

Deaf Awareness Month:

National Deaf History Month is recognized and celebrated every year from March 13th to April 15th to recognize the accomplishments of people who are deaf and hard of hearing.

Three key events impacted the deaf community that occurred in American history: On April 15th, 1817, the first public school, American School for the Deaf was opened.

On April 8th, 1864, Gallaudet University the world's first institution devoted to advanced education for the deaf and hard of hearing was officially founded, and more than 100 years later on March 13th, 1988, Gallaudet University nominated I. King Jordan as their first deaf President.

Deaf History Month appears to have started on March 13th, 1996, when two deaf employees working at Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Library in Washington, D.C. started teaching their colleagues sign language. This occurrence progressed into a week of deaf awareness created by the library.

Did You Know?

Sign Language is widely used Approximately 70 million deaf people use sign language as their first language, according to the World Federation of the Deaf. Sign Language gives the Deaf community a sense of belonging, community, and identity.

A child of a Deaf adult is given a special term in the Deaf community. They're called Child of Deaf Adult (CODA). A CODA's first language is often ASL, or another signed language, rather than English or spoken language.

American Sign Language is not a "signed version of English". It is its own unique language, with different structure, grammar, and syntax than English.

In the 1920s, Gallaudet University's football team used to "huddle" to discuss next play. The university for the Deaf and hard of hearing did this so the other team could not see their signed communications — a practice still used by football teams everywhere today.

Ways in which we can spread awareness and celebrate Deaf History Month is by participating in events and learning more about the deaf population. Volunteer with deaf organizations, and encourage, advocate, and promote deaf people as one-of-a-kind.

Arab American Heritage Month

Celebrating the rich and diverse culture and contributions of the diverse population of Arab Americans, National Arab American Heritage Month has been observed during the month of April since 2017.

An estimated 3.7 million Americans have Arab roots, according to the Arab American Institute, with ancestries traced to 22 countries in the Middle East and North Africa, including Lebanon, Syria, Egypt, Palestine, Morocco, Iraq, Jordan, Yemen, Bahrain, Tunisia, Algeria, Sudan, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, United Arab Emirates and others.

Terminology: In the U.S., many people conflate “Arab” and “Middle Eastern,” but linguistic and geographical factors mean that these terms are not fully interchangeable, according to the Arab American National Museum (AANM). The Middle East includes non-Arabic nations such as Iran, Israel, and Turkey. Similarly, not all Arabic nations are in what is considered the Middle East including Egypt, Algeria, and Morocco.

Religion: A common misconception is that all Arab Americans are Muslim. Approximately 25 percent practice Islam, and an estimated 63 to 77 percent are Christian, according to the Arab American Institute.

Education: Arab Americans are among the most educated demographic. More than 40 percent have a four-year degree, and 17 percent have a postgraduate degree, according to the website arabamericanstories.org.

The Arab world has had a major impact on human history, yet there is often a lack of knowledge about Arabic culture in the modern work world. Arabic culture is worth celebrating, and Arabic employees should be able to take pride in their heritage and share their culture with coworkers. Arab American Heritage Month is an opportunity to achieve this end and can provide valuable learning moments and bonding experiences for all OIG employees.

Dear Acting Inspector General Bruce:

Palestine Legal and the undersigned organizations request an investigation of Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights Kenneth L. Marcus. We understand that this is a trying time for the nation and the world as a whole, as well as for the department, particularly with the new duties you have undertaken as part of the pandemic response. We are nonetheless hopeful that this critical issue can be addressed, as it threatens to undermine the department's mission to foster educational excellence and ensure equal access.

There is substantial evidence that Mr. Marcus has engaged in violations of his obligation of impartiality as required by the Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch, 5 C.F.R. pt. 2635. Specifically, Mr. Marcus deviated from established procedures to respond to a pending appeal brought by the Zionist Organization of America (ZOA) about whether Rutgers University engaged in a violation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Mr. Marcus decided the appeal ahead of hundreds of appeals that had been awaiting review prior to the ZOA appeal.<sup>1</sup> In resolving the ZOA's appeal, Mr. Marcus adopted a highly contested definition of antisemitism, previously used only by the federal government in the foreign arena, which poses significant risks to First Amendment freedoms on colleges campuses. Though Mr. Marcus's decision to adopt the definition has now been overshadowed by Executive Order 13899, which directed all executive agencies to consider the definition, Mr. Marcus's partiality and deviations from OCR procedures have a continuing impact, including the still-pending investigation at Rutgers and a growing influx of complaints and OCR investigations targeting advocacy and scholarship on Palestinian rights.

As the attached memorandum explains, there is substantial objective evidence that Mr. Marcus acted partially and gave preferential treatment to the ZOA, a group with which he had worked closely on matters at the heart of the Rutgers appeal prior to his OCR appointment, in violation of 5 C.F.R. § 2635.101(b)(8). At the very least, Mr. Marcus's actions to personally resolve the ZOA's appeal in the manner he did created an appearance of partiality from the perspective of a reasonable person with knowledge of the relevant facts, in violation of 5 C.F.R. § 2635.101(b)(14) and § 2635.502(a).

We urge you to fully investigate this matter and to take appropriate steps to ensure that Mr. Marcus and OCR comply with procedural safeguards that have been established to ensure evenhanded application and interpretation of the laws and regulations OCR enforces. We await

An investigation of Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights Kenneth L. Marcus—for engaging in violations of his obligation of impartiality as required by the Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch, 5 C.F.R. pt. 2635—is necessary to preserve the department’s ethical standards. It is a basic obligation of public service that employees “shall act impartially and not give preferential treatment to any private organization or individual.”<sup>1</sup> There is substantial objective evidence that Mr. Marcus acted partially and gave preferential treatment in violation of 5 C.F.R. § 2635.101(b)(8), or, at the least, created an appearance of partiality from the perspective of a reasonable person with knowledge of the relevant facts, in violation of 5 C.F.R. § 2635.101(b)(14) (“Employees shall endeavor to avoid any actions creating the appearance that they are violating the law or the ethical standards set forth in this part.”) and § 2635.502(a) (“...where the employee determines that the circumstances would cause a reasonable person with knowledge of the relevant facts to question his impartiality in the matter, the employee should not participate in the matter unless...”), when he personally resolved the appeal of the Zionist Organization of America (ZOA) in August 2018.

I. Background of the ZOA’s 2011 complaint, the 2014 decision of the OCR New York regional office, and Mr. Marcus’s 2018 decision on ZOA’s appeal.

On July 20, 2011, the Zionist Organization of America, a right-wing Israel proxy group, filed a complaint with OCR arguing that Rutgers University had violated Title VI by refusing to take steps to eliminate an alleged hostile environment for Jewish students.<sup>2</sup> In addition to a generalized complaint about criticism of Israel in Middle East studies courses, the complaint cited three incidents as the basis for its hostile environment claim: a November 2009 argument and December 2009 Facebook comment regarding a student who had complained in the school paper about student support for a charity for Palestinian children; a January 2011 Facebook post regarding an opinion piece in the school paper that criticized a group that hosted an event on campus featuring two Holocaust survivors and a Palestinian survivor of the founding of Israel; and the admissions fee charged at this campus event.

Several of the allegations in the complaint were dismissed prior to investigation because OCR could not determine that it had jurisdiction over these claims.<sup>3</sup> The ZOA filed an appeal of this dismissal with OCR’s Deputy Assistant Secretary for Enforcement, who referred it to the director of the regional enforcement office, who denied the reconsideration request on May 21, 2012.<sup>4</sup> OCR investigated the remaining allegations in the complaint.

On July 31, 2014, OCR issued a determination letter dismissing the complaint.<sup>5</sup> The letter described the university's investigation and response to the three incidents and OCR's findings. OCR found that the first and second incidents constituted protected speech, not actionable harassment. OCR also found that the university promptly investigated claims that the admissions policy at the January 2011 event was applied unevenly to Jewish students. Neither the university nor OCR found sufficient evidence to support this claim. The ZOA appealed this determination on September 29, 2014.<sup>6</sup>

On August 27, 2018, within weeks of taking office in late June, Mr. Marcus sent a letter to the ZOA vacating the July 2014 findings with regard to the third allegation and reopening the investigation.<sup>7</sup> The decision was predicated on a single footnote in the OCR determination letter, which stated that OCR was unable to verify the credibility of a redacted email that ZOA claimed was from a student volunteer at the event. According to Mr. Marcus, the email allegedly stated that the admissions fee was necessary because "150 Zionists just showed up" but that "if someone looks like a supporter, they can get in for free." Mr. Marcus found that OCR erred in disregarding the email based on its credibility determination and argued that despite that credibility determination, the email could potentially support the allegations in the complaint.

In the letter, Mr. Marcus also quoted in full the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) definition of antisemitism, stating that it "is used by OCR." The letter did not describe the relevance of the definition to the reopening of the investigation or explain how the definition aids OCR in enforcing Title VI and identifying discrimination on the basis of actual or perceived shared ancestry or ethnic characteristics. Though the circumstances underlying the complaint took place seven years prior, the letter also broadened the scope of the investigation to encompass whether a hostile environment currently exists at Rutgers under the new definition.

In a subsequent statement to media outlets, the Department of Education reportedly clarified Mr. Marcus's statement, stating that the department had not adopted any formal definition of antisemitism.<sup>8</sup>

II. Mr. Marcus expressed an opinion about the merits of this very ZOA complaint against Rutgers before joining the department.

Prior to taking his government post, Mr. Marcus expressed his views on the ZOA complaint against Rutgers University.

closely with the ZOA.<sup>9</sup> For example, in 2013, Mr. Marcus and the ZOA jointly filed complaints with Brooklyn College against an event on activism for Palestinian rights.<sup>10</sup> In 2013 and 2016, Mr. Marcus and the ZOA co-authored letters to OCR demanding that OCR adopt the IHRA definition of antisemitism.<sup>11</sup>

In April 2012, several months after the Rutgers complaint had been filed with OCR, Mr. Marcus's Brandeis Center issued a press release stating that "Rutgers is the subject of a campus anti-Semitism complaint brought by the Zionist Organization of America under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964." Even while acknowledging that OCR "is currently investigating that complaint," Mr. Marcus "questioned the adequacy of Rutgers' response to a series of pending allegations." Writing as president and general counsel of the Brandeis Center, but identifying himself as "a former head of OCR" who "authored the OCR policy under which government campus anti-Semitism investigations are conducted," Mr. Marcus explained in his open letter to the Rutgers University president:

Based on our preliminary evaluation of information provided by Rutgers community members, as well as by other civil rights organizations, we are seriously concerned that serious material issues exist your campus. In particular, we are concerned about matters alleged by the Zionist Organization of America . . . . In addition, we are concerned that your administration's public responses to these incidents have not met the standards set by your prior best practices, nor have they achieved a level of firmness which we would expect to see at a university of Rutgers' caliber.

As we continue our process of evaluation, we are available to meet with you or your designees, or to discuss these matters by telephone. We are also available to discuss with you how the pending matters can be resolved in a manner which best represents Rutgers' institutional values, fully conforms to applicable law, completely respects freedom of expression, and strongly demonstrates your commitment to equal opportunity, non-discrimination, and civil discourse. We will follow-up with your office shortly. In the meantime, you may contact me at this email address.

While we have no further knowledge of Mr. Marcus's follow-up communications with Rutgers University, even this public statement, and its reference to Mr. Marcus's affiliation with OCR, would lead a reasonable observer to question Mr. Marcus's ability to be impartial in adjudicating the ZOA appeal. As explained below, Mr. Marcus's extraordinary role in the ZOA appeal, after he had previously intervened in support of the ZOA's complaint to question Rutgers' response to the ZOA's allegations, was a violation of 5 C.F.R. § 2635.101(b)(14).

III. Mr. Marcus engaged in extreme deviations from normal OCR procedures to resolve the ZOA's appeal himself ahead of other pending appeals.

A. Mr. Marcus decided and signed the appeal letter even though authority over appeals had been assigned to another official.

Mr. Marcus personally reopened the Rutgers case even though OCR's Case Processing Manual (CPM) did not authorize any role for the Assistant Secretary in the appeal process.

