrant was exercisable immediately prior to such Transaction and (II) the Exercise Price per share of Common Stock immediately prior to such Transaction;

(B) except as otherwise specified in Section 5.1(f)(ii)(A), the rights and obligations of the Company (or, in the event of a Non-Surviving Transaction, such other Person) and the Holders in respect of Substituted Property shall be substantially unchanged to be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the rights and obligations of the Company and

Holders in respect of shares of Common Stock hereunder as set forth in Section 3.1 hereof; and

(C) such written instrument under clause (ii)(A) above shall provide for adjustments which, for events subsequent to the effective date of such written instrument, shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided for in this Section 5; and the provisions of this Section 5.1(f) shall similarly apply to successive Transactions that are not Third Party Sale Transactions;

(iii) [if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Securities Only Transaction and such Sale ~~Cash~~Securities Only Transaction is consummated on or prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Securities Only Transaction, (A) any Warrants not exercised prior to the closing of such Sale Securities Only Transaction shall automatically expire, terminate and become void without any payment or consideration other than as contemplated by the following clause (B) and (B) if the Black-Scholes Value of one Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Securities Only Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Holder of each Warrant Certificate evidencing any unexercised Warrants, an amount of the Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities for each Warrant so evidenced having a Fair Market Value equal to the greater of: (x) such Black-Scholes Value and (if such Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities consist of securities of more than one type) in such proportion among the securities so delivered as to be the same as the pro rata kind and amount per share of Common Stock (determined on the basis of all outstanding shares of Common Stock held by all Qualifying Persons) and (y) value of the consideration to be received by such Holder if such Warrant were exercised for Common Stock and (if such Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities consist of securities of more than one type) in such proportion among the securities so delivered as to be the same as the pro rata kind and amount per share of Common Stock (determined on the basis of all outstanding shares of Common Stock held by all Qualifying Persons); or][9]

(iv) [if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Cash and Securities Transaction and such Sale Cash Only Transaction is consummated on or prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction, (A) any Warrants not exercised prior to the closing of such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction shall automatically expire, terminate and become void without any payment or consideration other than as contemplated by the following clause (B) and (B) if the Black-Scholes Value of each Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Cash and Securities Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Holder of each Warrant Certificate evidencing any unexercised Warrants, an amount of Sale Cash and Securities Transaction Consideration for each Warrant so evidenced having a Fair Market Value equal to the greater of: (x) such Black-Scholes Value and (if such Sale Cash and Securities

~~(B) if not assumed by the party surviving such Change of Control, deemed to be exercised immediately prior to the consummation of such Change of Control and the Holder thereof shall receive the consideration to which such Holder would have been entitled as a result of such Change of Control, less the Exercise Price, as though the Warrant had been exercised immediately prior thereto; provided, however, that the foregoing Section 5.1(g)(i)~~ and acquired the applicable number of shares of Common Stock then issuable pursuant to such Holder's Warrants as a result of such exercise (without taking into account any limitations or restrictions on the exercisability of the Warrants), and, in such case, appropriate adjustment (in form and substance satisfactory to the Holder) shall be made with respect to the Holder's rights to insure that the provisions of this Section 5.1(g) shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as possible, to the Warrants in relation to any shares of stock, securities or assets thereafter acquirable upon exercise of the Warrants. The Company shall not effect any such Transaction unless, prior to the consummation thereof, the successor Person (if other than the Company) resulting from such Transaction, shall assume, by written instrument substantially similar in form and substance to this Agreement and satisfactory to the Holder, the obligation to deliver to the Holder such shares of stock, securities or assets which, in accordance with the foregoing provisions, such Holder shall be entitled to receive upon exercise of its Warrants. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 5.1(g) shall be subject in all respects to compliance with the Communications Laws.

(h) ~~(i)~~ Cash Dividends. In the event the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, pay, or fix a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock to receive, any dividend of cash to holders of its Common Stock (other than any dividend or distribution upon a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) ~~[~~or Section 5.1(g)~~]~~ or applies) (a "Cash Dividend"), then and in each such event, the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to the close of business on the date for the determination of the holders of Common Stock entitled to receive such dividend or distribution shall be decreased (to an amount not less than zero) by an amount equal to the amount of the cash so distributed to one share of Common Stock. Any adjustment under this Section 5.1(g) shall, subject to Section 5.1(d)(iv), become effective immediately prior to the opening of business on the day after the date for the determination of the holders of Common Stock entitled to receive such Cash Dividend.

(i) ~~(j)~~ Optional Tax Adjustment. The Company may at its option, at any time during the term of the Warrants, increase the number of shares of Common Stock into which each Warrant is exercisable, or decrease the Exercise Price, in addition to those changes required by Section 5.1(a), Section 5.1(b), Section 5.1(c) or Section 5.1(g) as deemed advisable by the Board of Directors, in order that any event treated for income tax purposes as a dividend of equity securities or equity security rights shall not be taxable to the recipients.

(h) ~~[~~Warrants Deemed Exercisable. For purposes solely of this Section 5, the number of shares of Common Stock which the holder of any Warrant would have been entitled to receive had such Warrant been exercised in full at any time or into which any Warrant was exercisable at any time shall be determined assuming such Warrant was exercisable in full at such time.~~]~~

(j) ~~(k)~~ Notice of Adjustment. Upon the occurrence of each adjustment of the Exercise Price or the number of shares of Common Stock into which a Warrant is exercisable pursuant to this Section 5.1, the Company at its expense shall promptly:

(i) compute such adjustment in accordance with the terms hereof;

(ii) after such adjustment becomes effective, deliver to all Holders, in accordance with Section 11.1(b) and Section 11.2, a notice setting forth such adjustment in reasonable detail and showing in reasonable detail the facts upon which such adjustment (including the kind and amount of securities, cash or other property for which the Warrants shall be exercisable and the Exercise Price) is based; and

(iii) deliver to the Warrant Agent a certificate of the Treasurer or other officer of the Company having equivalent responsibilities setting forth the Exercise Price and the number of shares of Common Stock into which each Warrant is exercisable after such adjustment and setting forth a brief statement of the facts requiring such adjustment and the computation by which such adjustment was made (including a description of the basis on which the Fair Market Value of any evidences of indebtedness, shares of equity securities, securities, cash or other assets or consideration used in the computation was determined). As provided in Section 10.1, the Warrant Agent shall be entitled to rely on such certificate and shall be under no duty or responsibility with respect to any such certificate, except to exhibit the same from time to time to any Holder desiring an inspection thereof during reasonable business hours.

(k) ~~(l)~~ Statement on Warrant Certificates. Irrespective of any adjustment in the Exercise Price or amount or kind of equity securities into which the Warrants are exercisable, Warrant Certificates theretofore or thereafter issued may continue to express the same Exercise Price initially applicable or amount or kind of equity securities initially issuable upon exercise of the Warrants evidenced thereby pursuant to this Agreement.

5.2 Fractional Interest. The Company shall not be required upon the exercise of any Warrant to issue any fractional shares of Common Stock, but may, in lieu of issuing any fractional shares of Common Stock make an adjustment therefore in cash on the basis of the Fair Market Value per share of Common Stock on the date of such exercise. If Warrant Certificates evidencing more than one Warrant shall be presented for exercise at the same time by the same Holder, the number of full shares of Common Stock which shall be issuable upon such exercise thereof shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate number of Warrants so to be exercised.

The Holders, by their acceptance of the Warrant Certificates, expressly waive their right to receive any fraction of a share of Common Stock or a stock certificate representing a fraction of a share of Common Stock.

5.3 No Other Adjustments. In each case, except in accordance with Section 5.1, the applicable Exercise Price and the number of shares of Common Stock obtainable upon exercise of any Warrant will not be adjusted for (x) any dividend or distribution made or paid on the shares of Common Stock or any other equity securities, (y) any purchase (including by tender or exchange offer) of any shares of Common Stock or (z) the issuance of shares of Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for shares of Common Stock or carrying the right to purchase any of the foregoing, including:

(i) upon the issuance of any other securities by the Company on or after the Original Issue Date, whether or not contemplated by the Plan, or upon the issuance of shares of Common Stock upon the exercise of any such securities;

(ii) upon the issuance of any shares of Common Stock or other securities or any payments pursuant to the Management Incentive Plan (as defined in the Plan) or any other equity incentive plan of the Company;

(iii) upon the issuance of any shares of Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of the Warrants; or

(iv) upon the issuance of any shares of Common Stock or other securities of the Company in connection with a business acquisition transaction.

6. Loss or Mutilation.

If (a) any mutilated Warrant Certificate is surrendered to the Warrant Agent or (b) both (i) there shall be delivered to the Company and the Warrant Agent (A) a claim by a Holder as to the destruction, loss or wrongful taking of any Warrant Certificate of such Holder and a request thereby for a new replacement Warrant Certificate, and (B) such indemnity bond as may be required by them to save each of them and any agent of either of them harmless and (ii) such other reasonable requirements as may be imposed by the Company and the Warrant Agent as permitted by Section 8-405 of the Uniform Commercial Code have been satisfied, then, in the absence of notice to the Company or the Warrant Agent that such Warrant Certificate has been acquired by a "protected purchaser" within the meaning of Section 8-405 of the Uniform Commercial Code, the Company shall execute and upon its written request the Warrant Agent shall countersign and deliver to the registered Holder of the lost, wrongfully taken, destroyed or mutilated Warrant Certificate, in exchange therefore or in lieu thereof, a new Warrant Certificate of the same tenor and for a like aggregate number of Warrants. At the written request of such registered Holder, the new Warrant Certificate so issued shall be retained by the Warrant Agent as having been surrendered for exercise, in lieu of delivery thereof to such Holder, and shall be deemed for purposes of Section 3.2 to have been surrendered for exercise on the date the conditions specified in clauses (a) or (b) of the preceding sentence were first satisfied.

Upon the issuance of any new Warrant Certificate under this Section 6, the Company may require the payment of any tax or other governmental charge that is imposed in relation thereto and any other reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses (including the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of the Warrant Agent and of counsel to the Company) in connection therewith.

Every new Warrant Certificate executed and delivered pursuant to this Section 6 in lieu of any lost, wrongfully taken or destroyed Warrant Certificate shall constitute an additional contractual obligation of the Company, whether or not the allegedly lost, wrongfully taken or destroyed Warrant Certificate shall be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be entitled to the benefits of this Agreement equally and proportionately with any and all other Warrant Certificates duly executed and delivered hereunder.

The provisions of this Section 6 are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights or remedies with respect to the replacement of mutilated, lost, wrongfully taken, or destroyed Warrant Certificates.

7. Reservation and Authorization of Common Stock.

The Company covenants that, for the duration of the Exercise Period, the Company will at all times reserve and keep available, from its authorized and unissued shares of Common Stock solely for issuance and delivery upon the exercise of the Warrants and free of preemptive rights, such number of shares of Common Stock and other securities, cash or property as from time to time shall be issuable upon the exercise in full of all outstanding Warrants for cash. The Company further covenants that it shall, from time to time, take all steps necessary to increase the authorized number of its shares of Common Stock if at any time the authorized number of shares of Common Stock remaining unissued would otherwise be insufficient to allow delivery of all the shares of Common Stock then deliverable upon the exercise in full of all outstanding Warrants. The Company covenants that it will take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate in order that all shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrants will, upon issuance, be duly and validly issued, and will be free of restrictions on transfer and will be free from all taxes, liens and charges in respect of the issue thereof (other than income or similar taxes or taxes in respect of any transfer occurring contemporaneously or otherwise specified herein or in connection with a Cashless Exercise). The Company shall take all such actions as may be necessary to ensure that all such shares of Common Stock may be so issued without violation of any applicable law or governmental regulation. The Company covenants that the stock certificates, if any, issued to evidence any shares of Common Stock issued upon exercise of Warrants will comply with the Delaware General Corporation Act (as amended) and any other applicable law.

The Company hereby authorizes and directs its current and future transfer agents for the shares of Common Stock at all times to reserve stock certificates for such number of shares of Common Stock, to the extent as, and if, required. The Warrant Agent is hereby authorized to requisition from time to time from any such transfer agents stock certificates required to honor outstanding Warrants upon exercise thereof in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the Company hereby authorizes and directs such transfer agents to comply with all such requests of the Warrant Agent. The Company will supply such transfer agents with duly executed stock certificates for such purposes, to the extent as, and if, required.

8. Warrant Transfer and Exchange.

8.1 Warrant Transfer Books.

(a) The Warrant Agent will maintain an office (the "Corporate Agency Office") in the United States of America, where Warrant Certificates may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange and where Warrant Certificates may be surrendered for exercise of Warrants evidenced thereby, which office is _____, on the Original Issue Date. The Warrant Agent will give prompt written notice to all Holders of Warrant Certificates of any change in the location of such office.

(b) The Warrant Certificates evidencing the Warrants shall be issued in registered form only. The Company shall cause to be kept at the office of the Warrant Agent designated for such purpose a warrant register (the "Warrant Register") in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as the Warrant Agent may prescribe and such regulations as may be prescribed by law, the Company shall provide for the registration of Warrant Certificates and of transfers or exchanges of Warrant Certificates as herein provided.

(c) Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Warrant Certificate at the Corporate Agency Office, the Company shall execute, and the Warrant Agent shall countersign and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Warrant Certificates evidencing a like aggregate number of Warrants.

(d) At the option of the Holder, Warrant Certificates may be exchanged at the office of the Warrant Agent upon payment of the charges hereinafter provided for other Warrant Certificates evidencing a like aggregate number of Warrants. Whenever any Warrant Certificates are so surrendered for exchange, the Company shall execute, and the Warrant Agent shall countersign and deliver, the Warrant Certificates of the same tenor and evidencing the same number of Warrants as evidenced by the Warrant Certificates surrendered by the Holder making the exchange. Every Warrant Certificate surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Company or the Warrant Agent) be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Company and the Warrant Agent, duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

8.2 Restrictions on Exchanges and Transfers.

(a) No Warrants or Common Stock shall be sold, exchanged or otherwise Transferred (A) in violation of (i) the Securities Act or state securities Laws, (ii) the Communication Laws, or (iii) the Company's certificate of incorporation or other governing documents and (B) unless the transferee delivers to the Warrant Agent a properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable. If any Holder purports to Transfer Warrants to any Person in a transaction that would violate the provisions of this Section 8.2, such Transfer shall be void ab initio and of no effect.

(b) The Company reserves the right to reject any and all Assignment Forms that it reasonably determines are not in proper form or for which any corresponding agreement by the Company to Transfer or exchange would, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, be unlawful. Any such determination by the Company shall be final and binding on the Holder of the Warrants, absent manifest error provided that the Company shall provide a Holder with the reasonable opportunity to correct any defects in its Assignment Forms (without prejudicing such Holder's ability to deliver subsequent Assignment Forms). The Company further reserves the right to request such information (including, without limitation, information with respect to citizenship, other ownership interests and Affiliates) as the Company may deem appropriate, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, to determine whether the Transfer or exchange of the Warrants would (i) be unlawful, (ii) subject the Company to any limitation under the Communications Laws that would not apply to the Company but for such exchange, (iii) limit or impair any business activities of the Company under the Communications Laws, which shall be furnished promptly by any Holder from whom such information is requested as a condition to such Holder's Transfer or exchange of Warrants~~[~~, or [(iv) involve circumstances that the Board of Directors determines could require the registration or qualification of any class of ~~Common Stock~~equity securities of the Company or require the Company to file reports pursuant to any applicable federal or state securities laws ~~or (v) subject~~including but not limited to the Company ~~to regulation under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Investment Advisors Act of 1940, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or other applicable law or regulation, each as amended~~having, in the aggregate, either (A) 1,900 or more holders of record (as such concept is understood for purposes of Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act) or (B) in the aggregate, more than 450 holders of record (as such concept is understood for purposes of Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act) who do not satisfy the definition of an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501(a) under Regulation D of the Securities Act (determined, in each case, in Company's reasonable discretion).]

(c) Moreover, the Company reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to any particular Transfer or exchange of Warrants or any defects in the Assignment Form(s) with regard to any particular Transfer or exchange of Warrants. The Company shall provide prompt written notice to the Holder of any such rejection or waiver.

(d) ~~(c)~~ Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, it shall be a condition to the Transfer of any Warrant that the transferee of such Warrant (i) shall comply with Section 8.2(a) and (ii) to the extent such transferee exercises any Warrant, shall execute a joinder to the Shareholders' Agreement (or, in the case where such transferee does not execute such joinder, shall be deemed to have become a party to the Shareholders' Agreement, irrespective of whether such transferee physically executes the Shareholders' Agreement or a joinder thereto).

8.3 Miscellaneous Procedures for Transfer or Exchanges of Warrants.

(a) All Warrant Certificates issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates shall be the valid obligations of the Company, evidencing the same obligations, and entitled to the same benefits under this Agreement, as the Warrant Certificates surrendered for such registration of transfer or exchange.

(b) No service fee shall be charged to the transferor or transferee for any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates; provided, however, that the Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any stamp, registration or other similar transfer tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates.

(c) The Warrant Agent shall, upon request of the Company from time to time, deliver to the Company such reports of registered ownership of the Warrants and such records of transactions with respect to the Warrants and the shares of Common Stock as the Company may request. The Warrant Agent shall also make available to the Company for inspection by the Company's agents or employees, from time to time as the Company may request, such original books of accounts and records maintained by the Warrant Agent in connection with the issuance and exercise of Warrants hereunder, such inspections to occur at the Corporate Agency Office during normal business hours.

(d) The Warrant Agent shall keep copies of this Agreement and any notices given to Holders hereunder available for inspection by the Holders during normal business hours at the Corporate Agency Office. The Company shall supply the Warrant Agent from time to time with such numbers of copies of this Agreement as the Warrant Agent may request.

9. Warrant Holders.

9.1 No Voting or Dividend Rights.

(a) No Holder of a Warrant Certificate evidencing any Warrant shall have or exercise any rights, solely by reason of the ownership or possession of a Warrant or the Warrant Certificate representing the same or otherwise by virtue hereof, as a holder of Common Stock of the Company, including the right to vote, to receive dividends and other distributions as a holder of Common Stock or to receive notice of, or attend, meetings or any other proceedings of the holders of Common Stock.

(b) The consent of any Holder of a Warrant Certificate, solely by reason of the ownership or possession of a Warrant or the Warrant Certificate representing the same or otherwise by virtue hereof, shall not be required with respect to any action or proceeding of the Company, including with respect to any Third Party Sale Transaction.

(c) Except as provided in Section 4, no Holder of a Warrant Certificate, solely by reason of the ownership or possession of a Warrant or the Warrant Certificate representing the same or otherwise by virtue hereof, shall have any right to receive any cash dividends, equity security dividends, allotments or rights or other distributions paid, allotted or distributed or distributable to the holders of Common Stock prior to, or for which the relevant record date preceded, the date of the exercise of such Warrant.

(d) No Holder of a Warrant Certificate shall have any right not expressly conferred hereunder or under, or by applicable law with respect to, the Warrant Certificate held by such Holder.

9.2 Rights of Action. All rights of action against the Company in respect of this Agreement, except rights of action vested in the Warrant Agent, are vested in the Holders of the Warrant Certificates, and any Holder of any Warrant Certificate, without the consent of the Warrant Agent or the Holder of any other Warrant Certificate, may, in such Holder's own behalf and for such Holder's own benefit, enforce and may institute and maintain any suit, action or proceeding against the Company suitable to enforce, or otherwise in respect of, such Holder's right to exercise such Holder's Warrants in the manner provided in this Agreement.

9.3 Treatment of Holders of Warrant Certificates. Every Holder, by virtue of accepting a Warrant Certificate, consents and agrees with the Company, with the Warrant Agent and with every subsequent holder of such Warrant Certificate that, prior to due presentment of such Warrant Certificate for registration of transfer, the Company and the Warrant Agent may treat the Person in whose name the Warrant Certificate is registered as the owner thereof for all purposes and as the Person entitled to exercise the rights granted under the Warrants, and neither the Company, the Warrant Agent nor any agent thereof shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

9.4 Tax Forms. Each Holder of a Warrant Certificate shall deliver to the Warrant Agent a properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable.

~~9.5 [Representations and Warranties of the Holder. By acceptance of this Warrant Agreement, the Holder represents and warrants to the Company as follows:~~

~~(a) No Registration. The Holder understands that the Common Stock has not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act by reason of a specific exemption from the registration provisions of the Securities Act, the availability of which depends upon, among other things, the bona fide nature of the investment intent and the accuracy of the Holder's representations as expressed herein or otherwise made pursuant hereto.~~

~~(b) Investment Intent. The Holder is acquiring the Common Stock for investment for its own account, not as a nominee or agent, and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any distribution thereof. The Holder has no present intention of selling, granting any participation in, or otherwise distributing the Common Stock, nor does it have any contract, undertaking, agreement or arrangement for the same.~~

~~(c) Investment Experience. The Holder has substantial experience in evaluating and investing in private placement transactions of securities in companies similar to the Company, and has such knowledge and experience in financial or business matters so that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in the Company and protecting its own interests.~~

~~(d) Speculative Nature of Investment. The Holder understands and acknowledges that its investment in the Company is highly speculative and involves substantial risks. The Holder can bear the economic risk of its investment and is able, without impairing its financial condition, to hold the Common Stock for an indefinite period of time and to suffer a complete loss of its investment.~~

~~(e) Accredited Investor. The Holder is an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Regulation D, Rule 501(a), promulgated by the SEC and agrees to submit to the Company such further assurances of such status as may be reasonably requested by the~~

~~Company. The Holder has furnished or made available any and all information requested by the Company to satisfy any applicable verification requirements as to "accredited investor" status. Any such information is true, correct and complete.~~

~~(f) Residency. The residency of the Holder (or, in the case of a partnership or corporation, such entity's principal place of business) has been correctly provided to the Company to the extent requested by the Company.~~

~~(g) Restrictions on Resales. The Holder acknowledges that the Common Stock must be held indefinitely unless subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from such registration is available. The Holder is aware of the provisions of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act, which permit resale of shares purchased in a private placement subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, which may include, among other things, the availability of certain current public information about the Company; the resale occurring not less than a specified period after a party has purchased and paid for the security to be sold; the number of shares being sold during any three-month period not exceeding specified limitations; the sale being effected through a "broker's transaction," a transaction directly with a "market maker" or a "riskless principal transaction" (as those terms are defined in the Securities Act or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder); and the filing of a Form 144 notice, if applicable. The Holder acknowledges and understands that the Company may not be satisfying the current public information requirement of Rule 144 at the time the Holder wishes to sell the Common Stock and that, in such event, the Holder may be precluded from selling the Common Stock under Rule 144 even if the other applicable requirements of Rule 144 have been satisfied. The Holder acknowledges that, in the event the applicable requirements of Rule 144 are not met, registration under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration will be required for any disposition of the Common Stock. The Holder understands that, although Rule 144 is not exclusive, the Securities and Exchange Commission has expressed its opinion that persons proposing to sell restricted securities received in a private offering other than in a registered offering or pursuant to Rule 144 will have a substantial burden of proof in establishing that an exemption from registration is available for such offers or sales and that such persons and the brokers who participate in the transactions do so at their own risk.~~

~~(h) No Public Market. The Holder understands and acknowledges that no public market now exists for any of the securities issued by the Company and that the Company has made no assurances that a public market will ever exist for the Company's securities.~~

~~(i) Brokers and Finders. The Holder has not engaged any brokers, finders or agents in connection with the Common Stock, and the Company has not incurred nor will incur, directly or indirectly, as a result of any action taken by the Holder, any liability for brokerage or finders' fees or agents' commissions or any similar charges in connection with the Common Stock.~~

~~(j) Legal Counsel. The Holder has had the opportunity to review this Warrant Agreement, the exhibits and schedules attached hereto and the transactions contemplated by this Warrant Agreement with its own legal counsel. Except as expressly set forth in this Warrant Agreement, the Holder is not relying on any statements or representations of the Company or its agents for legal advice with respect to this investment or the transactions contemplated by this Warrant Agreement.~~

~~(k) Tax Advisors. The Holder has reviewed with its own tax advisors the U.S. federal, state and local and non-U.S. tax consequences of this investment and the transactions contemplated by this Warrant Agreement. With respect to such matters, the Holder relies solely on any such advisors and not on any statements or representations of the Company or any of its agents, written or oral. The Holder understands that it (and not the Company) shall be responsible for its own tax liability that may arise as a result of this investment and the transactions contemplated by this Warrant Agreement.~~

~~(l) No "Bad Actor" Disqualification. Neither (i) the Holder, (ii) to its knowledge, any of its directors, executive officers, other officers that may serve as a director or officer of any company in which it invests, general partners or managing members, nor (iii) to its knowledge, any beneficial owner of any of the Company's voting equity securities (in accordance with Rule 506(d) of the Securities Act) held by the Holder is subject to any of the "bad actor" disqualifications described in Rule 506(d)(1)(i) through (viii) under the Securities Act, except as set forth in Rule 506(d)(2)(ii) or (iii) or (d)(3) under the Securities Act and disclosed, reasonably in advance of the acceptance of this Warrant Agreement, in writing in reasonable detail to the Company.]~~

10. Concerning the Warrant Agent.

10.1 Nature of Duties and Responsibilities Assumed. The Company hereby appoints the Warrant Agent to act as agent of the Company as set forth in this Agreement. The Warrant Agent hereby accepts the appointment as agent of the Company and agrees to perform that agency upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and in the Warrant Certificates or as the Company and the Warrant Agent may hereafter agree, by all of which the Company and the Holders of Warrant Certificates, by their acceptance thereof, shall be bound; provided, however, that the terms and conditions contained in the Warrant Certificates are subject to and governed by this Agreement or any other terms and conditions hereafter agreed to by the Company and the Warrant Agent.

The Warrant Agent shall not, by countersigning Warrant Certificates or by any other act hereunder, be deemed to make any representations as to validity or authorization of (i) the Warrants or the Warrant Certificates (except as to its countersignature thereon), (ii) any securities or other property delivered upon exercise of any Warrant, (iii) the accuracy of the computation of the number or kind or amount of equity securities or other securities or other property deliverable upon exercise of any Warrant or (iv) the correctness of any of the representations of the Company made in such certificates that the Warrant Agent receives. The Warrant Agent shall not at any time have any duty to calculate or determine whether any facts exist that may require any adjustments pursuant to Section 5 hereof with respect to the kind and amount of Common Stock or other securities or any property issuable to Holders upon the exercise of Warrants required from time to time. The Warrant Agent shall have no duty or responsibility to determine the accuracy or correctness of such calculation or with respect to the methods employed in making the same. The Warrant Agent shall not be accountable with respect to the validity or value (or the kind or amount) of any Common Stock or of any securities or property which may at any time be issued or delivered upon the exercise of any Warrant or upon any adjustment pursuant to Section 5 hereof, and it makes no representation with respect thereto. The Warrant Agent shall not be responsible for any failure of the Company to make any cash payment or to issue, transfer or deliver any Common Stock or stock or other securities or property upon the surrender of any Warrant Certificate for the purpose of exercise or upon any adjustment pursuant to Section 5 hereof or to comply with any of the covenants of the Company contained in Section 5 hereof.

The Warrant Agent shall not (i) be liable for any recital or statement of fact contained herein or in the Warrant Certificates or for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith on the belief that any Warrant Certificate or any other documents or any signatures are genuine or properly authorized, (ii) be responsible for any failure on the part of the Company to comply with any of its covenants and obligations contained in this Agreement or in the Warrant Certificates or (iii) be liable for any act or omission in connection with this Agreement except for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct (which gross negligence or willful misconduct must be determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction).

The Warrant Agent is hereby authorized to accept and protected in accepting instructions with respect to the performance of its duties hereunder by Company Order and to apply to any such officer named in such Company Order for instructions (which instructions will be promptly given in writing when requested), and the Warrant Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or suffered to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the instructions in any Company Order.

The Warrant Agent may execute and exercise any of the rights and powers hereby vested in it or perform any duty hereunder either itself or by or through its attorneys, agents or employees; provided, however, that reasonable care has been exercised in the selection and in the continued employment of any such attorney, agent or employee. The Warrant Agent shall not be under any obligation or duty to institute, appear in or defend any action, suit or legal proceeding in respect hereof, unless first indemnified to its satisfaction, but this provision shall not affect the power of the Warrant Agent to take such action as the Warrant Agent may consider proper, whether with or without such indemnity. The Warrant Agent shall promptly notify the Company in writing of any claim made or action, suit or proceeding instituted against it arising out of or in connection with this Agreement.

The Company shall perform, execute, acknowledge and deliver or cause to be performed, executed, acknowledged and delivered all such further acts, instruments and assurances as may reasonably be required by the Warrant Agent in order to enable it to carry out or perform its duties under this Agreement.

The Warrant Agent shall act solely as agent of the Company hereunder and does not assume any obligation or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the Holders or any beneficial owners of Warrants. The Warrant Agent shall not be liable except for the failure to perform such duties as are specifically set forth herein or specifically set forth in the Warrant Certificates, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Agreement against the Warrant Agent whose duties and obligations shall be determined solely by the express provisions hereof or the express provisions of the Warrant Certificates.

10.2 Right to Consult Counsel. The Warrant Agent may at any time consult with legal counsel satisfactory to it (who may be legal counsel for the Company), and the Warrant Agent shall incur no liability or responsibility to the Company or to any Holder for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith in accordance with the opinion or advice of such counsel.

10.3 Compensation, Reimbursement and Indemnification. The Company agrees to pay the Warrant Agent from time to time compensation for all fees and expenses relating to its services hereunder as the Company and the Warrant Agent may agree from time to time and to reimburse the Warrant Agent for reasonable expenses and disbursements, including reasonable counsel fees incurred in connection with the execution and administration of this Agreement. The Company further agrees to indemnify the Warrant Agent for and hold it harmless against any losses, liabilities or reasonable expenses arising out of or in connection with the acceptance and administration of this Agreement, including the reasonable costs, legal fees and expenses of investigating or defending any claim of such liability, except that the Company shall have no liability hereunder to the extent that any such loss, liability or expense results from the Warrant Agent's own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct (which gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct must be determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction).

10.4 Warrant Agent May Hold Company Securities. The Warrant Agent, any Countersigning Agent and any stockholder, equity holder, director, officer or employee of the Warrant Agent or any Countersigning Agent may buy, sell or deal in any of the warrants or other securities of the Company or its Affiliates, become pecuniarily interested in transactions in which the Company or its Affiliates may be interested, contract with or lend money to the Company or its Affiliates or otherwise act as fully and freely as though it were not the Warrant Agent or the Countersigning Agent, respectively, under this Agreement. Nothing herein shall preclude the Warrant Agent or any Countersigning Agent from acting in any other capacity for the Company or for any other legal entity.

10.5 Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) The Warrant Agent may resign its duties and be discharged from all further duties and liability hereunder (except liability arising as a result of the Warrant Agent's own gross negligence or willful misconduct) after giving 30 days' prior written notice to the Company. The Company may remove the Warrant Agent upon 30 days' written notice, and the Warrant Agent shall thereupon in like manner be discharged from all further duties and liabilities hereunder, except as aforesaid. The Warrant Agent shall, at the expense of the Company, cause notice to be given in accordance with Section 11.1(b) to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate of said notice of resignation or notice of removal, as the case may be. Upon such resignation or removal, the Company shall appoint in writing a new Warrant Agent. If the Company shall fail to make such appointment within a period of 30 calendar days after it has been notified in writing of such resignation by the resigning Warrant Agent or after such removal, then the Holder of any Warrant Certificate may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a new Warrant Agent. Any new Warrant Agent, whether appointed by the Company or by such a court, shall be an entity doing business under the laws of the United States or any state thereof in good standing, authorized under such laws to act as Warrant Agent, and having a combined capital and surplus of not less than $25,000,000. The combined capital and surplus of any such new Warrant Agent shall be deemed to be the combined capital and surplus as set forth in the most recent annual report of its condition published by such Warrant Agent prior to its appointment; provided, however, that such reports are published at least annually pursuant to law or to the requirements of a federal or state supervising or examining authority. After acceptance in writing of such appointment by the new Warrant Agent, it shall be vested with the same powers, rights, duties and responsibilities as if it had been originally named herein as the Warrant Agent, without any further assurance, conveyance, act or deed; but if for any reason it shall be reasonably necessary or expedient to execute and deliver any further assurance, conveyance, act or deed, the same shall be done at the reasonable expense of the Company and shall be legally and validly executed and delivered by the resigning or removed Warrant Agent. Not later than the effective date of any such appointment, the Company shall file notice thereof with the resigning or removed Warrant Agent. Failure to give any notice provided for in this Section 10.5(a), however, or any defect therein, shall not affect the legality or validity of the resignation of the Warrant Agent or the appointment of a new Warrant Agent as the case may be.

(b) Any entity into which the Warrant Agent or any new Warrant Agent may be merged, or any entity resulting from any consolidation to which the Warrant Agent or any new Warrant Agent shall be a party, shall be a successor Warrant Agent under this Agreement without any further act; provided, however, that such entity would be eligible for appointment as successor to the Warrant Agent under the provisions of Section 10.5(a). Any such successor Warrant Agent shall promptly cause notice of its succession as Warrant Agent to be given in accordance with Section 11.1(b) to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate at such Holder's last address as shown on the Warrant Register.

10.6 Appointment of Countersigning Agent.

(a) The Warrant Agent may appoint a Countersigning Agent or Agents which shall be authorized to act on behalf of the Warrant Agent to countersign Warrant Certificates issued upon original issue and upon exchange, registration of transfer or pursuant to Section 6, and Warrant Certificates so countersigned shall be entitled to the benefits of this Agreement equally and proportionately with any and all other Warrant Certificates duly executed and delivered hereunder. Wherever reference is made in this Agreement to the countersignature and delivery of Warrant Certificates by the Warrant Agent or to Warrant Certificates countersigned by the Warrant Agent, such reference shall be deemed to include countersignature and delivery on behalf of the Warrant Agent by a Countersigning Agent and Warrant Certificates countersigned by a Countersigning Agent. Each Countersigning Agent shall be acceptable to the Company and shall at the time of appointment be an entity doing business under the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof in good standing, authorized under such laws to act as Countersigning Agent, and having a combined capital and surplus of not less than $25,000,000. The combined capital and surplus of any such new Countersigning Agent shall be deemed to be the combined capital and surplus as set forth in the most recent annual report of its condition published by such Countersigning Agent prior to its appointment; provided, however, that such reports are published at least annually pursuant to law or to the requirements of a federal or state supervising or examining authority.

(b) Any entity into which a Countersigning Agent may be merged or any entity resulting from any consolidation to which such Countersigning Agent shall be a party, shall be a successor Countersigning Agent without any further act; provided, however, that such entity would be eligible for appointment as a new Countersigning Agent under the provisions of Section 10.6(a), without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of the Warrant Agent or the Countersigning Agent. Any such successor Countersigning Agent shall promptly cause notice of its succession as Countersigning Agent to be given in accordance with Section 11.1(b) to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate at such Holder's last address as shown on the Warrant Register.

(c) A Countersigning Agent may resign at any time by giving 30 days' prior written notice thereof to the Warrant Agent and to the Company. The Warrant Agent may at any time terminate the agency of a Countersigning Agent by giving 30 days' prior written notice thereof to such Countersigning Agent and to the Company.

(d) The Warrant Agent agrees to pay to each Countersigning Agent from time to time reasonable compensation for its services under this Section 10.6 and the Warrant Agent shall be entitled to be reimbursed for such payments, subject to the provisions of Section 10.3.

(e) Any Countersigning Agent shall have the same rights and immunities as those of the Warrant Agent set forth in Section 10.1.

11.1 Notices Generally.

(a) Any request, notice, direction, authorization, consent, waiver, demand or other communication permitted or authorized by this Agreement to be made upon, given or furnished to or filed with the Company or the Warrant Agent by the other party hereto or by any Holder shall be sufficient for every purpose hereunder if in writing (including electronic mail or other form of electronic communication) and emailed or delivered by hand (including by courier service) as follows:

if to the Company, to:

_____
_____
_____
_____

if to the Warrant Agent, to:

_____

or, in either case, such other address as shall have been set forth in a notice delivered in accordance with this Section 11.1(a).

All such communications shall, when so delivered by electronic mail or delivered by hand, be effective when electronically mailed with confirmation of receipt or received by the addressee, respectively.

(b) Where this Agreement provides for notice to Holders of any event, such notice shall be sufficiently given (unless otherwise herein expressly provided) if in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, to each Holder affected by such event, at the address of such Holder as it appears in the Warrant Register, not later than the latest date, and not earlier than the earliest date, prescribed for the giving of such notice. In any case where notice to Holders is given by mail, neither the failure to mail such notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Holder shall affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Holders. Where this Agreement provides for notice in any manner, such notice may be waived in writing by the Person entitled to receive such notice, either before or after the event, and such waiver shall be the equivalent of such notice.

In case by reason of the suspension of regular mail service or by reason of any other cause it shall be impracticable to give such notice by mail, then such notification as shall be made by a method approved by the Warrant Agent as one which would be most reliable under the circumstances for successfully delivering the notice to the addressees shall constitute a sufficient notification for every purpose hereunder.

11.2 Required Notices to Holders. In the event the Company shall:

(a) take any action that would result in an adjustment to the Exercise Price and/or the number of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of a Warrant pursuant to Section 5.1;

(b) consummate any Winding Up;

(c) consummate any ~~[Third Party Sale~~ Transaction ~~or]~~[15] ~~[Change of Control]~~; or

(d) set a record date for determining the holders of Common Stock entitled to participate in any dividend or distribution (each of (a), (b), (c) or (d), an "Action");

then, the Company shall cause to be delivered to the Warrant Agent and shall give to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate, in accordance with Section 11.1(b) hereof, a written notice of such Action, including, (x) in the case of an Action pursuant to Section 11.2(a), the information required under Section ~~5.1(k)(ii)~~5.1(j)(ii), and (y) in the case of an Action pursuant to Section 11.2(c), the material terms and conditions of such Third Party Sale Transaction and the date on which such Third Party Sale Transaction is expected to become effective. Such notice shall (i) be given promptly after the effective date of such Action and (ii) in the case of an Action pursuant to Section 11.2(c), be given at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the closing of the relevant Third Party Sale Transaction; or (iii) in the case of any Action covered by clause (d) above, be given by the date that is nine (9) calendar days prior to such record date.

If at any time the Company shall cancel any of the Actions for which notice has been given under this Section 11.2 prior to the consummation thereof, the Company shall give each Holder prompt notice of such cancellation in accordance with Section 11.1(b).

[The Company shall cause any notice covered by clause (c) above of any Action constituting a Third Party Sale Transaction in which all or any portion of the Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities or Sale Cash and Securities Transaction Consideration comprises non-cash property (other than securities listed or admitted for trading on any U.S. national securities exchange) to set forth the Fair Market Values of such non-cash property.][~~16~~13]

In addition, in the event the Company enters into any definitive agreement with respect to any ~~[Third Party Sale~~ Transaction~~ or]~~[17]~~[Change of Control]~~, the Company shall promptly cause to be delivered to the Warrant Agent and shall promptly give to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate, in accordance with Section 11.1(b), a notice of the entering into such definitive agreement.

12. Inspection.

The Warrant Agent shall cause a copy of this Agreement to be available at all reasonable times at the office of the Warrant Agent for inspection by any Holder of any Warrant Certificate. The Warrant Agent may require any such Holder to submit its Warrant Certificate for inspection by the Warrant Agent.

13. Amendments.

(a) Subject to Section 13(c), this Agreement may be amended, modified, waived or supplemented by the Company and the Warrant Agent with the consent of the Required Warrant Holders; provided, however, that any amendment, modification, waiver, or supplement to this Agreement which has a material, disproportionate, and adverse effect on any Holder of a Warrant Certificate (as compared to other Holders and without giving effect to such Holder's specific tax or economic position or any other matters personal to such holder) shall also require the approval of such Holder in order to be effective and enforceable against such Holder.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, subject to Section 13(c), the Company and the Warrant Agent may, without the consent or concurrence of the Holders of the Warrant Certificates, by supplemental agreement or otherwise, amend, modify, waive, or supplement this Agreement for the purpose of making any changes or corrections in this Agreement that (i) are required to cure any ambiguity or to correct or supplement any defective or inconsistent provision or clerical omission or mistake or manifest error herein contained or (ii) add to the covenants and agreements of the Company in this Agreement further covenants and agreements of the Company thereafter to be observed, or surrender any rights or powers reserved to or conferred upon the Company in this Agreement; provided, however, that any amendment, modification, waiver, or supplement to this Agreement which has a material, disproportionate, and adverse effect on any Holder of a Warrant Certificate (as compared to other Holders and without giving effect to such Holder's specific tax or economic position or any other matters personal to such holder) shall also require the approval of such Holder in order to be effective and enforceable against such Holder.

(c) The consent of each Holder of any Warrant Certificate evidencing any Warrants affected thereby shall be required for any supplement or amendment to this Agreement or the Warrants that would: (i) increase the Exercise Price or decrease the number of Common Stock receivable upon exercise of Warrants, in each case other than as provided in Section 5.1; (ii) change the Expiration Time to an earlier date or time; (iii) modify the provisions contained in Section 5.1, Section 5.3 or Section 11.2 (including the definitions used in and material to such Sections) in a manner adverse to the Holders of Warrant Certificates generally with respect to their Warrants; (iv) amend or modify this Section 13 or Section 14 in a manner adverse to the Holders of the Warrant Certificates; or (v) modify the definition of "Required Warrant Holders".

(d) The Warrant Agent shall join with the Company in the execution and delivery of any such amendment unless such amendment affects the Warrant Agent's own rights, duties or immunities hereunder, in which case the Warrant Agent may, but shall not be required to, join in such execution and delivery; provided, however, that as a condition precedent to the Warrant Agent's execution of any amendment to this Agreement, the Company shall deliver to the Warrant Agent a certificate from an Appropriate Officer that states that the proposed amendment is in compliance with the terms of this Section 13. Upon execution and delivery of any amendment pursuant to this Section 13, such amendment shall be considered a part of this Agreement for all purposes and every Holder of a Warrant Certificate theretofore or thereafter countersigned and delivered hereunder shall be bound thereby.

(e) Promptly after the execution by the Company and the Warrant Agent of any such amendment, the Company shall give notice to the Holders of Warrant Certificates, setting forth in general terms the substance of such amendment, in accordance with the provisions of Section 11.1(b). Any failure of the Company to mail such notice or any defect therein, shall not, however, in any way impair or affect the validity of any such amendment.

14. Waivers.

The Company may take any action herein prohibited, or omit to perform any act herein required to be performed by it, only if the Company has obtained the written consent of the Required Warrant Holders as required pursuant to Section 13 and, if Section 13(c) applies, the consent of the Holders of any Warrant Certificates evidencing any Warrants affected thereby.

15. ~~[~~Successor to Company.

So long as Warrants remain outstanding, the Company will not enter into any Non-Surviving Transaction that constitutes~~[either a Redomestication Transaction or]~~ a Non-Sale Transaction in which Warrants would be outstanding after consummation unless the acquirer (a "Successor Company") shall expressly assume by a supplemental agreement, executed and delivered to the Warrant Agent, in form reasonably satisfactory to the Warrant Agent, the due and punctual performance of every covenant of this Agreement on the part of the Company to be performed and observed and shall have provided for exercise rights in accordance with Section 5.1(f). Upon the consummation of such~~[Redomestication Transaction or] a~~ Non-Sale Transaction, the Successor Company shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Company under this Agreement with the same effect as if such Successor Company had been named as the Company herein.~~]~~[18]

16. Headings.

The section headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and will not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

17. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original, but all of which together constitute one and the same instrument. A signature to this Agreement transmitted electronically shall have the same authority, effect and enforceability as an original signature.

18. Severability.

The provisions of this Agreement will be deemed severable and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision hereof will not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions hereof; provided, however, that if any provision of this Agreement, as applied to any party or to any circumstance, is adjudged by a court or governmental body not to be enforceable in accordance with its terms, the parties agree that the court or governmental body making such determination will have the power to modify the provision in a manner consistent with its objectives such that it is enforceable, and/or to delete specific words or phrases, and in its reduced form, such provision will then be enforceable and will be enforced.

19. No Redemption.

The Warrants shall not be subject to redemption by the Company or any other Person; provided, however, that (i) the Warrants may be acquired by means other than a redemption, whether by tender offer, open market purchases, negotiated transactions or otherwise, in accordance with applicable securities laws, so long as such acquisition does not otherwise

20. Persons Benefiting.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company, the Warrant Agent and the Holders from time to time. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any person other than the Company, the Warrant Agent and the Holders any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement or any part hereof, and all covenants, conditions, stipulations, promises and agreements contained in this Agreement shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the parties hereto and of the Holders; provided, however, that the Non-Recourse Parties are express third-party beneficiaries of Section 24. Each Holder, by acceptance of a Warrant Certificate, agrees to all of the terms and provisions of this Agreement applicable thereto.

21. Applicable Law; Venue.

THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ANY CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICT OF LAW RULES OR PROVISIONS (WHETHER OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OR ANY OTHER JURISDICTION) TO THE EXTENT SUCH RULES OR PROVISIONS WOULD CAUSE THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANY JURISDICTION OTHER THAN THE STATE OF NEW YORK. EACH OF THE PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT CONSENTS AND AGREES THAT ANY ACTION TO ENFORCE THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY DISPUTE, WHETHER SUCH DISPUTE ARISES IN LAW OR EQUITY, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE BROUGHT EXCLUSIVELY IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK OR ANY NEW YORK STATE COURT SITTING IN NEW YORK CITY. THE PARTIES HERETO CONSENT AND AGREE TO SUBMIT TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF SUCH COURTS. EACH OF THE PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT WAIVES AND AGREES NOT TO ASSERT IN ANY SUCH DISPUTE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY CLAIM THAT (I) SUCH PARTY AND SUCH PARTY'S PROPERTY IS IMMUNE FROM ANY LEGAL PROCESS ISSUED BY SUCH COURTS OR (II) ANY LITIGATION OR OTHER PROCEEDING COMMENCED IN SUCH COURTS IS BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM. THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE THAT MAILING OF PROCESS OR OTHER PAPERS IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING TO AN ADDRESS PROVIDED IN WRITING BY THE RECIPIENT OF SUCH MAILING, OR IN SUCH OTHER MANNER AS MAY BE PERMITTED BY LAW, SHALL BE VALID AND SUFFICIENT SERVICE THEREOF AND HEREBY WAIVE ANY OBJECTIONS TO SERVICE IN THE MANNER HEREIN PROVIDED.

22. Waiver of Jury Trial.

WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO JURY TRIAL OF ANY DISPUTE BASED UPON OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER AGREEMENTS RELATING HERETO OR ANY DEALINGS AMONG THEM RELATING TO THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. THE SCOPE OF THIS WAIVER IS INTENDED TO ENCOMPASS ANY AND ALL ACTIONS, SUITS AND PROCEEDINGS THAT RELATE TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY, INCLUDING CONTRACT CLAIMS, TORT CLAIMS, BREACH OF DUTY CLAIMS, AND ALL OTHER COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY CLAIMS. EACH PARTY REPRESENTS THAT (I) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT IN THE EVENT OF ANY ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (II) SUCH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND WITH THE ADVICE OF COUNSEL HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (III) SUCH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (IV) SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND REPRESENTATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.4.

23. Entire Agreement.

This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement of the parties hereto as to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all previous agreements among all or some of the parties hereto with respect thereto, whether written, oral or otherwise.

24. Confidentiality.

Except for required disclosures to any regulatory authority or self-regulatory authority with authority to regulate or oversee any aspect of the business of a Holder or its Affiliates, including bank and securities examiners or any other governmental body (provided, disclosures to such regulatory authority or self-regulatory authority shall be made with instructions to maintain confidentiality of the Confidential Information (as defined below)) or as and to the extent as may be required by applicable law, without the prior written consent of the Company, each Holder shall not make, and shall direct its officers, directors, managers, agents, employees and other representatives not to make, directly or indirectly, any public comment, statement, or communication with respect to, or otherwise disclose or permit the disclosure of Confidential Information or any of the terms, conditions, or other aspects of this Agreement; provided, however, that each Holder and each of its respective equity owners may disclose Confidential Information (i) to its and their respective attorneys, accountants, consultants, and other advisors or professionals to the extent necessary to obtain their services in connection with monitoring its investment in the Company and who are subject to confidentiality obligations to such Holder at least as protective as the terms set forth in this Section 23, provided, such Holder shall be responsible for any breach of such confidentiality provisions by any attorneys, accountants, consultants, or other advisors or professionals of such Holder or such Holder's equity owners or Affiliates that actually receive Confidential Information; (ii) to the extent required under any agreement between such Holder or its respective equity owners and the respective investors, limited partners or other similar Persons of such Holder and its respective equity owners, as applicable, who are subject to obligations of confidentiality and in confidential materials delivered to prospective investors, limited partners or other similar Persons of such Holder and its respective equity owners, as applicable, who are subject to obligations of confidentiality; provided, however, that such Holder will use commercially reasonable best efforts to, and shall direct its respective equity owners, to, enforce their respective rights in connection with a known breach of such confidentiality obligations by any Person receiving Confidential Information pursuant to this clause (ii), and (iii) to a bona fide potential purchaser of Common Stock or Warrants held by such Holder if such bona fide potential purchaser executes a confidentiality agreement with such Holder containing terms at least as protective as the terms set forth in this Section 23 and which, among other things, provides for third-party beneficiary rights in favor of the Company to enforce the terms thereof. Each Holder shall use, and shall direct its officers, directors, managers, agents, employees and other representatives to whom Confidential Information is disclosed to use, the Confidential Information only in connection with its investment in the Common Stock of the Company and not for any other purpose (including to disadvantage the Company, any equity holder, or any other Holder). As used herein, "Confidential Information" means all information, knowledge, systems or data relating to the business, operations, finances, policies, strategies, intentions or inventions of the Company and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates (including any of the terms of this Agreement) from whatever source obtained, except for any such information, knowledge, systems or data which at the time of disclosure was (x) in the public domain or otherwise in the possession of the disclosing Person unless such information, knowledge, systems or data was placed into the public domain or became known to such disclosing Person in violation of any non-disclosure obligation, including this Section 23, (y) becomes available to the disclosing Person from a third party on a non-confidential basis, provided that such third party is not known by the disclosing Person to have a contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality with respect thereto, or (z) developed by or on behalf of the disclosing Person without use of or reference to the Confidential Information or breach of this Section 23.

The Warrant Agent and the Company agree that the Warrant Register and the number of Warrants held by each Holder (but not the aggregate number of Warrants outstanding) shall constitute "Confidential Information" and shall not be disclosed by the Warrant Agent or the Company except in compliance with this Section 23, which shall apply to the Warrant Agent and the Company mutatis mutandis with respect to such information.

Each Holder, the Warrant Agent and the Company agree that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Section 23, and that in addition to all other remedies, the non-breaching party shall be entitled to seek injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy for any such breach. Each Holder, the Warrant Agent and the Company agree not to oppose the granting of such relief and agrees to waive any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with such remedy.

If any Holder is required by applicable law to disclose any Confidential Information (other than to a regulatory or self-regulatory authority), it must, to the extent practicable and permitted by applicable law, first provide notice reasonably in advance to the Company with respect to the content of the proposed disclosure, the reasons that such disclosure is required by law and the time and place that the disclosure will be made. Such Holder shall cooperate, at the Company's sole cost and expense, with the Company to obtain confidentiality agreements or arrangements with respect to any legally mandated disclosure and in any event shall disclose only such information as is required by applicable law when required to do so.

25. Non-Recourse.

Notwithstanding anything express or implied in this Agreement, each Holder and the Warrant Agent covenants, agrees and acknowledges that no recourse under this Agreement or any documents or instruments delivered in connection with this Agreement shall be had against any of the former, current or future direct or indirect equityholders, unitholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, Affiliates, members, financing sources, managers, general or limited partners or assignees, in each case, of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (collectively, but not including the Company itself or any of its subsidiaries, the "Non-Recourse Parties"), whether by the enforcement of any assessment or by any legal or equitable proceeding, or by virtue of any applicable law, it being expressly agreed and acknowledged that no personal liability whatsoever shall attach to, be imposed on or otherwise be incurred by any of the Non-Recourse Parties, as such, for any obligation or liability of the Company under this Agreement or any documents or instruments delivered in connection herewith for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or liabilities or their creation; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 24 shall relieve or otherwise limit the liability of the Company for any breach or violation of its obligations under this Agreement or such agreements, documents or instruments.

26. Waiver of Certain Damages.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, each of the Company, each Holder and the Warrant Agent agrees not to assert, and hereby waives, any claim against any other party, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any Warrant or any of the transactions contemplated hereby.

27. Interpretation.

Unless otherwise indicated to the contrary herein by the context or use thereof: (i) the words, "herein," "hereto," "hereof" and words of similar import refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular Section or paragraph hereof; (ii) the word "including" means "including, but not limited to"; (iii) masculine gender shall also include the feminine and neutral genders, and vice versa; and (iv) words importing the singular shall also include the plural, and vice versa. Unless the context of this Agreement otherwise requires, references to statutes shall include all regulations promulgated thereunder and references to statutes or regulations shall be construed as including all statutory and regulatory provisions consolidating, amending or replacing the statute or regulation. All references to currency, monetary values, "$" and dollars set forth herein shall mean United States dollars (USD) and all payments hereunder shall be made in United States dollars. All accounting terms used herein and not expressly defined herein shall have the meaning given to them under GAAP. Except when used together with the word "either" or otherwise for the purpose of identifying mutually exclusive alternatives, the term "or" has the inclusive meaning represented by the phrase "and/or". The words "will" and "will not" are expressions of command and not merely expressions of future intent or expectation. When used in this Agreement, the word "either" shall be deemed to mean "one or the other", not "both". References herein to a party are references to the parties to this Agreement, except to the extent expressly provided otherwise.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed and delivered as of the day and year first above written.

WARRANTS TO PURCHASE COMMON STOCK

The Warrants evidenced hereby are one of a duly authorized issue of Warrants of the Company designated as its Warrants to purchase shares of Common Stock ("Warrants"), limited in aggregate number to [●] Warrants issued under and in accordance with the Warrant Agreement, to which the Warrant Agreement and all amendments thereto reference is hereby made for a statement of the respective rights, limitations of rights, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Warrant Agent, the Holders of Warrant Certificates and the owners of the Warrants evidenced thereby and of the terms upon which the Warrant Certificates are, and are to be, countersigned and delivered. A copy of the Warrant Agreement shall be available at all reasonable times at the Corporate Agency Office for inspection by the Holder hereof.

The Warrant Agreement provides that, in addition to certain adjustments to the number of shares of Common Stock into which a Warrant is exercisable and the Exercise Price required to be made in certain circumstances~~[~~, (x) in the case of any Transaction that is ~~a Redomestication Transaction or~~ a Non-Sale Transaction, the Company shall (or, in the case of any such Transaction that is a Non-Surviving Transaction, the Company shall cause the other Person involved in such Transaction to) execute and deliver to the Warrant Agent a written instrument providing that (i) the Warrants evidenced hereby, if then outstanding, will be exercisable thereafter, during the period the Warrants evidenced hereby shall be exercisable as specified herein, only into the Substituted Property that would have been receivable upon such Transaction by a Qualifying Person holding the number of shares of Common Stock that would have been issued upon exercise of such Warrant if such Warrant had been exercised in full immediately prior to such Transaction (upon certain assumptions specified in the Warrant Agreement) and (ii) the rights and obligations of the Company (or, in the case of any such Transaction that is a Non-Surviving Transaction, the other Person involved in such Transaction) and the holders in respect of Substituted Property shall be substantially unchanged to be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the rights and obligations of the Company and Holders in respect of shares of Common Stock, and (y) in the case of any Third Party Sale Transaction, the Warrants will expire at the effective time of consummation thereof and, if the specified "Black-Scholes Value" is greater than zero, the Company will make certain specified payments of cash or other consideration all as more fully specified in the Warrant Agreement.~~]~~

Except as provided in the Warrant Agreement, all outstanding Warrants shall expire, terminate and become void, and all rights of the Holders of Warrant Certificates evidencing such Warrants shall automatically terminate and cease to exist, as of the Expiration Time. The "Expiration Time" shall mean the earlier to occur of (x) 5:00 p.m. New York time on [●] (the seventh anniversary of the Original Issue Date) or, if not a Business Day, then 5:00 p.m. New York time on the next Business Day thereafter; (y) the date and time of consummation of any Third Party Sale Transaction; and (z) the date and time of effectiveness of a Winding Up.

In the event of the exercise of less than all of the Warrants evidenced hereby, a new Warrant Certificate of the same tenor and for the number of Warrants which are not exercised shall be issued by the Company in the name or upon the written order of the Holder of this Warrant Certificate upon the cancellation hereof.

The Warrant Certificates are issuable only in registered form in denominations of whole numbers of Warrants. Upon surrender at the office of the Warrant Agent and payment of the charges specified herein and in the Warrant Agreement, this Warrant Certificate may be exchanged for Warrant Certificates in other authorized denominations or the transfer hereof may be registered in whole or in part in authorized denominations to one or more designated transferees; provided, however, that such other Warrant Certificates issued upon exchange or registration of transfer shall evidence the same aggregate number of Warrants as this Warrant Certificate. The Company shall cause to be kept at the office of the Warrant Agent the Warrant Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as the Warrant Agent may prescribe and such regulations as may be prescribed by law, the Company shall provide for the registration of Warrant Certificates and of transfers or exchanges of Warrant Certificates. No service charge shall be made for any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates; provided, however, that the Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates.

Prior to due presentment of this Warrant Certificate for registration of transfer, the Company, the Warrant Agent and any agent of the Company or the Warrant Agent may treat the Person in whose name this Warrant Certificate is registered as the owner hereof for all purposes, and neither the Company, the Warrant Agent nor any such agent shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

The Warrant Agreement permits, with certain exceptions as therein provided, the amendment thereof and the modification of the rights and obligations of the Company and the rights of the Holders of Warrant Certificates under the Warrant Agreement at any time by the Company and the Warrant Agent with the consent of the Required Warrant Holders.

Until the exercise of any Warrant, subject to the provisions of the Warrant Agreement and except as may be specifically provided for in the Warrant Agreement, (i) no Holder of a Warrant Certificate evidencing any Warrant shall have or exercise any rights by virtue hereof as a holder of shares of Common Stock of the Company, including the right to vote, to receive dividends and other distributions or to receive notice of, or attend meetings of, holders of shares of Common Stock or other equity securities of the Company or any other proceedings of the Company; (ii) the consent of any such Holder shall not be required with respect to any action or proceeding of the Company; (iii) except as provided with respect to a Winding Up of the Company, no such Holder, by reason of the ownership or possession of a Warrant or the Warrant Certificate representing the same, shall have any right to receive any cash dividends, stock or other equity securities dividends, allotments or rights or other distributions (except as specifically provided in the Warrant Agreement), paid, allotted or distributed or distributable to the holders of shares of Common Stock or other equity securities of the Company prior to or for which the relevant record date preceded the date of the exercise of such Warrant; and (iv) no such Holder shall have any right not expressly conferred by the Warrant or Warrant Certificate held by such Holder.

This Warrant Certificate, each Warrant evidenced thereby and the Warrant Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to any choice of law or conflict of law rules or provisions (whether of the State of New York or any other jurisdiction) to the extent such rules or provisions would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of New York. Any action to enforce the this Warrant Certificate, each Warrant evidenced thereby and the Warrant Agreement or any dispute, whether such dispute arises in law or equity, arising out of or relating to this Warrant Certificate, each Warrant evidenced thereby and the Warrant Agreement shall be brought exclusively in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York or any New York State Court sitting in New York City.

The Warrant Agreement provides that each Holder or transferee of any Holder shall provide the Warrant Agent with properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable.

All terms used in this Warrant Certificate which are defined in the Warrant Agreement shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Warrant Agreement. In the event of any conflict between this Warrant Certificate and the Warrant Agreement, the Warrant Agreement shall control.

New Governance Documents

THIS TERM SHEET REMAINS, IN ALL RESPECTS, SUBJECT TO ONGOING COMMENT AND NEGOTIATION, AND IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE IN ALL RESPECTS. IN PARTICULAR, AND WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, ANY LANGUAGE BRACKETED HEREIN MAY NOT APPEAR IN THE FINAL VERSION OF THIS TERM SHEET.

Audacy, Inc. – Shareholders' Agreement Term Sheet

THIS TERM SHEET IS NON-BINDING AND DOES NOT CREATE LEGALLY BINDING OBLIGATIONS AMONG THE PARTIES. THE TERMS CONTEMPLATED HEREIN ARE SUBJECT TO, AMONG OTHER THINGS, DEFINITIVE DOCUMENTATION AND ARE FOR DISCUSSION PURPOSES ONLY. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to such terms in the Audacy, Inc. Restructuring Support Agreement.

Parties	At or immediately following the closing of the restructuring transaction ("Closing"), the holders (the "Equityholders") of common stock (the "Common Stock") of Audacy, Inc. (the "Company") and securities convertible into Common Stock, including the Special Warrants and 2L Warrants (as such terms are defined below and such Special Warrants, 2L Warrants and Common Stock, the "Company Securities"), issued in exchange for the Company's existing first and second lien loans shall, pursuant to the Plan, be deemed to enter into a Shareholders' Agreement (the "Shareholders' Agreement"), pursuant to which the Equityholders will have the rights and obligations as set forth below. The SFM Equityholder (as defined below) and any other Equityholder holding a number of shares of Common Stock equal to at least 25% of the outstanding Common Stock (assuming the exercise of Company Securities held by a particular holder thereof) from time to time shall be a "Major Equityholder" hereunder. [SFM Investing Entity] and its Permitted Transferees shall, collectively, be the "SFM Equityholder" hereunder so long as they continue to hold, on a fully diluted basis, at least 80% of the Common Stock, including Company Securities convertible into Common Stock, issued to the SFM Equityholder at Closing. "Majority Equityholder Approval" means the affirmative vote of Equityholders holding a majority of the Class A Shares. "Supermajority Equityholder Approval" means the affirmative vote of Equityholders holding at least [•] of the Class A Shares. "Eligible Steerco Member" means each member of the steering committee of the Ad Hoc First Lien Group (as such term is defined in the Restructuring Support Agreement) for so long as such member continues to hold all of the Common Stock issued to such member at Closing.

Corporate Form	The Company shall be a [privately held] Delaware corporation, unless otherwise required by applicable law or approved by Supermajority Equityholder Approval.
Classes of Equity	The Common Stock shall be the only class of equity of the Company outstanding at Closing other than (1) special warrants convertible into such Common Stock for purposes of FCC compliance (the "Special Warrants"), (2) warrants issuable to the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group pursuant to the Restructuring Term Sheet (the "2L Warrants", and together with the Special Warrants, the "Warrants"); and (3) equity to be issued under any management incentive plan. The Common Stock shall be further divided into two classes of stock: Class A shares, which shall be voting Common Stock (the "Class A Shares"), and Class B Shares, which shall be non-voting Common Stock (the "Class B Shares").
Transferability	Subject to (i) the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and (ii) compliance with the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules, regulations, and published policies of the FCC related thereto (the "Communications Laws"), neither the Common Stock nor the Warrants shall be subject to restrictions on Transfer other than in connection with a transaction described in this Term Sheet; [provided, that the Common Stock and the Warrants may contain reasonable and customary restrictions designed to maintain the Company as a private company]. Other than in connection with a sale of the Company, Transfers to competitors (which shall be defined in the Shareholders' Agreement) will be prohibited without the consent of the Board. Holders of incentive equity will be prohibited from Transferring other than certain customary estate planning Transfers. The term "Transfer" means any direct or indirect sale, transfer, assignment, conveyance or other disposition, including without limitation by merger, operation of law, bequest or pursuant to any domestic relations order, whether voluntarily or involuntarily. Upon any Transfer, the transferee shall be bound by, shall execute a joinder to, and shall become a party to the Shareholders' Agreement.
Right of First Offer	Other than with respect to (a) a Transfer to a "Permitted Transferee"[1], or (b) a Transfer or a series of Transfers within any 6 month period, of Company Securities constituting less than 4% of the aggregate Company Securities outstanding on the date thereof, in the event that any Equityholder (the "Selling Equityholder") desires to Transfer any Company Securities in one or a series of related transactions, the Selling Equityholder shall provide written notice of such intent (the "Intent to Sell Notice") to each Major Equityholder and each Eligible Steerco Member (collectively, the "Equity Offerees"). After delivery of the Intent to Sell Notice, the Equity Offerees shall have 5 business days (the "Offer Solicitation Period") to submit a written offer (an "Offer Notice") to the Selling Equityholder to purchase a portion of the offered shares based on a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of shares Common Stock held by that Equity Offeree on an as-converted-to Common Stock basis and the denominator of which is the sum of all shares of Common Stock held by all Equity Offerees on an as-converted-to Common Stock basis. In addition, each Equity Offeree will have the right to oversubscribe in its offer for more than its pro rata share of the offered shares in the event not all Equity Offerees exercise their right to make an offer for their full pro rata portion. Each Offer Notice shall set forth the number of offered shares that the Equity Offeree submitting such Offer Notice is offering to purchase as well as the cash purchase price per share and other material terms of such offer. After expiration of the Offer Solicitation Period, the Selling Equityholder may sell any portion of the Company Securities being Transferred either to the Equity Offerees (which may be at any price and on any terms, provided that all Equity Offerees that submitted Offer Notices are entitled to participate pro rata on the same terms and conditions (including purchase price)) or to a purchaser that is not an Equity Offeree at a higher price and other material terms and conditions that are superior to the Selling Equityholder to those set forth in the best offer set forth in the Offer Notices received prior to the expiration of the Offer Solicitation Period. If a sale on such terms is not completed prior to the 30th day following the expiration of the Offer Solicitation Period, then the Selling Equityholder must again comply with these Right of First Offer provisions.

[1] A "Permitted Transferee" of any specified person means any other person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by or under direct or indirect common control with such specified person. For purposes of this definition, "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlling", "controlled by" and "under common control with"), as used with respect to any person, shall mean the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of such person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by agreement or otherwise.

Tag-Along Rights	Other than with respect to a Transfer to (a) a Permitted Transferee or (b) to a Major Equityholder or an Eligible Steerco Member pursuant to the "Right of First Offer" provisions above, in the event an Equityholder (or group of Equityholders) proposes to sell 20% or more of the outstanding Company Securities (each, a "Selling Equityholder"), each of the other Equityholders (other than the SFM Equityholder) shall have "tag-along" rights to participate, on a pro rata basis, in such sale, on the same terms, and subject to the same conditions as the Selling Equityholder(s), including that such other Equityholders shall be required to agree to the representations, warranties, covenants (including restrictive covenants) and indemnities on a several (and not joint or joint and several) basis to which the Selling Equityholder agrees; provided, that any indemnity will (i) be on a pro rata basis and (ii) not exceed the total purchase price received by such Equityholder. At least 15 business days prior to any transfer by the Selling Equityholder(s), such Selling Equityholder(s) shall deliver written notice (the "Tag-Along Notice") to all other Equityholders (other than the SFM Equityholder) specifying the material terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer, including the number of shares to be sold and the price per share, and each such Equityholder may elect to participate in the proposed Transfer up to their pro rata share by delivering written notice to the Selling Equityholder(s) within 10 business days after delivery of the Tag-Along Notice (such Equityholders who timely deliver a valid tag-along election notice, the "Tag-Along Equityholders"). The Selling Equityholder(s) will use commercially reasonable efforts to have the purchaser purchase all shares proposed to be sold by the Selling Equityholder(s) and the Tag-Along Equityholders. If the purchaser refuses to purchase all such shares, the number of shares to be sold to the purchaser by the Selling Equityholder(s) and the Tag-Along Equityholders will be cut back pro rata based on the relative number of all shares owned by such Equityholders in the form of Company Securities.

Drag-Along Rights/ Forced Sale	After the 24-month anniversary of the Company's emergence from bankruptcy, other than with respect to a Transfer to a Permitted Transferee, in the event that the Equityholders holding, together with their Affiliates, in the aggregate, more than 50.1% of the outstanding Company Securities (the "Required Holders"), propose to Transfer all or substantially all of their shares of Company Securities to an unaffiliated third party or parties on an arm's-length basis (a "Majority Sale"), then the Required Holders shall have "drag-along" rights to cause all of the other holders of Company Securities to Transfer all of the Company Securities held by such persons to the proposed transferee(s) under the Majority Sale, at the same price and otherwise on substantially the same terms, and subject to the same conditions, as set forth in the agreements with respect to the Majority Sale. Such dragged holders shall (i) provide customary representations and warranties regarding their legal status and authority, and their ownership of the Company Securities being transferred, and customary (several but not joint) indemnities regarding the same and (ii) not be required to agree to any restrictive covenants other than confidentiality and employee non-solicitation or to indemnify or contribute any amount in excess of the total purchase price received by such dragged holder in any such transfer. Such dragged holder shall participate pro rata in any customary (several but not joint) indemnification with respect to matters other than the representations and warranties described in clause (i) above on a pro rata basis, it being understood that such indemnification shall not exceed the total purchase price received by such Equityholder. After the 24-month anniversary of the Company's emergence from bankruptcy, the Equityholders holding, together with their Affiliates, in the aggregate, at least 50.1% of the outstanding Company Securities shall have the right to cause the Company to retain a nationally recognized investment bank, law firm and other professional advisors to be selected by the Board to initiate and proceed with a bona-fide process to effectuate a sale of the Company and seek to obtain approval from the Board and Majority Equityholder Approval.

Preemptive Rights	Each Equityholder holding, together with its Permitted Transferees, at least 0.5 % of the outstanding Company Securities, shall be entitled to reasonable and customary equity preemptive rights (including, for the avoidance of doubt, rights related to equity-linked and convertible debt issuances), subject to customary exceptions including for Exempt Issuances below. "Exempt Issuances" shall include (i) securities issued in underwritten, broadly-placed public offerings of securities, (ii) securities issued under employee incentive plans approved by the Board, (iii) securities issued to the counterparty of the underlying transaction in connection with acquisitions, joint ventures, borrowings or other strategic operating transactions, and (iv) other customary exceptions.
Information Rights	At all times prior to the Company completing an initial public offering ("IPO"), the Company shall provide to each Equityholder or such Equityholder's Permitted Transferees on an online data site: (1) audited financial statements within [90] days after the end of each fiscal year; and (2) unaudited quarterly financial statements within [45] days after each fiscal quarter end (or, if shorter, in the same time frame required for such financial information to be delivered to lenders under the Company's credit agreement then in effect).[2] No such information shall be required to be provided to any Equityholder if the Board determines in good faith that such Equityholder is, or is an affiliate of, a material competitor of the Company; provided, that in no event shall the SFM Equityholder be considered a competitor of the Company (provided, that the SFM Equityholder shall be subject to the confidentiality provisions and use restrictions with respect to the Company's confidential information). [Certain Equityholders][3] will have the right to obtain such additional information that is reasonably requested (including monthly financial reports and annual budgets), and will have the right to request meetings with management a reasonable number of times per year to discuss the operations and business of the Company. To the extent any Equityholder and its Permitted Transferees acquire additional Company Securities such that such Equityholder and its Permitted Transferees hold at least 10% of the outstanding Company Securities, then such Equityholder shall be entitled to the additional information rights set forth in this paragraph.

Affiliate Transactions	The Company shall not enter into a transaction with affiliates of the Company or its subsidiaries (or the officers, directors, lenders or Equityholders of the Company or its subsidiaries) (an "Affiliate Transaction") unless the terms of such transaction are at least as favorable to the Company as could have been obtained in a comparable arms-length transaction by the Company with an unaffiliated third party as reasonably determined by the Board and if such transaction is reasonably expected to involve greater than $20 million in (a) annual net revenue to the Company in the case of commercial transactions or (b) total consideration in the case of asset sales or any acquisition[4], such transaction is approved by a majority of the disinterested directors then in office. For purposes hereof, Affiliate Transactions shall exclude (i) transactions in respect of credit agreement indebtedness of the Company pursuant to which all creditors similarly situated with the applicable affiliate receive identical treatment to such affiliate or that are expressly permitted by the credit agreement in effect from time to time, (ii) transactions (or series of related transactions) involving less than $2 million in (A) annual net revenue to the Company in the case of commercial transactions or (B) total consideration in the case of the sale of assets or any acquisition, (iii) indemnification, expense advancement and expense reimbursement of employees, officers and directors, (iv) transactions subject to preemptive rights, (v) employment agreements, including with respect to employee compensation and benefits, and (vi) intracompany transactions.
Governance Rights	Except as otherwise set forth below for the election of directors, each Class A Share shall be entitled to one vote and the holders

[3] Note to Draft: Relevant Equityholders to be determined.
[4] Note to Draft: Additional conditions to be determined.

	thereof shall be entitled to vote for all such matters that are put to the Equityholders for approval under the Company's governing documents and applicable law; provided, the Class B Shares, any equity provided under a management incentive plan, the Special Warrants and the 2L Warrants shall be non-voting except as otherwise provided therein. The number of directors on the Board shall be established at 7 directors. The Board initially shall be composed (the "Board") as follows: (i) David Field (or his replacement, if any) for so long as such person is employed by the Company or its subsidiary or affiliate; (ii) Subject to compliance with Communications Laws, the First Lien Ad Hoc Group and/or their respective Permitted Transferees shall be entitled to nominate 5 directors (the "1L Directors"), 1 of which shall serve as the Chairman of the Board; provided, that (x) the SFM Equityholder, for so long as it is the SFM Equityholder, shall be entitled to appoint (A) 3 of the 1L Directors from and after the Closing; and (B) 4 of the 1L Directors at any time when the SFM Equityholder and its affiliates hold 50.1% or more of the outstanding Common Stock on a fully diluted basis in the aggregate; and (y) the holders of the Class A Shares other than the SFM Equityholder shall have the right to nominate the 1L Directors that the SFM Equityholder does not have the right to nominate pursuant to clause (x); and (iii)the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group and/or their respective Permitted Transferees shall be entitled to nominate 1 director who shall be, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Required Consenting First Lien Lenders, an "industry" expert or specialist; provided that if the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group, in the aggregate, owns less than 80% of the aggregate amount of Common Stock (assuming the exercise of 2L Warrants held by a particular holder thereof) issued to the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group at Closing or less than 1% of the outstanding Common Stock on a fully diluted basis in the aggregate, they will no longer be entitled to designate a director for election. To the extent that the SFM Equityholder or the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group loses the ability to appoint or nominate (as applicable) one or more directors above for failing to hold the applicable minimum amount of Common Stock (assuming, in the case of the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group, the exercise of 2L Warrants held by a particular holder thereof), then such Board seat(s) shall be filled by majority vote of the holders of Class A Shares. Any director may be removed for cause from the Board at any time (with or without consent) by a vote of the Class A Shares and the Equityholders designated to appoint or nominate (as applicable) such director shall have the sole right to nominate any replacement thereof. Each of the Major Equityholders, for so long as it is a Major Equityholder, and each Eligible Steerco Member, for so long as it is a Eligible Steerco Member, shall also be entitled to appoint one observer to the Board (and all committees thereof). Such observer to the Board shall be subject to customary confidentiality obligations. A majority of the directors then in office will constitute a quorum; provided, that, a quorum shall require attendance by the director nominated by the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group (subject to adjournment if not present at any duly called meeting, with the adjourned meeting requiring simple majority and permissible on not less than 24 hours' notice). All directors will be entitled to reimbursement of expenses (subject to the Company's expense reimbursement policies in effect from time to time). Any director not employed by an Equityholder will be entitled to mutually agreeable compensation. The costs and expenses incurred by any observer in connection with their service as an observer shall be borne solely by the Equityholder that appointed such observer. The Board nominated at emergence shall remain the Board until completion of the FCC approval process and exercise of the Special Warrants except by written consent of the Required Holders.

Protective Provisions (SFM Equityholder)	So long as the SFM Equityholder or its Permitted Transferees is the SFM Equityholder, the Company shall not, without the consent of the SFM Equityholder, to the extent consistent with Communications Laws: 1. amend, restate or otherwise modify the certificate of incorporation or bylaws in any manner that is adverse to the SFM Equityholder; 2. increase or decrease the size of the Board;

	3. incur or guarantee any debt for borrowed money other than indebtedness up to the capacity of the Company's financing arrangements in place at the Company's emergence from bankruptcy; 4. authorize or issue any equity or equity-linked securities of the Company that are senior to the Common Stock; 5. hire, fire or change the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer; 6. enter into any acquisition of the securities or assets of another entity (other than purchases of goods in the ordinary course of business), in each case, with value in excess of $[●]; 7. cause the Company to file for bankruptcy or insolvency; 8. increase any line item in the annual operating budget of the Company by more than 5% of the amount of such line item in the prior year's annual operating budget; 9. change the primary business of the Company; or 10. agree or commit to take any of the foregoing actions.
Protective Provisions (Supermajority Equityholder Approval)	The Company shall not, without Supermajority Equityholder Approval, to the extent consistent with Communications Laws: 1. amend, restate or otherwise modify the certificate of incorporation or bylaws; 2. increase or decrease the size of the Board; 3. authorize or issue any equity or equity-linked securities of the Company that are senior to the Common Stock; 4. cause the Company to file for bankruptcy or insolvency; 5. change the primary business of the Company; or 6. agree or commit to take any of the foregoing actions.
Termination of Equity Rights	The Equityholder rights set forth herein (other than Registration Rights) shall terminate upon the earlier of (i) an IPO with gross proceeds to the Company of at least $[•] million or (ii) a Transfer of all or substantially all of the Company Securities of the Company in one or a series of related transactions.
Registration Rights	Registration rights of the Equityholders shall be as follows: (i) up to three demand registration rights exercisable by the Major Equityholders collectively after the Company has completed an IPO (with the first demand no earlier than 60 days after the IPO and no more than two demands in any 180-day period), and (ii) unlimited piggyback registration rights exercisable by all Equityholders. Each Equityholder shall be entitled to exercise its registration rights for all Registrable Securities it holds (subject to pro rata underwriter cutbacks, it being understood that management owners may be subject to an underwriter cutback in the absence of a cutback for other Equityholders or to a disproportionate cutback). Each Equityholder holding, together with its Permitted Transferees, at least [•] of the outstanding Common Stock, will, if requested by the managing underwriter, agree to a 180-day lockup period (on customary terms) following the consummation of the IPO. The Company will provide customary indemnification and will pay all expenses of registration, including the expenses (including one counsel) of any demanding Equityholder and the expenses of a single counsel selected by the selling Equityholders as a group in a piggyback registration based on a vote calculated by ownership of Common Stock of such Equityholders. "Registrable Securities" means, at any time, any shares of Common Stock (including shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrants), and any securities issued or issuable in respect of such shares of Common Stock, by way of conversion, exchange, stock dividend, split or combination, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, other reorganization or otherwise. Following an IPO, the Company shall enter into a new registration rights agreement on substantially the same terms as those set forth herein, assuming that the Shareholders' Agreement terminates upon an IPO.

Amendments	Amendments, waivers and modifications to the Shareholders' Agreement shall require approval of the Board and the SFM Equityholder; provided that no Equityholder shall be disproportionately, materially and adversely affected by such an amendment, waiver or modification without the written consent of such affected Equityholder; provided, further, the SFM Equityholder shall not be permitted to amend any of the following provisions without obtaining Majority Equityholder Approval (without taking into account the SFM Equityholder): provisions pertaining to Tag-Along Rights, Drag-Along Rights and Forced Sale; Preemptive Rights; Information Rights; the Right of First Offer; provisions pertaining to Affiliate Transactions; and the definition of Majority Equityholder Approval; provided, further, the SFM Equityholder shall not be permitted to amend the following provision without obtaining Supermajority Equityholder Approval (without taking into account the SFM Equityholder): Protective Provisions (Supermajority Equityholder Approval); and the definition of Supermajority Equityholder Approval; provided, further, the SFM Equityholder shall not be permitted to amend the right of any Equityholder or group of Equityholders to nominate a director to the Board without approval from each applicable Equityholder.

