Dear Alberto,

Please see below. I've now approved (b) (6). So we will have 13 recommendations approved by the front office as of the end of today. We may, for the reasons explained below, have to make additional offers if any of the offers is turned down.

Hi Pam,

Yes, that is what my tracking shows as well. And yes, I will send you one more recommendation today. Clearly, we cannot control whether folks will accept, and I just don't have a great sense of whether everyone will accept or not.

So as it stands:

Seven acceptances ((b) (6))

Two offers outstanding on which we have not heard back (b) (6)

One pending with HR on the anti-nepotism paperwork before we can make the offer (b) (6)

Two pending in the front office before we can do the anti-nepotism paperwork to make the offers ((b) (6)) and (b) (6) NOTE TO ALBERTO: THESE TWO CAN NOW BE MOVED INTO THE "ONE PENDING WITH HR ..." CATEGORY.

One more to be sent to the front office.

Please let me know what else we can do to assist.

Thanks, Chris

Dear Chris,

With the (b) (6) recommendations, plus the two Honors hires, I come up with 12 of the 13. Am I right? If so, will I be getting another one today?

See below.

Thanks,

Pam

Great. Thanks so much. Please let me know if there is any change in plans as soon as you can, as we'd have to alert the WH. I hope you had a nice weekend!

Dear Alberto,

Thanks for the update. I will check with Chris to make sure we're hitting the goal. I know that we've planned to do it.

Take care,

Pam

Hi Pam,

Peter tried to reach Lee to convey the plan we discussed, but Lee was out on Friday. We plan to confirm it on Monday and I'll call you with any details.

FYI, I believe the President may confirm in his voting speech next week (or in a fact sheet) that we have doubled the size of the enforcement staff doing voting work, as the AG promised. I believe you stated that (b) (5)

I hope you are enjoying the weekend.