OCR's CPM authorizes and governs appeals from regional office decisions. While the CPM has been revised several times, no version of the CPM in effect from the time the complaint was filed until the time the appeal was resolved allowed for any role for the Assistant Secretary. Section 306 of the January 2010 CPM, in effect when the complaint was filed, provided that the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Enforcement would decide any appeals challenging a regional finding of insufficient evidence.<sup>12</sup> As of December 12, 2012, OCR had modified the appeal process, placing those appeals solely within the purview of the director of the regional enforcement office that handled the complaint.<sup>13</sup> The next CPM change regarding appeals occurred in March 2018, when OCR eliminated the appeal process entirely.<sup>14</sup> That CPM was in effect at the time Mr. Marcus issued his letter to the ZOA, granting the four-year-old appeal.

None of the procedural manuals that potentially governed the Rutgers case contained any role for the Assistant Secretary in the appeal process. To our knowledge, no other appeals resolved under this administration had been signed by the Assistant Secretary or Acting Assistant Secretary

The current CPM, which was adopted in November 2018, months after the Mr. Marcus intervened in the appeal, reinstates appeals, directing complainants to file them with OCR headquarters. prior to the Rutgers decision.<sup>15</sup> But in this case, Mr. Marcus personally signed the letter reopening the investigation.<sup>16</sup>

Mr. Marcus's highly unusual decision to disregard written OCR procedures and personally intervene in the Rutgers appeal could lead a reasonable person to believe that he was abusing his position to advance a personal agenda, in violation of 5 C.F.R. § 2635.101(b)(14).

B. Mr. Marcus decided the ZOA appeal before 435 older appeals and, of the 743 appeals resolved in the previous six years, it was one of only three appeals that resulted in a change.

According to data in a spreadsheet released by OCR in response to FOIA request #18-02861-F, when the ZOA filed its appeal on September 29, 2014, there were 619 appeals pending with OCR's Deputy Assistant Secretary for Enforcement.<sup>17</sup> At the time of Mr. Marcus's appeal letter in Rutgers, 435 of those appeals were still pending. Each of these appeals had been pending longer than the Rutgers appeal, including 78 appeals that had been pending for more than 10 years. This includes an appeal of an earlier case at Rutgers University, which had been pending since May 2006.<sup>18</sup> Yet Mr. Marcus elected to disregard hundreds of older appeals and resolved the ZOA appeal.

The irregularity of Mr. Marcus personally handling the ZOA appeal is also evident when looking at the other appeals that OCR resolved during the same period. Of the 183 appeals that were resolved between September 29, 2014, and August 27, 2018, the ZOA appeal was the youngest appeal resolved, save perhaps one.<sup>19</sup> All the other resolved appeals were filed no later than January 2013, 17 months before the ZOA appeal was filed. There is no obvious neutral explanation why the ZOA appeal jumped ahead of all the other appeals that had been pending significantly longer.

The unique handling of the ZOA appeal decision is also reflected in its outcome. Of those 183 appeals resolved between September 29, 2014, and August 27, 2018, by OCR's Deputy Assistant Secretary for Enforcement, only two were reopened (on April 12, 2013, and April 18, 2013).<sup>20</sup> Indeed, if one considers an even broader time period of almost six years (from December 11, 2012, to November 5, 2018) in which 743 appeals were resolved by OCR's Deputy Assistant

It is possible that some of the appeal response letters that have not been disclosed were signed by the Acting Assistant Secretary.

<sup>17</sup> The numbers in this section are based on our calculations from data provided by the Department of Education FOIA office. There may be slight inaccuracies in the data released and our calculations based on that data.

<sup>19</sup> The spreadsheet indicates that with regard to a complaint against Seminole County, Georgia, an adverse decision was issued on November 17, 2016, an appeal was filed on November 21, 2016, and the appeal was resolved on December 19, 2016. Given the comparative speed, we suspect that this appeal was resolved on purely procedural grounds.

<sup>20</sup> The spreadsheet indicates that another appeal was granted on February 17, 2009 in a complaint involving Loyola University New Orleans. But the spreadsheet indicates the appeal was submitted on January 18, 2013, which suggests this entry may contain a coding error.

Secretary for Enforcement, there are no additional examples of the Deputy Assistant Secretary reopening a complaint.

Even assuming that the data released by OCR under FOIA contain some errors, these stark numbers certainly warrant further investigation. A reasonable person knowing that Mr. Marcus had elected to resolve an appeal when there were hundreds of older appeals pending, and reached an outcome that occurred in less than one-half of one percent of resolved appeals (three out of 743) in the prior six years would be hard pressed not to reach the conclusion that Mr. Marcus acted with partiality. This preferential treatment of the ZOA is a violation of 5 C.F.R. § 2635.101(b)(8).

C. Mr. Marcus deviated from prior agency views, in this administration and the prior administration, without explanation.

In his appeal decision, Mr. Marcus stated that the IHRA definition of antisemitism, was “used by OCR” and that it was “widely used by governmental agencies, including the U.S. Department of State.”<sup>21</sup> Mr. Marcus’s statement in the appeal decision that the IHRA definition is used by OCR, and the implication that it has been used in the past, are unsupported and concealed a dramatic shift in policy.

The department, in this administration and the last, had previously rejected requests that it adopt the IHRA definition of antisemitism to inform its Title VI investigations. In response to a request from a member of Congress, Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos stated in a September 2017 letter that “OCR does not adopt definitions of particular forms of racism or national origin discrimination.”<sup>22</sup> As Secretary DeVos explained, such definitions would not aid OCR’s highly fact-specific investigations and would quickly become outdated given the myriad and changing ways in which racism and discrimination are expressed. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan sent members of Congress a similar letter during the last administration in December 2015.<sup>23</sup>

Mr. Marcus’s implication that the IHRA definition has been used by OCR is also contradicted by prior statements from Mr. Marcus himself. Prior to becoming Assistant Secretary, Mr. Marcus co-authored multiple letters with the ZOA demanding that OCR adopt the IHRA definition.<sup>24</sup>

For more information about the State Department definition and the IHRA definition, see Backgrounder on Efforts to Redefine Antisemitism as a Means of Censoring Criticism of Israel, Palestine Legal, <https://palestinelegal.org/redefinition-efforts> (updated January 2020) [hereinafter Backgrounder].

Similarly, before joining the department, Mr. Marcus communicated by email and in person with various OCR officials and staff to try and persuade them to make this change.<sup>25</sup>

Mr. Marcus's lack of candor regarding this change of policy gives the appearance of some type of malfeasance. It also resulted in Mr. Marcus failing to provide any explanation or reasoned justification for changing the department's long-standing policy against adopting definitions of particular forms of discrimination. These failings all point towards malfeasance and partiality, or at least an appearance of partiality in violation of 5 C.F.R. § 2635.101(b)(14).

IV. Mr. Marcus clearly exceeded his authority both in adopting the IHRA definition and in the manner in which he adopted it.

A. Congress was debating whether to empower OCR to issue this definition.

This administration has consistently espoused the view that Congress sets policy and the department merely implements it. Yet Mr. Marcus's decision to adopt the IHRA definition was taken while Congress had been considering for the past two years whether to require OCR to use this definition.<sup>26</sup> The legislation has faced significant opposition from civil liberties groups because of the threat it poses to free speech rights.<sup>27</sup> In both the 114th and 115th Congress, Congress declined to enact this legislation, and the current bills have stalled.

Mr. Marcus, before he was nominated and confirmed, unsuccessfully lobbied for these bills, explaining that it was important for Congress to act "immediately" to give the department "the tools necessary to stamp out this ugly blight of campus anti-Semitism."<sup>28</sup> Yet, at the end of the day, Mr. Marcus decided that he could give himself the "tools" that Congress had elected not to give him. That would also lead a reasonable observer to question Mr. Marcus's impartiality in adjudicating the ZOA appeal.

After years of lobbying by Mr. Marcus and the ZOA, in December 2019, President Trump signed Executive Order 13899, directing executive departments and agencies to consider the IHRA definition in enforcing Title VI of the Civil Rights Act.<sup>29</sup> As explained below, the use of the IHRA definition, whether pursuant to Mr. Marcus's letter or under the executive order, unconstitutionally infringes on freedom of speech. The executive order makes no reference to Mr. Marcus's prior statement regarding the definition. Given that the executive order was issued over a year after Mr. Marcus's letter, the similarity of President Trump's unilateral adoption of the definition to Mr. Marcus's unilateral adoption of the definition does not absolve Mr. Marcus of the procedural irregularities of his actions and the apparent impartiality they evidence. Nor does it retroactively justify these actions. In fact, Mr. Marcus's statement that the definition is "used by" OCR indicates it may have a potentially much broader application than the order's directive that agencies "consider" the definition.

B. Mr. Marcus's adoption of the IHRA definition violates the First Amendment and does not provide Jewish students additional protections from discrimination.

OCR's use of the IHRA definition to investigate complaints against student activism violates the First Amendment. The vague and overbroad definition sends the message that that OCR considers criticism of Israel antisemitic and thereby encourages schools to abrogate their educational missions and violate campus and constitutional free speech principles.

Contrary to Mr. Marcus's characterization of the definition as "widely used," the IHRA definition of antisemitism is highly controversial.<sup>30</sup> While the State Department has employed a definition similar to the IHRA definition in collecting data about antisemitism in other countries,<sup>31</sup> there is no public evidence that it was used by any other federal agencies prior to Mr. Marcus's letter. The lead author of the definition himself has warned about the dangers of employing the definition on college campuses<sup>32</sup> and described the adoption of the definition in President Trump's executive order as an "attack on academic freedom and free speech."<sup>33</sup>

The IHRA definition of antisemitism provides no new legal protections for Jewish students who are subjected to discrimination. Instead of safeguarding against expressions of hatred towards Jewish people, this definition aims to censor First Amendment-protected speech by labeling viewpoints critical of Israel as antisemitic, thereby serving to chill one side of an important political debate.

Much of the IHRA definition is uncontroversial and aligns with a traditional understanding of the term.<sup>34</sup> But the definition radically departs from that understanding with its listing of “contemporary examples of antisemitism” which include, “Denying the Jewish people their right to self-determination, e.g., by claiming that the existence of a State of Israel is a racist endeavor” and “Applying double standards by requiring of [Israel] a behavior not expected or demanded of any other democratic nation.” This vague and overbroad definition falsely conflates political criticism of Israel with antisemitism and puts OCR, and universities, in the position of government censor. These examples redirect the focus of civil rights investigators away from protecting students from discrimination to shielding them from hearing political opinions with which they may disagree regarding the abuses of a foreign state.

The definition has no grounding in statute, and its enforcement would in fact violate the U.S. Constitution and bedrock principles of academic freedom intended to ensure open debate on college campuses. For example, in order to apply the IHRA definition in evaluating campus complaints, OCR and university officials might ask if, in order to avoid applying the “double standard” prohibited by IHRA, students must first criticize China, Saudi Arabia, or other states before or after criticizing Israel. The must determine whether universities are required to punish students and faculty who call the Israeli state, or the U.S. or any other government, “racist.” The answers must certainly be no. Application of the IHRA definition will drive OCR investigators into a morass of viewpoint-based distinctions and may compel and punish speech in violation of the First Amendment.

C. Mr. Marcus’s decision is part of a pattern of promoting the use of Title VI complaints as a means of chilling or punishing First Amendment-protected conduct.

The redefinition of antisemitism is especially detrimental to universities, whose missions necessitate respect for freedom of speech, critical inquiry, and unfettered debate. Even if OCR had taken no further action to enforce the definition, Mr. Marcus’s announcement that the definition “is used” has had an unconstitutional chilling effect. It is well-documented that the same organizations that promote the IHRA definition—including the ZOA and the Brandeis Center, which Mr. Marcus founded and previously led—use it as a tool to pressure campus administrators to restrict protected speech.<sup>35</sup> Students, professors, researchers, and university

<sup>34</sup> For example, the IHRA definition begins: “Anti-Semitism is a certain perception of Jews, which may be expressed as hatred toward Jews. Rhetorical and physical manifestations of antisemitism are directed toward Jewish or non-Jewish individuals and/or their property, toward Jewish community institutions and religious facilities.” Merriam-Webster defines anti-Semitism as, “Hostility toward or discrimination against Jews as a religious, ethnic or racial group.” Working Definition of Antisemitism, International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance, <https://www.holocaustremembrance.com/working-definition-antisemitism>.