Confidentiality	The Shareholders' Agreement shall contain a reasonable and customary confidentiality provision (and use restrictions).
Jurisdiction	Delaware (and the courts located in Wilmington, Delaware).

MULTIPLE OWNERSHIP SERVICE CONTOUR ANALYSIS

Prepared for
Audacy License, LLC
February 2024

The attached analysis of compliance with the radio multiple ownership rules was prepared in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Federal Communications Commission, on behalf of Audacy License, LLC.

Unrated Market

WLKK(FM) operates within the Buffalo-Niagara Falls Nielsen rated market. The station's community of license Wethersfield Township, however, is located outside the Buffalo-Niagara Falls metro counties, in adjacent Wyoming County. Therefore an unrated market ownership study has been prepared to demonstrate full compliance with §73.3555 of the Commission's Rules.

As is demonstrated on the attached Ownership Overview Map, WLKK has principal community contour overlap with only certain attributable stations in the area, forming a station cluster comprised of the following:[1]

WLKK(FM)	299B	Wethersfield Township
WGR(AM)	550 kHz	Buffalo
WBEN(AM)	930 kHz	Buffalo
WWKB(AM)	1520 kHz	Buffalo

[1] The map exhibit demonstrates that WLKK does not have principal community contour overlap with two other Audacy stations in Buffalo (WWWS and WKSE), nor with the Audacy stations in the adjacent Rochester market.

Analysis has been made consistent with the Commission's rules for unrated markets. The 70 dBu contours of FM stations were determined from the technical data contained in the most recent edition of the FCC FM Database. The listed antenna height above average terrain was used together with topographic data obtained from the digitized 30 second or 3 second database. The 5 mV/m daytime contours of AM stations were determined from the technical data contained in the most recent edition of the FCC AM Database. The listed antenna parameter information was used together with a digitized version of the FCC M-3 or Region II ground conductivity database. The service contours were plotted using correct map projection mathematics. A list of all stations considered is included with this statement.

In counting stations providing service to the "market" defined by each of the discrete clusters formed in unrated markets, stations whose transmitter sites are located in excess of 92 km from the perimeter of the common overlap area have been excluded, as have other stations to be commonly-owned but which are not a part of the discrete cluster being studied.

This exhibit evidences at least the minimum number of stations necessary to demonstrate compliance with the rules concerning radio multiple ownership in unrated markets. In order to qualify for common ownership of this 3AM/1FM cluster, there must be at least 8 stations in the relevant "market". This study demonstrates that there are at least 41 stations in the relevant market.

Based on principal community contour overlap, WLKK forms a single cluster comprised of the following attributable stations:

MULTIPLE OWNERSHIP SERVICE CONTOUR ANALYSIS

Prepared for
Audacy License, LLC
February 2024

The attached analysis of compliance with the radio multiple ownership rules was prepared in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Federal Communications Commission, on behalf of Audacy License, LLC.

Unrated Market

WKTK(FM) operates within the Gainesville-Ocala Nielsen rated market. The station's community of license Crystal River, however, is located outside the Gainesville-Ocala metro counties, in adjacent Citrus County. Therefore an unrated market ownership study has been prepared to demonstrate full compliance with §73.3555 of the Commission's Rules.

As is demonstrated on the attached Ownership Overview Map, WKTK has principal community contour overlap with only one other attributable station in the area, forming a station cluster comprised of the following:[1]

WKTK(FM)	253C1	Crystal River
WSKY-FM	247C2	Micanopy

Analysis has been made consistent with the Commission's rules for unrated markets. The 70 dBu contours of FM stations were determined from the technical data contained in the most recent edition of the FCC FM Database. The listed antenna height above average terrain was used together with topographic data obtained from the digitized 30 second or 3 second database. The 5 mV/m daytime contours of AM stations were determined from the technical data contained in the most recent edition of the FCC AM Database. The listed antenna parameter information was used together with a digitized version of the FCC M-3 or Region II ground conductivity database. The service contours were plotted using correct map projection mathematics. A list of all stations considered is included with this statement.

This exhibit evidences at least the minimum number of stations necessary to demonstrate compliance with the rules concerning radio multiple ownership in unrated markets. In order to qualify for common ownership of this 0AM/2FM cluster, there must be at least 4 stations in the relevant "market". This study demonstrates that there are at least 41 stations in the relevant market.

MULTIPLE OWNERSHIP SERVICE CONTOUR ANALYSIS

Prepared for
Audacy License, LLC
February 2024

The attached analysis of compliance with the radio multiple ownership rules was prepared in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Federal Communications Commission, on behalf of Audacy License, LLC.

Unrated Market

WJMH(FM) operates within the Greensboro-Winston-Salem-High Point Nielsen rated market. The station's community of license Reidsville, however, is located outside the Greensboro-Winston-Salem-High Point metro counties, in adjacent Rockingham County. Therefore an unrated market ownership study has been prepared to demonstrate full compliance with §73.3555 of the Commission's Rules.

As is demonstrated on the attached Ownership Overview Map, WJMH has principal community contour overlap with three other attributable stations in the area, forming a station cluster comprised of the following:

WJMH(FM)	271C0	Reidsville
WPAW(FM)	226C	Winston-Salem
WQMG(FM)	246C0	Greensboro
WSMW(FM)	254C0	Greensboro

Analysis has been made consistent with the Commission's rules for unrated markets. The 70 dBu contours of FM stations were determined from the technical data contained in the most recent edition of the FCC FM Database. The listed antenna height above average terrain was used together with topographic data obtained from the digitized 30 second or 3 second database. The 5 mV/m daytime contours of AM stations were determined from the technical data contained in the most recent edition of the FCC AM Database. The listed antenna parameter information was used together with a digitized version of the FCC M-3 or Region II ground conductivity database. The service contours were plotted using correct map projection mathematics. A list of all stations considered is included with this statement.

In counting stations providing service to the "market" defined by each of the discrete clusters formed in unrated markets, stations whose transmitter sites are located in excess of 92 km from the perimeter of the common overlap area have been excluded, as have other stations to be commonly-owned but which are not a part of the discrete cluster being studied.

This exhibit evidences at least the minimum number of stations necessary to demonstrate compliance with the rules concerning radio multiple ownership in unrated markets. In order to qualify for common ownership of this 0AM/4FM cluster, there must be at least 15 stations in the relevant "market". This study demonstrates that there are at least 65 stations in the relevant market.

MULTIPLE OWNERSHIP SERVICE CONTOUR ANALYSIS

Prepared for
Audacy License, LLC
February 2024

The attached analysis of compliance with the radio multiple ownership rules was prepared in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Federal Communications Commission, on behalf of Audacy License, LLC.

Unrated Market

WTPT(FM) operates within the Greenville-Spartanburg Nielsen rated market. The station's community of license Forest City, however, is located outside the Greenville-Spartanburg metro counties, in adjacent Rockingham County. Therefore an unrated market ownership study has been prepared to demonstrate full compliance with §73.3555 of the Commission's Rules.

As is demonstrated on the attached Ownership Overview Map, WTPT has principal community contour overlap with the following six other attributable stations in the area:

WTPT(FM)	227C	Forest City
WFBC-FM	229C	Greenville
WROQ(FM)	266C1	Anderson
WSPA-FM	255C	Spartanburg
WYRD-FM	292C3	Simpsonville
WORD	950 kHz	Spartanburg
WYRD	1330 kHz	Greenville

The overlaps form two discrete clusters as detailed below.

Analysis has been made consistent with the Commission's rules for unrated markets. The 70 dBu contours of FM stations were determined from the technical data contained in the most recent edition of the FCC FM Database. The listed antenna height above average terrain was used together with topographic data obtained from the digitized 30 second or 3 second database. The 5 mV/m daytime contours of AM stations were determined from the technical data contained in the most recent edition of the FCC AM Database. The listed antenna parameter information was used together with a digitized version of the FCC M-3 or Region II ground conductivity database. The service contours were plotted using correct map projection mathematics. A list of all stations considered is included with this statement.

In counting stations providing service to the "market" defined by each of the discrete clusters formed in unrated markets, stations whose transmitter sites are located in excess of 92 km from the perimeter of the common overlap area have been excluded, as have other stations to be commonly-owned but which are not a part of the discrete cluster being studied.

Cluster A: WTPT(FM), WFBC-FM, WROQ(FM), WSPA-FM, WYRD-FM, WORD(AM)

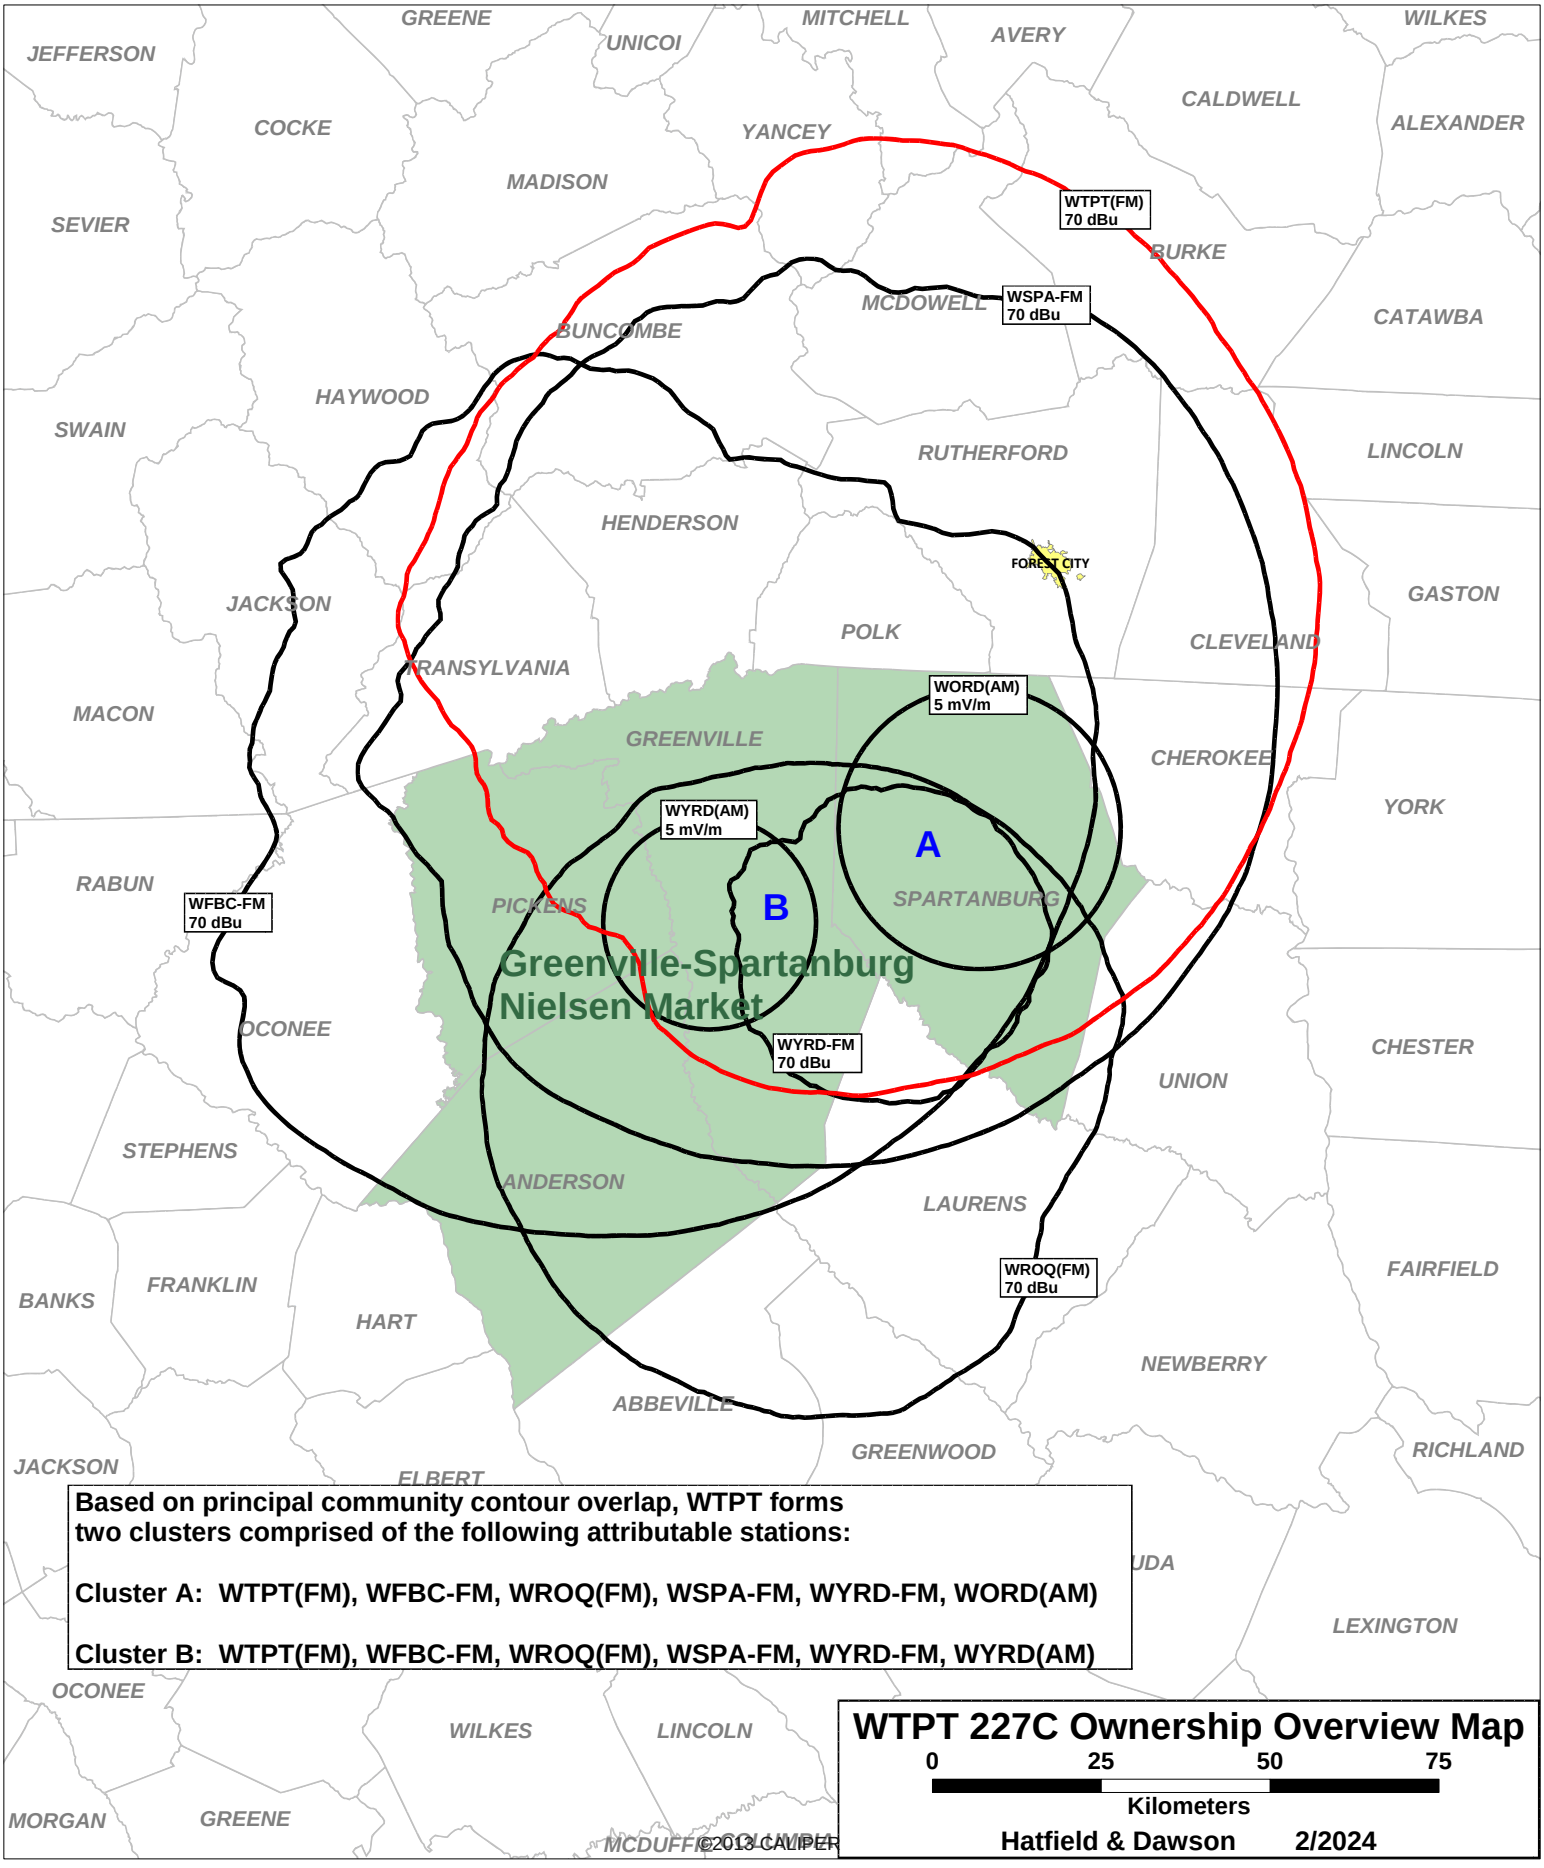
This exhibit evidences at least the minimum number of stations necessary to demonstrate compliance with the rules concerning radio multiple ownership in unrated markets. In order to qualify for common ownership of this 1AM/5FM cluster, there must be at least 45 stations in the relevant "market". This study demonstrates that there are at least 81 stations in the relevant market.

Cluster B: WTPT(FM), WFBC-FM, WROQ(FM), WSPA-FM, WYRD-FM, WYRD(AM)

This exhibit evidences at least the minimum number of stations necessary to demonstrate compliance with the rules concerning radio multiple ownership in unrated markets. In order to qualify for common ownership of this 1AM/5FM cluster, there must be at least 45 stations in the relevant "market". This study demonstrates that there are at least 81 stations in the relevant market.

February 26, 2024

Erik C. Swanson



Based on principal community contour overlap, WTPT forms two clusters comprised of the following attributable stations:

Restructuring Steps Transaction Memorandum

Restructuring Transaction Steps Memorandum

Pursuant to the Joint Prepackaged Plan of Reorganization for Audacy, Inc. and its Affiliate Debtors Under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 24] (as may be amended, modified or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan"), the Debtors currently anticipate that the following Restructuring Transactions shall occur in the following order, and shall, together with the distributions set forth in Articles II and III of the Plan, be deemed as one integrated transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. This Restructuring Transaction Steps Memorandum, together with the Plan, is intended to be, and hereby is adopted as, a "plan of reorganization" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations sections 1.368-2(g) and 1.368-3(a) to which Parent, Audacy Operations, Inc., Audacy Corp., Audacy Capital Corp. and Holders of applicable Allowed Claims are parties under section 368(b) of the Tax Code. All terms used but not defined herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Plan.

Step 1 [On the Effective Date, Audacy, Inc. shall convert to a Delaware corporation.]

Step 2 Immediately after Step 1, Audacy Operations, Inc. shall convert to a Delaware limited liability company.

Step 3 Immediately after Step 2, Audacy Corp. shall convert to a Delaware limited liability company.

Step 4 Immediately after Step 3, Parent shall transfer the Plan Securities to Audacy Capital Corp. as prepayment in consideration for the assets treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as being received by Parent in Step 6.

Step 5 Immediately after Step 4, Audacy Capital Corp. shall distribute the Plan Securities received in Step 4 to Holders of Allowed Claims pursuant to the Plan. Solely for administrative convenience, the distributions in accordance with this Step 5 may be made directly by Reorganized Parent or other applicable Distribution Agent; provided, that the transactions shall be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as occurring as described in Step 4 and this Step 5.

Step 6 Immediately after Step 5, Audacy Capital Corp. shall convert to a Delaware limited liability company.

EXHIBIT B

Equity Allocation Mechanism

EQUITY ALLOCATION MECHANISM

The allocation of Plan[1] consideration to Electing DIP Lenders, Holders of Allowed First Lien Claims, and Holders of Allowed Second Lien Notes Claims, as of the Effective Date, will include distributing Class A New Common Stock, Class B New Common Stock (collectively, the "New Common Stock"), and Special Warrants, to the extent provided for in the Plan and in accordance with the mechanism set forth below.[2] Electing DIP Lenders, Holders of Allowed First Lien Claims, and Holders of Allowed Second Lien Notes Claims that are eligible to receive any form of Plan Securities as of the Effective Date are referred to herein as "Security Recipients." The exercise of any Special Warrants after the Effective Date will be subject to the terms of the Special Warrant Agreement.

GENERAL:

1. Ownership Certification. In order to be eligible to receive a distribution of New Common Stock on the Effective Date, each Security Recipient shall have provided a timely Ownership Certification in accordance with the FCC Ownership Procedures Order.

2. Definition.

   (a) An "Ownership Certification" means a written certification, in the forms[3] attached to the FCC Ownership Procedures Order, which shall be sufficient to enable the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, to determine (i) the extent to which direct and indirect voting and equity interests of the certifying party are held by non-U.S. Persons, as determined under Communications Laws; and (ii) whether the holding of more than 4.99% of the Class A New Common Stock by the certifying party would result in a violation of Communications Laws or be inconsistent with the FCC Approval; provided, that a Security Recipient may elect not to provide the information in the foregoing clause (ii), and any Ownership Certification without the information in the foregoing clause (ii) shall not prohibit a Security Recipient from receiving up to 4.99% of the Class A New Common Stock to the extent otherwise eligible therefor pursuant to this Equity Allocation Mechanism.

[1] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Joint Prepackaged Plan of Reorganization for Audacy, Inc. and Its Affiliate Debtors Under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 24] (the "Plan") or the Order (I) Establishing Procedures for Compliance with FCC Media and Foreign Ownership Requirements and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 78] (the "FCC Ownership Procedures Order").

[2] For the avoidance of doubt, the procedures set forth in this Equity Allocation Mechanism shall not impact the issuance of (a) securities or other instruments under the Management Incentive Plan, which issuance shall be governed by the terms of the Management Incentive Plan or (b) the New Second Lien Warrants, which issuance shall be governed by the terms of the New Second Lien Warrants Agreement and the Plan.

[3] Pursuant to the FCC Ownership Procedures Order, DIP Lenders and Holders of Allowed First Lien Claims are required to complete a separate form for their DIP Claims and First Lien Claims, respectively, as compared to Holders of Allowed Second Lien Claims on account of Second Lien Notes Claims.

3. Attributable Interests. Subject in all respects to the foreign ownership limitations discussed below, under Communications Laws, an owner of equity in a corporation which controls FCC broadcast licenses may be deemed "attributable" if it owns, directly or indirectly, 5% or more of the voting equity of such corporation. The distribution of New Common Stock to a Security Recipient may be in the form of more than 4.99% of the outstanding Class A New Common Stock when the shares of Class A New Common Stock are issued on and as of the Effective Date, only if such Security Recipient is identified on the FCC Interim Long Form Application (as the same may be amended or modified from time to time) pursuant to which FCC Approval is granted as the holder of an attributable interest in Reorganized Parent; provided, however, that investment companies, as defined in 15 U.S.C. § 80a–3, insurance companies and banks holding stock through their trust departments in trust accounts, may hold up to 19.99% of the Class A New Common Stock to the extent they otherwise qualify as holding a non-attributable interest pursuant to Communications Laws (and thus would not need to be identified in the FCC Interim Long Form Application). If such Security Recipient elects not to be deemed to hold an "attributable" interest in Reorganized Parent or is otherwise not identified in the FCC Interim Long Form Application, then such Security Recipient may be issued up to 4.99% (or up to 19.99%, if applicable) of the outstanding Class A New Common Stock when all shares of Class A New Common Stock are issued on and as of the Effective Date, with any remaining distribution in the form of Class B New Common Stock (and/or Special Warrants to the extent necessary to comply with foreign ownership limitations).

ALLOCATION OF PLAN SECURITIES:

The distribution of New Common Stock and Special Warrants made on and as of the Effective Date shall be as follows:

1. First, the

   (a) DIP-to-Exit Equity Distribution shall be deemed made Pro Rata among the Electing DIP Lenders;

   (b) the First Lien Claims Equity Distribution shall be deemed made Pro Rata among Holders of Allowed First Lien Claims; and

   (c) the Second Lien Notes Claims Equity Distribution shall be deemed made Pro Rata among Holders of Allowed Second Lien Notes Claims; provided, that each of the DIP-to-Exit Equity Distribution, the First Lien Claims Equity Distribution, and the Second Lien Notes Claims Equity Distribution shall be deemed to have been made initially in the form of Special Warrants as of the Effective Date.

2. Second:

   (a) Each deemed holder of Special Warrants that (i) has timely delivered an Ownership Certification as set forth in the FCC Ownership Procedures Order; (ii) has provided certification therein that its foreign ownership, as calculated in accordance with Communications Laws, is 0%; and (iii) has not selected the "Special Warrants Only Election" on its Ownership Certification, shall be deemed to have exercised its Special Warrants as of the Effective Date to the fullest extent possible for the applicable number of shares of Class B New Common Stock.

(b) Any deemed holder of Class B New Common Stock that has not selected the "Class B Election" on its Ownership Certification shall be further deemed as of the Effective Date to have immediately exchanged such shares of Class B New Common Stock for a like number of shares of Class A New Common Stock, subject in all respects to the 4.99% Rule (as defined below) and the 19.99% Rule (as defined below), as applicable.

(c) For any deemed holder of Class B New Common Stock that would be eligible to exchange its shares for more than 4.99% of the outstanding Class A New Common Stock when all shares of Class A New Common Stock are issued on and as of the Effective Date but has elected to be limited to holding up to 4.99% of the outstanding Class A New Common Stock, the number of shares of Class B New Common Stock exchanged by such Security Recipient for shares of Class A New Common Stock shall be limited so that such Security Recipient receives shares of Class A New Common Stock constituting no more than 4.99% of the total outstanding Class A New Common Stock issued, subject in all respects to section 7 below.

(d) A deemed holder of Class B New Common Stock that (i) has not selected the "4.99% Election" on its Ownership Certification; and (ii) is identified on the FCC Interim Long Form Application (as the same may be amended or modified from time to time) pursuant to which FCC Approval is granted as the holder of an attributable interest in Reorganized Parent shall be eligible to obtain shares of Class A New Common Stock constituting more than 4.99% of the total outstanding Class A New Common Stock issued (subsections 2(c) and 2(d), collectively, the "4.99% Rule"), subject in all respects to section 7 below.

(b) Such allocation to Non-U.S. Holders shall be made on a proportional basis, such that (i) the portion of each Non-U.S. Holder's Special Warrants corresponding to the percentage of such Non-U.S. Holder's equity interests that are not foreign owned and/or the percentage of voting rights in such Non-U.S. Holder that are not foreign owned, as determined by the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, will be deemed to have been exercised to the fullest extent possible for the corresponding number of shares of Class B New Common Stock; and (ii) all or a portion of each Non-U.S. Holder's remaining Special Warrants will be deemed to have been exercised to the fullest extent possible for the corresponding number of shares of Class B New Common Stock that complies with the 22.5% Rule, allocated among all such Non-U.S. Holders based on the aggregate number of Special Warrants held by all such Non-U.S. Holders after giving effect to subsection 3(b)(i), subject in all respects to the 4.99% Rule and the 19.99% Rule (e.g., assuming all Special Warrants are not exercisable on the Effective Date, a Non-U.S. Holder with a 1.0% foreign ownership will be deemed to have exercised more Special Warrants into New Common Stock than a Non-U.S. Holder with an equivalent amount of Special Warrants but a 20% foreign ownership).

(c) Any Security Recipient deemed to receive Class B New Common Stock pursuant to 3(b) above that has not selected the "Class B Election" on its Ownership Certification shall be further deemed to have immediately exchanged such shares of Class B New Common Stock for a like number of shares of Class A New Common Stock, subject in all respects to the 4.99% Rule and the 19.99% Rule.

(d) Each deemed holder of Special Warrants that has not timely delivered an Ownership Certification as set forth in the FCC Ownership Procedures Order, or that does not do so to the reasonable satisfaction of the Debtors, shall not be deemed to have exercised any Special Warrants as of the Effective Date, unless the Debtors, after consultation with the Required Consenting First Lien Lenders and the Required Consenting Second Lien Noteholders, or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, have determined instead to treat such Security Recipient as being 100% foreign owned and eligible to participate as a Non-U.S. Holder in the distribution set forth in subsections 3(a)-3(c) above.

4. Holder Elections. All Security Recipients will be considered for eligibility to receive Class A New Common Stock to the extent consistent with Communications Laws. However, each Security Recipient may decline or limit the amount of New Common Stock to be distributed to it on the Effective Date, in accordance with and subject to the procedures established by the FCC Ownership Procedures Order. Specifically, subject to section 7 below, a Security Recipient may, by making the appropriate election on its Ownership Certification, receive its DIP-to-Exit Equity Distribution, First Lien Claims Equity Distribution, or Second Lien Notes Claims Equity Distribution, as the case may be,

   (a) entirely in the form of Special Warrants and shall not be deemed to have exercised any Special Warrants;

   (b) in Special Warrants deemed to have been exercised for shares of Class B New Common Stock to the extent provided in Sections 2 and 3 above, with any remaining Special Warrants not being deemed exercised; or

   (c) in Special Warrants deemed to have been exercised for shares of Class B New Common Stock, which are converted to shares of Class A New Common Stock to the extent provided in Sections 2 and 3 above, with any remaining Special Warrants not being deemed exercised.

5. Second Lien Notes Trading Deadlines and Tendering Procedures. Holders of Second Lien Notes Claims shall be required to tender their Second Lien Notes into the Automated Tender Offer Program ("ATOP")[4] system of DTC as set forth in the FCC Ownership Procedures Order by no later than the applicable deadline set forth in the FCC Ownership Procedures Order (the "Note Delivery Deadline").[5] Upon tendering to ATOP, the positions of such Holders of the Second Lien Notes will be segregated through ATOP and such Holders thereafter will be unable to trade their Second Lien Notes Claims; provided, that until the Note Delivery Deadline, such Holders may withdraw any previously tendered Second Lien Notes from ATOP to trade their Second Lien Notes Claims.

6. Distributions on Account of Allowed DIP Claims and Allowed First Lien Claims. Distributions to Electing DIP Lenders on account of their Allowed DIP Claims and to Holders of Allowed First Lien Claims on account of their Allowed First Lien Claims will be made based on the DIP Agent's register or the First Lien Agent's register, as applicable, as of the Distribution Record Date and trades not reflected on such register shall not be recognized for purposes of distributions under the Plan, unless, in accordance with the FCC Ownership Procedures Order, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Certification Agent and the DIP Agent and/or First Lien Agent (in consultation with the Ad Hoc First Lien Group Advisors), the applicable claims and register can be reconciled.

[4] The Debtors expect that the delivery of Second Lien Notes will occur via ATOP; however, DTC must agree to permit ATOP's use for this purpose. If ATOP cannot be used for any reason, then submissions will instead be required to occur via Deposit or Withdrawal At Custodian ("DWAC"), with withdrawal to be coordinated by each Holder's DTC participant (the "DTC Participant").

[5] Such deadlines may be extended in accordance with the FCC Ownership Procedures Order.

7. FCC Limits on Ownership. Notwithstanding anything else herein, nothing in this Equity Allocation Mechanism shall (a) permit any Entity to, at any given time, obtain or hold more than 4.99% of the outstanding Class A New Common Stock on or after the Effective Date unless the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, have determined that such ownership will not cause a violation of Communications Laws or be inconsistent with the FCC Approval; or (b) cause Reorganized Parent to exceed an aggregate foreign ownership percentage (on an equity or on a voting basis) of 22.50% in the New Common Stock on the Effective Date and prior to the Declaratory Ruling. Any distribution in contravention of the preceding sentence shall be adjusted to the minimum extent necessary to comply with these limitations. In determining whether any Entity would hold more than 4.99% (or 19.99% if applicable) of the outstanding Class A New Common Stock on or after the Effective Date, such Entity will be attributed with any New Common Stock held by another Entity under common management or that otherwise would be aggregated under the FCC's ownership attribution rules.

(a) In connection with the exercise of any Special Warrant, a Holder shall (i) surrender such Special Warrant (or portion thereof) to the Reorganized Parent corresponding to the number of Special Warrant Shares being exercised, (ii) pay to the Reorganized Parent the aggregate Exercise Price for the number of Special Warrant Shares being exercised, at the option of such Holder, in United States dollars by wire transfer to an account specified in writing by the Reorganized Parent to such Holder, in immediately available funds in an amount equal to the aggregate Exercise Price for such Special Warrant Shares as specified in the Exercise Form and (iii) comply with Section 6.4.

Moreover, the Reorganized Parent reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to any particular exercise of Special Warrants or any defects in the Exercise Form(s) with regard to any particular exercise of Special Warrants. The Reorganized Parent shall provide prompt written notice to the Holder of any such rejection or waiver and in any event within five (5) Business Days of any such determination.

(f) Without limiting the foregoing and notwithstanding any provisions contained herein to the contrary, (i) no Holder shall be entitled to exercise any Special Warrant until all Regulatory Approvals required to be made to or obtained from any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over the Reorganized Parent or its Subsidiaries have been made or obtained, and in the event that all required Regulatory Approvals are not received, the Holder shall continue to hold its Special Warrants; and (ii) the Reorganized Parent may (x) prohibit the exercise of Special Warrants which may, in the Reorganized Parent's reasonable determination, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, cause more than 22.5% of the Reorganized Parent's outstanding equity interests or the equity of any Subsidiary of the Reorganized Parent to be, directly or indirectly, owned or voted by or for the account of non-U.S. persons as determined pursuant to the Communications Laws, or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, non-U.S. persons, if such ownership or vote by non-U.S. persons (or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, non-U.S. persons) would cause the Reorganized Parent or any of its Subsidiaries to be in violation of the Communications Laws, (y) require Specific Approval prior to any exercise of a Special Warrant by a Non-U.S. Person (or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, Non-U.S. Persons) [at the level of 22.5% or more] to the extent necessary under the Communications Laws or the terms of any declaratory ruling obtained by Reorganized Parent or (z) prohibit the exercise of any Special Warrants if such exercise would, in the Reorganized Parent's reasonable determination, (A) result in a violation of applicable laws or regulations[, (B) involve circumstances that the Board of Directors determines could require the registration or qualification of any class of Common Stock or require the Reorganized Parent to file reports pursuant to any applicable federal or state securities laws or (C) subject the Reorganized Parent to regulation under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Investment Advisors Act of 1940, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or other applicable law or regulation, each as amended.][2]

(g) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, it shall be a condition to the exercise of any Special Warrant that upon receipt of Special Warrant Shares upon exercise, the Holder shall be deemed to have become a party to the New Shareholders' Agreement (if not already a party thereto), irrespective of whether such Holder physically executes the New Shareholders' Agreement.

(h) [As soon as reasonably practicable upon][Upon] receipt of all necessary Regulatory Approvals, including grant by the FCC of the Petition for Declaratory Ruling approving foreign ownership of the Reorganized Parent in excess of 25% and receipt of the FCC's Specific Approval of any Holder requiring such approval, [the Reorganized Parent shall issue a notice ("Exchange Notice") specifying a deadline for Holders to return an Election Form, which deadline shall be [10] Business Days after the date of the Exchange Notice.] and provided that (i) a Holder has complied with the requirements of Sections 3.3(a) and 3.3(d), and (ii) the Reorganized Parent has reasonably determined that (x) such Holder's exercise of its Special Warrants does not violate any of the Communications Laws or the Securities Act or any decision, rule, regulation, policy, order or declaratory ruling issued by the FCC or the SEC, as applicable and (y) all conditions imposed by the FCC or any other Governmental Authority have been satisfied, such Holder's Special Warrants shall be automatically deemed exercised for either Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock (or both) pursuant to the election made by such Holder on its Exercise Form. [Special Warrants held by a Holder that does not timely deliver an Exercise Form shall be automatically deemed exercised for only Class B Common Stock.]

(i) If any full or partial exercise of Special Warrants is permitted for any Holder, each other Holder will be given the same opportunity to exercise its Special Warrants pro rata (subject to the same conditions), to the extent consistent with the Communications Laws or any order or ruling issued by the FCC or any other Governmental Authority. If any conditions to exercise of Special Warrants are modified or waived for any Holder, each other Holder will be offered the benefits of such modification or waiver (subject to the same conditions), to the extent consistent with the Communications Laws or any order or ruling issued by the FCC or any other Governmental Authority.

Section 3.4. Issuance of Common Stock.

(a) Following the valid exercise of any Special Warrants, the Reorganized Parent shall, subject to Section 3.7, promptly at its expense, and in no event later than five (5) Business Days after the Exercise Date, cause to be issued as directed by the Holder of such Special Warrants the total number of whole Special Warrant Shares for which such Special Warrants are being exercised (as the same may have been adjusted pursuant to Article IV) in such denominations as are requested by the Holder and registered as directed by the Holder.

(b) The Special Warrant Shares shall be deemed to have been issued at the time at which all of the conditions to such exercise set forth in Section 3.3 have been fulfilled (the "Exercise Date"), and the Holder, or, subject to Section 3.4(a), such other person to whom the Holder shall direct the issuance thereof, shall be deemed for all purposes to have become the holder of such Special Warrant Shares at such time.

Section 3.5. Reservation of Shares.

(a) The Reorganized Parent shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock solely for the purpose of issuance upon the exercise of the Special Warrants, a number of shares of Class A New Common Stock and Class B New Common Stock equal to the aggregate Special Warrant Shares issuable upon the exercise of all outstanding Special Warrants. The Reorganized Parent shall take all such actions as may be necessary to assure that all such shares of Common Stock may be so issued without violating the Governing Documents, any agreements to which the Reorganized Parent is a party on the date hereof or on the date of such issuance, any requirements of any national securities exchange upon which shares of Common Stock, or any other securities of the Reorganized Parent, may be listed or any applicable Laws. The Reorganized Parent shall not take any action which would cause the number of authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock to be less than the number of such shares required to be reserved hereunder for issuance upon exercise of the Special Warrants.

(b) The Reorganized Parent covenants that it will take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate in order that all Special Warrant Shares issued upon exercise of the Special Warrants will, upon issuance in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, be validly issued, fully paid and non- assessable, and free from any and all (i) security interests created by or imposed upon the Reorganized Parent and (ii) taxes, liens and charges with respect to the issuance thereof. If at any time the number and kind of authorized but unissued shares of the Reorganized Parent's capital stock shall not be sufficient to permit exercise in full of the Special Warrants, the Reorganized Parent will as promptly as practicable take such corporate action as may, in the opinion of its counsel, be reasonably necessary (including seeking stockholder approval, if required) to increase its authorized but unissued shares to such number of shares as shall be sufficient for such purposes.

Section 3.6. Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Reorganized Parent shall not be required to issue any fraction of a Special Warrant Share in connection with the exercise of any Special Warrants. In any case where the Holder of Special Warrants would, except for the provisions of this Section 3.6, be entitled under the terms thereof to receive a fraction of a share upon the exercise of such Special Warrants, the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise thereof will be rounded (i) up to the next higher whole share of Common Stock if the fraction is equal to or greater than 1/2 and (ii) down to the next lower whole share of Common Stock if the fraction is less than 1/2; provided that the number of whole Special Warrant Shares which shall be issuable upon the contemporaneous exercise of any Special Warrants by any Holder shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate number of Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of all such Special Warrants.

Section 3.7. Close of Books; Par Value.

(a) The Reorganized Parent shall not close its books against the transfer of any Special Warrants or any Special Warrant Shares in any manner which interferes with the timely exercise of such Special Warrants.

(b) Without limiting Section 3.5,

(i) the Reorganized Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to, from time to time, take all such action as may be necessary to assure that the par value per share of the unissued shares of Common Stock acquirable upon exercise of the Special Warrants is at all times equal to or less than the Exercise Price then in effect; and

(ii) the Reorganized Parent will not increase the stated or par value per share, if any, of the Common Stock above the Exercise Price per share in effect immediately prior to such increase in stated or par value.

Section 3.8. Payment of Taxes. In connection with the exercise of any Special Warrants, the Reorganized Parent shall pay any and all taxes (other than income [or similar] taxes) that may be payable in respect of the issue or delivery of Special Warrant Shares (including certificates therefor). The Reorganized Parent shall not be required, however, to pay any tax or other charge imposed by a Governmental Authority in respect of any transfer involved in the Reorganized Parent's issuance and delivery of any Special Warrant Shares (including certificates therefor) (or any payment of cash or other property in lieu of such shares) to any recipient other than the Holder of the Special Warrants being exercised, and in case of any such tax or other charge for which the Reorganized Parent would otherwise be liable, the Reorganized Parent shall not be required to issue or deliver any such Special Warrant Shares (or cash or other property in lieu of such Special Warrant Shares) until (i) such tax or charge has been paid or an amount sufficient for the payment thereof has been delivered to the Reorganized Parent or (ii) it has been established to the Reorganized Parent's reasonable satisfaction that any such tax or other charge that is or may become due has been paid.

Section 3.9. Redemption Event. If either (i) the Reorganized Parent proposes to redeem all or any portion of the outstanding Common Stock or (ii) the Reorganized Parent otherwise purchases or makes any offer to purchase all or any portion of the outstanding Common Stock (in each case, excluding repurchases and redemptions from any officer or employee of the Reorganized Parent or its Subsidiaries pursuant to an equity incentive plan of the Reorganized Parent approved by the Board of Directors), then the Reorganized Parent shall provide proportional consideration for or a proportional redemption of Special Warrants held by the Holders, as applicable, on the same terms as and at a price equal to the price paid to holders of Common Stock for their shares of Common Stock in connection with the Redemption Event, as if the Special Warrants had been exercised for shares of Common Stock immediately prior to such redemption or purchase.

Section 3.10. Withholding. Subject to Section 3.8, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Special Warrant to the contrary, the Reorganized Parent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold (or cause to be deducted and withheld) from any amounts or property payable or deliverable to any Person pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement or the Special Warrant such amounts as are required to be deducted or withheld under applicable law with respect [to the Special Warrant (and the Reorganized Parent shall be entitled to withhold, for the avoidance of doubt, from any amounts or property that are payable or deliverable with respect to the Special Warrant that are subsequent to the] payment or delivery [or other circumstance that gave rise to the requirement to deduct or withhold under applicable law);] provided that, the Reorganized Parent shall [use its commercially reasonable efforts to] notify such Person of such withholding obligation prior to the date on which such deduction and withholding will be made and the parties shall take commercially reasonable steps to reduce or eliminate any such withholding. Any amounts that are so withheld by the Reorganized Parent shall be paid to the appropriate Governmental Authority [and shall be treated as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such withholding was made].

ADJUSTMENT OF NUMBER OF SPECIAL WARRANT SHARES; OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

Section 4.1. Subdivision or Combination of Common Stock. In the event the Reorganized Parent, at any time or from time to time after the date hereof while any Special Warrant remains outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, increases or decreases by combination (by reverse stock split or reclassification) or subdivision (by any stock split or reclassification) of the Common Stock (other than a stock split effected by means of a stock dividend or stock distribution to which Section 4.2 applies), then and in each such event the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable on exercise of the Special Warrants shall be increased or decreased by multiplying such number of Special Warrant Shares immediately prior to such adjustment by a fraction (i) the numerator of which shall be the Total Shares outstanding immediately following such adjustment and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the Total Shares immediately prior to such adjustment.

Section 4.2. Dividends Payable in Shares of Common Stock. In the event the Reorganized Parent shall, at any time or from time to time after the date hereof while any Special Warrant remains outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, issue shares of Common Stock by means of a dividend payable in shares of Common Stock, then and in each such event the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable on exercise of the Special Warrants shall be increased by multiplying such number of Special Warrant Shares immediately prior to such adjustment by a fraction (i) the numerator of which shall be the Total Shares outstanding immediately following such adjustment and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the Total Shares immediately prior to such adjustment.

Section 4.3. Other Distributions. In the event the Reorganized Parent shall, at any time or from time to time after the date hereof while any Special Warrant remains outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, declare one or more dividends or distributions on the Common Stock payable in cash or any securities (other than shares of Common Stock) or property, with the record date or dates therefor occurring prior to the Exercise Date of the particular Special Warrants, then upon exercise of such Special Warrants, the Reorganized Parent shall pay or issue to the Holder, or, subject to Section 3.4(a), such other Person as the Holder directs, in addition to the issuance to, or at the direction of, the Holder of the Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of the Special Warrants, an amount in cash or such securities or such other property equal to (i) the amount of all dividends or distributions of cash, securities (other than shares of Common Stock) or other property theretofore paid or payable, or issued or issuable, on one share of Common Stock, in each case from the date hereof, multiplied by (ii) the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of such Special Warrants; provided that if a dividend or distribution has been declared but not yet paid or issued, the Reorganized Parent may defer payment or issuance of the dividend or distribution to the Holder, or, subject to Section 3.4(a), such other person to whom the Holder shall direct the issuance thereof, until such time as the dividend or distribution is paid or issued to the holders of the Common Stock generally.

Section 4.4. Organic Change. In the event the Reorganized Parent shall, at any time or from time to time after the date hereof while the Special Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, consummate an Organic Change, each Holder shall be entitled, following consummation of the Organic Change, upon exercise of the Special Warrants to receive the kind and amount of cash, securities or other property that it would have been entitled to receive had such Special Warrants been exercised immediately prior to the consummation of the Organic Change. The Reorganized Parent shall not effect, or enter into an agreement to effect, an Organic Change unless, prior to the consummation of such Organic Change, the surviving Person (if a Person other than the Reorganized Parent) resulting from the Organic Change, shall assume, by written instrument substantially similar in form and substance to this Agreement in all material respects, the obligations under this Agreement, including the obligation to deliver to the Holder such cash, stock, securities or other assets or property which, in accordance with this Section 4.4, the Holder shall be entitled to receive upon exchange or exercise of the Special Warrant. The provisions of this Section 4.4 shall similarly apply to successive Organic Changes.

Section 4.5. Notice of Adjustments. Whenever the number and/or kind of Special Warrant Shares is adjusted as herein provided, the Reorganized Parent shall (i) prepare, or cause to be prepared, a written statement setting forth the adjusted number and/or kind and amount of shares of Common Stock or cash, securities (other than shares of Common Stock) issuable or payable upon the exercise of the Special Warrants after such adjustment, the facts requiring such adjustment and the computation by which adjustment was made, and (ii) give written notice to the Holders, in the manner provided in Section 7.2 below, of the record date or the effective date of the event. Failure to give such notice, or any defect therein, shall not affect the legality or validity of such event.

Section 4.6. Deferral or Exclusion of Certain Adjustments.

(a) No adjustment to the number of Special Warrant Shares shall be required hereunder unless such adjustment together with other adjustments carried forward as provided below, would result in an increase or decrease of at least 0.1% of the applicable Exercise Price or the number of Special Warrant Shares; provided that any adjustments which by reason of this Section 4.6 are not required to be made shall be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment. All calculations under this Section 4.6 shall be made the nearest one one-thousandth (1/1,000) of a share, as the case may be.

(b) In the event that the par value of the shares of Common Stock shall be reduced below the par value on the date hereof, then, without action by the Reorganized Parent or otherwise the Exercise Price shall be automatically reduced to the par value of the shares of the Common Stock as so reduced; provided that for so long as any Special Warrant remains outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, the Reorganized Parent shall not increase the par value of the shares of Common Stock or reduce the par value of the shares of Common Stock to zero.

ARTICLE V

TRANSFER AND EXCHANGE OF SPECIAL WARRANTS

Section 5.1. Registration of Transfers and Exchanges. When Special Warrants are presented to the Reorganized Parent with a written request (i) to register the Transfer of such Special Warrants or (ii) to exchange such Special Warrants for an equal number of Special Warrants of other authorized denominations, the Reorganized Parent shall register the Transfer or make the exchange, as requested if its customary requirements for such transactions are met; provided that (A) the Reorganized Parent shall have received (x) a written instruction of Transfer in form reasonably satisfactory to the Reorganized Parent, duly executed by the Holder thereof or by its attorney, duly authorized in writing along with evidence of authority that may be required by the Reorganized Parent, and (y) if a Person other than the Reorganized Parent is serving as registrar or transfer agent for the Special Warrants, a written order of the Reorganized Parent signed by an officer of the Reorganized Parent authorizing such exchange and (B) if reasonably requested by the Reorganized Parent, the Reorganized Parent shall have received a written opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to the Reorganized Parent that such Transfer is in compliance with the Securities Act or state securities laws and the Communications Laws.

Section 5.2. Procedures for Exchanges and Transfers. Subject to the other sections of this Article V, the Reorganized Parent shall, upon receipt of all information required to be delivered hereunder, from time to time register the Transfer or exchange of any outstanding Special Warrants in the Special Warrant Register, upon delivery by the Holder thereof, at the Reorganized Parent's office designated for such purpose, of a form of assignment (an "Assignment Form") substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto, properly completed and duly executed by the Holder thereof or by the duly appointed legal representative thereof or by a duly authorized attorney.

Section 5.3. Restrictions on Exchanges and Transfers.

(a) No Special Warrants shall be sold, exchanged or otherwise Transferred (A) in violation of (i) the Securities Act or state securities Laws, (ii) the Communications Laws or and (iii) the Governing Documents and (B) unless the transferee delivers to the Reorganized Parent a properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable. If any Holder purports to Transfer Special Warrants to any Person in a transaction that would violate the provisions of this Section 5.3, such Transfer shall be void ab initio and of no effect.

(b) The Reorganized Parent reserves the right, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, to reject any and all Assignment Forms that it reasonably determines are not in proper form or for which any corresponding agreement by the Reorganized Parent to Transfer or exchange would, in the reasonable opinion of the Reorganized Parent, be unlawful. Any such determination by the Reorganized Parent shall be final and binding on the Holder of the Special Warrants, absent manifest error provided that the Reorganized Parent shall provide a Holder with the reasonable opportunity to correct any defects in its Assignment Forms (without prejudicing such Holder's ability to deliver subsequent Assignment Forms). The Reorganized Parent further reserves the right to request such information (including, without limitation, information with respect to citizenship, other ownership interests and Affiliates) as the Reorganized Parent may reasonably deem appropriate, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, to determine whether the Transfer or exchange of the Special Warrants would (i) be unlawful, (ii) subject the Reorganized Parent to any limitation under the Communications Laws that would not apply to the Reorganized Parent but for such exchange, or (iii) limit or impair any business activities of the Reorganized Parent under the Communications Laws, which shall be furnished promptly by any Holder from whom such information is requested as a condition to such Holder's Transfer or exchange of Special Warrants. Moreover, the Reorganized Parent reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to any particular Transfer or exchange of Special Warrants or any defects in the Assignment Form(s) with regard to any particular Transfer or exchange of Special Warrants. The Reorganized Parent shall provide prompt written notice to the Holder of any such rejection or waiver.

(c) Without limiting the foregoing and notwithstanding any provisions contained herein to the contrary,[(i) no Holder shall be entitled to Transfer or exchange any Special Warrant until all Regulatory Approvals required to be made to or obtained from any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over the Reorganized Parent or its Subsidiaries have been made or obtained, and in the event that all required Regulatory Approvals are not received, the Holder shall continue to hold its Special Warrants; and (ii)] the Reorganized Parent may [(x)] prohibit the Transfer or exchange of[Special Warrants which may, in the Reorganized Parent's reasonable determination, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, cause more than 22.5% of the Reorganized Parent's outstanding equity interests or the equity of any Subsidiary of the Reorganized Parent to be directly or indirectly owned or voted by or for the account of non-U.S. persons as determined pursuant to the Communications Laws, or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, non-U.S. persons, if such ownership or vote by non-U.S. persons (or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, non-U.S. persons) at the level of 22.5% or more would cause the Reorganized Parent or any of its Subsidiaries to be in violation of the Communications Laws, (y)

require Specific Approval prior to the Transfer or exchange of a Special Warrant to a Non-U.S. Person (or to any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, Non-U.S. Persons) or (z) prohibit the Transfer of any] Special Warrants if such Transfer would, in the Reorganized Parent's reasonable determination, (i) result in a violation of applicable laws or regulations, (ii) [subject the Reorganized Parent to any limitation under the Communications Laws that would not apply to the Reorganized Parent but for such exchange, (iii) limit or impair any business activities of the Reorganized Parent under the Communications Laws, (iv) involve circumstances that the Board of Directors determines could require the registration or qualification of any class of Common Stock or require the Reorganized Parent to file reports pursuant to any applicable federal or state securities laws or (v) subject the Reorganized Parent to regulation under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Investment Advisors Act of 1940, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or other applicable law or regulation, each as amended.]

Section 5.4. Obligations with Respect to Transfers and Exchanges of Special Warrants. All Special Warrants issued upon any registration of Transfer or exchange of Special Warrants shall be the valid obligations of the Reorganized Parent, entitled to the same benefits under this Agreement as the Special Warrants surrendered upon such registration of Transfer or exchange.

Section 5.5. Fractional Special Warrants. The Reorganized Parent shall not effect any registration of Transfer or exchange which will result in the issuance of a fraction of a Special Warrant.

Section 5.6. New Shareholders' Agreement Transfer Restrictions. Anything to the contrary in this Agreement notwithstanding, no Holder shall be permitted to Transfer a Special Warrant, directly or indirectly, to any Person if such Transfer would be prohibited by the New Shareholders' Agreement with respect to the Special Warrant Shares corresponding to such Special Warrants. For the purposes of this Section 5.6 an indirect transfer shall include the Transfer, directly or indirectly, of a controlling interest of any person of whom the Holder of a Special Warrant is a Subsidiary with the primary purpose of effecting of the Transfer of the ownership of the Special Warrant. All Holders shall comply with transfer restrictions in the New Shareholders' Agreement as though they were a party thereto and such transfer restrictions are incorporated by reference herein.

Section 5.7. Joinder to New Shareholders' Agreement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, it shall be a condition to the Transfer of any Special Warrant that the transferee of such Special Warrant (i) shall comply with Section 5.6 and (ii) to the extent such transferee exercises any Special Warrant, shall execute a joinder to the New Shareholders' Agreement (or, in the case where such transferee does not execute such joinder, shall be deemed to have become a party to the New Shareholders' Agreement, irrespective of whether such transferee physically executes the New Shareholders' Agreement or a joinder thereto).[3]

ARTICLE VI

OTHER PROVISIONS RELATING TO RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF SPECIAL WARRANTS

Section 6.1. No Rights or Liability as Stockholder. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as conferring upon any Holder or its transferees (in its capacity as a Holder), prior to exercise of the Special Warrants, the right to vote or to receive any cash dividends, stock dividends, cash distributions, stock distributions, or allotments of rights or other distributions paid, allotted, or distributed or distributable to the holders of Common Stock, or to consent or to receive notice as a stockholder in respect of any meeting of stockholders for the election of directors of the Reorganized Parent or of any other matter, or any rights whatsoever as stockholders of the Reorganized Parent. The vote or consent of each Holder (in its capacity as such) shall not be permitted with respect to any action or proceeding of the Reorganized Parent. No Holder (in its capacity as such) shall have any right not expressly conferred hereunder, under the New Shareholders' Agreement or under or by applicable Law with respect to the Special Warrants held by such Holder. No mere enumeration in any document of the rights or privileges of any Holder shall give rise to any liability of such Holder for the Exercise Price hereunder or as a stockholder of the Reorganized Parent, whether such liability is asserted by the Reorganized Parent or by creditors of the Reorganized Parent. Holders of Special Warrant Shares issued upon exercise of the Special Warrants shall have the same voting and other rights as other holders of Common Stock in the Reorganized Parent.

Section 6.2. Notice to Holders. The Reorganized Parent shall give notice to Holders and the Ad Hoc Groups Advisors, as provided in Section 7.2, if at any time prior to the exercise in full of the Special Warrants, any of the following events shall occur:

(a) an Organic Change;

(b) a dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Reorganized Parent; or

(c) the occurrence of any other event that would result in an adjustment to number and/or kind and amount of shares of Common Stock, cash or securities issuable or payable upon the exercise of the Special Warrants under Article IV.

Such giving of notice shall be initiated at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the date of such Organic Change, dissolution, liquidation or winding up or any other event that would result in the number of Special Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of the Special Warrants under Article IV or Exercise Price to change (or, if earlier, any record date therefor). Any such notice shall specify any applicable record date or the date of closing the transfer books or proposed effective date. Failure to provide such notice shall not affect the validity of any action taken except to the extent a Holder is materially prejudiced by such failure. For the avoidance of doubt, no such notice (or the failure to provide it to the Holders) shall supersede or limit any adjustment called for by Article IV by reason of any event as to which notice is required by this Section 6.2.

Section 6.3. Cancellation of Special Warrants. If the Reorganized Parent shall purchase or otherwise acquire Special Warrants, such Special Warrants shall be cancelled and retired by appropriate notation on the Special Warrant Register.

Section 6.4. Tax Forms. Each Holder of a Special Warrant shall deliver to the Reorganized Parent a properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable.

Section 6.5. [Representations and Warranties of the Holder. By acceptance of this Special Warrant Agreement, the Holder represents and warrants to the Reorganized Parent as follows:

(a) No Registration. The Holder understands that the Common Stock has not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act by reason of a specific exemption from the registration provisions of the Securities Act, the availability of which depends upon, among other things, the bona fide nature of the investment intent and the accuracy of the Holder's representations as expressed herein or otherwise made pursuant hereto.

(b) Investment Intent. The Holder is acquiring the Common Stock for investment for its own account, not as a nominee or agent, and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any distribution thereof. The Holder has no present intention of selling, granting any participation in, or otherwise distributing the Common Stock, nor does it have any contract, undertaking, agreement or arrangement for the same.

(c) Investment Experience. The Holder has substantial experience in evaluating and investing in private placement transactions of securities in companies similar to the Reorganized Parent, and has such knowledge and experience in financial or business matters so that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in the Reorganized Parent and protecting its own interests.

(d) Speculative Nature of Investment. The Holder understands and acknowledges that its investment in the Reorganized Parent is highly speculative and involves substantial risks. The Holder can bear the economic risk of its investment and is able, without impairing its financial condition, to hold the Common Stock for an indefinite period of time and to suffer a complete loss of its investment.

(e) Residency. The residency of the Holder (or, in the case of a partnership or corporation, such entity's principal place of business) has been correctly provided to the Reorganized Parent to the extent requested by the Reorganized Parent.

(f) Restrictions on Resales. The Holder acknowledges that the Common Stock must be held indefinitely unless subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from such registration is available.

(g) No Public Market. The Holder understands and acknowledges that no public market now exists for any of the securities issued by the Reorganized Parent and that the Reorganized Parent has made no assurances that a public market will ever exist for the Reorganized Parent's securities.

(h) Brokers and Finders. The Holder has not engaged any brokers, finders or agents in connection with the Common Stock, and the Reorganized Parent has not incurred nor will incur, directly or indirectly, as a result of any action taken by the Holder, any liability for brokerage or finders' fees or agents' commissions or any similar charges in connection with the Common Stock.

(i) Legal Counsel. The Holder has had the opportunity to review this Special Warrant Agreement, the exhibits and schedules attached hereto and the transactions contemplated by this Special Warrant Agreement with its own legal counsel. Except as expressly set forth in this Special Warrant Agreement, the Holder is not relying on any statements or representations of the Reorganized Parent or its agents for legal advice with respect to this investment or the transactions contemplated by this Special Warrant Agreement.

(j) Tax Advisors. The Holder has reviewed with its own tax advisors the U.S. federal, state and local and non-U.S. tax consequences of this investment and the transactions contemplated by this Special Warrant Agreement. With respect to such matters, the Holder relies solely on any such advisors and not on any statements or representations of the Reorganized Parent or any of its agents, written or oral.

(k) No "Bad Actor" Disqualification. Neither (i) the Holder, (ii) to its knowledge, any of its directors, executive officers, other officers that may serve as a director or officer of any company in which it invests, general partners or managing members, nor (iii) to its knowledge, any beneficial owner of any of the Reorganized Parent's voting equity securities (in accordance with Rule 506(d) of the Securities Act) held by the Holder is subject to any of the "bad actor" disqualifications described in Rule 506(d)(1)(i) through (viii) under the Securities Act, except as set forth in Rule 506(d)(2)(ii) or (iii) or (d)(3) under the Securities Act and disclosed, reasonably in advance of the acceptance of this Special Warrant Agreement, in writing in reasonable detail to the Reorganized Parent.]

Except as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, nothing in this Agreement expressed and nothing that may be implied from any of the provisions hereof is intended, or shall be construed, to confer upon, or give to, any person or corporation other than the parties hereto, any right, remedy, or claim under or by reason of this Agreement or of any covenant, condition, stipulation, promise, or agreement hereof. (a) Except as otherwise provided by clause (b) of this Section 7.7, and except as otherwise expressly required by any other provisions of this Agreement, none of the terms or provisions contained in this Agreement and none of the agreements, obligations or covenants of the Reorganized Parent contained in this Agreement may be amended, modified, supplemented, waived or terminated unless (i) the Reorganized Parent shall execute an instrument in writing agreeing or consenting to such amendment, modification, supplement, waiver or termination, and (ii) the Reorganized Parent shall receive prior consent of the Holders therefor to the extent required in this Section 7.7; provided, however, that if, by its terms, any such amendment, modification, supplement, waiver or termination disproportionately and adversely affects the rights of any Holder as compared to the rights of all of the other Holders (other than as reflected by the different number of Special Warrants and/or Special Warrant Shares held by the Holders), then, the prior written agreement of such Holder shall be required.

(b) The Reorganized Parent may from time to time supplement or amend, or waive any provision, this Agreement or the Special Warrants, as follows:

(i) without the approval of the Holders, but with at least 5 business days' advance written notice to the Ad Hoc Groups Advisors, in order to cure any ambiguity, manifest error or other mistake in this Agreement or the Special Warrants, or to correct or supplement any provision contained herein or in the Special Warrants that may be defective or inconsistent with any other provision herein, in the New Governance Documents or in the Special Warrants, or to make any other provisions in regard to matters or questions arising hereunder that the Reorganized Parent may deem necessary or desirable and that shall not adversely affect, alter or change the interests of the Holders in any respect, or

The Reorganized Parent shall not, by amendment of its certificate of incorporation or through any reorganization, transfer of assets, consolidation, merger, dissolution, issue or sale of securities or any other voluntary action, avoid or seek to avoid the observance or performance of any of the terms to be observed or performed hereunder by the Reorganized Parent, but will at all times in good faith assist in the carrying out of all the provisions of the Special Warrants and in the taking of all such action as may be necessary in order to preserve the exercise rights of the Holders against impairment.

In such event, the Holder of such Special Warrants, shall have the right, in addition to all other rights and remedies it may have, to specific performance and/or injunctive or other equitable relief to enforce the provisions of this Agreement and the Special Warrants.

Section 7.16. FCC Matters.

(a) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, each Holder acknowledges that the Reorganized Parent and certain of its Subsidiaries are each under an ongoing obligation to comply with the Communications Laws, including FCC rules limiting foreign ownership, and that any provision hereof that conflicts or is found by the FCC to conflict with the Communications Laws shall be unenforceable. Each Holder further agrees to provide the Reorganized Parent all information reasonably required in order to complete and prosecute any FCC application or petition for declaratory ruling that may be required under the Communications Laws, to respond to any inquiries from the FCC or other Governmental Authorities, or to enable the Reorganized Parent to ensure that it complies with the Communications Laws. The Warrants so issued and registered shall be reflected on statements issued by the Warrant Agent to the Holders.

(b) Except as set forth in Section 3.2(d), Section 6 and Section 8, the Warrant Certificates issued and registered by the Warrant Agent on the Original Issue Date shall be the only Warrant Certificates issued or outstanding under this Agreement.

(c) Each Warrant Certificate shall evidence the number of Warrants specified therein, and each Warrant evidenced thereby shall represent the right, subject to the provisions contained herein and therein, to purchase one share of Common Stock, subject to adjustment as provided in Section 5.

2.2 Form of Warrant Certificates.

The Warrant Certificates evidencing the Warrants (a) shall be in registered form only and substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit A hereto, (b) shall be dated the date on which countersigned by the Warrant Agent, (c) shall have such insertions as are appropriate or required or permitted by this Agreement and (d) may have such letters, numbers or other marks of identification and such legends and endorsements typed, stamped, printed, lithographed or engraved thereon as the directors or officers of the Company executing the same may approve (execution thereof to be conclusive evidence of such approval) and as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, or as may be required to comply with any law or with any rule or regulation pursuant thereto or with any rule or regulation of any securities exchange on which the Warrants may be listed, in each case, as reasonably determined by an Appropriate Officer.

3.1 Right to Acquire Common Stock Upon Exercise. Each Warrant Certificate shall, when countersigned by the Warrant Agent, entitle the Holder thereof, subject to the provisions thereof and of this Agreement, to acquire from the Company, for each Warrant evidenced thereby, one share of Common Stock at the Exercise Price, subject to adjustment as provided in this Agreement; provided, however, that if such Warrant Certificate is issued by electronic or book entry registration on the books of the Warrant Agent only and not represented by physical certificates, (a) the Holder's rights shall not be subject to such countersignature by the Warrant Agent and (b) the Holder shall be deemed to hold and have received the Definitive Warrant Certificate for all purposes under this Agreement as a result of the Warrant Agent's registration of such Holder's applicable Warrants in the Holder's name on the books of the Warrant Agent (including the Warrant Register). The Exercise Price, and the number of shares of Common Stock obtainable upon exercise of each Warrant, shall be adjusted from time to time as required by Section 5.1.

3.2 Exercise and Expiration of Warrants.

(a) Exercise of Warrants. Subject to and upon compliance with the terms and conditions set forth herein, a Holder of a Warrant Certificate may exercise all or any whole number of the Warrants evidenced thereby, on any Business Day from and after the Original Issue Date until the Expiration Time, for the shares of Common Stock obtainable thereunder.

(b) Expiration of Warrants. The Warrants, to the extent not exercised prior thereto, shall automatically expire, terminate and become void as of the Expiration Time. No further action of any Person (including by, or on behalf of, any Holder, the Company, or the Warrant Agent) shall be required to effectuate the expiration of Warrants pursuant to this Section 3.2(b).

(c) Method of Exercise. In order for a Holder to exercise all or any of the Warrants represented by a Warrant Certificate, the Holder thereof must (i) provide written notice to the Company and the Warrant Agent in accordance with the notice information set forth in Section 11, (ii) at the Corporate Agency Office, (x) deliver to the Warrant Agent an exercise form for the election to exercise such Warrants, substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit B hereto (an "Exercise Form"), setting forth the number of Warrants being exercised and, if applicable, whether Cashless Exercise is being elected with respect thereto, and otherwise properly completed and duly executed by the Holder thereof, and (y) surrender to the Warrant Agent the Definitive Warrant Certificate evidencing such Warrants; (iii) pay to the Warrant Agent an amount equal to (x) all taxes required to be paid by the Holder, if any, pursuant to Section 3.4 prior to, or concurrently with, exercise of such Warrants and (y) except in the case of a Cashless Exercise, the aggregate of the Exercise Price in respect of each share of Common Stock into which such Warrants are exercisable, in case of (x) and (y), by cashier's check payable to the order of the Warrant Agent, or by wire transfer in immediately available funds to such account of the Warrant Agent at such banking institution as the Warrant Agent shall have designated from time to time for such purpose in accordance with Section 11.1(b) and (iv) comply with Section 3.8 and Section 9.4.

(d) Partial Exercise. If fewer than all the Warrants represented by a Warrant Certificate are exercised, such Definitive Warrant Certificate shall be surrendered and a new Definitive Warrant Certificate of the same tenor and for the number of Warrants which were not exercised shall be executed by the Company in accordance with Section 2.3(c). The Warrant Agent shall countersign the new Definitive Warrant Certificate, registered in such name or names, subject to the provisions of Section 8 regarding registration of transfer and payment of governmental charges in respect thereof, as may be directed in writing by the Holder, and shall deliver the new Definitive Warrant Certificate to the Person or Persons in whose name such new Definitive Warrant Certificate is so registered. The Company, whenever required by the Warrant Agent, will supply the Warrant Agent with Definitive Warrant Certificates duly executed on behalf of the Company for such purpose.

(e) Issuance of Common Stock. Upon due exercise of Warrants evidenced by any Warrant Certificate in conformity with the foregoing provisions of Section 3.2(c), the Warrant Agent shall, when the actions specified in Section 3.2(c)(i) have been effected, any payment specified in Section 3.2(c)(ii) is received and the provisions of Section 3.8 have been complied with, deliver to the Company the Exercise Form received pursuant to Section 3.2(c)(i), deliver or deposit all funds received as instructed in writing by the Company and advise the Company by telephone at the end of such day of the amount of funds so deposited to its account. The Company shall thereupon, as promptly as practicable, and in any event within five (5) Business Days after the Exercise Date referred to below, (i) determine the number of shares of Common Stock issuable pursuant to exercise of such Warrants pursuant to Section 3.6 or if Cashless Exercise applies, Section 3.7 and (ii) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Recipient (as defined below) the shares of Common Stock in book-entry form in accordance with Section 3.2(f) in an amount equal to the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise (based upon the aggregate number of Warrants so exercised), as so determined, together with an amount in cash in lieu of any fractional share of Common Stock(s), if the Company so elects pursuant to Section 5.2. The shares of Common Stock in book-entry form so delivered shall be, to the extent possible, in such denomination or denominations as such Holder shall request in the applicable Exercise Form and shall be registered or otherwise placed in the name of, and delivered to, the Holder or, subject to Section 3.4 and Section 3.7, such other Person as shall be designated in writing by the Holder in such Exercise Form (the Holder or such other Person being referred to herein as the "Recipient"). As a condition to the issuance of shares of Common Stock pursuant to this Section 3.2(e), the Recipient shall: (A) execute a joinder to the Shareholders' Agreement, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and (B) provide to the Company or its registered office provider such documentation and other evidence as is reasonably required by the Company or its registered office to carry out and to be satisfied that they have complied with all necessary "know your customer" or similar requirements under all applicable laws and regulations.

(f) Time of Exercise. Each exercise of a Warrant shall be deemed to have been effected immediately prior to the close of business on the day on which each of the requirements for exercise of such Warrant specified in Section 3.2(c) and Section 3.8 has been duly satisfied (the "Exercise Date"). At such time, subject to Section 5.1(d)(iv) and the Recipient complying with its obligations pursuant to Section 3.2(e), the Company shall procure the entry into the Company's register of stockholders of the name of the Recipient as holder of the shares of Common Stock on the Exercise Date, and shall provide to the Recipient an extract of the register so updated as soon as practicable thereafter, in book-entry form for the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise as provided in Section 3.2(e) shall be deemed to have been issued and, for all purposes of this Agreement, the Recipient shall, as between such Person and the Company, be deemed to be and entitled to all rights of the holder of record of such shares of Common Stock.

(g) The Warrant Agent shall:

(i) examine all Exercise Forms and all other documents delivered to it by or on behalf of the Holders as contemplated hereunder to ascertain whether or not, on their face, such Exercise Forms and any such other documents have been executed and completed in accordance with their terms and the terms hereof;

(ii) where an Exercise Form or other document appears on its face to have been improperly completed or executed or some other irregularity in connection with the exercise of the Warrants exists, inform the appropriate parties (including the Person submitting such instrument) of the need for fulfillment of all requirements, specifying those requirements which appear to be unfulfilled;

(iii) inform the Company of, cooperate with, and reasonably assist such Person and the Company in, resolving any discrepancies between Exercise Forms received and delivery of Warrants to the Warrant Agent's account;

(iv) advise the Company promptly after receipt of an Exercise Form of (x) the receipt of such Exercise Form and the number of Warrants exercised in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, (y) the instructions with respect to delivery of the shares of Common Stock deliverable upon such exercise and (z) such other information as the Company shall reasonably require.

(h) All questions as to the validity, form and sufficiency (including time of receipt) of an Exercise Form will be determined by the Company in its reasonable discretion in accordance with the provisions set forth herein. The Company reserves the right to reject any and all Exercise Forms not in proper form or for which any corresponding agreement by the Company to exchange would be unlawful[; provided that the Company shall provide the Holder with the reasonable opportunity to correct any defects in the Exercise Forms.] Moreover, without limiting the rights and immunities of the Warrant Agent, the Company reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to the exercise of Warrants or defects in Exercise Forms with regard to any particular exercise of Warrants. If the Company believes there is any irregularity in the exercise of the Warrants, then the Company shall (or shall cause the Warrant Agent to) promptly give notice to the Holder of the Warrants that submitted the applicable Exercise Form of such irregularities and an opportunity to cure the same[, provided that neither the Company nor the Warrant Agent shall incur any liability for the failure to give such notice.] The Warrant Agent shall incur no liability for or in respect of any determination, action or omission by the Company in accordance with this Section 3.2(h).

3.3 Application of Funds upon Exercise of Warrants. Any funds delivered to the Warrant Agent upon exercise of any Warrant(s) shall be held by the Warrant Agent in trust for the Company. The Warrant Agent shall promptly deliver and pay to or upon the written order of the Company all funds received by it upon the exercise of any Warrants by bank wire transfer to an account designated by the Company or as the Warrant Agent otherwise may be directed in writing by the Company.

3.4 Payment of Taxes. The Company shall pay any and all taxes (other than income or similar taxes) that may be payable in respect of the issue or delivery of shares of Common Stock on exercise of Warrants pursuant hereto. The Company shall not be required, however, to pay any tax or other charge imposed in respect of any transfer involved in the issue and delivery of shares of Common Stock in book-entry form for shares of Common Stock or payment of cash or other property to any Recipient other than the Holder of the Warrant Certificate evidencing the exercised Warrant, and in case of such transfer or payment, the Warrant Agent and the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any shares of Common Stock in book-entry form or any certificate or pay any cash until (a) such tax or charge has been paid or an amount sufficient for the payment thereof has been delivered to the Warrant Agent or the Company or (b) it has been established to the Company's satisfaction that any such tax or other charge that is or may become due has been paid.

3.5 Cancellation of Warrant Certificates. Any Definitive Warrant Certificate surrendered for exercise shall, if surrendered to the Company, be delivered to the Warrant Agent. All Warrant Certificates surrendered or delivered to or received by the Warrant Agent for cancellation pursuant to this Section 3.5 shall be promptly cancelled by the Warrant Agent and shall not be reissued by the Company. The Warrant Agent shall destroy any such cancelled Warrant Certificates and deliver its certificate of destruction to the Company, unless the Company shall otherwise direct.

3.6 Common Stock Issuable. The number of shares of Common Stock "obtainable upon exercise" or "issuable upon exercise" of Warrants at any time shall be the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Warrants are then exercisable. The number of shares of Common Stock "into which each Warrant is exercisable" shall be one share of Common Stock, subject to adjustment as provided in Section 5.1.

3.7 Cashless Exercise. Notwithstanding any provisions herein to the contrary, if, on the Exercise Date of a Cashless Exercise, the Cashless Exercise Current Market Price of one share of Common Stock is greater than the applicable Exercise Price on the Exercise Date, then, in lieu of paying to the Company the applicable Exercise Price by wire transfer in immediately available funds, the Holder may elect to receive shares of Common Stock equal to the value (as determined below) of the Warrants or any portion thereof being exercised (such portion, the "Cashless Exercise Warrants" with respect to such date) by (i) in the case of Warrants evidenced by a Global Warrant Certificate, providing notice to the Warrant Agent pursuant to the Applicable Procedures and the Exercise From; or (ii) in the case of Warrants evidenced by a Definitive Warrant Certificate, providing notice pursuant to the Exercise Form, in the case of (i) or (ii), that the Holder desires to effect a "cashless exercise" (a "Cashless Exercise") with respect to the Cashless Exercise Warrants, in which event the Company shall issue to the Holder a number of shares of Common Stock with respect to Cashless Exercise Warrants computed using the following formula (it being understood that any portion of the Warrants being exercised on such date that are not Cashless Exercise Warrants will not be affected by this calculation):

$$X = (Y\ (A\text{-}B)) \div A$$

Where X = the number of shares of Common Stock to be issued to the Holder in respect of the Cashless Exercise Warrants

Y = the number of shares of Common Stock purchasable under the Cashless Exercise Warrants being exercised by the Holder (on the Exercise Date)

A = the applicable Cashless Exercise Current Market Price of one share of Common Stock (on the Exercise Date)

B = the applicable Exercise Price (as adjusted through and including the Exercise Date).

3.8 Regulatory Approvals.

(a) The Company reserves the right to reject any and all Exercise Forms that it reasonably determines in good faith are not in proper form or for which any corresponding agreement by the Company to exchange would, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, be unlawful. Any such determination by the Company shall be final and binding on the Holder of the Warrants, absent manifest error; provided that the Company shall provide a Holder with the reasonable opportunity to correct any defects in its Exercise Forms (without prejudicing such Holder's ability to deliver subsequent Exercise Forms). The Company further reserves the right to request such information (including, without limitation, information with respect to citizenship, other ownership interests and Affiliates) as the Company (A) may deem appropriate, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, to determine whether the exercise of the Warrants would (i) be unlawful, (ii) subject the Company to any limitation under the Communications Laws that would not apply to the Company but for such exchange, or (iii) limit or impair any business activities of the Company under the Communications Laws, and/or (B) may be reasonably required in order to complete and prosecute any FCC application or petition for declaratory ruling necessary to obtain any Regulatory Approvals, or to respond to any inquiries from the FCC or other Governmental Authorities, which shall be furnished promptly by any Holder from whom such information is requested as a condition to such Holder's exercise of Warrants. Each Holder agrees that the Company may disclose to the FCC or other Governmental Authorities the identity of and further ownership information about any Person, as required by the FCC or other Governmental Authorities or, to the extent so required, as the Company's independent outside legal counsel reasonably deems advisable, about any Person who would hold any interest in the Company of 5% or more of the Company's voting or equity interests in the Company calculated pursuant to the Communications Laws upon the exercise of Warrants. Moreover, the Company reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to any particular exercise of Warrants or any defects in the Exercise Form(s) with regard to any particular exercise of Warrants. The Company shall provide prompt written notice to the Holder of any such rejection or waiver.

(b) Without limiting the foregoing and notwithstanding any provisions contained herein to the contrary, (i) no Holder shall be entitled to exercise any Warrant until all Regulatory Approvals required to be made to or obtained from any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over the Company or its Subsidiaries have been made or obtained, and in the event that all required Regulatory Approvals are not received, the Holder shall continue to hold its Warrants; and (ii) the Company may (x) prohibit the exercise of Warrants which may, in the Company's determination, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, cause 22.5% or more of the Company's outstanding equity interests or the equity of any Subsidiary of the Company to be directly or indirectly owned or voted by or for the account of non-U.S. persons as determined pursuant to the Communications Laws, or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, Non- U.S. Persons, if such ownership or vote by non-U.S. persons (or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, non-U.S. persons)[at the level of more than 22.5%] would cause the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to be in violation of the Communications Laws, (y) require Specific Approval prior to any exercise of a Warrant by a non-U.S. person (or by any other entity the equity of which is owned, controlled by, or held for the benefit of, non-U.S. persons) to the extent necessary under the Communications Laws or the terms of any declaratory ruling obtained by the Company or (z) prohibit the exercise of any Warrants if such exercise would, in the Company's reasonable determination [(A)] result in a violation of applicable laws or regulations[, (B) involve circumstances that the Board of Directors determines could require the registration or qualification of any class of Common Stock or require the Company to file reports pursuant to any applicable federal or state securities laws or (C) subject the Company to regulation under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Investment Advisors Act of 1940, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or other applicable law or regulation, each as amended.]

