Mr. Scolinos,

Thank you for your request to the Office of the Minnesota Secretary of State (OSS). Please see response below.

1. Any existing aggregate statistics, reports, summaries, datasets, or other compilations reflecting the use of vouching (by registered voters generally or by residential facility employees) to verify residence for Election Day Registration ("EDR") or to update of voter registration information on election day under Minn. Stat. § 201.061 Subd. 3, including documents and communications sufficient to show the following:
 - a. Statewide total number of EDR voters who used the following vouching methods in aggregate, and broken down by the following:
 - general registered voter vouching
 - i. General registered voter vouching
The OSS does not record or maintain data on vouching method (i.e. residential facility staff vs. registered voter). No data responsive.
 - ii. residential facility staff vouching
See response to part 1. a. No data responsive.

Please see Attachment A for state-level vouching numbers.

- b. Statewide total number of voters updating their voter registration information on election day who used the following vouching methods in aggregate, and broken down by each vouching method:
 - i. general registered voter vouching
See response to part 1. a. No data responsive.
 - ii. residential facility staff vouching
See response to part 1. a. No data responsive.

the second column in Attachment B.

- c. Total number of EDR voters who used vouching by residential facility staff at each individual residential facility, including facility name/address where available
No data responsive.
- d. The number of EDR voters for each precinct who used the following vouching methods in aggregate, and broken down by the following:
i. general registered voter vouching
ii. residential facility staff vouching
No data responsive.
- e. The number of voters updating their voter registration information on election day for each precinct who used the following vouching methods in aggregate, and broken down by the following:
i. general registered voter vouching
ii. residential facility staff vouching
No data responsive.
2. All certified lists of residential facility employees authorized to vouch, submitted in advance to county election offices (as described in Secretary of State guidance), including:
a. The full lists themselves (with employee names and facility details)
b. Any associated records indicating the date of submission for each list
No data responsive.
3. All lists provided on Election Day at polling places on residential facility letterhead, certifying staff authorized to vouch for residents, including:
a. The full lists or documentation presented (with employee names, facility details, and required certification language)
b. Any records of when or at which polling places these were provided
No data responsive.
4. All lists of educational institutions submitting lists pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 135A.17.
No data responsive.
5. All communications, documents, or reports about new voter registration applications, including records relating to vouching, submitted on Election Day for which the information therein could not be verified, including records of rejected/denied applications.
No data responsive.
6. All communications about reports received about apparently fraudulent, suspicious, potentially unlawful, or criminal activity related to vouching. This request includes all such reports received, as well as later internal and external communications about those reports.
No data responsive.

Respectfully,
Lauren Bethke
General Counsel