<sup>35</sup> Israel-aligned groups have relied on the IHRA and similar definitions of antisemitism to allege violations of Title VI at universities where students/faculty have engaged in the following speech activities: a screening of the film Occupation 101; an event critical of Israeli policies featuring a Holocaust survivor; using the term “apartheid” to describe Israeli government policies; equating Zionism with racism; calling for a boycott for Palestinian rights; and wearing a Palestinian keffiyeh, or scarf. Palestine Legal and the Center for Constitutional Rights documented these and other incidents in a 2015 report, The Palestine Exception to Free Speech, <https://palestinelegal.org/the-palestineexception>. Palestine Legal published updates to the report each year since then. administrators will inevitably act in ways to avoid scrutiny of their activities and the specter of a federal investigation into their political speech activities.<sup>36</sup>

Though the definition carried no legal weight prior to President Trump's December 2019 executive order discussed above, it has repeatedly been used by those attempting to stifle speech on campus. The threat to protected speech has already materialized, in many cases with explicit reference to Mr. Marcus's ZOA letter. For example, a November 2018 vigil organized by Palestinian and Jewish students at UC Berkeley to jointly mourn the deaths of Palestinian children killed in Gaza and Jewish worshippers killed in the Pittsburgh massacre<sup>37</sup> was made the subject of a Title VI complaint to OCR relying on the IHRA definition.<sup>38</sup> In September 2018, a professor at San José State University cited the possibility of a federal investigation under OCR's new policy in warning other professors against holding an event called We Will Not Be Silenced, which planned to discuss intimidation against Israel's critics.<sup>39</sup> In April 2019, a group of anonymous students cited Mr. Marcus's ZOA letter and the IHRA definition in a lawsuit asking a court to force the University of Massachusetts Amherst to cancel a panel discussion about the censorship of speech supporting Palestinian rights.<sup>40</sup> In October 2019, a Title VI complaint against UCLA, which OCR subsequently accepted for investigation, argued that federal law requires UCLA to intervene when professors fail to support Israel, stating that a professor expressing "disagreement with [a student's] position of support for the existence of the State of Israel" was "a blatantly antisemitic statement according to the IHRA Working Definition of Antisemitism."<sup>41</sup>

Unfortunately, there is some evidence that Mr. Marcus would approve of these attempts to chill and censor protected speech. Prior to joining the department, Mr. Marcus published an article encouraging the filing of Title VI complaints with OCR even if there was no chance of success.<sup>42</sup> He said that despite the dismissal of the complaints, he was “comforted by knowing that we are having the effect we had set out to achieve.”

In explaining the intended effect of the complaints, Mr. Marcus emphasized the chilling impact the complaints had on both universities and other students, saying that the “cases – even when rejected – expose administrators to bad publicity” and that “getting caught up in a civil rights complaint is not a good way to build a resume or impress a future employer.”<sup>43</sup> In a comment that is remarkable given Mr. Marcus’s actions over the past three years, Mr. Marcus also argued that “the findings of existing authorities are important but not final.”

In November 2018, we wrote to Mr. Marcus detailing the ways in which his actions have undermined the mission of his office and threatened the First Amendment rights of students.<sup>44</sup> In April 2019, we received a nonresponsive reply from Deputy Assistant Secretary William E. Trachman pointing to existing policies and statements that affirm the department’s respect for the First Amendment and OCR’s mission to ensure equal access to education.<sup>45</sup> These hollow affirmations of respect for the First Amendment are not sufficient.

V. The department previously found Mr. Marcus exceeded his authority on this same topic.

Finally, we note that this is not the first time Mr. Marcus has been found to exceed his authority when it comes to determining the scope of OCR’s jurisdiction on this topic.

From 2003-2004, under President George W. Bush, Mr. Marcus served at the Department of Education and was delegated the authority of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights. In September 2004, Mr. Marcus issued guidance explaining OCR’s view on the application of Title VI to discrimination against religious groups. The guidance focused on the ways in which discrimination against religious groups could implicate Title VI protected characteristics like race and national origin, explaining that “[g]roups that face discrimination on the basis of shared ethnic characteristics may not be denied the protection of our civil rights laws on the ground that they also share a common faith.”<sup>46</sup> In October 2004, Mr. Marcus built on that guidance in a letter, posted on the OCR website, stating that “OCR recognizes that Title VI covers harassment of students of Jewish heritage regardless of whether the students may be Caucasian and American born.”<sup>47</sup>

In late 2004, Mr. Marcus became staff director of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights. In that role, Mr. Marcus shared with the Department of Education a draft of web pages for a Commission campaign on “Ending Campus Anti-Semitism.” In December 2006, President Bush’s then-Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights Stephanie Monroe responded by criticizing the proposed pages shared by Mr. Marcus as failing to distinguish between national origin discrimination and religious discrimination.<sup>48</sup> “OCR has jurisdiction to investigate complaints raising allegations of religious discrimination or anti-Semitic harassment if the allegations also include discrimination over which OCR has subject matter jurisdiction, such as, race or national origin (including discrimination based on a person’s ancestry or ethnic characteristics),” she explained. But the proposed web pages did “not make this distinction, and instead cite examples of anti-Semitic acts that do not implicate ‘race, color, or national origin’ yet still refer alleged victims to OCR for redress.”

Specifically, Assistant Secretary Monroe disavowed Mr. Marcus’s October 22, 2004 letter. She noted that the proposed web page Mr. Marcus had shared had “a link to an October 22, 2004 letter from OCR to the Institute for Jewish and Community Research.” She explained that Mr. Marcus’s letter was legally incorrect because “it suggests that OCR has unlimited jurisdiction, under Title VI, to investigate allegations of anti-Semitism, regardless of the race or national origin of the student-complainant.” She told him that “OCR has removed this letter from its website because the letter does not constitute an official OCR policy statement.”

Mr. Marcus’s overstepping of his authority when previously in charge of OCR would further bolster a reasonable person’s conclusion that Mr. Marcus again acted with partiality.

VI. Conclusion

Irregularities in the manner in which Mr. Marcus reopened the Rutgers investigation, in his decision to adopt the IHRA definition, and in his decision to announce this adoption through a letter to the ZOA warrant scrutiny. This is particularly true in light of Mr. Marcus’s well-documented history of working with the ZOA, and his various efforts to use Title VI as a tool to target speech activities critical of Israel by employing similar definitions of antisemitism.

Mr. Marcus’s August 2018 letter to the ZOA was an abrupt change in policy that reportedly took the department by surprise, suggesting that Mr. Marcus adopted the policy without consultation.<sup>49</sup> The apparent subversion of regular processes in reopening the Rutgers investigation, and the lack of transparency and process around Mr. Marcus’s seemingly single-handed adoption of the IHRA definition is alarming and warrants investigation, particularly in light of Mr. Marcus's personal investment in this issue.

We urge you to determine 1) whether Mr. Marcus's reopening of the Rutgers case subverted existing processes, 2) when and how OCR adopted the IHRA definition, and 3) whether Mr. Marcus's actions in the Rutgers case and subsequent investigations complied with existing laws and regulations.

We urge you to fully investigate this matter and to take appropriate steps to ensure that Mr. Marcus and OCR comply with procedural safeguards that have been established to ensure evenhanded application and interpretation of the laws and regulations OCR enforces. These procedural safeguards have been established to not only allow members of the public, including universities and their students, to understand their legal obligations but also to give them the opportunity to understand how the department functions and to play a democratic role in oversight and decision making.

Mr. Marcus's actions and their continued effects, including the still-pending Rutgers investigation, have had a chilling impact on campus speech and have undermined the integrity of the department as a whole. Thoroughly investigating this matter and making recommendations to avoid the further appearance of impartiality would help the department more effectively fulfill its mission of fostering educational excellence and ensuring equal access.

By the way, that was me when I poke to the supreme court justices via e-mail showing them how the Coptic people despite Arabs taking their land "Egypt" yet they don't fight with them unlike the Jews and the Palestinians: Now you learned something .

Hello Ms. Rachel Laser,

Calm down Laser, calm down: You should gain their hearts rather than lose them (hint i advised Kenneth Marcus the same but he failed to listen) <https://twitter.com/rachelklaser/status/1491959551310057473>

I must say quite a name, when MTG said Jews controlled space laser, the jewish lobby did two things:

Did Rep. Marjorie Taylor Greene Blame A 'Space Laser' For Wildfires? Here's The Response
You may have noticed that "Jewish Space Laser" was trending on Twitter.

1. One said and screamed antisemitism (by the way i don't believe in such word, but if you tell me good vs evil then yes)
2. The other side laughed on twitter and said, "yes we have special power, Laser!" and they took it as a sense of humor.

So, tell me when Jews celebrate Passover, do they celebrate the death of the first-born Egyptians?
Should the Coptic community shout like the jews and say, "Egyptian haters!" <https://youtu.be/HXmru6NrSAY>

Anyways, i am going to have to ask you to apologize. Why you say "Well, i am a Coptic" and i read many of your tweets and i am offended, so "do for others only what you have others do for you" <https://youtu.be/0feZQkHbCkM?t=2109>

You're expecting a school who is doing the right thing to apologize and i am expecting you to apologize. Can you, do it? I am offended by your hate toward Jesus Christ. I am also offended by OCR hatred toward a Coptic when Kenneth Marcus took charge of it. I am offended by the lack of congress to condemn Israel infiltrating the federal government and i am offended that many don't have the courage to speak out against IHRA.

The word Copt is derived from the Greek word Aigyptos, which was, in turn, derived from "Hikaptah", one of the names for Memphis, the first capital of Ancient Egypt. The modern use of the term "Coptic" describes Egyptian Christians, as well as the last stage of the ancient Egyptian language script. Also, it describes the distinctive art and architecture that developed as an early expression of ...

Subject: Hating Jesus Christ = Jewish Hatred [Jewish lobby going after Tennessee Public School District over Bible Project] But Israel infiltrated the Federal Government

Hello Dr. Justin Robertson Superintendent and Ethan Hildreth Principal -

First i want to thank you for spreading the words of Jesus Christ which will bring light to America. I am also a big fan of "bible project" and i have used many of their videos when speaking to federal offices like OCR, DOJ, and congress. You see a video like this teaches reality:

Now to get to the real part, we are a big family here. So, i saw Rachel Laser tweet rambling about her own hate for Jesus Christ and taking pride in a letter she sends to both of you.

When i reached out to Secretary Cardona, i asked him i want to see Chicago Public Schools spreading the words of Jesus Christ just like the era of Martin Luther King. My email was long of course, so he

You see, I am a Coptic, i was discriminated by jews in law school and by OCR officials when Kenneth Marcus took charge of OCR and Jews don't understand hearts, they will try to reason with you and play with words, but their hearts are not moving, not all but many. So, there is one way you can speak to them, bring in the bible:

Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth, for the Lord has spoken; Children I have raised and exalted, yet they have rebelled against Me. An ox knows his owner and a donkey his master's crib; Israel does not know; my people does not consider.

But to get to the topic of Rachel Laser letter: You are free to teach students about the bible, it is up to the child to opt out of the class if he or she wishes too. The problem for Jews is that at home they teach their kids to hate Jesus Christ <https://www.bitchute.com/video/LVoEDgGZoeWj/>

You see, Jews are 12 tribes scattered across the world, and many of them followed Jesus Christ, especially after the holocaust. During the Holocaust, children were taken and sheltered by polish Christian families and were raised there. So, they were taken out of the hands of their parents who fed hate and into the hands of families who tough these children to see light. This was God's judgment per Ezekiel 22 just like how God judged Egypt, the old Pharoah who transformed into the Coptic "Blessed is Egypt my people" This is the parable.

Currently i am in litigation with DOE/OCR over what Kenneth Marcus and Trump did by endorsing the IHRA definition which says in part "if you say Jews killed Jesus Christ" you are antisemitic. Their problem is, they wanted America to sin against God and i am saving them from their own ignorant hearts. DOJ has been fighting me tooth and nail since i am proceeding pro se.