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, it shall be a condition to the exercise of any Warrant that upon receipt of Common Stock upon exercise, the Holder shall, if not already a party to the Shareholders' Agreement, execute a joinder thereto (or, in the case where such Holder does not execute such joinder, be deemed to have become a party to the Shareholders' Agreement, irrespective of whether such Holder physically executes the Shareholders' Agreement or a joinder thereto).[12]

(d) Upon receipt of all necessary Regulatory Approvals, if any, in respect of the exercise of any Warrant, and provided that (i) a Holder has complied with the requirements of Sections 3.2(a) and 3.2(c), (ii) the Company has determined that (x) the Holder's exercise of its Warrants does not violate any of the Communications Laws or the Securities Act or any decision, rule, regulation, policy, order or declaratory ruling issued by the FCC or the SEC, as applicable and (y) all conditions imposed by the FCC or any other Governmental Authority in any Regulatory Approval have been satisfied, such Holder's Warrants shall be automatically deemed exercised.

3.9 Withholding. Subject to Section 3.4, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Warrant to the contrary, the Company shall be entitled to deduct and withhold (or cause to be deducted and withheld) from any amounts or property payable or deliverable to any Person pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement or the Warrant such amounts as are required to be deducted or withheld under applicable law with respect to t[he Warrant (and the Company shall be entitled to withhold, for the avoidance of doubt, from any amounts or property that are payable or deliverable with respect to the Warrant that are subsequent to the] payment or delivery [or other circumstance that gave rise to the requirement to deduct or withhold under applicable law);] provided that, the Company shall [use its commercially reasonable efforts to] notify such Person of such withholding obligation prior to the date on which such deduction and withholding will be made and the parties shall take commercially reasonable steps to reduce or eliminate any such withholding. Any amounts that are so withheld by the Company shall be paid to the appropriate Governmental Authority [and shall be treated as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such withholding was made.]

4. Dissolution, Liquidation or Winding Up.

Unless Section 5.1(f) applies, if, on or prior to the Expiration Time, the Company (or any other Person controlling the Company) shall propose a voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up (collectively, a "Winding Up"; provided that a Winding Up shall not be effected pursuant to a Transaction) of the affairs of the Company, the Company shall give written notice thereof to the Warrant Agent and all Holders in the manner provided in Section 11.2 prior to the date on which such transaction is expected to become effective or, if earlier, the record date for such transaction. Such notice shall also specify the date as of which the holders of record of the shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to exchange their shares for securities, money or other property deliverable upon such dissolution, liquidation or winding up, as the case may be, on which date each Holder of Warrant Certificates shall receive the securities, money or other property which such Holder would have been entitled to receive had such Holder been the holder of record of the shares of Common Stock into which the Warrants were exercisable immediately prior to such dissolution, liquidation or winding up (net of the then applicable Exercise Price) and the rights to exercise the Warrants shall terminate.

[12] Note to Draft: Parties to discuss mechanics.

Unless Section 5.1(f) applies, in case of any Winding Up of the Company, the Company shall deposit with the Warrant Agent any funds or other property which the Holders are entitled to receive pursuant to the above paragraph, together with a Company Order as to the distribution thereof. After receipt of such deposit from the Company and after receipt of surrendered Warrant Certificates evidencing Warrants, the Warrant Agent shall make payment in appropriate amount to such Person or Persons as it may be directed in writing by the Holder surrendering such Warrant Certificate. The Warrant Agent shall not be required to pay interest on any money deposited pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4 except such as it shall agree with the Company to pay thereon. Any moneys, securities or other property which at any time shall be deposited by the Company or on its behalf with the Warrant Agent pursuant to this Section 4 shall be, and are hereby, assigned, transferred and set over to the Warrant Agent in trust for the purpose for which such moneys, securities or other property shall have been deposited; provided that moneys, securities or other property need not be segregated from other funds, securities or other property held by the Warrant Agent except to the extent required by law.

5. Adjustments.

5.1 Adjustments. In order to prevent dilution of the rights granted under the Warrants and to grant the Holders certain additional rights, the Exercise Price shall be subject to adjustment from time to time only as specifically provided in this Section 5.1 and the number of shares of Common Stock obtainable upon exercise of Warrants shall be subject to adjustment from time to time only as specifically provided in this Section 5.1, in each case, without duplication.

(a) Subdivisions and Combinations. In the event the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, effect a subdivision (by any equity security split, subdivision or otherwise) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock into a greater number of shares of Common Stock (other than (x) a subdivision upon a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) applies or (y) an equity security split effected by means of a stock or equity security dividend or distribution to which Section 5.1(b) applies), then and in each such event the Exercise Price in effect at the opening of business on the day after the date upon which such subdivision becomes effective shall be proportionately decreased by multiplying such Exercise Price by a fraction (i) the numerator of which shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such subdivision and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the sum of (A) the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such subdivision plus (B) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable as a result of such subdivision. Conversely, if the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, effect a combination (by any reverse equity security split, combination or otherwise) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock into a smaller number of shares of Common Stock (other than a combination upon a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) applies), then and in each such event the Exercise Price in effect at the opening of business on the day after the date upon which such combination becomes effective shall be proportionately increased by multiplying such Exercise Price by a fraction (i) the numerator of which shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such combination and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the sum of (A) the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such combination minus (B) the number of shares of Common Stock reduced as a result of such combination. Any adjustment under this Section 5.1(a) shall become effective immediately after the opening of business on the day after the date upon which the subdivision or combination becomes effective.

(b) Common Stock Dividends. In the event the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired, in whole or in part, pay, make or issue to the holders of its Common Stock, or shall fix a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock to receive, a dividend or distribution payable in, or otherwise pay, make or issue, or fix a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock to receive, a dividend or other distribution on any class of its equity securities payable in, Common Stock (other than a dividend or distribution upon a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) applies), then and in each such event the Exercise Price in effect at the opening of business on the day after the date for the determination of the holders of Common Stock entitled to receive such dividend or distribution shall be decreased by multiplying such Exercise Price by a fraction (not to be greater than 1):

(i) the numerator of which shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding at the close of business on such date for determination; and

(ii) the denominator of which shall be the sum of (A) the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding at the close of business on such date for determination plus (B) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable in payment of such dividend or distribution.

Any adjustment under this Section 5.1(b) shall, subject to Section 5.1(d)(iv), become effective immediately after the opening of business on the day after the date for the determination of the holders of Common Stock entitled to receive such dividend or distribution.

(c) Reclassifications. In the event that the Company reclassifies the Common Stock (other than any such reclassification in connection with a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) applies) into Common Stock and any other equity interests of the Company:

(i) then and in each such event, the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to the close of business on the effective date of such reclassification shall be decreased by multiplying such Exercise Price by a fraction (not to be greater than 1): (x) the numerator of which shall be the Fair Market Value per share of Common Stock on such date for determination minus the Fair Market Value (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors, whose determination shall be evidenced by a resolution of the Board of Directors filed with the Warrant Agent) of the portion applicable to one share of Common Stock of such other equity interests of the Company into which Common Stock are so reclassified and (y) the denominator of which shall be Fair Market Value per share of Common Stock;

(ii) if the outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be changed into a larger or smaller number of shares of Common Stock as a part of such reclassification, such change shall be deemed a subdivision or combination, as the case may be, of the outstanding shares of Common Stock for the purposes and within the meaning of Section 5.1(a) (and the effective date of such reclassification shall be deemed to be "the date upon which such subdivision becomes effective" or "the date upon which such combination becomes effective," as applicable, for the purposes and within the meaning of Section 5.1(a)); and

(iii) any dividend or distribution of equity interests made or paid on Common Stock shall not be deemed a reclassification within the meaning of this Section 5.1(c).

(d) Other Provisions Applicable to Adjustments. The following provisions shall be applicable to the making of adjustments to the Exercise Price and the number of shares of Common Stock into which each Warrant is exercisable under Section 5.1:

(i) Common Stock Held by the Company. The dividend or distribution of any issued shares of Common Stock owned or held by or for the account of the Company shall be deemed a dividend or distribution of Common Stock for purposes of Section 5.1(b). The Company shall not make or issue any dividend or distribution on Common Stock held in the treasury of the Company. For the purposes of Section 5.1(b), the number of shares of Common Stock at any time outstanding shall not include Common Stock held in the treasury of the Company.

(ii) When Adjustments Are to be Made. The adjustments required by Section 5.1(a), Section 5.1(b), Section 5.1(c) and Section 5.1(g) shall be made whenever and as often as any specified event requiring an adjustment shall occur, except that no adjustment of the Exercise Price that would otherwise be required shall be made unless and until such adjustment either by itself or with other adjustments not previously made increases or decreases the Exercise Price immediately prior to the making of such adjustment by at least 1%. Any adjustment representing a change of less than such minimum amount (except as aforesaid) shall be carried forward and made as soon as such adjustment, together with other adjustments required by Section 5.1(a), Section 5.1(b), Section 5.1(c) and Section 5.1(g) and not previously made, would result in such minimum adjustment.

(iii) Fractional Interests. In computing adjustments under this Section 5.1, fractional interests in Common Stock shall be taken into account to the nearest one-thousandth of a share of Common Stock.

(iv) Deferral of Issuance Upon Exercise. In any case in which Section 5.1(b) or Section 5.1(g) shall require that a decrease in the Exercise Price be made effective prior to the occurrence of a specified event and any Warrant is exercised after the time at which the adjustment became effective but prior to the occurrence of such specified event and, in connection therewith, Section 5.1(e) shall require a corresponding increase in the number of shares of Common Stock into which each Warrant is exercisable, the Company may elect to defer (but not in any event later than the Expiration Time or the closing date of the applicable Third Party Sale Transaction) until the occurrence of such specified event (A) the issuance to the Holder of the Warrant Certificate evidencing such Warrant (or other Person entitled thereto) of, and the registration of such Holder (or other Person) as the record holder of, the shares of Common Stock over and above the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise on the basis of the number of shares of Common Stock obtainable upon exercise of such Warrant immediately prior to such adjustment and to require payment in respect of such number of shares of Common Stock the issuance of which is not deferred on the basis of the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such adjustment and (B) the corresponding reduction in the Exercise Price; provided, however, that the Company shall deliver to such Holder or other person a due bill or other appropriate instrument that evidences the right of such Holder or other Person to receive, and to become the record holder of, such additional shares of Common Stock, upon the occurrence of such specified event requiring such adjustment (without payment of any additional Exercise Price in respect of such additional shares of Common Stock) and, if the shares of Common Stock are then traded on a national securities exchange or other market, meets any applicable requirements of the principal national securities exchange or other market on which the shares of Common Stock are then traded.

(e) Adjustment to Common Stock Obtainable Upon Exercise. Whenever the Exercise Price is adjusted as provided in this Section 5.1 (other than as an adjustment required pursuant to Section 5.1(g)), the number of shares of Common Stock into which a Warrant is exercisable shall simultaneously be adjusted by multiplying such number of shares of Common Stock into which a Warrant is exercisable immediately prior to such adjustment by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the Exercise Price immediately prior to such adjustment, and the denominator of which shall be the Exercise Price immediately thereafter.

(f) [Changes in Common Stock. In case at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, the Company (including any Successor Company) shall be a party to or shall otherwise engage in any transaction or series of related transactions constituting: (1) a consolidation of the Company with, a sale of all of the equity (including a tender or exchange offer) of the Company to, a merger of the Company into, a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries (taken as a whole) to, any other Person, or any similar transaction, in each case, in which the previously outstanding shares of Common Stock shall receive or be entitled to receive (either directly or upon subsequent liquidation or winding up), cancelled, reclassified or converted or changed into or exchanged for securities or other property (including cash) or any combination of the foregoing (a "Non-Surviving Transaction"), or (2) any merger of another Person into the Company in which the previously outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be cancelled, reclassified or converted or changed into or exchanged for securities of the Company or other property (including cash) or any combination of the foregoing (a "Surviving Transaction" and any Non-Surviving Transaction or Surviving Transaction being herein called a "Transaction"); then:

(i) if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Cash Only Transaction and such Sale Cash Only Transaction is consummated on or prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Cash Only Transaction, (A) any Warrants not exercised prior to the closing of such Sale Cash Only Transaction shall automatically expire, terminate and become void without any payment or consideration other than as contemplated by the following clause (B) and (B) to the extent the Black-Scholes Value of one Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Cash Only Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Holder of each Warrant Certificate evidencing any unexercised Warrants, cash in an amount, for each Warrant so evidenced, equal to the greater of (x) such Black-Scholes Value and (y) the consideration to be received by such Holder if such Warrant were exercised for Common Stock;

(ii) if such Transaction is a [Redomestication Transaction or a]Non-Sale Transaction:

(A) as a condition to the consummation of such Transaction, the Company shall (or, in the case of any Non-Surviving Transaction, the Company shall cause such other Person to) execute and deliver to the Warrant Agent a written instrument providing that any Warrant that remains outstanding in whole or in part, upon the exercise thereof at any time on or after the consummation of such Transaction, shall be exercisable (on such terms and subject to such conditions as shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the provisions set forth in this Agreement) into, in lieu of the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise prior to such consummation, only the securities or other property ("Substituted Property") that would have been receivable upon such Transaction by a Qualifying Electing Person holding the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Warrant was exercisable immediately prior to such Transaction and for an aggregate Exercise Price for such Warrant equal to the product of (I) the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Warrant was exercisable immediately prior to such Transaction and (II) the Exercise Price per share of Common Stock immediately prior to such Transaction;

(B) except as otherwise specified in Section 5.1(f)(ii)(A), the rights and obligations of the Company (or, in the event of a Non-Surviving Transaction, such other Person) and the Holders in respect of Substituted Property shall be substantially unchanged to be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the rights and obligations of the Company and Holders in respect of shares of Common Stock hereunder as set forth in Section 3.1 hereof; and

(C) such written instrument under clause (ii)(A) above shall provide for adjustments which, for events subsequent to the effective date of such written instrument, shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided for in this Section 5; and the provisions of this Section 5.1(f) shall similarly apply to successive Transactions that are not Third Party Sale Transactions;

(iii) if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Securities Only Transaction and such Sale Cash Only Transaction is consummated on or prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Securities Only Transaction, (A) any Warrants not exercised prior to the closing of such Sale

Securities Only Transaction shall automatically expire, terminate and become void without any payment or consideration other than as contemplated by the following clause (B) and (B) if the Black-Scholes Value of one Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Securities Only Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Holder of each Warrant Certificate evidencing any unexercised Warrants, an amount of the Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities for each Warrant so evidenced having a Fair Market Value equal to the greater of: (x) such Black-Scholes Value and (if such Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities consist of securities of more than one type) in such proportion among the securities so delivered as to be the same as the pro rata kind and amount per share of Common Stock (determined on the basis of all outstanding shares of Common Stock held by all Qualifying Persons) and (y) value of the consideration to be received by such Holder if such Warrant were exercised for Common Stock and (if such Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities consist of securities of more than one type) in such proportion among the securities so delivered as to be the same as the pro rata kind and amount per share of Common Stock (determined on the basis of all outstanding shares of Common Stock held by all Qualifying Persons); or

(iv) if such Transaction constitutes a Sale Cash and Securities Transaction and such Sale Cash Only Transaction is consummated on or prior to the Black-Scholes Expiration Date, then, at the effective time of the consummation of such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction, (A) any Warrants not exercised prior to the closing of such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction shall automatically expire, terminate and become void without any payment or consideration other than as contemplated by the following clause (B) and (B) if the Black-Scholes Value of each Warrant as of the date of the consummation of the Sale Cash and Securities Transaction is greater than zero, the Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Holder of each Warrant Certificate evidencing any unexercised Warrants, an amount of Sale Cash and Securities Transaction Consideration for each Warrant so evidenced having a Fair Market Value equal to the greater of: (x) such Black-Scholes Value and (if such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction Consideration consists of consideration of more than one type) in such proportion among the cash, securities and other property so delivered as to be the same as the pro rata kind and amount per share of Common Stock (determined on the basis of all outstanding shares of Common Stock held by all Qualifying Persons) actually received in such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction by all Qualifying Persons and (y) value of the consideration to be received by such Holder if such Warrant were exercised for Common Stock and (if such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction Consideration consists of consideration of more than one type) in such proportion among the cash, securities and other property so delivered as to be the same as the pro rata kind and amount per share of Common Stock (determined on the basis of all outstanding shares of Common Stock held by all Qualifying Persons) actually received in such Sale Cash and Securities Transaction by all Qualifying Persons.

For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in no event shall a Holder be entitled to any Fair Market Value, or any delivery of any cash, securities or other property in respect thereof, on account of the Warrants (using the Black-Scholes Value or otherwise) in any [Redomestication Transaction or] Non-Sale Transaction (other than the kind and amount of Substituted Property specified in Section 5.1(f)(ii)(A)).][13]

(g) [Upon a Change of Control.

(i) In the event of a Change of Control [after the Black-Scholes Expiration Date][14] in which the only consideration payable to Holders of Common Stock is cash, each Warrant shall be deemed to be exercised immediately prior to the consummation of such Change of Control and the Holder thereof shall receive solely the cash consideration to which such Holder would have been entitled as a result of such Change of Control, less the Exercise Price, as though the Warrant had been exercised immediately prior thereto. Upon a Change of Control in which the consideration payable to Holders of Common Stock is other than only cash, at the option of the Company in its sole discretion, each Warrant will be either (A) assumed by the party surviving such Change of Control and shall continue to be exercisable subject to the terms set forth herein for the kind and amount of consideration to which such Holder would have been entitled as a result of such Change of Control had the Warrant been exercised immediately prior thereto, or (B) if not assumed by the party surviving such Change of Control, deemed to be exercised immediately prior to the consummation of such Change of Control and the Holder thereof shall receive the consideration to which such Holder would have been entitled as a result of such Change of Control, less the Exercise Price, as though the Warrant had been exercised immediately prior thereto; provided, however, that the foregoing Section 5.1(g)(i) shall be subject in all respects to compliance with the Communications Laws.

(h) After compliance by the Company with this Section 5.1(g), each Holder (A) agrees to raise no objections with respect to the treatment provided in Section 5.1(g)(i) with respect to a Change of Control (provided that such Holder shall not be deemed to have waived any applicable dissenters rights, appraisal rights or similar rights in connection with such Change of Control) and (B) shall, subject to any applicable dissenters rights, appraisal rights or similar rights in connection with such Change of Control, surrender all Warrants to the Warrant Agent, and all such Warrants surrendered or so delivered to the Warrant Agent shall be promptly cancelled by the Warrant Agent and shall not be reissued by the Company.]

(i) Cash Dividends. In the event the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date while any Warrants remain outstanding and unexpired in whole or in part, pay, or fix a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock to receive, any dividend of cash to holders of its Common Stock (other than any dividend or distribution upon a Transaction to which Section 5.1(f) [or Section 5.1(g)] or applies) (a "Cash Dividend"), then and in each such event, the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to the close of business on the date for the determination of the holders of Common Stock entitled to receive such dividend or distribution shall be decreased (to an amount not less than zero) by an amount equal to the amount of the cash so distributed to one share of Common Stock. Any adjustment under this Section 5.1(g) shall, subject to Section 5.1(d)(iv), become effective immediately prior to the opening of business on the day after the date for the determination of the holders of Common Stock entitled to receive such Cash Dividend.

(j) Optional Tax Adjustment. The Company may at its option, at any time during the term of the Warrants, increase the number of shares of Common Stock into which each Warrant is exercisable, or decrease the Exercise Price, in addition to those changes required by Section 5.1(a), Section 5.1(b), Section 5.1(c) or Section 5.1(g) as deemed advisable by the Board of Directors, in order that any event treated for income tax purposes as a dividend of equity securities or equity security rights shall not be taxable to the recipients.

(h) [Warrants Deemed Exercisable. For purposes solely of this Section 5, the number of shares of Common Stock which the holder of any Warrant would have been entitled to receive had such Warrant been exercised in full at any time or into which any Warrant was exercisable at any time shall be determined assuming such Warrant was exercisable in full at such time.]

(k) Notice of Adjustment. Upon the occurrence of each adjustment of the Exercise Price or the number of shares of Common Stock into which a Warrant is exercisable pursuant to this Section 5.1, the Company at its expense shall promptly:

(i) compute such adjustment in accordance with the terms hereof;

(ii) after such adjustment becomes effective, deliver to all Holders, in accordance with Section 11.1(b) and Section 11.2, a notice setting forth such adjustment in reasonable detail and showing in reasonable detail the facts upon which such adjustment (including the kind and amount of securities, cash or other property for which the Warrants shall be exercisable and the Exercise Price) is based; and

(iii) deliver to the Warrant Agent a certificate of the Treasurer or other officer of the Company having equivalent responsibilities setting forth the Exercise Price and the number of shares of Common Stock into which each Warrant is exercisable after such adjustment and setting forth a brief statement of the facts requiring such adjustment and the computation by which such adjustment was made (including a description of the basis on which the Fair Market Value of any evidences of indebtedness, shares of equity securities, securities, cash or other assets or consideration used in the computation was determined). As provided in Section 10.1, the Warrant Agent shall be entitled to rely on such certificate and shall be under no duty or responsibility with respect to any such certificate, except to exhibit the same from time to time to any Holder desiring an inspection thereof during reasonable business hours.

(l) Statement on Warrant Certificates. Irrespective of any adjustment in the Exercise Price or amount or kind of equity securities into which the Warrants are exercisable, Warrant Certificates theretofore or thereafter issued may continue to express the same Exercise Price initially applicable or amount or kind of equity securities initially issuable upon exercise of the Warrants evidenced thereby pursuant to this Agreement.

5.2 Fractional Interest. The Company shall not be required upon the exercise of any Warrant to issue any fractional shares of Common Stock, but may, in lieu of issuing any fractional shares of Common Stock make an adjustment therefore in cash on the basis of the Fair Market Value per share of Common Stock on the date of such exercise. If Warrant Certificates evidencing more than one Warrant shall be presented for exercise at the same time by the same Holder, the number of full shares of Common Stock which shall be issuable upon such exercise thereof shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate number of Warrants so to be exercised. The Holders, by their acceptance of the Warrant Certificates, expressly waive their right to receive any fraction of a share of Common Stock or a stock certificate representing a fraction of a share of Common Stock.

5.3 No Other Adjustments. In each case, except in accordance with Section 5.1, the applicable Exercise Price and the number of shares of Common Stock obtainable upon exercise of any Warrant will not be adjusted for (x) any dividend or distribution made or paid on the shares of Common Stock or any other equity securities, (y) any purchase (including by tender or exchange offer) of any shares of Common Stock or (z) the issuance of shares of Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for shares of Common Stock or carrying the right to purchase any of the foregoing, including:

(i) upon the issuance of any other securities by the Company on or after the Original Issue Date, whether or not contemplated by the Plan, or upon the issuance of shares of Common Stock upon the exercise of any such securities;

(ii) upon the issuance of any shares of Common Stock or other securities or any payments pursuant to the Management Incentive Plan (as defined in the Plan) or any other equity incentive plan of the Company;

(iii) upon the issuance of any shares of Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of the Warrants; or

(iv) upon the issuance of any shares of Common Stock or other securities of the Company in connection with a business acquisition transaction.

6. Loss or Mutilation.

If (a) any mutilated Warrant Certificate is surrendered to the Warrant Agent or (b) both (i) there shall be delivered to the Company and the Warrant Agent (A) a claim by a Holder as to the destruction, loss or wrongful taking of any Warrant Certificate of such Holder and a request thereby for a new replacement Warrant Certificate, and (B) such indemnity bond as may be required by them to save each of them and any agent of either of them harmless and (ii) such other reasonable requirements as may be imposed by the Company and the Warrant Agent as permitted by Section 8-405 of the Uniform Commercial Code have been satisfied, then, in the absence of notice to the Company or the Warrant Agent that such Warrant Certificate has been acquired by a "protected purchaser" within the meaning of Section 8-405 of the Uniform Commercial Code, the Company shall execute and upon its written request the Warrant Agent shall countersign and deliver to the registered Holder of the lost, wrongfully taken, destroyed or mutilated Warrant Certificate, in exchange therefore or in lieu thereof, a new Warrant Certificate of the same tenor and for a like aggregate number of Warrants. At the written request of such registered Holder, the new Warrant Certificate so issued shall be retained by the Warrant Agent as having been surrendered for exercise, in lieu of delivery thereof to such Holder, and shall be deemed for purposes of Section 3.2 to have been surrendered for exercise on the date the conditions specified in clauses (a) or (b) of the preceding sentence were first satisfied.

Upon the issuance of any new Warrant Certificate under this Section 6, the Company may require the payment of any tax or other governmental charge that is imposed in relation thereto and any other reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses (including the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of the Warrant Agent and of counsel to the Company) in connection therewith.

Every new Warrant Certificate executed and delivered pursuant to this Section 6 in lieu of any lost, wrongfully taken or destroyed Warrant Certificate shall constitute an additional contractual obligation of the Company, whether or not the allegedly lost, wrongfully taken or destroyed Warrant Certificate shall be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be entitled to the benefits of this Agreement equally and proportionately with any and all other Warrant Certificates duly executed and delivered hereunder.

The provisions of this Section 6 are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights or remedies with respect to the replacement of mutilated, lost, wrongfully taken, or destroyed Warrant Certificates.

7. Reservation and Authorization of Common Stock.

The Company covenants that, for the duration of the Exercise Period, the Company will at all times reserve and keep available, from its authorized and unissued shares of Common Stock solely for issuance and delivery upon the exercise of the Warrants and free of preemptive rights, such number of shares of Common Stock and other securities, cash or property as from time to time shall be issuable upon the exercise in full of all outstanding Warrants for cash. The Company further covenants that it shall, from time to time, take all steps necessary to increase the authorized number of its shares of Common Stock if at any time the authorized number of shares of Common Stock remaining unissued would otherwise be insufficient to allow delivery of all the shares of Common Stock then deliverable upon the exercise in full of all outstanding Warrants. The Company covenants that it will take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate in order that all shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrants will, upon issuance, be duly and validly issued, and will be free of restrictions on transfer and will be free from all taxes, liens and charges in respect of the issue thereof (other than income or similar taxes or taxes in respect of any transfer occurring contemporaneously or otherwise specified herein or in connection with a Cashless Exercise). The Company shall take all such actions as may be necessary to ensure that all such shares of Common Stock may be so issued without violation of any applicable law or governmental regulation. The Company covenants that the stock certificates, if any, issued to evidence any shares of Common Stock issued upon exercise of Warrants will comply with the Delaware General Corporation Act (as amended) and any other applicable law.

The Company hereby authorizes and directs its current and future transfer agents for the shares of Common Stock at all times to reserve stock certificates for such number of shares of Common Stock, to the extent as, and if, required. The Warrant Agent is hereby authorized to requisition from time to time from any such transfer agents stock certificates required to honor outstanding Warrants upon exercise thereof in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the Company hereby authorizes and directs such transfer agents to comply with all such requests of the Warrant Agent. The Company will supply such transfer agents with duly executed stock certificates for such purposes, to the extent as, and if, required.

8. Warrant Transfer and Exchange.

8.1 Warrant Transfer Books.

(a) The Warrant Agent will maintain an office (the "Corporate Agency Office") in the United States of America, where Warrant Certificates may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange and where Warrant Certificates may be surrendered for exercise of Warrants evidenced thereby, which office is _____, on the Original Issue Date. The Warrant Agent will give prompt written notice to all Holders of Warrant Certificates of any change in the location of such office.

(b) The Warrant Certificates evidencing the Warrants shall be issued in registered form only. The Company shall cause to be kept at the office of the Warrant Agent designated for such purpose a warrant register (the "Warrant Register") in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as the Warrant Agent may prescribe and such regulations as may be prescribed by law, the Company shall provide for the registration of Warrant Certificates and of transfers or exchanges of Warrant Certificates as herein provided.

(c) Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Warrant Certificate at the Corporate Agency Office, the Company shall execute, and the Warrant Agent shall countersign and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Warrant Certificates evidencing a like aggregate number of Warrants.

(d) At the option of the Holder, Warrant Certificates may be exchanged at the office of the Warrant Agent upon payment of the charges hereinafter provided for other Warrant Certificates evidencing a like aggregate number of Warrants. Whenever any Warrant Certificates are so surrendered for exchange, the Company shall execute, and the Warrant Agent shall countersign and deliver, the Warrant Certificates of the same tenor and evidencing the same number of Warrants as evidenced by the Warrant Certificates surrendered by the Holder making the exchange. Every Warrant Certificate surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Company or the Warrant Agent) be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Company and the Warrant Agent, duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

8.2 Restrictions on Exchanges and Transfers.

(a) No Warrants or Common Stock shall be sold, exchanged or otherwise Transferred (A) in violation of (i) the Securities Act or state securities Laws, (ii) the Communication Laws, or (iii) the Company's certificate of incorporation or other governing documents and (B) unless the transferee delivers to the Warrant Agent a properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable. If any Holder purports to Transfer Warrants to any Person in a transaction that would violate the provisions of this Section 8.2, such Transfer shall be void ab initio and of no effect.

(b) The Company reserves the right to reject any and all Assignment Forms that it reasonably determines are not in proper form or for which any corresponding agreement by the Company to Transfer or exchange would, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, be unlawful. Any such determination by the Company shall be final and binding on the Holder of the Warrants, absent manifest error provided that the Company shall provide a Holder with the reasonable opportunity to correct any defects in its Assignment Forms (without prejudicing such Holder's ability to deliver subsequent Assignment Forms). The Company further reserves the right to request such information (including, without limitation, information with respect to citizenship, other ownership interests and Affiliates) as the Company may deem appropriate, after consulting with independent outside legal counsel, to determine whether the Transfer or exchange of the Warrants would (i) be unlawful, (ii) subject the Company to any limitation under the Communications Laws that would not apply to the Company but for such exchange, (iii) limit or impair any business activities of the Company under the Communications Laws, which shall be furnished promptly by any Holder from whom such information is requested as a condition to such Holder's Transfer or exchange of Warrants[, (iv) involve circumstances that the Board of Directors determines could require the registration or qualification of any class of Common Stock or require the Company to file reports pursuant to any applicable federal or state securities laws or (v) subject the Company to regulation under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Investment Advisors Act of 1940, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or other applicable law or regulation, each as amended.] Moreover, the Company reserves the absolute right to waive any of the conditions to any particular Transfer or exchange of Warrants or any defects in the Assignment Form(s) with regard to any particular Transfer or exchange of Warrants. The Company shall provide prompt written notice to the Holder of any such rejection or waiver.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, it shall be a condition to the Transfer of any Warrant that the transferee of such Warrant (i) shall comply with Section 8.2(a) and (ii) to the extent such transferee exercises any Warrant, shall execute a joinder to the Shareholders' Agreement (or, in the case where such transferee does not execute such joinder, shall be deemed to have become a party to the Shareholders' Agreement, irrespective of whether such transferee physically executes the Shareholders' Agreement or a joinder thereto).

8.3 Miscellaneous Procedures for Transfer or Exchanges of Warrants.

(a) All Warrant Certificates issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates shall be the valid obligations of the Company, evidencing the same obligations, and entitled to the same benefits under this Agreement, as the Warrant Certificates surrendered for such registration of transfer or exchange.

(b) No service fee shall be charged to the transferor or transferee for any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates; provided, however, that the Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any stamp, registration or other similar transfer tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates.

(c) The Warrant Agent shall, upon request of the Company from time to time, deliver to the Company such reports of registered ownership of the Warrants and such records of transactions with respect to the Warrants and the shares of Common Stock as the Company may request. The Warrant Agent shall also make available to the Company for inspection by the Company's agents or employees, from time to time as the Company may request, such original books of accounts and records maintained by the Warrant Agent in connection with the issuance and exercise of Warrants hereunder, such inspections to occur at the Corporate Agency Office during normal business hours.

(d) The Warrant Agent shall keep copies of this Agreement and any notices given to Holders hereunder available for inspection by the Holders during normal business hours at the Corporate Agency Office. The Company shall supply the Warrant Agent from time to time with such numbers of copies of this Agreement as the Warrant Agent may request.

9. Warrant Holders.

9.1 No Voting or Dividend Rights.

(a) No Holder of a Warrant Certificate evidencing any Warrant shall have or exercise any rights, solely by reason of the ownership or possession of a Warrant or the Warrant Certificate representing the same or otherwise by virtue hereof, as a holder of Common Stock of the Company, including the right to vote, to receive dividends and other distributions as a holder of Common Stock or to receive notice of, or attend, meetings or any other proceedings of the holders of Common Stock.

(b) The consent of any Holder of a Warrant Certificate, solely by reason of the ownership or possession of a Warrant or the Warrant Certificate representing the same or otherwise by virtue hereof, shall not be required with respect to any action or proceeding of the Company, including with respect to any Third Party Sale Transaction.

(c) Except as provided in Section 4, no Holder of a Warrant Certificate, solely by reason of the ownership or possession of a Warrant or the Warrant Certificate representing the same or otherwise by virtue hereof, shall have any right to receive any cash dividends, equity security dividends, allotments or rights or other distributions paid, allotted or distributed or distributable to the holders of Common Stock prior to, or for which the relevant record date preceded, the date of the exercise of such Warrant.

(d) No Holder of a Warrant Certificate shall have any right not expressly conferred hereunder or under, or by applicable law with respect to, the Warrant Certificate held by such Holder.

9.2 Rights of Action. All rights of action against the Company in respect of this Agreement, except rights of action vested in the Warrant Agent, are vested in the Holders of the Warrant Certificates, and any Holder of any Warrant Certificate, without the consent of the Warrant Agent or the Holder of any other Warrant Certificate, may, in such Holder's own behalf and for such Holder's own benefit, enforce and may institute and maintain any suit, action or proceeding against the Company suitable to enforce, or otherwise in respect of, such Holder's right to exercise such Holder's Warrants in the manner provided in this Agreement.

9.3 Treatment of Holders of Warrant Certificates. Every Holder, by virtue of accepting a Warrant Certificate, consents and agrees with the Company, with the Warrant Agent and with every subsequent holder of such Warrant Certificate that, prior to due presentment of such Warrant Certificate for registration of transfer, the Company and the Warrant Agent may treat the Person in whose name the Warrant Certificate is registered as the owner thereof for all purposes and as the Person entitled to exercise the rights granted under the Warrants, and neither the Company, the Warrant Agent nor any agent thereof shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

9.4 Tax Forms. Each Holder of a Warrant Certificate shall deliver to the Warrant Agent a properly completed and duly executed IRS Form W-9 or the appropriate IRS Form W-8, as applicable.

9.5 [Representations and Warranties of the Holder. By acceptance of this Warrant Agreement, the Holder represents and warrants to the Company as follows:

(a) No Registration. The Holder understands that the Common Stock has not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act by reason of a specific exemption from the registration provisions of the Securities Act, the availability of which depends upon, among other things, the bona fide nature of the investment intent and the accuracy of the Holder's representations as expressed herein or otherwise made pursuant hereto.

(b) Investment Intent. The Holder is acquiring the Common Stock for investment for its own account, not as a nominee or agent, and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any distribution thereof. The Holder has no present intention of selling, granting any participation in, or otherwise distributing the Common Stock, nor does it have any contract, undertaking, agreement or arrangement for the same.

(c) Investment Experience. The Holder has substantial experience in evaluating and investing in private placement transactions of securities in companies similar to the Company, and has such knowledge and experience in financial or business matters so that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in the Company and protecting its own interests.

(d) Speculative Nature of Investment. The Holder understands and acknowledges that its investment in the Company is highly speculative and involves substantial risks. The Holder can bear the economic risk of its investment and is able, without impairing its financial condition, to hold the Common Stock for an indefinite period of time and to suffer a complete loss of its investment.

(e) Accredited Investor. The Holder is an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Regulation D, Rule 501(a), promulgated by the SEC and agrees to submit to the Company such further assurances of such status as may be reasonably requested by the Company. The Holder has furnished or made available any and all information requested by the Company to satisfy any applicable verification requirements as to "accredited investor" status. Any such information is true, correct and complete.

(f) Residency. The residency of the Holder (or, in the case of a partnership or corporation, such entity's principal place of business) has been correctly provided to the Company to the extent requested by the Company.

(g) Restrictions on Resales. The Holder acknowledges that the Common Stock must be held indefinitely unless subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from such registration is available. The Holder is aware of the provisions of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act, which permit resale of shares purchased in a private placement subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, which may include, among other things, the availability of certain current public information about the Company; the resale occurring not less than a specified period after a party has purchased and paid for the security to be sold; the number of shares being sold during any three-month period not exceeding specified limitations; the sale being effected through a "broker's transaction," a transaction directly with a "market maker" or a "riskless principal transaction" (as those terms are defined in the Securities Act or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder); and the filing of a Form 144 notice, if applicable. The Holder acknowledges and understands that the Company may not be satisfying the current public information requirement of Rule 144 at the time the Holder wishes to sell the Common Stock and that, in such event, the Holder may be precluded from selling the Common Stock under Rule 144 even if the other applicable requirements of Rule 144 have been satisfied. The Holder acknowledges that, in the event the applicable requirements of Rule 144 are not met, registration under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration will be required for any disposition of the Common Stock. The Holder understands that, although Rule 144 is not exclusive, the Securities and Exchange Commission has expressed its opinion that persons proposing to sell restricted securities received in a private offering other than in a registered offering or pursuant to Rule 144 will have a substantial burden of proof in establishing that an exemption from registration is available for such offers or sales and that such persons and the brokers who participate in the transactions do so at their own risk.

(h) No Public Market. The Holder understands and acknowledges that no public market now exists for any of the securities issued by the Company and that the Company has made no assurances that a public market will ever exist for the Company's securities.

(i) Brokers and Finders. The Holder has not engaged any brokers, finders or agents in connection with the Common Stock, and the Company has not incurred nor will incur, directly or indirectly, as a result of any action taken by the Holder, any liability for brokerage or finders' fees or agents' commissions or any similar charges in connection with the Common Stock.

(j) Legal Counsel. The Holder has had the opportunity to review this Warrant Agreement, the exhibits and schedules attached hereto and the transactions contemplated by this Warrant Agreement with its own legal counsel. Except as expressly set forth in this Warrant Agreement, the Holder is not relying on any statements or representations of the Company or its agents for legal advice with respect to this investment or the transactions contemplated by this Warrant Agreement.

(k) Tax Advisors. The Holder has reviewed with its own tax advisors the U.S. federal, state and local and non-U.S. tax consequences of this investment and the transactions contemplated by this Warrant Agreement. With respect to such matters, the Holder relies solely on any such advisors and not on any statements or representations of the Company or any of its agents, written or oral. The Holder understands that it (and not the Company) shall be responsible for its own tax liability that may arise as a result of this investment and the transactions contemplated by this Warrant Agreement.

(l) No "Bad Actor" Disqualification. Neither (i) the Holder, (ii) to its knowledge, any of its directors, executive officers, other officers that may serve as a director or officer of any company in which it invests, general partners or managing members, nor (iii) to its knowledge, any beneficial owner of any of the Company's voting equity securities (in accordance with Rule 506(d) of the Securities Act) held by the Holder is subject to any of the "bad actor" disqualifications described in Rule 506(d)(1)(i) through (viii) under the Securities Act, except as set forth in Rule 506(d)(2)(ii) or (iii) or (d)(3) under the Securities Act and disclosed, reasonably in advance of the acceptance of this Warrant Agreement, in writing in reasonable detail to the Company.]

10. Concerning the Warrant Agent.

10.1 Nature of Duties and Responsibilities Assumed. The Company hereby appoints the Warrant Agent to act as agent of the Company as set forth in this Agreement. The Warrant Agent hereby accepts the appointment as agent of the Company and agrees to perform that agency upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and in the Warrant Certificates or as the Company and the Warrant Agent may hereafter agree, by all of which the Company and the Holders of Warrant Certificates, by their acceptance thereof, shall be bound; provided, however, that the terms and conditions contained in the Warrant Certificates are subject to and governed by this Agreement or any other terms and conditions hereafter agreed to by the Company and the Warrant Agent.

The Warrant Agent shall not, by countersigning Warrant Certificates or by any other act hereunder, be deemed to make any representations as to validity or authorization of (i) the Warrants or the Warrant Certificates (except as to its countersignature thereon), (ii) any securities or other property delivered upon exercise of any Warrant, (iii) the accuracy of the computation of the number or kind or amount of equity securities or other securities or other property deliverable upon exercise of any Warrant or (iv) the correctness of any of the representations of the Company made in such certificates that the Warrant Agent receives. The Warrant Agent shall not at any time have any duty to calculate or determine whether any facts exist that may require any adjustments pursuant to Section 5 hereof with respect to the kind and amount of Common Stock or other securities or any property issuable to Holders upon the exercise of Warrants required from time to time. The Warrant Agent shall have no duty or responsibility to determine the accuracy or correctness of such calculation or with respect to the methods employed in making the same. The Warrant Agent shall not be accountable with respect to the validity or value (or the kind or amount) of any Common Stock or of any securities or property which may at any time be issued or delivered upon the exercise of any Warrant or upon any adjustment pursuant to Section 5 hereof, and it makes no representation with respect thereto. The Warrant Agent shall not be responsible for any failure of the Company to make any cash payment or to issue, transfer or deliver any Common Stock or stock or other securities or property upon the surrender of any Warrant Certificate for the purpose of exercise or upon any adjustment pursuant to Section 5 hereof or to comply with any of the covenants of the Company contained in Section 5 hereof.

The Warrant Agent shall not (i) be liable for any recital or statement of fact contained herein or in the Warrant Certificates or for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith on the belief that any Warrant Certificate or any other documents or any signatures are genuine or properly authorized, (ii) be responsible for any failure on the part of the Company to comply with any of its covenants and obligations contained in this Agreement or in the Warrant Certificates or (iii) be liable for any act or omission in connection with this Agreement except for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct (which gross negligence or willful misconduct must be determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction).

The Warrant Agent is hereby authorized to accept and protected in accepting instructions with respect to the performance of its duties hereunder by Company Order and to apply to any such officer named in such Company Order for instructions (which instructions will be promptly given in writing when requested), and the Warrant Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or suffered to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the instructions in any Company Order.

The Warrant Agent may execute and exercise any of the rights and powers hereby vested in it or perform any duty hereunder either itself or by or through its attorneys, agents or employees; provided, however, that reasonable care has been exercised in the selection and in the continued employment of any such attorney, agent or employee. The Warrant Agent shall not be under any obligation or duty to institute, appear in or defend any action, suit or legal proceeding in respect hereof, unless first indemnified to its satisfaction, but this provision shall not affect the power of the Warrant Agent to take such action as the Warrant Agent may consider proper, whether with or without such indemnity. The Warrant Agent shall promptly notify the Company in writing of any claim made or action, suit or proceeding instituted against it arising out of or in connection with this Agreement.

The Company shall perform, execute, acknowledge and deliver or cause to be performed, executed, acknowledged and delivered all such further acts, instruments and assurances as may reasonably be required by the Warrant Agent in order to enable it to carry out or perform its duties under this Agreement.

The Warrant Agent shall act solely as agent of the Company hereunder and does not assume any obligation or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the Holders or any beneficial owners of Warrants. The Warrant Agent shall not be liable except for the failure to perform such duties as are specifically set forth herein or specifically set forth in the Warrant Certificates, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Agreement against the Warrant Agent whose duties and obligations shall be determined solely by the express provisions hereof or the express provisions of the Warrant Certificates.

10.2 Right to Consult Counsel. The Warrant Agent may at any time consult with legal counsel satisfactory to it (who may be legal counsel for the Company), and the Warrant Agent shall incur no liability or responsibility to the Company or to any Holder for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith in accordance with the opinion or advice of such counsel.

10.3 Compensation, Reimbursement and Indemnification. The Company agrees to pay the Warrant Agent from time to time compensation for all fees and expenses relating to its services hereunder as the Company and the Warrant Agent may agree from time to time and to reimburse the Warrant Agent for reasonable expenses and disbursements, including reasonable counsel fees incurred in connection with the execution and administration of this Agreement. The Company further agrees to indemnify the Warrant Agent for and hold it harmless against any losses, liabilities or reasonable expenses arising out of or in connection with the acceptance and administration of this Agreement, including the reasonable costs, legal fees and expenses of investigating or defending any claim of such liability, except that the Company shall have no liability hereunder to the extent that any such loss, liability or expense results from the Warrant Agent's own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct (which gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct must be determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction).

10.4 Warrant Agent May Hold Company Securities. The Warrant Agent, any Countersigning Agent and any stockholder, equity holder, director, officer or employee of the Warrant Agent or any Countersigning Agent may buy, sell or deal in any of the warrants or other securities of the Company or its Affiliates, become pecuniarily interested in transactions in which the Company or its Affiliates may be interested, contract with or lend money to the Company or its Affiliates or otherwise act as fully and freely as though it were not the Warrant Agent or the Countersigning Agent, respectively, under this Agreement. Nothing herein shall preclude the Warrant Agent or any Countersigning Agent from acting in any other capacity for the Company or for any other legal entity.

10.5 Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) The Warrant Agent may resign its duties and be discharged from all further duties and liability hereunder (except liability arising as a result of the Warrant Agent's own gross negligence or willful misconduct) after giving 30 days' prior written notice to the Company. The Company may remove the Warrant Agent upon 30 days' written notice, and the Warrant Agent shall thereupon in like manner be discharged from all further duties and liabilities hereunder, except as aforesaid. The Warrant Agent shall, at the expense of the Company, cause notice to be given in accordance with Section 11.1(b) to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate of said notice of resignation or notice of removal, as the case may be. Upon such resignation or removal, the Company shall appoint in writing a new Warrant Agent. If the Company shall fail to make such appointment within a period of 30 calendar days after it has been notified in writing of such resignation by the resigning Warrant Agent or after such removal, then the Holder of any Warrant Certificate may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a new Warrant Agent. Any new Warrant Agent, whether appointed by the Company or by such a court, shall be an entity doing business under the laws of the United States or any state thereof in good standing, authorized under such laws to act as Warrant Agent, and having a combined capital and surplus of not less than $25,000,000. The combined capital and surplus of any such new Warrant Agent shall be deemed to be the combined capital and surplus as set forth in the most recent annual report of its condition published by such Warrant Agent prior to its appointment; provided, however, that such reports are published at least annually pursuant to law or to the requirements of a federal or state supervising or examining authority. After acceptance in writing of such appointment by the new Warrant Agent, it shall be vested with the same powers, rights, duties and responsibilities as if it had been originally named herein as the Warrant Agent, without any further assurance, conveyance, act or deed; but if for any reason it shall be reasonably necessary or expedient to execute and deliver any further assurance, conveyance, act or deed, the same shall be done at the reasonable expense of the Company and shall be legally and validly executed and delivered by the resigning or removed Warrant Agent. Not later than the effective date of any such appointment, the Company shall file notice thereof with the resigning or removed Warrant Agent. Failure to give any notice provided for in this Section 10.5(a), however, or any defect therein, shall not affect the legality or validity of the resignation of the Warrant Agent or the appointment of a new Warrant Agent as the case may be.

(b) Any entity into which the Warrant Agent or any new Warrant Agent may be merged, or any entity resulting from any consolidation to which the Warrant Agent or any new Warrant Agent shall be a party, shall be a successor Warrant Agent under this Agreement without any further act; provided, however, that such entity would be eligible for appointment as successor to the Warrant Agent under the provisions of Section 10.5(a). Any such successor Warrant Agent shall promptly cause notice of its succession as Warrant Agent to be given in accordance with Section 11.1(b) to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate at such Holder's last address as shown on the Warrant Register.

10.6 Appointment of Countersigning Agent.

(a) The Warrant Agent may appoint a Countersigning Agent or Agents which shall be authorized to act on behalf of the Warrant Agent to countersign Warrant Certificates issued upon original issue and upon exchange, registration of transfer or pursuant to Section 6, and Warrant Certificates so countersigned shall be entitled to the benefits of this Agreement equally and proportionately with any and all other Warrant Certificates duly executed and delivered hereunder. Wherever reference is made in this Agreement to the countersignature and delivery of Warrant Certificates by the Warrant Agent or to Warrant Certificates countersigned by the Warrant Agent, such reference shall be deemed to include countersignature and delivery on behalf of the Warrant Agent by a Countersigning Agent and Warrant Certificates countersigned by a Countersigning Agent. Each Countersigning Agent shall be acceptable to the Company and shall at the time of appointment be an entity doing business under the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof in good standing, authorized under such laws to act as Countersigning Agent, and having a combined capital and surplus of not less than $25,000,000. The combined capital and surplus of any such new Countersigning Agent shall be deemed to be the combined capital and surplus as set forth in the most recent annual report of its condition published by such Countersigning Agent prior to its appointment; provided, however, that such reports are published at least annually pursuant to law or to the requirements of a federal or state supervising or examining authority.

(b) Any entity into which a Countersigning Agent may be merged or any entity resulting from any consolidation to which such Countersigning Agent shall be a party, shall be a successor Countersigning Agent without any further act; provided, however, that such entity would be eligible for appointment as a new Countersigning Agent under the provisions of Section 10.6(a), without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of the Warrant Agent or the Countersigning Agent. Any such successor Countersigning Agent shall promptly cause notice of its succession as Countersigning Agent to be given in accordance with Section 11.1(b) to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate at such Holder's last address as shown on the Warrant Register.

(c) A Countersigning Agent may resign at any time by giving 30 days' prior written notice thereof to the Warrant Agent and to the Company. The Warrant Agent may at any time terminate the agency of a Countersigning Agent by giving 30 days' prior written notice thereof to such Countersigning Agent and to the Company.

(d) The Warrant Agent agrees to pay to each Countersigning Agent from time to time reasonable compensation for its services under this Section 10.6 and the Warrant Agent shall be entitled to be reimbursed for such payments, subject to the provisions of Section 10.3.

(e) Any Countersigning Agent shall have the same rights and immunities as those of the Warrant Agent set forth in Section 10.1.

11. Notices.

11.1 Notices Generally.

(a) Any request, notice, direction, authorization, consent, waiver, demand or other communication permitted or authorized by this Agreement to be made upon, given or furnished to or filed with the Company or the Warrant Agent by the other party hereto or by any Holder shall be sufficient for every purpose hereunder if in writing (including electronic mail or other form of electronic communication) and emailed or delivered by hand (including by courier service) as follows:

if to the Company, to:

_____
_____
_____
_____

if to the Warrant Agent, to:

_____
_____

or, in either case, such other address as shall have been set forth in a notice delivered in accordance with this Section 11.1(a).

All such communications shall, when so delivered by electronic mail or delivered by hand, be effective when electronically mailed with confirmation of receipt or received by the addressee, respectively.

(b) Where this Agreement provides for notice to Holders of any event, such notice shall be sufficiently given (unless otherwise herein expressly provided) if in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, to each Holder affected by such event, at the address of such Holder as it appears in the Warrant Register, not later than the latest date, and not earlier than the earliest date, prescribed for the giving of such notice. In any case where notice to Holders is given by mail, neither the failure to mail such notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Holder shall affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Holders. Where this Agreement provides for notice in any manner, such notice may be waived in writing by the Person entitled to receive such notice, either before or after the event, and such waiver shall be the equivalent of such notice.

In case by reason of the suspension of regular mail service or by reason of any other cause it shall be impracticable to give such notice by mail, then such notification as shall be made by a method approved by the Warrant Agent as one which would be most reliable under the circumstances for successfully delivering the notice to the addressees shall constitute a sufficient notification for every purpose hereunder.

11.2 Required Notices to Holders. In the event the Company shall:

(a) take any action that would result in an adjustment to the Exercise Price and/or the number of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of a Warrant pursuant to Section 5.1;

(b) consummate any Winding Up;

(c) consummate any [Third Party Sale Transaction or][15] [Change of Control]; or

(d) set a record date for determining the holders of Common Stock entitled to participate in any dividend or distribution (each of (a), (b), (c) or (d), an "Action");

then, the Company shall cause to be delivered to the Warrant Agent and shall give to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate, in accordance with Section 11.1(b) hereof, a written notice of such Action, including, (x) in the case of an Action pursuant to Section 11.2(a), the information required under Section 5.1(k)(ii), and (y) in the case of an Action pursuant to Section 11.2(c), the material terms and conditions of such Third Party Sale Transaction and the date on which such Third Party Sale Transaction is expected to become effective. Such notice shall (i) be given promptly after the effective date of such Action and (ii) in the case of an Action pursuant to Section 11.2(c), be given at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the closing of the relevant Third Party Sale Transaction; or (iii) in the case of any Action covered by clause (d) above, be given by the date that is nine (9) calendar days prior to such record date.

If at any time the Company shall cancel any of the Actions for which notice has been given under this Section 11.2 prior to the consummation thereof, the Company shall give each Holder prompt notice of such cancellation in accordance with Section 11.1(b).

[The Company shall cause any notice covered by clause (c) above of any Action constituting a Third Party Sale Transaction in which all or any portion of the Sale Securities Only Transaction Securities or Sale Cash and Securities Transaction Consideration comprises non-cash

property (other than securities listed or admitted for trading on any U.S. national securities exchange) to set forth the Fair Market Values of such non-cash property.][16]

In addition, in the event the Company enters into any definitive agreement with respect to any [Third Party Sale Transaction or][17] [Change of Control], the Company shall promptly cause to be delivered to the Warrant Agent and shall promptly give to each Holder of a Warrant Certificate, in accordance with Section 11.1(b), a notice of the entering into such definitive agreement.

12. Inspection.

The Warrant Agent shall cause a copy of this Agreement to be available at all reasonable times at the office of the Warrant Agent for inspection by any Holder of any Warrant Certificate. The Warrant Agent may require any such Holder to submit its Warrant Certificate for inspection by the Warrant Agent.

13. Amendments.

(a) Subject to Section 13(c), this Agreement may be amended, modified, waived or supplemented by the Company and the Warrant Agent with the consent of the Required Warrant Holders; provided, however, that any amendment, modification, waiver, or supplement to this Agreement which has a material, disproportionate, and adverse effect on any Holder of a Warrant Certificate (as compared to other Holders and without giving effect to such Holder's specific tax or economic position or any other matters personal to such holder) shall also require the approval of such Holder in order to be effective and enforceable against such Holder.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, subject to Section 13(c), the Company and the Warrant Agent may, without the consent or concurrence of the Holders of the Warrant Certificates, by supplemental agreement or otherwise, amend, modify, waive, or supplement this Agreement for the purpose of making any changes or corrections in this Agreement that (i) are required to cure any ambiguity or to correct or supplement any defective or inconsistent provision or clerical omission or mistake or manifest error herein contained or (ii) add to the covenants and agreements of the Company in this Agreement further covenants and agreements of the Company thereafter to be observed, or surrender any rights or powers reserved to or conferred upon the Company in this Agreement; provided, however, that any amendment, modification, waiver, or supplement to this Agreement which has a material, disproportionate, and adverse effect on any Holder of a Warrant Certificate (as compared to other Holders and without giving effect to such Holder's specific tax or economic position or any other matters personal to such holder) shall also require the approval of such Holder in order to be effective and enforceable against such Holder.

(c) The consent of each Holder of any Warrant Certificate evidencing any Warrants affected thereby shall be required for any supplement or amendment to this Agreement or the Warrants that would: (i) increase the Exercise Price or decrease the number of Common Stock receivable upon exercise of Warrants, in each case other than as provided in Section 5.1; (ii) change the Expiration Time to an earlier date or time; (iii) modify the provisions contained in Section 5.1, Section 5.3 or Section 11.2 (including the definitions used in and material to such Sections) in a manner adverse to the Holders of Warrant Certificates generally with respect to their Warrants; (iv) amend or modify this Section 13 or Section 14 in a manner adverse to the Holders of the Warrant Certificates; or (v) modify the definition of "Required Warrant Holders".

(d) The Warrant Agent shall join with the Company in the execution and delivery of any such amendment unless such amendment affects the Warrant Agent's own rights, duties or immunities hereunder, in which case the Warrant Agent may, but shall not be required to, join in such execution and delivery; provided, however, that as a condition precedent to the Warrant Agent's execution of any amendment to this Agreement, the Company shall deliver to the Warrant Agent a certificate from an Appropriate Officer that states that the proposed amendment is in compliance with the terms of this Section 13. Upon execution and delivery of any amendment pursuant to this Section 13, such amendment shall be considered a part of this Agreement for all purposes and every Holder of a Warrant Certificate theretofore or thereafter countersigned and delivered hereunder shall be bound thereby.

(e) Promptly after the execution by the Company and the Warrant Agent of any such amendment, the Company shall give notice to the Holders of Warrant Certificates, setting forth in general terms the substance of such amendment, in accordance with the provisions of Section 11.1(b). Any failure of the Company to mail such notice or any defect therein, shall not, however, in any way impair or affect the validity of any such amendment.

14. Waivers.

The Company may take any action herein prohibited, or omit to perform any act herein required to be performed by it, only if the Company has obtained the written consent of the Required Warrant Holders as required pursuant to Section 13 and, if Section 13(c) applies, the consent of the Holders of any Warrant Certificates evidencing any Warrants affected thereby.

15. [Successor to Company.

So long as Warrants remain outstanding, the Company will not enter into any Non-Surviving Transaction that constitutes[either a Redomestication Transaction or] a Non-Sale Transaction in which Warrants would be outstanding after consummation unless the acquirer (a "Successor Company") shall expressly assume by a supplemental agreement, executed and delivered to the Warrant Agent, in form reasonably satisfactory to the Warrant Agent, the due and punctual performance of every covenant of this Agreement on the part of the Company to be performed and observed and shall have provided for exercise rights in accordance with Section 5.1(f). Upon the consummation of such[Redomestication Transaction or] a Non-Sale Transaction, the Successor Company shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Company under this Agreement with the same effect as if such Successor Company had been named as the Company herein.][18]

16. Headings.

The section headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and will not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

17. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original, but all of which together constitute one and the same instrument. A signature to this Agreement transmitted electronically shall have the same authority, effect and enforceability as an original signature.

18. Severability.

The provisions of this Agreement will be deemed severable and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision hereof will not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions hereof; provided, however, that if any provision of this Agreement, as applied to any party or to any circumstance, is adjudged by a court or governmental body not to be enforceable in accordance with its terms, the parties agree that the court or governmental body making such determination will have the power to modify the provision in a manner consistent with its objectives such that it is enforceable, and/or to delete specific words or phrases, and in its reduced form, such provision will then be enforceable and will be enforced.

19. No Redemption.

The Warrants shall not be subject to redemption by the Company or any other Person; provided, however, that (i) the Warrants may be acquired by means other than a redemption, whether by tender offer, open market purchases, negotiated transactions or otherwise, in accordance with applicable securities laws, so long as such acquisition does not otherwise violate the terms of this Agreement and (ii) the Warrants are subject to termination upon a Third Party Sale Transaction as specified in Section 5.1(f).

20. Persons Benefiting.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company, the Warrant Agent and the Holders from time to time. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any person other than the Company, the Warrant Agent and the Holders any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement or any part hereof, and all covenants, conditions, stipulations, promises and agreements contained in this Agreement shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the parties hereto and of the Holders; provided, however, that the Non-Recourse Parties are express third-party beneficiaries of Section 24. Each Holder, by acceptance of a Warrant Certificate, agrees to all of the terms and provisions of this Agreement applicable thereto.

THE PARTIES HERETO CONSENT AND AGREE TO SUBMIT TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF SUCH COURTS. THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE THAT MAILING OF PROCESS OR OTHER PAPERS IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING TO AN ADDRESS PROVIDED IN WRITING BY THE RECIPIENT OF SUCH MAILING, OR IN SUCH OTHER MANNER AS MAY BE PERMITTED BY LAW, SHALL BE VALID AND SUFFICIENT SERVICE THEREOF AND HEREBY WAIVE ANY OBJECTIONS TO SERVICE IN THE MANNER HEREIN PROVIDED.

22. Waiver of Jury Trial.

EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT ANY DISPUTE THAT MAY ARISE OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE SUCH PARTY HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO JURY TRIAL OF ANY DISPUTE BASED UPON OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER AGREEMENTS RELATING HERETO OR ANY DEALINGS AMONG THEM RELATING TO THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. THE SCOPE OF THIS WAIVER IS INTENDED TO ENCOMPASS ANY AND ALL ACTIONS, SUITS AND PROCEEDINGS THAT RELATE TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY, INCLUDING CONTRACT CLAIMS, TORT CLAIMS, BREACH OF DUTY CLAIMS, AND ALL OTHER COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY CLAIMS. EACH PARTY REPRESENTS THAT (I) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT IN THE EVENT OF ANY ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (II) SUCH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND WITH THE ADVICE OF COUNSEL HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (III) SUCH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (IV) SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND REPRESENTATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.4.

23. Entire Agreement.

This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement of the parties hereto as to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all previous agreements among all or some of the parties hereto with respect thereto, whether written, oral or otherwise.

24. Confidentiality.

Except for required disclosures to any regulatory authority or self-regulatory authority with authority to regulate or oversee any aspect of the business of a Holder or its Affiliates, including bank and securities examiners or any other governmental body (provided, disclosures to such regulatory authority or self-regulatory authority shall be made with instructions to maintain confidentiality of the Confidential Information (as defined below)) or as and to the extent as may be required by applicable law, without the prior written consent of the Company, each Holder shall not make, and shall direct its officers, directors, managers, agents, employees and other representatives not to make, directly or indirectly, any public comment, statement, or communication with respect to, or otherwise disclose or permit the disclosure of Confidential Information or any of the terms, conditions, or other aspects of this Agreement; provided, however, that each Holder and each of its respective equity owners may disclose Confidential Information (i) to its and their respective attorneys, accountants, consultants, and other advisors or professionals to the extent necessary to obtain their services in connection with monitoring its investment in the Company and who are subject to confidentiality obligations to such Holder at least as protective as the terms set forth in this Section 23, provided, such Holder shall be responsible for any breach of such confidentiality provisions by any attorneys, accountants, consultants, or other advisors or professionals of such Holder or such Holder's equity owners or Affiliates that actually receive Confidential Information; (ii) to the extent required under any agreement between such Holder or its respective equity owners and the respective investors, limited partners or other similar Persons of such Holder and its respective equity owners, as applicable, who are subject to obligations of confidentiality and in confidential materials delivered to prospective investors, limited partners or other similar Persons of such Holder and its respective equity owners, as applicable, who are subject to obligations of confidentiality; provided, however, that such Holder will use commercially reasonable best efforts to, and shall direct its respective equity owners, to, enforce their respective rights in connection with a known breach of such confidentiality obligations by any Person receiving Confidential Information pursuant to this clause (ii), and (iii) to a bona fide potential purchaser of Common Stock or Warrants held by such Holder if such bona fide potential purchaser executes a confidentiality agreement with such Holder containing terms at least as protective as the terms set forth in this Section 23 and which, among other things, provides for third-party beneficiary rights in favor of the Company to enforce the terms thereof. Each Holder shall use, and shall direct its officers, directors, managers, agents, employees and other representatives to whom Confidential Information is disclosed to use, the Confidential Information only in connection with its investment in the Common Stock of the Company and not for any other purpose (including to disadvantage the Company, any equity holder, or any other Holder). As used herein, "Confidential Information" means all information, knowledge, systems or data relating to the business, operations, finances, policies, strategies, intentions or inventions of the Company and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates (including any of the terms of this Agreement) from whatever source obtained, except for any such information, knowledge, systems or data which at the time of disclosure was (x) in the public domain or otherwise in the possession of the disclosing Person unless such information, knowledge, systems or data was placed into the public domain or became known to such disclosing Person in violation of any non-disclosure obligation, including this Section 23, (y) becomes available to the disclosing Person from a third party on a non-confidential basis, provided that such third party is not known by the disclosing Person to have a contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality with respect thereto, or (z) developed by or on behalf of the disclosing Person without use of or reference to the Confidential Information or breach of this Section 23.

The Warrant Agent and the Company agree that the Warrant Register and the number of Warrants held by each Holder (but not the aggregate number of Warrants outstanding) shall constitute "Confidential Information" and shall not be disclosed by the Warrant Agent or the Company except in compliance with this Section 23, which shall apply to the Warrant Agent and the Company mutatis mutandis with respect to such information.

Each Holder, the Warrant Agent and the Company agree that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Section 23, and that in addition to all other remedies, the non-breaching party shall be entitled to seek injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy for any such breach. Each Holder, the Warrant Agent and the Company agree not to oppose the granting of such relief and agrees to waive any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with such remedy.

If any Holder is required by applicable law to disclose any Confidential Information (other than to a regulatory or self-regulatory authority), it must, to the extent practicable and permitted by applicable law, first provide notice reasonably in advance to the Company with respect to the content of the proposed disclosure, the reasons that such disclosure is required by law and the time and place that the disclosure will be made. Such Holder shall cooperate, at the Company's sole cost and expense, with the Company to obtain confidentiality agreements or arrangements with respect to any legally mandated disclosure and in any event shall disclose only such information as is required by applicable law when required to do so.

25. Non-Recourse.

Notwithstanding anything express or implied in this Agreement, each Holder and the Warrant Agent covenants, agrees and acknowledges that no recourse under this Agreement or any documents or instruments delivered in connection with this Agreement shall be had against any of the former, current or future direct or indirect equityholders, unitholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, Affiliates, members, financing sources, managers, general or limited partners or assignees, in each case, of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (collectively, but not including the Company itself or any of its subsidiaries, the "Non-Recourse Parties"), whether by the enforcement of any assessment or by any legal or equitable proceeding, or by virtue of any applicable law, it being expressly agreed and acknowledged that no personal liability whatsoever shall attach to, be imposed on or otherwise be incurred by any of the Non-Recourse Parties, as such, for any obligation or liability of the Company under this Agreement or any documents or instruments delivered in connection herewith for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or liabilities or their creation; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 24 shall relieve or otherwise limit the liability of the Company for any breach or violation of its obligations under this Agreement or such agreements, documents or instruments.

26. Waiver of Certain Damages.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, each of the Company, each Holder and the Warrant Agent agrees not to assert, and hereby waives, any claim against any other party, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any Warrant or any of the transactions contemplated hereby.

27. Interpretation.

Unless otherwise indicated to the contrary herein by the context or use thereof: (i) the words, "herein," "hereto," "hereof" and words of similar import refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular Section or paragraph hereof; (ii) the word "including" means "including, but not limited to"; (iii) masculine gender shall also include the feminine and neutral genders, and vice versa; and (iv) words importing the singular shall also include the plural, and vice versa. Unless the context of this Agreement otherwise requires, references to statutes shall include all regulations promulgated thereunder and references to statutes or regulations shall be construed as including all statutory and regulatory provisions consolidating, amending or replacing the statute or regulation. All references to currency, monetary values, "$" and dollars set forth herein shall mean United States dollars (USD) and all payments hereunder shall be made in United States dollars. All accounting terms used herein and not expressly defined herein shall have the meaning given to them under GAAP. Except when used together with the word "either" or otherwise for the purpose of identifying mutually exclusive alternatives, the term "or" has the inclusive meaning represented by the phrase "and/or". The words "will" and "will not" are expressions of command and not merely expressions of future intent or expectation. When used in this Agreement, the word "either" shall be deemed to mean "one or the other", not "both". References herein to a party are references to the parties to this Agreement, except to the extent expressly provided otherwise.

A copy of the Warrant Agreement shall be available at all reasonable times at the Corporate Agency Office for inspection by the Holder hereof.

The Warrant Agreement provides that, in addition to certain adjustments to the number of shares of Common Stock into which a Warrant is exercisable and the Exercise Price required to be made in certain circumstances[, (x) in the case of any Transaction that is a Redomestication Transaction or a Non-Sale Transaction, the Company shall (or, in the case of any such Transaction that is a Non-Surviving Transaction, the Company shall cause the other Person involved in such Transaction to) execute and deliver to the Warrant Agent a written instrument providing that (i) the Warrants evidenced hereby, if then outstanding, will be exercisable thereafter, during the period the Warrants evidenced hereby shall be exercisable as specified herein, only into the Substituted Property that would have been receivable upon such Transaction by a Qualifying Person holding the number of shares of Common Stock that would have been issued upon exercise of such Warrant if such Warrant had been exercised in full immediately prior to such Transaction (upon certain assumptions specified in the Warrant Agreement) and (ii) the rights and obligations of the Company (or, in the case of any such Transaction that is a Non-Surviving Transaction, the other Person involved in such Transaction) and the holders in respect of Substituted Property shall be substantially unchanged to be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the rights and obligations of the Company and Holders in respect of shares of Common Stock, and (y) in the case of any Third Party Sale Transaction, the Warrants will expire at the effective time of consummation thereof and, if the specified "Black-Scholes Value" is greater than zero, the Company will make certain specified payments of cash or other consideration all as more fully specified in the Warrant Agreement.]

Except as provided in the Warrant Agreement, all outstanding Warrants shall expire, terminate and become void, and all rights of the Holders of Warrant Certificates evidencing such Warrants shall automatically terminate and cease to exist, as of the Expiration Time. The Warrant Certificates are issuable only in registered form in denominations of whole numbers of Warrants. Upon surrender at the office of the Warrant Agent and payment of the charges specified herein and in the Warrant Agreement, this Warrant Certificate may be exchanged for Warrant Certificates in other authorized denominations or the transfer hereof may be registered in whole or in part in authorized denominations to one or more designated transferees; provided, however, that such other Warrant Certificates issued upon exchange or registration of transfer shall evidence the same aggregate number of Warrants as this Warrant Certificate. The Company shall cause to be kept at the office of the Warrant Agent the Warrant Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as the Warrant Agent may prescribe and such regulations as may be prescribed by law, the Company shall provide for the registration of Warrant Certificates and of transfers or exchanges of Warrant Certificates. No service charge shall be made for any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates; provided, however, that the Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any registration of transfer or exchange of Warrant Certificates.

Prior to due presentment of this Warrant Certificate for registration of transfer, the Company, the Warrant Agent and any agent of the Company or the Warrant Agent may treat the Person in whose name this Warrant Certificate is registered as the owner hereof for all purposes, and neither the Company, the Warrant Agent nor any such agent shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

The Warrant Agreement permits, with certain exceptions as therein provided, the amendment thereof and the modification of the rights and obligations of the Company and the rights of the Holders of Warrant Certificates under the Warrant Agreement at any time by the Company and the Warrant Agent with the consent of the Required Warrant Holders.

This Warrant Certificate, each Warrant evidenced thereby and the Warrant Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to any choice of law or conflict of law rules or provisions (whether of the State of New York or any other jurisdiction) to the extent such rules or provisions would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of New York. (e) The term "documents" includes any and all instruments, documents, agreements, certificates, notices, reports, financial statements and other writings, however evidenced, whether in physical or electronic form.

(f) In the computation of periods of time from a specified date to a later specified date, the word "from" means "from and including"; the words "to" and "until" each mean "to but excluding"; and the word "through" means "to and including".

(g) Article and Section headings herein and in the other Loan Documents are included for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Agreement or any other Loan Document.

Section 1.03. Accounting Terms; GAAP.

(a) All accounting terms not specifically or completely defined herein shall be construed in conformity with GAAP, except as otherwise specifically prescribed herein.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, for purposes of this Agreement (including in determining compliance with any test or covenant contained herein) with respect to (i) any Test Period during which any Specified Transaction occurs, the applicable Ratio shall be calculated with respect to such Test Period and such Specified Transaction on a Pro Forma Basis and (ii) any Test Period with respect to which testing is based on a Specified Transaction happening after the end of such Test Period, the applicable Ratio shall be calculated as if such Specified Transaction had taken place on the first day of such Test Period.

(c) If the Borrower notifies the Administrative Agent that the Borrower wishes to amend any provision hereof to eliminate the effect of any change in GAAP (or in the application thereof) occurring after the Closing Date on the operation of such provision (or if the Administrative Agent notifies the Borrower that the Required Lenders request an amendment to any provision hereof for such purpose), regardless of whether any such notice is given before or after such change in GAAP or in the application thereof, then the compliance of the Borrower and its Subsidiaries with such provision shall be determined on the basis of GAAP as in effect (and as applied) immediately before the relevant change became effective, until either such notice is withdrawn or such provision is amended in a manner satisfactory to the Borrower and the Required Lenders. Until such notice is withdrawn or the relevant provision is so amended, the Borrower shall provide to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders financial statements and other documents required under this Agreement setting forth a reconciliation between calculations made with respect to the relevant provision before and after giving effect to such change in GAAP. Notwithstanding any other provision of this agreement, in no event shall a lease obligation that does not constitute a Capitalized Lease Obligation under GAAP as in effect on the date hereof be treated as a Capitalized Lease Obligation for any purpose hereof.

Any financial ratios required to be maintained by the Borrower pursuant to this Agreement (or required to be satisfied in order for a specific action to be permitted under this Agreement) shall be calculated by dividing the appropriate component by the other component, carrying the result to one place more than the number of places by which such ratio is expressed herein and rounding the result up or down to the nearest number (with a rounding up if there is no nearest number).

Section 1.08. Pro Forma and Other Calculations.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, financial ratios and tests, including the Ratios, shall be calculated in the manner prescribed by this Section 1.08.

(b) In the event that the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries incurs, assumes, guarantees, redeems, retires or extinguishes any Indebtedness or issues or redeems Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock subsequent to the Test Period for which any Ratio is being calculated but prior to or simultaneously with the event for which the calculation of the applicable Ratio is made (the "Ratio Calculation Date"), then the applicable Ratio shall be calculated giving pro forma effect to such incurrence, assumption, guarantee, redemption, retirement or extinguishment of Indebtedness, or such issuance or redemption of Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, as if the same had occurred on the last day of the applicable Test Period; provided, however, that, for purposes of any pro forma calculation of the Consolidated Net Leverage Ratio on such determination date pursuant to the provisions described in Section 7.02(a), the pro forma calculation shall not give effect to any Indebtedness incurred on such determination date pursuant to the provisions described under Section 7.02(b).

(c) For purposes of making the computation referred to above, Investments, Acquisitions, Dispositions, mergers, amalgamations and consolidations (as determined in accordance with GAAP), in each case with respect to a business (as such term is used in Regulation S-X Rule 11-01 under the Securities Act), a company, a segment, an operating division or unit or line of business that the Borrower, or any of its Subsidiaries has determined to make and/or made during the Test Period or subsequent to such Test Period and on or prior to or simultaneously with the Ratio Calculation Date shall be calculated on a pro forma basis in accordance with GAAP (except as set forth in the last sentence of clause (d) below) assuming that all such Investments, Acquisitions, Dispositions, mergers, amalgamations and consolidations (and the change in any associated fixed charge obligations and the change in Consolidated EBITDA resulting therefrom (and, in the case of any pro forma calculation of Consolidated EBITDA, subject only to any limitation set forth in clause (z) to the proviso to clause (a)(J) of the definition of Consolidated EBITDA, to the extent applicable)) had occurred on the first day of the Test Period. If since the beginning of such Test Period any Person that subsequently became a Subsidiary or was merged with or into the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries since the beginning of such Test Period shall have made any Investment, Acquisition, Disposition, merger, amalgamation and consolidation, in each case with respect to a business (as such term is used in Regulation S-X Rule 11-01 under the Securities Act), a company, a segment, an operating division or unit or line of business that would have required adjustment pursuant to this Section 1.08, then the applicable Ratio shall be calculated giving pro forma effect thereto for such Test Period as if such Investment, Acquisition, Disposition, merger and consolidation had occurred at the beginning of the applicable Test Period.

(d) For purposes of making the computation referred to above, whenever pro forma effect is to be given to a transaction, the pro forma calculations shall be made in good faith by a responsible financial or accounting officer of the Borrower. Any such pro forma calculation may include adjustments appropriate, in the reasonable determination of the Borrower as set forth in an officer's certificate, to reflect reasonably identifiable and factually supportable operating expense reductions and other operating improvements or synergies reasonably expected to result from any action taken or expected to be taken within eighteen (18) months after the date of any Acquisition, amalgamation or merger (and, in the case of any pro forma calculation of Consolidated EBITDA, subject only to the limitation set forth in clause (z) to the proviso to clause (a)(J) of the definition of Consolidated EBITDA, to the extent applicable); provided, that no such amounts shall be included pursuant to this paragraph to the extent duplicative of any amounts that are otherwise added back in computing Consolidated EBITDA with respect to such period.

(e) For purposes of calculation of any Ratio, any amount in a currency other than U.S. dollars will be converted to U.S. dollars based on the average exchange rate for such currency for the most recent twelve (12) month period immediately prior to the date of determination determined in a manner consistent with that used in calculating Consolidated EBITDA for the applicable Test Period.

(f) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any Loan Document to the contrary, when calculating any applicable ratio or determining other compliance with this Agreement (including the determination of compliance with any provision of this Agreement which requires that no Default or Event of Default has occurred, is continuing or would result therefrom) in connection with a Specified Transaction undertaken in connection with the consummation of a Limited Condition Acquisition and the incurrence of any Indebtedness (and use of the proceeds thereof) in connection therewith, the date of determination of such ratio and determination of whether any Default or Event of Default has occurred, is continuing or would result therefrom or the date of determination of such other applicable covenant shall, at the option of the Borrower (the Borrower's election to exercise such option in connection with any Limited Condition Acquisition, an "LCA Election"), be deemed to be the date the definitive agreements for such Limited Condition Acquisition are entered into (the "LCA Test Date") and if, after such ratios and other provisions are measured on a pro forma basis after giving effect to such Limited Condition Acquisition and the other Specified Transactions to be entered into in connection therewith (including any incurrence of Indebtedness (including any Incremental Facility) and the use of proceeds thereof) as if they occurred at the beginning of the four consecutive fiscal quarter period being used to calculate such financial ratio ending prior to the LCA Test Date, the Borrower could have taken such action on the relevant LCA Test Date in compliance with such ratios and provisions, such provisions shall be deemed to have been complied with. For the avoidance of doubt, if and after the Borrower has made an LCA Election for any Limited Condition Acquisition, (x) if any of such ratios are exceeded as a result of fluctuations in such ratio (including due to fluctuations in Consolidated EBITDA) at or prior to the consummation of the relevant Limited Condition Acquisition, such ratios and other provisions will not be deemed to have been exceeded as a result of such fluctuations solely for purposes of determining whether the Limited Condition Acquisition and any related Specified Transaction and/or incurrence of Indebtedness in connection therewith are permitted hereunder and (y) such ratios and other provisions shall not be tested at the time of consummation of such Limited Condition Acquisition or related Specified Transactions. If the Borrower has made an LCA Election for any Limited Condition Acquisition, then in connection with any subsequent calculation of any ratio or basket availability with respect to any other Specified Transaction on or following the relevant LCA Test Date and prior to the earlier of the date on which such Limited Condition Acquisition is consummated or the date that the definitive agreement for such Limited Condition Acquisition is terminated or expires without consummation of such Limited Condition Acquisition, any such ratio or basket shall be calculated (I) on a pro forma basis assuming such Limited Condition Acquisition and other transactions in connection therewith (including any incurrence of Indebtedness and the use of proceeds thereof) have been consummated and (II) on a pro forma basis but without giving effect to such Limited Condition Acquisition and other transactions in connection therewith (including any incurrence of Indebtedness and the use of proceeds thereof).

Section 1.10. Interest Rates; Benchmark Notification.

Upon the occurrence of a Benchmark Transition Event, Section 3.03(b) provides a mechanism for determining an alternative rate of interest. The Administrative Agent does not warrant or accept any responsibility for, and shall not have any liability with respect to, the administration, submission, performance or any other matter related to any interest rate used in this Agreement, or with respect to any alternative or successor rate thereto, or replacement rate thereof (including without limitation, whether the composition or characteristics of any such alternative, successor or replacement reference rate will be similar to, or produce the same value or economic equivalence of, the existing interest rate being replaced or have the same volume or liquidity as did the existing interest rate prior to its discontinuance or unavailability). The Administrative Agent and its affiliates and/or other related entities may engage in transactions that affect the calculation of any interest rate used in this Agreement or any alternative, successor or alternative rate (including any Benchmark Replacement) and/or any relevant adjustments thereto, in each case, in a manner adverse to the Borrower. The Administrative Agent may select information sources or services in its reasonable discretion to ascertain any interest rate used in this Agreement, any component thereof, or rates referenced in the definition thereof, in each case pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, and shall have no liability to the Borrower, any Lender or any other person or entity for damages of any kind, including direct or indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, costs, losses or expenses (whether in tort, contract or otherwise and whether at law or in equity), for any error or calculation of any such rate (or component thereof) provided by any such information source or service.

Section 1.11. Divisions.

For all purposes under the Loan Documents, in connection with any division or plan of division under Delaware law (or any comparable event under a different jurisdiction's laws): (a) if any asset, right, obligation or liability of any Person becomes the asset, right, obligation or liability of a different Person, then it shall be deemed to have been transferred from the original Person to the subsequent Person, and (b) if any new Person comes into existence, such new Person shall be deemed to have been organized and acquired on the first date of its existence by the holders of its Equity Interests at such time.

If the Borrower fails to specify a Type of Loan in a Committed Loan Notice or fails to give a timely notice requesting a conversion or continuation, then the applicable Term Loans shall be made as, or converted to, Base Rate Loans. Any such automatic conversion to Base Rate Loans shall be effective as of the last day of the Interest Period then in effect with respect to the applicable Term SOFR Loans. If the Borrower requests a Borrowing of, conversion to or continuation of Term SOFR Loans in any such Committed Loan Notice, but fails to specify an Interest Period, it will be deemed to have specified an Interest Period of one (1) month.

(b) The Administrative Agent, following receipt of a Committed Loan Notice, shall promptly notify each Lender of the amount of its Pro Rata Share of the applicable Class of Loans, and if no timely notice of a conversion or continuation is provided by the Borrower, the Administrative Agent shall notify each Lender of the details of any automatic conversion to Base Rate Loans or continuation described in Section 2.02(a). In the case of each Borrowing, each Appropriate Lender shall make the amount of its Loan available to the Administrative Agent in immediately available funds not later than 12:00 noon on the Business Day specified in the applicable Committed Loan Notice to the account of the Administrative Agent most recently designated by it for such purpose by notice to the Lenders most recently designated by it for such purpose by notice to the Lenders. date of the funding of the Term Loans for its own account and (ii) in accordance with the Flow of Funds Statement, and subject to Section 4.01, remit to the Borrower any remaining amounts.

(c) Except as otherwise provided herein, a Term SOFR Loan may be continued or converted only on the last day of an Interest Period for such Term SOFR Loan unless the Borrower pays the amount due, if any, under Section 3.05 in connection therewith. During the existence of an Event of Default, the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders may require that no Loans may be converted to or continued as Term SOFR Loans.

(d) The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify the Borrower and the Lenders of the interest rate applicable to any Interest Period for Term SOFR Loans upon determination of such interest rate. The determination of the Adjusted Term SOFR by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error.

(e) After giving effect to all Term Borrowings, all conversions of Term Loans from one Type to the other and all continuations of Term Loans as the same Type, there shall not be more than twelve (12) Interest Periods in effect.

(f) The failure of any Lender to make the Loan to be made by it as part of any Borrowing shall not relieve any other Lender of its obligation, if any, hereunder to make its Loan on the date of such Borrowing, but no Lender shall be responsible for the failure of any other Lender to make the Loan to be made by such other Lender on the date of any Borrowing.

Section 2.03. [Reserved].

Each such notice shall specify the date and amount of such prepayment and the Class (or Classes) and Type (or Types) of Loans and the order of Borrowing (or Borrowings) to be prepaid. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Appropriate Lender of its receipt of each such notice, and of the amount of such Lender's Pro Rata Share of such prepayment. If such notice is given by the Borrower, the Borrower shall make such prepayment and the payment amount specified in such notice shall be due and payable on the date specified therein; provided, that the Borrower may rescind any notice of prepayment under this Section 2.05(a) if such prepayment would have resulted from a refinancing or other repayment of all of any Facility or other transaction, which refinancing or transaction shall not be consummated or shall otherwise be delayed. Any prepayment of a Term SOFR Loan shall be accompanied by all accrued interest thereon, together with any additional amounts required pursuant to Section 3.05. Partial prepayments of the Term Loans of any Class pursuant to this Section 2.05(a) shall be applied to the remaining scheduled amortization installments of the Term Loans of such Class required under Section 2.07(a) as directed by the Borrower.

(b) Mandatory.

(i) If (1) the Borrower or any Subsidiary Disposes of any property or assets (other than any Disposition of any property or assets permitted by Section 7.04 (excluding dispositions permitted by Section 7.04(m) or (t) (to the extent the proceeds thereof are received by Borrower or a Subsidiary))) or (2) any Casualty Event occurs, that results in the realization or receipt by the Borrower or such Subsidiary of Net Proceeds in excess of $1,000,000 individually or $5,000,000 in the aggregate, the Borrower shall cause to be prepaid on or prior to the date which is ten (10) Business Days after the date of the realization or receipt by the Borrower or such Subsidiary of such Net Proceeds (x) so long as any Tranche A Term Loan Lender shall have any Tranche A Term Loan Commitment hereunder, any Tranche A Term Loan or other Obligations on account of the Tranche A Term Loans hereunder which is accrued and payable, an aggregate amount of Tranche A Term Loans, and (y) after the full payment and satisfaction of all Tranche A Term Loan Commitments, all Tranche A Term Loans or other Obligations on account of the Tranche A Term Loans hereunder which are accrued and payable to the Lenders, an aggregate amount of Term Loans, in each case, in an amount equal to 100% of all Net Proceeds received; provided that the Net Proceeds of any Disposition required to be used to prepay the Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(b)(i) may be used to prepay the Superpriority Revolving Credit Facility (and with such prepaid amount of the Superpriority Revolving Credit Facility resulting in a corresponding permanent reduction in commitments thereunder at the time of such prepayments) and/or Permitted Pari Passu Secured Refinancing Debt (or any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof that is secured on a pari passu basis with the Obligations), in each case to the extent that the terms of the definitive documentation governing any such Indebtedness requires the Borrower or such Subsidiary to prepay such Indebtedness with the proceeds of such Disposition.

(ii) If any Loan Party or any Subsidiary incurs or issues any Indebtedness after the Closing Date (other than, in the case of the Borrower or any Subsidiary, Indebtedness permitted under Section 7.02), the Borrower shall cause to be prepaid (subject to the Prepayment Premium) (x) so long as any Tranche A Term Loan Lender shall have any Tranche A Term Loan Commitment hereunder, any Tranche A Term Loan or other Obligations on account of the Tranche A Term Loans hereunder which is accrued and payable, an aggregate amount of Tranche A Term Loans, and (y) after the full payment and satisfaction of all Tranche A Term Loan Commitments, any Tranche A Term Loans or other Obligations on account of the Tranche A Term Loans hereunder which are accrued and payable to the Tranche A Term Loan Lenders, an aggregate amount of Term Loans, in an amount equal to 100% of all Net Proceeds received therefrom on or prior to the date which is five (5) Business Days after the receipt by such Loan Party or Subsidiary of such Net Proceeds.

(iii) [Reserved].

(iv) If, for any Excess Cash Flow Period, there shall be Excess Cash Flow, then not later than ten (10) Business Days after the date on which the Borrower is required to deliver annual financial statements pursuant to Section 6.01(a) with respect to such Excess Cash Flow Period, the Borrower shall prepay, (x) so long as any Tranche A Term Loan Lender shall have any Tranche A Term Loan Commitment hereunder, any Tranche A Term Loan or other Obligation on account of the Tranche A Term Loans hereunder which is accrued and payable, the Tranche A Term Loans, and (y) after the full payment and satisfaction of all Tranche A Term Loan Commitments, any Tranche A Term Loans or other Obligations on account of the Tranche A Term Loans hereunder which are accrued and payable to the Tranche A Term Loan Lenders, the Term Loans, in an amount equal to (A) the Required ECF Percentage multiplied by the amount of Excess Cash Flow for such Excess Cash Flow Period minus (B) to the extent not financed with the proceeds of the incurrence of Indebtedness having a maturity of more than twelve (12) months from the date of incurrence thereof and not previously deducted pursuant to this clause (B) in any prior period, the amount of any optional prepayments of principal made by the Borrower during such Excess Cash Flow Period of (1) Term Loans (provided, that with respect to any prepayment of Term Loans below the par value thereof, the aggregate amount of such prepayment for purposes of this clause shall be the amount of the Borrower's cash payment in respect of such prepayment) and (2) loans outstanding under the Superpriority Revolving Credit Facility (to the extent commitments thereunder are permanently reduced by the amount of, and at the time of, such prepayments).

(v) Each prepayment of Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(b) shall be applied on a pro rata basis to each then outstanding Class of Term Loans and shall be further applied within each Class of Term Loans to the Lenders of such Class of Term Loans in accordance with their respective Pro Rata Shares (provided, that any prepayment of Term Loans with the Net Proceeds of Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness shall be applied solely to each applicable Class (or Classes) of Refinanced Debt), subject to clause (vi) of this Section 2.05(b). Partial prepayments of the Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(b) shall be applied to the remaining scheduled amortization installments of the Term Loans required under Section 2.07(a) (other than the repayment to be made on the Maturity Date for the Term Loans) on a pro rata basis.

(vi) The Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent in writing of any mandatory prepayment of Loans required to be made pursuant to clauses (i) through (iv) of this Section 2.05(b) promptly, and in no event more than three (3) Business Days, following the event giving rise to such mandatory prepayment. Each such notice shall specify the date of such prepayment and provide a reasonably detailed calculation of the amount of such prepayment. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Appropriate Lender of the contents of the Borrower's prepayment notice and of such Appropriate Lender's Pro Rata Share of the prepayment. Each Lender may reject all or a portion of its Pro Rata Share of any mandatory prepayment (such declined amounts, the "Declined Proceeds") of Term Loans required to be made pursuant to clauses (i) through (iv) of this Section 2.05(b) by providing written notice (each, a "Rejection Notice") to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower no later than 5:00 p.m. one (1) Business Day prior to the proposed date of such prepayment. Each Rejection Notice from a given Lender shall specify the principal amount of the mandatory repayment of Term Loans to be rejected by such Lender. If a Term Loan Lender fails to deliver a Rejection Notice to the Administrative Agent within the time frame specified above or such Rejection Notice fails to specify the principal amount of the Term Loans to be rejected, any such failure will be deemed an acceptance of the total amount of such mandatory prepayment of Term Loans. Any Declined Proceeds remaining thereafter may be retained by the Borrower.

(vii) Funding Losses, Etc. All prepayments under this Section 2.05 shall be made together with, in the case of any such prepayment of a Term SOFR Loan on a date other than the last day of an Interest Period therefor, any amounts owing in respect of such Term SOFR Loan pursuant to Section 3.05.

(c) Prepayment Premium. Solely in the event of, and as of the date of, the occurrence of any Prepayment Premium Triggering Event after the Closing Date but on or prior to [____ __,][7] 2026, the Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent for the ratable account of each Lender, a premium equal to 1.00% of the aggregate principal amount of Term Loans subject to such Prepayment Premium Triggering Event, (in each case, the "Prepayment Premium"); provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, no Prepayment Premium will be required to the extent the same is made in connection with the consummation of an IPO.

The Prepayment Premium shall be due and payable on the date of each such Prepayment Premium Triggering Event. It is understood and agreed that if the Obligations are accelerated (including pursuant to Article VIII as a result of any Event of Default (including an acceleration upon the occurrence of an actual or deemed entry of an order for relief with respect to any Loan Party under the Bankruptcy Code of the United States or other Debtor Relief Laws or upon the occurrence of an Event of Default pursuant to Section 8.01(f) or Section 8.01(g)), the Prepayment Premium shall also be due and payable on such date and such Prepayment Premium shall constitute part of the Obligations. In view of the impracticability and extreme difficulty of ascertaining actual damages and by mutual agreement of the parties as to a reasonable calculation of each Lender's lost profits and actual damages as a result thereof, the Prepayment Premium payable above shall be presumed to be the liquidated damages sustained by each Lender as the result of the early termination of the Facility hereunder and the Borrower agrees that it is reasonable under the circumstances currently existing. The Prepayment Premium shall also be payable in the event the Obligations (and/or this Agreement) are satisfied or released by foreclosure (whether by power of judicial proceeding, deed in lieu of foreclosure or by any other means). THE BORROWER HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVES (TO THE FULLEST EXTENT IT MAY LAWFULLY DO SO) THE PROVISIONS OF ANY PRESENT OR FUTURE STATUTE OR LAW THAT PROHIBITS OR MAY PROHIBIT THE COLLECTION OF THE PREPAYMENT PREMIUM IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUCH ACCELERATION OR OTHERWISE. The Borrower expressly agrees (to the fullest extent that each may lawfully do so) that: (A) the Prepayment Premium is reasonable and is the product of an arm's length transaction between sophisticated business people, ably represented by counsel; (B) the Prepayment Premium shall be payable notwithstanding the then-prevailing market rates at the time payment is made; (C) there has been a course of conduct between the Lenders and the Borrower giving specific consideration in this transaction for such agreement to pay the Prepayment Premium; (D) any such Loan Party shall not challenge or question, or support any other Person in challenging or questioning, the validity or enforceability of the Prepayment Premium or any similar or comparable prepayment fee, and such Loan Party shall be estopped from raising or relying on any judicial decision or ruling questioning the validity or enforceability of any prepayment fee similar or comparable to the Prepayment Premium; and (E) the Borrower shall be estopped hereafter from claiming differently than as agreed to in this Section 2.05(c). The Borrower expressly acknowledges that its agreement to pay the Prepayment Premium to the Lenders as herein described are individually and collectively a material inducement to the Lenders to provide the Term Loans.

Section 2.06. Termination or Reduction of Commitments. On the Closing Date (after giving effect to the funding (or the deemed funding, as applicable) of the Term Loans to be made (or deemed made) on such date), the Term Loan Commitments of each Lender as of the Closing Date will terminate.

Section 2.07. Repayment of Loans.

(a) Tranche A Term Loans. The Borrower hereby unconditionally promises to pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Tranche A Term Loan Lender on the Maturity Date for the Tranche A Term Loans the then unpaid principal amount of each Tranche A Term Loan of such Tranche A Term Lender. Such repayment shall be made to the Administrative Agent for the ratable account of the Tranche A Term Lenders.

(b) Tranche B Term Loans. The Borrower shall repay the Tranche B Term Loans in consecutive quarterly installments on the last Business Day of each of March, June, September and December (or, in the case of the last installment, the Maturity Date for the Tranche B Term Loans), commencing on [ ], 2024, each of which installments shall be in an aggregate principal amount equal to 0.25% of the original aggregate principal amount of the Tranche B Term Loans immediately following the Closing Date; provided, that with respect to the installment payable on the Maturity Date for the Tranche B Term Loans, such installment shall be in an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Tranche B Term Loans outstanding on such date. Each such repayment shall be made to the Administrative Agent for the ratable account of the Tranche B Term Lenders.

Section 2.08. Interest.

(a) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.08(b), (i) each Term SOFR Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof for each Interest Period at a rate per annum equal to Adjusted Term SOFR for such Interest Period plus the Applicable Rate and (ii) each Base Rate Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof from the applicable borrowing date at a rate per annum equal to the Base Rate plus the Applicable Rate.

(i) If any amount of principal of any Loan is not paid when due (without regard to any applicable grace periods), whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, such overdue amount shall thereafter bear interest at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Default Rate to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Laws.

(ii) If any amount (other than principal of any Loan) payable by the Borrower under any Loan Document is not paid when due (without regard to any applicable grace periods), whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise, then such amount shall thereafter bear interest at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Default Rate to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Laws.

(iii) Accrued and unpaid interest on past due amounts (including interest on past due interest) shall be due and payable upon demand.

(b) Interest on each Loan shall be due and payable in cash in arrears on each Interest Payment Date applicable thereto and at such other times as may be specified herein. Interest hereunder shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms hereof before and after judgment, and before and after the commencement of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law.

Section 2.09. Fees.

(a) The Borrower agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Administrative Agent, the "[ ]" as set forth in the Administrative Agent Fee Letter, as may be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, at the times specified therein (the "Administrative Agent Fees").

(b)

(i) The Borrower agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the ratable account of each of the Tranche A Term Loan Lenders on the Closing Date a non-refundable fee equal to 1.00% of the aggregate principal amount of the Tranche A Term Loan Commitments, which fee shall be earned, due and payable in cash on the Closing Date (the "Commitment Fee").

(ii) The Borrower agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the funds and/or accounts affiliated with, or managed and/or advised by, the entities set forth on Schedule 2.09(b), on file with the Administrative Agent (the "Backstop Allocation Schedule", and such entities, together with their respective successors and permitted assignees, or any fronting lender or other funding agent operating on their behalf, the "Backstop Parties") ratably in accordance with the amounts set forth opposite each such Backstop Party's name on the Backstop Allocation Schedule, on the Closing Date a non-refundable fee equal to 2.00% of the Tranche A Term Loan Commitments, which fee shall be earned, due and payable in cash on the Closing Date (the "Backstop Fee", and, together with the fees provided in Section 2.09(b)(i) above, the "Lender Payments"; the Lender Payments, together with the Administrative Agent Fees, the "Fees").

(c) All Lender Payments shall be paid on the dates due, in immediately available funds, to the Administrative Agent for distribution, if and as appropriate, among the Lenders. Once paid, none of the Lender Payments shall be refundable under any circumstances.

Section 2.10. Computation of Interest and Fees.

All computations of interest for Base Rate Loans determined by reference to clause (b) of the definition of "Base Rate" shall, in each case, be made on the basis of a year of three hundred and sixty five (365) days (or three hundred and sixty six (366) days in a leap year), and actual days elapsed. All other computations of fees and interest shall be made on the basis of a three hundred and sixty (360) day year and actual days elapsed (which results in more fees or interest, as applicable, being paid than if computed on the basis of a 365-day year). Interest shall accrue on each Loan for the day on which the Loan is made, and shall not accrue on a Loan, or any portion thereof, for the day on which the Loan or such portion is paid; provided, that any Loan that is repaid on the same day on which it is made shall, subject to Section 2.12(a), bear interest for one day. Each determination by the Administrative Agent (acting at the direction of the Required Lenders) of an interest rate or fee hereunder shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error.

Section 2.11. Evidence of Indebtedness.

The Borrowings made by each Lender shall be evidenced by one or more accounts or records maintained by such Lender and by the Administrative Agent in the ordinary course of business. The accounts or records maintained by the Administrative Agent and each Lender shall be conclusive absent manifest error of the amount of the Borrowings made by the Lenders to the Borrower and the interest and payments thereon. Any failure to so record or any error in doing so shall not, however, limit or otherwise affect the obligation of the Borrower hereunder to pay any amount owing with respect to the Obligations. In the event of any conflict between the accounts and records maintained by any Lender and the accounts and records of the Administrative Agent in respect of such matters, the accounts and records of the Administrative Agent shall control in the absence of manifest error. Upon the request of any Lender made through the Administrative Agent, the Borrower shall execute and deliver to such Lender (through the Administrative Agent) a Note, which shall evidence such Lender's Loans in addition to such accounts or records. Each Lender may attach schedules to its Note and endorse thereon the date, Type (if applicable), amount and maturity of its Loans and payments with respect thereto.

Section 2.12. Payments Generally.

(a) All payments to be made by the Borrower shall be made without condition or deduction for any counterclaim, defense, recoupment or setoff. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, all payments by the Borrower hereunder shall be made to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the respective Lenders to which such payment is owed, at the applicable Administrative Agent's Office in Dollars and in immediately available funds not later than 3:00 p.m. on the date specified herein. The Administrative Agent will promptly distribute to each Lender its Pro Rata Share (or other applicable share as provided herein) of such payment in like funds as received by wire transfer to such Lender's applicable Lending Office. All payments received by the Administrative Agent after 3:00 p.m., shall in each case be deemed received on the next succeeding Business Day and any applicable interest or fee shall continue to accrue.

(b) If any payment to be made by the Borrower shall come due on a day other than a Business Day, payment shall be made on the next following Business Day, and such extension of time shall be reflected in computing interest or fees, as the case may be; provided that, if such extension would cause payment of interest on or principal of Term SOFR Loans to be made in the next succeeding calendar month, such payment shall be made on the immediately preceding Business Day.

(i) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from a Lender prior to the proposed date of any Borrowing that such Lender will not make available to the Administrative Agent such Lender's share of such Borrowing, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such share available on such date in accordance with Section 2.02 and may, in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the Borrower a corresponding amount. In such event, if a Lender has not in fact made its share of the applicable Borrowing available to the Administrative Agent, then the applicable Lender and the Borrower severally agree to pay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand such corresponding amount in immediately available funds with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is made available to the Borrower to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at (A) in the case of a payment to be made by such Lender, the greater of the Federal Funds Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation, plus any administrative, processing or similar fees customarily charged by the Administrative Agent in connection with the foregoing, and (B) in the case of a payment to be made by the Borrower, the interest rate applicable to Base Rate Loans. If the Borrower and such Lender shall pay such interest to the Administrative Agent for the same or an overlapping period, the Administrative Agent shall promptly remit to the Borrower the amount of such interest paid by the Borrower for such period. If such Lender pays its share of the applicable Borrowing to the Administrative Agent, then the amount so paid shall constitute such Lender's Loan included in such Borrowing. Any payment by the Borrower shall be without prejudice to any claim the Borrower may have against a Lender that shall have failed to make such payment to the Administrative Agent.

(ii) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from the Borrower prior to the time at which any payment is due to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Lenders hereunder that the Borrower will not make such payment, the Administrative Agent may assume that the Borrower has made such payment on such date in accordance herewith and may, in reliance upon such assumption, distribute to the Lenders the amount due. In such event, if the Borrower has not in fact made such payment, then each of the Lenders severally agrees to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand the amount so distributed to such Lender, in immediately available funds with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is distributed to it to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at the greater of the Federal Funds Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation.

A notice of the Administrative Agent to any Lender or the Borrower with respect to any amount owing under this clause (b) shall be conclusive, absent manifest error.

(c) If any Lender makes available to the Administrative Agent funds for any Loan to be made by such Lender as provided in the foregoing provisions of this Article II, and such funds are not made available to the Borrower by the Administrative Agent because the conditions to the applicable Borrowing set forth in Article IV are not satisfied or waived in accordance with the terms hereof, the Administrative Agent shall return such funds (in like funds as received from such Lender) to such Lender, without interest.

(d) [Reserved].

(e) Nothing herein shall be deemed to obligate any Lender to obtain the funds for any Loan in any particular place or manner or to constitute a representation by any Lender that it has obtained or will obtain the funds for any Loan in any particular place or manner.

(f) Except as otherwise provided herein, whenever any payment received by the Administrative Agent under this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents is insufficient to pay in full all amounts due and payable to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders under or in respect of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents on any date, such payment shall be distributed by the Administrative Agent and applied by the Administrative Agent and the Lenders in the order of priority set forth in Section 8.03. If the Administrative Agent receives funds for application to the Obligations of the Loan Parties under or in respect of the Loan Documents under circumstances for which the Loan Documents do not specify the manner in which such funds are to be applied, the Administrative Agent may (to the fullest extent permitted by mandatory provisions of applicable Law), but shall not be obligated to, elect to distribute such funds to each of the Lenders in accordance with such Lender's Pro Rata Share of the Outstanding Amount of all Loans outstanding at such time in repayment or prepayment of such of the outstanding Loans or other Obligations then owing to such Lender.

Section 2.13. Sharing of Payments.

Subject to Section 2.05(b)(vi), if any Lender shall, by exercising any right of setoff or counterclaim or otherwise, obtain payment in respect of (a) Obligations due and payable to such Lender hereunder and under the other Loan Documents at such time in excess of its ratable share (according to the proportion of (i) the amount of such Obligations due and payable to such Lender at such time to (ii) the aggregate amount of the Obligations due and payable to all Lenders hereunder and under the other Loan Documents at such time) of payments on account of the Obligations due and payable to all Lenders hereunder and under the other Loan Documents at such time obtained by all the Lenders at such time or (b) Obligations owing (but not due and payable) to such Lender hereunder and under the other Loan Documents at such time in excess of its ratable share (according to the proportion of (i) the amount of such Obligations owing (but not due and payable) to such Lender at such time to (ii) the aggregate amount of the Obligations owing (but not due and payable) to all Lenders hereunder and under the other Loan Parties at such time) of payments on account of the Obligations owing (but not due and payable) to all Lenders hereunder and under the other Loan Documents at such time obtained by all of the Lenders at such time, then the Lender receiving such greater proportion shall (a) notify the Administrative Agent of such fact, and (b) purchase (for cash at face value) participations in the Loans of the other Lenders, or make such other adjustments as shall be equitable, so that the benefit of all such payments shall be shared by the Lenders ratably in accordance with the aggregate amount of Obligations then due and payable to the Lenders or owing (but not due and payable) to the Lenders, as the case may be; provided that:

(i) if any such participations are purchased and all or any portion of the payment giving rise thereto is recovered, such participations shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, without interest; and

(ii) the provisions of this Section shall not be construed to apply to (x) any payment made by or on behalf of the Borrower pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement or (y) any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Loans to any assignee or participant, other than an assignment to the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries (as to which the provisions of this Section shall apply).

Each Loan Party consents to the foregoing and agrees, to the extent it may effectively do so under applicable law, that any Lender acquiring a participation pursuant to the foregoing arrangements may exercise against such Loan Party rights of setoff and counterclaim with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were a direct creditor of such Loan Party in the amount of such participation.

Section 2.14. Incremental Credit Extensions.

(a) The Borrower may, at any time or from time to time after the Closing Date, by notice to the Administrative Agent (whereupon the Administrative Agent shall promptly deliver a copy to each of the Lenders), request one or more additional tranches of term loans (the "Incremental Term Loans"); provided, that (A) upon the effectiveness of any Incremental Amendment referred to below and at the time that any such Incremental Term Loan is made (and after giving effect thereto) no Default or Event of Default shall exist; (B) no Default shall have occurred and be continuing or be caused by the incurrence of such Incremental Term Loans (provided that solely with respect to Incremental Term Loans incurred in connection with a Limited Condition Acquisition, to the extent the Lenders participating in such tranche of Incremental Term Loans agree, no Default shall exist at the time of the execution of the definitive documentation for such Limited Condition Acquisition and no Default under Section 8.01(a) or Event of Default under Section 8.01(f) or Section 8.01(g) shall exist at the time such Limited Condition Acquisition is consummated); (C) each tranche of Incremental Term Loans shall be in an aggregate principal amount that is not less than $5 million (provided, that such amount may be less than $5 million if such amount represents all remaining availability under the limit set forth in the next sentence); and (D) subject to the terms of Section 1.08(f) in respect of Limited Condition Acquisitions, the Borrower shall be in compliance with the financial covenant set forth in Section 7.09 for the applicable Test Period (determined on a pro forma basis after giving effect to such incurrence of the Incremental Facility and any related prepayment of Indebtedness); provided, however, in connection with a Limited Condition Acquisition, if agreed to by the Lenders providing such Incremental Facility, the representations and warranties made by the Borrower shall be limited to customary "specified representations" and those representations of the seller or the target company (as applicable) included in the acquisition agreement related to such Limited Condition Acquisition that are material to the interests of the Lenders and that give the applicable parties the ability to terminate such acquisition agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the aggregate amount of the Incremental Term Loans shall not exceed the Maximum Incremental Facilities Amount.

(b) The Incremental Term Loans (i) shall have the same guarantees as, and rank pari passu or junior in both right of payment and of security with, the Tranche B Term Loans (provided, that any junior Liens on the Collateral incurred pursuant to any such Incremental Term Loans shall be subject to an Intercreditor Agreement), (ii) shall not mature earlier than the Maturity Date with respect to the Tranche B Term Loans, (iii) shall not have a shorter Weighted Average Life to Maturity than the remaining Weighted Average Life to Maturity of the Tranche B Term Loans, (iv) shall be entitled to share in mandatory and voluntary prepayments on a ratable (or less than ratable, but in no event greater than ratable) basis with the Tranche B Term Loans, and (v) shall bear interest at rates and be entitled to upfront fees as shall be determined by the Borrower and the applicable new Lenders; provided, however, that if the All-In Yield for any Incremental Term Loans shall exceed the All-In Yield with respect to the Tranche B Term Loans by more than 50 basis points, then the interest rate margins applicable to such Class of Term Loans shall be increased so that such excess shall be only 50 basis points. The Incremental Term Loans shall otherwise be on terms and pursuant to documentation to be determined by the Borrower; provided that, to the extent such terms and documentation are not consistent with the Tranche B Term Loan Facility (except to the extent permitted by clauses (i) through (v) above), they shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent (it being understood to the extent that any financial maintenance covenant is added for the benefit of any Incremental Facility, no consent shall be required from the Administrative Agent or any Lender to the extent that such financial maintenance covenant is also added for the benefit of any corresponding existing Term Loans) and subject to clauses (ii) and (iii) above, the amortization schedule (if any) applicable to the Incremental Term Loans shall be determined by the Borrower and the lenders thereof.

(c) Each notice from the Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.14 shall set forth the requested amount and proposed terms of the relevant Incremental Term Loans. Incremental Term Loans may be made by any existing Lender or by any other bank or other financial institution (any such other bank or other financial institution being called an "Additional Lender"); provided, that (i) the Administrative Agent, shall have consented (not to be unreasonably withheld) to such Lender's or Additional Lender's making such Incremental Term Loans if such consent would be required under Section 10.06(b) for an assignment of Loans to such Lender or Additional Lender and (ii) each existing Lender shall first be offered, on the same terms as the Additional Lenders, if any, the opportunity to participate pro rata (based on the aggregate principal amount of all Loans outstanding) in making such Incremental Term Loans. Commitments in respect of Incremental Term Loans shall become Commitments under this Agreement pursuant to an amendment (an "Incremental Amendment") to this Agreement and, as appropriate, the other Loan Documents, executed by the Borrower, each Lender agreeing to provide such Commitment, if any, each Additional Lender, if any, and the Administrative Agent. The Incremental Amendment shall, without the consent of the Administrative Agent or the Lenders, effect such amendments to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and the Borrower to effect the provisions of this Section 2.14, including without limitation to incorporate the applicable lenders in respect of Incremental Term Loans as "Lenders", and the Incremental Term Loans as "Loans" and/or "Term Loans", for all applicable purposes hereunder, including the definition of Required Lenders and to establish any tranche of Incremental Term Loans as an independent Class or Facility, as applicable (unless specified in the applicable Incremental Amendment to form an increase in any previously established Class of Term Loans). The effectiveness of any Incremental Amendment shall be subject to such further conditions as the Borrower and the applicable Lenders and Additional Lenders shall agree. The Borrower may use the proceeds of the Incremental Term Loans for any purpose not prohibited by this Agreement. No Lender shall be obligated to provide any Incremental Term Loans unless it so agrees.

(d) The effectiveness of any Incremental Amendment shall be subject to, if requested by the Administrative Agent, receipt by the Administrative Agent of (i) customary legal opinions, board resolutions and officers' certificates consistent with those delivered on the Closing Date (conformed as appropriate, including to reflect any Incremental Term Loans provided on a "certain funds" basis) and (ii) reaffirmation agreements and/or such amendments to the Collateral Documents as may be reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent in order to ensure that such Incremental Term Loans or Incremental Credit Increase is provided with the benefit of the applicable Loan Documents.

(e) This Section 2.14 shall supersede any provisions in Section 2.13 or Section 10.01 (other than Section 10.01(p)) to the contrary.

Section 2.15. Refinancing Amendments.

(a) On one or more occasions after the Closing Date, the Borrower may obtain, from any Lender or any Additional Refinancing Lender, Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness in respect of all or any portion of the Term Loans of any Class then outstanding under this Agreement, in the form of Other Term Loans or Other Term Loan Commitments, pursuant to a Refinancing Amendment. The effectiveness of any Refinancing Amendment shall be subject to, to the extent reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent, receipt by the Administrative Agent of (i) customary legal opinions, board resolutions and officers' certificates consistent with those delivered on the Closing Date (conformed as appropriate) and (ii) reaffirmation agreements and/or such amendments to the Collateral Documents as may be reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent in order to ensure that such Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness is provided with the benefit of the applicable Loan Documents.

(b) Each issuance of Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness under Section 2.15(a) shall be in an aggregate principal amount that is (x) $25 million or (y) an integral multiple of $5 million in excess thereof, unless the Administrative Agent shall otherwise agree in its discretion.

(c) Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that this Agreement and the other Loan Documents may be amended pursuant to a Refinancing Amendment, without the consent of any other Lenders, to the extent (but only to the extent) necessary to (i) reflect the existence and terms of the Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness incurred pursuant thereto, including without limitation to incorporate the applicable lenders in respect of Other Term Loans as "Lenders", and the Other Term Loans as "Loans" and/or "Term Loans", for all applicable purposes hereunder, including the definitions of Required Lenders and Super-Majority Lenders and to establish any tranche of Other Term Loans an independent Class or Facility, as applicable, and (ii) effect such other amendments to this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, to effect the provisions of this Section 2.15, and the Lenders hereby expressly authorize the Administrative Agent to enter into any such Refinancing Amendment, which shall not, for the avoidance of doubt be subject to Section 10.01.

ARTICLE III
Taxes, Increased Costs Protection and Illegality

Section 3.01. Taxes.

(a) Any and all payments by any Loan Party to or for the account of any Recipient under any Loan Document shall be made free and clear of and without deduction for any Taxes, except as required by applicable Law. If any Withholding Agent shall be required by any Laws to deduct any Taxes from or in respect of any such payment, (i) the applicable Withholding Agent shall be entitled to make such deductions, (ii) the applicable Withholding Agent shall pay the full amount so deducted to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable Laws, (iii) as soon as practicable after the date of such payment, the Borrower shall furnish to the Administrative Agent the original or a copy of a receipt evidencing payment thereof, a copy of the tax return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent (acting at the direction of the Required Lenders) and (iv) if the Tax in question is an Indemnified Tax, the sum payable by the applicable Loan Party shall be increased as necessary so that after all required deductions have been made (including deductions applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 3.01(a)), the applicable Recipient receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions been made.

(b) In addition, the Borrower and Guarantors agree to pay any and all present or future stamp, court or documentary, intangible, mortgage recording or similar Taxes which arise from any payment made under any Loan Document or from the execution, delivery, performance, enforcement or registration of, or otherwise with respect to, any Loan Document, excluding any such Taxes imposed as a result of an assignment by a Lender (other than an assignment made pursuant to Section 10.13) that are Other Connection Taxes (hereinafter referred to as "Other Taxes").

(c) The Borrower and each Guarantor agrees to indemnify each Recipient, within ten (10) days after written demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes (including Indemnified Taxes imposed on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section 3.01) payable by such Recipient, whether or not such Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the Governmental Authority. A certificate setting forth in reasonable detail the basis for such claim and the calculation of the amount of such payment or liability prepared in good faith and delivered to the Borrower by a Lender or by the Administrative Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of a Lender shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) Status of Lenders. Each Lender shall, at such times as are reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, provide the Borrower and the Administrative Agent with such properly completed and executed documentation prescribed by any Laws or reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent certifying as to any entitlement of such Lender to an exemption from, or reduction in the rate of, any applicable withholding Tax with respect to any payments to be made to such Lender under any Loan Document. In addition, any Lender, if reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, shall deliver such other documentation prescribed by any Laws or reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as will enable the Loan Parties or the Administrative Agent to determine whether or not such Lender is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Each Lender shall, whenever any such documentation (including any specific documentation required below in this Section 3.01(d)) becomes obsolete, expired or inaccurate in any respect, deliver promptly to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent updated or other appropriate documentation (including any new documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent) or promptly notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent in writing of its legal ineligibility to do so.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(1) Each U.S. Lender shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent on or before the date on which it becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent) two (2) properly completed and duly executed originals of IRS Form W-9 certifying that such Lender is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding;

(2) Each Foreign Lender shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the Borrower or Administrative Agent) on or before the date on which it becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent) whichever of the following is applicable:

(A) in the case of a Foreign Lender claiming the benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party (x) with respect to payments of interest under any Loan Document, two (2) properly completed and duly executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E (or any successor form) establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "interest" article of such tax treaty and (y) with respect to any other applicable payments under any Loan Document, two (2) properly completed and duly executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E (or any successor form) establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "business profits" or "other income" article of such tax treaty,

(B) two (2) properly completed and duly executed copies of IRS Form W-8ECI (or any successor form),

(C) in the case of a Foreign Lender claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 881(c) of the Code, (x) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit H-1 to the effect that such Foreign Lender is not a "bank" within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, a "10 percent shareholder" of the Borrower within the meaning of Section 871(h)(3)(B) of the Code, or a "controlled foreign corporation" related to any Loan Party described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code (a "United States Tax Compliance Certificate") and (y) two (2) duly completed and properly executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E (or any successor form), or

(D) if the Foreign Lender is a partnership and one or more direct or indirect partners of such Foreign Lender are claiming the portfolio interest exemption, such Foreign Lender may provide a United States Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit H-2 on behalf of each such direct and indirect partner;

(3) Any Foreign Lender shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent) on or prior to the date on which such Foreign Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent), two (2) properly completed and duly executed originals of any other form prescribed by applicable Laws (including the Treasury Regulations) as a basis for claiming a complete exemption from, or a reduction in, United States federal withholding tax on any payments to such Lender under the Loan Documents, together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by applicable Law (including the Treasury Regulations) to permit any Loan Party or the Administrative Agent to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made; and

(4) If a payment made to a Lender under any Loan Document would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Sections 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent at the time or times prescribed by Law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent (acting at the direction of the Required Lenders) such documentation prescribed by applicable Law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent (acting at the direction of the Required Lenders) as may be necessary for any Loan Party and the Administrative Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA, to determine whether such Lender has or has not complied with such Lender's obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount, if any, to deduct and withhold from such payment. For purposes of this clause (4), "FATCA" shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement and any intergovernmental agreement or similar agreement intended to facilitate compliance with, or otherwise related to FATCA.

(e) Any Lender claiming any additional amounts payable pursuant to this Section 3.01 shall use its reasonable efforts to change the jurisdiction of its Lending Office if such a change would reduce any such additional amounts in the future and would not, in the sole good faith determination of such Lender, result in any unreimbursed cost or expense or be otherwise materially disadvantageous to such Lender.

(f) If any Recipient determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith that it has received a refund in respect of any Taxes as to which indemnification or additional amounts have been paid to it pursuant to this Section 3.01, it shall promptly remit to the indemnifying party an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made or additional amounts paid under this Section 3.01 with respect to the Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses of such Recipient (including any Taxes imposed with respect to such refund) and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund); provided, that such indemnifying party, upon the request of such Recipient, agrees to promptly repay to such Recipient the amount paid over to it pursuant to the above provisions of this Section 3.01(f) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority), in the event such Recipient is required to repay such refund to the relevant Governmental Authority. This Section 3.01(f) shall not be construed to require any Lender or Agent to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to any Loan Party or any other Person.

(g) The Administrative Agent, and any sub-agent and any successor or supplemental Administrative Agent, shall deliver to the Borrower (in such number of copies as it reasonably requests) on or prior to the date on which the Administrative Agent becomes the administrative agent hereunder or under any other Loan Document (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower) two (2) properly completed and duly executed originals of IRS Form W-9 (or any successor form). The Administrative Agent hereby represents and warrants to the Loan Parties that it is a "U.S. person" and a "financial institution" and that it will comply with its "obligation to withhold," each within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.1441-1(b)(2)(ii).

(h) Each party's obligations under this Section 3.01 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent or any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments, and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all obligations under any Loan Document.

Section 3.02. Illegality.

If any Lender determines in good faith in its reasonable discretion that any Law has made it unlawful, or that any Governmental Authority has asserted that it is unlawful, for any Lender or its applicable Lending Office to make, maintain or fund Loans whose interest is determined by reference to Term SOFR or to determine or charge interest rates based upon Term SOFR or any Governmental Authority has imposed material restrictions on the authority of such Lender to purchase or sell, or to take deposits of, Dollars in the applicable interbank market, then, on notice thereof by such Lender to the Borrower through the Administrative Agent, (i) any obligation of such Lender to make or continue Term SOFR Loans or to convert Base Rate Loans to Term SOFR Loans shall be suspended, and (ii) if such notice asserts the illegality of such Lender making or maintaining Base Rate Loans the interest rate on which is determined by reference to the Adjusted Term SOFR component of the Base Rate, the interest rate on which Base Rate Loans of such Lender shall, if necessary to avoid such illegality, be determined by the Administrative Agent without reference to the Adjusted Term SOFR component of the Base Rate, in each case until such Lender notifies the Administrative Agent and the Borrower that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer exist. Upon receipt of such notice, (x) the Borrower shall, upon demand from such Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), prepay or, if applicable, convert all Term SOFR Loans of such Lender to Base Rate Loans (the interest rate on which Base Rate Loans of such Lender shall, if necessary to avoid such illegality, be determined by the Administrative Agent without reference to the Adjusted Term SOFR component of the Base Rate), either on the last day of the Interest Period therefor, if such Lender may lawfully continue to maintain such Term SOFR Loans to such day, or immediately, if such Lender may not lawfully continue to maintain such Term SOFR Loans and (y) if such notice asserts the illegality of such Lender determining or charging interest rates based upon Adjusted Term SOFR, the Administrative Agent shall during the period of such suspension compute the Base Rate applicable to such Lender without reference to the Adjusted Term SOFR component thereof until the Administrative Agent is advised in writing by such Lender that it is no longer illegal for such Lender to determine or charge interest rates based upon Adjusted Term SOFR. Upon any such prepayment or conversion, the Borrower shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so prepaid or converted.

Section 3.03. Inability to Determine Rates.

(a) If in connection with any request for a Loan or a conversion to or continuation thereof that (i) the Administrative Agent (acting at the direction of the Required Lenders) determines that adequate and reasonable means do not exist for determining Term SOFR for any requested Interest Period with respect to a proposed Term SOFR Loan or in connection with an existing or proposed Base Rate Loan (including because the Term SOFR Reference Rate is not available or published on a current basis), or (ii) the Required Lenders determine that for any reason Term SOFR for any requested Interest Period with respect to a proposed Term SOFR Loan or in connection with an existing or proposed Base Rate Loan does not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lenders of funding such Loan, the Administrative Agent will promptly so notify the Borrower and each Lender. Thereafter, (x) the obligation of the Lenders to make or maintain Term SOFR Loans shall be suspended (to the extent of the affected Term SOFR Loans or Interest Periods), and (y) in the event of a determination described in the preceding sentence with respect to the Adjusted Term SOFR component of the Base Rate, the utilization of the Adjusted Term SOFR component in determining the Base Rate shall be suspended, in each case until the Administrative Agent (acting at the direction of the Required Lenders) revokes such notice. Upon receipt of such notice, the Borrower may revoke any pending request for a Borrowing of, conversion to or continuation of Term SOFR Loans (to the extent of the affected Term SOFR Loans or Interest Periods) or, failing that, will be deemed to have converted such request into a request for a committed Borrowing of Base Rate Loans in the amount specified therein.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, if a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred prior to the Reference Time in respect of any setting of the then-current Benchmark, then (i) if a Benchmark Replacement is determined in accordance with clause (1) of the definition of "Benchmark Replacement" for such Benchmark Replacement Date, such Benchmark Replacement will replace such Benchmark for all purposes hereunder and under any Loan Document in respect of such Benchmark setting and subsequent Benchmark settings without any amendment to, or further action or consent of any other party to, this Agreement or any other Loan Document and (ii) if a Benchmark Replacement is determined in accordance with clause (2) of the definition of "Benchmark Replacement" for such Benchmark Replacement Date, such Benchmark Replacement will replace such Benchmark for all purposes hereunder and under any Loan Document in respect of any Benchmark setting at or after 5:00 p.m. on the fifth (5th) Business Day after the date notice of such Benchmark Replacement is provided to the Lenders without any amendment to, or further action or consent of any other party to, this Agreement or any other Loan Document so long as the Administrative Agent has not received, by such time, written notice of objection to such Benchmark Replacement from Lenders comprising the Required Lenders; provided that, with respect to any proposed amendment containing any SOFR-based rate, the Lenders shall be entitled to object only to the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment contained therein.

(c) In connection with the use, administration, adoption or implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, the Administrative Agent will have the right to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes from time to time in consultation with the Borrower and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, any amendments implementing such Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes will become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to this Agreement.

(d) The Administrative Agent will promptly notify the Borrower and the Lenders of (i) any occurrence of a Benchmark Transition Event, (ii) the implementation of any Benchmark Replacement, (iii) the effectiveness of any Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes, (iv) the revival or reinstatement of any tenor of a Benchmark pursuant to clause (e) below and (v) the commencement or conclusion of any Benchmark Unavailability Period. Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Administrative Agent or Lenders pursuant to this Section 3.03, including any determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action, will be conclusive and binding absent manifest error and may be made in its or their sole discretion and without consent from any other party hereto, except, in each case, as expressly required pursuant to this Section 3.03 or pursuant to the definition of "Benchmark Replacement" and "Benchmark Replacement Adjustment".

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, at any time (including in connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement), (i) if the then-current Benchmark is a term rate (including the Term SOFR Rate) and either (A) any tenor for such Benchmark is not displayed on a screen or other information service that publishes such rate from time to time as selected by the Administrative Agent in its reasonable discretion or (B) the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of such Benchmark has provided a public statement or publication of information announcing that any tenor for such Benchmark is or will be no longer representative, then the Administrative Agent may modify the definition of "Interest Period" for any Benchmark settings at or after such time to remove such unavailable or non-representative tenor and (ii) if a tenor that was removed pursuant to clause (i) above either (A) is subsequently displayed on a screen or information service for a Benchmark (including a Benchmark Replacement) or (B) is not, or is no longer, subject to an announcement that it is or will no longer be representative for a Benchmark (including a Benchmark Replacement), then the Administrative Agent may modify the definition of "Interest Period" for all Benchmark settings at or after such time to reinstate such previously removed tenor.

(f) Upon the Borrower's receipt of notice of the commencement of a Benchmark Unavailability Period, (i) any Interest Election Request that requests the conversion of any Borrowing to, or continuation of any Borrowing as, a Term SOFR Borrowing shall be ineffective and (ii) if any Committed Loan Notice requests a Term SOFR Borrowing, such Borrowing shall be made as a Base Rate Borrowing. During any Benchmark Unavailability Period or at any time that a tenor for the then-current Benchmark is not an Available Tenor, the component of Base Rate based upon the then-current Benchmark or such tenor for such Benchmark, as applicable, will not be used in any determination of the Base Rate. Furthermore, if any Term SOFR Loan is outstanding on the date of the Borrower's receipt of notice of the commencement of a Benchmark Unavailability Period applicable to such Term SOFR Loan, then until such time as a Benchmark Replacement is implemented pursuant to this Section 3.03, any Term SOFR Loan shall, on the last day of the Interest Period applicable to such Loan, be converted by the Administrative Agent to, and shall constitute, a Base Rate Loan.

Section 3.04. Increased Cost and Reduced Return; Capital Adequacy; Reserves on Term SOFR Loans.

(a) Increased Costs Generally. If any Change in Law shall:

(i) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, compulsory loan, insurance charge or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended or participated in by, any Lender;

(ii) subject any Lender to any Tax of any kind whatsoever with respect to this Agreement or any Loan made by it, or change the basis of taxation of payments to such Lender in respect thereof (except for (i) Indemnified Taxes indemnifiable under Section 3.01 and (ii) Excluded Taxes); or

(iii) impose on any Lender or the applicable interbank market any other condition, cost or expense (other than Taxes) affecting this Agreement or Term SOFR Loans made by such Lender;

and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender of making or maintaining any Term SOFR Loan (or, in the case of clause (ii) above, any Loan), or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Loan, or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender hereunder (whether of principal, interest or any other amount) then, upon request of such Lender, the Borrower will pay to such Lender such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered, to the extent such compensation is sought from similarly situated Borrower.

(b) Capital Requirements. If any Lender determines in good faith in its reasonable discretion that any Change in Law affecting such Lender or any Lending Office of such Lender or such Lender's holding company, if any, regarding capital or liquidity requirements has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's capital or on the capital of such Lender's holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement, the Commitments of such Lender or the Loans made by such Lender to a level below that which such Lender or such Lender's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's policies and the policies of such Lender's holding company with respect to capital adequacy or liquidity), then, to the extent such compensation is sought from similarly situated borrowers, the Borrower, upon request of such Lender will pay to such Lender such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Lender's holding company for any such reduction suffered.

(c) Certificates for Reimbursement. A certificate of a Lender setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or its holding company, as the case may be, as specified in clauses (a) or (b) of this Section and delivered to the Borrower shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrower shall pay such Lender the amount shown as due on any such certificate within ten (10) days after receipt thereof.

Section 3.05. Funding Losses.

Upon demand of any Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent) from time to time, the Borrower shall promptly compensate such Lender for and hold such Lender harmless from any loss, cost or expense actually incurred by it as a result of:

(a) any continuation, conversion, payment or prepayment of any Term SOFR Loan on a day other than the last day of the Interest Period for such Loan;

(b) any failure by the Borrower (for a reason other than the failure of such Lender to make a Loan) to prepay, borrow, continue or convert any Term SOFR Loan on the date or in the amount notified by the Borrower; or

(c) any assignment of a Term SOFR Loan on a day other than the last day of the Interest Period therefor as a result of a request by the Borrower pursuant to Section 10.13;

including any loss or expense arising from the liquidation or reemployment of funds obtained by it to maintain such Loan or from fees payable to terminate the deposits from which such funds were obtained. The Borrower shall also pay any customary administrative fees charged by such Lender in connection with the foregoing.

Section 3.06. Matters Applicable to All Requests for Compensation.

(a) Except with respect to any requests for compensation or indemnification under Section 3.01 (requests for which shall be governed by Section 3.01(c)), any Agent or any Lender claiming compensation under this Article III shall deliver a certificate to the Borrower setting forth the additional amount or amounts to be paid to it hereunder which shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error. In determining such amount, such Agent or such Lender may use any reasonable averaging and attribution methods.

(b) Failure or delay on the part of any Lender to demand compensation pursuant to Section 3.01, 3.02, 3.03 or 3.04 shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's right to demand such compensation; provided, that the Borrower shall not be required to compensate such Lender for any amount incurred more than one hundred and eighty (180) days prior to the date that such Lender notifies the Borrower of the event that gives rise to such claim; provided that, if the circumstance giving rise to such claim is retroactive, then such one hundred and eighty (180) day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof. If any Lender requests compensation by the Borrower under Section 3.04, the Borrower may, by notice to such Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), suspend the obligation of such Lender to make or continue from one Interest Period to another applicable Term SOFR Loan, or, if applicable, to convert Base Rate Loans into Term SOFR Loans, until the event or condition giving rise to such request ceases to be in effect (in which case the provisions of Section 3.06(c) shall be applicable); provided, that such suspension shall not affect the right of such Lender to receive the compensation so requested.

(c) If the obligation of any Lender to make or continue any Term SOFR Loan, or to convert Base Rate Loans into Term SOFR Loans shall be suspended pursuant to Section 3.06(b) hereof, such Lender's applicable Term SOFR Loans shall be automatically converted into Base Rate Loans (or, if such conversion is not possible, repaid) on the last day (or days) of the then current Interest Period (or Interest Periods) for such Term SOFR Loans (or, in the case of an immediate conversion required by Section 3.02, on such earlier date as required by Law) and, unless and until such Lender gives notice as provided below that the circumstances specified in Section 3.01, 3.02, 3.03 or 3.04 hereof that gave rise to such conversion no longer exist:

(i) to the extent that such Lender's Term SOFR Loans have been so converted, all payments and prepayments of principal that would otherwise be applied to such Lender's applicable Term SOFR Loans shall be applied instead to its Base Rate Loans; and

(ii) all Loans that would otherwise be made or continued from one Interest Period to another by such Lender as Term SOFR Loans shall be made or continued instead as Base Rate Loans (if possible), and all Base Rate Loans of such Lender that would otherwise be converted into Term SOFR Loans shall remain as Base Rate Loans.

(d) If any Lender gives notice to the Borrower (with a copy to the Administrative Agent) that the circumstances specified in Section 3.01, 3.02, 3.03 or 3.04 hereof that gave rise to the conversion of any of such Lender's Term SOFR Loans pursuant to this Section 3.06 no longer exist (which such Lender agrees to do promptly upon such circumstances ceasing to exist) at a time when Term SOFR Loans made by other Lenders under the applicable Facility are outstanding, if applicable, such Lender's Base Rate Loans shall be automatically converted, on the first day (or days) of the next succeeding Interest Period (or Interest Periods) for such outstanding Term SOFR Loans, to the extent necessary so that, after giving effect thereto, all Loans held by the Lenders holding Term SOFR Loans under such Facility and by such Lender are held pro rata (as to principal amounts, interest rate basis, and Interest Periods) in accordance with their respective Commitments for the applicable Facility.

Section 3.07. Replacement of Lenders under Certain Circumstances.

(a) Designation of a Different Lending Office. If any Lender requests compensation under Section 3.04, or the Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 3.01, or if any Lender gives a notice pursuant to Section 3.02, then such Lender shall, as applicable, use reasonable efforts to designate a different Lending Office for funding or booking its Loans hereunder or to assign its rights and obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or affiliates, if, in the reasonable judgment of such Lender, such designation or assignment (i) would eliminate or reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 3.01 or 3.04, as the case may be, in the future, or eliminate the need for the notice pursuant to Section 3.02, as applicable, and (ii) in each case, would not subject such Lender to any unreimbursed cost or expense and would not otherwise be materially disadvantageous to such Lender. The Borrower hereby agrees to pay all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by any Lender in connection with any such designation or assignment.

(b) Replacement of Lenders. If any Lender requests compensation under Section 3.04, or if the Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 3.01, the Borrower may replace such Lender in accordance with Section 10.13.

Section 3.08. Survival.

All of the Borrower's obligations under this Article III shall survive termination of the Aggregate Commitments, repayment of all other Obligations hereunder, resignation of the Administrative Agent and any assignment of rights by, or replacement of, a Lender.

ARTICLE IV

(15) [reserved];

(21) Indebtedness of the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries undertaken in connection with cash management and related activities (including corporate credit card obligations) with respect to the Borrower, any Subsidiary or joint venture in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice;

(c) For purposes of determining compliance with this Section 7.02, in the event that an item of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock (or any portion thereof) meets the criteria of more than one of the categories of permitted Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock described in clauses (1) through (21) of Section 7.02(b) above, the Borrower, in its sole discretion, will divide and/or classify on the date of incurrence and may later redivide and/or reclassify such item of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock (or any portion thereof) and will only be required to include the amount and type of such Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock in one of the above clauses or such paragraph; provided that, the Indebtedness described in (i) Section 7.02(b)(2) shall only be permitted pursuant to such Section 7.02(b)(2) and no other clause of this Section 7.02 and (ii) Section 7.02(b)(18) shall only be permitted pursuant to such Section 7.02(b)(18) and no other clause of this Section 7.02.

Accrual of interest, the accretion of accreted value and the payment of interest in the form of additional indebtedness with the same terms, the payment of dividends in the form of additional shares of Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, as applicable, of the same class, and accretion of original issue discount or liquidation preference will not be deemed to be an incurrence of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock for purposes of this Section 7.02. Guarantees of, or obligations in respect of letters of credit relating to, Indebtedness which is otherwise included in the determination of a particular amount of Indebtedness shall not be included in the determination of such amount of Indebtedness; provided that the incurrence of the Indebtedness represented by such guarantee or letter of credit, as the case may be, was in compliance with this Section 7.02.

For purposes of determining compliance with any U.S. dollar-denominated restriction on the incurrence of Indebtedness, the Dollar Equivalent principal amount of Indebtedness denominated in a foreign currency shall be calculated based on the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the date such Indebtedness was incurred, in the case of term debt, or first committed (whichever is lower), in the case of revolving credit debt; provided, that if such Indebtedness is incurred to refinance other Indebtedness denominated in a foreign currency, and such refinancing would cause the applicable U.S. dollar-denominated restriction to be exceeded if calculated at the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the date of such refinancing, such U.S. dollar-denominated restriction shall be deemed not to have been exceeded so long as the principal amount of such refinancing Indebtedness does not exceed the principal amount of such Indebtedness being refinanced. For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding any other provision of this covenant, the maximum amount of Indebtedness that may be incurred pursuant to this Section 7.02 shall not be deemed to be exceeded solely as a result of fluctuations in the exchange rate of currencies.

The principal amount of any Indebtedness incurred to refinance other Indebtedness, if incurred in a different currency from the Indebtedness being refinanced, shall be calculated based on the currency exchange rate applicable to the currencies in which such respective Indebtedness is denominated that is in effect on the date of such refinancing.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 7.02, the Borrower will not, and will not permit any Loan Party to, directly or indirectly, incur any Indebtedness (including Acquired Indebtedness) that is subordinated or junior in right of payment to any Indebtedness of such Loan Party, as the case may be, unless such Indebtedness is expressly subordinated in right of payment to the Obligations or such Guarantor's Guarantee to the extent and in the same manner as such Indebtedness is subordinated to other Indebtedness of the applicable Loan Party.

For the purposes of this Agreement, (a) Indebtedness that is unsecured is not deemed to be subordinated or junior to secured Indebtedness merely because it is unsecured, and (b) Indebtedness is not deemed to be subordinated or junior to any other Indebtedness merely because it has a junior priority with respect to the same collateral.

Section 7.03. Fundamental Changes.

Neither the Borrower nor any of its Subsidiaries shall merge, dissolve, liquidate, consolidate with or into another Person, or Dispose of (whether in one transaction or in a series of transactions) all or substantially all of its assets (whether now owned or hereafter acquired) to or in favor of any Person, except that any Loan Party (other than the Borrower) may merge or consolidate with (or Dispose of all or substantially all of its assets to) the Borrower or any other Loan Party.

(a) any disposition of cash, Cash Equivalents or Investment Grade Securities or damaged, obsolete or worn out equipment or other assets, or assets no longer used or useful in the business of the Borrower and the Subsidiaries in the reasonable opinion of the Borrower, in each case, in the ordinary course of business or any disposition or transfer of inventory or goods (or other assets) held for sale in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice;

Any of the following shall constitute an event of default (an "Event of Default"):

(b) any Loan Party fails to pay (i) when and as required to be paid herein, any amount of principal of any Loan, (ii) within three (3) Business Days after the same becomes due, any interest on any Loan or (iii) within five (5) Business Days after the same becomes due, any other amount payable hereunder or under any other Loan Document; or

(c) the Borrower fails to perform or observe any term, covenant or agreement contained in any of Sections 6.01, 6.03(a)(i), 6.05(a) (solely with respect to the Borrower), Section 6.11, Section 6.13(b), Section 6.15(b), Section 6.16, Section 6.17 or Article VII; or

(d) any Loan Party fails to perform or observe any other covenant or agreement (other than those specified in any other clauses of this Section 8.01) contained in any Loan Document on its part to be performed or observed and such failure continues for thirty (30) days following the earlier of (i) the date a Responsible Officer of the Borrower becomes aware of such failure and (ii) the date on which written notice thereof is delivered by the Administrative Agent to the Borrower in accordance with Section 10.02(a)(i); or

(e) any representation, warranty or certification made or deemed made by or on behalf of the Borrower or any other Loan Party herein, in any other Loan Document, or in any document required to be delivered in connection herewith or therewith shall be incorrect in any material respect when made or deemed made; or

(f) the Borrower or any Subsidiary (i) fails to make any payment beyond the applicable grace period with respect thereto, if any (whether by scheduled maturity, required prepayment, acceleration, demand, or otherwise) in respect of any Indebtedness (including any outstanding letters of credit thereunder, but other than Indebtedness hereunder) having an aggregate principal amount of not less than the Threshold Amount, or (ii) fails to observe or perform any other agreement or condition relating to any such Indebtedness, or any other event occurs that would constitute a default under such Indebtedness, the effect of which default is to cause, or to permit the holder or holders of such Indebtedness (or a trustee or agent on behalf of such holder or holders or beneficiary or beneficiaries) to cause, with the giving of notice if required, such Indebtedness to become due or to be repurchased, prepaid, defeased or redeemed (automatically or otherwise), or an offer to repurchase, prepay, defease or redeem such Indebtedness to be made or require cash collateralization thereof, prior to its stated maturity; provided, that clauses (f)(i) and (f)(ii) shall not apply to secured Indebtedness that becomes due as a result of the voluntary sale or transfer of the property or assets securing such Indebtedness, if such sale or transfer is permitted hereunder and under the documents providing for such Indebtedness; or

(g) any Loan Party or any Material Subsidiary institutes or consents to the institution of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law, or makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors; or applies for or consents to the appointment of any receiver, trustee, custodian, conservator, liquidator, rehabilitator, administrator, administrative receiver or similar officer for it or for all or any material part of its property; or any receiver, trustee, custodian, conservator, liquidator, rehabilitator, administrator, administrative receiver or similar officer is appointed without the application or consent of such Loan Party or Material Subsidiary and the appointment continues undischarged or unstayed for forty-five (45) calendar days; or any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law relating to any Loan Party or Material Subsidiary or to all or any material part of its property is instituted without the consent of such Person and continues undismissed or unstayed for forty-five (45) calendar days, or an order for relief is entered in any such proceeding; or any Loan Party or any Material Subsidiary becomes unable or fails generally to pay its debts as they become due; or

(h) there is entered against any Loan Party or any Material Subsidiary a final judgment or order for the payment of money in an aggregate amount exceeding the Threshold Amount (to the extent not covered by independent third-party insurance as to which the insurer has been notified of such judgment or order and has not disputed coverage) and such judgment or order shall not have been satisfied, vacated, discharged or stayed or bonded pending an appeal for a period of forty-five (45) consecutive days; or (ii) in respect of an obligation in excess of the Threshold Amount, any writ or warrant of attachment or execution or similar process is otherwise issued or levied against all or any material part of the property of the Loan Parties and any Material Subsidiary, taken as a whole, and is not released, vacated or fully bonded within forty-five (45) days after its issue or levy; or

(i) any material provision of any Loan Document, at any time after its execution and delivery and for any reason other than as expressly permitted hereunder or thereunder (including as a result of a transaction permitted under Section 7.04) or as a result of acts or omissions by the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent or any Lender or the satisfaction in full of all the Obligations, ceases to be in full force and effect; or any Loan Party contests in writing the validity or enforceability of any provision of any Loan Document or the validity or priority of a Lien as required by the Collateral Documents on a material portion of the Collateral; or any Loan Party denies in writing that it has any or further liability or obligation under any Loan Document (other than as a result of repayment in full of the Obligations and termination of the Aggregate Commitments), or purports in writing to revoke or rescind any Loan Document; or

(j) there occurs any Change of Control; or

(k) any Collateral Document after delivery thereof, including any Collateral Document delivered pursuant to Section 6.11 or 6.13, shall for any reason (other than pursuant to the terms thereof including as a result of a transaction not prohibited under this Agreement) cease to create a valid and perfected Lien on and security interest in, with the priority required by the Collateral Documents, any material portion of the Collateral, subject to Permitted Liens, (i) except to the extent that any such loss of perfection or priority results from the failure of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent to maintain possession of certificates actually delivered to it representing securities pledged under the Collateral Documents or to file Uniform Commercial Code continuation statements and (ii) except for any failure due to foreign Laws, rules and regulations as they relate to pledges of Equity Interests in Foreign Subsidiaries (other than pledges made under Laws of the applicable jurisdiction of formation of such Foreign Subsidiary); or

(l) an ERISA Event occurs with respect to a Pension Plan or Multiemployer Plan which has resulted or would reasonably be expected to result in liability of a Loan Party, a Subsidiary or any ERISA Affiliate under Title IV of ERISA in an aggregate amount which would reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, (ii) a Loan Party, any Subsidiary or any ERISA Affiliate fails to pay when due, after the expiration of any applicable grace period, any installment payment with respect to its withdrawal liability under Section 4201 of ERISA under a Multiemployer Plan in an aggregate amount which would reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, or (iii) with respect to any Foreign Plan, a termination, withdrawal or noncompliance with applicable Law or plan terms, except as would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect; or

(m) the FCC issues one or more final, non-appealable orders that revoke, suspend or impair the authority to operate under any one or more FCC Licenses for any Station of the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries that, either individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect; or

(n) except as to the Superpriority Revolving Credit Facility, any attempt by any Loan Party to reduce, set off or subordinate the Obligations or the Liens securing such Obligations to any other Indebtedness in a manner not permitted by this Agreement; or

(o) any Material Adverse Effect shall have occurred.

Section 8.02. Remedies Upon Event of Default.

If any Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Administrative Agent may and, at the request of the Required Lenders, shall take any or all of the following actions:

(a) declare the commitment of each Lender to make Loans to be terminated, whereupon such commitments and obligation shall be terminated;

(b) declare the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding Loans, all interest accrued and unpaid thereon, and all other amounts (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Prepayment Premium, if any) owing or payable hereunder or under any other Loan Document to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Loan Parties; and

(c) exercise on behalf of itself and the Lenders all rights and remedies available to it and the Lenders under the Loan Documents or applicable Law; provided, that upon the entry of an order for relief with respect to the Borrower under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, the obligation of each Lender to make Loans shall automatically terminate and the unpaid principal amount of all outstanding Loans and all interest and other amounts (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Prepayment Premium, if any) as aforesaid shall automatically become due and payable, in each case without further act of the Administrative Agent or any Lender.

Section 8.03. Application of Funds.

After the exercise of remedies provided for in Section 8.02 (or after the Loans have automatically become immediately due and payable), any amounts received on account of the Obligations, whether arising from payments by the Loan Parties, realization on Collateral, set-off or otherwise, shall be applied by the Administrative Agent in the following order (to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law):

(i) First, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities, expenses and other amounts (other than principal and interest) payable to the Agents in their capacity as such, until paid in full;

(ii) Second, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities and other amounts (other than principal and interest) payable to the Lenders (including Attorney Costs payable under Section 10.04 and amounts payable under Article III), ratably among them in proportion to the amounts described in this clause (ii) payable to them, until paid in full;

(iii) Third, to pay interest and principal due in respect of Tranche A Term Loans, until paid in full;

(iv) Fourth, to pay interest and principal due in respect of Term Loans (other than Tranche A Term Loans), until paid in full;

(v) Fifth, to pay all other Obligations that are due and payable, until paid in full, ratably based upon the respective aggregate amounts of all such Obligations owing to the Administrative Agent and the other Secured Parties on such date; and

(vi) Last, the balance, if any, after all of the Obligations have been paid in full, as directed by the Borrower or as otherwise required by Law.

Amounts shall be applied to each category of Obligations set forth above until paid in full and then to the next category. If amounts are insufficient to satisfy a category, they shall be applied pro rata among the Obligations in the category. The allocations set forth in this Section 8.03 are solely to determine the rights and priorities of the Agents and Lenders as among themselves and may be changed by agreement among the Agents and all of the Lenders without the consent of any Loan Party. This Section 8.03 is not for the benefit of or enforceable by any Loan Party.

ARTICLE IX
Administrative Agent and Other Agents

Section 9.01. Appointment and Authority.

(a) Each of the Lenders hereby irrevocably appoints the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent as its agent hereunder and under the other Loan Documents and authorizes the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent by the terms hereof or thereof, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. The provisions of this Article are solely for the benefit of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Lenders, and none of the Borrower or any other Loan Party shall have rights as a third party beneficiary of any of such provisions.

(b) The Administrative Agent shall also act as the Collateral Agent under the Loan Documents, and each of the Lenders hereby irrevocably appoints and authorizes the Administrative Agent to act as the agent of such Lender for purposes of acquiring, holding and enforcing any and all Liens on Collateral granted by any of the Loan Parties to secure any of the Obligations, together with such powers and discretion as are reasonably incidental thereto. In this connection, the Administrative Agent, as Collateral Agent, and any co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact appointed by the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 9.02 for purposes of holding or enforcing any Lien on the Collateral (or any portion thereof) granted under the Collateral Documents, or for exercising any rights and remedies thereunder at the direction of the Administrative Agent, shall be entitled to the benefits of all provisions of this Article IX and Article X, as though such co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact were the Collateral Agent under the Loan Documents, as if set forth in full herein with respect thereto.

Section 9.02. Delegation of Duties.

The Administrative Agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers hereunder or under any other Loan Document by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Related Parties. The exculpatory provisions of this Article shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Related Parties of the Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as Administrative Agent.

Section 9.03. Exculpatory Provisions.

The Administrative Agent shall not have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent:

(a) shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default has occurred and is continuing;

(b) shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby or by the other Loan Documents that the Administrative Agent is required to exercise as directed in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Loan Documents); provided, that the Administrative Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose the Administrative Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Loan Document or applicable Law;

(c) shall not, except as expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to the Borrower or any of its Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by the Person serving as the Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity;

(d) shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary, or as the Administrative Agent shall believe in good faith shall be necessary, under the circumstances as provided in Sections 10.01 and 8.02), in each case in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by the final and nonappealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. The Administrative Agent shall be deemed not to have knowledge of any Default unless and until notice describing such Default is given to the Administrative Agent by the Borrower or a Lender; and

(e) shall not be responsible for, or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into, (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein or the occurrence of any Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien purported to be created by the Collateral Documents, (v) the value or the sufficiency of any Collateral or (vi) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article IV or elsewhere herein, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Administrative Agent.

Section 9.04. Reliance by Administrative Agent.

The Administrative Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, Internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or otherwise authenticated by the proper Person. The Administrative Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and reasonably believed by it to have been made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender, the Administrative Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice to the contrary from such Lender prior to the making of such Loan. The Administrative Agent may consult with legal counsel, independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts. The Administrative Agent shall be fully justified in failing or refusing to take any action under this Agreement or any other Loan Document unless it shall first receive such advice or concurrence of the Required Lenders as it deems appropriate or it shall first be indemnified to its satisfaction by the Lenders against any and all liability and expense that may be incurred by it by reason of taking or continuing to take any such action.

Section 9.05. Non-Reliance on Administrative Agent and Other Lenders.

Each Lender acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement. Each Lender also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder.

Section 9.06. Rights as a Lender.

The Person serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent and the term "Lender" or "Lenders" shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the Person serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder in its individual capacity. Such Person and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Borrower or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if such Person were not the Administrative Agent hereunder and without any duty to account therefor to the Lenders.

Section 9.07. Resignation of Administrative Agent.

The Administrative Agent may at any time give notice of its resignation to the Lenders and the Borrower. Upon receipt of any such notice of resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right, in consultation with the Borrower, to appoint a successor, which shall be a bank with an office in the United States, or an Affiliate of any such bank with an office in the United States. If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within thirty (30) days after the retiring Administrative Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the retiring Administrative Agent may on behalf of the Lenders, appoint a successor Administrative Agent meeting the qualifications set forth above; provided, that if the Administrative Agent shall notify the Borrower and the Lenders that no qualifying Person has accepted such appointment, then such resignation shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice and (a) the retiring Administrative Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents (except that in the case of any collateral security held by the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Lenders under any of the Loan Documents, the retiring Administrative Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security until such time as a successor Administrative Agent is appointed) and (b) all payments, communications and determinations provided to be made by, to or through the Administrative Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender directly, until such time as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Administrative Agent as provided for above in this Section. Upon the acceptance of a successor's appointment as Administrative Agent hereunder, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring (or retired) Administrative Agent, and the retiring Administrative Agent shall be discharged from all of its duties and obligations hereunder or under the other Loan Documents (if not already discharged therefrom as provided above in this Section). The fees payable by the Borrower to a successor Administrative Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrower and such successor. After the retiring Administrative Agent's resignation hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, the provisions of this Article and Section 10.04 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Administrative Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while the retiring Administrative Agent was acting as Administrative Agent.

Section 9.08. Administrative Agent May File Proofs of Claim.

In case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relative to any Loan Party, the Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrower) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise:

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders and the Administrative Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders and the Administrative Agent and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts to the extent due to the Lenders and the Administrative Agent under Sections 2.09 and 10.04) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and

(b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender to make such payments to the Administrative Agent and, if the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders, to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due to the Administrative Agent under Sections 2.09 and 10.04.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender or to authorize the Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender or in any such proceeding.

Section 9.09. Collateral and Guaranty Matters.

Each of the Lenders irrevocably authorize the Collateral Agent:

(a) to release any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Administrative Agent under any Loan Document (i) upon termination of the Aggregate Commitments and payment in full of all Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations), (ii) that is sold or to be sold as part of or in connection with any sale permitted hereunder or under any other Loan Document to a Person that is not a Loan Party, (iii) that constitutes "Excluded Assets" (as such term is defined in the Security Agreement), (iv) if approved, authorized or ratified in writing in accordance with Section 10.01, (v) if the property subject to such Lien is owned by a Guarantor, upon release of such Guarantor from its obligations under its Guaranty pursuant to clause (b) below, or (vi) upon the terms of the Collateral Documents or the Intercreditor Agreement (if in effect), or any other intercreditor agreement entered into pursuant hereto.

(b) to release any Subsidiary Guarantor from its obligations under its Guaranty (i) as a result of a transaction permitted hereunder, if such Subsidiary becomes an Excluded Subsidiary or ceases to be a Subsidiary or (ii) upon termination of the Aggregate Commitments and payment in full of all Obligations (other than contingent indemnification obligations); provided that if any Subsidiary Guarantor becomes an Excluded Subsidiary or ceases to be a Subsidiary, such Subsidiary Guarantor shall not be released from its Guaranty without the consent of each directly and adversely affected Lender unless (A) no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, (B) after giving pro forma effect to such release and the consummation of the relevant transaction, the Borrower is deemed to have made a new Investment in such Person (as if such Person was then newly acquired) and such Investment is permitted by the Loan Documents and (C) such Disposition of Capital Stock is a good faith Disposition to a bona fide unaffiliated third party (as determined by the Borrower in good faith) for fair market value and for a bona fide business purpose (as determined by the Borrower in good faith) and the primary purpose of which was not to obtain the release of such Subsidiary Guarantor's obligations under the Loan Documents; it being understood that this proviso shall not limit the release of any Subsidiary Guarantor that otherwise constitutes an Excluded Subsidiary for any reason other than not constituting a Wholly-Owned Subsidiary of the Borrower (this proviso, the "Specified Guarantor Release Provision"); and

(c) to subordinate any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent under any Loan Document to the holder of any Lien on such property that is permitted by Section 7.01(6) (but solely in the case of Indebtedness incurred pursuant to clause (4) of Section 7.02(b)).

Upon request by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent at any time, the Lenders will confirm in writing the Administrative Agent's authority to release or subordinate its interest in particular types or items of property, or to release any Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty pursuant to this Section 9.09. The Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, will, at the Borrower's expense, execute and deliver to the Borrower such documents as the Borrower may reasonably request to evidence the release of any item of Collateral from the assignment and security interest granted under the Collateral Documents or to subordinate its interest in such item, or to release any Loan Party from its obligations under the Guaranty, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Loan Documents and this Section 9.09.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if, in compliance with the terms and provisions of Section 7.04 hereof, any portion of the Collateral is sold or otherwise transferred to a Person or Persons, none of which is a Loan Party, then (i) such portion of the Collateral shall, upon the consummation of such sale or transfer, be automatically released from the Lien of the Collateral Agent pursuant to any Collateral Document and (ii) if the aggregate fair market value of the portion of the Collateral so sold or otherwise transferred exceeds $5,000,000, the Borrower will promptly deliver to the Administrative Agent a notice of the consummation of such sale or other transfer, certifying that such sale was made in compliance with Section 7.04 hereof.

The Lenders hereby authorize the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent, as applicable, to enter into any Intercreditor Agreement or other intercreditor agreement or arrangement permitted under this Agreement and the Lenders acknowledge that any such intercreditor agreement shall be binding upon the Lenders. The Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent, as applicable, agree, upon the request of the Borrower and at the Borrower's expense, to negotiate in good faith and enter into any Intercreditor Agreement or other intercreditor agreement or arrangement permitted under this Agreement.

Section 9.10. Erroneous Payments.

(a) Each Lender hereby agrees that (x) if the Administrative Agent notifies such Lender that the Administrative Agent has determined in its sole discretion that any funds received by such Lender from the Administrative Agent or any of its respective Affiliates (whether as a payment, prepayment or repayment of principal, interest, fees or otherwise; individually and collectively, a "Payment") were erroneously transmitted to such Lender (whether or not known to such Lender), and demands the return of such Payment (or a portion thereof), such Lender shall promptly, but in no event later than two (2) Business Days thereafter, return to the Administrative Agent the amount of any such Payment (or portion thereof) as to which such a demand was made in immediately available funds, together with interest thereon in respect of each day from and including the date such Payment (or portion thereof) was received by such Lender to the date such amount is repaid to the Administrative Agent at the greater of the Federal Funds Effective Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation from time to time in effect, and (y) to the extent permitted by applicable law, such Lender shall not assert, and hereby waives, as to the Administrative Agent, any claim, counterclaim, defense or right of set-off or recoupment with respect to any demand, claim or counterclaim by the Administrative Agent for the return of any Payments received, including without limitation any defense based on "discharge for value" or any similar doctrine. A notice of the Administrative Agent to any Lender under this Section 9.10 shall be conclusive, absent manifest error.

(b) Each Lender hereby further agrees that if it receives a Payment from the Administrative Agent or any of its respective Affiliates (x) that is in a different amount than, or on a different date from, that specified in a notice of payment sent by the Administrative Agent (or any of its respective Affiliates) with respect to such Payment (a "Payment Notice") or (y) that was not preceded or accompanied by a Payment Notice, it shall be on notice, in each such case, that an error has been made with respect to such Payment. Each Lender agrees that, in each such case, or if it otherwise becomes aware a Payment (or portion thereof) may have been sent in error, such Lender shall promptly notify the Administrative Agent of such occurrence and, upon demand from the Administrative Agent, it shall promptly, but in no event later than two (2) Business Days thereafter, return to the Administrative Agent the amount of any such Payment (or portion thereof) as to which such a demand was made in immediately available funds, together with interest thereon in respect of each day from and including the date such Payment (or portion thereof) was received by such Lender to the date such amount is repaid to the Administrative Agent at the greater of the Federal Funds Effective Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation from time to time in effect.

(c) The Borrower hereby agrees that (x) in the event an erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) are not recovered from any Lender that has received such Payment (or portion thereof) for any reason, the Administrative Agent shall be subrogated to all the rights of such Lender with respect to such amount and (y) an erroneous Payment shall not pay, prepay, repay, discharge or otherwise satisfy any Obligations owed by the Borrower, except, in each case, to the extent such erroneous Payment is, and solely with respect to the amount of such erroneous Payment that is, comprised of funds received by the Administrative Agent from the Borrower.

(d) Each party's obligations under this Section 9.10 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent or any transfer of rights or obligations by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments or the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all Obligations under any Loan Documents.

Section 9.11. [Reserved].

Section 9.12. Withholding Tax.

To the extent required by any applicable Laws (as determined in good faith by the Administrative Agent), the Administrative Agent may withhold from any payment to any Lender under any Loan Document an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding Tax. Without limiting or expanding the provisions of Section 3.01, each Lender shall indemnify and hold harmless the Administrative Agent against, and shall make payable in respect thereof within ten (10) days after demand therefor, any and all Taxes and any and all related losses, claims, liabilities and expenses (including fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for the Administrative Agent) incurred by or asserted against the Administrative Agent by the IRS or any other Governmental Authority as a result of the failure of the Administrative Agent to properly withhold Tax from amounts paid to or for the account of such Lender for any reason (including because the appropriate form was not delivered or not properly executed, or because such Lender failed to notify the Administrative Agent of a change in circumstance that rendered the exemption from, or reduction of withholding Tax ineffective). A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under this Agreement or any other Loan Document against any amount due the Administrative Agent under this Section 9.12. The agreements in this Section 9.12 shall survive the resignation and/or replacement of the Administrative Agent, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all other Obligations.