Let's look at the Arabs, now you have a Muslim president saying in a Coptic Church "this is the house of God" before the eyes of his Muslim army and government officials. Jews can't do that yet in America.

What is Racism? | ADL

Also related are the definitions of Race and Systemic Racism. Race: Refers to the categories into which society places individuals on the basis of physical characteristics (such as skin color, hair type, facial form and eye shape). Though many believe that race is determined by biology, it is now widely accepted that this classification system was in fact created for social and political reasons.

"There was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God nor regard man. Now there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, 'Get justice for me from my adversary.' And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, 'Though I do not fear God nor regard man, " yet because this widow troubles me I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.' And shall God not avenge His own elect who cry out day and night to Him, though He bears long with them? " I tell you that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He really find faith on the earth?" Luke 18

Subject: What DOJ is doing in Court about the Israeli Lobby

Dear

Senate Judiciary Committee and Chairman Dick Durbin

Members of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations

Secretary Cardona and Secretary Lhamon

Department of Education leadership & Office of Inspector General Ms. Bruce of DOE and Mr. Horowitz of DOJ

Leader Chuck Schumer, Speaker Pelosi, and Senator McConnell

Ms. Kristen Clark of DOJ Civil right Department

President Biden Chief of Staff Mr. Ronald Klain and his team

To this date, FSA responds, and they are actually good under the new Chief of FSA Cordray but OCR, Secretary Lhamon is in another world of her own and what she said in her confirmation hearing so far, she didn't commit to it. Remember not a single Democrat voted for Kenneth Marcus and also not a single Republican voted for Catherine Lhamon. But the latter should not be like the first.

Do you believe IHRA will collapse, yes or no? You see, the Jewish lobby can lobby members of congress, bring them to the same table and pay them money seeking their support, but what you can't do, you can control the people at the top but you can't control the hearts on the ground.

Many of the things i shared with you, were a Gift from God to me to which i passed it onto you. Your own hearts at times continued to doubt because what i share at that time appeared out of fiction book but it was never a fiction. There were those who believed at first sight and many others who didn't.

I told you who is the injured Leopard, i.e., America, i told you who is the Dragon and who is the Beast. I shared with you God's visions of when he blesses and when he judges; but did you see up ahead? The first time i shared China with Trump, you called Trump racists; democrats did. But it was the truth that came to me and i passed it to Trump.

Blessed are the eyes which see the things you see; for I tell you that many prophets and kings have desired to see what you see, and have not seen it, and to hear what you hear, and have not heard it [Luke 10:23-24]. Lord, open the eyes of your servant so he may see [2 Kings 6:17].

Your evidence is happening before your own eyes as we speak, When Jews promote China at the World economic forum, i don't see America, i see China; I see power is taken away from the injured leopard and redirected to the dragon at the hands of the Beast.

What is antisemitism?

About the IHRA non-legally binding working definition of antisemitism The IHRA is the only intergovernmental organization mandated to focus solely on Holocaust-related issues, so with evidence that the scourge of antisemitism is once again on the rise, we resolved to take a leading role in combating it. IHRA experts determined that in order to begin to address the problem of antisemitism, there must be clarity about what antisemitism is.

www.holocaustremembrance.com

I have a better definition:

By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world [1 John 4:2-3].

This case won't be resolved by Jews but when a Christian replaces a Jew ^ The heart can't give what they don't have. Once they attain earthly powers, they lose faith.

I want to start this e-mail by what Jesus Christ said "He who has ears, let him hear."

The Greatest one among you must be like the youngest, and the leader must be like the servant. But who is greater? The one who sits down to eat or the one who serves? The one who sits down of course. But i am among you as one who serves.

It is 3 am and I only have 3 hours of sleep to go to work and i have spent all night preparing my motion to Certify my Class Action lawsuit, pro se it was filed because i couldn't find a single person with enough courage to change this evil direction. This e-mail will be filed with my motion. Not that it might make much of a difference because i have spent nearly 3 years with many of you, especially congress trying to change many and many changed, i won't deny that. Starting with President Trump, and later AG Barr, and later Justice Clarence and many more continue to change.

Both Democrats and Republicans changed too.

- 1.Trump learned and took the Abraham Accord from my letters
- 2.Biden learned and took the Build Back Better also from my letters

Haven't you realized that everything that were written in my letter came to pass? But my own trial continues, and so this motion that I am filing tonight certifying my class action lawsuit, it is a motion, a judge can look at it and say "Who is this pro se litigant who thinks he is a lawyer against DOJ" I never said i am a lawyer, but i have faith that moved mountains and you've all seen that faith, starting with the Abraham Accord, up until Covid hitting China.

Today before i filed this motion, i went and sent it to God first and asked me "When will you conclude this trial?" but he told me "It is not over mark" People will wonder how can one writes to God. You will have to leave the west and go to the East to learn what has been washed away from the memories of the west. But do not worry my 4th letter is already ready to be sent out and you shall learn a lot from it.

Here is part of it:

I will share one thing, everything the Jews do reflects on the Gentiles. This is the parable that God created when he said:

For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be wise in your own opinion, that blindness in part has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: "The Deliverer will come out of Zion, And He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob; For this is My covenant with them, When I take away their sins.

Look at history going all the way back

A. Because of Sarah envy, the children of Abraham were separated and Islam was born at the hands of a false prophet named Muhammad, who later by the way died at the hands of a Jewish female by Poinson because he killed many and God said "Put your sword in its place, for all who take the sword will perish by the sword." (Mathew 26:52)

Muhammad died at the hands of a Jewish female named Zaynab Bint Al-Harith Zaynab bint Al-Harith - Wikipedia

The Death of Muhammad - Answering Islam

THE DEATH OF MUHAMMAD. by Silas INTRODUCTION Muhammad died in 632 A.D. He died as a result of being poisoned following his attack upon and conquest of the Jewish settlement of Khaibar. About 2 month before his attack on Khaibar Muhammad failed in an attempt to go to Mecca. This failure .resulted in the Treaty of Hudaibiyya with the Meccans

After many centuries, i came, and through Jesus Christ i showed you the real path in the bible and the Abraham Accord came: My work, neither Trump nor Jared. Trump was the cause, he listened and .learned and Jared liked to steal what he can't understand

B. In my 3rd and 15th letter to President Trump and congress, i told you adopt a universal definition for the term evil but you did not listen, i told you what the Jews are doing will bring hate and chaos but you all smiled and ignored my plea and guess what, now in congress you want another definition, Islamophobia, but read my motion to certify the class action lawsuit and you will understand what is happening when it comes to Saudi Arabia fearing the identity of Muhammad to be revealed to all, just .as the Jews used IHRA to claim that they didn't kill Jesus Christ

If you look at both sides, you will find something common, the spirit of the antichrist is moving to deny :the truth

By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world [1 John 4:2-3].

McConnell: Republicans Won't Help Democrats Raise Debt Limit Again | ZeroHedge

McConnell and 10 other Senate Republicans on Oct. 7 joined Democrats in temporarily raising the ceiling through Dec. 3, enabling Democrats to avoid using a process called reconciliation. That won't happen again, McConnell warned Biden. "Last night, Republicans filled the leadership vacuum that has troubled the Senate since January.

NOTICE OF MOTION

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT before the Honorable Sara L. Ellis, Plaintiff on his own behalf and all other individuals similarly situated (Plaintiffs) will, and hereby do move the Court pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for an order certifying a class and subclass. In the alternative, Plaintiff seek limited discovery in support of class certification. Plaintiff’s motion is based on this submission, the accompanying declaration, and exhibits, and the other pleadings and documents on file in this case.

RELIEF REQUESTED (FED. R. CIV. P. 23)

Plaintiffs request that this Court issue an order pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 certifying a class of:

All people who were affected by the IHRA definition, who filed a civil right complaint, who have asserted their rights under Title VI, and/or Section 504, and/or Title IX (DOE regulation 34 C.F.R. § 100.7(c) and 34 C.F.R. § 104.61), whose complaints were dismissed for lack of substantial evidence, and who filed an appeal pursuant to Office for Civil Rights Manual Section 307 and were affected by the sudden changes to the manual (August 26, 2020 OCR Manual) without public notice and comments in the Federal Register.

Plaintiffs also request that the Court certify a subclass under Rule 23(c)(5) of:

All people who were promised a proper and impartial investigation under DOE regulation 34 C.F.R. § 100.7(c) and 34 C.F.R. § 104.61 and were discriminated against by DOE and/or OCR officials when it treated one class of students differently compare to another (Jewish Students vs. the Gentiles) by adopting the IHRA definition without congress intent, public notice, and comments in the Federal Register.

Plaintiffs further request that the Court appoint Mark Bochra, and any and all affected students as a class representative, and that it appoints when necessary a counsel for the class action lawsuit to assist in rendering justice to all affected students. In the alternative, Plaintiffs ask the Court to hold this motion in abeyance and permit limited discovery in support of the motion for class certification.<sup>1</sup>

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The proposed class includes the interest of all persons in the United States who receive an education in the United States’ education systems, all students who are protected under the civil right act of 1964. The Office for Civil Rights (“OCR”) within the U.S. Department of Education (“DOE”) has a special mission: “to ensure equal access to education and to promote educational excellence through vigorous enforcement of civil rights in our nation’s schools.” <https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/aboutocr.html>. This office serves “student populations facing discrimination and the advocates and institutions promoting systemic solutions to civil rights problems.” Id. Contrary to its mission and without any public notice, DOE summarily eliminated substantive rights of the very people it purports to serve by changing its Case Processing Manual to abdicate its basic duty to investigate legitimate complaints of discrimination by students and their parents. Not only that, but DOE has set out a special class of race with a special set of treatments compare to another (Jewish Students vs. the Gentiles) by adopting an obscure definition named IHRA<sup>2</sup> without congress intent, public notice, and comments in the Federal Register.<sup>3</sup>

2. The IHRA definition provides the Jewish people with a set of privileges above the Gentiles or students who fit different classes other than a Jewish identity. For example, the set of provided privileges can be viewed as definitive for the Jewish students compare to the Gentiles

In Clearwire, the Seventh Circuit affirmed the district court’s dismissal of the action on the grounds that the defendant’s offer of full relief to the named plaintiffs prior to a motion for class certification stripped those plaintiffs of their interests in the case, thereby mooting the action. In so affirming, however, the Seventh Circuit held that “[a] simple solution to the buy-off problem . . . [is for] [c]lass-action plaintiffs [to] move to certify the class at the same time that they file their complaint.” Id. at *4.

In response to the concern that such an approach would “provoke plaintiffs to move for class certification prematurely, before they have fully developed or discovered the facts necessary to obtain certification,” id. at *11, the Seventh Circuit went on to assert that it is the filing of a class certification motion, and neither the adjudication (or even the forward progress) thereof, that precludes the “buy-off” problem, stating that “[i]f the parties have yet to fully develop the facts needed for certification, then they can also ask the district court to delay its ruling to provide time for additional discovery or investigation,” id. a, and confirming that “this procedure comports with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(1)(A), which permits district courts to wait until ‘an early practicable time’ before ruling on a motion to certify a class.” Id.

(referred to as Goys by the Jews)<sup>4</sup> even if a Jewish student commits evil and wickedness against a non-Jewish student. For example:

- 1) Denying the Jewish people their right to self-determination.
- 2) Applying double standards by requiring of it a behavior not expected or demanded of any other democratic nation.
- 3) Accusing the Jews as a people.<sup>5</sup>
- 4) Using the symbols and images associated with classic anti-Semitism (e.g., claims of Jews killing Jesus).

3. To escape this limbo and bring reform to Office for Civil Rights, the Plaintiff on his own behalf and all other individuals similarly situated, all seek the same thing: an order compelling the Department of Education to vacate the IHRA definition deeming it unenforceable and in direct violation of DOE regulation 34 C.F.R. § 100.7(c) and 34 C.F.R. § 104.61 and to restore the 2015 OCR Manual pending a public notice and comments in the Federal Register, in addition to reviewing all the dismissed appeals that were dismissed under the new adopted manual. The Court should allow the Plaintiff and all other individuals similarly situated to pursue this relief collectively.