ARTICLE X
Miscellaneous

Section 10.01. Amendments, Etc.

Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement (including, without limitation, Section 3.03(b) and (c)), no amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, and no consent to any departure by any Loan Party therefrom, shall be effective unless in writing signed by the Required Lenders and such Loan Party, and each such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given; provided, that, no such amendment, waiver or consent shall:

(a) extend or increase the Commitment of any Lender without the written consent of each Lender holding such Commitment (it being understood that a waiver of any condition precedent or of any Default, Event of Default, mandatory prepayment or mandatory reduction of the Commitments shall not constitute an extension or increase of any Commitment of any Lender);

(b) postpone any date scheduled for, or reduce or forgive the amount of, any scheduled payment of principal or interest under Section 2.07 or 2.08 without the written consent of each Lender holding the applicable Obligation (it being understood that the waiver of (or amendment to the terms of) any mandatory prepayment of the Term Loans shall not constitute a postponement of any date scheduled for the payment of principal or interest);

(c) reduce or forgive the principal of, or the rate of interest specified herein on, any Loan, or (subject to clause (i) of the proviso to this Section 10.01) any fees, Lender Payments or other amounts (including for the avoidance of doubt, the Prepayment Premium) payable hereunder or under any other Loan Document (or change the timing of payments of such fees, Lender Payments or other amounts) without the written consent of each Lender to whom such fee, Lender Payment or other amount is owed; provided, that only the consent of the Required Lenders shall be necessary to amend the definition of "Default Rate" or to waive any obligation of the Borrower to pay interest at the Default Rate;

(d) change any provision of this Section 10.01, the definition of "Required Lenders", "Super-Majority Lenders" or "Pro Rata Share" or Section 2.13, 8.03 or 10.06, without the written consent of each directly adversely affected Lender;

(e) change any provision specifying the number of Lenders or portion of the Loans or Commitments required to take any action under the Loan Documents, without the written consent of each Lender directly adversely affected thereby;

(f) change the definition of "Required Class Lenders" without the written consent of each Lender in the affected Class;

(g) other than in connection with a transaction permitted under Section 7.04, release a material portion of the Collateral in any transaction or series of related transactions, without the written consent of each Lender;

(h) other than in connection with a transaction permitted under Section 7.04, release material portion of the aggregate value of the Guarantees, without the written consent of each Lender;

(i) without the written consent of the Required Class Lenders, adversely affect the rights of a Class in respect of payments or Collateral in a manner different to the effect of such amendment, waiver or consent on any other Class; or

(j) subordinate the Obligations in right of payment to any other Indebtedness without the written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby;

(k) except as to the Superpriority Revolving Credit Facility, subordinate, in a single transaction or a series of related transactions, the Liens securing any of the Loans on any material portion of the Collateral in contractual lien or payment priority to the Liens on all or substantially all of the Collateral securing any other Indebtedness for borrowed money or subordinate any Loan in contractual payment priority to any other Indebtedness for borrowed money (such debt, the "Senior Indebtedness"), in each case, (I) without the prior written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby and (II) unless each directly and adversely affected Lender has been offered a bona fide opportunity to fund or otherwise provide its pro rata share (based on the principal amount of Loans that are directly and adversely affected thereby held by each Lender) of the Senior Indebtedness on the same terms (other than bona fide backstop fees, any arrangement or restructuring fees and reimbursement of counsel fees and other expenses in connection with the negotiation of the terms of such transaction; such fees and expenses, "Ancillary Fees") as offered to all other providers (or their Affiliates) of the Senior Indebtedness and to the extent such directly

(l) amend or modify the definition of "Material Intellectual Property", Section 7.14, Section 8.01(n) or Section 9.09(b) without the written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby;

(m) amend, modify or waive any other provision in the Loan Documents, in each case, in a manner that would alter the pro rata sharing or payments or setoffs or order of priority required thereby, without the written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby;

(n) to the extent not otherwise permitted by this Agreement, authorize additional Indebtedness that would be issued under the Loan Documents for the purpose of influencing voting thresholds without the written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby;

(p) amend, modify or waive any other provision in the Loan Documents, in each case, in a manner that permits any intercompany Indebtedness or guarantees to cease to be subordinated in either payment or priority to the Obligations;

(q) amend, modify or waive any provision of the Loan Documents to allow for purchases of any Loans (by Dutch auction, open market purchase or through other assignments) by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries, in each case, using consideration other than cash;

(r) amend, modify or waive Section 2.14, Section 7.01, Section 7.02, Section 7.04, Section 7.05, Section 7.06, the definition of "Permitted Investment" or the definition of "Maximum Incremental Facilities Amount" without the written consent of (x) in the event any Affiliated Lender Group holds 35% of more of the Obligations, Super-Majority Lenders or (y) otherwise, Required Lenders;

and provided, further, that (i) no amendment, waiver or consent shall, unless in writing and signed by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, in addition to the Lenders required above, affect the rights or duties of, or any fees or other amounts payable to, the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, under this Agreement or any other Loan Document; and (ii) Section 10.06(g) may not be amended, waived or otherwise modified without the consent of each Granting Lender all or any part of whose Loans are being funded by an SPC at the time of such amendment, waiver or other modification; and provided, further, that (A) the Borrower and the Administrative Agent shall be permitted to enter into an amendment, supplement, modification, consent or waiver to cure any ambiguity, omission, defect, mistake or inconsistency in any Loan Document without the prior written consent of the Required Lenders if the Lenders have received at least five (5) Business Days' prior written notice of such change and the Administrative Agent shall not have received, within five (5) Business Days of the date of such notice to the Lenders, a written notice (email from the Lender Advisors to be sufficient) from the Required Lenders stating that the Required Lenders object to any such change and (B) guarantees and collateral security documents and related documents executed by the Loan Parties in connection with this Agreement, and this Agreement, may be amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented or waived without the consent of any Lender if such amendment, restatement, amendment and restatement, supplement or waiver is delivered in order to (1) comply with local law or advice of local counsel, (2) cure ambiguities, omissions, mistakes, defects or inconsistencies or (3) cause such guarantee, collateral security document or other document to be consistent with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or (4) add additional guarantors or Collateral.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, this Agreement and the other Loan Documents may be amended as set forth in Section 2.14 and Section 2.15.

If any Lender does not consent to a proposed amendment, waiver, consent or release with respect to any Loan Document that requires the consent of such Lender and that has been approved by the Required Lenders or Super-Majority Lenders, as applicable, the Borrower may replace such non-consenting Lender in accordance with Section 10.13; provided, that such amendment, waiver, consent or release can be effected as a result of the assignment contemplated by such Section (together with all other such assignments required by the Borrower to be made pursuant to this paragraph).

Section 10.02. Notices; Effectiveness; Electronic Communications.

(a) Notices Generally. Except in the case of notices and other communications expressly permitted to be given by telephone (and except as provided in clause (b) below), all notices and other communications provided for herein shall be in writing (including by electronic communication) and shall be delivered as follows, and all notices and other communications expressly permitted hereunder to be given by telephone shall be made to the applicable telephone number, as follows:

(i) if to the Borrower, the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, to the address, telecopier number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such Person on Schedule 10.02; and

(ii) if to any Lender , to the address, telecopier number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified in its Administrative Questionnaire (including, as appropriate, notices delivered solely to the Person designated by a Lender on its Administrative Questionnaire then in effect for the delivery of notices that may contain material non-public information relating to the Borrower).

Notices and other communications sent by hand or overnight courier service, or mailed by certified or registered mail, shall be deemed to have been given when received; notices and other communications sent by telecopier shall be deemed to have been given when sent (except that, if not given during normal business hours for the recipient, shall be deemed to have been given at the opening of business on the next business day for the recipient). Notices and other communications delivered through electronic communications to the extent provided in clause (b) below shall be effective as provided in such clause (b).

(b) Electronic Communications. Notices and other communications to the Lenders hereunder may be delivered or furnished by electronic communication (including e-mail and Internet or intranet websites) pursuant to procedures approved by the Administrative Agent (acting at the direction of the Required Lenders); provided, that the foregoing shall not apply to notices to any Lender pursuant to Article II if such Lender has notified the Administrative Agent that it is incapable of receiving notices under such Article by electronic communication. The Administrative Agent or the Borrower may, in its discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by it, provided, that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications.

Unless the Administrative Agent otherwise prescribes, (i) notices and other communications sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received upon the sender's receipt of an acknowledgement from the intended recipient (such as by the "return receipt requested" function, as available, return e-mail or other written acknowledgement); provided, that if such notice or other communication is not sent during the normal business hours of the recipient, such notice or communication shall be deemed to have been sent at the opening of business on the next business day for the recipient, and (ii) notices or communications posted to an Internet or intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (i) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefor.

(c) The Platform. THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE." THE AGENT PARTIES (AS DEFINED BELOW) DO NOT WARRANT THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM, AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM LIABILITY FOR ERRORS IN OR OMISSIONS FROM THE BORROWER MATERIALS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY ANY AGENT PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE PLATFORM. In no event shall the Administrative Agent or any of its Related Parties (collectively, the "Agent Parties") have any liability to the Borrower, any Lender or any other Person for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of the Borrower's or the Administrative Agent's transmission of Borrower Materials through the Internet, except to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Agent Party; provided, however, that in no event shall any Agent Party have any liability to the Borrower, any Lender or any other Person for indirect, special, incidental, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages).

(d) Change of Address, Etc. Each of the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent may change its address, telecopier or telephone number for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the other parties hereto. Each Lender may change its address, telecopier or telephone number for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent. In addition, each Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent from time to time to ensure that the Administrative Agent has on record (i) an effective address, contact name, telephone number, telecopier number and electronic mail address to which notices and other communications may be sent and (ii) accurate wire instructions for such Lender. Furthermore, each Public Lender agrees to cause at least one individual at or on behalf of such Public Lender to at all times have selected the "Private Side Information" or similar designation on the content declaration screen of the Platform in order to enable such Public Lender or its delegate, in accordance with such Public Lender's compliance procedures and applicable Law, including United States Federal and state securities Laws, to make reference to Borrower Materials that are not made available through the "Public Side Information" portion of the Platform and that may contain material non-public information with respect to the Borrower or its securities for purposes of United States Federal or state securities laws.

(e) Reliance by the Agents and Lenders. The Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Lenders shall be entitled to rely and act upon any notices (including telephonic Committed Loan Notices) purportedly given by or on behalf of the Borrower even if (i) such notices were not made in a manner specified herein, were incomplete or were not preceded or followed by any other form of notice specified herein, or (ii) the terms thereof, as understood by the recipient, varied from any confirmation thereof. The Borrower shall indemnify the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, each Lender and the Related Parties of each of them from all losses, costs, expenses and liabilities resulting from the reliance by such Person on each notice purportedly given by or on behalf of the Borrower in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct by such Person as determined in a final and nonappealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction. All telephonic notices to and other telephonic communications with the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, may be recorded by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, and each of the parties hereto hereby consents to such recording.

Section 10.03. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies; Enforcement.

No failure by any Lender or the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent to exercise, and no delay by any such Person in exercising, any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided, and provided under each other Loan Document, are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by Law.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Loan Document, the authority to enforce rights and remedies hereunder and under the other Loan Documents against the Loan Parties or any of them shall be vested exclusively in, and all actions and proceedings at law in connection with such enforcement shall be instituted and maintained exclusively by, the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent in accordance with Section 8.02 for the benefit of all the Lenders; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not prohibit (a) the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent from exercising on its own behalf the rights and remedies that inure to its benefit (solely in its capacity as Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent) hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, (b) [reserved], (c) any Lender from exercising setoff rights in accordance with Section 10.08 (subject to the terms of Section 2.13), or (d) any Lender from filing proofs of claim or appearing and filing pleadings on its own behalf during the pendency of a proceeding relative to any Loan Party under any Debtor Relief Law; and provided, further, that if at any time there is no Person acting as Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, then (i) the Required Lenders shall have the rights otherwise ascribed to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent pursuant to Section 8.02 and (ii) in addition to the matters set forth in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of the preceding proviso and subject to Section 2.13, any Lender may, with the consent of the Required Lenders, enforce any rights and remedies available to it and as authorized by the Required Lenders.

Section 10.04. Expenses; Indemnity; Damage Waiver.

(a) Costs and Expenses. The Borrower shall pay (i) all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Administrative Agent, the Lenders and their Affiliates (including the reasonable and documented fees, charges and disbursements of counsel for the Administrative Agent and one separate counsel on behalf of all of the Lenders), in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein, the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery and administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or any amendments, modifications or waivers of the provisions hereof or thereof (whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby shall be consummated); (ii) [reserved]; and (iii) after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender (including the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees, charges and disbursements of counsel for the Administrative Agent and the Lenders) in connection with the enforcement or protection of its rights in connection with this Agreement and the Loans made hereunder, including all out-of-pocket expenses incurred during any workout, restructuring or negotiations in respect of such Loans; provided that reasonable fees and disbursements of outside counsel shall be limited to (x) one primary counsel for the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent and, if reasonably required by the Administrative Agent, local or specialist counsel and (y) one additional counsel for the Lenders (unless there is an actual or perceived conflict of interest that requires separate representation for any Lender, in which case those Lenders similarly affected shall, as a whole, be entitled to one separate counsel) and, to the extent reasonably necessary, local or specialist counsel.

(b) Indemnification by the Borrower. The Borrower shall indemnify the Administrative Agent (and any sub-agent thereof), the Collateral Agent, each Lender, and each Related Party of any of the foregoing Persons (each such Person being called an "Indemnitee") against, and hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and related expenses (including the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for any Indemnitee), incurred by any Indemnitee or asserted against any Indemnitee by any third party or by the Borrower or any other Loan Party arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby or thereby, the performance by the parties hereto of their respective obligations hereunder or thereunder or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, or, in the case of the Administrative Agent (and any sub-agent thereof) and its Related Parties only, the administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents; (ii) any Loan or the use or proposed use of the proceeds therefrom; (iii) any actual or alleged presence or Release of Hazardous Materials at, on, under or emanating from any property owned, leased or operated by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries, or any Environmental Liability related in any way to the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries; or (iv) any actual or prospective claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether based on contract, tort or any other theory, whether brought by a third party or by the Borrower or any other Loan Party or any of the Borrower's or such Loan Party's directors, shareholders or creditors, and regardless of whether any Indemnitee is a party thereto; provided, that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses (x) are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from (A) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee or (B) any material breach of the obligations of such Indemnitee under the Loan Documents, or (y) any proceeding that does not involve an act or omission by the Borrower or any Subsidiary and that is brought by an Indemnitee against another Indemnitee (other than disputes involving claims against any Agent in its capacity as such). Paragraph (b) of this Section 10.04 shall not apply with respect to Taxes other than any Taxes that represent losses, claims, damages, etc. arising from any non-Tax claim.

(c) Indemnification by the Lenders. To the extent that the Borrower for any reason fail to pay any amount required under Section 10.04(a) to be paid by them to the Administrative Agent (or any sub-agent thereof) and its Related Parties, each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent (or any sub-agent thereof) and its Related Parties, as the case may be, such Lender's pro rata share (based on the amount of then outstanding Loans held by each Lender or, if the Loans have been repaid in full, based on the amount of outstanding Loans held by each Lender immediately prior to such repayment in full) of (determined as of the time that the applicable unreimbursed expense or indemnity payment is sought) of such unpaid amount; provided that the unreimbursed expense or indemnified loss, claim, damage, liability or related expense, as the case may be, was incurred by or asserted against the Administrative Agent (or any sub-agent thereof) in its capacity as such, or against its Related Parties acting for the Administrative Agent (or any such sub-agent) in connection with such capacity.

(d) Waiver of Consequential Damages, Etc. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Borrower shall not assert, and hereby waive, any claim against any Indemnitee, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, any Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof. No Indemnitee referred to in clause (b) above shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by unintended recipients of any information or other materials distributed to such unintended recipients by such Indemnitee through telecommunications, electronic or other information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby other than for direct or actual damages resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee as determined in a final and nonappealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) Payments. All amounts due under this Section shall be payable not later than ten (10) days after demand therefor.

(f) Survival. The agreements in this Section shall survive the resignation of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the replacement of any Lender, the termination of the Aggregate Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all the other Obligations.

Section 10.05. Payments Set Aside.

To the extent that any payment by or on behalf of the Borrower is made to any Agent or any Lender, or any Agent or any Lender exercises its right of setoff, and such payment or the proceeds of such setoff or any part thereof is subsequently invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside or required (including pursuant to any settlement entered into by such Agent or such Lender in its discretion) to be repaid to a trustee, receiver or any other party, in connection with any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or otherwise, then (a) to the extent of such recovery, the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied shall, to the fullest extent possible under provisions of applicable Law, be revived and continued in full force and effect as if such payment had not been made or such setoff had not occurred; and (b) each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent upon demand its applicable share of any amount so recovered from or repaid by any Agent, plus interest thereon from the date of such demand to the date such payment is made at a rate per annum equal to the applicable Federal Funds Rate from time to time in effect.

Section 10.06. Successors and Assigns.

(a) Successors and Assigns Generally. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that (other than as permitted pursuant to Section 7.03), neither the Borrower nor any other Loan Party may assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and each Lender and no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder except (i) to an Eligible Assignee in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.06(b); (ii) [reserved]; or (iii) by way of pledge or assignment of a security interest subject to the restrictions of Section 10.06(f); or (iv) to an SPC in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.06(g). Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than (i) the parties hereto, (ii) their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, (iii) [reserved] and (iv) to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Related Parties of each of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Lenders) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement. Any assignment or other that violates or does not comply with this Section 10.06 shall be void ab initio.

(b) Assignments by Lenders. Any Lender may at any time assign to one or more Eligible Assignees all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment (or Commitments) and the Loans at the time owing to it); provided, that any such assignment shall be subject to the following conditions:

(i) Minimum Amounts.

(A) in the case of an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Commitment under any Facility and the Loans at the time owing to it under such Facility or in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund, no minimum amount need be assigned; and

(B) in any case not described in clause (b)(i)(A) of this Section, the aggregate amount of the Commitment (which for this purpose includes Loans outstanding thereunder) or, if the Commitment is not then in effect, the principal outstanding balance of the Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment, determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent or, if "Trade Date" is specified in the Assignment and Assumption, as of the Trade Date, shall not be less than $250,000 unless each of the Administrative Agent and, so long as no Event of Default under Section 8.01(a), (f) or (g) has occurred and is continuing, the Borrower otherwise consents; provided, however, that concurrent assignments to members of an Assignee Group and concurrent assignments from members of an Assignee Group to a single Eligible Assignee (or to an Eligible Assignee and members of its Assignee Group) will be treated as a single assignment for purposes of determining whether such minimum amount has been met;

(ii) Proportionate Amounts. Each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under each applicable Facility, except that this clause (ii) shall not prohibit any Lender from assigning all or a portion of its rights and obligations under one Facility on a non-pro rata basis relative to its rights and obligations under another Facility;

(iii) Required Consents. No consent shall be required for any assignment except to the extent required by clause (b)(i)(B) of this Section and, in addition:

(A) the consent of the Borrower (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required unless (1) an Event of Default under Section 8.01(a), (f) or (g) has occurred and is continuing at the time of such assignment or (2) such assignment is to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund; provided, that the Borrower shall be deemed to have consented to any such assignment unless it shall object thereto by written notice to the Administrative Agent within five (5) Business Days after having received notice thereof;

(B) the consent of the Administrative Agent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) shall be required for assignments in respect of (1) any Term Loan Commitment if such assignment is to a Person that is not a Lender with a Commitment in respect of the applicable Facility, an Affiliate of such Lender or an Approved Fund with respect to such Lender or (2) any Term Loan to a Person that is not a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund.

(iv) Assignment and Assumption. The parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Assumption, together with a processing and recordation fee in the amount of $3,500; provided, however, that (i) the Administrative Agent may, in its sole discretion, elect to waive such processing and recordation fee in the case of any assignment and (ii) only one such processing and recordation shall be required in connection with concurrent assignments to or by more than one member of an Assignee Group. The assignee, if it is not a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire.

(v) No Assignment to Certain Persons. No such assignment shall be made (A) to the Borrower or any of the Borrower's Affiliates or Subsidiaries, or (B) to a natural person.

Subject to acceptance and recording thereof by the Administrative Agent pursuant to clause (c) of this Section, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Assumption, the assignee thereunder shall be a party to this Agreement and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Assumption covering all of the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto) but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of (and subject to the obligations and limitations of) Sections 3.01, 3.04, 3.05 and 10.04 with respect to amounts payable thereunder and accruing for such Lender's benefit but not paid prior to the effective date of such assignment. Upon request, the Borrower (at its expense) shall execute and deliver a Note to the assignee Lender. Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with Section 10.06(d).

(c) Register. The Administrative Agent, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, shall maintain at the Administrative Agent's Office a copy of each Assignment and Assumption delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitments of, and principal amounts (and related interest amounts) of the Loans owing to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error and the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrower and any Lender (with respect to its own interests only), at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice. This Section 11.06(c) shall be construed so that all Loans are at all times maintained in "registered form" within the meaning of Sections 163(f), 871(h)(2) and 881(c)(2) of the Code and under Section 5f.103-1(c) and proposed Section 1.163-5(b) of the United States Treasury Regulations (or any amended or successor version).

(d) [Reserved].

(e) [Reserved].

(f) Certain Pledges. Any Lender may at any time, without consent or notice, pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (including under its Note, if any) to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank or any central bank having jurisdiction over such Lender; provided, that no such pledge or assignment shall release such Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(g) Special Purpose Funding Vehicles. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Lender (a "Granting Lender") may grant to a special purpose funding vehicle identified as such in writing from time to time by the Granting Lender to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower (an "SPC") the option to provide all or any part of any Loan that such Granting Lender would otherwise be obligated to make pursuant to this Agreement; provided, that (i) nothing herein shall constitute a commitment by any SPC to fund any Loan; (ii) any grant of such an option to any SPC shall not constitute a novation, if an SPC elects not to exercise such option or otherwise fails to make all or any part of such Loan, the Granting Lender shall be obligated to make such Loan pursuant to the terms hereof, and in no event shall any Granting Lender be released from its obligations hereunder. Each party hereto hereby agrees that (i) each SPC shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 3.01, 3.04 and 3.05 (subject to the requirements and limitations of such Sections and Section 10.13) to the same extent as if it were a Granting Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to Section 10.06(b); provided, that an SPC shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 3.01 or 3.04 than the applicable Granting Lender would have been entitled to receive with respect to the SPC granted to such SPC, (ii) no SPC shall be liable for any indemnity or similar payment obligation under this Agreement for which a Lender would be liable; and (iii) the Granting Lender shall for all purposes, including the approval of any amendment, waiver or other modification of any provision of any Loan Document, remain the lender of record hereunder. The making of a Loan by an SPC hereunder shall utilize the Commitment of the Granting Lender to the same extent, and as if, such Loan were made by such Granting Lender. In furtherance of the foregoing, each party hereto hereby agrees (which agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement) that, prior to the date that is one year and one day after the payment in full of all outstanding commercial paper or other senior debt of any SPC, it will not institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, such SPC any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, or liquidation proceeding under the laws of the United States or any State thereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any SPC may (i) with notice to, but without prior consent of, the Borrower and the Administrative Agent and with the payment of a processing fee in the amount of $3,500 (which processing fee may be waived by the Administrative Agent in its sole discretion), assign all or any portion of its right to receive payment with respect to any Loan to the related Granting Lender; and (ii) disclose on a confidential basis any non-public information relating to its funding of Loans to any rating agency, commercial paper dealer or provider of any surety or Guarantee or credit or liquidity enhancement to such SPC.

Section 10.07. Treatment of Certain Information; Confidentiality.

Each of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Lenders agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Information, except that Information may be disclosed (a) to its Affiliates and to its and its Affiliates' respective partners, directors, officers, employees, agents, trustees, advisors and representatives (it being understood that the Persons to whom such disclosure is made will be informed of the confidential nature of such Information and instructed to keep such Information confidential and that the disclosing party shall be liable for the failure of any such Persons to adhere to the requirements of this Section 10.07); (b) to the extent requested by any regulatory authority purporting to have jurisdiction over it (including any self-regulatory authority, such as the National Association of Insurance Commissioners); (c) to the extent required by applicable Laws or regulations or by any subpoena or similar legal process; (d) to any other party hereto; (e) to the extent reasonably required in connection with the exercise of any remedies hereunder or under any other Loan Document or any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document or the enforcement of rights hereunder or thereunder; (f) subject to an agreement containing provisions substantially the same as those of this Section, to (i) [reserved]; (ii) any actual or prospective counterparty (or its advisors) to any swap or derivative transaction relating to the Borrower and its obligations; or (iii) any credit insurance provider relating to the Borrower and its obligations hereunder; (g) with the consent of the Borrower; (h) on a confidential basis to the CUSIP Service Bureau or any similar agency in connection with the issuance and monitoring of CUSIP numbers or other market identifiers with respect to the credit facilities provided hereunder; (i) on a confidential basis to the Rating Agencies or any other rating agency; (j) to the Bankruptcy Court in connection with the approval of the Transactions contemplated hereby; and (k) to the extent such Information (i) becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Section or (ii) becomes available to the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent or any Lender or any of their respective Affiliates on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the Borrower that is not itself, to the knowledge of such Person, in breach of a confidentiality obligation to the Borrower or any Subsidiary in connection with the disclosure of such Information.

For purposes of this Section, "Information" means all information received from the Borrower or any Subsidiary relating to the Borrower or any Subsidiary of the Borrower or any of their respective businesses, other than any such information that is available to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender on a non-confidential basis prior to disclosure by the Borrower or any Subsidiary. Any Person required to maintain the confidentiality of Information as provided in this Section shall be considered to have complied with its obligation to do so if such Person has exercised the same degree of care to maintain the confidentiality of such Information as such Person would accord to its own confidential information.

Each of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Lenders acknowledges that (a) the Information may include material non-public information concerning the Borrower or a Subsidiary, as the case may be; (b) it has developed compliance procedures regarding the use of material non-public information; and (c) it will handle such material non-public information in accordance with applicable Law, including United States federal and state securities Laws. In addition, the Administrative Agent and each Lender may disclose the existence of this Agreement and the information about this Agreement to market data collectors, similar services providers to the lending industry, and service providers to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders in connection with the administration and management of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

Section 10.08. Setoff.

In addition to any rights and remedies of the Lenders provided by Law, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default, each Lender and its Affiliates (and the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, in respect of any unpaid fees, costs and expenses payable hereunder) is authorized at any time and from time to time, without prior notice to the Borrower, any such notice being waived by the Borrower (on its own behalf and on behalf of each Loan Party and each of its Subsidiaries) to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, after obtaining the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) at any time held by, and other Indebtedness at any time owing by, such Lender and its Affiliates, the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent to or for the credit or the account of the respective Loan Parties and their Subsidiaries against any and all Obligations owing to such Lender and its Affiliates, the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent hereunder or under any other Loan Document, now or hereafter existing, irrespective of whether or not such Agent or such Lender or Affiliate shall have made demand under this Agreement or any other Loan Document and although such Obligations may be contingent or unmatured or denominated in a currency different from that of the applicable deposit or Indebtedness. Each Lender agrees promptly to notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent after any such set off and application made by such Lender; provided, that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application. The rights of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and each Lender under this Section 10.08 are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) that the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and such Lender may have.

Section 10.09. Interest Rate Limitation.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Loan Document, the interest paid or agreed to be paid under the Loan Documents shall not exceed the maximum rate of non-usurious interest permitted by applicable Law (the "Maximum Rate"). If any Agent or any Lender shall receive interest in an amount that exceeds the Maximum Rate, the excess interest shall be applied to the principal of the Loans or, if it exceeds such unpaid principal, refunded to the Borrower. In determining whether the interest contracted for, charged, or received by an Agent or a Lender exceeds the Maximum Rate, such Person may, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, (a) characterize any payment that is not principal as an expense, fee, or premium rather than interest; (b) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof; and (c) amortize, prorate, allocate and spread in equal or unequal parts the total amount of interest throughout the contemplated term of the Obligations hereunder.

Section 10.10. Counterparts; Effectiveness.

This Agreement and each other Loan Document may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery by telecopier or email pdf of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement and each other Loan Document shall be effective as delivery of an original executed counterpart of this Agreement and such other Loan Document. The Agents may also require that any such documents and signatures delivered by telecopier or email pdf be confirmed by a manually signed original thereof; provided, that the failure to request or deliver the same shall not limit the effectiveness of any document or signature delivered by telecopier or email pdf. Except as provided in Section 4.01, this Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by the Administrative Agent and when the Administrative Agent shall have received counterparts hereof that, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto.

Section 10.11. Integration.

This Agreement, together with the other Loan Documents, comprises the complete and integrated agreement of the parties on the subject matter hereof and thereof and supersedes all prior agreements, written or oral, on such subject matter. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and those of any other Loan Document, the provisions of this Agreement shall control; provided, that the inclusion of supplemental rights or remedies in favor of the Agents or the Lenders in any other Loan Document shall not be deemed a conflict with this Agreement. Each Loan Document was drafted with the joint participation of the respective parties thereto and shall be construed neither against nor in favor of any party, but rather in accordance with the fair meaning thereof.

Section 10.12. Survival of Representations and Warranties.

All representations and warranties made hereunder and in any other Loan Document or other document delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or in connection herewith or therewith shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and thereof. Such representations and warranties have been or will be relied upon by the Administrative Agent and each Lender, regardless of any investigation made by the Administrative Agent or any Lender or on their behalf and notwithstanding that the Administrative Agent or any Lender may have had notice or knowledge of any Default at the time of any Borrowing, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as any Loan or any other Obligation hereunder shall remain unpaid or unsatisfied.

Section 10.13. Replacement of Lenders.

If any Lender requests compensation under Section 3.04, if the Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 3.01, if any Lender shall fail to consent to any amendment or waiver requested by the Borrower in accordance with the last paragraph of Section 10.01 or if any other circumstance exists hereunder that gives the Borrower the right to replace a Lender as a party hereto, then the Borrower may, at its sole expense and effort, upon notice to such Lender and the Administrative Agent, require such Lender to assign and delegate, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in, and consents required by, Section 10.06), all of its interests, rights and obligations under this Agreement and the related Loan Documents to an assignee that shall assume such obligations (which assignee may be another Lender, if a Lender accepts such assignment); provided that:

(a) the Administrative Agent shall have received the assignment fee specified in Section 10.06(b);

(b) such Lender shall have received payment of an amount equal to 100% of the outstanding principal of its Loans and accrued fees and all other amounts payable to it hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, any premium thereon (assuming for this purpose that the Loans of such Lender were being prepaid) from the assignee and any amounts payable by the Borrower pursuant to Section 3.01, 3.04 or 3.05 from the Borrower (it being understood that the Assignment and Assumption relating to such assignment shall provide that any interest and fees that accrued prior to the effective date of the assignment shall be for the account of the replaced Lender and such amounts that accrue on and after the effective date of the assignment shall be for the account of the replacement Lender);

(c) in the case of any such assignment resulting from a claim for compensation under Section 3.04 or payments required to be made pursuant to Section 3.01, such assignment will result in a reduction in such compensation or payments thereafter; and

(d) such assignment does not conflict with applicable Laws.

A Lender shall not be required to make any such assignment or delegation if, prior thereto, as a result of a waiver by such Lender or otherwise, the circumstances entitling the Borrower to require such assignment and delegation cease to apply. Each Lender agrees that, if the Borrower elects to replace such Lender in accordance with this Section 10.13, it shall promptly execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Assumption to evidence the assignment and shall deliver to the Administrative Agent any Note (if Notes have been issued in respect of such Lender's Loans) subject to such Assignment and Assumption; provided, that the failure of any such Lender to execute an Assignment and Assumption shall not render such assignment invalid and such assignment shall be recorded in the Register.

Section 10.14. Severability.

If any provision of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, (a) the legality, validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall not be affected or impaired thereby; and (b) the parties shall endeavor in good faith negotiations to replace the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions. The invalidity of a provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 10.15. GOVERNING LAW.

THIS AGREEMENT AND EACH OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ANY CONFLICTS PROVISIONS THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION.

ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING UNDER ANY LOAN DOCUMENT OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH OR RELATED OR INCIDENTAL TO

THE DEALINGS OF THE PARTIES HERETO OR ANY OF THEM WITH RESPECT TO ANY LOAN DOCUMENT, OR THE TRANSACTIONS RELATED THERETO, IN EACH CASE WHETHER NOW EXISTING OR HEREAFTER ARISING, SHALL BE BROUGHT IN THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK SITTING IN NEW YORK COUNTY OR OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK LOCATED IN THE BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN OR ANY APPELLATE COURT FROM ANY SUCH COURT, AND BY EXECUTION AND DELIVERY OF THIS AGREEMENT, EACH LOAN PARTY, EACH AGENT AND EACH LENDER CONSENTS, FOR ITSELF AND IN RESPECT OF ITS PROPERTY, TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THOSE COURTS. EACH LOAN PARTY, EACH AGENT AND EACH LENDER IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION, INCLUDING ANY OBJECTION TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OR BASED ON THE GROUNDS OF FORUM NON CONVENIENS, WHICH IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE BRINGING OF ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN SUCH JURISDICTION IN RESPECT OF ANY LOAN DOCUMENT OR OTHER DOCUMENT RELATED THERETO. EACH PARTY HERETO IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO ANY LOAN DOCUMENTS IN THE MANNER PROVIDED FOR NOTICES (OTHER THAN TELECOPIER) IN SECTION 10.02. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT WILL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY HERETO TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

Section 10.16. WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.

EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY). EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PERSON HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PERSON WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

Section 10.17. Binding Effect.

This Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by each of the Loan Parties and the Administrative Agent shall have been notified by each Lender that each such Lender has executed it and thereafter shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Loan Parties, each Agent and each Lender and their respective successors and assigns, in each case in accordance with Section 10.06 (if applicable) and except that no Loan Party shall have the right to assign its rights hereunder or any interest herein without the prior written consent of the Lenders except as permitted by Section 7.03.

Section 10.18. No Advisory or Fiduciary Responsibility.

In connection with all aspects of each transaction contemplated hereby (including in connection with any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Loan Document), each of the Borrower and the other Loan Parties acknowledges and agrees, and acknowledges its Affiliates' understanding, that: (a) (i) the arranging and other services regarding this Agreement provided by the Administrative Agent and the Lenders, are arm's-length commercial transactions between the Borrower, the other Loan Parties their respective Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Administrative Agent and the Lenders, on the other hand, (ii) each of the Borrower and the other Loan Parties has consulted its own legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors to the extent it has deemed appropriate, and (iii) each of the Borrower and each of the other Loan Parties are capable of evaluating, and understands and accepts, the terms, risks and conditions of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the other Loan Documents; (b) (i) the Administrative Agent and the Lenders each is and has been acting solely as a principal and, except as expressly agreed in writing by the relevant parties, has not been, is not, and will not be acting as an advisor, agent or fiduciary for the Borrower, the other Loan Parties or any of their respective Affiliates, or any other Person; and (ii) none of the Administrative Agent or the Lenders has any obligation to the Borrower, the other Loan Parties or any of their respective Affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby except those obligations expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents; and (c) the Administrative Agent, the Lenders and their respective Affiliates may be engaged in a broad range of transactions that involve interests that differ from those of the Borrower, the other Loan Parties and their respective Affiliates, and none the Administrative Agent or the Lenders has any obligation to disclose any of such interests to the Borrower, the other Loan Parties or any of their respective Affiliates. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Borrower and each of the other Loan Parties hereby waive and release any claims that it may have against the Administrative Agent and the Lenders with respect to any breach or alleged breach of agency or fiduciary duty in connection with any aspect of any transaction contemplated hereby.

Section 10.19. Lender Action.

Each Lender agrees that it shall not take or institute any actions or proceedings, judicial or otherwise, or exercise any right or remedy against any Loan Party or any other obligor under any of the Loan Documents (including the exercise of any right of setoff, rights on account of any banker's lien or similar claim or other rights of self-help), or institute any actions or proceedings, or otherwise commence any remedial procedures, with respect to any Collateral or any other property of any such Loan Party, without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent. The provisions of this Section 10.19 are for the sole benefit of the Lenders and shall not afford any right to, or constitute a defense available to, any Loan Party.

Section 10.20. USA Patriot Act.

Each Lender that is subject to the USA Patriot Act and the Administrative Agent (for itself and not on behalf of any Lender) hereby notifies the Loan Parties that pursuant to the requirements of the USA Patriot Act, it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies the Loan Parties, which information includes the name, address and tax identification number of each Loan Party and other information regarding each Loan Party that will allow such Lender or the

(a) Each Lender (x) represents and warrants, as of the date such Person became a Lender party hereto, to, and (y) covenants, from the date such Person became a Lender party hereto to the date such Person ceases being a Lender party hereto, for the benefit of, the Administrative Agent and its Affiliates, and not, for the avoidance of doubt, to or for the benefit of the Borrower or any other Loan Party, that at least one of the following is and will be true:

(a) Subject to the Specified Guarantor Release Provision, the Lenders and the other Secured Parties hereby irrevocably agree that the Liens granted to the Collateral Agent by the Loan Parties on any Collateral shall be automatically released: (i) in full upon the Facility Termination Date; (ii) upon the Disposition of such Collateral by any Loan Party to a person that is not (and is not required to become) a Loan Party in a transaction not prohibited by this Agreement (and the Collateral Agent may rely conclusively on a certificate to that effect provided to it by any Loan Party upon its reasonable request without further inquiry), (iii) to the extent that such Collateral comprises property leased to a Loan Party, upon termination or expiration of such lease (and the Collateral Agent may rely conclusively on a certificate to that effect provided to it by any Loan Party upon its reasonable request without further inquiry), (iv) if the release of such Lien is approved, authorized or ratified in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other percentage of the Lenders whose consent may be required in accordance with Section 10.01), and (v) to the extent that the property constituting such Collateral is owned by any Guarantor, upon the release of such Guarantor from its obligations under the Guarantee or clause (b) below (and the Collateral Agent may rely conclusively on a certificate to that effect provided to it by any Loan Party upon its reasonable request without further inquiry). Any such release (other than pursuant to clause (i) above) shall not in any manner discharge, affect or impair the Obligations or any Liens (other than those being released) upon (or obligations (other than those being released) of the Loan Parties in respect of) all interests retained by the Loan Parties, including the proceeds of any Disposition, all of which shall continue to constitute part of the Collateral except to the extent otherwise released in accordance with the provisions of the Loan Documents.

(b) In addition, subject to the Specified Guarantor Release Provision, the Lenders and the other Secured Parties hereby irrevocably agree that (i) upon the Disposition of all (but not less than all) of the Equity Interests of a Guarantor to another person pursuant to a Disposition not prohibited hereunder, which person is not an Affiliate of the Borrower, such Guarantor shall be automatically released from its Guarantees upon consummation of such Disposition and (ii) upon consummation of any other transaction not prohibited hereunder resulting in any Guarantor ceasing to exist, the Administrative Agent shall release such Guarantor from its Guarantees concurrently with such transaction (and, in each case, the Administrative Agent may rely conclusively on a certificate to that effect provided to it by any Loan Party upon its reasonable request without further inquiry).

(c) The Lenders and the other Secured Parties hereby authorize the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, as applicable, to execute and deliver any instruments, documents, and agreements necessary or desirable to evidence and confirm the release of any Guarantor or Collateral pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Section 10.24 and to return to the Borrower all possessory collateral (including share certificates (if any)) held by it in respect of any Collateral so released, all without the further consent or joinder of any Lender or any other Secured Party. Any representation, warranty or covenant contained in any Loan Document relating to any such Collateral or Guarantor shall no longer be deemed to be made. In connection with any release hereunder, the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall promptly (and the Secured Parties hereby authorize the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent to) take such action and execute any such documents as may be reasonably requested by the Borrower and at the Borrower's expense in connection with the release of any Liens created by any Loan Document in respect of such Subsidiary, property or asset; provided, that the Administrative Agent shall have received a certificate of a Responsible Officer of the Borrower containing such certifications as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably request and any such release shall be without recourse to or warranty by the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or any other Loan Document, upon the Facility Termination Date, all Liens granted to the Collateral Agent by the Loan Parties on any Collateral and all obligations of the Borrower and the other Loan Parties under any Loan Documents (other than such obligations that expressly survive the payment and satisfaction in full in cash of all Guaranteed Obligations, and the expiration and termination of the Commitments of the Lenders under this Agreement pursuant to the terms hereof) shall, in each case, be automatically released and, upon request of the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, shall (without notice to, or vote or consent of, any Secured Party) take such actions as shall be required to evidence the release its security interest in all Collateral (including returning to the Borrower all possessory collateral (including all share certificates (if any)) held by it in respect of any Collateral), and to evidence the release of all obligations under any Loan Document (other than such obligations that expressly survive the Facility Termination Date pursuant to the terms hereof); provided, that the Administrative Agent shall have received a certificate of a Responsible Officer of the Borrower containing such certifications as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably request. Any such release of obligations shall be deemed subject to the provision that such obligations shall be reinstated if after such release any portion of any payment in respect of the obligations guaranteed thereby shall be rescinded, avoided or must otherwise be restored or returned upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of the Borrower or any Guarantor, or upon or as a result of the appointment of a receiver, intervenor or conservator of, or trustee or similar officer for, the Borrower or any Guarantor or any substantial part of its property, or otherwise, all as though such payment had not been made. The Borrower agrees to pay all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent (and their respective representatives) in connection with taking such actions to release security interest in all Collateral and all obligations under the Loan Documents as contemplated by this Section 10.24(d).

ARTICLE XI
Guarantee

Section 11.01. The Guarantee.

Each Guarantor hereby jointly and severally with the other Guarantors guarantees, as a primary obligor and not as a surety, to each Secured Party and their respective successors and assigns, the prompt payment in full when due (whether at stated maturity, by required prepayment, declaration, demand, by acceleration or otherwise) of the principal of and interest (including any interest that would accrue but for the provisions of (i) the U.S. Bankruptcy Code after any bankruptcy or insolvency petition under U.S. Bankruptcy Code and (ii) any other Debtor Relief Laws) on the Loans made by the Lenders to, and the Notes held by each Lender of, the Borrower (other than such Guarantor), and all other Obligations from time to time owing to the Secured Parties by any Loan Party under any Loan Document, in each case strictly in accordance with the terms thereof (such obligations being herein collectively called the "Guaranteed Obligations"). The Guarantors hereby jointly and severally agree that if the Borrower shall fail to pay in full when due (whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) any of the Guaranteed Obligations, the Guarantors will promptly pay the same in cash, without any demand or notice whatsoever, and that in the case of any extension of time of payment or renewal of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, the same will be promptly paid in full when due (whether at extended maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) in accordance with the terms of such extension or renewal.

Section 11.02. Obligations Unconditional.

The obligations of the Guarantors under Section 11.01 shall constitute a guaranty of payment (and not merely a guaranty of collection) and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, are absolute, irrevocable and unconditional, joint and several, irrespective of the value, genuineness, validity, regularity or enforceability of the Guaranteed Obligations of the Borrower under this Agreement, the Notes, if any, or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein, or any substitution, release or exchange of any other guarantee of or security for any of the Guaranteed Obligations, and, irrespective of any other circumstance whatsoever that might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a surety or Guarantor (except for payment in full). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is agreed that the occurrence of any one or more of the following shall not alter or impair the liability of the Guarantors hereunder which shall remain absolute, irrevocable and unconditional under any and all circumstances as described above:

(a) at any time or from time to time, without notice to the Guarantors, the time for any performance of or compliance with any of the Guaranteed Obligations shall be extended, or such performance or compliance shall be waived;

(b) any of the acts mentioned in any of the provisions of this Agreement or the Notes, if any, or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein shall be done or omitted;

(c) the maturity of any of the Guaranteed Obligations shall be accelerated, or any of the Guaranteed Obligations shall be amended in any respect, or any right under the Loan Documents or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein shall be amended or waived in any respect or any other guarantee of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or any security therefor shall be released or exchanged in whole or in part or otherwise dealt with;

(d) any Lien or security interest granted to, or in favor of, any Lender or Agent as security for any of the Guaranteed Obligations shall fail to be perfected;

(e) the release of any other Guarantor pursuant to Section 10.24; or

(f) the expiration of any statute of limitations.

The Guarantors hereby expressly waive diligence, presentment, demand of payment, protest and all notices whatsoever, and any requirement that any Secured Party exhaust any right, power or remedy or proceed against the Borrower under this Agreement or the Notes, if any, or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein, or against any other Person under any other guarantee of, or security for, any of the Guaranteed Obligations. The Guarantors waive any and all notice of the creation, renewal, extension, waiver, termination or accrual of any of the Guaranteed Obligations and notice of or proof of reliance by any Secured Party upon this Guarantee or acceptance of this Guarantee, and the Guaranteed Obligations, and any of them, shall conclusively be deemed to have been created, contracted or incurred in reliance upon this Guarantee, and all dealings between the Borrower and the Secured Parties shall likewise be conclusively presumed to have been had or consummated in reliance upon this Guarantee. This Guarantee shall be construed as a continuing, absolute, irrevocable and unconditional guarantee of payment without regard to any right of offset with respect to the Guaranteed Obligations at any time or from time to time held by Secured Parties, and the obligations and liabilities of the Guarantors hereunder shall not be conditioned or contingent upon the pursuit by the Secured Parties or any other Person at any time of any right or remedy against the Borrower or against any other Person which may be or become liable in respect of all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or against any collateral security or guarantee therefor or right of offset with respect thereto. This Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and be binding in accordance with and to the extent of its terms upon the Guarantors and the successors and assigns thereof, and shall inure to the benefit of the Lenders, and their respective successors and assigns, notwithstanding that from time to time during the term of this Agreement there may be no Guaranteed Obligations outstanding.

Section 11.03. Reinstatement.

The obligations of the Guarantors under this Article XI shall be automatically reinstated if and to the extent that for any reason any payment by or on behalf of the Borrower or other Loan Party in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations is rescinded or must be otherwise restored by any holder of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, whether as a result of any proceedings in bankruptcy or reorganization or otherwise.

Section 11.04. Subrogation; Subordination.

Each Guarantor hereby agrees, that until the Facility Termination Date, it shall waive any claim and shall not exercise any right or remedy, direct or indirect, arising by reason of any performance by it of its guarantee in Section 11.01, whether by subrogation or otherwise, against the Borrower or any other Guarantor of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or any security for any of the Guaranteed Obligations.

Section 11.05. Remedies.

The Guarantors jointly and severally agree that, as between the Guarantors and the Lenders, the obligations of the Borrower under this Agreement and the Notes, if any, may be declared to be forthwith due and payable as provided in Section 8.02 (and shall be deemed to have become automatically due and payable in the circumstances provided in Section 8.02) for purposes of Section 11.01, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such declaration (or such obligations from becoming automatically due and payable) as against the Borrower and that, in the event of such declaration (or such obligations being deemed to have become automatically due and payable), such obligations (whether or not due and payable by the Borrower) shall forthwith become due and payable by the Guarantors for purposes of Section 11.01.

Section 11.06. Instrument for the Payment of Money.

Each Guarantor hereby acknowledges that the guarantee in this Article XI constitutes an instrument for the payment of money, and consents and agrees that any Lender or Agent, at its sole option, in the event of a dispute by such Guarantor in the payment of any moneys due hereunder, shall have the right to bring a motion-action under New York CPLR Section 3213.

Section 11.07. Continuing Guarantee.

The guarantee in this Article XI is a continuing guarantee of payment, and shall apply to all Guaranteed Obligations whenever arising.

Section 11.08. General Limitation on Guarantee Obligations.

In any action or proceeding involving any state corporate limited partnership or limited liability company law, or any applicable state, federal or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other Law affecting the rights of creditors generally, if the obligations of any Guarantor under Section 11.01 would otherwise be held or determined to be void, voidable, invalid or unenforceable, or subordinated to the claims of any other creditors, on account of the amount of its liability under Section 11.01, then, notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, the amount of such liability shall, without any further action by such Guarantor, any Loan Party or any other Person, be automatically limited and reduced to the highest amount (after giving effect to the right of contribution established in Section 11.10) that is valid and enforceable and not subordinated to the claims of other creditors as determined in such action or proceeding.

Section 11.09. [Reserved].

Section 11.10. Right of Contribution.

Each Guarantor hereby agrees that to the extent that a Guarantor shall have paid more than its proportionate share of any payment made hereunder, such Guarantor shall be entitled to seek and receive contribution from and against any other Guarantor hereunder which has not paid its proportionate share of such payment. Each Guarantor's right of contribution shall be subject to the terms and conditions of Section 11.04. The provisions of this Section 11.10 shall in no respect limit the obligations and liabilities of any Guarantor to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Lenders, and each Guarantor shall remain liable to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Lenders for the full amount guaranteed by such Guarantor hereunder.

Section 11.11. Subject to Intercreditor Agreement.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) the liens and security interests granted to the Collateral Agent pursuant to the Collateral Documents are expressly subject to the Intercreditor Agreement (if in effect) and any other intercreditor agreement entered into pursuant hereto and (ii) the exercise of any right or remedy by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent hereunder or under the Intercreditor Agreement (if in effect) and any other intercreditor agreement entered into pursuant hereto is subject to the limitations and provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement (if in effect) and such other intercreditor agreement entered into pursuant hereto. In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement (if in effect) or any other such intercreditor and terms of this Agreement, the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement (if in effect) or such other intercreditor agreement, as applicable, shall govern.

Section 11.12. [Reserved].

Section 11.13. Acknowledgement Regarding Any Supported QFCs.

To the extent that the Loan Documents provide support, through a guarantee or otherwise, for any agreement or instrument that is a QFC (such support "QFC Credit Support" and each such QFC a "Supported QFC"), the parties acknowledge and agree as follows with respect to the resolution power of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation under the Federal Deposit Insurance Act and Title II of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (together with the regulations promulgated thereunder, the "U.S. Special Resolution Regimes") in respect of such Supported QFC and QFC Credit Support (with the provisions below applicable notwithstanding that the Loan Documents and any Supported QFC may in fact be stated to be governed by the laws of the State of New York and/or of the United States or any other state of the United States):

In the event a Covered Entity that is party to a Supported QFC (each, a "Covered Party") becomes subject to a proceeding under a U.S. Special Resolution Regime, the transfer of such Supported QFC and the benefit of such QFC Credit Support (and any interest and obligation in or under such Supported QFC and such QFC Credit Support, and any rights in property securing such Supported QFC or such QFC Credit Support) from such Covered Party will be effective to the same extent as the transfer would be effective under the U.S. Special Resolution Regime if the Supported QFC and such QFC Credit Support (and any such interest, obligation and rights in property) were governed by the laws of the United States or a state of the United States. In the event a Covered Party or a BHC Act Affiliate of a Covered Party becomes subject to a proceeding under a U.S. Special Resolution Regime, Default Rights under the Loan Documents that might otherwise apply to such Supported QFC or any QFC Credit Support that may be exercised against such Covered Party are permitted to be exercised to no greater extent than such Default Rights could be exercised under the U.S. Special Resolution Regime if the Supported QFC and the Loan Documents were governed by the laws of the United States or a state of the United States. Without limitation of the foregoing, it is understood and agreed that rights and remedies of the parties with respect to a Defaulting Lender shall in no event affect the rights of any Covered Party with respect to a Supported QFC or any QFC Credit Support.

(vii) seventh, the balance, if any, to be paid to the Seller for its own account in payment of the Deferred Purchase Price.

(c) All payments or distributions to be made by the Servicer, the Seller and any other Person to the Investors (or their respective related Affected Persons and the Seller Indemnified Parties) hereunder shall be paid to the related Investor at its Investor's Account.

(d) If and to the extent the Agent, any Investor Party, any Affected Person or any Seller Indemnified Party shall be required for any reason to pay over to any Person (including any Obligor or any trustee, receiver, custodian or similar official in any insolvency proceeding) any amount received on its behalf hereunder, such amount shall be deemed not to have been so received but rather to have been retained by the Seller and, accordingly, the Agent, such Investor Party, such Affected Person or such Seller Indemnified Party, as the case may be, shall have a claim against the Seller for such amount.

(e) For the purposes of this Section 3.01:

(i) if on any day the Unpaid Balance of any Pool Receivable is (A) reduced as a result of any defective or rejected goods or services, any discount, dispute, refunds, netting, rebates or any adjustment or otherwise by any Audacy Party or any Affiliate thereof (other than cash Collections on account of the Receivables), (B) reduced as a result of converting such Receivable to an Excluded Receivable, (C) reduced as a result of applying any Deposit Balance that was not, immediately prior to such reduction, held in the Collection Account or a Lock-Box Account or (D) reduced or canceled as a result of a setoff in respect of any claim by any Person (whether such claim arises out of the same or a related transaction or an unrelated transaction) or any netting by any Person (any such reduction or adjustment, a "Reduction"), the Seller shall be deemed to have received on such day a Collection of such Pool Receivable in the amount of such reduction or adjustment and shall within two (2) Business Days pay to the Collection Account (or as otherwise directed by the Agent at such time) for the benefit of the Investor Parties for application pursuant to Section 3.01(b), an amount equal to (x) if such Reduction occurs prior to the Termination Date and no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the lesser of (I) the sum of all deemed Collections with respect to such Reduction and (II) an amount necessary to eliminate any Capital Coverage Deficit that exists at such time and (y) if such Reduction occurs on or after the Termination Date or at any time when an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the sum of all deemed Collections with respect to such Reduction;

otherwise directed by the Agent at such time) for the benefit of the Investor Parties for application pursuant to Section 3.01(b), an amount equal to (x) if such breach occurs prior to the Termination Date and no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the lesser of (I) the sum of all deemed Collections with respect to such breach and (II) an amount necessary to eliminate any Capital Coverage Deficit that exists at such time and (y) if such breach occurs on or after the Termination Date or at any time when an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the sum of all deemed Collections with respect to such breach (Collections deemed to have been received pursuant to Sections 3.01(e)(i) and 3.01(e)(ii) are hereinafter sometimes referred to as "Deemed Collections");

(iv) if and to the extent the Agent, any Investor Party, any Affected Person or any Seller Indemnified Party shall be required for any reason to pay over to an Obligor (or any trustee, receiver, custodian or similar official in any insolvency proceeding) any amount received by it hereunder, such amount shall be deemed not to have been so received by such Person but rather to have been retained by the Seller and, accordingly, such Person shall have a claim against the Seller for such amount, payable when and to the extent that any distribution from or on behalf of such Obligor is made in respect thereof.

SECTION 3.02. Payments and Computations, Etc. (a) All amounts to be paid by the Seller or the Servicer to the Agent, any Investor Party, any Affected Person or any Seller Indemnified Party hereunder shall be paid no later than noon (New York City time) on the day when due in same day funds to the Agent's Account or the applicable Investor's Account, as applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any amount to be paid to Autobahn by the Seller or the Servicer under this Agreement shall be deemed received by Autobahn upon payment to the Agent's Account in same day funds.

Whenever any payment or deposit to be made hereunder shall be due on a day other than a Business Day, such payment or deposit shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day and such extension of time shall be included in the computation of such payment or deposit.

ARTICLE IV

INCREASED COSTS; FUNDING LOSSES; TAXES; ILLEGALITY AND SECURITY INTEREST

SECTION 4.01. Increased Costs.

(a) Increased Costs Generally. If any Change in Law shall:

(i) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, liquidity, compulsory loan, insurance charge or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended or participated in by, any Affected Person;

(ii) subject any Investor Party to any Taxes (except to the extent such Taxes are (A) Indemnified Taxes for which relief is provided under Section 4.03, (B) Taxes described in clauses (b) and (c) of the definition of Excluded Taxes or (C) Other Connection Taxes that are imposed on or measured by net income (however denominated) or that are franchise Taxes or branch profits Taxes) on its loans, loan principal, letters of credit, commitments or other obligations, or its deposits, reserves, other liabilities or capital attributable thereto; or

(iii) impose on any Affected Person any other condition, cost or expense (other than Taxes) (A) affecting the Support Assets, this Agreement, any other Transaction Document, any Liquidity Agreement, or any Investment or (B) affecting its obligations or rights to make Investments; and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Affected Person of (A) acting as the Agent or an Investor hereunder or as a Liquidity Provider with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby, (B) funding or maintaining any Investment or (C) maintaining its obligation to fund or maintain any Investment, or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Affected Person hereunder, then, upon request of such Affected Person, the Seller shall pay to such Affected Person such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Affected Person for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered; provided that the Seller shall have no obligations under this Section unless the applicable Affected Person certifies to the Sellers that it is making similar requests to other customers similarly situated and affected by such Change in Law and from whom such Affected Person is entitled to seek similar amounts.

(b) Capital and Liquidity Requirements. If any Affected Person determines that any Change in Law affecting such Affected Person or any lending office of such Affected Person or such Affected Person's holding company, if any, regarding capital or liquidity requirements, has or would have the effect of (x) increasing the amount of capital required to be maintained by such Affected Person or Affected Person's holding company, if any, (y) reducing the rate of return on such Affected Person's capital or on the capital of such Affected Person's holding company, if any, or (z) causing an internal capital or liquidity charge or other imputed cost to be assessed upon such Affected Person or Affected Person's holding company, if any, in each case, as a consequence of (A) this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, (B) the commitments of such Affected Person hereunder or under any other Transaction Document or related Liquidity Agreement, (C) the Investments made by such Affected Person or (D) any Capital, to a level below that which such Affected Person or such Affected Person's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Affected Person's policies and the policies of such Affected Person's holding company with respect to capital adequacy and liquidity), then from time to time, upon request of such Affected Person, the Seller shall pay to such Affected Person such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Affected Person or such Affected Person's holding company for any such increase, reduction or charge.

(c) Certificates for Reimbursement. A certificate of an Affected Person setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Affected Person or its holding company, as the case may be, as specified in clause (a) or (b) of this Section and delivered to the Seller, shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Seller shall, subject to the priorities of payment set forth in Section 3.01, pay such Affected Person the amount shown as due on any such certificate on the first Settlement Date occurring after the Seller's receipt of such certificate.

(d) Delay in Requests. Failure or delay on the part of any Affected Person to demand compensation pursuant to this Section shall not constitute a waiver of such Affected Person's right to demand such compensation; provided that the Seller shall not be required to compensate any Affected Person for any amounts incurred more than six months prior to the date that such Affected Person notifies the Seller of such Affected Person's intention to claim compensation therefor; provided that, if the circumstances giving rise to such claim have a retroactive effect, then such six-month period shall be extended to include the period of such retroactive effect.

SECTION 4.02. Funding Losses.

(a) The Seller will pay the Agent, for the benefit of each Investor, all Breakage Fees.

(b) A certificate of an Investor setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Investor, as specified in clause (a) above and delivered to the Seller, shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Seller shall, subject to the priorities of payment set forth in Section 3.01, pay such Investor the amount shown as due on any such certificate on the first Settlement Date occurring after the Seller's receipt of such certificate.

SECTION 4.03. Taxes.

(a) Payments Free of Taxes. Any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of the Seller under any Transaction Document shall be made without deduction or withholding for any Taxes, except as required by Applicable Law. If any Applicable Law (as determined in the good faith discretion of the Seller, Servicer, or Agent, as applicable) requires the deduction or withholding of any Tax from any such payment by the Seller, Servicer, or Agent, as applicable, then the Seller, Servicer, or Agent, as applicable, shall be entitled to make such deduction or withholding and shall timely pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with Applicable Law, and, if such Tax is an Indemnified Tax, then the sum payable by the Seller shall be increased as necessary so that after such deduction or withholding has been made (including such deductions and withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section), the applicable Investor Party receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deduction or withholding been required.

(b) Payment of Other Taxes by the Seller. The Seller shall timely pay to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with Applicable Law, or, at the option of the Agent, timely reimburse the Agent (or, as applicable, the applicable Investor Party) for the payment of, any Other Taxes.

(c) Indemnification by the Seller. The Seller shall indemnify each Investor Party, within ten days after written demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes (including Indemnified Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section) payable or paid by such Investor Party or required to be withheld or deducted from a payment to such Investor Party and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to the Seller by an Investor Party (with a copy to the Agent), or by the Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of an Investor Party, shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) Indemnification by the Investors. Each Investor shall severally indemnify the Agent, within ten days after demand therefor, for (i) any Indemnified Taxes attributable to such Investor or any of its respective Affiliates that are Affected Persons (but only to the extent that the Seller and its Affiliates have not already indemnified the Agent for such Indemnified Taxes and without limiting any obligation of the Seller, the Servicer or its Affiliates to do so), (ii) any Taxes attributable to the failure of such Investor or any of its respective Affiliates that are Affected Persons to comply with Section 12.03(f) relating to the maintenance of a Participant Register and (iii) any Excluded Taxes attributable to such Investor or any of its respective Affiliates that are Affected Persons, in each case, that are payable or paid by the Agent in connection with any Transaction Document, and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Investor by the Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Investor hereby authorizes the Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Investor, or any of its respective Affiliates that are Affected Persons under any Transaction Document or otherwise payable by the Agent to such Investor or any of its respective Affiliates that are Affected Persons from any other source against any amount due to the Agent under this clause (d).

(e) Evidence of Payments. As soon as practicable after any payment of Taxes by the Seller to the relevant Governmental Authority pursuant to this Section 4.03, the Seller shall deliver to the Agent the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of the relevant portion of the Tax return reporting such payment (with appropriate redactions, if necessary) or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Agent.

(f) Status of Investors. (i) Any Investor that is entitled to an exemption from or reduction of withholding Tax with respect to payments made under any Transaction Document shall deliver to the Seller and the Agent (if and to the extent any amounts are received by the Agent on behalf of such Investor), at the time or times reasonably requested by the Seller or the Agent, such properly completed and executed documentation reasonably requested by the Seller or the Agent as will permit such payments to be made without withholding or at a reduced rate of withholding. In addition, any Investor, if reasonably requested by the Seller or the Agent, shall deliver such other documentation prescribed by Applicable Law or reasonably requested by the Seller or the Agent (if and to the extent any amounts are received by the Agent on behalf of such Investor) as will enable the Seller or the Agent to determine whether or not such Investor is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding two sentences, the completion, execution and submission of such documentation (other than such documentation set forth in Sections 4.03(f)(ii)(A), 4.03(f)(ii)(B), 4.03(f)(iii) and 4.03(g)) shall not be required if, in the Investor's reasonable judgment, such completion, execution or submission would subject such Investor to any material unreimbursed cost or expense or would materially prejudice the legal or commercial position of such Investor.

(ii) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(A) any Investor that is a U.S. Person shall deliver to the Seller and the Agent (if and to the extent any amounts are received by the Agent on behalf of such Investor) on or prior to the date on which such Investor becomes a party to this Agreement and from time to time upon the reasonable request of the Seller or the Agent, executed originals of Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 certifying that such Investor is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding tax;

(B) any Investor that is not a U.S. Person shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to the Seller and the Agent (if and to the extent any amounts are received by the Agent on behalf of such Investor) (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the Seller or the Agent) on or prior to the date on which such Investor becomes a party to this Agreement and from time to time upon the reasonable request of the Seller or the Agent, whichever of the following is applicable:

(1) in the case of such an Investor claiming the benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party, (x) with respect to payments of interest under any Transaction Document, executed originals of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable, establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "interest" article of such tax treaty and (y) with respect to any other applicable payments under any

Transaction Document, Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable, establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "business profits" or "other income" article of such tax treaty;

(2) executed originals of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI;

(3) in the case of such an Investor claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 881(c) of the Code, (x) a certificate to the effect that such Investor is not a "bank" within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, a "10 percent shareholder" of the Seller within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(B) of the Code, or a "controlled foreign corporation" described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code (a "U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate") and (y) executed originals of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable; or

(4) to the extent such Investor is not the beneficial owner, executed originals of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8IMY, accompanied by Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI, Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN-E, as applicable, a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate, Internal Revenue Service Form W-9, and/or other certification documents from each beneficial owner, as applicable; provided that, if such Investor is a partnership and one or more direct or indirect partners of such Investor are claiming the portfolio interest exemption, such Investor may provide a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate on behalf of each such direct and indirect partner; and

(C) any Investor that is not a U.S. Person shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to the Seller and the Agent (if and to the extent any amounts are received by the Agent on behalf of such Investor) (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient), from time to time upon the reasonable request of the Seller or the Agent, executed originals of any other form prescribed by Applicable Law as a basis for claiming exemption from or a reduction in U.S. federal withholding Tax, duly completed, together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by Applicable Law to permit the Seller or the Agent to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made.

(iii) On or prior to the date on which the Agent (or any successor thereto) becomes a party to this Agreement, solely with respect to payments received for its own account, the Agent as of the date thereof shall deliver to the Seller executed copies of (i) if the Agent is a U.S. Person, Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 or (ii) if the Agent is not a U.S. Person, U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI or W-8BEN-E, as applicable.

(g) Documentation Required by FATCA. If a payment made to an Investor under any Transaction Document would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Investor were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Sections 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Investor shall deliver to the Seller and the Agent at the time or times prescribed by Applicable Law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Seller or the Agent such documentation prescribed by Applicable Law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Seller or the Agent as may be necessary for the Seller and the Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA, to determine whether such Investor has or has not complied with such Investor's obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount, if any, to deduct and withhold from such payment. For purposes of this clause (g), "FATCA" shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement and any intergovernmental agreement or similar agreement intended to facilitate compliance with, or otherwise related to FATCA.

(h) If the Agreement provides for an Agent to receive any payments made under this Agreement on account of any Investor, and such Agent receives any payments under this Agreement for the account of any Investor in order to transfer to such Investor, then on or prior to the Agent receiving such a payment as an intermediary for such Investor, as long as no Event of Default or Unmatured Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Agent shall deliver to the Seller one of the following (together with all required attachments thereto): (i) if the Agent is a U.S. Person, Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 or (ii) if the Agent is not a U.S. Person, (A) with respect to payments received for its own account, U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI or W-8BEN-E, as applicable and (B) with respect to, and to the extent of, payments received on account of any Investor, Internal Revenue Service Form W-8IMY (or any applicable successor forms) properly completed and duly executed to treat the Agent as a U.S. person (as described in Section 1.1441-1(e)(3)(iv) of the United States Treasury Regulations) or certifying that it is a "qualified intermediary" for purposes of Treasury Regulations Section 1.1441-1 that assumes primary withholding responsibility for purposes of chapters 3 and 4. If the Agent is unwilling or unable to deliver the foregoing forms then it shall designate an agent for the receipt of funds from the Seller (the "Paying Agent") that is so willing and able, the Paying Agent shall deliver to the Seller such forms on or prior to the date the Paying Agent is appointed and each reference to the Agent in this Agreement related to the receipt or payment of funds with respect to the Investments hereunder and any related Tax withholding or reporting obligations shall be deemed to refer to the Paying Agent acting on behalf of the Agent. The parties hereto agree and acknowledge that this Section 4.03(h) is inapplicable to DZ Bank and Autobahn, each as of the Closing Date, in respect to the payments made under this Agreement as contemplated as of the date hereof under Article III.

(i) Change of Jurisdiction. Any Investor claiming any additional amounts payable pursuant to this Section 4.03 shall use its reasonable efforts to change the jurisdiction of its applicable lending office if such a change would reduce any such additional amounts in the future and would not, in the sole good faith determination of such Investor, result in any unreimbursed cost or expense or be otherwise materially disadvantageous to such Investor.

(j) Survival. Each party's obligations under this Section 4.03 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Agent or any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, an Investor Party or any other Affected Person, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all the Seller Obligations and the Servicer's obligations hereunder.

(k) Updates. Each Affected Person and the Agent agree that if any form or certification it previously delivered pursuant to this Section 4.03 expires or becomes obsolete or inaccurate in any respect, it shall update such form or certification or promptly notify the Seller and the Agent in writing of its legal inability to do so.

(l) Tax Benefit. If any Party determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of any Taxes as to which it has been indemnified pursuant to this Section 4.03 (including by the payment of additional amounts pursuant to this Section 4.03 (any such refund, a "Tax Benefit"), it shall pay to the indemnifying Party an amount equal to such Tax Benefit (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made under this Section with respect to the Taxes giving rise to such Tax Benefit), net of all out-of-pocket expenses (including Taxes) of such indemnified Party and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant taxing authority with respect to such Tax Benefit). Such indemnifying Party, upon the request of such indemnified Party, shall repay to such indemnified Party the amount paid over pursuant to this Section 4.03(l) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant taxing authority) in the event that such indemnified Party is required to repay such Tax Benefit to such taxing authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 4.03(l), in no event will the indemnified Party be required to pay any amount to an indemnifying Party pursuant to this Section 4.03(l) the payment of which would place the indemnified Party in a less favorable net after-Tax position than the indemnified Party would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payment of additional amounts giving rise to such Tax Benefit had never been paid. This paragraph shall not be construed to require any indemnified Party to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to the indemnifying Party or any other Person.

SECTION 4.04. Inability to Determine Alternative Funding Rate; Change in Legality.

(a) If the Agent shall have determined (which determination shall be conclusive and binding upon the parties hereto absent manifest error) on any day, by reason of circumstances affecting the interbank Eurodollar market, either that: (i) dollar deposits in the relevant amounts and for the relevant Yield Period or day, as applicable, are not available, (ii) adequate and reasonable means do not exist for ascertaining the Alternative Funding Rate for such Yield Period, or (iii) the Alternative Funding Rate determined pursuant hereto does not accurately reflect the cost to the applicable Affected Person (as conclusively determined by the Agent or the related Investor) of maintaining any Portion of Capital during such Yield Period, the Agent or such Investor (as the case may be) shall promptly give telephonic notice of such determination, confirmed in writing, to the Seller on such day. Upon delivery of such notice: (i) no Portion of Capital shall be funded thereafter at the Alternative Funding Rate unless and until the Agent shall have given notice to the Seller that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer exist and (ii) with respect to any outstanding Portion of Capital then funded at the Alternative Funding Rate, such Yield Rate shall automatically and immediately be converted to the Base Rate.

(b) If on any day the Agent shall have been notified by any Affected Person that such Affected Person has determined (which determination shall be final and conclusive absent manifest error) that any Change in Law, or compliance by such Affected Person with any Change in Law, shall make it unlawful or impossible for such Affected Person to fund or maintain any Portion of Capital at or by reference to the Alternative Funding Rate, the Agent shall notify the Seller thereof. Upon receipt of such notice, until the Agent notifies the Seller that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer apply, (i) no Portion of Capital shall be funded at or by reference to the Alternative Funding Rate and (ii) the Yield Rate for any outstanding portions of Capital then funded at the Alternative Funding Rate shall automatically and immediately be converted to the Base Rate.

SECTION 4.05. Back-up Security Interest.

(a) As security for the performance by the Seller of all the terms, covenants and agreements on the part of the Seller to be performed under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, including the punctual payment when due of the Aggregate Capital and all Yield and all other Seller Obligations, the Seller undertakes to grant and hereby grants to the Agent for its benefit and the ratable benefit of the Secured Parties, a continuing security interest in, all of the Seller's right, title and interest in, to and under all of the following, whether now or hereafter owned, existing or arising (collectively, the "Support Assets"): (i) all Pool Receivables, (ii) all Related Security with respect to such Pool Receivables, (iii) all Collections with respect to such Pool Receivables, (iv) the Lock-Boxes and Lock-Box Accounts and the Collection Account and all amounts on deposit therein, and all certificates and instruments, if any, from time to time evidencing such Lock-Boxes and Lock-Box Accounts and the Collection Account and amounts on deposit therein, (v) all rights (but none of the obligations) of the Seller under the Sale Agreements, (vi) all goods (including inventory, equipment and any accessions thereto), instruments (including promissory notes), documents, accounts, chattel paper (whether tangible or electronic), deposit accounts, securities accounts, securities entitlements, letter-of-credit rights, commercial tort claims, securities and all other investment property, supporting obligations, money, any other contract rights or rights to the payment of money, insurance claims and proceeds, and all general intangibles (including all payment intangibles) (each as defined in the UCC), (vii) all other personal and fixture property or assets of the Seller of every kind and nature and (viii) all proceeds of, and all amounts received or receivable under any or all of, the foregoing.

(b) The Agent (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) shall have, with respect to all the Support Assets, and in addition to all the other rights and remedies available to the Agent (for the benefit of the Secured Parties), all the rights and remedies of a secured party under any applicable UCC and all other Applicable Law. The Seller hereby authorizes the Agent to file financing statements and any other applicable filings in any applicable jurisdiction describing as the collateral covered thereby as "all of the debtor's personal property or assets" or words to that effect, notwithstanding that such wording may be broader in scope than the collateral described in this Agreement.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the grant of security interest pursuant to this Section 4.05 shall be in addition to, and shall not be construed to limit or modify, the sale of Sold Assets pursuant to Section 2.01(b), (ii) nothing in Section 2.01 shall be construed as limiting the rights, interests (including any security interest), obligations or liabilities of any party under this Section 4.05, and (iii) subject to the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii), this Section 4.05 shall not be construed to contradict the intentions of the parties set forth in Section 2.01(c).

SECTION 4.06. Benchmark Replacement Setting.

(a) Benchmark Replacement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Transaction Document, upon the occurrence of a Benchmark Transition Event, the Agent and the Seller will amend this Agreement to replace the then-current Benchmark with a Benchmark Replacement. Any such amendment with respect to a Benchmark Transition Event will become effective at 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the fifth (5^{th}) Business Day after the Agent has posted such proposed amendment to all Investors and the Seller so long as the Agent has not received, by such time, written notice of objection to such amendment from Investors comprising the Majority Investors. No replacement of a Benchmark with a Benchmark Replacement pursuant to this Section 4.06(a) will occur prior to the applicable Benchmark Transition Start Date.

(b) Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes. In connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, the Agent will have the right to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes from time to time and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Transaction Document, any amendments implementing such Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes will become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to this Agreement or any other Transaction Document.

(c) Notices; Standards for Decisions and Determinations. The Agent will promptly notify the Seller and the Investors of (i) the implementation of any Benchmark Replacement and (ii) the effectiveness of any Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes. The Agent will promptly notify the Seller of the removal or reinstatement of any tenor of a Benchmark pursuant to Section 4.06(d). Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Agent or, if applicable, any Investor (or group of Investors) pursuant to this Section 4.06, including any determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action or any selection, will be conclusive and binding absent manifest error and may be made in its or their sole discretion and without consent from any other party to this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, except, in each case, as expressly required pursuant to this Section 4.06.

(d) Unavailability of Tenor of Benchmark Rate. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Transaction Document, at any time (including in connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement), (i) if the then-current Benchmark is a term rate (including the Term SOFR Reference Rate) and either (A) any tenor for such Benchmark is not displayed on a screen or other information service that publishes such rate from time to time as selected by the Agent in its reasonable discretion or (B) the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of such Benchmark has provided a public statement or publication of information announcing that any tenor for such Benchmark is or will be no longer representative, then the Agent may modify the definition of "Yield Period" (or any similar or analogous definition) for any Benchmark settings at or after such time to remove such unavailable or non-representative tenor and (ii) if a tenor that was removed pursuant to clause (i) above either (A) is subsequently displayed on a screen or information service for a Benchmark (including a Benchmark Replacement) or (B) is not, or is no longer, subject to an announcement that it is or will no longer be representative for a Benchmark (including a Benchmark Replacement), then the Agent may modify the definition of "Yield Period" (or any similar or analogous definition) for all Benchmark settings at or after such time to reinstate such previously removed tenor.

(e) Benchmark Unavailability Period. Upon the Seller's receipt of notice of the commencement of a Benchmark Unavailability Period, the Seller may revoke any pending request for an Investment of, conversion to or continuation of an Investment to be made, converted or continued during any Benchmark Unavailability Period and, failing that, the Seller will be deemed to have converted any such request into a request for an Investment under the Base Rate.

(f) Certain Defined Terms. As used in this Section 4.06:

"Available Tenor" means, as of any date of determination and with respect to the then-current Benchmark, as applicable, (x) if such Benchmark is a term rate, any tenor for such Benchmark (or component thereof) that is or may be used for determining the length of an interest period pursuant to this Agreement or (y) otherwise, any payment period for interest calculated with reference to such Benchmark (or component thereof) that is or may be used for determining any frequency of making payments of interest calculated with reference to such Benchmark, in each case, as of such date and not including, for the avoidance of doubt, any tenor for such Benchmark that is then-removed from the definition of "Yield Period" pursuant to this Section 4.06.

"Benchmark" means, initially, the Term SOFR Reference Rate; provided that if a Benchmark Transition Event has occurred with respect to the Term SOFR Reference Rate or the then-current Benchmark, then "Benchmark" means the applicable Benchmark Replacement to the extent that such Benchmark Replacement has replaced such prior benchmark rate pursuant to this Section 4.06.

"Benchmark Replacement" means with respect to any Benchmark Transition Event, the sum of: (a) the alternate benchmark rate that has been selected by the Agent and the Seller giving due consideration to (i) any selection or recommendation of a replacement benchmark rate or the mechanism for determining such a rate by the Relevant Governmental Body or (ii) any evolving or then-prevailing market convention for determining a benchmark rate as a replacement to the then-current Benchmark for U.S. Dollar-denominated syndicated credit facilities and (b) the related Benchmark Replacement Adjustment; provided that, if such Benchmark Replacement as so determined would be less than the Floor, such Benchmark Replacement will be deemed to be the Floor for the purposes of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents.

"Benchmark Replacement Adjustment" means, with respect to any replacement of the then-current Benchmark with an Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement, the spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that has been selected by the Agent and the Seller giving due consideration to (a) any selection or recommendation of a spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, for the replacement of such Benchmark with the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement by the Relevant Governmental Body or (b) any evolving or then-prevailing market convention for determining a spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, for the replacement of such Benchmark with the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement for U.S. Dollar-denominated syndicated credit facilities.

"Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes" means, with respect to any Benchmark Replacement, any technical, administrative or operational changes (including changes to the definition of "ABR," the definition of "Business Day," the definition of "U.S. Government Securities Business Day," the definition of "Yield Period" or any similar or analogous definition (or the addition of a concept of "interest period"), timing and frequency of determining rates and making payments of interest, timing of borrowing requests or prepayment, conversion or continuation notices, length of lookback periods and other technical, administrative or operational matters) that the Agent decides may be appropriate to reflect the adoption and implementation of such Benchmark Replacement and to permit the administration thereof by the Agent in a manner substantially consistent with market practice (or, if the Agent decides that adoption of any portion of such market practice is not administratively feasible or if the Agent determines that no market practice for the administration of such Benchmark Replacement exists, in such other manner of administration as the Agent decides is reasonably necessary in connection with the administration of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents).

"Benchmark Replacement Date" means the earliest to occur of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark:

(a) in the case of clause (a) or (b) of the definition of "Benchmark Transition Event", the later of (i) the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein and (ii) the date on which the administrator of such Benchmark (or the published component used in the calculation thereof) permanently or indefinitely ceases to provide all Available Tenors of such Benchmark (or such component thereof); or

(b) in the case of clause (c) of the definition of "Benchmark Transition Event", the first date on which such Benchmark (or the published component used in the calculation thereof) has been determined and announced by or on behalf of the administrator of such Benchmark (or such component thereof) or the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of such Benchmark (or such component thereof) to be no longer representative or not to comply with the International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) Principles for Financial Benchmarks; provided, that such non-representativeness or non-compliance will be determined by reference to the most recent statement or publication referenced in such clause (c) and even if any Available Tenor of such Benchmark (or such component thereof) continues to be provided on such date.

For the avoidance of doubt, the "Benchmark Replacement Date" will be deemed to have occurred in the case of clause (a) or (b) with respect to any Benchmark upon the occurrence of the applicable event or events set forth therein with respect to all then-current Available Tenors of such Benchmark (or the published component used in the calculation thereof).