4. The central questions in this case — whether the Department of Education can enforce the IHRA definition without congress’ intent, public notice, and comments in the Federal Register, and whether the Department of Education’s adoption of the IHRA definition violates the federal civil right act, and whether the IHRA definition itself is unlawful by treating one class of students differently and unequally compare to another (Jewish Students vs. the Gentiles). Moreover, whether the Department of Education can enforce the current OCR manual (2020) without a public notice and comments in the Federal Register wholly and unequivocally contradict DOE regulation 34 C.F.R. § 100.7(c) and 34 C.F.R. § 104.61, and is unlawful under the Administrative Procedure Act (APA).

II. REQUIREMENT FOR THE CLASS CERTIFICATION

5. This case satisfies all of the elements of Rule 23(a), Rule 23(b), and Rule 23(c)(5). A district court has “broad discretion” in determining whether to certify a class. Retired

<sup>5</sup> Emphases added: Jews are people based on the 12 Israelite tribes scattered across the world, it is not a religion.

“I came to complete not to refute. I came light to the World.” Jesus Christ

Chicago Police Ass’n v. City of Chicago, 7 F.3d 584, 596 (7th Cir. 1993) (citing United Indep. Flight Officers, Inc. v. United Air Lines, Inc., 756 F.2d 1274, 1283 (7th Cir. 1985)). Rule 23(a) requires numerosity, commonality, typicality, and adequacy of representation. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a). Rule 23(b)(1) requires a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications that would create incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class or adjudications that, as a practical matter, would be dispositive of the interests of others; Rule 23(b)(2) requires that the party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds that apply generally to the class such that final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief is appropriate for the class as a whole; and Rule 23(b)(3) requires predominance and superiority. As discussed below, each of these requirements are satisfied.

A) Numerosity – Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a)(1).

6. The proposed class satisfies Rule 23(a): The numerosity requirement is satisfied where “the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1); see also Swanson v. Am. Consumer Indus., Inc., 415 F.2d 1326, 1333 n. 9 (7th Cir. 1969) (certifying class of 40 persons). “Although there is no bright-line test for numerosity, a class of at least forty members is generally sufficient to satisfy Rule 23(a)(1).” Cavin v. Home Loan Center, Inc., 236 F.R.D. 387, 391 (N.D. Ill. 2006). “Precise quantification of the class members is not necessary because the court may make ‘common sense assumptions’ to support a finding of numerosity.” German v. Fed. Home Loan Mortg. Corp., 885 F. Supp. 537, 552 (S.D.N.Y. 1995) (citation omitted); accord McCabe v. Crawford & Co., 210 F.R.D. 631, 643 (N.D. Ill. 2002). While discovery has not yet commenced in this action, Plaintiff believes that Class members number in thousands. By the Department’s own conduct when it adopted the IHRA definition, it has created a special set of privileges for the Jewish Students compare to the rest of the students i.e., the Gentiles leading to a class to become numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable. As of September 29, 2014 there were 619 pending appeals before OCR’s Deputy Assistant Secretary for Enforcement (FOIA request #18-02861-F), currently holding this position is Mr. Randolph Wills.<sup>6</sup> While this is only pertaining to the number of appeals on file with OCR, there are thousands of students, if not millions who are affected by that same definition, the IHRA definition. While the precise number of Class members and their addresses is presently unknown to Plaintiff, most, if not all of that information will be ascertainable from Defendant’s books and records once discovery commences and those Class members can be readily identified so that notice can be disseminated to them. Accordingly, the numerosity requirement of Rule 23(a)(1) is satisfied.

B) Commonality and Predominance –Rule 23(a)(2) and 23(b)(3).

7. The commonality requirement is satisfied where “there are questions of law or fact common to the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(2). This requirement focuses on whether the class members’ grievances “derive from a ‘common nucleus of operative fact’.” In re Hartmarx Sec. Litig., No. 01 C 7832, 2002 WL 31103491, at *10 (N.D. Ill. Sept. 19, 2002) (quoting Rosario v. Livaditis, 963 F.2d 1013, 1017–18 (7th Cir. 1992)). Such a common nucleus exists where “defendants have engaged in standardized conduct towards members of the proposed class.” Keele v. Wexler, 149 F.3d 589, 594 (7th Cir. 1998). “A common nucleus of operative fact is usually enough to satisfy the commonality requirement of Rule 23(a)(2).” Id. (citation omitted). Courts recognize that there may be factual differences between class members but the existence of such variations will not necessarily defeat the class aspect of the action. Rosario v. Livaditis, 963 F.2d 1013, 1017 (7th Cir. 1992), cert. denied, 506 U.S. 1051 (1993); Patterson v. Gen. Motors Corp., 631 F.2d 476, 481 (7th Cir. 1980), cert. denied, 451 U.S. 914 (1981). “[F]actual variations among class members’ grievances” do not themselves defeat the certification of a class. Id. In this case, the common questions of law or fact include, among others: whether Plaintiff and the other Class members are entitled to damages, injunctive relief, or other equitable relief.

8. In this case, Students share common questions of law, including whether the Department of Education can enforce the IHRA definition without congress’ intent, public notice, and comments in the Federal Register; and whether the Department of Education’s adoption of the IHRA definition violates the federal civil right act; and whether the IHRA definition itself is unlawful by treating one class of students differently compare to the other (Jewish Students vs. the Gentiles). Moreover, whether the Department of Education can enforce the current OCR manual (2020 version) without public notice and comments in the Federal

“I came to complete not to refute. I came light to the World.” Jesus Christ

Register wholly and unequivocally contradict DOE regulation 34 C.F.R. § 100.7(c) and 34 C.F.R. § 104.61, and is unlawful under the Administrative Procedure Act (APA).

9. With respect to Rule 23(b)(3)’s predominance requirement, that requirement is satisfied where “questions of law or fact common to the class members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). “The requirement of predominance is met where . . . there is a showing of predominance of common questions at the liability stage of the litigation, rather than at the damages stage.” In re Natural Gas Commodities Litig., 231 F.R.D. 171, 180-81 (S.D.N.Y. 2005) (certifying a three-year class of both long and short sellers) (citation omitted). The predominate issues in this litigation will be whether the Defendants violates its own special mission “to ensure equal access to education and to promote educational excellence through vigorous enforcement of civil rights in our nation’s schools” <https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/aboutocr.html> by engaging and continue to engage in discriminatory behaviors by enforcing the IHRA definition and adopting an updated OCR manual without public notice and comments in the Federal Register, and whether this constitutes a violation of the APA and the Civil Right Act as a whole.

10. Plaintiff on his own behalf and all other individuals similarly situated also satisfies Rule 23(b). They all seek the same remedy: an order compelling the Department vacate the IHRA definition and enforce the 2015 OCR manual by restoring all the dismissed appeals that were adjudicated under the 2020 OCR manual, pending a public notice and comments in the Federal Register for any changes to the manual. Such an order would benefit all Students because it would compel the Department to adjudicate Student’s civil right appeals. Put it another way, it would push each individual Student’s complaint and/or appeal closer to a just resolution.

C) Typicality – Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a)(3).

11. The typicality requirement is satisfied where “the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(3). A claim “is typical if it arises from the same event or practice or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other class members and his or her claims are based on the same legal theory.” De La Fuente v. Stokely-Van Camp, Inc., 713 F.2d 225, 232 (7th Cir. 1983) (citation omitted). Typicality is closely related to commonality, Keele, 149 F.3d at 595, and, as in the case of commonality, factual distinctions between the claims of class members will not necessarily defeat a claim of typicality. De La Fuente, 713 F.2d at 233. The focus of the class certification analysis is on “whether the named representatives’ claims have the same essential characteristics as the claims of the class at large.” In re Hartmarx Sec. Litig., 2002 WL 31103491, at *14 (quoting Retired Chicago Police Ass’n, 7 F.3d at 596-97). A named representative’s claim is typical where “it arises from the same event or practice or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other class members” and is “based on the same legal theory.” Id. “Typical does not mean identical, and the typicality requirement is liberally construed.” In re Neopharm, Inc. Sec. Litig., 225 F.R.D. 563, 566 (N.D. Ill. 2004) (citation omitted). A named representative’s claim is “atypical” only if there is a defense to that representative’s claim that is “unique, arguable and likely to usurp a significant portion of the litigant’s time and energy.” Danis v. USN Commc’n, Inc., 189 F.R.D. 391, 395 (N.D. Ill. 1999) (citation omitted).

12. Plaintiff’s claims here are typical of the claims of the other Class members they seek to represent because, among other things, they are a member of the Classes they seek to represent. Plaintiff and all Class members were comparably injured by Defendant’s uniform misconduct and were thus all subject to the injuries alleged in the Complaint. Further, there are no defenses available to the Defendant that are unique to Plaintiff. Thus, the typicality requirement of Rule 23(a)(3) is satisfied. The named Plaintiff, like many other Students, have asserted his right under the Civil Right Act and the OCR Manual but remain in limbo because of the Department’s own discriminatory actions by adopting the IHRA definition and enforcing an OCR Manual without public notice and comments in the federal register.

13. Secretary Catherine Lhamon who returned to OCR once more answered Senator Lamar Alexander in 2015 with regards to who creates the laws:

“What authority do you have to do that . . . why do you not go through the same process of public comments and rules and regulations that the same department over here go through under the Clery Act Regulations.”<sup>7</sup> Senator Alexander asked “is this the law, I thought we make the laws? You make the laws? Who gave you the authority to do that?”<sup>8</sup>

D) Adequacy of Representation – Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a)(4).

14. The adequacy of representation requirement may be the only part that is not satisfied given that the Plaintiff is proceeding as a Pro-se litigant. However, Courts have broad discretion in appointing counsel(s) to cases upon motions for legal assistance for forma pauperis applicants or send the case to a magistrate judge for handling settlement conferences and all the stages of case proceedings pursuant to local rule 73.1. “The representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4). Adequacy of representation merely requires that the class representative’s attorneys be qualified, and that the class representative not have interests conflicting with the class in the litigation at hand. Sosna v. Iowa, 419 U.S. 393, 403 (1975). It must appear that the named plaintiffs will “vigorously pursue the litigation on behalf of the class” and their attorneys must be “qualified, experienced and able to conduct the litigation.” Scholes v. Stone, McGuire & Benjamin, 143 F.R.D. 181, 186 (citing Secretary of Labor v. Fitzsimmons, 805 F.2d 682, 697 (7th Cir. 1986)). The Named Plaintiff, even though a Pro-Se will vigorously challenge the Department’s abdication of its responsibility; It is in the public interest for the Court to aid in reaching a resolution in this class action lawsuit that will put America on the right path of justice; restorative justice is crying out loud.<sup>9</sup>

E) Declaratory and Injunctive Relief – Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(b)(2).

15. The prerequisites to maintaining a class action for injunctive and equitable relief pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2) exist as Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Classes. Allen v. Int'l Truck & Engine Corp., 358 F.3d 469, 471 (7th Cir. 2004) (“The need for, if not inevitability of, class-wide treatment when injunctive relief is at stake is what Rule 23(b)(2) is about.”). The prosecution of separate actions by members of the Classes would create a risk of establishing incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants. Further, Defendants’ actions are generally applicable to the Classes as a whole, and Plaintiff seeks, inter alia, equitable remedies with respect to the Classes as a whole. Defendants’ systematic policies and practices make declaratory relief appropriate.

“I came to complete not to refute. I came light to the World.” Jesus Christ

16. Because the Plaintiff challenges the same Department practice (its complete inaction), this litigation is well suited for class resolution. The Court should certify the proposed class and sub-class or, in the alternative, stay a decision pending class discovery.

III. BACKGROUND

A. Statutory and Regulatory Framework

17. Under Title IV of the HEA, 20 U.S.C. § 1070, et seq., the Department is responsible for overseeing the federal student loan program, including the Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL), 20 U.S.C. § 1071, et. seq., and William D. Ford Direct Loan Programs, 20 U.S.C. § 1087a, et seq. Under the Direct Loan Program, the Department directly lends money to eligible student borrowers so that they can attend “participating institutions of higher education,” as approved and regulated by the Department. 20 U.S.C. § 1087a. Under the FFEL program (under which no new loans have been issued since July 1, 2010), private lenders issued student loans, which were then insured by guaranty agencies, and in turn reinsured by the Department. 20 U.S.C. § 1078.

18. Providing an education free from discrimination and retaliation is the central mission of Office for Civil Rights (OCR). When an institution of higher education fails to provide an education free from discrimination and/or retaliation, Office for Civil rights has the duty and the responsibility to provide an antidote to a virus called “evil”; failure to provide remedies, not only violates OCR special mission “to ensure equal access to education and to promote educational excellence through vigorous enforcement of civil rights in our nation’s schools.” <https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/aboutocr.html> but also render the civil right act moot on its face.

19. One of the many actions, OCR can take is enforcement action which denies Title IV funds to a specific institution which refuses to reach a settlement agreement with Office for Civil Rights or send the case to the Department of Justice for proper prosecution and remedies; Section 602 of OCR Manual states the following.<sup>10</sup>

When post-Letter of Impending Enforcement Action negotiations do not result in a resolution agreement and OCR decides, within its discretion, to refer the matter to DOJ, it will issue a letter to the recipient stating that the case will be referred to DOJ within 10 calendar days of the date of the letter; Section 602 of OCR Manual.

See Exhibit 1, an e-mail from Office for Civil Rights to the Plaintiff in regards to what happens when a recipient refuses to reach a resolution with OCR.

20. The head of a federal Executive Department may adopt rules for the conduct and government of her agency. 5 U.S.C. §301. Adoption of such rules must comply with the requirements of the rule-making procedures of the federal Administrative Procedure Act (“APA”), 5 U.S.C. §551, et seq., if the proposed rules meet the definition of “rule” found in 5 U.S.C. §551(4): “ ... the whole or a part of an agency statement of general or particular applicability and future effect designed to implement, interpret, or prescribe law or policy or describing the organization, procedure, or practice requirements of an agency . . . .”

21. The APA requires that courts “shall ... hold unlawful and set aside agency action, findings, and conclusions found to be ... arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with law.” 5 U.S.C. § 706(2)(A), (B).

22. The APA also requires that rules proposed by a federal agency first be published in the Federal Register, with the terms or substance of the proposed rule, the legal authority for the proposed rule, and specific information regarding when a public hearing on the proposed rule will take place. 5 U.S.C. §§ 553(b), (d).

23. Under the APA, the proposing agency must consider, prior to adoption of the rule, all written data, views, or arguments submitted by interested persons regarding the proposed rule. 5 U.S.C. §§ 553(c), (d). This set of APA provisions for publication and consideration of comments is referred to as the “notice-and-comment requirement.”

24. The APA requires a federal agency to render responsive decisions on matters within its purview in a prompt and definite fashion. For example, the APA requires that, “[w]ith due regard for the convenience and necessity of the parties or their representatives and within a reasonable time, each agency shall proceed to conclude a matter presented to it.” 5 U.S.C. § 555(b).

25. The APA similarly requires that “prompt notice shall be given of the denial in whole or in part of a written application, petition, or other request of an interested person made in connection with any agency proceeding.” 5 U.S.C. § 555(e).

“I came to complete not to refute. I came light to the World.” Jesus Christ

26. And, the APA requires that “[e]ach agency . . . [g]ive an interested person the right to petition for the issuance, amendment, or repeal of a rule.” 5 U.S.C. §553(e). “A person suffering legal wrong because of agency action, or adversely affected or aggrieved by agency action within the meaning of a relevant statute, is entitled to judicial review thereof.” 5 U.S.C. §702. “Agency action “includes the “failure to act.” 5 U.S.C. §553(e).

27. A Court “shall – compel agency action unlawfully withheld or unreasonably delayed.” 5 U.S.C. §706(1). A Court shall also “hold unlawful and set aside agency action, findings, and conclusions found to be . . . arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with law.” 5 U.S.C. §706(2)(A).

28. 5 U.S.C. §702 creates a cause of action in federal court for any person who has suffered legal wrong because of, or been adversely affected or aggrieved by, an agency action or failure to act as required by the rule-making statutes. The statute waives the sovereign immunity of the federal government for such a lawsuit, so long as the lawsuit is against a federal agency or a federal employee who acted or failed to act in her official capacity or under color of legal authority, and the suit does not request monetary damages.

29. 28 U.S.C. § 2201 permits this Court to issue a declaratory judgment that the Defendants have violated 5 U.S.C. Chapter 5 in adopting the IHRA definition as well as certain provisions in August 26, 2020 OCR Manual, as identified below.

B. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

30. Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S.C. § 794, et seq. (“Section 504”), prohibits discrimination by recipients of federal financial assistance, including assistance from the DOE, from discriminating against individuals with disabilities.

31. Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000d, et seq. (“Title VI”), prohibits discrimination by recipients of federal financial assistance, including assistance from the DOE, from discriminating on the basis of race, color, or national origin.

33. The DOE’s Title VI regulations provide:

The responsible Department official or his designee will make a prompt investigation whenever a compliance review, report, complaint, or any other information indicates a possible failure to comply with this part.

“I came to complete not to refute. I came light to the World.” Jesus Christ

34 C.F.R. § 100.7(c) (Title 34, Subchapter B, Chapter 1, Part 100: Non-Discrimination Under Programs Receiving Federal Assistance Through the Department of Education Effectuation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964) (emphasis added).

34 Section 504 requires agencies that provide federal funding to apply the same remedies, procedures, and rights set forth in Title VI to the civil rights of persons with disabilities. 29 U.S.C. § 794a(a). DOE adopted the Title VI rights and procedures, including 34 C.F.R. § 100.7, for complaints of violations of Section 504. 34 C.F.R. § 104.61.

35. In 2015, the OCR issued a Case Processing Manual (“2015 OCR Manual”), which adopted “procedures to promptly and effectively investigate and resolve complaints, compliance reviews and directed investigations to ensure compliance with the civil rights laws enforced by OCR,” including Title VI and Section 504. 2015 OCR Manual, Introduction.

36. The 2015 OCR Manual set out the process by which OCR staff received and investigated complaints from individuals who allege that a person or entity that receives funding from the DOE has violated the civil rights laws by illegally discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age. Id.

37. The 2015 OCR Manual allowed timely complaints that were within OCR’s jurisdiction to be dismissed prior to opening an investigation in three circumstances, namely, (1) if the complaint, on its face, failed to state a claim of violation of one of the laws that OCR enforces, (2) if it lacked sufficient detail for OCR to infer that discrimination has occurred, or (3) if it was so speculative, conclusory or incoherent that OCR could not infer that discrimination had occurred. Id. § 108.

38. The 2015 Manual also provided that, if an investigation concluded that the preponderance of the evidence did not support a conclusion that the recipient had violated applicable law, OCR would issue a letter of findings explaining the reasons for its decision. 2015 Manual § 303. The 2015 Manual stated that “OCR affords an opportunity to the complainant to appeal” such a letter of findings to the Director of the Enforcement Office that issued the letter. 2015 OCR Manual §§ 303(a) and 306.

39. The appeal process of the Manual was also left untouched with no limits to the number of pages an appeal needs to be along with the only agency and/or person who rules on the appeal is OCR Headquarter; mainly the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Enforcement; in this case, currently Mr. Randolph Wills, (See Page 8 of the OIG Complaint against Kenneth Marcus filed by multiple civil right organizations).<sup>11</sup>

The unique handling of the ZOA appeal decision is also reflected in its outcome. Of those 183 appeals resolved between September 29, 2014, and August 27, 2018, by OCR’s Deputy Assistant Secretary for Enforcement, only two were reopened (on April 12, 2013, and April 18, 2013).<sup>20</sup> Indeed, if one considers an even broader time period of almost six years (from December 11, 2012, to November 5, 2018) in which 743 appeals were resolved by OCR’s Deputy Assistant

40. In March 2018 under the leadership of Kenneth Marcus, OCR issued a new “U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights, Case Processing Manual.” The Introduction to the 2018 OCR Manual states:

41. The Case Processing Manual (CPM) provides OCR with the procedures to promptly and effectively investigate and resolve complaints, compliance reviews, and directed investigations to ensure compliance with the civil rights laws and regulations enforced by OCR.

42. 2018 OCR Manual, Introduction. Upon information and belief, the 2018 Manual replaces the 2015 OCR Manual.

43. Unlike the 2015 OCR Manual, dismissal is mandatory §108(t), and there is no requirement that the previous complaints have been found to be without merit, or even that the undefined “pattern” involves the same or similar allegations.

44. The first change (“Rule Change 1”) means that, as of March 5, 2018, OCR will no longer investigate a claim of illegal discrimination if the claim is part of “a pattern” of complaints by an individual complainant against multiple recipients. “Pattern” is undefined and may cover as few as two complaints, involving different allegations against different entities over an unspecified period of time. This provision, as written, is not limited to those complaints that would place an “unreasonable burden” on OCR. Nor is this provision limited to instances where the prior complaints were meritless.

45. This new restriction affects both individuals who have been subjected to more than one incident of illegal discrimination and organizations that represent individuals who cannot afford to bring claims on their own. The latter groups often submit claims over time for multiple individuals against multiple recipients. These groups include entities like Plaintiffs, civil rights advocates and attorneys, and the Protection and Advocacy systems, which are federally authorized and funded to pursue administrative, legal and other claims of discrimination on behalf of individuals with disabilities under 54 U.S.C. § 15043, 29 U.S.C. § 3004, and 42 U.S.C. § 10803-07.

46. According to the language of §108(t) of the 2018 OCR Manual, such entities will be blocked from bringing multiple claims on behalf of their multiple constituents. Because DOE provided no opportunity for notice and comment. In addition, the 2018 Manual precludes any civil right organization and/or individuals from bringing a single complaint against multiple recipients (even if those recipients acted together), if OCR, in its sole judgment, and on the basis of unknown factors, decides that investigating would place an undefined “unreasonable burden” on OCR’s resources (“Rule Change 2”).

47. These two distinct and substantive changes mean that, as of March 5, 2018, OCR has unilaterally eliminated a right of claimants that was created by the DOE’s regulations and maintained in prior Case Processing Manuals: the right to have one’s claim of discrimination investigated if it indicates a possible failure to comply with federal civil rights laws. Rule Changes 1 and 2 to the 2018 OCR Manual were arbitrary, capricious, and not in accordance with law.

48. In addition to adding § 108(t), DOE made a third change that eliminated complainants’ right to appeal OCR findings of insufficient evidence (“Rule Change 3”).

49. The 2015 OCR Manual included a right for complainants to appeal OCR decisions to close their complaints for lack of evidence. In the 2018 OCR Manual, DOE eliminated the entire “Appeals” section. There is no provision in the 2018 OCR Manual offering an appeal or reconsideration of an OCR determination not to pursue a claim of discrimination. The appeal right was eliminated without notice and comment and without any stated rationale to support it.

50. None of the three 2018 OCR Manual rule changes is merely an interpretative rule, a general statement of policy, or a rule of agency organization, procedure, or practice. All the changes shift and affect rights and interests of complainants, and make substantive changes to prior rules. Therefore, all three changes were required to be subject to notice and comment under the APA.

51. DOE did not comply with the federal APA rule-making procedures set out in 5 U.S.C. Chapter 5, §§ 551, et seq., before issuing the 2018 OCR Manual. The proposed 2018 OCR Manual was not published in the Federal Register, nor were public comments on the proposal sought, received, or considered, prior to the 2018 OCR Manual’s adoption. The public did not have an opportunity for notice and comment before the Manual was adopted and put into effect.

52. After a public uproar and litigation, OCR backtracked by amending their manual and re-opened all dismissed complaints.<sup>12</sup> However, again without any published notice in the Federal Register, comments and discussion on the regulation, Office for Civil Rights has done two things to the manual under both the Trump’s and the Biden’s cabinet leaderships; OCR August 26, 2020 Manual and January 19, 2021 the IHRA definition.