"Benchmark Transition Event" means the occurrence of one or more of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark:

(a) a public statement or publication of information by or on behalf of the administrator of such Benchmark (or the published component used in the calculation thereof) announcing that such administrator has ceased or will cease to provide all Available Tenors of such Benchmark (or such component thereof), permanently or indefinitely; provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that will continue to provide any Available Tenor of such Benchmark (or such component thereof);

(b) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of such Benchmark (or the published component used in the calculation thereof), the Federal Reserve Board, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, an insolvency official with jurisdiction over the administrator for such Benchmark (or such component), a resolution authority with jurisdiction over the administrator for such Benchmark (or such component) or a court or an entity with similar insolvency or resolution authority over the administrator for such Benchmark (or such component), which states that the administrator of such Benchmark (or such component) has ceased or will cease to provide all Available Tenors of such Benchmark (or such component thereof) permanently or indefinitely, provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that will continue to provide any Available Tenor of such Benchmark (or such component thereof); or

(c) a public statement or publication of information by or on behalf of the administrator of such Benchmark (or the published component used in the calculation thereof) or the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of such Benchmark (or such component thereof) announcing that all Available Tenors of such Benchmark (or such component thereof) are no longer, or as of a specified future date will no longer be, representative or do not, or as a specified future date will not, comply with the International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) Principles for Financial Benchmarks.

For the avoidance of doubt, a "Benchmark Transition Event" will be deemed to have occurred with respect to any Benchmark if a public statement or publication of information set forth above has occurred with respect to each then-current Available Tenor of such Benchmark (or the published component used in the calculation thereof).

"Benchmark Unavailability Period" means, the period (if any) (a) beginning at the time that a Benchmark Replacement Date has occurred if, at such time, no Benchmark Replacement has replaced the then-current Benchmark for all purposes hereunder and under any Transaction Document in accordance with this Section 4.06 and (b) ending at the time that a Benchmark Replacement has replaced the then-current Benchmark for all purposes hereunder and under any Transaction Document in accordance with this Section 4.06.

"Relevant Governmental Body" means the Federal Reserve Board or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, or a committee officially endorsed or convened by the Federal Reserve Board or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, or any successor thereto.

"Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement" means the applicable Benchmark Replacement excluding the related Benchmark Replacement Adjustment.

Each Monthly Report shall state the percentages of payments on the Pool Receivables during the immediately preceding Reporting Period that were received (A) directly from the applicable Obligor, (B) directly into a Lock-Box Account or a Lock-Box and (C) through the Wide Orbit Portal; provided that, to the extent such information is not reasonably available prior to delivery of such Monthly Report, it may be omitted from such Monthly Report and be furnished to the Agent no later than the 15th day of such calendar month, or, if such day is not a Business Day, on the immediately following Business Day.

(iii) Other Information. Such other information (including non-financial information) regarding the Pool Receivables or the operations, assets, liabilities and financial condition of any Audacy Party as the Agent may from time to time reasonably request.

(iv) Agreed-Upon Procedures Report. On or before March 31st of each calendar year, a report prepared and delivered by a firm of nationally recognized independent public accountants (who may also render other services to the Servicer or the Seller and may include without limitation Grant Thornton LLP), or any other accounting or auditing firm reasonably acceptable to the Agent, which report shall contain a report based on agreed-upon procedures, comparing amounts set forth in the Monthly Reports to supporting underlying documentation with the specific procedures and the adequacy thereof being agreed to by the Servicer and the Agent.

(d) Notices. The Seller (or the Servicer on its behalf) will notify the Agent in writing of any of the following events promptly upon (but in no event later than two (2) Business Days after) a Responsible Officer of the Seller learning of the occurrence thereof, with such notice describing the same, and if applicable, the steps being taken by the Person(s) affected with respect thereto:

(i) Notice of Events of Default or Unmatured Events of Default. A statement of a Responsible Officer of the Seller setting forth details of any Event of Default or Unmatured Event of Default that has occurred and is continuing and the action which the Seller proposes to take with respect thereto, if any.

(iii) Adverse Claim. (A) Any Person shall obtain an Adverse Claim upon the Support Assets or any portion thereof, (B) any Person other than the Seller, the Servicer or the Agent shall obtain any rights or direct any action with respect to any Lock-Box Account (or related Lock-Box) or the Collection Account or (C) any Obligor shall receive any change in payment instructions with respect to Pool Receivable(s) from a Person other than the Servicer or the Agent.

(iv) Change in Accountants or Accounting Policy. Any change in (i) the external accountants of the Seller, the Transferor, the Servicer, any Originator or Audacy, (ii) any accounting policy of the Seller or the Transferor or (iii) any material accounting policy of any Originator that is relevant to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any other Transaction Document (it being understood that any change to the manner in which any Originator accounts for the Pool Receivables shall be deemed "material" for such purpose), excluding, in each case, any change in accounting policy required by GAAP.

(v) ERISA Event. The occurrence of any ERISA Event that, alone or together with any other ERISA Events that have occurred, would reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(vi) Termination Event. The occurrence of a Sale Termination Event under any Sale Agreement.

(vii) Material Adverse Effect. Any development that has resulted, or would reasonably be expected to result, in a Material Adverse Effect.

(e) Conduct of Business. The Seller will carry on and conduct its business in substantially the same manner and in substantially the same fields of enterprise as it is presently conducted and will do all things necessary to remain duly organized, validly existing and in good standing as a domestic organization in its jurisdiction of organization and maintain all requisite authority to conduct its business in each jurisdiction in which its business is conducted.

(f) Compliance with Laws. The Seller will comply with all Applicable Laws if the failure to comply would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(g) Furnishing of Information and Inspection of Receivables. The Seller will furnish or cause to be furnished to the Agent from time to time such information with respect to the Pool Receivables and the other Support Assets as the Agent or any Investor may reasonably request. The Seller will, at the Seller's expense, during regular business hours with prior written notice (i) permit the Agent and each Investor or their respective agents or representatives to (A) examine and make copies of and abstracts from all books and records relating to the Pool Receivables or other Support Assets, (B) visit the offices and properties of the Seller for the purpose of examining such books and records and (C) discuss matters relating to the Pool Receivables, the other Support Assets or the Seller's performance hereunder or under the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party with any of the officers, directors, employees or independent public accountants of the Seller having knowledge of such matters and (ii) without limiting the provisions of clause (i) above, during regular business hours, at the Seller's expense, upon prior written notice from the Agent, permit certified public accountants or other auditors reasonably acceptable to the Agent to conduct a review of its books and records with respect to such Pool Receivables and other Support Assets; provided, that the Seller shall be required to reimburse the Agent only up to $25,000 (when aggregated with amounts required to be reimbursed pursuant to Section 7.02(f) of this Agreement, Section 5.1(d) of the Sale and Contribution Agreement and Section 5.1(d) of the Purchase and Sale Agreement) for the cost of such reviews pursuant to clause (ii) above in any twelve-month period, unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

(h) Payments on Receivables, Lock-Box Accounts and the Collection Account. The Seller (or the Servicer on its behalf) will, and will cause each applicable Originator to, at all times, (i) instruct all Obligors to deliver payments on the Pool Receivables directly to a Lock-Box Account or a Lock-Box or through the Wide Orbit Portal; provided that upon request from an Obligor, the Seller, Servicer or such Originator, as applicable, may permit such Obligor to make a payment using a cashier's check or other method, if, in the reasonable determination of the Seller, Servicer or such Originator, as applicable, it will increase the likelihood of receiving payment, or timely payment, of such Receivable and the Seller, Servicer or such Originator promptly (and in any event within two (2) Business Days) deposits such payment to a Lock-Box Account or the Collection Account; and (ii) cause all Collections received by Seller through the Wide Orbit Portal on any day to be directly deposited to a Lock-Box Account or the Collection Account on such day or the next occurring Business Day. The Seller (or the Servicer on its behalf) shall cause each Lock-Box Account be subject to an Account Control Agreement, pursuant to which the Agent has the right to direct the Lock-Box Account Bank to sweep all Collections received in the Lock-Box Accounts and Lock-Boxes on each Business Day into the Collection Account. The Seller (or the Servicer on its behalf) will, and will cause each applicable Originator to, at all times, maintain such books and records necessary to identify Collections received from time to time on Pool

Receivables and to both (i) segregate such Collections from other funds and (ii) promptly remit such Collections to the Collection Account. If any payments on the Pool Receivables or other Collections are received by the Seller, the Servicer or any other Audacy Party other than by deposit to a Lock-Box Account or the Collection Account, it shall hold such payments in trust for the benefit of the Agent and the other Secured Parties and promptly (but in any event within two (2) Business Days after receipt) remit such funds into a Lock-Box Account. In the event that any such payments on the Pool Receivables or other Collections are not remitted by an Obligor directly into a Lock-Box Account or a Lock-Box, the Seller (or the Servicer on its behalf) shall notify the applicable Obligor of such failure and shall take commercially reasonable action to ensure that future payments on Receivables owing by such Obligor are remitted by such Obligor directly to a Lock-Box Account or a Lock-Box or through the Wide Orbit Portal. The Seller (or the Servicer on its behalf) will cause each Lock-Box Account Bank and the Collection Account Bank to comply with the terms of each applicable Account Control Agreement. The Seller shall not permit funds other than Collections on Pool Receivables and other funds of the Seller (which shall constitute Support Assets) to be deposited into any Lock-Box Account or the Collection Account. If such funds are nevertheless deposited into any Lock-Box Account or the Collection Account, the Seller (or the Servicer on its behalf) will within two (2) Business Days notify the Agent of such deposit, the amount thereof and the identity and remittance instructions of the Person entitled to such funds and the Agent will instruct the Collection Account Bank to cause such funds to be remitted to the Person entitled to such funds (provided, that the Audacy Parties shall not be liable for any failure or delay of the Agent in causing such funds to be remitted to the Person entitled thereto). The Seller will not, nor will it permit the Servicer, any Originator or any other Person, in each case, to commingle Collections or other funds of the Seller with the funds of any other Person. The Seller shall only add a Lock-Box Account (or a related Lock-Box) or a Lock-Box Account Bank to those listed on Schedule I to this Agreement, if the Agent has received notice of such addition and has entered into an Account Control Agreement (or an amendment thereto) covering such Lock-Box Account (or related Lock-Box) in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Agent. The Seller shall only terminate a Lock-Box Account Bank or the Collection Account Bank or close a Lock-Box Account (or a related Lock-Box) or the Collection Account, in each case, with the prior written consent of the Agent (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed). The Seller shall ensure that no disbursements are made from any Lock-Box Account or the Collection Account, other than such disbursements that are expressly permitted by this Agreement.

(i) Sales, Liens, etc. Except as otherwise provided herein, the Seller will not sell, assign (by operation of law or otherwise) or otherwise dispose of, or create or suffer to exist any Adverse Claim upon (including, without limitation, the filing of any financing statement) or with respect to, any Pool Receivable or other Support Assets, or assign any right to receive income in respect thereof.

(j) Extension or Amendment of Pool Receivables. Except as otherwise permitted in Section 8.02, the Seller will not, and will not permit the Servicer to, alter the delinquency status or adjust the Unpaid Balance or otherwise modify the terms of any Pool Receivable in any material respect, or amend, modify or waive, in any material respect, any term or condition of any related Contract. The Seller shall at its expense, timely and fully perform and comply in all material respects with all provisions, covenants and other promises required to be observed by it under the Contracts related to the Pool Receivables, and timely and fully comply in all material respects with the Credit and Collection Policy with regard to the Pool Receivables and the related Contracts, except as permitted under Section 8.02.

(k) Change in Credit and Collection Policy. The Seller will not make any material change in the Credit and Collection Policy without the prior written consent of the Agent and the Majority Investors (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed). Promptly following any material change in the Credit and Collection Policy, the Seller will deliver a copy of the updated Credit and Collection Policy to the Agent.

(l) Fundamental Changes. The Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of the Agent and the Majority Investors, (i) permit itself (x) to merge or consolidate with or into, or convey, transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of (whether in one transaction or in a series of transactions) all or substantially all of its assets (whether now owned or hereafter acquired) to, any Person or (y) to be directly owned by any Person other than with respect to the Seller, the Transferor or (ii) undertake any division of its rights, assets, obligations, or liabilities pursuant to a plan of division or otherwise pursuant to Applicable Law. The Seller shall not, without the prior written consent of the Agent and the Majority Investors (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), make any change in the Seller's name, identity, corporate structure or location or make any other change in the Seller's identity or corporate structure that could impair or otherwise render any UCC financing statement filed in connection with this Agreement or any other Transaction Document "seriously misleading" as such term (or similar term) is used in the applicable UCC.

(m) Books and Records. The Seller shall maintain and implement (or cause the Servicer to maintain and implement) administrative and operating procedures (including an ability to recreate records evidencing Pool Receivables and related Contracts in the event of the destruction of the originals thereof), and keep and maintain (or cause the Servicer to keep and maintain) all documents, books, records, computer tapes and disks and other information reasonably necessary or advisable for the collection of all Pool Receivables (including records adequate to permit the daily identification of each Pool Receivable and all Collections of and adjustments to each existing Pool Receivable) and the identification and segregation of Excluded Receivables (including records adequate to permit the immediate identification of each new Excluded Receivable and all collections of each existing Excluded Receivable).

(n) Identifying of Records. The Seller shall: (i) take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that there shall be placed on each data processing report that it generates that is provided to a proposed purchaser or lender to evaluate the Receivables, a legend evidencing that the Pool Receivables have been transferred to the Seller in accordance with the Sale and Contribution Agreement and (ii) cause each Originator to do the same.

(o) Change in Payment Instructions to Obligors. The Seller shall not (and shall not permit the Servicer or any Sub-Servicer to) add, replace or terminate any Lock-Box Account (or any related Lock-Box) or terminate or replace the Collection Account or make any change in its (or their) instructions to the Obligors regarding payments to be made to the Lock-Box Accounts (or any related Lock-Box), other than any instruction to remit payments to a different Lock-Box Account (or any related Lock-Box), unless the Agent shall have received (i) prior written notice of such addition, termination or change and (ii) a signed and acknowledged Account Control Agreement (or an amendment thereto) with respect to such new Lock-Box Accounts (or any related Lock-Box) or the Collection Account, and the Agent shall have consented to such change in writing.

(p) Security Interest, Etc. The Seller shall (and shall cause the Servicer to), at its expense, take all action necessary or desirable to establish and maintain a valid and enforceable first priority perfected security interest in the Support Assets, in each case free and clear of any Adverse Claim, in favor of the Agent (on behalf of the Secured Parties), including taking such action to perfect, protect or more fully evidence the security interest of the Agent (on behalf of the Secured Parties) as the Agent or any Secured Party may reasonably request. In order to evidence the security interests of the Agent under this Agreement, the Seller shall, from time to time take such action, or execute and deliver such instruments as may be necessary (including, without limitation, such actions as are reasonably requested by the Agent) to maintain and perfect, as a first-priority interest, the Agent's security interest in the Pool Receivables, Related Security and Collections. The Seller shall, from time to time and within the time limits established by law, prepare and present to the Agent for the Agent's authorization and approval, all financing statements, amendments, continuations or initial financing statements in lieu of a continuation statement, or other filings necessary to continue, maintain and perfect the Agent's security interest as a first-priority interest. The Agent's approval of such filings shall authorize the Seller to file such financing statements under the UCC without the signature of the Seller, the Transferor, any Originator or the Agent where allowed by Applicable Law. Notwithstanding anything else in the Transaction Documents to the contrary, the Seller shall not have any authority to file a termination, partial termination, release, partial release, or any amendment that deletes the name of a debtor or excludes collateral of any such financing statements filed in connection with the Transaction Documents, without the prior written consent of the Agent (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

(q) Certain Agreements. Without the prior written consent of the Agent and the Majority Investors, the Seller will not (and will not permit any Originator, the Transferor or the Servicer to) amend, modify, waive, revoke or terminate any Transaction Document to which it is a party or any provision of the Seller's Organizational Documents which requires the consent of the Independent Directors.

(r) Restricted Payments. (i) Except pursuant to clause (ii) below, the Seller will not: (A) purchase or redeem any of its Capital Stock, (B) prepay, purchase or redeem any Debt, (C) lend or advance any funds or (D) repay any loans or advances to, for or from any of its Affiliates (the amounts described in clauses (A) through (D) being referred to as "Restricted Payments").

(ii) The Seller may make distributions to its sole member only out of the funds, if any, it receives pursuant to Section 3.01 of this Agreement; provided that the Seller shall not make such distributions if, after giving effect thereto, any Event of Default or Unmatured Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing.

(s) Other Business. The Seller will not: (i) engage in any business other than the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents, (ii) create, incur or permit to exist any Debt of any kind (or cause or permit to be issued for its account any letters of credit) or bankers' acceptances other than pursuant to this Agreement or (iii) form any Subsidiary or make any investments in any other Person.

(t) [Reserved.]

(u) Further Assurances; Change in Name or Jurisdiction of Origination, etc. (i) The Seller hereby authorizes and hereby agrees from time to time, at its own expense, promptly to execute (if necessary) and deliver all further instruments and documents, and to take all further actions, that may be necessary or desirable, or that the Agent may reasonably request, to perfect, protect or more fully evidence the security interest granted pursuant to this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, or to enable the Agent (on behalf of the Secured Parties) to exercise and enforce the Secured Parties' rights and remedies under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents. Without limiting the foregoing, the Seller hereby authorizes, and will, upon the request of the Agent, at the Seller's own expense, execute (if necessary) and file such financing statements or continuation statements, or amendments thereto, and such other instruments and documents, that may be necessary or desirable, or that the Agent may reasonably request, to perfect, protect or evidence any of the foregoing.

(ii) The Seller authorizes the Agent to file financing statements, continuation statements and amendments thereto and assignments thereof, relating to the Receivables, the Related Security, the related Contracts, Collections with respect thereto and the other Support Assets without the signature of the Seller.

(iii) The Seller shall at all times be organized under the laws of the State of Delaware unless the Agent and the Majority Investors have consented to a change of jurisdiction in writing (such consent to be provided or withheld in the sole discretion of such Person).

(iv) The Seller will not change its name, location, identity or corporate structure unless (x) the Seller, at its own expense, shall have taken all action necessary or appropriate to perfect or maintain the perfection of the security interest under this Agreement (including, without limitation, the filing of all financing statements and the taking of such other action as the Agent may request in connection with such change or relocation), (y) the Agent and the Majority Investors have consented thereto in writing (such consent to be provided or withheld in the sole discretion of such Person) and (z) if requested by the Agent, the Seller shall cause to be delivered to the Agent, one or more opinions, in form and substance satisfactory to the Agent as to such matters as the Agent may request at such time.

(v) Policies and Procedures. The Seller will ensure that policies and procedures are maintained and enforced by or on behalf of the Seller that are reasonably designed to promote compliance, by the Seller and the other Subsidiaries of Audacy, and their respective directors, officers and employees with Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws and Sanctions.

(w) Beneficial Ownership Rule. If the Seller is no longer excluded from the definition of Legal Entity Customer as defined in the Beneficial Ownership Rule on the basis of being an entity that is organized under the laws of the United States or of any State and at least 51 percent of whose common stock or analogous equity interest is directly or indirectly owned by a Person whose common stock or analogous equity interests are listed on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange or have been designated as a NASDAQ National Market Security listed on the NASDAQ stock exchange, the Seller will (i) promptly notify the Agent and each Investor of such event and (ii) thereafter, promptly notify the Agent and each Investor of any change in the information provided in any Beneficial Ownership Certification that would result in a change to the list of beneficial owners identified in Section I or II of such certification.

(x) Transaction Information. None of the Seller, any Affiliate of the Seller or any third party with which the Seller or any Affiliate thereof has contracted, shall deliver, in writing or orally, to any Rating Agency, any Transaction Information without providing such Transaction Information to the Agent prior to delivery to such Rating Agency and will not participate in any oral communications with respect to Transaction Information with any Rating Agency without the participation of the Agent.

(y) Taxes. The Seller will (i) timely file all Tax returns (federal, state and local) required to be filed by it and (ii) pay, or cause to be paid, all Taxes that are required to be paid by it and are due and payable, if any, other than Taxes being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and as to which adequate reserves have been provided in accordance with GAAP.

(z) Commingling. The Seller (or the Servicer on its behalf) will, and will cause each Originator to, at all times, take commercially reasonable actions to ensure that on and after the Closing Date, no funds are deposited into any Lock-Box Account or the Collection Account other than Collections on Pool Receivables and other funds of the Seller (which shall constitute Support Assets).

(aa) Seller's Tax Status. Subject to Section 12.14, the Seller shall not (i) become treated other than as a "disregarded entity" within the meaning of U.S. Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-3 that is disregarded as separate from a United States person within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (ii) become an association taxable as a corporation or a publicly traded partnership taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (iii) become subject to any Tax in any jurisdiction outside the United States or (iv) become subject to any state or local Tax in the United States that would result in a Material Adverse Effect with respect to the Seller.

(bb) Seller Financial Covenant Events. The Seller shall not permit a Seller Financial Covenant Event to occur.

(cc) Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws and Sanctions. The Seller will not request any Investment, and shall not permit its Affiliates or any of their respective directors, officers or employees to use, the proceeds of any Investment (A) in furtherance of an offer, payment, promise to pay, or authorization of the payment or giving of money, or anything else of value, to any Person in violation of any Anti-Corruption Laws or Anti-Money Laundering Laws, (B) for the purpose of funding or financing any activities, business or transaction of or with any Sanctioned Person, or in any Sanctioned Country, in each case to the extent doing so would violate any Sanctions, or (C) in any other manner that would result in liability to any Person under any applicable Sanctions or result in the violation of any Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws or Sanctions.

SECTION 7.02. Covenants of the Servicer. At all times from the Restatement Date until the Final Payout Date:

(a) Existence. The Servicer shall keep in full force and effect its existence and rights as a corporation or other entity under the laws of the State of Delaware. The Servicer shall obtain and preserve its qualification to do business in each jurisdiction in which the conduct of its business or the servicing of the Pool Receivables as required by this Agreement requires such qualification, except where the failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Financial Reporting. The Servicer will maintain a system of accounting established and administered in accordance with GAAP, and the Servicer (or the Administrator on its behalf) shall furnish to the Agent:

(i) Quarterly Financial Statements of Audacy. As soon as available and in any event within 45 days (or, in the case of the first fiscal quarter ending after the Restatement Date for which financial statements are required to be delivered pursuant to this Section 7.02(b)(i), [__] days) after the end of each of the first three fiscal quarters of each fiscal year commencing with the fiscal quarter ending March 31, 2024, of Audacy (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the applicable period with respect to quarterly financial statements of Audacy Capital), in either case, Audacy's unaudited consolidated balance sheet and unaudited consolidated statements of income and cash flows as of the end of and for such fiscal quarter, setting forth in each case in comparative form the figures for the corresponding period or periods of (or, in the case of the balance sheet, as of the end of) the previous fiscal year, all certified by a Financial Officer of Audacy as presenting fairly in all material respects the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of Audacy and its consolidated Subsidiaries, in accordance with GAAP consistently applied, subject to normal year-end audit adjustments and the absence of footnotes; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the financial statements to be delivered pursuant to this Section 7.02(b)(i) with respect to the fiscal quarters ended March 31, 2024, June 30, 2024 and September 30, 2024 shall not be required to reflect "fresh-start" or other reorganization adjustments; provided, further, that (i) any comparison against the corresponding figures from the corresponding period in any prior fiscal year occurring on or before the Restatement Date may reflect the financial results of any applicable predecessor entity and (ii) any comparative figures for any fiscal period ending prior to January 1, 2024 may be shown as reported (for the avoidance of doubt, not restated under "fresh start" accounting and/or prepared in accordance with ASC 852).

The Servicer shall only add a Lock-Box Account (or a related Lock-Box), or a Lock-Box Account Bank to those listed on Schedule I to this Agreement, if the Agent has received notice of such addition and has entered into an Account Control Agreement (or an amendment thereto) covering such Lock-Box Account (or related Lock-Box) in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Agent. The Servicer shall, from time to time and within the time limits established by law, prepare and present to the Agent for the Agent's authorization and approval, all financing statements, amendments, continuations or initial financing statements in lieu of a continuation statement, or other filings necessary to continue, maintain and perfect the Agent's security interest as a first-priority interest. The Agent's approval of such filings shall authorize the Servicer to file such financing statements under the UCC without the signature of the Seller, the Transferor, any Originator or the Agent where allowed by Applicable Law. Notwithstanding anything else in the Transaction Documents to the contrary, the Servicer shall not have any authority to file a termination, partial termination, release, partial release, or any amendment that deletes the name of a debtor or excludes collateral of any such financing statements filed in connection with the Transaction Documents, without the prior written consent of the Agent.

Without limiting the foregoing, the Servicer hereby authorizes, and will, upon the request of the Agent, at the Servicer's own expense, execute (if necessary) and file such financing statements or continuation statements, or amendments thereto, and such other instruments and documents, that may be necessary or desirable, or that the Agent may reasonably request, to perfect, protect or evidence any of the foregoing.

(p) Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws and Sanctions. The Servicer will ensure that policies and procedures are maintained and enforced by or on behalf of each Audacy Party that are reasonably designed to promote compliance by the Audacy Parties and each of their Subsidiaries and their respective directors, officers, and employees with Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws and Sanctions.

Except as would not reasonably be expected to result, individually or in the aggregate, in a Material Adverse Effect, the Servicer will (i) timely file all Tax returns (federal, state and local) required to be filed by it and (ii) pay, or cause to be paid, all Taxes that are required to be paid by it and are due and payable, if any, other than Taxes being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and as to which adequate reserves have been provided in accordance with GAAP.

(r) Commingling. The Servicer will, and will cause each Originator to, at all times, take commercially reasonable actions to ensure that on and after the Closing Date, no funds are deposited into any Lock-Box Account or the Collection Account other than Collections on Pool Receivables and other funds of the Seller (which shall constitute Support Assets).

(u) [Reserved].

(v) Analysis Account. The Servicer shall not permit any Lock-Box Account to be designated as an "Analysis Account" (as defined in the applicable Account Control Agreement).

Each of the Seller and the Servicer hereby acknowledges that the Secured Parties and the Agent are entering into the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents in reliance upon the Seller's identity as a legal entity separate from any other Audacy Party and their Affiliates. Therefore, the Seller and Servicer shall take all steps specifically required by this Agreement or reasonably required by the Agent or any Investor to continue the Seller's identity as a separate legal entity and to make it apparent to third Persons that the Seller is an entity with assets and liabilities distinct from those of any other Audacy Party and any other Person, and is not a division of any Audacy Party or any of its Affiliates or any other Person. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and in addition to and consistent with the other covenants set forth herein, the Seller and the Servicer shall take such actions as shall be required in order that:

(a) Special Purpose Entity. The Seller will be a special purpose company whose primary activities are restricted in its Organizational Documents to: (i) purchasing or otherwise acquiring from the Transferor, owning, holding, collecting, granting security interests or selling interests in, the Support Assets, (ii) entering into agreements for the selling, servicing and financing of the Receivables Pool (including the Transaction Documents) and (iii) conducting such other activities as it deems necessary or appropriate to carry out its primary activities.

The Seller shall not incur, create or assume any indebtedness except as expressly permitted under the Transaction Documents.

(c) Independent Director. Not fewer than two members of the Seller's board of directors shall be Independent Directors. The Seller shall (A) give written notice to the Agent of the election or appointment, or proposed election or appointment, of a new Independent Director of the Seller, which notice shall be given not later than ten (10) Business Days prior to the date such appointment or election would be effective (except when such election or appointment is necessary to fill a vacancy caused by the death, disability, or incapacity of an existing Independent Director, or the failure of an Independent Director to satisfy the criteria for an Independent Director set forth in the Seller's Organizational Documents, in which case the Seller shall provide written notice of such election or appointment within five (5) Business Days) and (B) with any such written notice, certify to the Agent that each Independent Director satisfies such criteria for an Independent Director.

The Seller's Organizational Documents shall provide that, among other things: (A) the Seller's board of directors shall not approve, or take any other action to cause the filing of, a voluntary bankruptcy petition with respect to the Seller unless each Independent Director shall approve the taking of such action in writing before the taking of such action and (B) such provision and each other provision requiring an Independent Director cannot be amended without the prior written consent of each Independent Director.

No Independent Director shall at any time serve as a trustee in bankruptcy for any Audacy Party or any of their respective Affiliates.

(d) Organizational Documents. The Seller shall maintain its Organizational Documents in conformity with this Agreement, such that it does not amend, restate, supplement or otherwise modify its ability to comply with the terms and provisions of any of the Transaction Documents, including, without limitation, Section 7.01(q).

(e) Conduct of Business. The Seller shall conduct its affairs strictly in accordance with its Organizational Documents and observe all necessary, appropriate and customary company formalities, including, but not limited to, holding all regular and special members' and board of directors' meetings appropriate to authorize all company action, keeping separate and accurate minutes of its meetings, passing all resolutions or consents necessary to authorize actions taken or to be taken, and maintaining accurate and separate books, records and accounts, including, but not limited to, payroll and intercompany transaction accounts.

(f) Employees. The Seller shall not have any employees.

(g) Compensation. Any consultant or agent of the Seller will be compensated from the Seller's funds for services provided to the Seller, and to the extent that the Seller shares the same officers as the Servicer (or any other Affiliate thereof), the salaries and expenses relating to providing benefits to such officers shall be fairly allocated among such entities, and each such entity shall bear its fair share of the salary and benefit costs associated with such common officers. The Seller will not engage any agents other than its attorneys, auditors and other professionals, and a servicer and any other agent contemplated by the Transaction Documents (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Administrator) for the Receivables Pool, which servicer will be fully compensated for its services by payment of the Servicing Fee.

(h) Servicing and Costs. The Seller will contract with the Servicer to perform for the Seller all operations required on a daily basis to service the Receivables Pool. The Seller will not incur any indirect or overhead expenses for items shared with the Servicer (or any other Affiliate thereof) that are not reflected in the Servicing Fee. To the extent, if any, that the Seller (or any Affiliate thereof) shares items of expenses not reflected in the Servicing Fee, such as legal, auditing and other professional services, such expenses will be allocated to the extent practical on the basis of actual use or the value of services rendered, and otherwise on a basis reasonably related to the actual use or the value of services rendered.

(i) Operating Expenses. The Seller shall pay its operating expenses and liabilities from its own assets.

(j) Stationery. The Seller will use, to the extent used, separate stationery, invoices and checks.

(k) Books and Records. The Seller's books and records will be maintained separately from those of the other Audacy Parties and any of their Affiliates and in a manner such that it will not be difficult or costly to segregate, ascertain or otherwise identify the assets and liabilities of the Seller.

(l) Disclosure of Transactions. All financial statements of the Audacy Parties or any Affiliate thereof that are consolidated to include the Seller will disclose that (i) the Seller's sole business consists of the purchase or acceptance through capital contributions of the Receivables and Related Rights from the Transferor and the subsequent retransfer of or granting of a security interest in such Receivables and Related Rights to the Agent pursuant to this Agreement, (ii) the Seller is a separate legal entity with its own separate creditors who will be entitled, upon its liquidation, to be satisfied out of the Seller's assets prior to any assets or value in the Seller becoming available to the Seller's equity holders and (iii) the assets of the Seller are not available to pay creditors of the other Audacy Parties or any Affiliate thereof.

(m) Segregation of Assets. The Seller's assets will be maintained in a manner that facilitates their identification and segregation from those of the other Audacy Parties or any Affiliates thereof.

(n) Corporate Formalities. The Seller will strictly observe limited liability company formalities in its dealings with the Servicer, Audacy, the Originators, the Transferor or any Affiliates thereof, and funds or other assets of the Seller will not be commingled with those of the Servicer, Audacy, the Originators, the Transferor or any Affiliates thereof except as permitted by this Agreement in connection with servicing the Pool Receivables. The Seller shall not maintain joint bank accounts or other depository accounts to which the Servicer, Audacy, the Originators, the Transferor or any Affiliate thereof (other than the Servicer solely in its capacity as such) has independent access. The Seller is not named, and the Seller has not entered into any agreement to be named, directly or indirectly, as a direct or contingent beneficiary or loss payee on any insurance policy with respect to any loss relating to the property of the Servicer, Audacy, the Originators, the Transferor or any Subsidiaries or other Affiliates thereof. The Seller will pay to the appropriate Affiliate the marginal increase or, in the absence of such increase, the market amount of its portion of the premium payable with respect to any insurance policy that covers the Seller and such Affiliate.

(o) Arm's-Length Relationships. The Seller will maintain arm's-length relationships with each of the other Audacy Parties and any Affiliates thereof. Any Person that renders or otherwise furnishes services to the Seller will be compensated by the Seller at market rates for such services it renders or otherwise furnishes to the Seller. Neither the Seller on the one hand, nor any other Audacy Party or any Affiliate thereof, on the other hand, will be or will hold itself out to be responsible for the debts of the other or the decisions or actions respecting the daily business and affairs of the other. Each Audacy Party and their respective Affiliates will immediately correct any known misrepresentation with respect to the foregoing, and they will not operate or purport to operate as an integrated single economic unit with respect to each other or in their dealing with any other entity.

(p) Allocation of Overhead. To the extent that Seller, on the one hand, and each of the other Audacy Parties or any Affiliate thereof, on the other hand, have offices in the same location, there shall be a fair and appropriate allocation of overhead costs between them, and the Seller shall bear its fair share of such expenses, which may be paid through the Servicing Fee or otherwise.

ARTICLE VIII

ADMINISTRATION AND COLLECTION OF RECEIVABLES

SECTION 8.01. Appointment of the Servicer.

(a) The servicing, administering and collection of the Pool Receivables shall be conducted by the Person so designated from time to time as the Servicer in accordance with this Section 8.01. Until the Agent gives notice to Audacy Operations (in accordance with this Section 8.01) of the designation of a new Servicer, Audacy Operations is hereby designated as, and hereby agrees to perform the duties and obligations of, the Servicer pursuant to the terms hereof. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Agent may (with the consent of the Majority Investors) and shall (at the direction of the Majority Investors) designate as Servicer any Person (including itself) to succeed Audacy Operations or any successor Servicer, on the condition in each case that any such Person so designated shall agree to perform the duties and obligations of the Servicer pursuant to the terms hereof.

(b) Upon the designation of a successor Servicer as set forth in clause (a) above, Audacy Operations agrees that it will terminate its activities as Servicer hereunder in a manner that the Agent reasonably determines will facilitate the transition of the performance of such activities to the new Servicer, and Audacy Operations shall cooperate with and assist such new Servicer. Such cooperation shall include access to and transfer of records (including all Contracts) related to Pool Receivables and use by the new Servicer of all licenses (or the obtaining of new licenses), hardware or software necessary or reasonably desirable to collect the Pool Receivables and the Related Security.

(c) Audacy Operations acknowledges that, in making its decision to execute and deliver this Agreement, the Agent and each Investor have relied on Audacy Operations's agreement to act as Servicer hereunder. Accordingly, Audacy Operations agrees that it will not voluntarily resign as Servicer without the prior written consent of the Agent and the Majority Investors.

(d) The Servicer may delegate its duties and obligations hereunder to any subservicer (each a "Sub-Servicer"); provided, that, in each such delegation: (i) such Sub-Servicer shall agree in writing to perform the delegated duties and obligations of the Servicer pursuant to the terms hereof, (ii) the Servicer shall remain liable for the performance of the duties and obligations so delegated, (iii) the Seller, the Agent and each Investor shall have the right to look solely to the Servicer for performance, (iv) the terms of any agreement with any Sub-Servicer shall provide that the Agent may terminate such agreement upon the termination of the Servicer hereunder by giving notice of its desire to terminate such agreement to the Servicer (and the Servicer shall provide appropriate notice to each such Sub-Servicer) and (v) if such Sub-Servicer is not an Affiliate of Audacy Operations, the Agent and the Majority Investors shall have consented in writing in advance to such delegation. For avoidance of doubt, (i) the Administrator shall be deemed a Sub-Servicer and the Agent and the Investors hereby consent to the Administrator's appointment as Sub-Servicer, and (ii) the existence of the Administration Agreement shall not limit or diminish the obligations of the Servicer under this Agreement or the Sale Agreements.

SECTION 8.02. Duties of the Servicer.

(a) The Servicer shall take or cause to be taken all such action as may be necessary or reasonably advisable to service, administer and collect each Pool Receivable from time to time, all in accordance with this Agreement and all Applicable Laws, with reasonable care and diligence, and in accordance with the Credit and Collection Policy and consistent with the past practices of the Originators. (xiii) any setoff by an Obligor with respect to any Pool Receivable;

(xiv) any claim brought by any Person other than the Seller Indemnified Party arising from any activity by the Seller or any Affiliate of the Seller in servicing, administering or collecting any Pool Receivable;

(xv) the failure by the Seller to pay when due any Taxes with respect to any Pool Receivable or other Support Assets, including, without limitation, sales, excise or personal property taxes (without duplication of any Taxes governed under Section 4.03);

(xvi) any failure of a Lock-Box Account Bank or the Collection Account Bank to comply with the terms of the applicable Account Control Agreement, the termination by a Lock-Box Account Bank or the Collection Account Bank of any Account Control Agreement or any amounts (including in respect of an indemnity) payable by the Agent to a Lock-Box Account Bank or the Collection Account Bank under any Account Control Agreement;

(xvii) the designation of any Lock-Box as an "Analysis Account" (as defined in the applicable Account Control Agreement) and any debit from or other charge against any Lock-Box Account as a result of any "Fees and Charges" (as defined in the applicable Lock-Box Account Agreement) related to any account held in the name of Audacy Parties other than the Seller;

(xviii) any action taken by the Agent as attorney-in-fact for the Seller, the Transferor, any Originator or the Servicer pursuant to this Agreement or any other Transaction Document;

(xix) the failure or delay to provide any Obligor with an invoice or other evidence of indebtedness;

(xx) the failure or delay of Collections of Pool Receivables remitted to any Lock-Box Account being deposited directly into the Collection Account;

(xxi) any civil penalty or fine assessed by OFAC or any other Governmental Authority administering any Anti-Corruption Law or Sanctions, and all reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable documented legal fees and disbursements) incurred in connection with defense thereof by, the Seller Indemnified Party in connection with the Transaction Documents as a result of any action of any Audacy Party or any of their respective Affiliates;

(xxii) the use of proceeds of any Investment; or

(xxiii) any reduction in Capital as a result of the distribution of Collections if all or a portion of such distributions shall thereafter be rescinded or otherwise must be returned for any reason.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, solely for purposes of the Seller's indemnification obligations in clauses (ii), (iii), (viii) and (xii) of this Article XII, any representation, warranty or covenant qualified by the occurrence or non-occurrence of a Material Adverse Effect or similar concepts of materiality shall be deemed to be not so qualified.

(c) The reimbursement and indemnity obligations of the Seller under this Section shall be in addition to any liability which the Seller may otherwise have, shall extend upon the same terms and conditions to each Seller Indemnified Party, and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of any successors, assigns, heirs and personal representatives of the Seller and the Seller Indemnified Parties.

(d) Any indemnification under this Section shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

SECTION 11.02. Indemnification by the Servicer.

(a) The Servicer hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Seller, the Agent, the Investor Parties, the Affected Persons and their respective assigns, officers, directors, agents and employees (each, a "Servicer Indemnified Party"), from and against any loss, liability, expense, damage or injury suffered or sustained including any judgment, award, settlement, Attorney Costs and other costs or expenses incurred in connection with the defense of any actual or threatened action, proceeding or claim (all of the foregoing being collectively referred to as, "Servicer Indemnified Amounts"), arising from the following:

(i) the failure of any Pool Receivable which the Servicer includes as an Eligible Receivable as part of the Net Eligible Receivables Balance to be an Eligible Receivable at such time;

(ii) any representation, warranty or statement made or deemed made by the Servicer (or any of its respective officers in such capacity) under or in connection with this Agreement or any of the other Transaction Documents (including in any report or certificate required to be delivered under any Transaction Document) shall have been untrue or incorrect when made or deemed made;

(iii) the failure by the Servicer to comply with any Applicable Law with respect to any Pool Receivable or the related Contract;

(iv) the commingling of Collections of Pool Receivables at any time with other funds;

(v) the failure by any Pool Receivable or the related Contract to conform to any Applicable Law;

(vi) any civil penalty or fine assessed by OFAC or any other Governmental Authority administering any Anti-Corruption Law or Sanctions, and all reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable documented legal fees and disbursements) incurred in connection with defense thereof by, any Servicer Indemnified Party in connection with the Transaction Documents as a result of any action of any Audacy Party or any of their respective Affiliates; or excluding, however, (i) any loss, liability, expense, damage or injury suffered or sustained to the extent a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction holds that such loss, liability, expense, damage or injury suffered or sustained resulted solely from the gross negligence or willful misconduct by such Servicer Indemnified Party seeking indemnification and (ii) any loss, liability, expense, damage or injury suffered or sustained to the extent the same includes losses in respect of Pool Receivables that are uncollectible solely on account of the insolvency, bankruptcy, lack of creditworthiness or other financial inability to pay of the related Obligor.

(vii) any failure of the Servicer to comply with its covenants, obligations and agreements contained in this Agreement or any other Transaction Document;

(b) The reimbursement and indemnity obligations of the Servicer under this Section shall be in addition to any liability which the Servicer may otherwise have, shall extend upon the same terms and conditions to each Servicer Indemnified Party, and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of any successors, assigns, heirs and personal representatives of the Servicer and the Servicer Indemnified Parties.

(c) Any indemnification under this Section shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XII

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 12.01. Amendments, Etc.

(a) No failure on the part of any Investor Party to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right. No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by any of the Seller or any Affiliate thereof shall be effective unless in a writing signed by the Agent and the Majority Investors (and, in the case of any amendment, also signed by the Seller), and then such amendment, waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given; provided, however, that (A) no amendment, waiver or consent shall, unless in writing and signed by the Servicer, affect the rights or duties of the Servicer under this Agreement; (B) no amendment, waiver or consent shall, unless in writing and signed by the Agent and each Investor:

(i) change (directly or indirectly) the definitions of, Capital Coverage Amount, Capital Coverage Deficit, Purchase Limit, Defaulted Receivable, Delinquent Receivable, Eligible Receivable, Excluded Receivables, Facility Maturity Date, Net Eligible Receivables Balance, Required Reserve Percentage or Stress Factor contained in this Agreement, or increase the then existing Specified Concentration Percentage for any Obligor or change the calculation of the Capital Coverage Amount;

(ii) reduce the amount of Capital or Yield that is payable on account of any Investment or with respect to any other Investment or delay any scheduled date for payment thereof;

(iii) change any Event of Default;

(iv) release all or a material portion of the Support Assets from the Agent's security interest created hereunder;

(v) release the Performance Guarantor from all or a material portion of its obligations under the Performance Guaranty or terminate the Performance Guaranty;

(vi) change any of the provisions of this Section 12.01 or the definition of "Majority Investors"; or

(vii) change the order of priority in which Collections are applied pursuant to Section 3.01.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, (A) no amendment, waiver or consent shall increase any Investor's Commitment hereunder without the consent of such Investor, (B) no amendment, waiver or consent shall reduce any Fees payable by the Seller to any Investor or delay the dates on which any such Fees are payable, in either case, without the consent of such Investor and (C) no amendment, waiver or consent shall affect the rights, duties or protections of the Collection Account Bank without its prior written consent.

SECTION 12.02. Notices, Etc. All notices and other communications hereunder shall, unless otherwise stated herein, be in writing (which shall include facsimile and email communication) and faxed, emailed or delivered, to each party hereto, at its address set forth under its name on Schedule II hereto or at such other address, facsimile number or email address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice to the other parties hereto. Notices and communications by facsimile or email shall be effective when sent receipt confirmed by electronic or other means (such as by the "return receipt requested" function, as available, return electronic mail or other acknowledgement), and notices and communications sent by other means shall be effective when received.

SECTION 12.03. Assignability.

(a) Assignment by Conduit Investors. This Agreement and the rights of each Conduit Investor hereunder (including each Investment made by it hereunder) shall be assignable by such Conduit Investor and its successors and permitted assigns (i) to any Liquidity Provider of such Conduit Investor without prior notice to or consent from the Seller or any other party, or any other condition or restriction of any kind, (ii) to any other Investor with prior notice to the Seller but without consent from the Seller or (iii) with the prior written consent of the Seller (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided, however, that such consent shall not be required if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing), to any other Eligible Assignee. Each assignor of an Investment or any interest therein may, in connection with the assignment or participation, disclose to the assignee or Participant any information relating to the Seller and its Affiliates, including the Receivables, furnished to such assignor by or on behalf of the Seller and its Affiliates or by the Agent; provided that, prior to any such disclosure, the assignee or Participant agrees to preserve the confidentiality of any confidential information relating to the Seller and its Affiliates received by it from any of the foregoing entities in a manner consistent with Section 12.06(a).

(b) Assignment by Investors. Each Investor may assign to any Eligible Assignee all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including, without limitation, all or a portion of its Commitment and any Investment or interests therein owned by it); provided, however that

(i) except for an assignment by an Investor to its Affiliate or Liquidity Provider, each such assignment shall require the prior written consent of the Seller (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided, however, that such consent shall not be required if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing);

(ii) each such assignment shall be of a constant, and not a varying, percentage of all rights and obligations under this Agreement; and

(iii) the parties to each such assignment shall execute and deliver to the Agent, for its acceptance and recording in the Register, an Assignment and Acceptance Agreement.

Upon such execution, delivery, acceptance and recording from and after the effective date specified in such Assignment and Acceptance Agreement, (x) the assignee thereunder shall be a party to this Agreement, and to the extent that rights and obligations under this Agreement have been assigned to it pursuant to such Assignment and Acceptance Agreement, have the rights and obligations of an Investor hereunder and (y) the assigning Investor shall, to the extent that rights and obligations have been assigned by it pursuant to such Assignment and Acceptance Agreement, relinquish such rights and be released from such obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Acceptance Agreement covering all or the remaining portion of an assigning Investor's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Investor shall cease to be a party hereto).

(c) Register. The Agent shall, acting solely for this purpose as an agent of the Seller, maintain at its address referred to on Schedule II of this Agreement (or such other address of the Agent notified by the Agent to the other parties hereto) a copy of each Assignment and Acceptance Agreement delivered to and accepted by it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Investors, the Commitment of each Investor and the aggregate outstanding Capital (and stated interest) of the Investments of each Investor from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error, and the Seller, the Servicer, the Agent, the Investors and the other Investor Parties shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms of this Agreement as an Investor under this Agreement for all purposes of this Agreement. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Seller, the Servicer or any Investor at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(d) Procedure. Upon its receipt of an Assignment and Acceptance Agreement executed and delivered by an assigning Investor and an Eligible Assignee, the Agent shall, if such Assignment and Acceptance Agreement has been duly completed, (i) accept such Assignment and Acceptance Agreement, (ii) record the information contained therein in the Register and (iii) give prompt notice thereof to the Seller and the Servicer.

(e) Participations. Each Investor may sell participations to one or more Eligible Assignees (each, a "Participant") in or to all or a portion of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement (including, without limitation, all or a portion of its Commitment and the interests in the Investments owned by it); provided, however, that

(i) such Investor's obligations under this Agreement (including, without limitation, its Commitment to the Seller hereunder) shall remain unchanged, and

(ii) such Investor shall remain solely responsible to the other parties to this Agreement for the performance of such obligations.

The Agent, the Investors, Seller and the Servicer shall have the right to continue to deal solely and directly with such Investor in connection with such Investor's rights and obligations under this Agreement. The Seller agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 4.01 and 4.03 (subject to the requirements and limitations therein, including the requirements under Section 4.03(f) and (g) (it being understood that the documentation required under Section 4.03(f) and (g) shall be delivered to the participating Investor)) to the same extent as if it were an Investor and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section; provided that such Participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 4.01 or 4.03, with respect to any participation, than its participating Investor would have been entitled to receive, except to the extent such entitlement to receive a greater payment results from a Change in Law that occurs after the Participant acquired the applicable participation.

(f) Participant Register. Each Investor that sells a participation shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Seller, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the principal amounts (and stated interest) of each Participant's interest in the Investments or other obligations under this Agreement (the "Participant Register"); provided that no Investor shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in any Commitment, Investments or its other obligations under any this Agreement) to any Person except to the extent that such disclosure is necessary to establish that such Commitment, Investment or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations or Section 1.163-5(b) of the Proposed United States Treasury Regulations (or, in each case, any amended or successor version). The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and such Investor shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Agent (in its capacity as Agent) shall have no responsibility for maintaining a Participant Register.

(g) Assignments by Agents. This Agreement and the rights and obligations of the Agent herein shall be assignable by the Agent, and its successors and assigns, subject to the Seller's prior written consent (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

(h) Assignments by the Seller or the Servicer. Neither the Seller nor, except as provided in Section 8.01, the Servicer may assign any of its respective rights or obligations hereunder or any interest herein without the prior written consent of the Agent and each Investor (such consent to be provided or withheld in the sole discretion of such Person).

(i) Pledge to a Federal Reserve Bank. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, (i) any Investor, any Liquidity Provider or any of their respective Affiliates may at any time pledge or grant a security interest in all or any portion of its interest in, to and under this Agreement (including, without limitation, rights to payment of Capital and Yield) and any other Transaction Document to secure its obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank, without notice to or the consent of the Seller, the Servicer, any Affiliate thereof or any Investor Party; provided, however, that that no such pledge shall relieve such assignor of its obligations under this Agreement.

(j) Pledge to a Security Trustee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, (i) any Investor, any Liquidity Provider or any of their respective Affiliates may at any time pledge or grant a security interest in all or any portion of its interest in, to and under this Agreement (including, without limitation, rights to payment of Capital and Yield) and any other Transaction Document to a security trustee in connection with the funding by such Person of Investments, without notice to or the consent of the Seller, the Servicer, any Affiliate thereof or any Investor Party; provided, however, that that no such pledge shall relieve such assignor of its obligations under this Agreement.

SECTION 12.04. Costs and Expenses.

(a) In addition to the rights of indemnification granted under Section 12.01 hereof, the Seller agrees to pay on demand all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery and administration of this Agreement, any Liquidity Agreement (or any supplement or amendment thereof) related to this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents (together with all amendments, restatements, supplements, consents and waivers, if any, from time to time hereto and thereto), including, without limitation, the reasonable and documented Attorney Costs for the Agent and the other Investor Parties and any of their respective Affiliates with respect thereto and with respect to advising the Agent and the other Investor Parties and their respective Affiliates as to their rights and remedies under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents. In addition, the Seller agrees to pay on demand all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including reasonable Attorney Costs), of the Agent and the other Investor Parties incurred in connection with the enforcement of any of their respective rights or remedies under the provisions of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents.

(b) The Agent shall pay to the Commercial Paper Bank an initial acceptance fee of $3,000, due upon the establishment of the "CP Account" for the facility provided hereunder.

The Seller shall pay the Commercial Paper Bank an annual administration fee equal to $3,000 on the Settlement Date immediately following each anniversary of the Closing Date.

SECTION 12.05. No Proceedings; Limitation on Payments.

(a) Each of the parties hereto agrees, for the benefit of the holders of the privately or publicly placed indebtedness for borrowed money of each Conduit Investor, not, prior to the date which is two (2) years and one (1) day after the payment in full of all privately or publicly placed indebtedness for borrowed money of such Conduit Investor outstanding, to acquiesce, petition or otherwise, directly or indirectly, invoke, or cause such Conduit Investor to invoke, the process of any court or any other governmental authority for the purpose of (i) commencing, or sustaining, a case against such Conduit Investor under any federal or state bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law (including the Bankruptcy Code), (ii) appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, custodian, sequestrator or other similar official of such Conduit Investor, or any substantial part of its property, or (iii) ordering the winding up or liquidation of the affairs of such Conduit Investor.

(b) Each of the Servicer, each Investor and each assignee of an Investment or any interest therein, hereby covenants and agrees that it will not institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, the Seller any insolvency proceeding until one year and one day after the Final Payout Date; provided, that the Agent may take any such action in its sole discretion following the occurrence of an Event of Default.

(c) Notwithstanding any provisions contained in this Agreement to the contrary, a Conduit Investor shall not, and shall be under no obligation to, pay any amount, if any, payable by it pursuant to this Agreement or any other Transaction Document unless (i) such Conduit Investor has received funds which may be used to make such payment and which funds are not required to repay such Conduit Investor's Commercial Paper Notes when due and (ii) after giving effect to such payment, either (x) such Conduit Investor could issue Commercial Paper Notes to refinance all of its outstanding Commercial Paper Notes and Discretionary Advances (assuming such outstanding Commercial Paper Notes and Discretionary Advances matured at such time) in accordance with the program documents governing such Conduit Investor's securitization program or (y) all of such Conduit Investor's Commercial Paper Notes and Discretionary Advances are paid in full. Any amount which any Conduit Investor does not pay pursuant to the operation of the preceding sentence shall not constitute a claim (as defined in Section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code) against or company obligation of such Conduit Investor for any such insufficiency unless and until such Conduit Investor satisfies the provisions of clauses (i) and (ii) above. The provisions of this Section 12.05 shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

SECTION 12.06. Confidentiality.

(a) Each of the Seller and the Servicer covenants and agrees to hold in confidence, and not disclose to any Person, the terms of this Agreement or the Fee Letter (including any fees payable in connection with this Agreement, the Fee Letter or any other Transaction Document or the identity of the Agent or any other Investor Party), except as the Agent and each Investor may have consented to in writing prior to any proposed disclosure; provided, however, that it may disclose such information (i) to its Advisors and Representatives, (ii) to the extent such information has become available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by or through the Seller, the Servicer or their Advisors and Representatives or (iii) to the extent (A) any Audacy Party determines in good faith that such disclosure is required by Applicable Law or advisable in connection with its obligations under Applicable Law, or in connection with any legal or regulatory proceeding or (B) requested by any Governmental Authority to disclose such information; provided, that, in the case of clause (iii) above, the Seller and the Servicer will (unless otherwise prohibited by Applicable Law) notify the Agent and the affected Investor Party of its intention to make any such disclosure prior to making such disclosure. Each of the Seller and the Servicer agrees to be responsible for any breach of this Section by its Representatives and Advisors and agrees that its Representatives and Advisors will be advised by it of the confidential nature of such information. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is expressly agreed that each of the Seller, the Servicer and their respective Affiliates may publish a press release or otherwise publicly announce the existence and principal amount of the Commitments under this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby; provided, that no such press release shall name or otherwise identify the Agent, any other Investor Party or any of their respective Affiliates without such Person's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and not to be required if such information has already been made publicly available other than by the Seller, the Servicer or their Affiliates in breach of this Section 12.06(a)); and provided, further that if the Agent is named, the Agent shall be provided a reasonable opportunity to review such press release or other public announcement prior to its release and provide comment thereon.

(b) Each of the Agent and each other Investor Party, severally and with respect to itself only, agrees to hold in confidence, and not disclose to any Person, any confidential or proprietary information concerning the Seller, the Servicer and their respective Affiliates and their businesses or the terms of this Agreement (including any fees payable in connection with this Agreement or the other Transaction Documents), except as the Seller or the Servicer may have consented to in writing prior to any proposed disclosure; provided, however, that it may disclose such information (i) to its Advisors and Representatives and to any related Liquidity Provider, (ii) to its assignees and Participants and potential assignees and Participants and their respective counsel if they agree in writing to hold it confidential, (iii) to the extent such information has become available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by or through it or its Representatives or Advisors or any related Liquidity Provider, (iv) to any nationally recognized statistical rating organization in connection with obtaining or maintaining the rating of any Conduit Investor's Commercial Paper Notes or as contemplated by 17 CFR 240.17g-5(a)(3), (v) at the request of a bank examiner or other regulatory authority or in connection with an examination of any of the Agent, any Investor or their respective Affiliates or Liquidity Providers or (vi) to the extent (A) required by Applicable Law, or in connection with any legal or regulatory proceeding or (B) requested by any Governmental Authority to disclose such information; provided, that, in the case of clause (vi) above, the Agent and each Investor will use reasonable efforts to maintain confidentiality and will (unless otherwise prohibited by Applicable Law) notify the Seller and the Servicer of its making any such disclosure as promptly as reasonably practicable thereafter. Each of the Agent and each Investor, severally and with respect to itself only, agrees to be responsible for any breach of this Section by its Representatives, Advisors and Liquidity Providers and agrees that its Representatives, Advisors and Liquidity Providers will be advised by it of the confidential nature of such information and shall agree to comply with this Section.

(c) As used in this Section, (i) "Advisors" means, with respect to any Person, such Person's accountants, attorneys and other confidential advisors and (ii) "Representatives" means, with respect to any Person, such Person's Affiliates, Subsidiaries, directors, managers, officers, employees, members, investors, financing sources, insurers, professional advisors, representatives and agents; provided that such Persons shall not be deemed to be Representatives of a Person unless (and solely to the extent that) confidential information is furnished to such Person.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent not inconsistent with applicable securities laws, each party hereto (and each of its employees, Representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all Persons, without limitation of any kind, the Tax treatment and tax structure (as defined in Section 1.6011-4 of the Treasury Regulations) of the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to such Person relating to such Tax treatment and Tax structure.

SECTION 12.07. GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING THE RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE PARTIES HERETO, SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (INCLUDING SECTIONS 5-1401 AND 5-1402 OF THE GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, BUT WITHOUT REGARD TO ANY OTHER CONFLICTS OF LAW PROVISIONS THEREOF, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THAT THE PERFECTION, THE EFFECT OF PERFECTION OR PRIORITY OF THE INTERESTS OF AGENT OR ANY INVESTOR IN THE SUPPORT ASSETS IS GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF A JURISDICTION OTHER THAN THE STATE OF NEW YORK).

SECTION 12.08. Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which when taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed signature page of this Agreement by facsimile transmission, emailed pdf. or any other electronic means that reproduces an image of the actual executed signature page shall be effective as delivery of an original executed counterpart hereof. The words "execution," "signed," "signature," and words of like import in this Agreement or any Transaction Document shall be deemed to include electronic signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

SECTION 12.09. Integration; Binding Effect; Survival of Termination. This Agreement and the other Transaction Documents contain the final and complete integration of all prior expressions by the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and shall constitute the entire agreement among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof superseding all prior oral or written understandings. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. This Agreement shall create and constitute the continuing obligations of the parties hereto in accordance with its terms and shall remain in full force and effect until the Final Payout Date; provided, however, that the provisions of Sections 4.01, 4.02, 4.03, 10.04, 10.07, 11.04, 11.06, 12.01, 12.02, 12.04, 12.05, 12.06, 12.09, 12.11, 12.13, 12.20 and 12.21 shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

SECTION 12.10. CONSENT TO JURISDICTION. (a) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY SUBMITS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF ANY NEW YORK STATE OR FEDERAL COURT SITTING IN NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENT, AND EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AGREES THAT ALL CLAIMS IN RESPECT OF SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE HEARD AND DETERMINED IN SUCH NEW YORK STATE COURT OR, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, IN SUCH FEDERAL COURT. NOTHING IN THIS SECTION 12.10 SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF THE AGENT OR ANY OTHER INVESTOR PARTY TO BRING ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING AGAINST THE SELLER OR THE SERVICER OR ANY OF THEIR RESPECTIVE PROPERTY IN THE COURTS OF OTHER JURISDICTIONS. EACH OF THE SELLER AND THE SERVICER HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT IT MAY EFFECTIVELY DO SO, THE DEFENSE OF AN INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING. THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE THAT A FINAL JUDGMENT IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE CONCLUSIVE AND MAY BE ENFORCED IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS BY SUIT ON THE JUDGMENT OR IN ANY OTHER MANNER PROVIDED BY LAW.

(b) EACH OF THE SELLER AND THE SERVICER CONSENTS TO THE SERVICE OF ANY AND ALL PROCESS IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BY THE MAILING OF COPIES OF SUCH PROCESS TO IT AT ITS ADDRESS SPECIFIED IN SECTION 12.02. NOTHING IN THIS SECTION 12.10 SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF THE AGENT OR ANY OTHER INVESTOR PARTY TO SERVE LEGAL PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW.

SECTION 12.11. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY JUDICIAL PROCEEDING INVOLVING, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, ANY MATTER (WHETHER SOUNDING IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) IN ANY WAY ARISING OUT OF, RELATED TO, OR CONNECTED WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENT.

SECTION 12.12. Ratable Payments. If any Investor Party, whether by setoff or otherwise, has payment made to it with respect to any Seller Obligations in a greater proportion than that received by any other Investor Party entitled to receive a ratable share of such Seller Obligations, such Investor Party agrees, promptly upon demand, to purchase for cash without recourse or warranty a portion of such Seller Obligations held by the other Investor Parties so that after such purchase each Investor Party will hold its ratable proportion of such Seller Obligations; provided that if all or any portion of such excess amount is thereafter recovered from such Investor Party, such purchase shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, but without interest.

SECTION 12.13. Limitation of Liability.

(a) No claim may be made by any party hereto against any other party hereto or such party's respective Affiliates, members, directors, officers, employees, incorporators, attorneys or agents for any special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages in respect of any claim for breach of contract or any other theory of liability arising out of or related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, or any act, omission or event occurring in connection herewith or therewith; and each party hereto hereby waives, releases, and agrees not to sue upon any claim for any such damages, whether or not accrued and whether or not known or suspected to exist in its favor.

(b) The obligations of the Agent and each of the other Investor Parties under this Agreement and each of the Transaction Documents are solely the corporate obligations of such Person. No recourse shall be had for any obligation or claim arising out of or based upon this Agreement or any other Transaction Document against any member, director, officer, employee or incorporator of any such Person.

SECTION 12.14. Intent of the Parties. The Parties intend that the Investments and the obligations of the Seller hereunder will be treated under United States federal, and applicable state, local and foreign tax law as debt (the "Intended Tax Treatment"). The Seller, the Servicer, the Agent and the other Investor Parties agree to file no tax return, or take any action, inconsistent with the Intended Tax Treatment unless required by law. Each assignee and each Participant acquiring an interest in an Investment, by its acceptance of such assignment or participation, agrees to comply with the immediately preceding sentence.

SECTION 12.15. USA Patriot Act. Each of the Agent and each of the other Investor Parties hereby notifies the Seller and the Servicer that pursuant to the requirements of the Uniting Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act, Title III of Pub. L. 107-56 (signed into law October 26, 2001) (the "PATRIOT Act"), the Agent and the other Investor Parties may be required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies the Seller, the Transferor, the Originators, the Performance Guarantor and the Servicer, which information includes the name, address, tax identification number and other information regarding the Seller, the Transferor, the Originators, the Performance Guarantor and the Servicer that will allow the Agent and the other Investor Parties to identify the Seller, the Transferor, the Originators, the Performance Guarantor and the Servicer in accordance with the PATRIOT Act. This notice is given in accordance with the requirements of the PATRIOT Act. Each of the Seller and the Servicer agrees to provide the Agent and each other Investor Parties, from time to time, with all documentation and other information required by bank regulatory authorities under "know your customer" Anti-Money Laundering Laws and the Beneficial Ownership Rule.

SECTION 12.16. Right of Setoff. Each Investor Party is hereby authorized (in addition to any other rights it may have), at any time during the continuance of an Event of Default, to setoff, appropriate and apply (without presentment, demand, protest or other notice which are hereby expressly waived) any deposits and any other indebtedness held or owing by such Investor Party (including by any branches or agencies of such Investor Party) to, or for the account of, the Seller or the Servicer against amounts owing by the Seller or the Servicer hereunder (even if

(ii) a conversion of all, or a portion of, such liability into shares or other instruments of ownership in such EEA Financial Institution, its parent undertaking, or a bridge institution that may be issued to it or otherwise conferred on it, and that such shares or other instruments of ownership will be accepted by it in lieu of any rights with respect to any such liability under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document; or

(iii) the variation of the terms of such liability in connection with the exercise of the write-down and conversion powers of the EEA Resolution Authority.

(b) Information. Audacy Operations covenants that it shall from time to time at first request by the Agent or any Investor (i) promptly provide to the Agent and such Investor all information (including all asset level information) which the Agent or such Investor reasonably requests in order for the Agent or such Investor (or any of their Affiliates), as applicable, to comply with any of its obligations under Article 5 and/or Article 7 of the EU Securitisation Regulation (provided that, where any such information is subject to confidentiality restrictions, Audacy Operations shall use reasonable efforts to obtain consent for the disclosure of such information), and (ii) take such further action, provide such further information and enter into such other agreements not otherwise provided for hereunder as may be reasonably required by the Agent or any Investor in order for the Agent or such Investor (or any of their Affiliates) to comply with its obligations under the EU Securitisation Regulation in relation to the Transaction Documents and the transactions contemplated thereby.

This SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED PURCHASE AND SALE AGREEMENT dated as of [__], 2024 (this "Agreement") is among AUDACY OPERATIONS, INC., a Delaware corporation ("Audacy Operations"), as initial servicer (in such capacity, the "Servicer"), the entities party hereto as originators (the "Originators") and AUDACY NEW YORK, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Transferee").

This Agreement amends and restates in its entirety, as of the date hereof, that certain Amended and Restated Purchase and Sale Agreement, dated as of January 9, 2024 (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified through the date hereof, the "Prior PSA"). Upon the effectiveness of this Agreement and the Receivables Purchase Agreement (as defined below) in accordance with their terms, the terms and provisions of the Prior PSA shall, subject to this paragraph, be superseded and replaced by the terms and provisions of this Agreement in their entirety. Notwithstanding the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, (a) all indemnification obligations, obligations to pay costs and expenses and other obligations of the Originators under the Prior PSA shall survive the amendment and restatement of the Prior PSA and nothing contained in this amendment and restatement shall constitute payment of, or impair or limit cancel or extinguish, or constitute a novation in respect of, any of such obligations, liabilities or indemnifications evidenced by or arising under the Prior PSA, (b) all sales of Receivables and Related Rights under the Prior PSA by the Originators to the Transferee are hereby ratified and confirmed and shall survive the amendment and restatement of the Prior PSA and (c) the liens and security interests granted by the Originators pursuant to Section 8.14 of the Prior PSA shall not in any manner be impaired, limited or terminated and shall remain in full force and effect and shall survive the Prior PSA as security for all obligations of the Originators under the Prior PSA and all obligations of the Originators under this Agreement. Upon the effectiveness of this Agreement, each reference to the Prior PSA in any other document, instrument or agreement shall mean and be a reference to this Agreement. Nothing contained herein, unless expressly herein stated to the contrary, is intended to amend, modify or otherwise affect any other instrument, document or agreement executed and or delivered in connection with the Prior PSA. For good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS AND RELATED MATTERS

SECTION 1.1 Defined Terms. In this Agreement, unless otherwise specified: (a) capitalized terms are used as defined in (or by reference in) Article I of the Second Amended and Restated Receivables Purchase Agreement dated as of the date hereof (as amended, restated, modified or otherwise supplemented from time to time, the "Receivables Purchase Agreement") among Audacy Receivables, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Seller"), Audacy Operations, as Servicer, the investors party thereto from time to time, and DZ BANK AG Deutsche Zentral-Genossenschaftsbank, Frankfurt Am Main ("DZ BANK"), as Agent, and (b) as used in this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms have the meanings indicated below:

"Records" means all Contracts and other documents, instruments, books, records, purchase orders, agreements, reports and other information (including computer programs, tapes, disks, other information storage media, data processing software and related property and rights) prepared or maintained by any Audacy Party with respect to, or that evidence or relate to, the Pool Receivables, the Related Rights, any other Support Assets, the Obligors of such Pool Receivables or the origination, collection or servicing of any of the foregoing.

"Related Rights" means (a) all rights to, but not any obligations under, all Related Security with respect to the Receivables, (b) all Records (but excluding any obligations or liabilities under the Contracts), (c) all Collections in respect of, and other proceeds of, the Receivables or any other Related Security and (d) all products and proceeds of any of the foregoing.

"Sale Termination Date" means, with respect to any Originator, the date that Receivables and Related Rights cease being sold by such Originator to the Transferee under this Agreement pursuant to Article VI of this Agreement.

"Sale Termination Event" means the occurrence of any of the following events or occurrences with respect to any Originator:

(a) such Originator shall fail to make when due any payment or deposit or transfer any monies to be made by it under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document as and when due and such failure is not remedied within three (3) Business Days;

(b) any representation or warranty made or deemed to be made by such Originator under this Agreement or any other Transaction Documents to which it is a party shall prove to have been incorrect or untrue in any material respect when made or deemed made unless such representation or warranty, if capable of being cured, is cured within fifteen (15) days after (i) a Responsible Officer of such Originator has knowledge thereof or (ii) such Originator receives notice thereof, whichever occurs earlier; provided that any representation made or deemed made with respect to any Pool Receivable that shall prove to have been incorrect or untrue in any material respect when made or deemed made shall not cause a Sale Termination Event hereunder if, after excluding such Pool Receivable from the Net Eligible Receivables Balance, no Capital Coverage Deficit exists, or, to the extent such Capital Coverage Deficit exists, it is cured within two (2) Business Days;

(c) such Originator shall fail to perform or observe in any material respect, any other term, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement or any other Transaction Document to which it is a party and such failure, solely to the extent capable of cure, shall continue unremedied for 30 days after (1) a Responsible Officer of such Originator has knowledge thereof or (2) such Originator receives notice thereof, whichever occurs earlier. For avoidance of doubt, the covenants contained in Section 5.3 (Negative Covenants) shall not be deemed incapable of cure solely due to being negative covenants; or

(d) an Event of Bankruptcy shall have occurred with respect to such Originator.

SECTION 1.2 Other Interpretive Matters. The interpretation of this Agreement, unless otherwise specified, is subject to Section 1.02 of the Receivables Purchase Agreement.

ARTICLE II

AGREEMENT TO PURCHASE AND SELL

SECTION 2.1 Purchase and Sale. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, each Originator hereby sells to the Transferee, and the Transferee hereby purchases or acquires from such Originator, all of such Originator's right, title and interest in, to and under the Receivables and the Related Rights of such Originator, in each case whether now existing or hereafter arising, acquired or originated.

SECTION 2.2 Timing of Purchases. All of the Receivables and the Related Rights of each Originator existing immediately after the opening of such Originator's business on the Closing Date are hereby sold to the Transferee on such date in accordance with the terms hereof. On and after the Closing Date until the Sale Termination Date, each Receivable and Related Right shall be deemed to have been sold to the Transferee immediately (and without further action by any Person) upon the creation or acquisition of such Receivable by the applicable Originator. In respect of (i) purchases on the Closing Date, the Transferee shall pay the applicable Originator the applicable cash Purchase Price for the Receivables and the Related Rights transferred by such Originator within two (2) Business Days after the Closing Date in immediately available funds and (ii) purchases of Receivables originated on or after the Closing Date and the Related Rights, the Transferee shall pay the applicable Originator the applicable cash Purchase Price on such day. The Related Rights with respect to each Receivable shall be sold at the same time as such Receivable, whether such Related Rights exist at such time or arise, are acquired or are originated thereafter.

SECTION 2.3 Purchase Price. (a) The purchase price ("Purchase Price") for the Receivables and the Related Rights shall equal the fair market value of the Receivables and the Related Rights as agreed by the applicable Originator and the Transferee at the time of purchase or acquisition. The Purchase Price shall not be adjusted or modified after the applicable purchase date.

(b) The Transferee shall pay the applicable Originator the Purchase Price with respect to each Receivable and the Related Rights purchased from such Originator on the date of purchase thereof as set forth above by transfer of funds

(c) The parties hereto hereby acknowledge and agree that each Originator has received payment in full of the aggregate Purchase Price due from the Transferee under the Prior PSA for all sales of Receivables and Related Rights occurring thereunder prior to the date hereof in accordance with the terms of the Prior PSA.

SECTION 2.4 No Recourse or Assumption of Obligations. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, the purchase and sale of Receivables and Related Rights under this Agreement shall be without recourse to any Originator. It is the express intent of each Originator and the Transferee that each conveyance by such Originator to the Transferee pursuant to this Agreement of the Receivables and the Related Rights, including without limitation, all Receivables, if any, constituting general intangibles as defined in the UCC, and all Related Rights be construed as an absolute, irrevocable, valid and perfected sale and absolute assignment (without recourse except as provided herein) of such Receivables and Related Rights by such Originator to the Transferee (rather than the grant of a security interest to secure a debt or other obligation of such Originator), providing the Transferee with the full risks and benefits of ownership of the Receivables and Related Rights (such that the Receivables and the Related Rights would not be property of such Originator's estate in the event of such Originator's bankruptcy) and that the right, title and interest in and to such Receivables and Related Rights conveyed to the Transferee be prior to the rights of and enforceable against all other Persons at any time, including, without limitation, lien creditors, secured lenders, investors and any Person claiming through such Originator, and intend to treat each such conveyance as a "true sale" for all purposes under applicable law and accounting principles.

None of the Transferee, the Agent, the Investors or the other Affected Persons shall have any obligation or liability under any Receivables or Related Rights, nor shall the Transferee, the Agent, any Investor or the other Affected Persons have any obligation or liability to any Obligor or other customer or client of any Originator (including any obligation to perform any of the obligations of any Originator under any Receivables or Related Rights).

ARTICLE III

(e) Each Originator shall perform all of its obligations under the Records to the same extent as if the related Receivables sold by it had not been sold hereunder and the exercise by each of the Transferee, the Seller, the Servicer, the Agent or any of their respective designees of its rights hereunder or under the Sale and Contribution Agreement or the Receivables Purchase Agreement shall not relieve such Originator from such obligations.

In addition, each Originator agrees that from time to time, at its expense, it will promptly execute and deliver all further instruments and documents, and take all further action that the Transferee, the Seller, as the Transferee's assignee, or the Agent, as the Seller's assignee, may reasonably request in order to perfect, protect or more fully evidence the purchases and sales hereunder, or to enable the Transferee, the Seller, as the Transferee's assignee or the Agent, as the Seller's assignee, to exercise or enforce any of their respective rights with respect to the Receivables and the Related Rights sold by such Originator. into a Lock-Box Account or a Lock-Box, such Originator (or the Servicer on its behalf) shall notify the applicable Obligor of such failure and shall take commercially reasonable action to ensure that future payments on Receivables owing by such Obligor are remitted by such Obligor directly to a Lock-Box Account or a Lock-Box or through the Wide Orbit Portal. Such Originator will not commingle Collections or other funds to which the Transferee, the Agent, any Investor or any other Secured Party is entitled, with any other funds.

(j) Frequency of Billing. Prepare and deliver (or cause to be prepared and delivered) invoices with respect to all Receivables in accordance with the Credit and Collection Policy, but in any event no less frequently than as required under the Contract related to such Receivable.

(k) Commingling. Not deposit, or cause to be deposited, any funds other than Collections on Pool Receivables or other funds belonging to the Seller into any Lock-Box Account, any Lock-Box or the Collection Account.

(l) Taxes. Except as would not reasonably be expected to result, individually or in the aggregate, in a Material Adverse Effect, (i) timely file all Tax returns (federal, state and local) required to be filed by it and (ii) pay, or cause to be paid, all Taxes that are required to be paid by it and are due and payable, if any, other than Taxes being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and as to which adequate reserves have been provided in accordance with GAAP.

(m) Accounting. Other than for consolidated accounting purposes, such Originator will not account for or treat the transactions contemplated hereby in any manner other than as a sale of Receivables and the Related Rights transferred by such Originator to the Transferee; provided that solely for federal income tax purposes, such Originator and the Transferee are each treated as a "disregarded entity" of Audacy Operations and, therefore, the conveyance of Receivables and Related Rights by such Originator to the Transferee hereunder will be disregarded for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(n) Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws and Sanctions. Ensure that policies and procedures are maintained and enforced by or on behalf of such Originator that are reasonably designed to promote compliance by such Originator and each of its Subsidiaries, Affiliates and directors, officers and employees with Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws and Sanctions.

SECTION 5.2 Reporting Requirements. From the date hereof until the Final Payout Date, such Originator will furnish (or cause to be furnished) to the Transferee and to the Agent each of the following:

(a) Other Information. Such other information (including non-financial information) regarding the Receivables sold by such Originator hereunder or the operations, assets, liabilities and financial condition of any Audacy Party as the Transferee, the Agent or any Investor may from time to time reasonably request.

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any financial information or other material required to be delivered pursuant to this Section 5.2 shall be deemed to have been furnished to each of the Agent and each Investor on the date that such report or other material is made available through the SEC's EDGAR system (or any successor electronic gathering system that is publicly available free of charge).

(c) Notices. Notice in writing of any of the following events promptly upon (but in no event later than two (2) Business Days after) a Responsible Officer of such Originator learning of the occurrence thereof, with such notice describing the same, and if applicable, the steps being taken by the Person(s) affected with respect thereto:

(i) Events of Default or Unmatured Events of Default. The occurrence of any Event of Default or Unmatured Event of Default.

(ii) Litigation. To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, the filing or commencement of any action, suit or proceeding by or before any arbitrator or Governmental Authority against any Audacy Party, or, to the knowledge of a Financial Officer of any Audacy Party, affecting any Audacy Party, or any materially adverse development in any such pending action, suit or proceeding not previously disclosed in writing by such Originator to the Transferee and the Agent, that in each case with respect to any Person, would reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect or that in any manner questions the validity of any Transaction Document.

(iii) Adverse Claim. (A) Any Person shall obtain an Adverse Claim upon the Receivables or Related Rights or any portion thereof, (B) any Person other than the Transferee, the Servicer or the Agent shall obtain any rights or direct any action with respect to any Lock-Box Account (or related Lock-Box) or the Collection Account, or (C) any Obligor shall receive any change in payment instructions with respect to Receivable(s) from a Person other than the Servicer or the Agent.

(iv) Name Changes. Any change in such Originator's name, jurisdiction of organization or any other change requiring the amendment of UCC financing statements or similar filings.

(v) Change in Accountants or Accounting Policy. Any change in (i) the external accountants of the Transferee, the Servicer, such Originator or Audacy, (ii) any accounting policy of the Transferee or (iii) any material accounting policy of such Originator that is relevant to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any other Transaction Document (it being understood that any change to the manner in which such Originator accounts for the Receivables shall be deemed "material" for such purpose), excluding, in each case, any change in accounting policy required by GAAP.

(vi) ERISA Event. The occurrence of any ERISA Event that, alone or together with any other ERISA Events that have occurred, would reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(vii) Sale Termination Event. The occurrence of a Sale Termination Event.

(viii) Material Adverse Effect. Any development that has resulted, or would reasonably be expected to result, in a Material Adverse Effect.

(ix) "Wide Orbit" Subledger. Any expansion, contraction, reorganization, merger or other corporate or organizational change to the "Wide Orbit" subledger of Audacy and its Subsidiaries which would result in any additional Receivables being considered Excluded Receivables.

SECTION 5.3 Negative Covenants of the Originators. From the date hereof until the Final Payout Date, no Originator shall, without the prior written consent of the Agent and the Transferee:

(a) Sales, Liens, etc. Except as otherwise explicitly provided herein, sell, assign (by operation of law or otherwise) or otherwise dispose of, or create or suffer to exist any Adverse Claim upon (including, without limitation, the filing of any financing statement) or with respect to, any Receivable or other Support Assets, or assign any right to receive income in respect thereof.

(b) Extension or Amendment of Receivables. Except as otherwise permitted in Section 8.02 of the Receivables Purchase Agreement, no Originator shall, or shall permit the Servicer to, alter the delinquency status or adjust the Unpaid Balance or otherwise modify the terms of any Receivable in any material respect, or amend, modify or waive, in any material respect, any term or condition of any related Contract.

(c) Change in Credit and Collection Policies. Make any material change in the Credit and Collection Policy without the prior written consent of the Transferee and the Agent and the Majority Investors (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed). Promptly following any material change in the Credit and Collection Policy, such Originator will (or will cause the Servicer on its behalf to) deliver a copy of the updated Credit and Collection Policy to the Transferee, the Agent and each Investor.