(A) Weakening the appeal process by limiting the appeal to 10 page double space with no time frame provided to rule on the appeal, and without mentioning who rules on the appeal, yet the appeal is asked to be mailed to OCR headquarter address; never to any regional offices. The appeal procedure is written in a way that is vague, unclear, and provides no time frame for ruling on the appeal; rendering due process rights an illusion. The appeal procedure is written in a way which makes the appeal process a never independent process but rather it relays on pleasing the Masters who rules over a federal building i.e., Office For Civil Rights; here due process was denied again for many; equity and equality was denied for many as well (“Rule Change 4”); and

(B) Without any notice published in the Federal Register or public comments, or even congress adopting such definition, Office for Civil Rights adopted the IHRA definition, first by Kenneth Marcus himself when he granted Zoa’s appeal under the definition without congress intent.<sup>13</sup> And later OCR continued and enforced the IHRA definition under the leadership of Suzanne Goldberg under the Biden’s administration (both

Kenneth Marcus and Suzanne Goldberg are Jews); a definition which makes the Jewish people superior in every way compare to the Gentiles (“Rule Change 5”).<sup>14</sup>

C A DEEPER INSIGHT INTO THE IHRA DEFINITION & OTHER DEFINITIONS

53. The IHRA definition was a definition used by the U.S. Department of State and later in expanded form by the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance, the definition itself was nothing more than a way of using soft power to influence other countries, it never allowed the Jewish people to gain hearts of multitudes.

54. The IHRA definition was only a foreign policy used for the purpose of foreign affairs to benefit Israel but it was never a definition to be used domestically because the United States of America are guided by the U.S. Constitution and more important the founding fathers envisioned America to be build on the teachings of Jesus Christ (see Doctrines of Jesus Compared with Others, 21 April 1803).<sup>15</sup>

55. Directing federal agencies to rely on this framework in enforcing Title VI would effectively order nearly every campus in the country to censor its students and faculty on the basis of viewpoints — in this case, and when it came to Plaintiff’s protected rights, it wasn’t just protected speech that was violated but IHRA showed that Jewish supremacy created an environment of injustice that the Jewish lobby wanted to censor, ECF No. 9 Am. Compl. ¶¶ 10-12.

56. Following the same path of former President Donald J. Trump<sup>16</sup> and after the leaked videos of Secretary Kenneth Marcus infiltrating the Federal Government on behalf of Israel.<sup>17</sup> Under the leadership of President Joseph Biden, in a letter dated February 23, 2021 to the president of the American Zionist Movement (ZOA), Secretary of State Tony Blinken declared: “The Biden Administration enthusiastically embraces the 2016 International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance’s Working Definition of Anti-Semitism, including its examples.”<sup>18</sup>

57. Kenneth Marcus in his first move after he gained the position for Secretary of OCR approved personally Zoa’s appeal under OCR 2015 Manual; Zoa is a register foreign lobby for Israel.<sup>19</sup> Kenneth Marcus granted ZOA’s appeal under the IHRA definition without congress intent violating Title VI and the equal protection clause by enforcing a definition that is exclusive for the Jewish people, ECF No. 9 Am. Compl. ¶¶ 70-79

58. Kenneth Stern, the primary author of the IHRA definition, wrote in The New York Times to remind both lawmakers and the public that the definition “was intended for data collectors writing reports about anti-Semitism in Europe. It was never supposed to curtail speech on campus.”<sup>20</sup> I drafted the definition of anti-Semitism, Rightwing Jews are weaponizing it, see Kenneth Stern article on the Guardian.<sup>21</sup>

59. One of the main troubling examples of the IHRA definition is to claim that if a Gentile claims Jews killed Jesus Christ, then he or she is an anti-Semite. In here, there is only one verse from the Old Testament that answers a Jewish Heart, ECF No. 9 Am. Compl. ¶¶ 72-73.

Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth, for the Lord has spoken; Children I have raised and exalted, yet they have rebelled against Me. An ox knows his owner and a donkey his master's crib; Israel does not know, my people does not consider [Isaiah 1:2-3].<sup>22</sup>

60. The IHRA definition was used to provide Jewish students with special protection and superiority over the Gentiles, and it was clearly portrayed in Plaintiff’s case, a Coptic student when he was discriminated against by a set of Jewish people, not only did the Plaintiff faced egregious discrimination and retaliation in law school but by OCR officials, Kenneth Marcus himself is one of many examples ECF No. 9 Am. Compl. ¶¶ 80-93.

61. In a letter to former President Donald J Trump and congress, Plaintiff in his 3rd letter dated March 21, 2019 asked for congress to adopt a universal definition for the word “Evil” in order for the eyes to see better. And again in Plaintiff’s 15th letter dated October 13, 2019, he reiterate to former President Donald J. Trump and Congress that they need to adopt a universal definition for the term “Evil.” See Exhibit 2.

62. Plaintiff times and times again warned against the use of the IHRA definition explaining that it is bringing more hate than good to the Jewish people and many will ask “Why the Jews?” Indeed, today we see Muslims are asking congress for that same definition under the banner of “Islamophobia.”

- US moves forward with bill to create an Islamophobia monitor.<sup>23</sup>
- Islamophobia and anti-Semitism controversies dominate Congress.<sup>24</sup>

63. The same is true for the Muslim Lobby through Saudi Arabia, fearing the truth regarding the nature of Muhammad, a false prophet, after reading Plaintiff’s letters to congress, they tried to lobby for a definition for Islamophobia; learning from the Jewish lobby to ask for the same.

Dear XXXX,

We all stand together in a common cause rejecting hate and bigotry. We commend the tireless activism from organizations like the American Jewish Committee (AJC) and the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) that have resulted in the decision from Facebook to ban all posts containing denial of the Holocaust. The has been but one of a flurry of new rules introduced by both Facebook and Twitter in recent months, purportedly designed to combat hate and bigotry on their platforms.

We all welcome these decisions, but with a tinge of regret that social media giants are not doing more to act on these policies. Despite new rules, both companies continue to provide platforms for purveyors of Islamophobic content to spread hateful and false characterizations of the Islamic faith and the more than 1.8 billion adherents worldwide.

Facebook and Twitter can and must do better. Both companies have expressed a new resolve to combat hate speech, fake news, and harmful content on their platforms, now is the time for them to follow through on these commitments.

We are launching a campaign to encourage Facebook and Twitter to finally clamp down on this hateful content in a meaningful way, and make sure those who spread it no longer have a home on these platforms. Attached you will find a social media toolkit, and you can read and sign our petition here <http://chnq.it/ZNrLrvYr6m>.

We ask that you join us in this effort and commit to sharing the campaign materials with your members and partners. Please let us know if this is possible by Wednesday, February 3, we look forward to hearing from you at your soonest convenience.

“I came to complete not to refute. I came light to the World.” Jesus Christ

64. Plaintiff’s 3rd letter to President Joseph Biden, Federal Officials, and Congress, he explained the history behind Muhammad in details, See ECF No. 9 Am. Compl ¶ 9 Exhibit G pages 21-32.

65. Plaintiff further explained how Muhammad married two Jewish wives and his last wife was a Coptic through killing of their husbands or slavery, and how Muhammad was poisoned by a Jewish female figure named “Zaynab bint Al-Harith” in 628 Ad and he died by poison.<sup>25</sup>

“O 'Aisha! I still feel the pain caused by the food I ate at Khaibar, and at this time, I feel as if my aorta is being cut from that poison” Muhammad’s last words Sahih Bukhari 5:59:713

66. Both the Muslim lobby and the Jewish lobby, one through Saudi Arabia wants to hide the truth behind Muhammad so they lobbied to create a definition for Islamophobia; while the Jewish Lobby through Israel wanted to hide the truth that Jews asked for Jesus Christ to be crucified in exchange of Barabbas and they too lobbied to create a definition for anti-Semitism.

67. Plaintiff seeks for this court to put an end to this chaos that will bring hate and confusion to America. This case does not only affect the Plaintiff alone but many students as they will all be subject to the same definition, IHRA.

68. DOE’s action in adopting the changes to OCR Manual is final. DOE’s action in adopting the IHRA definition is final. There is no other remedy for this injury except suit in federal court and a certification of the class action lawsuit. Unless a fair and just settlement is reached.

D. FACTS CONCERNING NAMED PLAINTIFF: MARK BOCHRA

69. The asked question and the real answer to it is that the Federal Government cannot say “Jews discriminated against a Coptic” the subject politically becomes a taboo by nature for many. Hence the option that is always presented to federal officials is “destroy this case by any means.”

70. Plaintiff Mark Bochra enrolled in a Jurist Doctor degree at Florida Coastal School of law (FCSL) starting in the year 2014 (summer program called Ample) then continued with an official admission in the year of 2015. See Exhibit 2 Declaration of Mark M. Bochra (Bochra Decl).

<sup>25</sup> See https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Zaynab\_bint\_Al-Harith and see <https://www.answering-islam.org/Silas/mo-death.htm>

“I came to complete not to refute. I came light to the World.” Jesus Christ

71. Plaintiff, Mark Bochra, experienced a chain of discriminatory and retaliatory events at Florida Coastal School of Law and the truth became a burden first for the evil for-profit law school leadership and later for OCR senior leadership; all involved perpetrators were Jews.

72. Former Secretary Kenneth Marcus attempted to destroy Plaintiff’s case more than once by allowing the manual to be applied differently on the Plaintiff compared to the respondent/recipient i.e., Florida Coastal School of Law. Every time the truth came out, OCR hated the truth and attempted to destroy the Plaintiff’s case by enforcing the manual differently on the Plaintiff compare to the recipient i.e., Florida Coastal School of Law; See ECF No. 9 Am. Compl Exhibit B letter to Kenneth Marcus.

74. Initially Plaintiff’s case was handled by Secretary Candice Jackson, who instructed Deputy Enforcement Director Randolph Wills by saying “I need this case to be handled properly” The case initially was handled by OCR headquarter and OCR Atlanta Director Melanie Velez, however, the manual kept getting violated face on and applied differently on the Plaintiff while pleasing the recipient; Florida Coastal School of Law.

75. Senator Richard Durbin who is currently the Chair of the Senate Judiciary Committee wrote letters to the Department of Education and OCR seeking a clear response to the pending status of the Plaintiff’s Complaint. However, Melanie Velez continued delay and excuses are shown through her 3 identical responses to Senator Durbin’s office; See ECF No. 9 Am. Compl Exhibit C.

76. Until, it came the day during Covid19 lock down when Melanie Velez saw it was her best opportunity to retaliate against the Plaintiff by tempering with witnesses and the evidence and issued a one side finding; destroying completely Plaintiff’s file and produced evidence; something the Plaintiff told her over the phone that she will do a year before her taken action. Plaintiff also pleaded via e-mail to Secretary Betsy DeVos chief of staff for OCR not to retaliate; but the senior leadership at OCR i.e., Kenneth Marcus was evil at its core.

77. In a summary, Plaintiff’s Complaint went from: OCR for nearly 2 years negotiating a resolution with a stubborn recipient to a dismissal rather than pass Plaintiff’s case to the Justice Department for prosecution pursuant to the Manuel section 305 and 602; which

Melanie Velez is very much aware of and discussed it with the Plaintiff over one of many phone conversations.<sup>26</sup>

Section 305 states the following in part:

When following the expiration of the 30 calendar day period or the 10 calendar day period referenced in CPM subsection 303(b) and the issuance of a letter of finding(s), the recipient refuses to make a commitment to voluntarily resolve the identified areas of noncompliance, OCR will prepare a Letter of Impending Enforcement Action. . . To resolve the case after issuance of the Letter of Impending Enforcement Action, any resolution agreement that the recipient proposes must be approved by OCR.

78. Florida Coastal School of Law refused to agree to OCR resolution agreement which OCR spent more than a year trying to negotiate with the recipient, while stopping the investigation and allowing the recipient to disperse most of the witnesses from the school including most of the Plaintiff’s law school professors; this was a clear violation of section 302 which only provided OCR with a 30 days to negotiate a resolution compare to a year. The next appropriate step was for OCR to refer the case to DOJ for prosecution or a resolution; see section 602 of OCR Manual.<sup>27</sup>

When post-Letter of Impending Enforcement Action negotiations do not result in a resolution agreement, OCR will where appropriate, issue a letter to the recipient stating that the case will be referred to DOJ in 10 days from the date of the letter.

79. Several individuals inside the Department of Education tried to help the Plaintiff like the Communication Director Edgar Mayes, however, the leadership of Kenneth Marcus was too corrupt, wicked, and evil; See ECF No. 9 Am. Compl Exhibit D the 20th letter to former President Trump; explains in detail some of the chain of events which took place concerning the Defendant, DOE.

80. Office for Civil Rights violated their own case processing manual, applied a different set of rules on the Plaintiff compare to another and caused injustice everywhere in the way they handled many complaints by enforcing the federal civil right laws unequally. Here OCR failed its mission in becoming the gate keeper of protecting the civil rights of all students.

The mission of the Office for Civil Rights is to ensure equal access to education and to promote educational excellence throughout the nation through vigorous enforcement of civil rights, sic.<sup>28</sup>

81. Plaintiff as an individual who has been or is being injured by the Defendants’ failure to comply with the requirements of Chapter 5 of the federal APA. Defendants continued modification to the OCR Manuel without public notice and comments in the Federal register, is clearly shown when the appeal process was violated by OCR when handling the Plaintiff’s appeal. In part, the Defendants did the following:

- a) Any appeal is handled and ruled by OCR HQ i.e., the Deputy Enforcement director. In one of its kind, Defendants redirected another regional office, OCR Dallas to rule on the Plaintiff’s appeal.
- b) OCR Dallas through a series of trials to destroy Plaintiff’s appeal, sought from him to rewrite his appeal by complying with a 10 page double space, in order to destroy as many evidence produced within the appeal. The Plaintiff complied with OCR Dallas demand by producing a 10 page double space appeal.
- c) OCR Dallas refused to rule on the appeal, sending it back to OCR Atlanta based on Mr. Gregory McGhee own words to the Plaintiff “Mark if we find that OCR Atlanta mishandled your complaint, we will send the case back to them.”
- d) After Defendants received a copy of Plaintiff’s letters to President Biden and Congress; letter 1 and letter 2. Secretary Suzanne Goldberg redirected OCR Dallas to respond to the Plaintiff, however, in the response, it showed a new name added onto the e-mail Aaron Romine without stating at that time who is Aaron Romine; Jewish name that is.
- e) Finally, Defendants retaliated against the Plaintiff by denying the appeal without any justification or proper explanation. Furthermore, the appeal denial was written by Aaron Romine who claimed to be the Acting Director of OCR Dallas; however, Aaron Romine was always the director of OCR Denver.<sup>29</sup> See ECF No. 9 Am. Compl Exhibit E. Here, the Defendants brought in another director from another regional office to discriminate and retaliate against the Plaintiff; putting an end to 5 year saga of injustice by continuing to deny justice.

<sup>29</sup> See Aaron Romine LinkedIn profile for 10 years being OCR Denver Director <https://www.linkedin.com/in/j-aaron-romine-58721316>

“I came to complete not to refute. I came light to the World.” Jesus Christ

In a bounced back auto e-mail, it shows to this day Aaron Romine is OCR Denver Director

What was said via e-mails was never their intention, for many years it was like that.

82. Defendants continued arbitrary and capricious behavior have not just injured the Plaintiff but many other Plaintiffs as well; see “Department of Education is stalling Complaints against race, sex segregation” citing OCR Denver as the worst of all OCR regional offices.<sup>30</sup>

<sup>30</sup> See <https://thevirginiastar.com/2021/04/29/department-of-education-is-stalling-complaints-against-race-sex-segregation-critics-say/>

“I came to complete not to refute. I came light to the World.” Jesus Christ

“The Denver OCR is a notoriously bad actor, much worse than any other regional office from my experience (and others),” University of Michigan-Flint economist Mark Perry wrote in an email to Just the News, sic.

83. After Plaintiff’s first letter to President Biden and Congress, Catherine Lhamon was nominated that same day to take charge of Office for Civil Rights, in a hope of bringing reforms to OCR. However, can a new Secretary bring reforms to OCR while neglecting injustice committed by OCR predecessors? ‘Urgent as it ever has been’: Biden pick says she’ll rebuild civil rights office at critical time.<sup>31</sup>

E. A NEW LEADERSHIP TAKES THE BATTON

84. On October 20, 2021, the senate confirmed Catherine E. Lhamon to be the assistant Secretary for the U.S. Department of Education.<sup>32</sup>

85. In a press release, Secretary Cardona stated “All students deserve access to safe, supportive schools, and classrooms” He added “Discrimination and use of exclusionary discipline can negatively impact students’ abilities to learn, grow, and thrive”<sup>33</sup>

An Education Department spokesman said that Lhamon declined to comment during her confirmation process. In line with Biden’s executive order on advancing racial equity, the Education Department is “exploring ways that states, schools and communities can help close” racial disparities in school discipline.

“All students deserve access to safe, supportive schools and classrooms,” Education Secretary Miguel Cardona said in a press release. “Discrimination and use of exclusionary discipline can negatively impact students’ abilities to learn, grow and thrive.”

“I came to complete not to refute. I came light to the World.” Jesus Christ

86. On paper, Secretary Cardona promised a change, a change that brings solace and rescue to students who suffered this sort of fate, let alone being framed and setup by a law school in the most egregious manner; a law school that no longer exists but it shut down for good because it was evil.<sup>34</sup>

F. PLAINTIFF PRESENTED SIMILAR CLAIMS TO OTHER CLASSES THAT COURTS HAVE CERTIFIED

87. At bottom, this matter is comparable to other cases seeking to compel agency action and where Courts have certified a class. Most telling is Jiahao Kuang v. United States Dep't of Def. There, a class of lawful permanent residents brought claims under APA, including one under § 706(1), seeking to compel the Department of Defense to make a determination as to whether they could access into the military (enlist) and ship to basic training. 340 F. Supp. 3d 873, 891 & 908-09 (N.D. Cal. 2018), order clarified sub nom. Kuang v. United States Dep't of Def., No. 18-cv-03698-JST, 2019 WL 718632 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 20, 2019), vacated on other grounds, Jiahao Kuang v. United States Dep't of Def., No. 18-17381, 2019 WL 2847079 (9th Cir. July 2, 2019). The Department was delaying accession because it had adopted a policy requiring more intensive security investigations of the class members. Ultimately, class members sought to compel the Department to start making these determinations, and the Court recognized that the claim turned on whether a uniformly applied department policy was lawful. The Court found that Rules 23(a) & (b) were satisfied and certified the class. Id.; see also Am. Council of the Blind v. Astrue, No. C 05-04696 WHA, 2008 WL 4279674, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 11, 2008) (Alsup, J.) (certifying class of blind individuals asserting that the SSA must provide alternative forms of communication to allow them to have equal access to participate in SSA programs); Viet. Veterans of Am. v. C.I.A., 288 F.R.D. 192 (N.D. Cal. 2012) (certifying class of veterans asserting, among other claims, one under the APA seeking to compel the Department to provide class members certain notice and to provide them healthcare).

88. In this case, Students are likewise seeking to compel the Department to make a determination on their appeals by applying the adopted 2015 manual that went through comments in the federal register, and the government is similarly withholding or arbitrator denying a decision under a different manual; OCR August 26, 2020 Manual and January 19, 2021 the IHRA definition because of a common policy or practice (that is arbitrary and capricious). The case similarly turns on “the validity of” the Department’s “policy” of refusing to grant or deny appeals under the proper manual, “which applies equally on a class wide basis.” Kuang, 340 F. Supp. 3d at 891. As in Kuang, whether the Department’s inaction in this case “is valid, and the scope of Plaintiffs’ entitlement to relief, if any, are questions eminently capable of class wide resolution.” Id. (citation omitted). Accordingly, the Court should certify the proposed class and subclass.

IV. ALTERNATIVELY, THE COURT SHOULD STAY A DECISION ON THIS MOTION PENDING CLASS DISCOVERY

89. Plaintiff believes that evidence subject to judicial notice—accompanying this filing or otherwise—warrants class treatment in this case. But, if the Court disagrees, Plaintiffs request that the Court delay judgment on class certification and permit limited class discovery.

90. Trial courts have wide discretion to permit class discovery, Vinole v. Countrywide Home Loans, Inc., 571 F.3d 935, 942 (9th Cir. 2009), particularly where plaintiffs demonstrate “that discovery is likely to produce substantiation of the class allegations.” Manolete v. Bolger, 767 F.2d 1416, 1424 (9th Cir. 1985). In such cases, “the better and more advisable practice for a District Court to follow is to afford the litigants an opportunity to present evidence as to whether a class action [is] maintainable.” Vinole, 571 F.3d at 942 (internal citation omitted). See Twombly, 550 U.S. at 593 n.13 (Stevens, J., dissenting) (stating that a district court’s “case-management arsenal” can limit the burdens associated with discovery). The Chief Judge of the Seventh Circuit has severely questioned judges’ ability to manage discovery. Easterbrook, supra note 1, at 638 (“Judges can do little about impositional discovery when parties control the legal claims to be presented and conduct the discovery themselves.”); see also Robert G. Bone, Twombly, Pleading Rules, and the Regulation of Court Access, 94 IOWA L. REV. 873, 878 (2009) [hereinafter Bone, Twombly] (“[T]he Twombly Court is correct to question the efficacy of case-specific discretion.”).

91. Here, Plaintiff and those in a similar situation have alleged that the Department has uniformly refused to decide appeals under the adopted 2015 OCR manual that went through register and public comments in the federal register. Furthermore, the Department refused to vacate and nullify the IHRA definition. Discovery would further crystallize the degree to which the Department has formalized these practices and would thus speak to commonality and typicality. Furthermore, discovery aimed at the precise number of subclass members, along with discovery shedding light on the Department’s policy of refusing to grant or deny appeals under the proper adopted 2015 OCR manual pending ongoing litigation, would be relevant to certification of the proposed sub-class.

“I came to complete not to refute. I came light to the World.” Jesus Christ

V. CONCLUSION

92. Given Plaintiff’s nature of this motion and to preserve the ability to formally brief a class certification motion after Plaintiff has had an ample opportunity to conduct a full discovery and investigation, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court stay its ruling on class certification until the issue has been fully briefed pursuant to an appropriate scheduling order entered by this Court.

93. When appropriate, Plaintiff requests that this Honorable Court refer the case to a magistrate judge to conduct discovery procedure and assist in finding the truth in this public matter class action lawsuit.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order: (1) certifying this case as a class action pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a), 23(b), and 23(C)(5); (2) appointing Plaintiff as the representative of the Class; and (3) for any further relief the Court deems just and proper.

If OCR leadership is evil, and he said you have no more remedies, Aaron Romine, who says ? A man or God ? So now a Judge can look at both sides and see the difference between good vs evil. You see this is not to judge but to help you reform. I am very certain DOJ will try to use as many excuses as they can, they did the same with Betsy Devos, but it won't help them, what will help them is to take a step back and reform.

These are not your typical letters, they are one of a kind, the letter first goes to God then to mankind. That is how you saw many prophecies in them came to pass. So, my 3rd letter has many prophecies and holds many understanding for the good hearts. I know to many this sounds strange but i have proven to you that what was written came to pass:

- 2.Covid19

<https://i.imgur.com/L4vRmjQ.png>

<https://i.imgur.com/1MVDd5e.png>

And if you still doubt, read the 3rd letter: Blessed are the eyes which see the things you see; for I tell you that many prophets and kings have desired to see what you see, and have not seen it, and to hear what you hear, and have not heard it [Luke 10:23-24].

Part of my email to DOJ Senior Leadership:

No one lights a lamp and covers it with a bowl. Instead, they put it on a stand, so that those who come in can see the light. Whatever is hidden away will be brought out into the open, and whatever will be covered up will be found and brought out to light. Therefore, take heed how you hear. For whoever has, to him more will be given; and whoever does not have, even what he seems to have will be taken from him [Luke 8:16-18]. <https://youtu.be/0feZQkHbCkM?t=2712>