(d) Change in Payment Instructions to Obligors. Make any change in its instructions to the Obligors regarding payments to be made to the Lock-Box Accounts (or any related Lock-Box), other than any instruction to remit payments to a different Lock-Box Account (or any related Lock-Box) or the Collection Account, unless the Agent shall have received (i) prior written notice of such addition, termination or change and (ii) a signed and acknowledged Collection Account Control Agreement (or an amendment thereto) with respect to such new Lock-Box Accounts (or any related Lock-Box) or such new Collection Account, and the Agent shall have consented to such change in writing (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld).

(e) Mergers, Acquisitions, Sales, Etc. Consolidate or merge with or into any other Person or sell, lease or transfer all or substantially all of its property and assets as an entirety to any Person, unless: (1) in the case of any merger or consolidation, (i) such Originator shall be the surviving entity and (A) no Change in Control shall result and (B) no Event of Default or Unmatured Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or would result therefrom or (ii) (A) the surviving entity shall execute and deliver to the Transferee and the Agent an agreement, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Agent, containing an assumption by the surviving entity of the due and punctual performance and observance of each obligation, covenant and condition of such Originator under this Agreement and each of the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party, (B) no Change in Control shall result, (C) no Event of Default or Unmatured Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or would result therefrom, (D) the surviving entity maintains its jurisdiction of organization and its chief executive office within a jurisdiction in the United States of America, (E) the Agent receives all documentation and other information regarding "know your customer" and Anti-Money Laundering Laws as it shall request, (F) unless such transaction constitutes a Permitted Originator Transaction, the Agent provides prior written consent to such transaction and (G) the Agent receives such additional certifications, documents, instruments, agreements and opinions of counsel as it shall reasonably request, including as to the necessity and adequacy of any new UCC financing statements or amendments to existing UCC financing statements, or (2) in the case of a sale, lease or transfer of all or substantially all of its property and assets as an entirety, (i) such Originator acquires concurrently therewith new property and assets allowing it to conduct a substantially similar business and (ii) no Event of Default or Unmatured Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or would result therefrom.

(f) Change in Organization, Etc. (i) Undertake any division of its rights, assets, obligations or liabilities pursuant to a plan of division or otherwise pursuant to Applicable Law, and (ii) change its jurisdiction of organization or its name or corporate organization structure or make any other change such that any financing statement filed or other action taken to perfect the Transferee's or the Agent's interests hereunder and under the Receivables Purchase Agreement, as applicable, would become seriously misleading or would otherwise be rendered ineffective, unless (i) no Event of Default or Unmatured Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or would result immediately after giving effect thereto, (ii) no Change of Control shall result, (iii) the Agent receives all documentation and other information regarding "know your customer" and Anti-Money Laundering Laws as it shall request, (iv) the Agent, the Majority Investors and the Transferee provide prior written consent to such change and (v) the Agent and the Transferee have received such certificates, documents, instruments, agreements and opinions of counsel as they shall reasonably request in connection therewith, including as to the necessity and adequacy of any new UCC financing statements or amendments to existing UCC financing statements.

(g) Actions Impairing Quality of Title. Take any action that would reasonably be expected to cause any Receivable, together with the Related Rights, not to be owned by the Transferee free and clear of any Adverse Claim; or take any action that would reasonably be expected to cause the Agent not to have a first priority perfected security interest in the Receivables and, to the extent such security interest can be perfected by filing a financing statement or the execution of an account control agreement, any Related Rights (or any portion thereof) and all cash proceeds of any of the foregoing, in each case, free and clear of any Adverse Claim; or suffer the existence of any financing statement or other instrument similar in effect naming it as debtor and covering any Receivable or any Related Rights on file in any recording office (except such as may be filed (i) in favor of the Transferee in accordance with any Transaction Document or (ii) in favor of the Agent in accordance with this Agreement or any Transaction Document).

(h) Transferee's Tax Status. Subject to Section 12.14 of the Receivables Purchase Agreement, take or cause any action to be taken that could reasonably result in the Transferee (A) being treated other than as "disregarded as an entity separate from its owner" within the meaning of U.S. Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-3 for U.S. federal income tax purposes that is wholly-owned by a U.S. Person, (B) becoming an association taxable as a corporation or a publicly traded partnership taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes or (C) becoming subject to any Tax in any jurisdiction outside the United States, or become subject to any state or local Tax in the United States that would result in a Material Adverse Effect with respect to the Transferee.

(i) Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws and Sanctions. Such Originator will not, and shall procure that its Subsidiaries, Affiliates or its or their respective directors, officers and employees shall not use, the proceeds of any sale of Receivables hereunder (A) in furtherance of an offer, payment, promise to pay, or authorization of the payment or giving of money, or anything else of value, to any Person in violation of any Anti-Corruption Laws or Anti-Money Laundering Laws, (B) for the purpose of funding or financing any activities, business or transaction of or with any Sanctioned Person, or in any Sanctioned Country, in each case to the extent doing so would violate any Sanctions, or (C) in any other manner that would result in liability to any Person under any applicable Sanctions or result in the violation of any Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws or Sanctions

TERMINATION OF PURCHASES

SECTION 6.1 Voluntary Termination. Each Originator may, at any time and in its sole discretion with five (5) Business Days' prior written notice to the Transferee and the Agent, terminate the sale of Receivables and Related Rights by such Originator pursuant to this Agreement; provided, however, that, for the avoidance of doubt, no such declaration shall become effective until both the Transferee and the Agent have received such five (5) Business Days' prior written notice thereof from such Originator and, if any Capital remains outstanding under the Receivables Purchase Agreement at such time, the Transferee shall also have delivered to the Agent a Daily Report, which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall include a statement of the aggregate Unpaid Balance of the Pool Receivables as of the preceding Business Day.

SECTION 6.2 Automatic Termination. The sale by any Originator of Receivables and Related Rights pursuant to this Agreement shall automatically terminate if (i) an Event of Bankruptcy shall have occurred and remain continuing with respect to such Originator or Transferee or (ii) the Final Payout Date shall have occurred.

ARTICLE VII

INDEMNIFICATION

SECTION 7.1 Originator Indemnity. Without limiting any other rights which any such Person may have hereunder or under Applicable Law, each Originator hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Transferee, the Transferee's Affiliates and all of their respective successors, transferees, participants and assigns, the Agent, the Investor Parties, the Affected Persons, and all officers, members, managers, directors, shareholders and employees of any of the foregoing (each an "Originator Indemnified Party"), forthwith on demand, from and against any loss, liability, expense, damage or injury suffered or sustained by reason of the following (collectively referred to as, "Originator Indemnified Amounts"), but excluding (i) Originator Indemnified Amounts to the extent a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction holds that such Originator Indemnified Amounts resulted solely from the gross negligence or willful misconduct by such Originator Indemnified Party seeking indemnification and (ii) Originator Indemnified Amounts to the extent the same includes losses in respect of Receivables that are uncollectible solely on account of the insolvency, bankruptcy, lack of creditworthiness or other financial inability to pay of the related Obligor:

(a) any representation, warranty or statement made or deemed made by such Originator (or any of its respective officers) under or in connection with this Agreement or any of the other Transaction Documents (including in any report or certificate required to be delivered by such Originator under any Transaction Document) shall have been untrue, false or incorrect when made or deemed made;

(c) the lack of an enforceable ownership interest or a first priority perfected security interest in the Receivables (and all Related Rights) transferred, or purported to be transferred, by such Originator to Transferee pursuant to this Agreement against all Persons (including any bankruptcy trustee or Person acting in a similar capacity);

(d) any attempt by any Person (including Transferee) to void the transfers by such Originator contemplated hereby under statutory provisions or common law or equitable action;

(e) the failure to have filed, or any delay in filing of, financing statements, financing statement amendments, continuation statements or other similar instruments or documents under the UCC of any applicable jurisdiction or other Applicable Laws with respect to any Receivable transferred by such Originator, or purported to be transferred by such Originator, to the Transferee pursuant to this Agreement whether at the time of any purchase or acquisition, as applicable, or at any time thereafter;

(f) any dispute, claim, offset or defense (other than discharge in bankruptcy) of an Obligor to the payment of any Receivable in, or purporting to be in, the Receivables Pool transferred, or purported to be transferred by such Originator, to the Transferee pursuant to this Agreement (including a defense based on such Receivable's or the related Contract's not being a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Obligor enforceable against it in accordance with its terms), or any other claim resulting from the sale of the merchandise or services related to such Receivable or the furnishing or failure to furnish such merchandise or services or other similar claim or defense not arising from the financial inability of any Obligor to pay undisputed indebtedness (except, in each case, to the extent that the amount thereof is then being included in the calculation of the Approved Material Supplier Contra Amount or gives rise to a Deemed Collection);

(g) any failure of such Originator to comply with its covenants, obligations and agreements contained in this Agreement or any other Transaction Document;

(h) any suit or claim related to the Receivables transferred, or purported to be transferred by such Originator, to the Transferee pursuant to this Agreement (including any products liability or environmental liability claim arising out of or in connection with merchandise or services that are the subject of any such Receivable to the extent not covered pursuant to Section 8.6);

(i) the failure of such Originator, the Servicer or any predecessor in interest to require that payments (including any under the related insurance policies) be made directly to Seller pursuant to the terms hereof;

(j) the failure by such Originator to instruct Obligors to make payments on the Receivables transferred by it directly to Seller pursuant to the terms hereof;

(k) any Taxes imposed upon an Originator Indemnified Party or with respect to Receivables transferred by such Originator pursuant to this Agreement, in each case solely to the extent such Taxes are imposed or required to be paid by reason of such Originator's purchase or ownership, or the contribution or sale of such Receivables (or of any interest therein) or Related Rights by such Originator pursuant to this Agreement;

(l) any loss arising, directly or indirectly, as a result of the imposition of sales or analogous Taxes with respect to the transaction giving rise to the relevant Receivable or the failure by such Originator or Servicer to timely pay or remit when due any sales or analogous Taxes;

(m) any commingling by such Originator of any funds belonging to the Seller with any of its own funds or the funds of any other Person;

(n) any investigation, litigation or proceeding (actual or threatened) related to this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or in respect of any Receivable or any related Contract of such Originator;

(o) the failure or delay of such Originator to provide any Obligor with an invoice or other evidence of indebtedness;

(p) the failure or delay of Collections of Pool Receivables remitted to any Lock-Box Account being deposited into the Collection Account;

(q) any breach of any Contract as a result of the sale thereof or any Receivables related thereto by such Originator pursuant to this Agreement;

(r) [reserved];

(s) any inability of such Originator to assign any Receivable or other Related Right as contemplated hereunder; or the violation or breach by the Transferor or Servicer of any confidentiality provision, or of any similar covenant of non-disclosure, with respect to any Contract; or

(t) any civil penalty or fine assessed by OFAC or any other Governmental Authority administering any Anti-Corruption Law or Sanctions, and all reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable documented legal fees and disbursements) incurred in connection with defense thereof by, an Originator Indemnified Party in connection with the Transaction Documents as a result of any action of any Audacy Party or any of their respective Affiliates.

ARTICLE VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 8.1 Amendments, etc. No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement nor consent to any departure by any Originator therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by Transferee, Agent, the Majority Investors and (if an amendment) each Originator, and then any such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given. No Originator may amend or otherwise modify any other Transaction Document executed by it without the written consent of Transferee, Agent and the Majority Investors.

SECTION 8.2 No Waiver; Remedies. No failure on the part of the Transferee or any Originator Indemnified Party to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right, power or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or remedy hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy. After the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, Transferee (or Agent as assignee of Transferee's rights hereunder) shall have, in addition to all other rights and remedies under this Agreement, any other Transaction Document or otherwise, all other rights and remedies provided under the UCC of each applicable jurisdiction and other Applicable Laws (including all the rights and remedies of a secured party upon default under the UCC (including the right to sell any or all of the Receivables and Related Rights)). The rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law. Each Originator hereby acknowledges and agrees that specific remedies have been granted to the Agent and certain other parties the Receivables Purchase Agreement and such Originator shall not object to the exercise thereof and no Originator shall have any right or claim against any party as a result of such exercise. Without limiting the foregoing, DZ BANK, individually and as Agent, each Investor and each other Investor Party, and any of their Affiliates (the "Set-off Parties") are each hereby authorized by each of the parties hereto, at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) at any time held by and other indebtedness at any time owing to any such Set-off Party to or for the credit to the account of the parties hereto, against all obligations of the Originators, now or hereafter existing under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document (other than in respect of any repayment of the Aggregate Capital or Interest by Transferee pursuant to the Receivables Purchase Agreement), to any Affected Person, any Indemnified Party or any other Affected Person.

SECTION 8.3 Notices, Etc. All notices and other communications provided for hereunder shall, unless otherwise stated herein, be in writing (including facsimile communication and electronic mail) and faxed or delivered to each party hereto, at its address set forth in Annex 2 or at such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice to the other parties hereto. All such notices and communications shall be effective, (a) if personally delivered or sent by express mail, courier or certified mail, when received, and (b) if transmitted by facsimile or electronic mail, when sent. Any obligation of any Audacy Party to provide notices or other information to an Investor Party shall be deemed satisfied once such notice or information is provided to the relevant Investor Party by any Audacy Party.

SECTION 8.4 Binding Effect; Assignment. Each Originator acknowledges that institutions providing financing (by way of loans or purchases of Receivables or interests therein) pursuant to the Receivables Purchase Agreement may rely upon the terms of this Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns and shall also, to the extent provided herein, inure to the benefit of the parties to the Receivables Purchase Agreement. Each Originator acknowledges that Transferee's rights under this Agreement may be assigned to DZ BANK or an Investor under the Receivables Purchase Agreement, consents to such assignment and to the exercise of those rights directly by DZ BANK or an Investor to the extent permitted by the Receivables Purchase Agreement and acknowledges and agrees that DZ BANK, individually and as Agent, the Investors and the other Affected Persons and each of their respective successors and permitted assigns are express third party beneficiaries of this Agreement.

SECTION 8.5 Survival. The rights and remedies with respect to any breach of any representation and warranty made by any Originator or Transferee pursuant to Section 3.2, Article IV, the indemnification provisions of Article VII, and the provisions of Sections 8.4, 8.5, 8.6, 8.8, 8.9, 8.10, 8.11, 8.12 and 8.14 shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

SECTION 8.6 Costs and Expenses. In addition to its obligations under Section 7, each Originator agrees to pay on demand:

(a) all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery and administration of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents (together with all amendments, restatements, supplements, consents and waivers, if any, from time to time hereto and thereto), including, without limitation, (i) the reasonable Attorney Costs for the Agent and the other Secured Parties and any of their respective Affiliates with respect thereto and with respect to advising the Agent and the other Secured Parties and their respective Affiliates as to their rights and remedies under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and (ii) reasonable accountants', auditors' and consultants' fees and expenses for the Agent and the other Secured Parties and any of their respective Affiliates and the fees and charges of any nationally recognized statistical rating agency incurred in connection with the administration and maintenance of this Agreement or advising the Agent or any other Secured Party as to their rights and remedies under this Agreement or as to any actual or reasonably claimed breach of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document; and

(b) all out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including Attorney Costs), of the Agent and the other Secured Parties and their respective Affiliates, incurred in connection with the enforcement of any of their respective rights or remedies under the provisions of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents.

SECTION 8.7 Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which when taken together shall constitute one and the same Agreement. Delivery of an executed signature page of this Agreement by facsimile transmission, emailed pdf. or any other electronic means that reproduces an image of the actual executed signature page shall be effective as delivery of an original executed counterpart hereof. The words "execution," "signed," "signature," and words of like import in this Agreement shall be deemed to include electronic signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

SECTION 8.8 Governing Law. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (INCLUDING SECTIONS 5-1401 AND 5-1402 OF THE NEW YORK GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAW, BUT WITHOUT REGARD TO ANY OTHER CONFLICTS OF LAW PROVISIONS THEREOF, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THAT THE PERFECTION, EFFECT OF PERFECTION OR PRIORITY OF THE INTERESTS OF TRANSFEREE IN THE RECEIVABLES OR RELATED RIGHTS IS GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF A JURISDICTION OTHER THAN THE STATE OF NEW YORK).

SECTION 8.9 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING TO ENFORCE OR DEFEND ANY RIGHTS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, ANY OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENT OR UNDER ANY AMENDMENT, INSTRUMENT OR DOCUMENT DELIVERED OR WHICH MAY IN THE FUTURE BE DELIVERED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH OR ARISING FROM ANY BANKING OR OTHER RELATIONSHIP EXISTING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENT AND AGREES THAT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE TRIED BEFORE A COURT AND NOT A JURY.

SECTION 8.10 Consent to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Immunities. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT:

(a) IT IRREVOCABLY (i) SUBMITS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION, FIRST, OF ANY UNITED STATES FEDERAL COURT, AND SECOND, IF FEDERAL JURISDICTION IS NOT AVAILABLE, OF ANY NEW YORK STATE COURT, IN EITHER CASE SITTING IN NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENT, (ii) AGREES THAT ALL CLAIMS IN RESPECT OF SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING MAY BE HEARD AND DETERMINED ONLY IN SUCH NEW YORK STATE OR FEDERAL COURT AND NOT IN ANY OTHER COURT, AND (iii) WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT IT MAY EFFECTIVELY DO SO, THE DEFENSE OF AN INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING.

(b) TO THE EXTENT THAT IT HAS OR HEREAFTER MAY ACQUIRE ANY IMMUNITY FROM THE JURISDICTION OF ANY COURT OR FROM ANY LEGAL PROCESS (WHETHER THROUGH SERVICE OR NOTICE, ATTACHMENT PRIOR TO JUDGMENT, ATTACHMENT IN AID TO EXECUTION, EXECUTION OR OTHERWISE) WITH RESPECT TO ITSELF OR ITS PROPERTY, IT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES SUCH IMMUNITY IN RESPECT OF ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT.

SECTION 8.11 Confidentiality. Each party hereto agrees to comply with, and be bound by, the confidentiality provisions of Section 13.06 of the Receivables Purchase Agreement as if they were set forth herein mutatis mutandis.

SECTION 8.12 No Proceedings. Each Originator agrees, for the benefit of the parties to the Receivables Purchase Agreement, that it will not institute against Transferee, or join any other Person in instituting against Transferee, any proceeding of a type referred to in the definition of Event of Bankruptcy from the Closing Date until one year and one day after the Final Payout Date. In addition, all amounts payable by Transferee to any Originator pursuant to this Agreement shall be payable solely from funds available for that purpose (after Transferee has satisfied all obligations then due and owing under the Receivables Purchase Agreement).

SECTION 8.13 No Recourse Against Other Parties. No recourse under any obligation, covenant or agreement of Transferee contained in this Agreement shall be had against any stockholder, employee, officer, director, member, manager incorporator or organizer of Transferee.

SECTION 8.14 Grant of Security Interest. It is the intention of the parties to this Agreement that the conveyance of such Originator's right, title and interest in and to the Receivables, the Related Rights and all the proceeds of all of the foregoing to Transferee pursuant to this Agreement shall constitute an absolute and irrevocable purchase and sale and not a loan or pledge. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Originator does hereby grant to Transferee a security interest to secure such Originator's obligations hereunder in all of such Originator's now or hereafter existing right, title and interest in, to and under the Receivables, the Related Rights and all the proceeds of all of the foregoing and the parties hereto agree that this Agreement shall constitute a security agreement under Applicable Law. Such security interest is granted in order to provide that, in the event that the conveyance by any Originator to the Transferee is characterized as a secured loan rather than a sale, contrary to the mutual intent of the parties, the Transferee receives a substantially equivalent benefit.

SECTION 8.15 Binding Terms in Other Transaction Documents. Each Originator hereby makes for the benefit of Program Support Provider, Agent, each Investor, each other Secured Party, each of the representations, warranties, covenants, and agreements, and accepts all other binding terms, including the waiver of any rights, which are made applicable to such Originator in any other Transaction Document by the express terms thereof, each as if the same (together with any provisions incorporated therein by reference) were set forth in full herein.

SECTION 8.16 Severability. Any provisions of this Agreement which are prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

[SIGNATURE PAGES FOLLOW]

SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED SALE AND CONTRIBUTION AGREEMENT

THIS SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED SALE AND CONTRIBUTION AGREEMENT dated as of [__], 2024 (this "Agreement") is among AUDACY OPERATIONS, INC., a Delaware corporation ("Audacy Operations"), as initial servicer (in such capacity, the "Servicer"), AUDACY NEW YORK, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Transferor") and AUDACY RECEIVABLES, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Transferee").

This Agreement amends and restates in its entirety, as of the date hereof, that certain Sale and Contribution Agreement, dated as of January 9, 2024 (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified through the date hereof, the "Prior SCA"). Upon the effectiveness of this Agreement and the Receivables Purchase Agreement (as defined below) in accordance with their terms, the terms and provisions of the Prior SCA shall, subject to this paragraph, be superseded and replaced by the terms and provisions of this Agreement in their entirety. Notwithstanding the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, (a) all indemnification obligations, obligations to pay costs and expenses and other obligations of the Transferor under the Prior SCA shall survive the amendment and restatement of the Prior SCA and nothing contained in this amendment and restatement shall constitute payment of, or impair or limit cancel or extinguish, or constitute a novation in respect of, any of such obligations, liabilities or indemnifications evidenced by or arising under the Prior SCA, (b) all sales of Receivables and Related Rights under the Prior SCA by the Transferor to the Transferee are hereby ratified and confirmed and shall survive the amendment and restatement of the Prior SCA and (c) the liens and security interests granted by the Transferor pursuant to Section 8.14 of the Prior SCA shall not in any manner be impaired, limited or terminated and shall remain in full force and effect and shall survive the Prior SCA as security for all obligations of the Transferor under the Prior SCA and all obligations of Originator under this Agreement. Upon the effectiveness of this Agreement, each reference to the Prior SCA in any other document, instrument or agreement shall mean and be a reference to this Agreement. Nothing contained herein, unless expressly herein stated to the contrary, is intended to amend, modify or otherwise affect any other instrument, document or agreement executed and or delivered in connection with the Prior SCA. For good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS AND RELATED MATTERS

SECTION 1.1 Defined Terms. In this Agreement, unless otherwise specified: (a) capitalized terms are used as defined in (or by reference in) Article I of the Second Amended and Restated Receivables Purchase Agreement dated as of the date hereof (as amended, restated, modified or otherwise supplemented from time to time, the "Receivables Purchase Agreement") among Transferee, as Seller, Audacy Operations, as Servicer, the investors party thereto from time to time, and DZ Bank AG Deutsche Zentral-Genossenschaftsbank, Frankfurt Am Main ("DZ Bank"), as Agent, and (b) as used in this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms have the meanings indicated below:

"Records" means all Contracts and other documents, instruments, books, records, purchase orders, agreements, reports and other information (including computer programs, tapes, disks, other information storage media, data processing software and related property and rights) prepared or maintained by any Audacy Party with respect to, or that evidence or relate to, the Pool Receivables, the Related Rights, any other Support Assets, the Obligors of such Pool Receivables or the origination, collection or servicing of any of the foregoing.

"Related Rights" means (a) all rights to, but not any obligations under, all Related Security with respect to the Receivables, (b) all Records (but excluding any obligations or liabilities under the Contracts), (c) all Collections in respect of, and other proceeds of, the Receivables or any other Related Security and (d) all products and proceeds of any of the foregoing.

"Sale Termination Date" means, with respect to the Transferor, the date that Receivables and Related Rights cease being sold or contributed, as applicable, to the Transferee under this Agreement pursuant to Article VI of this Agreement.

"Sale Termination Event" means the occurrence of any of the following events or occurrences with respect to the Transferor:

(a) the Transferor shall fail to make when due any payment or deposit or transfer any monies to be made by it under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document as and when due and such failure is not remedied within three (3) Business Days;

(b) any representation or warranty made or deemed to be made by the Transferor under this Agreement or any other Transaction Documents to which it is a party shall prove to have been incorrect or untrue in any material respect when made or deemed made unless such representation or warranty, if capable of being cured, is cured within fifteen (15) days after (i) a Responsible Officer of the Transferor has knowledge thereof or (ii) the Transferor receives notice thereof, whichever occurs earlier; provided that any representation made or deemed made with respect to any Pool Receivable that shall prove to have been incorrect or untrue in any material respect when made or deemed made shall not cause a Sale Termination Event hereunder if, after excluding such Pool Receivable from the Net Eligible Receivables Balance, no Capital Coverage Deficit exists, or, to the extent such Capital Coverage Deficit exists, it is cured within two (2) Business Days;

(c) the Transferor shall fail to perform or observe in any material respect, any other term, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement or any other Transaction Document to which it is a party and such failure, solely to the extent capable of cure, shall continue unremedied for 30 days after (1) a Responsible Officer of the Transferor has knowledge thereof or (2) the Transferor receives notice thereof, whichever occurs earlier. For avoidance of doubt, the covenants contained in Section 5.3 (Negative Covenants) shall not be deemed incapable of cure solely due to being negative covenants; or

(d) an Event of Bankruptcy shall have occurred with respect to the Transferor.

SECTION 1.2 Other Interpretive Matters. The interpretation of this Agreement, unless otherwise specified, is subject to Section 1.02 of the Receivables Purchase Agreement.

ARTICLE II
AGREEMENT TO PURCHASE, SELL AND CONTRIBUTE

SECTION 2.1 Purchase, Sale and Contribution. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Transferor hereby sells or contributes, as applicable, to the Transferee, and the Transferee hereby purchases or acquires from the Transferor, as applicable, all of the Transferor's right, title and interest in, to and under the Receivables and the Related Rights, in each case whether now existing or hereafter arising, acquired or originated.

SECTION 2.2 Timing of Purchases. All of the Receivables and the Related Rights existing immediately after the opening of the Transferor's business on the Closing Date (including each Receivable and Related Right sold, or purportedly sold, to the Transferor by the Originators pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreement) are hereby sold or contributed, as applicable, to the Transferee on such date in accordance with the terms hereof. On and after the Closing Date until the Sale Termination Date, each Receivable and Related Right (including each Receivable and Related Right sold, or purportedly sold, to the Transferor by the Originators pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreement) shall be deemed to have been sold or contributed to the Transferee immediately (and without further action by any Person) upon the creation or acquisition of such Receivable by the Transferor. In respect of (i) purchases on the Closing Date, the Transferee shall pay the Transferor the applicable cash Purchase Price for the Receivables and the Related Rights within two (2) Business Days after the Closing Date in immediately available funds and (ii) purchases of Receivables originated on or after the Closing Date and the Related Rights, the Transferee shall pay the Transferor the applicable cash Purchase Price on such day; provided, however, in the case of clause (i) and clause (ii), to the extent that the Transferee does not have funds available to pay the Purchase Price due on any day in cash, the Transferor shall contribute to the Transferee the Receivables and Related Rights (or portions thereof) allocable to the unpaid portion of the Purchase Price as provided in Section 2.3(d) below. The Related Rights with respect to each Receivable shall be sold or contributed at the same time as such Receivable, whether such Related Rights exist at such time or arise, are acquired or are originated thereafter.

SECTION 2.3 Purchase Price. (a) The purchase price ("Purchase Price") for the Receivables and the Related Rights shall equal the fair market value of the Receivables and the Related Rights as agreed by the Transferor and the Transferee at the time of purchase or acquisition. The Purchase Price shall not be adjusted or modified after the applicable purchase date.

(b) On the Closing Date, the Transferor shall contribute Receivables and the Related Rights to the Transferee as a capital contribution.

(c) The Transferee shall pay the Transferor the Purchase Price with respect to each non-contributed Receivable and the Related Rights purchased from the Transferor on the date of purchase thereof as set forth above by transfer of funds, to the extent that the Transferee has funds available for that purpose after satisfying the Transferee's obligations under the Receivables Purchase Agreement and such payment is not prohibited under the Transaction Documents.

(d) To the extent the Transferee does not have funds available to pay the Purchase Price due on any day in cash, the Transferor shall treat the Receivables and Related Rights (or portions thereof) allocable to the unpaid portion of the Purchase Price as having been irrevocably transferred by the Transferor to the Transferee as a capital contribution in return for an increase in the value of the Transferor's interest in the Capital Stock of the Transferee. Any such capital contribution of Receivables and Related Rights by the Transferor to the Transferee shall occur automatically without further action or notice by any Person. The Transferor may also, at its option in its sole discretion, contribute cash to the Transferee in return for an increase in the value of the Transferor's interest in the Capital Stock of the Transferee. The Transferee shall, and hereby does, accept all such capital contributions of Receivables, Related Rights and cash made by the Transferor from time to time, and no further notice or acceptance of any such capital contribution shall be necessary. The Transferor and the Transferee (or the Servicer on their behalf) shall each record on its respective books and records any capital contribution made by the Transferor to the Transferee promptly following its occurrence; provided that no failure to make or maintain such records or any inaccuracy therein shall derogate from the Transferee's and its assigns' right, title or interest in the Receivables, Related Rights or cash contributed by the Transferee to the Transferor.

(e) The parties hereto hereby acknowledge and agree that the Transferor has received payment in full of the aggregate Purchase Price due from the Transferee under the Prior SCA for all sales of Receivables and Related Rights occurring thereunder prior to the date hereof in accordance with the terms of the Prior SCA.

SECTION 2.4 No Recourse or Assumption of Obligations. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, the purchase and sale or contribution, as applicable, of Receivables and Related Rights under this Agreement shall be without recourse to the Transferor. It is the express intent of the Transferor and the Transferee that each conveyance by the Transferor to the Transferee pursuant to this Agreement of the Receivables and the Related Rights, including without limitation, all Receivables, if any, constituting general intangibles as defined in the UCC, and all Related Rights be construed as an absolute, irrevocable, valid and perfected sale (or contribution) and absolute assignment (without recourse except as provided herein) of such Receivables and Related Rights by the Transferor to the Transferee (rather than the grant of a security interest to secure a debt or other obligation of the Transferor), providing the Transferee with the full risks and benefits of ownership of the Receivables and Related Rights (such that the Receivables and the Related Rights would not be property of the Transferor's estate in the event of the Transferor's bankruptcy) and that the right, title and interest in and to such Receivables and Related Rights conveyed to the Transferee be prior to the rights of and enforceable against all other Persons at any time, including, without limitation, lien creditors, secured lenders, investors and any Person claiming through the Transferor, and intend to treat each such conveyance as a "true sale" or "true contribution", as applicable, for all purposes under applicable law and accounting principles.

None of the Transferee, the Agent, the Investors or the other Affected Persons shall have any obligation or liability under any Receivables or Related Rights, nor shall the Transferee, the Agent, any Investor or the other Affected Persons have any obligation or liability to any Obligor or other customer or client of the Transferor (including any obligation to perform any of the obligations of the Transferor under any Receivables or Related Rights).

ARTICLE III
ADMINISTRATION AND COLLECTION

SECTION 3.1 Audacy Operations to Act as Servicer, Contracts. (a) Audacy Operations shall be responsible for the servicing, administration and collection of the Receivables and the Related Rights for the benefit of the Transferee and for the benefit of the Agent (as the Transferee's assignee) on behalf of the Investors, all on the terms set out in (and subject to any rights to terminate Audacy Operations as Servicer and appoint a successor Servicer pursuant to) the Receivables Purchase Agreement.

(b) The Transferor shall cooperate with the Transferee and the Servicer in collecting amounts due from Obligors in respect of the Receivables.

(c) The Transferee and the Transferor hereby grant to the Servicer an irrevocable power of attorney, with full power of substitution, coupled with an interest, to take or cause to be taken in the name of the Transferee or the Transferor, as the case may be, any and all steps which are necessary or advisable to endorse, negotiate, enforce, or otherwise realize on any checks, instruments or other proceeds of the Receivables or other right of any kind held or transmitted by the Transferee (whether or not from the Transferor) or the Transferor or transmitted or received by the Transferee or the Transferor in connection with any Receivable and any Related Rights (including under the related Records).

(d) The Transferor hereby grants to the Transferee and to the Agent, as assignee of the Transferee, an irrevocable power of attorney, with full power of substitution, coupled with an interest, to take or cause to be taken in the name of the Transferee or the Transferor, as the case may be, any and all steps which are necessary or advisable to endorse, negotiate, enforce, or otherwise realize on any checks, instruments or other proceeds of the Receivables or other right of any kind held or transmitted by the Transferee or the Transferor or transmitted or received by the Transferee or the Transferor in connection with any Receivable and any Related Rights (including under the related Records).

(e) The Transferor shall perform all of its obligations under the Records to the same extent as if the Receivables had not been sold or contributed, as applicable, hereunder and the exercise by each of the Transferee, the Servicer, the Agent or any of their respective designees of its rights hereunder or under the Receivables Purchase Agreement shall not relieve the Transferor from such obligations.

SECTION 3.2 Deemed Collections. (a) If on any day:

(i) the Unpaid Balance of any Receivable originated by the Transferor is: (A) reduced as a result of any defective or rejected goods or services, any discount, dispute, refunds, netting, rebates or any adjustment or otherwise by any Audacy Party or any Affiliate thereof (other than cash Collections on account of the Receivables), (B) reduced as a result of converting such Receivable to an Excluded Receivable, (C) reduced as a result of applying any Deposit Balance or (D) reduced or canceled as a result of a setoff in respect of any claim by any Person (whether such claim arises out of the same or a related transaction or an unrelated transaction) or any netting by any Person; or

(ii) any of the representations or warranties of the Transferor set forth in any of Sections 4.1(i), 4.1(k), 4.1(n), 4.1(q) or 4.1(s), is not true with respect to any Receivable at the time made or deemed made;

then, on such day, the Transferor shall be deemed to have received a Collection of such Receivable:

(1) in the case of clause (i) above, in the amount of such reduction or adjustment; or

(2) in the case of clause (ii) above, in the amount of the entire Unpaid Balance of the relevant Receivable (as determined immediately prior to the applicable event) with respect to which such representations or warranties of the Transferor were untrue.

Collections deemed received by the Transferor under this Section 3.2(a) are herein referred to as "Deemed Collections".

(b) The Transferor shall transfer to the Collection Account immediately available funds within two (2) Business Days after the event giving rise to such Deemed Collection, an amount equal to (x) if such reduction, adjustment or breach occurs prior to the Termination Date and no Event of Default or Accelerated Amortization Event has occurred and is continuing, the lesser of (I) the sum of all Deemed Collections with respect to such reduction, adjustment or breach and (II) an amount necessary to eliminate any Capital Coverage Deficit that exists at such time and (y) if such reduction, adjustment or breach occurs on or after the Termination Date or at any time when an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the sum of all Deemed Collections with respect to such reduction, adjustment or breach.

SECTION 3.3 Actions Evidencing Purchases. (a) On or prior to the Closing Date, the Transferor (or the Servicer, on behalf of the Transferor) shall take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that there shall be placed on each data processing report that it generates that is provided to a proposed investor or lender to evaluate the Receivables, a legend evidencing that the Pool Receivables have been transferred to the Transferee in accordance with this Agreement and neither the Transferor nor the Servicer shall change or remove such legend without the consent of the Transferee and the Agent, as its assignee (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld). In addition, the Transferor agrees that from time to time, at its expense, it will promptly execute and deliver all further instruments and documents, and take all further action that the Transferee or the Agent, as its assignee, may reasonably request in order to perfect, protect or more fully evidence the purchases, sales and contributions hereunder, or to enable the Transferee or the Agent, as its assignee, to exercise or enforce any of their respective rights with respect to the Receivables and the Related Rights. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Transferor will upon the request of the Transferee or its designee: (i) authorize and file such financing or continuation statements, or amendments thereto or assignments thereof, and such other instruments or notices, as may be necessary or appropriate to perfect the interests of the Transferee and the Agent, as its assignee, in the Receivables and the Related Rights; and (ii) upon and after the occurrence of an Event of Default, mark conspicuously each Contract (or the Transferor's records with respect to such Contract) relating to each Receivable with a legend, reasonably acceptable to the Transferee and the Agent, as its assignee, evidencing that the related Receivables have been sold or contributed in accordance with this Agreement.

(b) The Transferor hereby authorizes the Transferee or its designee (i) to file in the name of the Transferor one or more financing statements, and amendments thereto, continuations thereof and assignments thereof, relative to all or any of the Receivables and the Related Rights now existing or hereafter arising and (ii) to the extent permitted by the Receivables Purchase Agreement, to notify Obligors of the assignment of the Receivables and the Related Rights.

(c) Without limiting the generality of subsection (a), the Transferor shall authorize and deliver and file or cause to be filed appropriate continuation statements, not earlier than six months and not later than the fifth anniversary of the date of filing of the financing statements filed in connection with the Closing Date or any other financing statement filed pursuant to this Agreement, if the Final Payout Date shall not have occurred.

SECTION 3.4 Application of Collections. Except as provided in Section 3.01(e)(i) or (ii) of the Receivables Purchase Agreement or otherwise required by Applicable Law or the relevant Contract, all Collections received from an Obligor of any Receivable shall be applied to the Receivables of such Obligor designated by such Obligor for application of such payment; provided, that if such Obligor has not designated the Receivable to which such payment shall be applied, the Servicer shall ask such Obligor to designate the Receivable to which it shall be applied and shall hold such Collections separately for the account of such Obligor until such Obligor designates the Receivable(s) to which such payment shall be applied; provided, further, that if the manner of application of any such payment is not specified by the related Obligor in accordance with the preceding sentence and is not required by Applicable Law or by the underlying Contract, and Servicer determines to apply such payment, then Servicer shall apply such payment, unless the Transferee instructs otherwise, be applied: first, as a Collection of any Receivable or Receivables then outstanding of such Obligor, with such Receivables being paid in the order of the oldest first, and, second, to any other indebtedness of such Obligor.

ARTICLE IV
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

SECTION 4.1 Representations and Warranties. The Transferor represents and warrants to the Transferee and, solely with respect to clause (h) below, the Transferee represents and warrants to the Transferor, as of the Closing Date and as of each date in which a purchase and sale or contribution, as applicable, is made hereunder, as follows:

(a) Organization and Good Standing. It is duly organized and validly existing in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization and has full power and authority under its Organizational Documents and under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization to own its properties and to conduct its business as such properties are currently owned and such business is presently conducted.

(b) Due Qualification. It is duly qualified to do business, is in good standing as a foreign entity and has obtained all necessary licenses and approvals in all jurisdictions in which the conduct of its business requires such qualification, licenses or approvals, except where the failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(c) Power and Authority; Due Authorization. (i) It has all necessary power and authority to (A) execute and deliver this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party, (B) perform its obligations under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party and (C) sell, assign or contribute the Receivables and the Related Rights on the terms and conditions herein provided and (ii) the execution, delivery and performance of, and the consummation of the transactions provided for in, this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party have been duly authorized by it by all necessary limited liability company action.

(d) Binding Obligations. This Agreement and each of the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party constitutes its legal, valid and binding obligations, enforceable against it in accordance with their respective terms, except (i) as such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and (ii) as such enforceability may be limited by general principles of equity, regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law.

(e) No Conflict or Violation. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and each other Transaction Document to which it is a party, the performance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and the fulfillment of the terms of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents by it will not (i) conflict with, result in any breach of any of the terms or provisions of, or constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, its Organizational Documents or any material indenture, sale agreement, credit agreement, loan agreement, security agreement, mortgage, deed of trust or other agreement or instrument to which it is a party or by which it or any of its property is bound, (ii) result in the creation or imposition of any Adverse Claim upon any of its properties pursuant to the terms of any such material indenture, credit agreement, loan agreement, security agreement, mortgage, deed of trust or other agreement or instrument, other than this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents or (iii) conflict with or violate any Applicable Law, except to the extent that any such conflict or violation, as applicable, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(f) Litigation and Other Proceedings. There is no action, suit, proceeding or investigation pending or, to the knowledge of the Transferor, threatened, against the Transferor before any Governmental Authority: (A) asserting the invalidity of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, (B) seeking to prevent the sale, assignment or contribution, as applicable, of any Receivables and Related Rights, the ownership or acquisition by the Transferee of any Receivable or Related Rights or the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, (C) seeking any determination or ruling that would materially and adversely affect the performance by the Transferor of its obligations under, or the validity or enforceability of, this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or (D) individually or in the aggregate for all such actions, suits, proceedings and investigations would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(g) Governmental Approvals. Except where the failure to obtain or make such authorization, consent, order, approval or action would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, all authorizations, consents, orders and approvals of, or other actions by, any Governmental Authority that are required to be obtained by the Transferor in connection with the sale, assignment or contribution, as applicable, of any Receivables and Related Rights hereunder or the due execution, delivery and performance by the Transferor of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document to which it is a party and the consummation by the Transferor of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party have been obtained or made and are in full force and effect.

(h) Ordinary Course of Business. Each remittance of Collections on the Receivables transferred by the Transferor to the Transferee under this Agreement or pursuant to the other Transaction Documents will have been (i) in payment of an obligation incurred by such Person in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of such Person and (ii) made in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of such Person.

(i) Valid Sale. This Agreement confers a valid sale, transfer and assignment or contribution, as applicable, of the Receivables originated or acquired by the Transferor and the Related Rights to the Transferee, or alternatively the granting of a valid security interest in the Receivables and the Related Rights to the Transferee, enforceable against creditors of, and purchasers from the Transferor.

(j) Margin Regulations. The Transferor is not engaged, principally or as one of its important activities, in the business of extending credit for the purpose of purchasing or carrying margin stock (within the meaning of Regulation U of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System).

(k) Quality of Title. Prior to its sale or contribution to the Transferee hereunder, each Receivable originated or acquired by the Transferor, together with the Related Rights, is owned by the Transferor free and clear of any Adverse Claim. When the Transferee purchases or acquires by contribution such Receivable and Related Rights and all Collections and proceeds if any of the foregoing, the Transferee shall have acquired legal and equitable title to such Receivable, for fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value (and the Transferor represents and warrants that it has taken all steps under the UCC necessary to perfect the transfer of such ownership interest in such assets), free and clear of any Adverse Claim; and no financing statement or other instrument similar in effect covering any Receivable sold or contributed hereunder, any interest therein, and the Related Rights is on file in any recording office, except such as may be filed (i) in favor of the Transferee (and assigned to the Agent) or (ii) in favor of the Agent in accordance with the Receivables Purchase Agreement.

(l) Accuracy of Information. All Monthly Reports, Daily Reports, certificates, reports, statements, documents and other information furnished by or on behalf of the Transferor or its Affiliates to the Transferee, the Agent or any other Investor Party in connection with this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, or in connection with or pursuant to any amendment or modification of, or waiver under, this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, is, at the time the same was so furnished, complete and correct in all material respects on the date the same are furnished to the Transferee, the Agent or such other Investor Party, and does not contain any material misstatement of fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances under which they were made; provided, however, that Monthly Reports and Daily Reports shall only be required to contain information with respect to Wide Orbit Receivables and all calculations and other information included in any Monthly Report or Daily Report may be calculated and determined as if Receivables other than Wide Orbit Receivables are not Receivables hereunder.

(m) UCC Details. The Transferor's true legal name as registered in the sole jurisdiction in which it is organized, the jurisdiction of such organization, its organizational identification number, if any, as designated by the jurisdiction of its organization, its federal employer identification number, if any, and the location of its chief executive office and principal place of business and the offices where the Transferor keeps all its Records are specified in Annex 1. Except as described in Annex 1, the Transferor has no, and within the last five years, has not had any, trade names, fictitious names, assumed names or "doing business as" names and the Transferor has not, within the last five years, changed the location of its chief executive office or its true legal name, identity or corporate structure. The Transferor is organized only in a single jurisdiction.

(n) Perfection Representations.

(i) This Agreement creates a valid and continuing security interest (as defined in the applicable UCC) in the Transferee's right, title and interest in, to and under the Receivables and Related Rights, free of all Adverse Claims in such Receivables and Related Rights.

(ii) The Receivables constitute "accounts" or "general intangibles" within the meaning of Section 9-102 of the UCC.

(iii) All appropriate financing statements, financing statement amendments and continuation statements have been filed in the proper filing office in the appropriate jurisdictions under Applicable Law and all other requirements under the appropriate jurisdictions under Applicable Law have been complied with in order to perfect (and continue the perfection of) the sale and contribution of the Receivables and Related Security from the Transferor to the Transferee pursuant to this Agreement.

(iv) Other than the ownership interest granted to the Transferee pursuant to this Agreement, the Transferor has not pledged, assigned, sold, granted a security interest in, or otherwise conveyed any of the Receivables or Related Rights except as permitted by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents. The Transferor has not authorized the filing of and is not aware of any financing statements filed against itself that include a description of collateral covering the Support Assets other than any financing statement (i) in favor of the Agent or (ii) that has been terminated or will be terminated on the Closing Date. The Transferor is not aware of any judgment lien, ERISA lien or tax lien filings against itself, other than Permitted Liens.

(o) Taxes. Except as would not reasonably be expected to result, individually or in the aggregate, in a Material Adverse Effect, the Transferor has (i) timely filed all Tax returns (federal, state and local) required to be filed by it and (ii) paid, or caused to be paid, all Taxes, if any, that are required to be paid by it and are due and payable, other than Taxes being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and as to which adequate reserves have been provided in accordance with GAAP.

(p) Servicing Programs. No license or approval is required for the Servicer's or the Transferee's use of any software or other computer program used by the Transferor in the servicing of the Receivables, other than those which have been obtained and are in full force and effect.

(q) Credit and Collection Policy. The Transferor has complied in all material respects with the Credit and Collection Policy with regard to the Receivables and the related Contracts.

(r) Compliance with Applicable Law. The Transferor has complied in all material respects with all Applicable Laws in connection with originating or acquiring the Receivables.

(s) Eligible Receivables. Each Receivable shall be an Eligible Receivable on the date of the sale or contribution of such Receivable hereunder, unless otherwise specified in the first Monthly Report or Daily Report that includes such Receivable.

(t) Financial Condition. The Transferor acknowledges that institutions providing financing (by way of loans or purchases of Receivables or interests therein) pursuant to the Receivables Purchase Agreement may rely upon the terms of this Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns and shall also, to the extent provided herein, inure to the benefit of the parties to the Receivables Purchase Agreement. The Transferor acknowledges that Transferee's rights under this Agreement may be assigned to DZ Bank or an Investor under the Receivables Purchase Agreement, consents to such assignment and to the exercise of those rights directly by DZ Bank or an Investor to the extent permitted by the Receivables Purchase Agreement and acknowledges and agrees that DZ Bank, individually and as Agent, the Investors and the other Affected Persons and each of their respective successors and permitted assigns are express third party beneficiaries of this Agreement.

SECTION 8.5 Survival. The rights and remedies with respect to any breach of any representation and warranty made by the Transferor or Transferee pursuant to Section 3.2, Article IV, the indemnification provisions of Article VII, and the provisions of Sections 8.4, 8.5, 8.6, 8.8, 8.9, 8.10, 8.11, 8.12 and 8.14 shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

SECTION 8.6 Costs and Expenses. In addition to its obligations under Section 7, the Transferor agrees to pay on demand:

(a) all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery and administration of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents (together with all amendments, restatements, supplements, consents and waivers, if any, from time to time hereto and thereto), including, without limitation, (i) the reasonable Attorney Costs for the Agent and the other Secured Parties and any of their respective Affiliates with respect thereto and with respect to advising the Agent and the other Secured Parties and their respective Affiliates as to their rights and remedies under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and (ii) reasonable accountants', auditors' and consultants' fees and expenses for the Agent and the other Secured Parties and any of their respective Affiliates and the fees and charges of any nationally recognized statistical rating agency incurred in connection with the administration and maintenance of this Agreement or advising the Agent or any other Secured Party as to their rights and remedies under this Agreement or as to any actual or reasonably claimed breach of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document; and

(b) all out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including Attorney Costs), of the Agent and the other Secured Parties and their respective Affiliates, incurred in connection with the enforcement of any of their respective rights or remedies under the provisions of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents.

SECTION 8.7 Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which when taken together shall constitute one and the same Agreement. Delivery of an executed signature page of this Agreement by facsimile transmission, emailed pdf. or any other electronic means that reproduces an image of the actual executed signature page shall be effective as delivery of an original executed counterpart hereof. The words "execution," "signed," "signature," and words of like import in this Agreement shall be deemed to include electronic signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

SECTION 8.8 Governing Law. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (INCLUDING SECTIONS 5-1401 AND 5-1402 OF THE NEW YORK GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAW, BUT WITHOUT REGARD TO ANY OTHER CONFLICTS OF LAW PROVISIONS THEREOF, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THAT THE PERFECTION, EFFECT OF PERFECTION OR PRIORITY OF THE INTERESTS OF TRANSFEREE IN THE RECEIVABLES OR RELATED RIGHTS IS GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF A JURISDICTION OTHER THAN THE STATE OF NEW YORK).

SECTION 8.9 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING TO ENFORCE OR DEFEND ANY RIGHTS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, ANY OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENT OR UNDER ANY AMENDMENT, INSTRUMENT OR DOCUMENT DELIVERED OR WHICH MAY IN THE FUTURE BE DELIVERED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH OR ARISING FROM ANY BANKING OR OTHER RELATIONSHIP EXISTING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENT AND AGREES THAT ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE TRIED BEFORE A COURT AND NOT A JURY.

SECTION 8.10 Consent to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Immunities. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT:

(a) IT IRREVOCABLY (i) SUBMITS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION, FIRST, OF ANY UNITED STATES FEDERAL COURT, AND SECOND, IF FEDERAL JURISDICTION IS NOT AVAILABLE, OF ANY NEW YORK STATE COURT, IN EITHER CASE SITTING IN NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENT, (ii) AGREES THAT ALL CLAIMS IN RESPECT OF SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING MAY BE HEARD AND DETERMINED ONLY IN SUCH NEW YORK STATE OR FEDERAL COURT AND NOT IN ANY OTHER COURT, AND (iii) WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT IT MAY EFFECTIVELY DO SO, THE DEFENSE OF AN INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING.

(b) TO THE EXTENT THAT IT HAS OR HEREAFTER MAY ACQUIRE ANY IMMUNITY FROM THE JURISDICTION OF ANY COURT OR FROM ANY LEGAL PROCESS (WHETHER THROUGH SERVICE OR NOTICE, ATTACHMENT

PRIOR TO JUDGMENT, ATTACHMENT IN AID TO EXECUTION, EXECUTION OR OTHERWISE) WITH RESPECT TO ITSELF OR ITS PROPERTY, IT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES SUCH IMMUNITY IN RESPECT OF ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT.

SECTION 8.11 Confidentiality. Each party hereto agrees to comply with, and be bound by, the confidentiality provisions of Section 13.06 of the Receivables Purchase Agreement as if they were set forth herein mutatis mutandis.

SECTION 8.12 No Proceedings. The Transferor agrees, for the benefit of the parties to the Receivables Purchase Agreement, that it will not institute against Transferee, or join any other Person in instituting against Transferee, any proceeding of a type referred to in the definition of Event of Bankruptcy from the Closing Date until one year and one day after the Final Payout Date. In addition, all amounts payable by Transferee to the Transferor pursuant to this Agreement shall be payable solely from funds available for that purpose (after Transferee has satisfied all obligations then due and owing under the Receivables Purchase Agreement).

SECTION 8.13 No Recourse Against Other Parties. No recourse under any obligation, covenant or agreement of Transferee contained in this Agreement shall be had against any stockholder, employee, officer, director, member, manager incorporator or organizer of Transferee.

SECTION 8.14 Grant of Security Interest. It is the intention of the parties to this Agreement that the conveyance of the Transferor's right, title and interest in and to the Receivables, the Related Rights and all the proceeds of all of the foregoing to Transferee pursuant to this Agreement shall constitute an absolute and irrevocable purchase and sale or capital contribution, as applicable, and not a loan or pledge. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Transferor does hereby grant to Transferee a security interest to secure the Transferor's obligations hereunder in all of the Transferor's now or hereafter existing right, title and interest in, to and under the Receivables, the Related Rights and all the proceeds of all of the foregoing and the parties hereto agree that this Agreement shall constitute a security agreement under Applicable Law. Such security interest is granted in order to provide that, in the event that the conveyance by the Transferor to the Transferee is characterized as a secured loan rather than a sale or capital contribution, contrary to the mutual intent of the parties, the Transferee receives a substantially equivalent benefit.

SECTION 8.15 Binding Terms in Other Transaction Documents. The Transferor hereby makes for the benefit of Program Support Provider, Agent, each Investor, each other Secured Party, each of the representations, warranties, covenants, and agreements, and accepts all other binding terms, including the waiver of any rights, which are made applicable to the Transferor in any other Transaction Document by the express terms thereof, each as if the same (together with any provisions incorporated therein by reference) were set forth in full herein.

SECTION 8.16 Severability. Any provisions of this Agreement which are prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Second Amended and Restated Performance Guaranty

This SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED PERFORMANCE GUARANTY, (this "Agreement") dated as of [__], 2024, is between AUDACY, INC., a Pennsylvania corporation (the "Performance Guarantor"), and DZ BANK AG DEUTSCHE ZENTRAL-GENOSSENSCHAFTSBANK, FRANKFURT AM MAIN, as agent (in such capacity, the "Agent") for and on behalf of the Investor Parties and other Secured Parties, from time to time (each of the foregoing, including the Agent, a "Beneficiary" and, collectively, the "Beneficiaries") under the Second Amended and Restated Receivables Purchase Agreement dated as of the date hereof, among Audacy Receivables, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Seller"), Audacy Operations, Inc., as initial servicer (in such capacity, the "Servicer"), the Agent and the various Investors from time to time party thereto (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Receivables Purchase Agreement"). Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined in this Agreement are used as defined in, or by reference in, the Receivables Purchase Agreement. The interpretive provisions set out in Section 1.02 of the Receivables Purchase Agreement shall be incorporated herein and applied in the interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 1. Undertaking. For value received by the Performance Guarantor and its Affiliates, the Performance Guarantor hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably assures and undertakes (as primary obligor and not merely as surety) for the benefit of each of the Beneficiaries the due and punctual performance and observance by each Originator, the Transferor and the Servicer (and any of their respective successors or assigns in such capacity which is an Affiliate of the Performance Guarantor) of all their respective covenants, agreements, undertakings, indemnities and other obligations or liabilities (including, in each case, those related to any breach by any Originator, the Transferor or the Servicer, as applicable, of its respective representations, warranties and covenants), whether monetary or non-monetary and regardless of the capacity in which incurred (including all of any Originator's, the Transferor's or the Servicer's payment, repurchase, Deemed Collections, indemnity or similar obligations), under any of the Transaction Documents (collectively, the "Guaranteed Obligations"), irrespective of: (A) the validity, binding effect, legality, subordination, disaffirmance, enforceability or amendment, restatement, modification or supplement of, or waiver of compliance with, this Agreement, the Transaction Documents or any documents related hereto or thereto, (B) any change in the existence, formation or ownership of, or the bankruptcy or insolvency of, the Seller, any Originator, the Transferor, the Servicer or any other Person, (C) any extension, renewal, settlement, compromise, exchange, waiver or release in respect of any Guaranteed Obligation (or any collateral security therefor, including the property sold, contributed (or purportedly sold or contributed) or otherwise pledged or transferred by (x) any Originator under the Second Amended and Restated Purchase and Sale Agreement (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Purchase and Sale Agreement") or (y) the Transferor under the Second Amended and Restated Sale and Contribution Agreement (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Sale and Contribution Agreement")) of any party to this Agreement, the other Transaction Documents or any other related documents, (D) the existence of any claim, set-off, counterclaim or other right that the Performance Guarantor or any other Person may have against the Seller, any Originator, the Transferor, the Servicer or any other Person, (E) any impossibility or impracticability of performance, illegality, force majeure, act of war or terrorism, any act of any Governmental Authority or any other circumstance or occurrence that might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense available to, or provides a discharge of, any Originator, the Transferor, the Servicer or the Performance Guarantor, (F) any Applicable Law affecting any term of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or any Transaction Document, or rights of the Agent or any other Beneficiary with respect thereto or otherwise, (G) the failure by the Agent or any Beneficiary to take any steps to perfect and maintain perfected its interest in, or the impairment or release of, any Support Assets or (H) any failure to obtain any authorization or approval from or other action by, or to provide any notification to or make any filing, any Governmental Authority required in connection with the performance of the Guaranteed Obligations or otherwise.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Performance Guarantor agrees that if any Originator, the Transferor or the Servicer shall fail in any manner whatsoever to perform or observe any of its respective Guaranteed Obligations when the same shall be required to be performed or observed under any applicable Transaction Document to which it is a party, then the Performance Guarantor will itself duly and punctually perform or observe or cause to be performed or observed such Guaranteed Obligations. It shall not be a condition to the accrual of the obligation of the Performance Guarantor hereunder to perform or to observe any Guaranteed Obligation that the Agent or any other Person shall have first made any request of or demand upon or given any notice to the Performance Guarantor, the Seller, any Originator, the Transferor, the Servicer or any other Person or have initiated any action or proceeding against the Performance Guarantor, the Seller, any Originator, the Transferor, the Servicer or any other Person in respect thereof. The Performance Guarantor also hereby expressly waives any defenses based on any of the provisions set forth above and all defenses it may have as a guarantor or a surety generally or otherwise based upon suretyship, impairment of collateral or otherwise in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations whether in equity or at law. The Performance Guarantor agrees that its obligations hereunder shall be irrevocable and unconditional. The Performance Guarantor hereby also expressly waives diligence, presentment, demand, protest or notice of any kind whatsoever, as well as any requirement that the Beneficiaries (or any of them) exhaust any right to take any action against the Seller, any Originator, the Transferor, the Servicer or any other Person (including the filing of any claims in the event of a receivership or bankruptcy of any of the foregoing), or with respect to any collateral or collateral security at any time securing any of the Guaranteed Obligations, and hereby consents to any and all extensions of time of the due performance of any or all of the Guaranteed Obligations. The Performance Guarantor agrees that it shall not exercise or assert any right which it may acquire by way of subrogation under this Agreement unless and until all Guaranteed Obligations shall have been indefeasibly paid and performed in full. For the sake of clarity, and without limiting the foregoing, it is expressly acknowledged and agreed that the Guaranteed Obligations do not include the payment or guaranty of any amounts to the extent the same includes losses in respect of Pool Receivables that are uncollectible solely on account of the insolvency, bankruptcy, lack of creditworthiness or other financial inability to pay of the related Obligor.

Section 2. Confirmation. The Performance Guarantor hereby confirms that the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents have been arranged among the Seller, the Originators, the Transferor, the Servicer and the Beneficiaries, as applicable, with the Performance Guarantor's full knowledge and consent and any amendment, restatement, modification or supplement of, or waiver of compliance with, the Transaction Documents in accordance with the terms thereof by any of the foregoing shall be deemed to be with the Performance Guarantor's full knowledge and consent. The Performance Guarantor hereby confirms that on the date hereof it owns, directly or indirectly, 100% of the issued and outstanding Capital Stock of each Originator, the Transferor, the Servicer and the Seller. The Performance Guarantor agrees to notify the Agent in the event that it ceases to own, directly or indirectly, 100% of the issued and outstanding Capital Stock of any Originator, the Transferor, the Servicer or the Seller.

Section 3. Representations and Warranties. The Performance Guarantor represents and warrants to each of the Beneficiaries as of the Restatement Date, on each Settlement Date, on each Weekly Distribution Date and on each day that a Credit Extension shall have occurred:

(i) Organization and Good Standing. The Performance Guarantor is a duly organized and validly existing corporation in good standing under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania and has full power and authority under its Organizational Documents and under the laws of Pennsylvania to own its properties and to conduct its business as such properties are currently owned and such business is presently conducted.

(ii) Due Qualification. The Performance Guarantor is duly qualified to do business, is in good standing as a foreign entity and has obtained all necessary licenses and approvals in all jurisdictions in which the conduct of its business requires such qualification, licenses or approvals, except where the failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(iii) Power and Authority; Due Authorization. The Performance Guarantor has all necessary power and authority to (i) execute and deliver this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party and (ii) perform its obligations under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party and the execution, delivery and performance of, and the consummation of the transactions provided for in, this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party have been duly authorized by the Performance Guarantor by all necessary corporate action.

(iv) Binding Obligations. This Agreement and each of the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party constitutes legal, valid and binding obligations of the Performance Guarantor, enforceable against the Performance Guarantor in accordance with their respective terms, except (i) as such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and (ii) as such enforceability may be limited by general principles of equity, regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law.

(v) No Conflict or Violation. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and each other Transaction Document to which the Performance Guarantor is a party, the performance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and the fulfillment of the terms of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents by the Performance Guarantor will not (i) conflict with, result in any breach of any of the terms or provisions of, or constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, the Organizational Documents of the Performance Guarantor or any material indenture, sale agreement, credit agreement, loan agreement, security agreement, mortgage, deed of trust or other agreement or instrument to which the Performance Guarantor is a party or by which it or any of its property is bound, (ii) result in the creation or imposition of any Adverse Claim upon any of its properties pursuant to the terms of any such material indenture, credit agreement, loan agreement, security agreement, mortgage, deed of trust or other agreement or instrument, other than this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents or (iii) conflict with or violate any Applicable Law, except to the extent that any such conflict or violation, as applicable, could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(vi) Litigation and other Proceedings. There is no action, suit, proceeding or investigation pending, or to the Performance Guarantor's knowledge threatened, against the Performance Guarantor before any Governmental Authority: (i) asserting the invalidity of this Agreement or any of the other Transaction Documents; (ii) seeking to prevent the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any other Transaction Document; (iii) seeking any determination or ruling that could materially and adversely affect the performance by the Performance Guarantor of its obligations under, or the validity or enforceability of, this Agreement or any of the other Transaction Documents; or (iv) individually or in the aggregate for all such actions, suits proceedings and investigations would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(vii) No Consents. The Performance Guarantor is not required to obtain the consent of any other party or any consent, license, approval, registration, authorization or declaration of or with any Governmental Authority in connection with the execution, delivery, or performance of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document to which it is a party that has not already been obtained, except where the failure to obtain such consent, license, approval, registration, authorization or declaration could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(viii) Compliance with Applicable Law. The Performance Guarantor has complied in all material respects with all Applicable Laws in connection with its obligations under this Agreement.

(ix) Investment Company Act. The Performance Guarantor is not an "investment company," or a company "controlled" by an "investment company," within the meaning of the Investment Company Act.

(x) Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws and Sanctions. None of (a) the Performance Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries, Affiliates, directors, officers, or, to the knowledge of the Performance Guarantor, employees that will act in any capacity in connection with or directly benefit from the facility established hereby is a Sanctioned Person, (b) the Performance Guarantor nor any of its Subsidiaries is organized or resident in a Sanctioned Country, and (c) the Performance Guarantor has violated, or, to its knowledge is under investigation by any Governmental Authority for possible violation of any Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws or of any Sanctions.

(xi) Proceeds. No proceeds received by the Performance Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates in connection with any Investment will be used in any manner that will violate Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws or Sanctions.

(xii) Policies and Procedures. Policies and procedures have been implemented and maintained by or on behalf of the Performance Guarantor that are reasonably designed to promote compliance by the Performance Guarantor and its Subsidiaries, directors, officers and employees with Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws and Sanctions.

(xiii) ERISA. No ERISA Event has occurred or is reasonably expected to occur, and each Plan is in compliance with the applicable provisions of ERISA and the Code, except, in each case, to the extent that any such ERISA Event or failure to comply with the applicable provisions of ERISA or the Code could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(xiv) Taxes. Except as would not reasonably be expected to result, individually or in the aggregate, in a Material Adverse Effect, the Performance Guarantor has (i) timely filed all Tax returns (federal, state and local) required to be filed by it and (ii) paid, or caused to be paid, all Taxes, if any, that are required to be paid by it and that are due and payable, other than Taxes being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and as to which adequate reserves have been provided in accordance with GAAP.

(xv) Opinions. The facts regarding each Audacy Party, the Receivables, the Related Security and the related matters set forth or assumed in each of the opinions of counsel delivered in connection with this Agreement and the Transaction Documents are true and correct in all material respects.

Section 4. Covenants. At all times from the Restatement Date until the Final Payout Date:

(i) Existence. The Performance Guarantor shall keep in full force and effect its existence and rights as a corporation or other entity under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania. The Performance Guarantor shall obtain and preserve its qualification to do business in each jurisdiction in which the conduct of its business requires such qualification, except where the failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(ii) Conduct of Business. The Performance Guarantor will carry on and conduct its business in substantially the same manner and in substantially the same fields of enterprise as it is presently conducted, and will do all things necessary to remain duly organized, validly existing and in good standing as a domestic corporation in its jurisdiction of organization and maintain all requisite authority to conduct its business in each jurisdiction in which its business is conducted if the failure to have such authority could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(iii) Compliance with Laws. The Performance Guarantor will comply with all Applicable Laws if the failure to comply could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(iv) Mergers, Sales, Etc. The Performance Guarantor shall not consolidate with or merge with any Person, or convey, transfer or lease substantially all of its assets as an entirety to any Person, unless (i) no Event of Default, or Unmatured Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or would result immediately after giving effect thereto, and (ii) if the Performance Guarantor is not the surviving corporation or if the Performance Guarantor sells, leases or transfers all or substantially all of its property and assets, (a) the surviving corporation or the Person purchasing or being leased such property and assets agrees to be bound by the terms and provisions applicable to the Performance Guarantor hereunder, (b) no Change in Control shall result, (c) the Performance Guarantor reaffirms in a writing, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Agent, that its obligations under this Agreement shall apply to the surviving entity, (d) the Agent has consented thereto in writing and (e) the Agent receives such additional certifications and opinions of counsel as it shall reasonably request.

(v) Transaction Information. None of the Performance Guarantor, any Affiliate of the Performance Guarantor or any third party contracted by the Performance Guarantor or any Affiliate thereof, shall deliver, in writing or orally, to any Rating Agency, any Transaction Information without providing such Transaction Information to the applicable Investor prior to delivery to such Rating Agency, and will not participate in any oral communications with respect to Transaction Information with any Rating Agency without the participation of such Investor.

(vi) Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws and Sanctions. The Performance Guarantor will not use, and shall ensure that its Subsidiaries and its or their respective directors, officers or employees shall not use, the proceeds of any Investment (A) in furtherance of an offer, payment, promise to pay, or authorization of the payment or giving of money, or anything else of value, to any Person in violation of any Anti-Corruption Laws or Anti-Money Laundering Laws, (B) for the purpose of funding or financing any activities, business or transaction of or with any Sanctioned Person, or in any Sanctioned Country, in each case to the extent doing so would violate any Sanctions, or (C) in any other manner that would result in liability to any Person under any applicable Sanctions or result in the violation of any Anti-Corruption Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws or Sanctions.

(vii) Taxes. Except as would not reasonably be expected to result, individually or in the aggregate, in a Material Adverse Effect, the Performance Guarantor will (i) timely file all Tax returns (federal, state and local) required to be filed by it and (ii) pay, or cause to be paid, all Taxes that are required to be paid by it and that are due and payable, if any, other than Taxes being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and as to which adequate reserves have been provided in accordance with GAAP.

Section 5. Miscellaneous.

(b) Any payments hereunder shall be made in full in U.S. Dollars to the Agent in the United States without any set-off, deduction or counterclaim; and Performance Guarantor's obligations hereunder shall not be satisfied by any tender or recovery of another currency except to the extent such tender or recovery results in receipt of the full amount of U.S. Dollars required hereunder.

(c) No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement nor consent to any departure by the Performance Guarantor or any Affiliate therefrom shall be effective unless in a writing and signed by the Agent and the Performance Guarantor. No failure on the part of the Agent or any other Beneficiary to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right.

(d) This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, the other Beneficiaries and their respective successors and permitted assigns. The Performance Guarantor shall not assign, delegate or otherwise transfer any of its obligations or duties hereunder without the prior written consent of the Agent and the Investor. Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that each of the Beneficiaries not a signatory hereto shall be a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement.

(e) THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING THE RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE PARTIES HERETO, SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (INCLUDING SECTIONS 5-1401 AND 5-1402 OF THE GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, BUT WITHOUT REGARD TO ANY OTHER CONFLICTS OF LAW PROVISIONS THEREOF).

NOTHING IN THIS CLAUSE (f) SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF THE AGENT OR ANY OTHER INVESTOR PARTY TO BRING ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING AGAINST THE PERFORMANCE GURANTOR OR ANY OF THEIR RESPECTIVE PROPERTY IN THE COURTS OF OTHER JURISDICTIONS. THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE THAT A FINAL JUDGMENT IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE CONCLUSIVE AND MAY BE ENFORCED IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS BY SUIT ON THE JUDGMENT OR IN ANY OTHER MANNER PROVIDED BY LAW.

(g) THE PERFORMANCE GUARANTOR CONSENTS TO THE SERVICE OF ANY AND ALL PROCESS IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BY THE MAILING OF COPIES OF SUCH PROCESS TO IT AT ITS ADDRESS SPECIFIED IN SECTION 11. (h) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY JUDICIAL PROCEEDING INVOLVING, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, ANY MATTER (WHETHER SOUNDING IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) IN ANY WAY ARISING OUT OF, RELATED TO, OR CONNECTED WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENT.

(i) The Performance Guarantor agrees that it will from time to time, promptly at the request of the Agent (for itself or on behalf of any other Beneficiary), provide information relating to the business and affairs of the Performance Guarantor as the Agent (for itself or on behalf of any other Beneficiary) may reasonably request. The Performance Guarantor also agrees to do all such things and execute all such documents as the Agent may reasonably consider necessary or desirable to give full effect to this Agreement and to perfect or preserve the rights and powers of the Agent or any other Beneficiary hereunder or with respect hereto.

Section 6. Termination of Performance Guaranty. (a) This Agreement and the Performance Guarantor's obligations hereunder shall remain operative and continue in full force and effect until the later of (i) the Final Payout Date, and (ii) such time as all Guaranteed Obligations are duly performed and indefeasibly paid and satisfied in full, provided, that this Agreement and the Performance Guarantor's obligations hereunder shall continue to be effective or shall be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment or other satisfaction of any of the Guaranteed Obligations is rescinded or must otherwise be restored or returned upon the bankruptcy, insolvency, or reorganization of the Seller, any Originator, the Transferor, the Servicer or otherwise, as applicable, as though such payment had not been made or other satisfaction occurred, whether or not the Agent or any of the Beneficiaries (or their respective assigns) are in possession of this Agreement. No invalidity, irregularity or unenforceability by reason of the bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other similar laws, or any other law or order of any Governmental Authority thereof purporting to reduce, amend or otherwise affect the Guaranteed Obligations, shall impair, affect, or be a defense to or claim against the obligations of the Performance Guarantor under this Agreement.

(b) This Agreement shall survive the insolvency of any Originator, the Transferor the Servicer, the Seller, any Beneficiary or any other Person and the commencement of any case or proceeding by or against any Originator, the Transferor, the Servicer, the Seller or any other Person under any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other similar law. No automatic stay under any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other similar Applicable Law with respect to any Originator, the Transferor, the Servicer, the Seller or any other Person shall postpone the obligations of the Performance Guarantor under this Agreement.

Section 7. Set-off. Each Beneficiary (and its assigns) is hereby authorized (in addition to any other rights it may have), at any time, to setoff, appropriate and apply (without presentment, demand, protest or other notice which are hereby expressly waived) any deposits and any other indebtedness held or owing by such Beneficiary (and its assigns) (including by any branches or agencies of such Beneficiary) to, or for the account of, the Performance Guarantor against amounts owing by the Performance Guarantor hereunder; provided that such Beneficiary (or its assigns) shall notify the Performance Guarantor, promptly following such setoff.

Section 8. Entire Agreement; Severability; No Party Deemed Drafter. This Agreement and the other Transaction Documents contain the final and complete integration of all prior expressions by the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and shall constitute the entire agreement among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof superseding all prior oral or written understandings. The rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any remedies provided by Applicable Law or any other agreement, and this Agreement shall be in addition to any other guaranty of or collateral security for any of the Guaranteed Obligations. Any provisions of this Agreement which are prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction. This Agreement and the other Transaction Documents are the product of mutual negotiations by the parties thereto and their counsel, and no party shall be deemed the draftsperson of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or any provision hereof or thereof or to have provided the same. Accordingly, in the event of any inconsistency or ambiguity of any provision of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, such inconsistency or ambiguity shall not be interpreted against any party because of such party's involvement in the drafting thereof.

Section 9. Expenses. The Performance Guarantor agrees to pay on demand all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including reasonable Attorney Costs), of the Agent and the other Beneficiaries and their respective Affiliates, incurred in connection with the enforcement of any of their respective rights or remedies under the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 10. Indemnities by the Performance Guarantor. Without limiting any other rights which any Beneficiary may have hereunder or under Applicable Law, the Performance Guarantor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each Beneficiary and each of their respective Affiliates, and all successors, transferees, participants and assigns and all officers, members, managers, directors, shareholders, controlling persons, employees and agents of any of the foregoing (each a "PG Indemnified Party") forthwith and on demand from and against any and all damages, losses, claims, liabilities and related costs and expenses (including all filing fees, if any), including attorneys', consultants' and accountants' fees and disbursements (all of the foregoing being collectively referred to as "Indemnified Amounts") incurred by any of them and arising out of, relating to, resulting from or in connection with: (i) any breach by the Performance Guarantor of any of its obligations or duties under this Agreement; (ii) the inaccuracy of any representation or warranty made by the Performance Guarantor hereunder, or in any certificate or statement delivered pursuant hereto; (iii) the failure of any information provided to any such PG Indemnified Party by, or on behalf of, the Performance Guarantor, in any capacity, to be true and correct; (iv) the material misstatement of fact or the omission of a material fact or any fact necessary to make the statements contained in any information provided to any such PG Indemnified Party by, or on behalf of, the Performance Guarantor, in any capacity, not materially misleading; (v) any negligence or misconduct on the Performance Guarantor's part arising out of, relating to, in connection with, or affecting any transaction contemplated by this Agreement; (vi) the failure by the Performance Guarantor to comply with any Applicable Law, rule or regulation with respect to this Agreement, the transactions contemplated hereby, the Guaranteed Obligations or otherwise or (vii) the failure of this Agreement to constitute a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Performance Guarantor, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms; provided, however, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 10, Indemnified Amounts shall be excluded solely to the extent a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction holds that such Indemnified Amounts resulted solely from the gross negligence or willful misconduct by the PG Indemnified Party seeking indemnification.

Section 11. Addresses for Notices. All notices and other communications provided for hereunder shall, unless otherwise stated herein, be in writing (including facsimile and email communication) and shall be personally delivered or sent by express mail or nationally recognized overnight courier or by certified mail, first class postage prepaid, or by facsimile, to the intended party at the address, facsimile number or email address of such party set forth in Schedule A of this Agreement or at such other address, facsimile number or email address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice to the other parties hereto. All such notices and communications shall be effective, (a) if personally delivered or sent by express mail or courier or if sent by certified mail, when received and (b) if transmitted by facsimile or email, when sent, receipt confirmed by telephonic or electronic means.

Section 12. Effect of Performance Guaranty. This Agreement amends and restates in its entirety, as of the date hereof, that certain Amended and Restated Performance Guaranty, dated as of January 9, 2024 (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified prior to the date hereof, the "Prior Performance Guaranty"). Upon the effectiveness of this Agreement, the terms and provisions of the Prior Performance Guaranty shall, subject to this paragraph, be superseded hereby in their entirety. Notwithstanding the amendment and restatement of the Prior Performance Guaranty by this Agreement, the Performance Guarantor shall continue to be liable to the Agent for the Guaranteed Obligations (as defined in the Prior Performance Guaranty) (collectively, the "Prior Performance Guaranty Outstanding Amounts"). To the extent that any rights, benefits or provisions in favor of the Agent existed in the Prior Performance Guaranty and continue to exist in this Agreement, then such rights, benefits or provisions are reaffirmed and acknowledged to be and to continue to be effective from and after the date of the Prior Performance Guaranty or any applicable portion thereof. The Performance Guarantor agrees and acknowledges that any and all rights, remedies and payment provisions under the Prior Performance Guarantee shall continue and survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement. Upon the effectiveness of this Agreement, each reference to the Prior Performance Guaranty in any other document, instrument or agreement shall mean and be a reference to this Agreement. Nothing contained herein, unless expressly herein stated to the contrary, is intended to amend, modify or otherwise affect any other instrument, document or agreement executed and/or delivered in connection with the Prior Performance Guaranty.

Creation of Security Interest

9. As security for the Seller Obligations, the Pledgor hereby pledges, mortgages, charges, hypothecates, assigns and grants to and in favor of the Agent, as agent and for the benefit of the Secured Parties, a security interest in the Pledged Collateral.

Attachment

10. The Pledgor confirms and agrees that:

(a) value has been given by the Agent and the Secured Parties to the Pledgor;

(b) the Pledgor has rights in the Pledged Collateral and power to transfer rights in the Pledged Collateral to the Agent; and

(c) the Pledgor and the Agent have not postponed the time for attachment of the Security Interest, and the Security Interest shall attach to the Pledged Collateral existing on the date hereof upon the execution of this Agreement and shall attach to Pledged Collateral in which the Pledgor hereafter acquires rights at the time that the Pledgor acquires rights in such Pledged Collateral.

Control, Registration and Possession of Pledged Collateral

11. The Pledgor shall not, without the prior written consent of the Agent, take any action (including, but not limited, to entering into any amendments or modifications to the Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Seller (including any other organizational documents) or any other agreements, documents, or instruments) that will cause the Pledge Collateral to be in certificated form and be a "Security" governed by Article 8 of the UCC, as applicable.

12. Whenever any Pledged Collateral is a certificated security, an uncertificated security or a security entitlement, the Pledgor shall, or shall cause the Seller to, or shall cause the securities intermediary that holds such Pledged Collateral to, take all steps as are necessary or desirable to give exclusive control over such Pledged Collateral to the Agent in a manner reasonably satisfactory to the Agent.

13. All certificates, if any, representing Pledged Collateral may remain registered in the name of the Pledgor, but the Pledgor shall, promptly at the request of the Agent, duly endorse such certificates in blank for transfer or execute stock powers of attorney in respect thereof and deliver such certificates or powers of attorney to the Agent, with all documentation being in form and substance satisfactory to the Agent. Upon the request of the Agent following the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default:

(a) the Pledgor shall promptly cause the Pledged Collateral to be registered in the name of the Agent or its nominee, and the Agent is hereby appointed the irrevocable attorney (coupled with an interest) of the Pledgor with full power of substitution to cause any or all of the Pledged Collateral to be registered in the name of the Agent or its nominee; and

(b) the Pledgor shall promptly cause each securities intermediary that holds any Pledged Collateral that is a security entitlement to record the Agent as the entitlement holder of such Pledged Collateral.

14. The powers conferred on the Agent hereunder are solely to protect its interest in the Pledged Collateral and shall not impose any duty upon it to exercise any such powers. Except for the safe custody of any Pledged Collateral in its possession and the accounting for moneys actually received by it hereunder, the Agent shall have no duty as to any Pledged Collateral or as to the taking of any necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining to any Pledged Collateral. The Agent shall not be bound under any circumstances to realize upon any of the Pledged Collateral or allow any of the Pledged Collateral to be sold, or exercise any option or right attaching thereto, or be responsible for any loss occasioned by any sale of the Pledged Collateral or by the retention or other refusal to sell the same; nor shall the Agent be obliged to collect or see to the payment of dividends or distributions thereon.

Voting Rights

15. Until notice is given by the Agent to the Pledgor in accordance with Section 18, the Pledgor shall be entitled to exercise all voting rights attached to the Pledged Collateral and give consents, waivers and ratifications in respect thereof, provided that no vote shall be cast or consent, waiver or ratification given or action taken which could be materially prejudicial to the interests of the Agent or which could have the effect of materially reducing the value of the Pledged Collateral as security for the Seller Obligations or imposing any restriction on the transfer of the Pledged Collateral to the Agent in accordance with the terms hereof. Except if the Agent otherwise consents thereto or as may be required for the Pledgor to comply with applicable law, the rights of the Pledgor to vote, give consents, waivers and ratifications shall not be exercised by the Pledgor on and after receipt by the Pledgor of such notice by the Agent.

Dealing with Income and Proceeds

16. Until notice is given by the Agent to the Pledgor in accordance with Section 18, all dividends, distributions and other income derived from or in respect of any Pledged Collateral and all proceeds received by the Pledgor in respect of any Pledged Collateral may be received by the Pledgor. After notice is given by the Agent to the Pledgor in accordance with Section 18, the Pledgor shall forthwith pay such amounts to the Agent, to be applied to reduce the Seller Obligations or, at the option of the Agent, to be held as additional security for the Seller Obligations, and all dividends and distributions, if and when received by the Pledgor, shall, subject to section 19, be held in trust for the Agent and shall be forthwith paid to the Agent.

Representation and Warranty

17. The Pledgor represents and warrants to the Agent that as of the date hereof:

(a) the Pledged Membership Interest listed on Schedule I hereto constitutes all of the outstanding limited liability company membership interests of the Seller;

(b) the Pledged Membership Interest existing on the date hereof has been duly and validly issued and is fully paid and nonassessable;

(c) the Pledgor is the sole record and beneficial owner of, and has title to, the Pledged Membership Interest listed on Schedule I, free of any and all liens or options in favor of, or claims of, any other Person, except the lien created by this Agreement and the lien created by the Subordinated Pledge Agreement;

(d) no authorizations, consents, orders and approvals of, or other actions by, any Governmental Authority or any other Person (including, without limitation, any member, partner or creditor of the Pledgor) that are required to be obtained for (i) the pledge by the Pledgor of the Pledged Membership Interest pursuant to this Agreement; (ii) the due execution, delivery and performance by the Pledgor of this Agreement and the consummation by the Pledgor of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; or (iii) the exercise by the Agent on behalf of the Investors of the voting or other rights provided for in this Agreement, in each case, except as may be required in connection with dispositions by laws affecting the offering and sale of securities generally or as have been obtained or made or which are not required as of the date hereof;

(e) the execution, delivery and performance of, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Pledgor of this Agreement and all other agreements, instruments and documents to be delivered hereunder, and the fulfillment of the terms hereof will not (i) conflict with, result in any breach of any of the terms or provisions of, or constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, the Limited Liability Company Agreement or any of the Seller's other organizational documents or any indenture, sale agreement, credit agreement, loan agreement, security agreement, mortgage, deed of trust or other agreement or instrument to which the Pledgor is a party or by which it or any of its properties is bound, (ii) conflict with any order, writ, judgment, award, injunction or decree binding on or affecting the Pledgor or its property, and do not result in or require the creation of any adverse claim upon or with respect to any of its properties (other than in favor of the Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties as contemplated hereunder) or (iii) conflict with or violate any Applicable Law, in each case, except to the extent that any such conflict, breach, default, adverse claim or violation could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(f) the Pledgor (i) has all necessary power and authority to (A) execute and deliver this Agreement by the Pledgor and (B) perform its obligations under this Agreement, and (ii) has duly authorized by all necessary action the execution, delivery and performance of, and the consummation of the transactions provided for in, this Agreement and this Agreement constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Pledgor enforceable against the Pledgor in accordance with its terms, except (I) as such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and (II) as such enforceability may be limited by general principles of equity, regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law;

(g) upon delivery to the Agent of the filing in the State of Delaware of a UCC-1 financing statement naming the Pledgor, as a debtor, and the Agent, as secured party, and describing the Pledged Collateral, the lien granted pursuant to this agreement will constitute a valid, perfected first priority lien on the Pledged Collateral in favor of the Agent, enforceable as such against all creditors of the Pledgor and any Persons purporting to purchase any Pledged Collateral from the Pledgor;

(h) except as listed on Schedule II, the Pledgor has not changed its name or jurisdiction of organization within the past five (5) years; and

(i) the Pledgor has received, or will receive, direct or indirect benefit from the making of this Agreement.

Covenants

18. The Pledgor covenants and agrees with the Agent as follows:

(a) it will not, without the Agent's prior written consent, sell, exchange, transfer, assign, lend, charge, pledge, encumber or otherwise dispose of or deal in any way with the Pledged Collateral or any interest therein (except to grant the Security Interest to the Agent hereunder and the grant to the Credit Agreement Agent under the Subordinated Pledge Agreement) or enter into any agreement or undertaking to do so;

(b) it will not amend or otherwise modify the Subordinated Pledge Agreement without the written consent of the Agent;

(c) it will keep adequate records concerning the Pledged Membership Interests and permit the Agent or any agents, designees, or representatives thereof at any time or from time to time to examine and make copies of, and abstracts from, such records pursuant to the terms of the Receivables Purchase Agreement;

(d) not make or consent to any amendment or other modification or waiver with respect to any Pledged Membership Interests, or enter into any agreement or permit to exist any restriction with respect to any Pledged Membership Interests other than pursuant to the Transaction Documents or permitted under the Transaction Documents;

(e) not permit the issuance of (i) any additional units of any class of the Pledged Membership Interests of the Seller unless such additional units are made subject to the pledge granted pursuant to this Agreement (and the issuance thereof would not result in an Event of Default under the Transaction Documents) to the extent that such additional units are required to constitute Pledged Membership Interests under this Agreement, (ii) any securities convertible voluntarily by the holder thereof or automatically upon the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event or condition into, or exchangeable for, any such units of Pledged Membership Interests, or (iii) any warrants, options, contracts, or other commitments entitling any Person to purchase or to otherwise acquire any such units of Pledged Membership Interests;

(f) it will do, make, execute and deliver such further and other assignments, transfers, deeds, security agreements and other documents as may be reasonably required by the Agent from time to time to grant to the Agent the Security Interest with the priority intended hereby and generally to accomplish the intention of this Agreement; and

(g) it will pay when due any and all subscription monies and other amounts payable on or in respect of the Pledged Collateral and, if the Pledgor fails to do so, the Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) do so and, if the Agent does so, the Pledgor shall, on demand by the Agent, reimburse the Agent for such payment.

Enforcement

19. If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, remedies in respect of the Security Interest are exercisable at the option of the Agent upon receipt of instructions from the Investors and upon written notice to the Pledgor.

Remedies

20. Upon an Event of Default, in addition to any other remedies available under applicable law or equity or contained in any other agreement between the Pledgor and the Agent, the Agent may, subject to applicable law:

(a) obtain, by any method permitted by law, possession of the Pledged Collateral which it does not already hold;

(e) exercise any and all rights of redemption, conversion, exchange, sale, subscription or any other rights, privileges or options pertaining to any of the Pledged Collateral as if it were the absolute owner thereof including the right to exchange at its discretion any and all of the Pledged Collateral upon the merger, consolidation, reorganization, recapitalization or other readjustment of the Seller and, in connection therewith, to deposit and deliver or direct the sale or other disposition of any of the Pledged Collateral with any committee, depositary, clearing house (whether The Depository Trust Company or otherwise), transfer agent, registrar or other designated agency upon such terms and conditions as it may determine, all without liability except to account for property actually received by it;

(f) comply with any limitation or restriction in connection with any proposed sale or other disposition of the Pledged Collateral as may be necessary in order to comply with applicable law or any policy imposed by any stock exchange, securities commission or other governmental authority or official, and the Pledgor further agrees that such compliance shall not result in such sale being considered or deemed not to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner, nor shall the Agent be liable or accountable to the Pledgor for any discount in the sale price of the Pledged Collateral which may be given by reason of the fact that the Pledged Collateral is sold in compliance with any such limitation or restriction; and documents and take any and all actions as may be necessary or desirable to perform any obligations of the Pledgor arising pursuant to this agreement, and in executing such documents and taking such actions, to use the name of the Pledgor whenever and wherever it may reasonably be considered necessary or expedient.

(a) the Lien of the Credit Agreement Agent and the other Credit Agreement Secured Parties, granted to the Credit Agreement Agent (on behalf of the other Credit Agreement Secured Parties) pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement and the Subordinated Pledge Agreement, in the Pledged Membership Interests shall be (and shall always be) subordinate to and subject to the Lien of and rights against the Pledged Membership Interests of the Securitization Agent on behalf of itself and the other Securitization Secured Parties pursuant to the Receivables Purchase Agreement and the Securitization Pledge Agreement, arising from or out of the Securitization Obligations to the Securitization Secured Parties under the Securitization Documents, regardless of the order, time or manner in which any Liens attach to or are perfected in the Pledged Membership Interests;

(b) until all Securitization Obligations have been paid in full and the Securitization Final Payout Date has occurred, the Credit Agreement Agent and the Credit Agreement Secured Parties shall not, without the prior written consent of the Securitization Agent, take any Enforcement Action against the Pledged Membership Interest;

(c) it shall not (i) contest or challenge, or join any other Person in contesting or challenging, the transfers of Securitization Assets (directly or indirectly) from any Originator to Originator or Originator to the SPV, whether on the grounds that such transfers were disguised financings, preferential transfers, fraudulent conveyances or otherwise or a transfer other than a "true sale" or a "true contribution", (ii) contest or challenge, or join any other Person in contesting or challenging, the validity, enforceability, priority or perfection of the interest of the SPV in any of the Securitization Assets, or the validity, enforceability, priority or perfection of the interest of any assignee of the SPV (including the Securitization Agent or any Investor) in any of the Securitization Assets or

(iii) (x) assert that any Person and the SPV should be substantively consolidated or that the SPV is not or was not a limited liability company separate and distinct from Parent, Servicer, Audacy New York, any other Originator or any other Person or (y) challenge the valuation of any Securitization Assets which the SPV, any Investor, any assignee of such Investor or the Securitization Agent may elect to liquidate as permitted under the Securitization Documents, or otherwise assert that any such liquidation was illegal, not done in a commercially reasonable manner, or otherwise invalid or improper;

(d) it shall not, directly or indirectly, institute against (or solicit or encourage any Person to institute against), or join any other Person in instituting against, the SPV any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceeding under the laws of the United States or any state of the United States or the other applicable jurisdiction (the foregoing, an "Insolvency Proceeding") until one year and one day after the Final Payout Date of the SPV's obligations under the Securitization Documents (such date, the "Securitization Final Payout Date"); provided that this clause (d) shall survive any termination of this Agreement;

(e) it shall not, until after the occurrence of the Securitization Final Payout Date, (i) transfer any of the Pledged Membership Interests or any interest therein, except in connection with the granting of its interest under the Credit Agreement Documents (provided, that in the case of any such assignment, the assignee shall have agreed in writing to be bound by the terms of this Agreement), to any Person, or assume ownership of the Pledged Membership Interests, (ii) exercise any voting rights under the Pledged Membership Interests, and (iii) alter or cause the alteration of any provision of the SPV's limited liability company agreement, articles of association or other organizational documents (including, but not limited, taking any action that will cause the Pledged Membership Interests to be in certificated form and be a "Security" governed by Article 8 of the UCC, as applicable);

(f) it shall not, institute, or cause or require any Originator to institute, any action or suit or exercise, or cause or require any Originator to exercise, any rights or remedies of such Originator upon or with respect to any breach or default by the SPV or any other Person under any of the Securitization Documents or attempt to prohibit or restrict any sale or other transfer of the Securitization Assets or to interfere in any manner with the transactions contemplated under the Securitization Documents;

(g) it shall not amend or otherwise modify the Subordinated Pledge Agreement, the Credit Agreement, or any other collateral or security document entered into in connection therewith, in a manner that conflicts with the terms of this Agreement or may otherwise adversely affect the Securitization Agent and the Securitization Secured Parties without the prior written consent of the Securitization Agent;

(h) it (on its behalf and on behalf of each Credit Agreement Secured Party) agrees that it will: (x) not seek to provide, or consent to, financing in any Insolvency Proceeding of Parent, Audacy New York or their Affiliates that is secured by the Pledged Membership Interests; (y) support, and not object to or oppose, any Disposition of any property (or any process pertaining to such Disposition of any property) comprising all or part of the Pledged Membership Interests, free and clear of security interests, liens or other claims of the Credit Agreement Agent or the Credit Agreement Secured Parties under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable law, only if Securitization Agent has consented to, or supports, such Disposition and is releasing its security interests and liens as well; and (z) not propose, seek and/or support confirmation of any plan of reorganization with respect to Parent, Audacy New York or their Affiliates providing for the treatment of Pledged Membership Interests, treatment of which Securitization Agent has not consented in writing. It further agrees (i) not to assert any right it may have to "adequate protection" of any interest in the Pledged Membership Interests in any Insolvency Proceeding; provided that, if the Securitization Agent (on behalf of the Investor) seeks or is granted "adequate protection" in the form of replacement collateral with respect to the Pledged Membership Interests, then the Credit Agreement Agent (on behalf of the Credit Agreement Secured Parties) may seek or request "adequate protection" in the form of a lien on such replacement collateral, which lien will be subordinated to the lien securing the Securitization Obligations; and (ii) that it will not, directly or indirectly, take any action, including filing, or joining in the filing of, a motion, objection, or other pleading in any Insolvency Proceeding, to effectuate anything that is prohibited under, or contrary to the representations, warranties, or covenants in, this Agreement;

(i) the provisions of this Agreement shall continue to govern the relative rights and priorities of Securitization Agent and Credit Agreement Agent (on its behalf and on behalf of each Credit Agreement Secured Party) with respect to the Pledged Membership Interests even if all or part of the Securitization Obligations or the security interests securing the Securitization Obligations are subordinated, set aside, avoided, invalidated or disallowed in connection with any Insolvency Proceeding of the Parent, Audacy New York, or of their Affiliates or Subsidiaries;

(j) it agrees this Agreement is intended to be and shall be enforceable as a "subordination agreement" within the meaning of Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code; and

(k) it, for itself and on behalf of the Credit Agreement Secured Parties, agrees that it will not at any time contest the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of the Securitization Obligations, the Securitization Documents, or the Liens of the Securitization Secured Parties in the Pledged Membership Interests.

3. The Credit Agreement Agent, for itself and on behalf of the Credit Agreement Secured Parties, and the Securitization Agent, for itself and on behalf of the Securitization Secured Parties, agree that:

(a) the proceeds of any Disposition by the Securitization Agent, any Securitization Secured Party, the Credit Agreement Agent, or any Credit Agreement Secured Party of all or part of the Pledged Membership Interests shall be applied in the following order of priorities, irrespective of the application of any rule of law or the defect or impairment of any Securitization Document, any Credit Agreement Document or security interest, Lien or assignment thereunder: (i) first, to the Securitization Agent for the payment of the Securitization Obligations until all Securitization Obligations have been paid in full and are fully satisfied and the Securitization Final Payout Date has occurred, (ii) second, to the Credit Agreement Agent, until all Credit Agreement Obligations have been paid in full and are fully satisfied, and (iii) third, to Audacy New York or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct.

(b) in the event that the Securitization Agent releases or agrees to release any of its Liens in the Pledged Membership Interests in connection with a Disposition that is in connection with the Securitization Agent's exercise of remedies following a Securitization Event of Default, then any Lien then held by the Credit Agreement Secured Party in such Pledged Membership Interests shall be automatically, unconditionally, and simultaneously released; provided, however, that 100% of the net proceeds of such Disposition shall be applied first to reduce the Securitization Obligations until the Securitization Obligations are paid in full and are fully satisfied, then to reduce the Credit Agreement Obligations until the Credit Agreement Obligations are paid in full and are fully satisfied, and thereafter to Audacy New York or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct. The Credit Agreement Agent and the Credit Agreement Secured Parties shall be deemed to have consented to such Disposition and the Credit Agreement Agent for itself and on behalf of the Credit Agreement Secured Parties, and the Credit Agreement Agent shall execute such releases or other instruments with respect to the Pledged Membership Interests as the Securitization Agent requests to evidence the release of the Credit Agreement Secured Parties' Lien in the Pledged Membership Interests. The Credit Agreement Agent for itself and on behalf of the Credit Agreement Secured Parties irrevocably appoints the Securitization Agent as the true and lawful attorneys of the Credit Agreement Secured Parties for the purpose of executing and filing any such releases or instruments which the Credit Agreement Secured Parties may be required to execute, file, and/or deliver pursuant to this Agreement.

4. Until all Securitization Obligations have been paid in full and the Securitization Final Payout Date has occurred, in the event that the Credit Agreement Agent or the other Credit Agreement Secured Parties receive collateral or proceeds with respect to the Pledged Membership Interests to which it is not entitled hereunder to receive, the Credit Agreement Agent and the other Credit Agreement Secured Parties shall be deemed to hold such collateral or proceeds in trust for the benefit of the Securitization Agent and the Securitization Secured Parties and shall promptly pay over to each such party such collateral or proceeds in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements.

5. The Credit Agreement Agent, for itself and on behalf of the Credit Agreement Secured Parties, hereby acknowledges and agrees that neither the Securitization Agent nor any other Securitization Secured Party has a fiduciary duty to the Credit Agreement Agent or any Credit Agreement Secured Party based on the pledge of the Pledged Membership Interests. Any rights of Parent, Audacy New York or any other Originator to any interest, payments, dividends or distributions from the SPV on account of the Pledged Membership Interests or the Securitization Documents are subject to the availability of funds from the SPV which are released to it under the Securitization Documents for such purposes, and the Credit Agreement Agent, for itself and on behalf of the Credit Agreement Secured Parties, accordingly acknowledges and agrees to be bound by such provisions, including any subordination terms governing such payments or distributions.

6. This Agreement shall become effective on the date hereof provided that each of the parties hereto shall have received duly executed counterparts of this Agreement, and thereafter this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of each of their respective successors and assigns.

7. This Agreement shall remain in effect until the Securitization Final Payout Date; provided that Section 2(d) shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

8. No waiver, amendment or other modification, or consent with respect to, any provision of this Agreement shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Credit Agreement Agent and the Securitization Agent.

9. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which, when so executed, shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which, when taken together, shall constitute one and the same agreement.

10. Any provisions of this Agreement which are prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

11. In the event of any conflict between this Agreement (including any term, provision, covenant, condition of, or other item set forth in this Agreement), and the Subordinated Pledge Agreement, the Credit Agreement or any other Credit Agreement Document (including any term, provision, covenant, condition of, or other item set forth in the Credit Agreement Document, as applicable), the terms, provisions, covenants, conditions of, and any other items set forth in this Agreement shall control and govern.

12. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE DEEMED TO BE A CONTRACT MADE UNDER AND GOVERNED BY THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (INCLUDING FOR SUCH PURPOSE SECTIONS 5-1401 AND 5-1402 OF THE GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK).

13. ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING WITH RESPECT TO THIS AGREEMENT MAY BE BROUGHT IN THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OR OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK; AND, BY EXECUTION AND DELIVERY OF THIS AGREEMENT, EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO CONSENTS, FOR ITSELF AND IN RESPECT OF ITS PROPERTY, TO THE NON-EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THOSE COURTS. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY OBJECTION, INCLUDING ANY OBJECTION TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OR BASED ON THE GROUNDS OF FORUM NON CONVENIENS, THAT IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE BRINGING OF ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN SUCH JURISDICTION IN RESPECT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY DOCUMENT RELATED HERETO. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO WAIVES PERSONAL SERVICE OF ANY SUMMONS, COMPLAINT OR OTHER PROCESS, WHICH SERVICE MAY BE MADE BY ANY OTHER MEANS PERMITTED BY NEW YORK LAW.

(SIGNATURE PAGES FOLLOW)

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be executed by their respective officers thereunto duly authorized, as of the date first above written.

"Eligible Steerco Member" means each member of the steering committee of the Ad Hoc First Lien Group (as such term is defined in the Restructuring Support Agreement) for so long as they continue to hold, on a fully diluted basis, at least 80% of the Common Stock, including Company Securities convertible into Common Stock, issued to such member at Closing.
Corporate Form	The Company shall be a [privately held] Delaware corporation, unless otherwise required by applicable law or approved by Supermajority Equityholder Approval.

Classes of Equity	The Common Stock shall be the only class of equity of the Company outstanding at Closing other than (1) special warrants convertible into such Common Stock for purposes of FCC compliance (the "Special Warrants"), (2) warrants issuable to the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group pursuant to the Restructuring Term Sheet (the "2L Warrants", and together with the Special Warrants, the "Warrants"); and (3) equity to be issued under any management incentive plan. The Common Stock shall be further divided into two classes of stock: Class A shares, which shall be voting Common Stock (the "Class A Shares"), and Class B Shares, which shall be non-voting Common Stock (the "Class B Shares").
Transferability	Subject to (i) the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and (ii) compliance with the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules, regulations, and published policies of the FCC related thereto (the "Communications Laws"), neither the Common Stock nor the Warrants shall be subject to restrictions on Transfer other than in connection with a transaction described in this Term Sheet; [provided, that the Common Stock and the Warrants may contain reasonable and customary restrictions designed to maintain the Company as a private company]. Other than in connection with a sale of the Company, Transfers to competitors (which shall be defined in the Shareholders' Agreement) will be prohibited without the consent of the Board. Holders of incentive equity will be prohibited from Transferring other than certain customary estate planning Transfers. The term "Transfer" means any direct or indirect sale, transfer, assignment, conveyance or other disposition, including without limitation by merger, operation of law, bequest or pursuant to any domestic relations order, whether voluntarily or involuntarily. Upon any Transfer, the transferee shall be bound by, shall execute a joinder to, and shall become a party to the Shareholders' Agreement.
Right of First Offer	Other than with respect to (a) a Transfer to a "Permitted Transferee"[1], or (b) a Transfer or a series of Transfers within any 6 month period, of Company Securities constituting less than 4% of the aggregate Company Securities outstanding on the date thereof, in the event that any Equityholder (the "Selling Equityholder") desires to Transfer any Company Securities in one or a series of related transactions, the Selling Equityholder shall provide written

[1] A "Permitted Transferee" of any specified person means any other person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by or under direct or indirect common control with such specified person. For purposes of this definition, "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlling", "controlled by" and "under common control with"), as used with respect to any person, shall mean the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of such person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by agreement or otherwise.

	notice of such intent (the "Intent to Sell Notice") to each Major Equityholder and each Eligible Steerco Member (collectively, the "Equity Offerees"). After delivery of the Intent to Sell Notice, the Equity Offerees shall have 5 business days (the "Offer Solicitation Period") to submit a written offer (an "Offer Notice") to the Selling Equityholder to purchase a portion of the offered shares based on a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of shares Common Stock held by that Equity Offeree on an as-converted-to Common Stock basis and the denominator of which is the sum of all shares of Common Stock held by all Equity Offerees on an as-converted-to Common Stock basis. In addition, each Equity Offeree will have the right to oversubscribe in its offer for more than its pro rata share of the offered shares in the event not all Equity Offerees exercise their right to make an offer for their full pro rata portion. Each Offer Notice shall set forth the number of offered shares that the Equity Offeree submitting such Offer Notice is offering to purchase as well as the cash purchase price per share and other material terms of such offer. After expiration of the Offer Solicitation Period, the Selling Equityholder may sell any portion of the Company Securities being Transferred either to the Equity Offerees (which may be at any price and on any terms, provided that all Equity Offerees that submitted Offer Notices are entitled to participate pro rata on the same terms and conditions (including purchase price)) or to a purchaser that is not an Equity Offeree at a higher price and other material terms and conditions that are superior to the Selling Equityholder to those set forth in the best offer set forth in the Offer Notices received prior to the expiration of the Offer Solicitation Period. If a sale on such terms is not completed prior to the 30th day following the expiration of the Offer Solicitation Period, then the Selling Equityholder must again comply with these Right of First Offer provisions.
Tag-Along Rights	Other than with respect to a Transfer to (a) a Permitted Transferee or (b) to a Major Equityholder or an Eligible Steerco Member pursuant to the "Right of First Offer" provisions above, in the event an Equityholder (or group of Equityholders) proposes to sell 20% or more of the outstanding Company Securities (each, a "Selling Equityholder"), each of the other Equityholders (other than the Soros Equityholder) shall have "tag-along" rights to participate, on a pro rata basis, in such sale, on the same terms, and subject to the same conditions as the Selling Equityholder(s), including that such other Equityholders shall be required to agree to the representations, warranties, covenants (including restrictive covenants) and indemnities on a several (and not joint or joint and several) basis to which the Selling Equityholder agrees; provided, that any indemnity will (i) be on a pro rata basis and (ii) not exceed the total purchase price received by such Equityholder. At least 15 business days prior to any transfer by the Selling Equityholder(s), such Selling Equityholder(s) shall deliver written notice (the "Tag-Along Notice") to all other Equityholders (other than the Soros Equityholder) specifying the material terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer, including the number of shares to be sold and the price per share, and each such Equityholder may elect to participate in the proposed Transfer up to their pro rata share by delivering written notice to the Selling Equityholder(s) within 10 business days after delivery of the Tag-Along Notice (such Equityholders who timely deliver a valid tag-along election notice, the "Tag-Along Equityholders"). The Selling Equityholder(s) will use commercially reasonable efforts to have the purchaser purchase all shares proposed to be sold by the Selling Equityholder(s) and the Tag-Along Equityholders. If the purchaser refuses to purchase all such shares, the number of shares to be sold to the purchaser by the Selling Equityholder(s) and the Tag-Along Equityholders will be cut back pro rata based on the relative number of all shares owned by such Equityholders in the form of Company Securities.

Drag-Along Rights/ Forced Sale	After the 24-month anniversary of the Company's emergence from bankruptcy, other than with respect to a Transfer to a Permitted Transferee, in the event that the Equityholders holding, together with their Affiliates, in the aggregate, more than 50.1% of the outstanding Company Securities (the "Required Holders"), propose to Transfer all or substantially all of their shares of Company Securities to an unaffiliated third party or parties on an arm's-length basis (a "Majority Sale"), then the Required Holders shall have "drag-along" rights to cause all of the other holders of Company Securities to Transfer all of the Company Securities held by such persons to the proposed transferee(s) under the Majority Sale, at the same price and otherwise on substantially the same terms, and subject to the same conditions, as set forth in the agreements with respect to the Majority Sale. Such dragged holders shall (i) provide customary representations and warranties regarding their legal status and authority, and their ownership of the Company Securities being transferred, and customary (several but not joint) indemnities regarding the same and (ii) not be required to agree to any restrictive covenants other than confidentiality and employee non-solicitation or to indemnify or contribute any amount in excess of the total purchase price received by such dragged holder in any such transfer. Such dragged holder shall participate pro rata in any customary (several but not joint) indemnification with respect to matters other than the representations and warranties described in clause (i) above on a pro rata basis, it being understood that such indemnification shall not exceed the total purchase price received by such Equityholder. After the 24-month anniversary of the Company's emergence from bankruptcy, the Equityholders holding, together with their Affiliates, in the aggregate, at least 50.1% of the outstanding Company Securities shall have the right to cause the Company to retain a nationally recognized investment bank, law firm and other professional advisors to be selected by the Board to initiate and proceed with a bona-fide process to effectuate a sale of the Company and seek to obtain approval from the Board and Majority Equityholder Approval.

Preemptive Rights	Each Equityholder holding, together with its Permitted Transferees, at least 0.5 % of the outstanding Company Securities, shall be entitled to reasonable and customary equity preemptive rights (including, for the avoidance of doubt, rights related to equity-linked and convertible debt issuances), subject to customary exceptions including for Exempt Issuances below. "Exempt Issuances" shall include (i) securities issued in underwritten, broadly-placed public offerings of securities, (ii) securities issued under employee incentive plans approved by the Board, (iii) securities issued to the counterparty of the underlying transaction in connection with acquisitions, joint ventures, borrowings or other strategic operating transactions, and (iv) other customary exceptions.
Information Rights	At all times prior to the Company completing an initial public offering ("IPO"), the Company shall provide to each Equityholder or such Equityholder's Permitted Transferees on an online data site: (1) audited financial statements within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year; and (2) unaudited quarterly financial statements within 45 days after each fiscal quarter end (or, if shorter, in the same time frame required for such financial information to be delivered to lenders under the Company's credit agreement then in effect), in each case, including an explanation of and bridge for EBITDA. No such information shall be required to be provided to any Equityholder if the Board determines in good faith that such Equityholder is, or is an affiliate of, a material competitor of the Company; provided, that in no event shall the Soros Equityholder be considered a competitor of the Company (provided, that the Soros Equityholder shall be subject to the confidentiality provisions and use restrictions with respect to the Company's confidential information). Each Major Equityholder, the Eligible Steerco Members and up to three members of the Ad Hoc Second Lien Group (for so long as such member continues to hold all of the Common Stock issued to such member at Closing), will have the right to obtain such additional information that is reasonably requested (including monthly financial reports and annual budgets), and will have the right to request meetings with management a reasonable number of times per year to discuss the operations and business of the Company. To the extent any Equityholder and its Permitted Transferees acquire additional Company Securities such that such Equityholder and its Permitted Transferees hold at least 10% of the outstanding Company Securities, then such Equityholder shall be entitled to the additional information rights set forth in this paragraph.

Affiliate Transactions	The Company shall not enter into a transaction with affiliates of the Company or its subsidiaries (or the officers, directors, lenders or Equityholders of the Company or its subsidiaries) (an "Affiliate Transaction") unless the terms of such transaction are at least as favorable to the Company as could have been obtained in a comparable arms-length transaction by the Company with an unaffiliated third party as reasonably determined by the Board and if such transaction is reasonably expected to involve greater than $20 million in (a) annual net revenue to the Company in the case of commercial transactions or (b) total consideration in the case of asset sales or any acquisition, such transaction is approved by a majority of the disinterested directors then in office. For purposes hereof, Affiliate Transactions shall exclude (i) transactions in respect of credit agreement indebtedness of the Company pursuant to which all creditors similarly situated with the applicable affiliate receive identical treatment to such affiliate or that are expressly permitted by the credit agreement in effect from time to time, (ii) transactions (or series of related transactions) involving less than $2 million in (A) annual net revenue to the Company in the case of commercial transactions or (B) total consideration in the case of the sale of assets or any acquisition, in each case, on arms-length terms, (iii) indemnification, expense advancement and expense reimbursement of employees, officers and directors, (iv) transactions subject to preemptive rights, (v) employment agreements, including with respect to employee compensation and benefits, and (vi) intracompany transactions.
Governance Rights	Except as otherwise set forth below for the election of directors, each Class A Share shall be entitled to one vote and the holders thereof shall be entitled to vote for all such matters that are put to the Equityholders for approval under the Company's governing documents and applicable law; provided, the Class B Shares, any equity provided under a management incentive plan, the Special Warrants and the 2L Warrants shall be non-voting except as otherwise provided therein. The number of directors on the Board shall be established at 7 directors. The Board initially shall be composed (the "Board") as follows: (i) David Field (or his replacement, if any) for so long as such person is employed by the Company or its subsidiary or affiliate; (ii) Subject to compliance with Communications Laws, the First Lien Ad Hoc Group and/or their respective Permitted Transferees shall be entitled to nominate 5 directors (the "1L Directors"), 1 of which shall serve as the Chairman of the Board; provided, that (x) the Soros Equityholder, for so long as it is the Soros Equityholder, shall be entitled to appoint (A) 3 of the 1L Directors from and after the Closing; and (B) 4 of the 1L Directors at any time when the Soros Equityholder and its affiliates hold 50.1% or more of the outstanding Common Stock on a fully diluted basis in the aggregate; and (y) the holders of the Class A Shares other than the Soros Equityholder shall have the right to nominate the 1L Directors that the Soros Equityholder does not have the right to nominate pursuant to clause (x); and (iii) the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group and/or their respective Permitted Transferees shall be entitled to nominate 1 director who shall be, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Required Consenting First Lien Lenders, an "industry" expert or specialist; provided that if the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group, in the aggregate, owns less than 80% of the aggregate amount of Common Stock (assuming the exercise of 2L Warrants held by a particular holder thereof) issued to the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group at Closing or less than 1% of the outstanding Common Stock on a fully diluted basis in the aggregate, they will no longer be entitled to designate a director for election. To the extent that the Soros Equityholder or the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group loses the ability to appoint or nominate (as applicable) one or more directors above for failing to hold the applicable minimum amount of Common Stock (assuming, in the case of the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group, the exercise of 2L Warrants held by a particular holder thereof), then such Board seat(s) shall be filled by majority vote of the holders of Class A Shares. Any director may be removed for cause from the Board at any time (with or without consent) by a vote of the Class A Shares and the Equityholders designated to appoint or nominate (as applicable) such director shall have the sole right to nominate any replacement thereof. Each of the Major Equityholders, for so long as it is a Major Equityholder, and each Eligible Steerco Member, for so long as it is a Eligible Steerco Member, shall also be entitled to appoint one observer to the Board (and all committees thereof). Such observer to the Board shall be subject to customary confidentiality obligations. A majority of the directors then in office will constitute a quorum; provided, that, a quorum shall require attendance by the director nominated by the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group (subject to adjournment if not present at any duly called meeting, with the adjourned meeting requiring simple majority and permissible on not less than 24 hours' notice). All directors will be entitled to reimbursement of expenses (subject to the Company's expense reimbursement policies in effect from time to time). Any director not employed by an Equityholder will be entitled to mutually agreeable compensation. The costs and expenses incurred by any observer in connection with their service as an observer shall be borne solely by the Equityholder that appointed such observer. The Board nominated at emergence shall remain the Board until completion of the FCC approval process and exercise of the Special Warrants except by written consent of the Required Holders.

Protective Provisions (Soros Equityholder)	So long as the Soros Equityholder or its Permitted Transferees is the Soros Equityholder, the Company shall not, without the consent of the Soros Equityholder, to the extent consistent with Communications Laws: 1. amend, restate or otherwise modify the certificate of incorporation or bylaws in any manner that is adverse to the Soros Equityholder; 2. increase or decrease the size of the Board; 3. incur or guarantee any debt for borrowed money other than indebtedness up to the capacity of the Company's financing arrangements in place at the Company's emergence from bankruptcy; 4. authorize or issue any equity or equity-linked securities of the Company that are senior to the Common Stock;

	5. hire, fire or change the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer; 6. enter into any acquisition of the securities or assets of another entity (other than purchases of goods in the ordinary course of business), in each case, with value in excess of $[•]; 7. cause the Company to file for bankruptcy or insolvency; 8. increase any line item in the annual operating budget of the Company by more than 5% of the amount of such line item in the prior year's annual operating budget; 9. change the primary business of the Company; or 10. agree or commit to take any of the foregoing actions.
Protective Provisions (Supermajority Equityholder Approval)	The Company shall not, without Supermajority Equityholder Approval, to the extent consistent with Communications Laws: 1. amend, restate or otherwise modify the certificate of incorporation or bylaws; 2. increase or decrease the size of the Board; 3. authorize or issue any equity or equity-linked securities of the Company that are senior to the Common Stock; 4. cause the Company to file for bankruptcy or insolvency; 5. change the primary business of the Company; or 6. agree or commit to take any of the foregoing actions.
Termination of Equity Rights	The Equityholder rights set forth herein (other than Registration Rights) shall terminate upon the earlier of (i) an IPO with gross proceeds to the Company of at least $[•] million or (ii) a Transfer of all or substantially all of the Company Securities of the Company in one or a series of related transactions.
Registration Rights	Registration rights of the Equityholders shall be as follows: (i) up to three demand registration rights exercisable by the Major Equityholders collectively after the Company has completed an IPO (with the first demand no earlier than 60 days after the IPO and no more than two demands in any 180-day period), and (ii) unlimited piggyback registration rights exercisable by all Equityholders. Each Equityholder shall be entitled to exercise its registration rights for all Registrable Securities it holds (subject to pro rata underwriter cutbacks, it being understood that management owners may be subject to an underwriter cutback in the absence of a cutback for other Equityholders or to a disproportionate cutback). Each Equityholder holding, together with its Permitted Transferees, at least 2% of the outstanding Common Stock, will, if requested by the managing underwriter, agree to a 180-day lockup period (on customary terms) following the consummation of the IPO. The Company will provide customary indemnification and will pay all expenses of registration, including the expenses (including one counsel) of any demanding Equityholder and the expenses of a single counsel selected by the selling Equityholders as a group in a piggyback registration based on a vote calculated by ownership of Common Stock of such Equityholders. "Registrable Securities" means, at any time, any shares of Common Stock (including shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrants), and any securities issued or issuable in respect of such shares of Common Stock, by way of conversion, exchange, stock dividend, split or combination, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, other reorganization or otherwise. Following an IPO, the Company shall enter into a new registration rights agreement on substantially the same terms as those set forth herein, assuming that the Shareholders' Agreement terminates upon an IPO.

Amendments	Amendments, waivers and modifications to the Shareholders' Agreement shall require approval of the Board and the Soros Equityholder; provided that no Equityholder shall be disproportionately, materially and adversely affected by such an amendment, waiver or modification without the written consent of such affected Equityholder; provided, further, the Soros Equityholder shall not be permitted to amend any of the following provisions without obtaining Majority Equityholder Approval (without taking into account the Soros Equityholder): provisions pertaining to Tag-Along Rights, Drag-Along Rights and Forced Sale; Preemptive Rights; Information Rights; the Right of First Offer; provisions pertaining to Affiliate Transactions; and the definition of Majority Equityholder Approval; provided, further, the Soros Equityholder shall not be permitted to amend the following provision without obtaining Supermajority Equityholder Approval (without taking into account the Soros Equityholder): Protective Provisions (Supermajority Equityholder Approval); and the definition of Supermajority Equityholder Approval; provided, further, the Soros Equityholder shall not be permitted to amend the right of any Equityholder or group of Equityholders to nominate a director to the Board without approval from each applicable Equityholder.
Confidentiality	The Shareholders' Agreement shall contain a reasonable and customary confidentiality provision (and use restrictions).
Jurisdiction	Delaware (and the courts located in Wilmington, Delaware).

Corporate Form	The Company shall be a [privately held] Delaware corporation, unless otherwise required by applicable law or approved by Supermajority Equityholder Approval.
Classes of Equity	The Common Stock shall be the only class of equity of the Company outstanding at Closing other than (1) special warrants convertible into such Common Stock for purposes of FCC compliance (the "Special Warrants"), (2) warrants issuable to the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group pursuant to the Restructuring Term Sheet (the "2L Warrants", and together with the Special Warrants, the "Warrants"); and (3) equity to be issued under any management incentive plan. The Common Stock shall be further divided into two classes of stock: Class A shares, which shall be voting Common Stock (the "Class A Shares"), and Class B Shares, which shall be non-voting Common Stock (the "Class B Shares").
Transferability	Subject to (i) the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and (ii) compliance with the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules, regulations, and published policies of the FCC related thereto (the "Communications Laws"), neither the Common Stock nor the Warrants shall be subject to restrictions on Transfer other than in connection with a transaction described in this Term Sheet; [provided, that the Common Stock and the Warrants may contain reasonable and customary restrictions designed to maintain the Company as a private company]. Other than in connection with a sale of the Company, Transfers to competitors (which shall be defined in the Shareholders' Agreement) will be prohibited without the consent of the Board. [1] A "Permitted Transferee" of any specified person means any other person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by or under direct or indirect common control with such specified person. For purposes of this definition, "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlling", "controlled by" and "under common control with"), as used with respect to any person, shall mean the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of such person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by agreement or otherwise.

	month period, of Company Securities constituting less than 4% of the aggregate Company Securities outstanding on the date thereof, in the event that any Equityholder (the "Selling Equityholder") desires to Transfer any Company Securities in one or a series of related transactions, the Selling Equityholder shall provide written notice of such intent (the "Intent to Sell Notice") to each Major Equityholder and each Eligible Steerco Member (collectively, the "Equity Offerees"). After delivery of the Intent to Sell Notice, the Equity Offerees shall have 5 business days (the "Offer Solicitation Period") to submit a written offer (an "Offer Notice") to the Selling Equityholder to purchase a portion of the offered shares based on a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of shares Common Stock held by that Equity Offeree on an as-converted-to Common Stock basis and the denominator of which is the sum of all shares of Common Stock held by all Equity Offerees on an as-converted-to Common Stock basis. In addition, each Equity Offeree will have the right to oversubscribe in its offer for more than its pro rata share of the offered shares in the event not all Equity Offerees exercise their right to make an offer for their full pro rata portion. Each Offer Notice shall set forth the number of offered shares that the Equity Offeree submitting such Offer Notice is offering to purchase as well as the cash purchase price per share and other material terms of such offer. After expiration of the Offer Solicitation Period, the Selling Equityholder may sell any portion of the Company Securities being Transferred either to the Equity Offerees (which may be at any price and on any terms, provided that all Equity Offerees that submitted Offer Notices are entitled to participate pro rata on the same terms and conditions (including purchase price)) or to a purchaser that is not an Equity Offeree at a higher price and other material terms and conditions that are superior to the Selling Equityholder to those set forth in the best offer set forth in the Offer Notices received prior to the expiration of the Offer Solicitation Period. If a sale on such terms is not completed prior to the 30th day following the expiration of the Offer Solicitation Period, then the Selling Equityholder must again comply with these Right of First Offer provisions.
Tag-Along Rights	Other than with respect to a Transfer to (a) a Permitted Transferee or (b) to a Major Equityholder or an Eligible Steerco Member pursuant to the "Right of First Offer" provisions above, in the event an Equityholder (or group of Equityholders) proposes to sell 20% or more of the outstanding Company Securities (each, a "Selling Equityholder"), each of the other Equityholders (other than the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder) shall have "tag-along" rights to participate, on a pro rata basis, in such sale, on the same terms, and subject to the same conditions as the Selling Equityholder(s), including that such other Equityholders shall be required to agree to the representations, warranties, covenants (including restrictive covenants) and indemnities on a several (and not joint or joint and several) basis to which the Selling Equityholder agrees; provided, that any indemnity will (i) be on a pro rata basis and (ii) not exceed the total purchase price received by such Equityholder. At least 15 business days prior to any transfer by the Selling Equityholder(s), such Selling Equityholder(s) shall deliver written notice (the "Tag-Along Notice") to all other Equityholders (other than the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder) specifying the material terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer, including the number of shares to be sold and the price per share, and each such Equityholder may elect to participate in the proposed Transfer up to their pro rata share by delivering written notice to the Selling Equityholder(s) within 10 business days after delivery of the Tag-Along Notice (such Equityholders who timely deliver a valid tag-along election notice, the "Tag-Along Equityholders"). The Selling Equityholder(s) will use commercially reasonable efforts to have the purchaser purchase all shares proposed to be sold by the Selling Equityholder(s) and the Tag-Along Equityholders. If the purchaser refuses to purchase all such shares, the number of shares to be sold to the purchaser by the Selling Equityholder(s) and the Tag-Along Equityholders will be cut back pro rata based on the relative number of all shares owned by such Equityholders in the form of Company Securities.

Drag-Along Rights/ Forced Sale	After the 24-month anniversary of the Company's emergence from bankruptcy, other than with respect to a Transfer to a Permitted Transferee, in the event that the Equityholders holding, together with their Affiliates, in the aggregate, more than 50.1% of the outstanding Company Securities (the "Required Holders"), propose to Transfer all or substantially all of their shares of Company Securities to an unaffiliated third party or parties on an arm's-length basis (a "Majority Sale"), then the Required Holders shall have "drag-along" rights to cause all of the other holders of Company Securities to Transfer all of the Company Securities held by such persons to the proposed transferee(s) under the Majority Sale, at the same price and otherwise on substantially the same terms, and subject to the same conditions, as set forth in the agreements with respect to the Majority Sale. Such dragged holders shall (i) provide customary representations and warranties regarding their legal status and authority, and their ownership of the Company Securities being transferred, and customary (several but not joint) indemnities regarding the same and (ii) not be required to agree to any restrictive covenants other than confidentiality and employee non-solicitation or to indemnify or contribute any amount in excess of the total purchase price received by such dragged holder in any such transfer. Such dragged holder shall participate pro rata in any customary (several but not joint) indemnification with respect to matters other than the representations and warranties described in clause (i) above on a pro rata basis, it being understood that such indemnification shall not exceed the total purchase price received by such Equityholder. After the 24-month anniversary of the Company's emergence from bankruptcy, the Equityholders holding, together with their Affiliates, in the aggregate, at least 50.1% of the outstanding Company Securities shall have the right to cause the Company to retain a nationally recognized investment bank, law firm and other professional advisors to be selected by the Board to initiate and proceed with a bona-fide process to effectuate a sale of the Company and seek to obtain approval from the Board and Majority Equityholder Approval.

Preemptive Rights	Each Equityholder holding, together with its Permitted Transferees, at least 0.5 % of the outstanding Company Securities, shall be entitled to reasonable and customary equity preemptive rights (including, for the avoidance of doubt, rights related to equity-linked and convertible debt issuances), subject to customary exceptions including for Exempt Issuances below. "Exempt Issuances" shall include (i) securities issued in underwritten, broadly-placed public offerings of securities, (ii) securities issued under employee incentive plans approved by the Board, (iii) securities issued to the counterparty of the underlying transaction in connection with acquisitions, joint ventures, borrowings or other strategic operating transactions, and (iv) other customary exceptions.
Information Rights	At all times prior to the Company completing an initial public offering ("IPO"), the Company shall provide to each Equityholder or such Equityholder's Permitted Transferees on an online data site: (1) audited financial statements within ~~[~~90~~]~~ days after the end of each fiscal year; and (2) unaudited quarterly financial statements within ~~[~~45~~]~~ days after each fiscal quarter end (or, if shorter, in the same time frame required for such financial information to be delivered to lenders under the Company's credit agreement then in effect)~~.~~[2], in each case, including an explanation of and bridge for EBITDA. No such information shall be required to be provided to any Equityholder if the Board determines in good faith that such Equityholder is, or is an affiliate of, a material competitor of the Company; provided, that in no event shall the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder be considered a competitor of the Company (provided, that the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder shall be subject to the confidentiality provisions and use restrictions with respect to the Company's confidential information). ~~[Certain Equityholders]~~[3]Each Major Equityholder, the Eligible Steerco Members and up to three members of the Ad Hoc Second Lien Group (for so long as such member continues to hold all of the Common Stock issued to such member at Closing), will have the right to obtain such additional information that is reasonably requested (including monthly financial reports and annual budgets), and will have the right to request meetings with management a reasonable number of times per year to discuss the operations and business of the Company. To the extent any Equityholder and its Permitted Transferees acquire additional Company Securities such that such Equityholder and its Permitted Transferees hold at least 10% of the outstanding Company Securities, then such Equityholder shall be entitled to the additional information rights set forth in this paragraph.

Affiliate Transactions	The Company shall not enter into a transaction with affiliates of the Company or its subsidiaries (or the officers, directors, lenders or Equityholders of the Company or its subsidiaries) (an "Affiliate Transaction") unless the terms of such transaction are at least as favorable to the Company as could have been obtained in a comparable arms-length transaction by the Company with an unaffiliated third party as reasonably determined by the Board and if such transaction is reasonably expected to involve greater than $20 million in (a) annual net revenue to the Company in the case of commercial transactions or (b) total consideration in the case of asset sales or any acquisition[4], such transaction is approved by a majority of the disinterested directors then in office. Governance Rights	Except as otherwise set forth below for the election of directors, each Class A Share shall be entitled to one vote and the holders thereof shall be entitled to vote for all such matters that are put to the Equityholders for approval under the Company's governing documents and applicable law; provided, the Class B Shares, any equity provided under a management incentive plan, the Special Warrants and the 2L Warrants shall be non-voting except as otherwise provided therein. The number of directors on the Board shall be established at 7 directors. The Board initially shall be composed (the "Board") as follows: (i) David Field (or his replacement, if any) for so long as such person is employed by the Company or its subsidiary or affiliate; (ii) Subject to compliance with Communications Laws, the First Lien Ad Hoc Group and/or their respective Permitted Transferees shall be entitled to nominate 5 directors (the "1L Directors"), 1 of which shall serve as the Chairman of the Board; provided, that (x) the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder, for so long as it is the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder, shall be entitled to appoint (A) 3 of the 1L Directors from and after the Closing; and (B) 4 of the 1L Directors at any time when the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder and its affiliates hold 50.1% or more of the outstanding Common Stock on a fully diluted basis in the aggregate; and (y) the holders of the Class A Shares other than the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder shall have the right to nominate the 1L Directors that the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder does not have the right to nominate pursuant to clause (x); and (iii) the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group and/or their respective Permitted Transferees shall be entitled to nominate 1 director who shall be, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Required Consenting First Lien Lenders, an "industry" expert or specialist; provided that if the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group, in the aggregate, owns less than 80% of the aggregate amount of Common Stock (assuming the exercise of 2L Warrants held by a particular holder thereof) issued to the Second Lien Ad

	Hoc Group at Closing or less than 1% of the outstanding Common Stock on a fully diluted basis in the aggregate, they will no longer be entitled to designate a director for election. To the extent that the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder or the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group loses the ability to appoint or nominate (as applicable) one or more directors above for failing to hold the applicable minimum amount of Common Stock (assuming, in the case of the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group, the exercise of 2L Warrants held by a particular holder thereof), then such Board seat(s) shall be filled by majority vote of the holders of Class A Shares. Any director may be removed for cause from the Board at any time (with or without consent) by a vote of the Class A Shares and the Equityholders designated to appoint or nominate (as applicable) such director shall have the sole right to nominate any replacement thereof. Each of the Major Equityholders, for so long as it is a Major Equityholder, and each Eligible Steerco Member, for so long as it is a Eligible Steerco Member, shall also be entitled to appoint one observer to the Board (and all committees thereof). Such observer to the Board shall be subject to customary confidentiality obligations. A majority of the directors then in office will constitute a quorum; provided, that, a quorum shall require attendance by the director nominated by the Second Lien Ad Hoc Group (subject to adjournment if not present at any duly called meeting, with the adjourned meeting requiring simple majority and permissible on not less than 24 hours' notice). All directors will be entitled to reimbursement of expenses (subject to the Company's expense reimbursement policies in effect from time to time). Any director not employed by an Equityholder will be entitled to mutually agreeable compensation. The costs and expenses incurred by any observer in connection with their service as an observer shall be borne solely by the Equityholder that appointed such observer. The Board nominated at emergence shall remain the Board until completion of the FCC approval process and exercise of the Special Warrants except by written consent of the Required Holders.

	Equityholders.
Protective Provisions (~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder)	So long as the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder or its Permitted Transferees is the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder, the Company shall not, without the consent of the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder, to the extent consistent with Communications Laws: 1. amend, restate or otherwise modify the certificate of incorporation or bylaws in any manner that is adverse to the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder; 2. increase or decrease the size of the Board; 3. incur or guarantee any debt for borrowed money other than indebtedness up to the capacity of the Company's financing arrangements in place at the Company's emergence from bankruptcy; 4. authorize or issue any equity or equity-linked securities of the Company that are senior to the Common Stock; 5. hire, fire or change the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer; 6. enter into any acquisition of the securities or assets of another entity (other than purchases of goods in the ordinary course of business), in each case, with value in excess of $[●]; 7. cause the Company to file for bankruptcy or insolvency; 8. increase any line item in the annual operating budget of the Company by more than 5% of the amount of such line item in the prior year's annual operating budget; 9. change the primary business of the Company; or 10. agree or commit to take any of the foregoing actions.
Protective Provisions (Supermajority Equityholder Approval)	The Company shall not, without Supermajority Equityholder Approval, to the extent consistent with Communications Laws: 1. amend, restate or otherwise modify the certificate of incorporation or bylaws; 2. increase or decrease the size of the Board; 3. authorize or issue any equity or equity-linked securities of the Company that are senior to the Common Stock; 4. cause the Company to file for bankruptcy or insolvency; 5. change the primary business of the Company; or 6. agree or commit to take any of the foregoing actions.
Termination of Equity	The Equityholder rights set forth herein (other than Registration Rights	Rights) shall terminate upon the earlier of (i) an IPO with gross proceeds to the Company of at least $[•] million or (ii) a Transfer of all or substantially all of the Company Securities of the Company in one or a series of related transactions.

Registration Rights	Registration rights of the Equityholders shall be as follows: (i) up to three demand registration rights exercisable by the Major Equityholders collectively after the Company has completed an IPO (with the first demand no earlier than 60 days after the IPO and no more than two demands in any 180-day period), and (ii) unlimited piggyback registration rights exercisable by all Equityholders. Each Equityholder shall be entitled to exercise its registration rights for all Registrable Securities it holds (subject to pro rata underwriter cutbacks, it being understood that management owners may be subject to an underwriter cutback in the absence of a cutback for other Equityholders or to a disproportionate cutback). Each Equityholder holding, together with its Permitted Transferees, at least ~~[•]~~2% of the outstanding Common Stock, will, if requested by the managing underwriter, agree to a 180-day lockup period (on customary terms) following the consummation of the IPO. The Company will provide customary indemnification and will pay all expenses of registration, including the expenses (including one counsel) of any demanding Equityholder and the expenses of a single counsel selected by the selling Equityholders as a group in a piggyback registration based on a vote calculated by ownership of Common Stock of such Equityholders. "Registrable Securities" means, at any time, any shares of Common Stock (including shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrants), and any securities issued or issuable in respect of such shares of Common Stock, by way of conversion, exchange, stock dividend, split or combination, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, other reorganization or otherwise. Following an IPO, the Company shall enter into a new registration rights agreement on substantially the same terms as those set forth herein, assuming that the Shareholders' Agreement terminates upon an IPO.
Amendments	Amendments, waivers and modifications to the Shareholders' Agreement shall require approval of the Board and the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder; provided that no Equityholder shall be disproportionately, materially and adversely affected by such an amendment, waiver or modification without the written consent of such affected Equityholder; provided, further, the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder shall not be permitted to amend any of the following provisions without obtaining Majority Equityholder Approval

	(without taking into account the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder): provisions pertaining to Tag-Along Rights, Drag-Along Rights and Forced Sale; Preemptive Rights; Information Rights; the Right of First Offer; provisions pertaining to Affiliate Transactions; and the definition of Majority Equityholder Approval; provided, further, the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder shall not be permitted to amend the following provision without obtaining Supermajority Equityholder Approval (without taking into account the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder): Protective Provisions (Supermajority Equityholder Approval); and the definition of Supermajority Equityholder Approval; provided, further, the ~~SFM~~Soros Equityholder shall not be permitted to amend the right of any Equityholder or group of Equityholders to nominate a director to the Board without approval from each applicable Equityholder.
Confidentiality	The Shareholders' Agreement shall contain a reasonable and customary confidentiality provision (and use restrictions).

PETITION TO DENY

The Media Research Center (MRC) hereby petitions the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to deny the above-captioned assignment application and all related assignment applications (the "Soros Assignment Applications").[1] The MRC is America's premiere media watchdog. MRC is a research and education organization operating under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

MRC files this petition to deny because, just months ago, the Soros Fund Management, a firm founded by activist and billionaire George Soros, took steps to become the largest shareholder in Audacy, which owns the second largest number of broadcast radio stations in the country. There is no question that George Soros and his affiliated businesses are looking to control these radio stations to advance their particular brand of activism. Indeed, this transaction has already drawn significant public scrutiny. This is no surprise. After all, Audacy owns and operates 225 local radio stations in 46 markets across the country that air a variety of news, talk, and other programming. The broadcasts from these Audacy-owned stations reach millions of listeners. George Soros and his affiliated businesses launched this significant move into local radio as Audacy is completing a Chapter 11 bankruptcy reorganization.

Audacy filed a series of assignment applications with the Commission seeking FCC approval of its change in ownership as outlined in the bankruptcy proceedings pursuant to [1] This Petition to Deny applies to all Audacy assignment applications related to this transaction, including the ones listed on FCC, Public Notice, Report No. PN-1-240321-01 (Mar. 21, 2024), https://docs.fcc.gov/public/attachments/DOC-401375A1.pdf.

Section 310 of the Communications Act. On March 21, 2024, the FCC's Media Bureau put the relevant applications out for public comment. This petition to deny is thus timely filed on or before April 22, 2024. The applications identify the involvement that both George Soros and Alexander Soros will play with respect to the transaction.

MRC files this petition to deny because the Communications Act of 1934 provides that the FCC cannot approve assignment applications like these unless the Commission first determines that granting them would serve the public interest. In making this statutorily-required assessment, the Commission must determine at the outset whether the proposed transaction would comply with the specific provisions of the Communications Act, other applicable statutes, and the FCC's own rules. If the transaction would not violate a statute or rule, the Commission then considers whether it could result in public interest harms by substantially frustrating or impairing the objectives or implementation of the Act or related statutes. In the circumstances of a radio station purchase of this size and magnitude, the FCC has an obligation to complete a full and thorough review.

The FCC has an obligation to deny these assignment applications for at least the following reason. In their assignment applications and supporting materials, the Soros groups are asking the FCC to approve this change in ownership without the FCC running its normal, statutorily required process. Specifically, Section 310(b)(4) of the Communications Act provides that no radio station license can be held by any corporation that exceeds 25 percent foreign ownership. Years ago, the FCC set up a process whereby entities can file a petition for declaratory ruling with the agency—at the time the assignment applications are filed—to have the government review and potentially permit ownership interests in excess of this limit. Once filed, those petitions are also subject to Executive Branch review by the Committee for the Assessment of Foreign Participation in the U.S. Telecommunications Services Sector, known as Team Telecom, to identify and if necessary mitigate any national-security or law-enforcement risks.

In the case of these assignment applications, the Soros group expressly states in their FCC filing that they have determined that the aggregate level of foreign ownership in the company when it emerges from bankruptcy will exceed the 25 percent limit specified in Section 310(b)(4) of the Communications Act due to the various entities that it expects to hold voting or equity interests. But instead of going through the usual petition for declaratory ruling process, which would enable the FCC to review and assess those foreign ownership interests as part of its transaction review, the Soros group asks the FCC to waive that process and put it off until sometime down the road—indicating that those foreign stakeholders will be given "special warrants" in the meantime. The Soros group says that putting off the required foreign ownership review will enable the FCC to expedite its approval of the Soros applications and thus allow them to more quickly realize their ownership interests in and take over the hundreds of local radio stations across the country. That might be true. But the Soros group's interest in expediency does not give the FCC a basis for ignoring the legally required process.

Here are a few specific reasons why the Soros group has failed to make the case that the FCC should create a special Soros shortcut. The vague and undefined "special warrant" process that the Soros groups propose to use—in what appears to be an effort to wall off the foreign ownership interests for the time being—does not allow the FCC to grant the requested waiver. The "special warrant" process offers no credible assurances to the FCC that the foreign "special warrant" holders will not maintain the capability to exercise the type of control or influence over the radio stations that would be permissible under Section 310 of the Communications Act. Nor have the Soros groups carried their burden of demonstrating that the various radio stations will not feel pressure to abide by the wishes of those foreign "special warrant" holders until after the FCC completes its review of any petition for declaratory ruling that the Soros groups may choose to file down the road.

Finally, while the Soros groups point to the FCC's past statements about the public interest benefits of enabling companies to emerge from bankruptcy proceedings in a timely manner, the Soros groups have not offered any basis for the FCC to determine that this general policy statement applies in this particular case. The Soros filings fail to demonstrate that in this case any interest in the reasonably efficient emergence from bankruptcy cannot be accommodated while also assessing the foreign ownership interests at the same time. Instead, it appears that the Soros groups are simply trying to create an entirely new process or rule under which stations that go through bankruptcy necessarily get special treatment when it comes to the Section 310 process.

The Communications Act does not contain a special Soros shortcut. And the FCC should not countenance this request for one. The FCC has an obligation to deny these assignment applications since the Soros groups have not specified the foreign ownership interest holders nor enabled the FCC and the federal government to review those interests as required by Section 310 of the Communications Act.

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF PETITION TO DENY

The Media Research Center (MRC) submits the following in support of MRC's pending petition to deny the above-captioned assignment application and all related assignment applications (the "Soros Assignment Applications").

Recent FCC precedent makes clear that the Soros Assignment Applications have not met their burden of showing that this transaction satisfies the Commission's public interest standard. In particular, the Soros Assignment Applications have said nothing at all about their approach to local jobs and the potential for labor reductions at the hundreds of radio stations. And there is reason for concerns about this Soros-backed entity and job losses. See, e.g., Thalia Beaty, George Soros' Open Society Foundations to lay off 40% of staff under son's new leadership AP (July 6, 2023), https://apnews.com/article/george-soros-open-society-foundations-layoffs-5da856adc82b4de8dfe6a74d81b9c4e4 (https://apnews.com/article/george-soros-open-society-foundations-layoffs-5da856adc82b4de8dfe6a74d81b9c4e4).

Just last year, the FCC decided not to approve a broadcast transaction and the agency's Media Bureau issued a hearing designation order based on the applicants failing to make an appropriate showing regarding this localism issue. In particular, the FCC's Media Bureau found in the Tegna-Standard General Hearing Designation Order that substantial and material questions of fact existed regarding whether that transaction "will result in labor reductions at local stations." DA 23-149 at para. 2.

Continuing, the FCC stated that it is "critical . . . that we understand the impact the transaction will likely have on localism and specifically on local jobs at the stations involved." Id. at para. 3. Likewise, the FCC stated that "we recognize that local journalism is the heart of local news and community-responsive programming, and in that context we take seriously concerns that a diminution in the employment of local journalists and other local staff poses a threat to localism." Id. at para. 36. Given the agency's Tegna-Standard General precedent, the Commission cannot approve this transaction on the current record for this reason alone. The Soros Assignment Applications have not made any showing (let alone an adequate one) on the FCC's localism / jobs consideration. This is therefore an additional reason why the FCC cannot approve the Soros Assignment Applications and related waiver request.

The Communications Act does not contain a special Soros shortcut. And the FCC should not countenance this request for one. The FCC has an obligation to deny these assignment applications since the Soros groups have not specified the foreign ownership interest holders nor enabled the FCC and the federal government to review those interests as required by Section 310 of the Communications Act.

Hello James,

I am filing and at the FCC online a complaint to block Globalist Geroge Soros from purchasing Audacy Radio Stations. He is a Globalist which is the same as a Communist, Marxist, Nazi and Socialist. They believe in a one world government with a ruling class and the rest of the people as servants. He funds terrorist's organizations, is for open boarders, and funds all the district attorney campaigns in this country that don't prosecute criminals and causes an increase in crime. He funded all the Black Lives Matter Demonstrations that burned down a police station and did major destruction on the west coast in Washington State and Oregon. He is the one funding all the antisemitic demonstrations on our college campuses. While he was born Jewish, he does not practice or follow the religion. He is a globalist that believes in a one world government and hates the United States. I am Jewish and with all due respects, any Jew in the Democratic Party is a Communist and worships Saul Alinsky's Handbook, "Rules for Radicals" on how to overthrow the US Government.

George Soros is a big donator to the Democratic party. He wants to take over Audacy Radio so he can eliminate any conservative talk shows on their radio stations and prevent any Republican from ever winning the Presidency.

It is bad enough that we have 42 Chinese Communist Police Stations in this country and a Communist for an Attorney General weaponizing the Justice Department to prevent a Republican from becoming President. It would be even worse for the FCC to allow this George Soros to take over All the Audacy Radio Stations, using them to create a one-party system here by eliminating conservative talk shows and Republican Political Commercials.

Joseph Goebbels was Hitler's Propaganda Minister. He said that if you control the News Media you can control the minds of the people. Having George Soros owning Audacy and run it would be like selling Audacy Radio to Joseph Goebbels.

Soros should not be allowed to own any radio stations in this country. He has stock in Audacy and Cumulus Radio. That is so wrong. He owns WAQI AM 710 in Miami Florida. When he bought it, he fired all the Anti-Castro and Anti-Communist radio talk show hosts and replaced them with left wing communist. He took the stations 50,000-Watt signal that went into Cuba at Night and chopped it to 6,300 Watts so it could not be heard in Cuba. Knowing he did this you know that he will eliminate any conservative programming on all Audacy Radio Station and will eliminate Republican Political Radio Commercials on the Audacy Radio Stations.

Unless FCC Chairwoman Jessica Rosenworcel is a Communist and hates the United States and does not understand we are a two- party system and a Free Republic and does not want to destroy our country, She and the FCC must stop George Soros who hates the United States and who wants to sell us out to Communist China, the Globalists and the New World Order of One World Government, FCC Chairwoman Jessica Rosenworcel and the FCC Commissioners must block George Soros From Owning any Radio Stations in the United States and remove him from having any stock in any radio corporation or broadcast company.

In no way shape or form should the FCC Fast Track George Soros Purchase of Audacy. He should not be allowed to own any Radio or TV Broadcasting Company in the United States.

It would be like selling Audacy to Joeseph Goebbels.

This is about protecting our country and respecting it. Are the FCC Chairwomen and the FCC Commissioners American Patriots or Communists?

We will be able to tell from your FCC Decision.

Stop George Soros!

Sincerely,
Ira
Mr. Ira Patasnik

PS: Remember, Communist, Marxist, Nazi's, Globalists and Socialists do not believe in God or Religion, Only, in the State with a ruling class and the people as servants. We do not want that for the United States.

OPPOSITION TO PETITION TO DENY

Audacy License, LLC, Debtor-in-Possession ("Audacy License DIP"), and its affiliates (collectively, "Audacy"), hereby oppose the "petition to deny" (the "Petition") filed by the Media Research Center ("MRC") on April 22, 2024 in connection with the above-captioned application (the "Application") seeking Commission consent for Audacy's emergence from bankruptcy. As a threshold matter, the Petition is procedurally defective and should be dismissed without consideration. But to the extent the Commission treats the Petition as an informal objection, MRC's purported concern—that the Commission is being asked to consent to the Application without "running its normal, statutorily required process"[1]—is unfounded. Pursuant to well-established precedent, the Commission has determined that granting a limited waiver deferring its foreign ownership review to facilitate a licensee's prompt emergence from bankruptcy is consistent with the Communications Act. Accordingly, the Commission should summarily reject MRC's ill-informed attempt to impede Audacy's reorganization and promptly grant the Application.

I. MRC'S PETITION IS PROCEDURALLY DEFECTIVE

MRC's filing, although styled as a "petition to deny," meets none of the procedural standards for such status and is fatally defective. Foremost of its fatal defects is the fact that MRC lacks standing to object to the Application. Section 309(d)(1) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended ("Act"), "provides that only a 'party in interest' has standing to file a petition to deny, which must contain specific allegations of fact sufficient to show that the petitioner is, in fact, a party in interest and that a grant of the application would be prima facie inconsistent with the public interest."[2] "Generally, in the context of broadcast applications, the Commission has accorded party-in-interest status to petitioners that demonstrate they are (1) competitors in the market suffering signal interference; (2) competitors in the market suffering economic harm; or (3) residents of the station's service area or regular listeners … of the station."[3] And in all cases, "allegations of fact, except for those of which official notice may be taken, must be supported by an affidavit of someone with personal knowledge thereof."[4] Relevant here, "[a]n organization can establish standing on behalf of its members if it provides an affidavit or declaration 'of one or more individuals entitled to standing indicating that the group represents local residents and that the petition is filed on their behalf.'"[5]

The Petition fails on all counts. MRC makes no effort to demonstrate that it is a party in interest in this proceeding. The Petition makes no mention of any members of MRC that reside in the service areas or regularly listen to any of Audacy's stations. Indeed, the Petition is entirely devoid of any allegation of injury to MRC (or anyone else) and puts forth no specific allegations of fact showing that the grant of the Application would be prima facie inconsistent with the public interest. Critically, MRC failed to provide the affidavit needed to support the allegations of fact that were required to be raised in the Petition. For these deficiencies alone, the Commission should dismiss the Petition without consideration.

Furthermore, MRC did not serve the Petition on Audacy, which is another fatal defect requiring its dismissal. A "pleading is procedurally defective" if it is not "properly serve[d]" as required by Section 309(d)(1) of the Act and Section 1.47 of the Commission's rules.[6] Audacy has not received service of the Petition, and the Petition is not accompanied by a certificate of service or any other evidence that MRC made any attempt at service.

II. THE PROPOSED ISSUANCE OF SPECIAL WARRANTS IS CONSISTENT WITH WELL-ESTABLISHED PRECEDENT

To the extent the Commission elects to treat MRC's submission as an informal objection, the substance of MRC's complaint is meritless. According to MRC, Audacy is attempting to employ an "entirely new" and "vague and undefined 'special warrant' process" to delay Commission review of Audacy's proposed foreign ownership until "sometime down the road"

when the company "may choose" to file a petition for declaratory ruling seeking such review.[7] This specious claim not only mischaracterizes the company's waiver request detailed in the Application, but completely ignores longstanding precedent establishing the Commission-approved special warrant process used in a number of prior transactions to allow licensees to emerge from bankruptcy promptly, while affording the Commission sufficient opportunity to review foreign ownership issues post-emergence.[8]

The relief that Audacy has requested to facilitate its issuance of special warrants—a temporary and limited waiver of Section 1.5000(a)(1) of the Commission's rules, "effectively provid[ing] interim" authority under Section 310(b)(4) of the Act[9]—is fully consistent with this precedent. Indeed, as the Commission has recognized, its grant of a waiver of Section 1.5000(a)(1) and Audacy's issuance of special warrants "would not permit the [company] to 'sidestep' foreign ownership disclosure obligations," but "merely enable [it] to emerge from bankruptcy before filing a petition for declaratory ruling, and, by filing such a petition as

Audacy's prompt emergence from bankruptcy, with substantially less debt and improved operational arrangements, is critical to the continued operation of its stations and its ability to remain a competitive radio broadcaster, which in turn will "advance[] the public interest by providing economic and social benefits, especially including the compensation of innocent creditors."[11] Moreover, Audacy has certified to its compliance with Section 310(b) of the Act[12] and acknowledged the Commission's statutory obligation to review the foreign ownership of the emerged company, and accordingly has committed to filing a petition for declaratory ruling within 30 days after its emergence from bankruptcy.[13]

The Honorable Anna Gomez
Commissioner
Federal Communications Commission
45 L Street NE
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Commissioner Gomez:

At your nomination hearing in June 2023, you stated that "commissioners should vote on matters of significant public interest."[1] I urge you to abide by your statements to Congress, as well as longstanding Federal Communications Commission (FCC) precedent, and oppose the approval of George Soros's takeover of Audacy's nationwide radio network—including any transfer of licenses—without a Commission-level vote.

By any measure, this proceeding is a matter of significant public interest. It involves the acquisition of the second-largest owner of broadcast radio stations in the nation, with 225 stations in 46 markets.[2] Moreover, the applicants themselves admit that foreign entities will hold substantial ownership interests in these hundreds of broadcast stations—indeed, interests that exceed limits specified in federal law.[3] The applicants have asked for a waiver from the FCC's foreign ownership rule so they can consummate the transaction, get the keys to the stations now, and punt the FCC's vetting of their foreign interest holders until later. The timing of this request—in the final run-up to the federal election—only heightens what is at stake for the nation's media landscape.

I agree with your sworn testimony that matters of significant public interest like this require a Commission-level vote. To protect the interests of the American public, any transfer of Audacy's licenses, particularly one involving a waiver of foreign ownership limits, should be vetted by the full Commission—not rubber-stamped by unaccountable bureaucrats acting under the guise of delegated authority.

While there are many routine administrative matters where subordinate bureaus use delegated authority to act, the review of significant transactions that will have a major impact on consumers—particularly those involving hundreds of millions of dollars or more—is a quintessentially Commission-level matter. That is why, for most of the Commission's history, significant transactions have been subject to a Commission-level vote.[4]

In a major abuse of power, the Commission recently departed from this precedent in its review of the Standard General-TEGNA transaction. Instead of holding an open and transparent Commission-level vote, Chairwoman Jessica Rosenworcel quashed the deal through a bureau-level order.[5] This procedural misdeed earned the Chairwoman a rebuke from Congress[6] and led to an ongoing review by the FCC's Inspector General.[7]

The Commission should not repeat this mistake in its review of the Audacy transaction. Unfortunately, it appears that Soros Fund Management is trying to use the cover of bankruptcy proceedings to avoid Commission review of its takeover of Audacy. Whereas a major broadcast takeover would ordinarily be subject to significant Commission-level oversight to determine its impact on the "public interest," the reorganization application instead cites bureau-level bankruptcy precedent in an attempt to get the license transfers approved through the Media

Dear Commissioner Simington:

On July 9, 2024, I sent letters to your colleagues, Commissioners Starks and Gomez, urging them to honor their commitments to Congress and insist that any approval of George Soros's takeover of Audacy's nationwide radio network be subject to a vote of the full Federal Communications Commission (FCC).[1] Considering the large number of stations involved, the presence of foreign ownership interests in excess of limits specified in federal law, and the deal's timing in the final run-up to the Presidential election, I argued that a thorough vetting by the full Commission was both an expected duty of the officeholder and necessary to protect the interests of the American public.

Despite Commissioner Gomez's sworn testimony that "commissioners should vote on matters of significant public interest,"[2] and Commissioner Starks's commitment that he was "eager to work with me" in ensuring that significant transactions are voted on by the full Commission,[3] both commissioners refused to follow through on the promises they made to Congress and dodged my basic procedural request.[4] Instead, your Democratic colleagues indicated they were eager to avoid accountability by letting faceless, unelected bureaucrats who were not accountable to the public or the Senate rubber-stamp the deal under the guise of delegated authority.

In other words, despite their commitments to Congress, both Commissioners Starks and Gomez appear willing to turn a blind eye to Chairwoman Rosenworcel's pattern of abusing delegated authority. This was seen most starkly in the Commission's mishandling of the Standard General-TEGNA transaction, where instead of holding an open and transparent Commission-level vote, the Chairwoman violated FCC precedent and quashed the deal through a bureau-level order.[5]

In your opinion, were your colleagues' responses to my request appropriate? Or are you instead of the view that any transfer of Audacy's licenses requires comprehensive vetting by the full Commission? I ask that you respond in writing by August 23, 2024, including with the same commitment I requested from your colleagues: to insist that the transaction be reviewed by the full Commission, including any order granting a waiver of the FCC's foreign ownership rules to transfer Audacy's broadcast licenses to the reorganized Soros-backed entity.

The Honorable Jessica Rosenworcel
Chairwoman
Federal Communication Commission
45 L Street, NE
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Chairwoman Rosenworcel,

I write today regarding Soros Fund Management's acquisition of over $400 million in debt held by Audacy—the second-largest broadcast radio station owner in the country. Of particular concern, the Soros groups are asking the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to approve a change in ownership in Audacy without the FCC running its normal, statutorily required process. This transaction, which affects radio stations that reach millions of listeners across the U.S., including in Texas' 21st congressional district, should —at minimum—be subject to rigorous FCC oversight to ensure U.S. radio stations are not subject to undue influence.

As you know, earlier this year, Soros Fund Management—a firm founded by activist and billionaire George Soros—took steps to become the largest shareholder in Audacy. Audacy owns more than 220 local radio stations in over 40 markets that air a variety of news, talk, and entertainment programming. George Soros and his affiliated companies made this extensive move into local radio as Audacy is completing a Chapter 11 bankruptcy reorganization.

Last month, Audacy filed a series of assignment applications with the FCC seeking Commission approval of its change in ownership pursuant to Section 310 of the Communications Act. The public has an opportunity to file petitions to deny the applications seeking FCC approval to assign the Audacy stations to these Soros-aligned entities. The FCC will then presumably issue a decision on the merits soon after.

The Communications Act provides that the FCC cannot approve these assignment applications unless the Commission determines that granting them would serve the public interest. In making this required assessment, the Commission must first determine whether the proposed transaction would comply with the specific provisions of the Communications Act, other applicable statutes, and the FCC's own rules. If the transaction would not violate a statute or rule, the Commission then considers whether it could result in public interest harms by substantially frustrating or impairing the objectives or implementation of the Act or related statutes. The FCC has an obligation to complete a full and thorough review of any radio station purchase of this size and magnitude.

Of particular concern, Section 310(b)(4) of the Communications Act provides that no radio station license can be held by any corporation that exceeds 25 percent foreign ownership. The FCC long ago set up a process whereby entities can file a petition for declaratory ruling with the agency—at the time the assignment applications are filed—to have the government review and potentially permit ownership interests in excess of this limit. Once filed, those petitions are also subject to Executive Branch review by the Committee for the Assessment of Foreign Participation in the U.S. Telecommunications Services Sector, known as Team Telecom, to identify and, if necessary, mitigate any national-security or law-enforcement risks.

Here, the Soros group expressly states in their FCC filing that they have determined that the aggregate level of foreign ownership in the company when it emerges from bankruptcy will exceed the 25 percent limit specified in Section 310(b)(4) of the Communications Act due to the various entities that it expects to hold voting or equity interests. But instead of going through the usual petition for declaratory ruling process, which would enable the FCC to review and assess those foreign ownership interests as part of its transaction review, the Soros group has asked the FCC to waive that process and put it off until sometime down the road—indicating that those foreign stakeholders will be given "special warrants" in the meantime. The Soros group says that skipping the foreign ownership review at this time will enable the FCC to expedite its approval of the Soros applications and thus allow them to more quickly realize their ownership interests in, and take the reins at, these hundreds of local radio stations across the country. While this may be true, the Soros group's interest in expediency does not obviate the FCC's obligation to follow the law and protect the American people.

Any FCC approval of these applications must be accompanied by a full review of the foreign ownership interests as required by the law, including a resolution of the petition for declaratory ruling that the Soros interests indicate that they plan on filing at a future date. With this in mind, I ask that you respond to the following question by May 7, 2024:

- Will you commit to not creating a Soros shortcut by granting the request for a waiver of Section 310(b)(4) of the Communications Act and relevant FCC rules?

The FCC's review of this Soros transaction will naturally draw close public scrutiny. It is imperative that the FCC run a fair and transparent process—one that abides by the requirements of the law—that thoroughly reviews the concerns posed by foreign ownership of American radio stations.

Chip Roy

Chairwoman
Federal Communications Commission
45 L Street NE
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairwoman Rosenworcel:

I write to you to urge the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), within all applicable rules and regulations, and pursuant to the FCC's public interest mandate pursuant to the Radio Act of 1927 (P.L. 69-632), to thoroughly scrutinize the transfer of ownership of Audacy Inc. to Soros Fund Management. I am concerned, given Audacy's extensive portfolio of local radio stations, that this ownership transfer to a fund that itself is owned by a deeply partisan individual, could have a fundamental impact on the nature of local radio and potentially silence political viewpoints. The FCC's stewardship over AM and FM bandwidth across the United States is critical, and I therefore ask that the commission ensure its due diligence and thoughtful scrutiny over the transfer of ownership of Audacy, Inc. and its portfolio of local radio stations to an investor with a long, well-known track record of pushing a far left, partisan agenda.

AM radio stations are critical forms of media and communication for local communities across the United States. In and around my own district, NY-23, the Buffalo media market remains the top local radio market—specifically AM radio—in the country. Upstate New Yorkers, as is the case elsewhere, rely on local radio to stay up to date on everything from emergency alerts to national and local news. Americans still rely on local radio as one of the last media outlets available for local news, as well as diverse opinions across the political spectrum.

Audacy, Inc., despite its recent financial troubles, remains the nation's second-largest radio company, owning more than 220 stations nationwide. With the acquisition of $400 million of Audacy's debt, The Soros Fund Management will now have significant ownership of Audacy moving forward. This is just the latest in a series of purchases by funds linked to Mr. Soros of media companies—including the purchase in 2023 of Vice Media, and an earlier purchase of Crooked Media.

I believe that this sale is the latest in a series of moves by a partisan, progressive billionaire to consolidate control over the media and flood hundreds of local radio stations with far-left ideology and propaganda. Furthermore, I believe that what we could lose in the process is the unique lifeline that local radio brings through both local connection and diversity of thought that have been so important to Americans, particularly in recent years.

This sale of debt and transfer of ownership to a fund owned by Mr. George Soros suggests a serious effort to silence opposing voices on the airwaves, jeopardizing the future of community-based radio in the process. This matter gives the FCC reason to act with the due diligence with which it has been tasked. I strongly urge the FCC to examine this transfer of ownership with full scrutiny.

Thank you for your attention to this matter and I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Nicholas A. Langworthy
